TAX PAYMENTS TO HIGHEST OFF-YEAR MARK

Poll taxes and first-year licenses already on record with exemptions, figures are not yet complete, but it is estimated that the total vote of Upton County will be 1600 this year. This figure was reported by tax officials as a year qualification for a breakdown of pre-changes in strength is available and is expected to be ready next month.

There were 1382 paid poll taxes and first-year votes with exemptions, which are now being counted.

The office also stated that 1961 car tags are now being moving well. Here

Rankin Golf Club Opens Drive For New Members

The Directors of the Rankin Golf Club stated this week that the organization has opened a drive for new members as work has been halted early in the season due to wet weather and as a result it is felt that immediately enable a resumption of work.

Members have pointed out that the membership drive is not being started just to help work on in Upton County, more car, truck and trailer licenses are sold each year than are poll taxes.

Last year's total license sales are near the 3720 mark, according to the tax office.

NEW JUDGE HOLDS 1ST HOME SESSION

On Wednesday morning, February 8, Steve Preslar, the first Upton County District Judge since Jim Langdon held the office some time back, will open his first home session of court in the 112th District. Originally scheduled to begin Monday, February 6, the grand jury was notified of the two-day postponement due to the heavy snow.

Also making his first appearance in six years on the home front as county attorney will be John A. Menefee.

Connell Ashley of Fort Stockton, is the District Attorney in the 112th District Court.

Jurors who have been called for the grand jury are Orval Jones, Curtis Thomas, Lee Shipman, Mrs. J. B. Hutchens, Bodine Brazilton, Mrs. Margie Lancaster, Hamp Carter, Owen Hanks, Sam Bean, Jr., Shankel Bloxom, DeWayne Lindsey, Mrs. Martha McDonald, Robert Benoit, Mrs. Vacie Grimm, J. W. C. Hayes and John W. Bramlett.

Indications were that there would be little on tap for the grand jury to look into.

Also Wins Praise For Good Conduct --

Red Devil Band Takes Top Honors In Del Rio

Last Saturday, making their first effort at competition this year and their first appearance in contest as a Class A band, the Rankin Red Devil Band took all honors available at the Del Rio Band Festival held in the border city with some 700 students taking part. Rankin won first place trophies in sight reading, in concert playing and had a number of students selected to play in an all-star performance on Saturday night. No marching contests are held in the Del Rio Festival although a seven-teen-block parade was staged in which the Rankin group took part.

Also while in Del Rio, the students visited in Old Mexico and reportedly enjoyed themselves in other activities as well as winning two nice, new trophies for their collection. They returned home on Saturday night, arriving in Rankin at about 1:45 a.m. Sunday morning—having come from a spring-like outing at the Festival into a driving snow storm here at home.

Band Director Fred Prentice said that he was well pleased with the groups' performance and that a number of compliments were made by judges as to their perfection in their playing.

"Aside from their winning the first place honors, the Rankin students can be more than a little proud of themselves and their manner of conduct while visiting out-of-town," Prentice has said.

He stated that the motel which furnished accommodations for their over-night stay complimented the group highly on their fine conduct as did others who had occasion to witness the actions of the Rankin students.

"They were certainly a credit to their school," Prentice said.

In March, the Band will be in Brady for another round of competition. In past years, they have added trophies from this event, also.

FROSTY, MAN, FROSTY

With seventy degree weather on Saturday afternoon being followed with freezing rain by midnight, sleet, snow and freezing mist for the next three days, plus an 18-degree reading Tuesday morning, old timers are describing it as the "worst winter since '48".

That year, the temperature got as low as near zero and heavy icing conditions prevailed throughout the area. Telephone and power lines were broken, water pipes froze and burst and life was most miserable for about a week.

This week's weather followed a pattern that began back in December with cold and rain, was followed in January with more moisture, snow and only 3 nights during which the temperature did not drop below or near freezing, and the first two weeks of February which—so far—promise to be talked about for some time.

All this has given Rankin an estimated ten inches of snowfall—counting that which fell and melted—plus one of the best seasons in the ground in many a day.

Basketball Play Nears End For Rankin Teams

Friday and Saturday, both the Boys and Girls teams of Rankin High School will see action when far-off Fabens make their once-a-year basketball visit to Rankin. Games will start at 6:30 p.m. at the High School gym.

Both the Boys and Girls will see action each of the two nights against the Fabens teams.

Rankin and Fabens have an agreement whereby they will alternate their games with Rankin having gone to Fabens for football this year and Fabens coming here for basketball play. Next season, this will be reversed.

Then on Tuesday, February 14, basketball for Rankin High will end when the Boys and Girls go to Sanderson for their final district game. Although neither team has managed to win any district games, both have played rather well for the season and have given good accounts of themselves on a number of occasions.

The team with the most wins this year is the Girls Junior High which has tapped McCamey for five out of six games in their 8-game series which will come to a close here Thursday afternoon as the Rankin team hosts the McCamey squad.

SATURDAY WORKDAYS--

Beginning next Saturday, February 11, a work day will be held each Saturday at which time all (Continued to back page)

BACK IN HOSPITAL — D. S. Anderson, vice-president of the Rankin First State Bank, is back in the hospital in Fort Stockton. Anderson was injured when a horse fell on him during a hunting trip last deer season, breaking his ankle. Since that time, he has had trouble getting back on his feet.

THE SCOOP by Scoop

WHAT NEXT—

Seventy degrees Saturday afternoon and snowing at midnight—and ever since for 48 hours. What we should all do is write to the Bureau of Weather Regulation in Washington. You never heard of the Bureau of Weather Regulation? Neather did I but you must admit that that does not mean that we don't have one tucked away up there somewhere.

We are fortunate in one sense, however and that is the prediction made last fall by the United States Weather Bureau—no connection with the Bureau of Weather Regulation—that this was going to be a mild winter.

That's a lot like Cecil Merri-man said about the tax cuts: I don't know whether I can take much more of these mild winters.

SLICK SLIPPED—

For a good long while now, J. T. Rutherford has served as the Representative in Washington of the 16th Congressional District of Texas and has never been in any trouble to speak of here at home. Last week, however, probably at the insistence of Sam Rayburn—that protector of God, Mother, Country and Lyndon Johnson—Slick voted to pack the Rules Committee to please the Liberals. Naturally there are plenty of arguments on both sides of this question as to whether or not this or any other committee ought to be deliberately packed to give the edge to any group large or small. But in this case, the question got to the point of whether you was for or against the liberal social block. Slick decided that he was with them—despite his written assurance to numerous people in the district to the contrary.

Rutherford has always had his ear pretty close to the ground in West Texas but this time he slipped a notch. It's a long way off before his next election race but I'd venture to guess that Slick is going to have to come up with some mighty good promises between now and then to offset his about face on the question of how he decided to go against the majority of his constituents on the vote to pack the Rules Committee.

THEY WIN AGAIN—

Last week-end the Red Devil Band went to Del Rio and won everything but the bridge to A-cuna. This was their first outing in Class A competition and proved that they were ready for the move up in classification. There had been some thought that the new Class A competition might knock some of the shine off their outstanding record in competition but their Del Rio showing would tend to indicate that they are ready for all comers in their new and larger field.

And when it comes to picking tough competition, the speech and debate teams from Rankin High tied into the really big boys at the Tournament in Midland last week and, although they did not cop any titles, did mighty good by having a couple of second spots and got to the semi-finals with debating. When a school as small as Rankin can whip out some of those as large as Abilene, Amarillo and Lubbock, they either have some outstanding students or have some outstanding instructors.

I would personally guess that it is a combination of both—plus a school system that puts a good bit of emphasis on learning. After being in big league competition, this group promises to make a good showing in their own size league later in the year. You can watch for them to win high honors.

And it will be interesting to see what effect this competing in the bigger events has on their eventual accomplishments. For a long time it has been argued that football games ought to be scheduled against stronger competition in order to make the home league look a little easier. Some schools—notably Wink, make a regular practice nce in a while you run nething that has been or some time and which you just never had occasion with which to come in contact. Such was my experience recently when, during the passing of my father, we had more kinfolk at our house than we could put to bed.

Part of them went to the Western Motel to seek accomodations and when Mrs. Sheffield learned the circumstances, she would not hear to taking any pay for the use of her rooms. I now learn that she has offered this sort of help more than once to Rankin residents under similar circumstances. And the same can be said for the Al Turners at the Turner Motel.

It is a very nice jesture. It not only takes a burden off folks at such times, but it leaves a very good impression of Rankin's hospitality with the out-of-town residents—in my case, they were most impressed.

So on behalf of myself and the others who have received the benefits of this splendid jesture, we all extend overdue bouquets to the Western Motel and Turner Motel for a most considerate and kind act.

LITTLE COLONEL By Bob McKim

"Blessed are they that mourn... and it was that BIG!"

Heads you win! Tails you win!

"Some things are always a gamble. The toss of a coin, the fall of the cards, the spin of a wheel. And at times even the weather defies prediction. Fortunately, there need be no gamble where your community's future is concerned. Your town's tomorrow is not a matter of chance, it's what you and your fellow business men will make it.

Recently a large manufacturing concern opened a plant in a town of about 5,000 population, and upon its completion the local BCD gave a dinner for the officials. The president of the company was asked why his company had selected their town.

He told them frankly that they had sent out four men to inspect their town, together with four others in the same area, all with about the same facilities and natural resources, and the only reason their town was selected was on account of the attitude of the citizens toward their town, schools, churches, civic organizations, and especially their Board of City Development.

WHAT IS YOUR ATTITUDE TOWARD YOUR HOME TOWN?

Boost Rankin and it will be a better place in which to live and do business.

National Electrical Week

MAKE

WORK FOR YOU

ELECTRICITY, probably more than any other source of energy, has been responsible for the high standards of living enjoyed by millions of Americans today. The nation is more productive, healthier, wealthier, and more secure—thanks in large part to the number of tasks electricity performs.

Today's people live longer because electricity accomplishes the labor that formerly drained their strength and impaired their health. Mass production would be impossible without electricity. At the touch of a button or switch, electricity goes to work in factories, homes, on farms, on the land, in the air, and under the sea—doing the work of millions of people and enabling millions more to enjoy more ease and convenience than ever before. In medicine and in science, electricity enables man to study areas as yet unexplored. Today's children can look forward to a future in which electricity will make even greater contributions to their health, comfort and security.

Electricity stands ready to do even more in the way of improving the world in which we live, whether it is the world of business, science, medicine, research, entertainment. Electricity is ready to create more jobs and whole new industries. It is ready to take on increased tasks on the job, in homes, on farms and in factories. Electricity and its abilities are boundless—they need only to be called upon to serve. This is the electrical industry's message during National Electrical Week, a message to its own employees and to the public: MAKE ELECTRICITY WORK FOR YOU.
