Open House Slated At Scout Day Camp

Girl Scouts have issued an invitation to the public to attend an Open House at their day camp on the Norman Elrod property on Thursday evening, June 8 at 5 p.m. A winter program will be presented.

The camp, named Camp Elrod, is located about 2 miles East of the town house on a draw that provides a camping ground with trees and a covering of grass. A small steam bed runs thru the area and is filled with water following rains.

The Girl Scouts and others who have registered for the Summer Camp, will enjoy an outing that will consist of hand craft, camping routines, etc. They will live at the camp during that time and have always reported an enjoyable experience in the past.

"We want the local citizens to come out and see the Scouts at the camp and visit with them and learn more about the Girl Scouting program for Rankin," a committee member said this week.

Officers To Elect Meet Thursday

Officers of the Rankin Golf Club will meet Thursday night at the club house for the election and to hear reports of and cake will be served to those attending.

Work continues on the installation of grass green on the local course. Four greens are now being mowed and one was put in along with the old sand trap on Tuesday. Another was put in on Wednesday and still another is being made ready for next week. Water has been piped to all greens with the exception of two, located on the east side. Line for these is being laid and work has commenced on the pipe.

RANKINITES FATHER DIES IN CORSICANA

Funeral services will be held in Corsicana Thursday, June 8 for the father of Miss Myrtle Reed, Rankin elementary school teacher.

He died early this week after having been seriously ill. Miss Reed was with her father at the time of his passing.

Historical Society Sets Rankin Meet

The Upton County Historical Society will hold its next regular meeting on Tuesday, June 13 in Rankin.

Time will be at 7:30 p.m. in the Park Building. The general public is invited to attend.

WILL BE 12TH ANNUAL PERFORMANCE --

Rankin Ready To Host Kid Rodeo Friday-Saturday

Friday and Saturday will be Rodeo Time in Rankin.

By the time the big parade gets underway at the Rankin Park Building at 5 p.m. Friday, cowboys and cowgirls of all sizes will have moved into Rankin from all over West Texas and Eastern New Mexico. The parade, with floats, riders and assorted individuals, is to pass from the Park Building down 10th Street to Main, then South to Highway 67 and on out to the Rodeo Arena where the first night's action will get underway at 8 p.m.

The Saturday night show will also have an 8 o'clock starting time.

This will be the twelfth annual show for the Upton County 4-H Club. Started in 1949 by Bud Poage and Jimmy Yocham with only a handful of contestants and a few head of stock, the Upton County All-Kid Rodeo is now well established and action is always fast and plentiful. Both boys and girls compete in various events and competition is hard and fast in each event. Clowns also keep the show lively and provide ample side entertainment for spectators.

Workmen have been busy all week preparing the rodeo grounds and in addition to the regular bleacher seats at the arena, those from the baseball fields will be moved to provide seating for the audiences. A concession stand will be in operation both nights.

Events will feature calf roping, steer riding, hair pulling, barrel races, boot scrambles and many other events. Contestants will be divided into age groups and awards will be given to winners of the various events. In addition an all-round cowboy will be named. This winner is determined by the overall number of points he wins in the different contests and will be awarded a saddle.

Around 100 entries are expected according to county agent Dub Day and good, fresh stock is on hand to give contestants plenty of trouble.

The quarterhorse show, held for the first time last year in connection with the rodeo, was cancelled this year due to conflicting dates with two other horse shows in West Texas.

Friendly Feelings Prevail --

Oil Companies Meet With School on Budget

Although all was not peaches and cream when the Rankin Independent School Board met last Tuesday night with the oil company tax representatives, there was a general feeling of understanding displayed on both sides and agreements were reached on the proposed 1961-62 budget for Rankin Schools.

Oil company men expressed the feeling that oil values were down in the district at this time and that large expenditures by the school should be avoided at this time if at all possible. Howard Petty, representing Magnolia Oil Corp., the largest tax payer in the Rankin district, questioned the board closely on the athletic fund portion of the budget, a $12,600 item covering the entire athletic program for boys and girls, the band and literary and other events. He also spoke out against teacher salary raises.

The tax men did not find much question on the budget itself which comes to $484,835.00. They did have comments, however, on the proposed salary increase which would amount to $20,000 in Rankin if the Texas Legislature raises the base pay for teachers in the state. They also had comments on a $50,000 program being considered by the Board at this time. This item would include fencing of the playground across from the administration building for about $4,000, a new bus for around $8,000 playground equipment costing about $3,500, some $6,000 for renovation to the present football field which might include enlarging the visitors stands, building a band stand and repairing the present seating section, and a figure of around $30,000 for development of the area just west of the high school into an outside activities area which would include a track, baseball diamonds and similar items.

It was the opinion of most of the tax men that this portion of work, if carried out by the Board, (Continued to Page 5)

Education Bible School To Open 12th at Baptist Church

Bible School will open June 12 at the First Baptist Church in Rankin. It will run from 8 to 10 p.m. and is open to all in this area.

Teachers from the Dallas office of R. L. Shannon, it has been announced that a team of workers will be on hand to assist in the school. They are Miss McAnally and Miss Kaye Calvert.

Miss McAnally is from Hobbs, New Mexico and is a Music Education major at Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene. Miss Calvert is from Corsicana and is also a Music Education major and will be in San Marcos State College this fall.

There will be departments for all age groups from 3 through 16.

"All children in the above mentioned age groups are welcome to attend and we will be glad to have them," Rev. Shannon said.

At the same time, he pointed out that still more local workers are needed for the school and has asked that any who will assist call Mrs. Jack Smith, secretary, and state the department in which they prefer to work.

VACATION?—

"What'cha doin' back home so soon?" has been the question thus far this week and I remind readers that last week's column stated that we would be gone as long as the money lasted. That didn't take long.

Actually, it wasn't the money running out so much. When the fish down at the lake got so particular that they began demanding bait on the hook, the family and I got the wild notion to go down and look around Houston. We pulled in there at the Holiday Motel—which is the poor man's Shamrock; but one pass through the lobby convinced me that what they consider a poor man in Houston would make a pretty fair sized West Texas banker—I whipped out my trusty credit card and was immediately informed that it had expired two days before. Now that was downright embarrassing but just to prove to the city folks that us country boys came prepared, I shuffled around in an assortment of gas purchasing credit cards, old golf club membership cards, a pass to Longhorn Caverns, a recipe for a dandy punch, a press pass which did not impress even the bell boy and finally dug out an old dog eared $20 bill I had been saving to show to the kids when they got bigger. I offered that in payment for the night's lodging and immediately got the fishy eye from all the guests in the place. They even sent a chap along with us to escort us into our room. I guess they thought we were some sort of Freedom Rider bunch and did not want us associating with their other boarders.

Next day we tried a run on the free way. Now there's an experience. Having lived for some five years in San Antonio, I always considered 60-65 as a good driving speed on a crowded city street but it didn't take but a block or two to learn that those jokers are only jockeying for position at that speed.

We wanted to visit the San Jacinto battle ground and asked five of the natives for directions. Four of them had never heard of the place and the fifth give us directions which led us to the opposite side of town. We finally found the place and got there just in time to see it closed for the night.

I will say one thing for Houston, they grow more grass in the bar ditches in that country than there is in all of Upton County. I stopped in a couple of places to inspect what I thought were golf courses only to find out that I was in some guy's cow pasture.

A little of that place went a long way for us so we returned to the Highland Lakes and a very pleasant week-end of doing nothing in particular. It was interesting to note, however, some of the things that now go into making a modern cottage on the lake. First, down by the shore where the cool breezes blow, you must have a refrigerated air conditioner on your cabin. Then, to really go first class, you should stay at a place that has a swimming pool. Yep, with a zillion acre-feet of water right in the back yard, all the rage on the lakes resort places is a swimming pool. However, it's not a bad idea for it's a lot safer to stand around in a 2 by 4 swimming pool with a dozen other people than it is to get out in that lake swimming around with all those boats and jokers on water skies.

We also visited the State Capitol but did not see the Governor. I understand that he is still busy thinking up excuses as to why a Republican won the senate race.

In any case, I am now something of an authority on all sorts of antiques and old-west mementoes, to say nothing of all that genuine Indian pottery made in Japan and on sale in every place you stop as souvenirs.

ADULT SWIMMERS—

It seems that we have plenty of activities for the youth of the community and that's mighty good but I have been asked to say a few words on behalf of the adults in general and an adult swimming class in particular. There seems to be a fair number of folks who would be interested in this sort of thing.

Perhaps, if there are more who would like to have lessons, they might all get together and find out if an instructor could be provided. The News will offer its services for all who are interested and once the number is determined, it may be possible to take up the matter with those in charge of the Rankin pool and work out an arrangement.

HOSPITAL AUXILIARY—

It has also been called to my attention that the Ladies Auxiliary at the Rankin Hospital is doing a fine job. They all report that they enjoy working there and feel that they are performing a worthwhile task—to which everyone will likely agree.

The ladies do say, however, that they could use some more help on operating the coffee concession at the hospital and that they will welcome any volunteer help anyone is able to give.

Without question, this is a fine organization and one well worthy of consideration for anyone who would care to lend a hand could contact any of the ladies at the hospital for information.

Miss Disman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Dishman while James is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Scarborough. Both families live in Rankin.

LINDA CROW - JOHN SCOTT MOORE VOWS EXCHANGED SATURDAY NIGHT

Rev. R. L. Shannon, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Rankin, performed the ceremony on Saturday evening, June 3 uniting Miss Linda Crow and Mr. John Scott Moore in marriage.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Crow of Rankin and Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Moore of Ozona. Miss Crow is a 1961 graduate of Rankin High School and active in the Future Home Makers of America. She served as a member of the school newspaper staff and held various class offices. She was recipient of the Tri-County Council PTA scholarship and the American Legion Award and is a member of the National Honor Society. Mr. Moore is a graduate of Ozona High School and has attended Texas University and is now enrolled in Sul Ross College in Alpine.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white tulle gown with a fitted bodice, a scalloped neckline and long pointed sleeves. The bodice ended in a princess waistline with a white bow in front. The skirt was a full circle and was ballerina length. Her veil was of silk illusion and fell shoulder length from a crown of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white gardenias and stephanotis atop a white Bible. Karen Kleibrink of Waco was maid of honor and wore a pale green organza gown. Brent Moore of Ozona, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Douglas Moore and Art Kyle of Ozona. A reception followed the ceremony in the church annex. The table was laid with a white handmade cloth and centered with an arrangement of white carnations. Serving in the house party were Donna Moore of Ozona, sister of the bridegroom, Becky Crow of Albany, Nina Gayle and Marie Pettit of Rankin. For traveling, the bride wore a blue shantung suit with bone accessories. The couple will be at home at 810 N. 9th West Uvalde Ave. in Alpine where they will attend Sul Ross for the summer. Out-of-town guests were from Waco, Albany, Ft. Worth, Big Lake, Crane and Ozona. Mrs. John Fletcher of San Antonio is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Linton Clark. Mrs. Calla Henley has had as her recent guests, her son Pat, of Tularosa, N. M. and her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Hartsfield of Houston. Mrs. Hartsfield is a former teacher in Rankin schools. Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Windham have returned to their home in Houston after visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Mitchell.

FARM INTERPHONE—NEW TIME-SAVER FOR FARMERS

A practical new communications service will be introduced in July to help farmers get more things done without wear and tear on them or others in their families.

The farm interphone, a compact communications package will be available in July, should prove to be a real time-saver for hard-working farm families. It is designed to do three things for you who live and work on the farm.

The first thing it does is provide regular telephone service to the house, barn, other farm buildings and key outside areas. Just imagine how many hours and steps this will save a busy farmer and his family in a month.

Second, the farm interphone is hooked up with special loud-speakers that make it possible to answer the phone—inside—without interrupting your work. Outside calls may be answered without leaving the barn.

Third, the farm interphone is installed so that the sounds from farm buildings can be heard in the house at night. It's like a "nightwatchman" that tells you of any unusual activity—stock in need of attention, a pump or other equipment that act up, or even the start of a fire.

Every good farmer is a mighty busy man these days. And the farm interphone is designed to help him make the most of his time and energy. If you'd like to learn more about how the farm interphone can help you, just call the telephone business office in Rankin, or ask any telephone serviceman.

Tool Chest on Wheels

Let there isn't a housewife anywhere who hasn't found herself in a jam over an ingredient for a recipe she was preparing. Or, in any other matter, I wonder how many husbands have the right tool on hand when they want to fix a leaky faucet.

Men who install telephones avoid situations like these by having a full assortment of parts and tools right with them. These are really parts departments on wheels, stocked with everything you need for different items. They're prepared for every job when you call to install or repair service for you.

Ready for the unexpected is just part of our effort at Western Bell Telephone Company to make sure your service is as convenient and trouble-free as is humanly possible.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

holes begin as small later turn black or fall out.

Fruits have circular on the surface that and depressed. They or numerous, depending upon the amount of disease spores present as well as weather conditions. Cankers may develop on stems in the spring and summer and lower the vigor of the tree.

Bacteria that cause this disease are spread mostly by wind-blown rain. Infection becomes most severe during high moisture periods.
More damage may occur on the west side of trees because of slow drying dew. As a result of this infection premature loss of leaves occurs and results in further loss of vigor to the trees.

Bacterial spots can be effectivly controlled by applying fixed zinc sprays starting about 10 days after petal fall. Application should be continued at 2 week intervals during time of above average rainfall. These sprays should consist of 4 pounds of fixed zin in 100 gallons of water. Commonly used insecticides may be added to the spray.

Some varieties are more resistant than others. If this disease is a serious problem, you may wish to consider planting more resistant varieties. Be careful to select vigorous, healthy nursery stock that is free of disease. For further information contact your county agent and ask for the Extension publication MP-283,
