Gate receipts for that same period were $6,631.54 of which $6,295.09 of that amount was applied to the total expenses.

Another report pertained to the two school libraries shows that a total of 1727 circulations was made in the high school library in the 1960-61 term as compared with 697 the year before and a whopping big 3683 in the new junior high library from January of '61 to May as compared to 2037 for the entire prior year. This library was not put into full use until it was re-opened when the junior high building was renovated and occupied in January.

school students but would also be used by other grades for such things as track and outdoor ball play. The newly developed area just south of the administration building will be used by some of the primary students and by the junior high. Prior to this, some of the primary grades have had less playground area than they have classroom area and the junior high has had to use one tennis court for their outside activities.

Knob Hill, being also located adjacent to the high school gym, would solve the dressing room problem.

The Board has asked for comment by the public on this project.

The two women drove out to the race track area off the Iraan Highway Southeast of McCamey where they found Dukes and another man tending some horses they had just finished riding.

The two women questioned the men about the girl they were seeking but were told that they had not seen her. Dukes then is reported to have asked the women if they would like to go horseback riding and the 22-year-old woman accepted the suggestion, mounted one of the horses and started riding off down one of the dirt roads around the track area.

In her statement given to Menefee, she said that she had ridden a short distance when she heard another rider coming up behind her. It was Dukes and the woman stated that she immediately started back to where the other woman and man were sitting in the car. Dukes asked her wait until he lit a cigarette and stated that he would ride back with her. She stated that he then dismounted from his horse and as he did so, he pulled her from her mount and attempted to attack her.

The woman stated that she resisted his advances by kicking, scratching, biting and hitting him with a rock until he gave up and allowed her to return to her car. On the way back to the car, the woman stated that Dukes apologized.

the District has already purchased this track of land, it being a part of that acquired in the recent expansion program of the school. Knob Hill consists of some 17.6 acres and cost the District $17,200.00. It was purchased because of its location adjacent to other school property and because there was no level or more suitable sites adjoining the school.

State school regulations require that a certain amount of outside activity be provided for all students each day. In the past, the high school has had to use the football field for this purpose, as well as for such athletic programs as track. This has meant about 15 minutes out of each period of outside activity has been used up in transporting students to and from the field, plus having to use buses and crossing a highway and a railroad track each way. Once at the field, there is only a small amount of area available for use and this is sometimes cut down due to watering, mowing and other maintenance. In addition, dressing room facilities are not adequate at the field for this type of program.

In connection with field and track, the school has no place suitable for a track lay-out at this time. However, on Knob Hill, there is an area of land that could be developed into a first-class track with very little leveling work.

This area, if developed, would be used primarily by the high

IT RAINED—

Now we all know how old Noah felt on that ark when it rained for 40 days and 40 nights. Ours was not quite that long but was likely about the same rain as fell here when Noah was doing the ark bit.

That first twelve hours wasn't so bad but after it went past 36 hours, I began to notice the looks cast my way by members of the family—cooped up in the house that long—and got the feeling that somehow, it was all my fault. Even the cat and dog began to get on one another's nerves but the golfish had a ball.

That rain had some strange effects on folks. Ranchers were all running around slapping one another on the back, buying the coffee and commenting that it sure looked like we were going to get a shower before it let up. Ed Guy Branch got all excited and loaned one of his sons-in-laws $10 before it dawned on him what he was doing.

Este Lane greased up his post hole diggers and eyeballed a new fence line or two but as soon as it quit raining he thought of some other items that needed attending to.

Shank Bloxom had a rain gauge and was running from ranch to ranch making sure he was getting his share.

And Doc Gossett was beginning to wonder if perhaps he shouldn't have bought a house-boat instead of a bus.

Several of the golfers had to have a little sedation to settle their nerves when they woke up Saturday morning and found two pickups stuck on the golf course not ten feet from one of the new greens. In fact, one of them got his nerves so settled he forgot to watch the TV golf match Saturday afternoon.

It even rained so much the dogs gave up their little games of following the leader all night long and about the only noise to disturb one's sleep outside of the rain dripping on air conditioners was the croaking of frogs. This little item had to be explained to some of the younger children who had not been around long enough to see a good rain.

Now that we've had it, however, everyone is wondering how long it will be before we get any more.

That's always a good West Texas question.

TRACTORS, ANYONE—

I guess by now most of you have made your donations to buy Fiddle Castro his tractors to pay for the damages we caused him in that "invasion".

Seriously speaking, I have not as yet heard one person comment that he was in favor of this deal. It's had to figure just where all the money is coming from that is supposed to be behind the idea of giving Castro tractors for prisoners and harder still to imagine any large number of Americans being willing to submit to any such thing.

If daily newspaper reports are correct, it would seem that President John Kennedy is a prime mover in the scheme and if he is, it only points up once again that he does not understand the thinking of the average American—just as he didn't when he said he would have apologized to Krushie for the U-2 incident.

He is supposed to have a hurting in his back but I always had the idea that you needed a bone in your back before it would hurt.

A sorry mess is about the best that can be said for Tractors for Castro.

PAY DAY—

Did you pay for this newspaper? Well, if you are a regular subscriber, naturally you did and if you got it at the news stand at the post office the chances are better than 50 percent that you did.

But some of you who are reading this stole it. You did not pay.

Writer Says "Nix" On School's Knob Hill Project

ED.—Following is a portion of a letter addressed to the Rankin School Board with a copy being sent to The News, expressing the writer's views on some of the proposed school programs:

Gentlemen,

Please let me take this opportunity to express my views on the proposed new development projects now being considered

Having been a resident of Rankin nearly 30 years, served on the school board when the going was "tuff", having had 5 children graduate from the Rankin Schools

. . . you can readily see I cannot help but be a booster of our schools which have made so much progress and met the demands of our growing needs. The Board members and faculty are to be commended for their hard work and foresight to take care of the growing future needs . . .

1. Fencing the new play ground seems to be a good idea. It might save a life and that cannot be estimated in dollars and cents.

2. - 3. Purchasing of additional playground equipment, buses, etc.
No doubt it is needed. That's for you boys to decide. (You get paid for it and if you don't think you are getting enough—double it.)

4. Enlargement and renovations to the football field. I am not much of a football fan, but I have seen the growth that has taken place from years past and have noticed the crowds that flock to our games. The new development of the parking area (cleaning of the slums from this site) was a major improvement and added much to the looks, conveniences, etc., to the football field. The building of new and enlarged seating, fencing, etc., was a big improvement and a good investment of tax money in my opinion. Now it has developed that there is still need for enlargement and improvement. I do not think we can spend an enormous amount of money to enlarge our facilities just for the hope of securing district games, etc., but to enlarge and improve to suit our own needs might bring some outside activity and income to our city. So I think this is good business and good investment.

The development of "Know Hill" across from the high school is, in my opinion, very unsound thinking, very costly, and out of all reason you have just gotten through with moving one mountain which I think improved the looks very much and will be an asset to the school property, but to take over another job similar to it, is not good business judgment especially when there is so much level land around our town—which, of course, is not close to the school . . . even the ground directly north of the high school would be cheaper to develop into what is wanted but of course we would have to rebuild our highway and dig out two or three large holes so I am not sure this would be good business.
But I am strongly against moving another mountain

TEXAS LAWYERS

Captain Jesse Lee Hall

Special Force

"Strong, just . . . and fearless . . ."

Texans in the late 1870's were not surprised when Captain Jesse Lee Hall, of the Ranger Special Force, handed over the notorious bandit, King Fisher. Nor when he broke up the destructive Sutton-Taylor Feud, and settled the hash of a lot of fence cutters. Most Texans already knew about Ranger Hall and a certain one-man clean-up operation. Only 27 years old, shortly after he joined the Force, Hall was placed on detached service . . . meaning, as usual, one job, one Ranger. The job was Goliad, then a lawless stronghold of escaped convicts, outlaws and murderers. The situation called for strong treatment, which the lone Ranger evidently knew how to apply. The undesirable population got the word. Soon Goliad was once again quiet as a sleeping mouse. . . Later, after his Ranger days, Captain Hall distinguished himself as the leader of the famous Macabebe Scouts in the Philippine campaigns.

Just as we have always needed the fearless courage and integrity of our lawmen, so do we need industry and commerce. When an industry provides a whole community with payrolls and revenue, relaxation and the pleasure of moderation . . . it "belongs." In Texas, "Beer Belongs." The United States Brewers Association is constantly working with brewers, wholesalers, retailers and local authorities to assure the sale of beer and ale under pleasant, orderly conditions.

football field, I believe be good sound reasoning another project of this. Actually, I think if we some kind of project to afford some WORK for our children it would be the best thing we could do. Some kind of system so we be compelled to walk 2 or 3 blocks to school to develop a little muscle legs and save the old cents a month on gas.

Please don't misunderstand. I believe we should have activities, play ground and recreation for our but I think they should a little time in which to rest . . .

In conclusion, I am against cutting down especially for the future ahead with all the rest. regards, and thanks for done.

Yours in sympathy, R. L. BELL
