Substantial Gain Marked For Gross Receipts in First of '61--

Postal Receipts, Box Rentals Up For First Half At Rankin Postoffice

Postal receipts for the first half of 1961 showed a substantial gain in Rankin over a year ago, according to Grace Roach, local postmaster, in a report she released

this week covering operations in the office.

Total receipts for the Rankin installation from January 1, 1961 thru June 30, 1961 amounted to $8,457.93. This compared to a total of $6,542.97 for the same period of 1960 and represented a net gain of $1,914.96 for the first half. In past years, the biggest volume of business for post offices comes in the last part of the year with the big December mailings.

Box rents for the same period also showed an increase over last year according to Miss Roach. A total of $980.90 was collected on box rents for the half as compared with $893.60 for the period of 1960—an increase in this department of $87.30.

In 1959, the first report following the last increase in postal rates, the Rankin office reported a total volume of $8,384.05—representing an increase over the 1958 total of $6,598.55 of $1,785.50—a little less than the present increase for 1961 over the past period.

To Be On August 1st Billing --

Small Hike On Trash Haul Voted By City Councilmen

In their last regular meeting, held earlier this month, the Rankin City Council voted to raise the charge to residential property owners for trash hauling from 75-cents to $1 per month. This move was taken to help offset some of the loss being encountered in the trash hauling program as it is now operated by the city.

Rates to business houses will remain the same, according to the Council, at $3.00 per month for ordinary business service. Some places, where a larger amount of trash is hauled, pay larger fees for the service.

Effective date for the hike in rates was set by the Councilmen as July 1—which will mean that the small additional 25-cent charge will appear on the bills mailed out on August 1.

Trash hauling operations for Rankin have been much improved during the past year with the purchase of a regular trash truck and the employment of an operator and assistant. Prior to that time, trash was hauled on a contract basis which had not proved very satisfactory.

EQUALIZATION BOARD—

At the same time, it was announced that the City Board of Equalization will begin holding sessions to go over the city property tax rolls and fix values. At a later date, they will give notice of a public meeting at which time property owners may meet with them and discuss values fixed by the Board on their property. Any property owner who has rendered his property for taxation at the city hall will be notified in writing of any change in value made on his property. Those who do not render their property are not required to be notified of changes in value determined by the equalization board.

E. C. Higday Plans Store Opening Soon

E. C. Higday, longtime Rankin resident, said this week that he hopes to open a new business firm in Rankin by the week-end of July 22.

Higday has leased the building formerly housing the Mion Cafe and is moving the fixtures, equipment and stock from his Texon Store into the building. He will offer a complete line of groceries, meats, fruits and vegetables and plans to operate the business full-time himself, assisted by his wife.

In addition to the stock from the Texon store, he will have added many new items by opening date, he has indicated.

He had owned and operated the only grocery store in Texon for a number of years.

Giants Win 2nd Half Of Little League

In Little League play last week, the Giants took a game from the Yankees and moved into the second-half championship slot. They are now slated to meet the first-half champion Cardinals in a play-off match next Monday night to determine the League champions. However, due to All-Star activities at this time, the game may be postponed and both the Giants and Cardinals declared co-champions for the 1961 season.

The All-Stars are still holding workouts in preparation for their (Continued to Page 4)

BIG DEAL—

Last Saturday night, someone—a person, it is assumed—had nothing better to do than drive a vehicle over about a dozen of the young popular trees at the city park just north of the Little League baseball field.

The trees were barked almost from top to bottom and as a result will likely die.

These trees were purchased about two years ago by the Beta Sigma Phi and donated to the park. Since that time, a lot of hours of work, watering and care have gone into their upkeep. They were planted for the benefit of anyone who might want to use the park in the future and would have added much to the beauty and comfort of the area.

All that is practically gone up in smoke now.

I wonder just what kind of a mind a person who would deliberately drive over trees must have? It must not be a mind that is as well developed as a six-year-old for we have a goodly number that age in our neighborhood and they do not destroy trees and flowers. Perhaps, if the guilty person—or persons were turned over to a head doctor, he would come up with the idea that they were deprived of expressing their desires to play with dolls or to make mud pies. That's about the size of their thinking apparently.

At any rate it is a sad commentary on a community that has those among it who have no regard for property—either public or private and who have nothing better to do—or can think no better than to destroy things that are built for their own benefit.

We say we are a civilized nation but here is proof that we have not all attained that rank as yet.

This is not the first incident of destruction of public property but it can well be that the time for pulling in those to blame is fast approaching.

A goodly number of civic minded residents are rather up in arms over the incident and are cooperating with law officers in putting in a good bit of time on investigating this matter. There are at least two suspects in the case and I would say to them now that they will be thoroughly watched for further incidents and that the first time they are caught off base, they will have to go a long way to find any sympathy among the citizens of the community.

It might be of interest to the guilty parties to know that theirs will not be any easy case to wiggle out of once they are apprehended. And they will be—sooner or later.

FREE SHEECH—

A month or so ago, this column carried a comment on the garage mechanic in McCamey who had his right to inspect cars suspended because he wrote a critical letter to the editor of the San Angelo Standard times on the State Auto Inspection law. It so offended the state patrolmen in charge of inspections in this area that he went to McCamey and told the mechanic that he was no longer eligible to make car inspections because of the letter—not because of any fault in his previous work as an inspector.

A lot of people have asked me what ever happened in the case and I have talked with County Attorney John A. Menefee, who took the matter up with Highway Department heads all the way from Midland to Austin, and he says that the Department has suspended the suspension.

In other words, the issue was too hot for them to handle and they decided that freedom of speech and the right of the individual to speak out against the bureaucrats of the state is still in effect—that the Constitution has not been repealed.

In fact, it would seem that they had just as soon the whole thing be forgotten and that it would have been better had it never been started in the first place.

the person in charge of them can usually

settle the matter quickly to everyone's satisfaction—but in matters
such as this, the case is often passed from first one department
head to another until the offended party gives up in disgust and forgets the whole thing.

Cheers must go to the mechanic who had the guts to "speak his piece" and to Menefee for upholding his right to do so. It was a rather unimportant thing in contexts but a most important mat-

GIM'ME—

We're missing the boat. Over in Wink—the City that Oil and Friendship Built—the Federals are handing out nice, new, crisp 1-million dollar bills while down at Brady—noted for some fine civic accomplishment I'm sure—the denomination of the bill is about 11½

million for a new dam.

For Wink—where the money is supposed to go into building a new town—that will amount to about $5,000 for every man, woman and child in the town, and will be used purely for the benefit of Wink. Brady's handout for the dam on Brady Creek might be stretched to the point of being considered public use since they may allow the public to use the lake—with various concessions on the side making a nice fat charge.

This is nothing new—the handouts. We have seen them by the score in San Angelo—another self
made city.

It's always comforting to know
that, in addition to all local taxes,
we pay a portion to the federal government, which, in turn, hands
it out to those they believe to be deserving. In other words, you and I are making a contribution to the benefit of Wink and Brady—
just as we have been to San Angelo and all the many, many other places scattered to the four corners of the earth and who have held out their hand to Uncle and said: "Gim'me".

My question is, when are we in Rankin going to get our hand-out?

And Wink can soon change that proud slogan to: "The Cnty that Oil, Friendship and Uncle Sam Built".

W. W. MOLESWORTH

One-Man Expeditionary Force

"... no official report..."

Ordinarily quiet and even-tempered, Ranger W. W. Molesworth, at Palefox on the Rio Grande, was considerably riled. It was during the border bandit troubles, about 50 years ago. Across the river at Hidalgo some young hotheads were having fun with bank-to-bank pot shots. Finally, early on a Christmas morning, Molesworth got good and tired of it. Boating over, he undertook a unique bit of unilateral action. He located the head man and suggested a border-style summit. Sometime later, and no agreement on river bank etiquette in sight, Molesworth's careful patience ran out. Locking the jefe in a cantina, he proceeded to demonstrate excellent marksmanship with all the saloon signs and buzzards in sight as targets. Hidalgo was quiet as a well-fed kitten when Molesworth calmly boated home. Hidalgo stayed quiet, but Molesworth made no official report. He left it to legend that he is the only man, Texan or otherwise, to subdue a foreign city absolutely single handed.

While Texas lawmen were making this a better place to live, industry and commerce played their part. And one industry, brewing, has provided enjoyment as well as employment, the pleasures of moderate beverages as well as revenue for the community. In Texas... "Beer Belongs." Brewers, wholesalers, retailers and the United States Brewers Association are working constantly in cooperation with today's lawmen, to assure the sale of beer and ale under pleasant, orderly conditions.
