Homecoming To Highlight Rankin Week-end Activities

The Rankin High School Student Council has mailed over two hundred postal card homecoming invitations to ex-students of Rankin who live outside the city. It is hoped that the local exes will consider this notice as their personal invitation to join in all of the homecoming activities.

Loyal Red Devil football fans are urged to attend the Bon-

It has been announced that a public dance will be held at the Rankin Golf Club Friday night following the football game. In order not to conflict with the homecoming dance at the Park Building, this event will be open to adults only.

WELCOME EXES—

The town ought to be full of ex-students this week end.

An ex-student is one who—usually—complained about having to attend school in "such a sorry institution" through all his school years. then, upon graduation, is among the loudest singers of praise about what a fine school it was back in the good old days. The teachers were tougher, the football team was bigger and the girls were all practically movie stars.

Could be. Anyway, welcome to all and to those who did not return, we'd say that the old gang lived up to their reputation.

ANCHORS AWAY—

After a good pit of carefully laid planning—plus a conference or two to get all the facts—the News last week ran a front-page story—with picture—of Betty McCain, telling all about her fine advancement in the Marines. It came out pretty good with one small exception—Betty is in the Navy—not the Marines.

Now it would seem that a guy who holds the Good Conduct Medal and has served a few years himself in the armed forces would know the difference between a Marine and a Navy uniform—but it just seems that way.

About the only thing I know to do about it is for Betty to get herself transferred into the Marine Corps for it would take more than the Supreme Court, the Kennedy Brothers, Inc., and the Texas National Guard to get me to reprint last week's paper.

HOW NICE—

Time and circumstances must be a horse of changing colors up in Washington. It does not seem too long ago to me that the President was calling the steel companies—which are a form of free enterprise—all sorts of dirty names for trying to raise the price of steel. He ranted and raved about how much it would hurt the general public in the pocketbook. He allowed as how it was almost un-American.

But now, close to election time, hatchet men in the congress have cooked up a bill—with the blessing of the same president—that will raise postal rates by at least one cent to all and a lot more to others—among them such free enterprise schemes as newspapers, magazines and certain other publications. This one-cent raise in the postal rate will hit the pocketbook of Mrs. Average Citizen a lot more than would have the price increase in steel. Mr. Public will not only have to pay more on the letters he writes to Aunt Bessie but will be stuck for a good part of the increased postal rates on publications via higher subscription and price rates.

And what do the socializers plan to do with this extra income for the Federal Government?

Buy votes.

This will be done by handing out raises to Federal employees.

Now, who actually will pay for all this? The wage earner. He will be the only person who will have no opportunity for re-cover-

FOOTBALL—

Let's say right here and now: RANKIN wins the homecoming. It won't be any push over for the Red Devils for the Badgers won't take kindly to being served up for the benefit of the home-comers. The two teams will be about equal in size but the Red Devils ought to have a little better offense. And of course, the "B" team shook up quite a few fans with a fine win over the McCamey "B" last Thursday night and the pride and joy of the Junior High got themselves caught in a bit of a slump and were shelled for the first time this year. Following their plucking last week at the hands of the Wink Wildcats, the McCamey Badgers can be expected to have their heads set on getting back into the winning business. About the

Oct. 24 Meeting Set On Screwworms

Another $1.7 million is needed to reach the goal set by Southwestern livestock producers and sportsmen to eradicate the screwworm from Texas and the Southwest. These men are carrying on an intensive campaign this month to reach this goal, Norman Elrod, chairman of the county animal health committee, has announced.

The program, which has been operational since February, involves the release of sterile screw worm flies over infested areas of only consolation is that the Red Devils have a habit of wanting to win ball games themselves. Elsewhere in the district, it looks like: BIG LAKE over Stanton. Now this is not going to jive with a lot of "pickers" but I for one have never had too much faith in the Stanton team. They may be big and all that but they seem to have a tendency of not playing up to ability.

ALPINE over Iraan. Who in the world ever heard of picking Alpine to win but when one remembers the game they played here against the Red Devils and their fine little quarterback, it just has to be Alpine.

OZONA over Robert Lee—maybe. That ought to be a good one too.

ELDORADO downs Junction. If Junction can put the pressure on the Eagles, it might be to our advantage for a district opener on the 19th.

VAN HORN smacks Sanderson. This is almost a sure indication that it will come out the other way around for I have not picked Sanderson right all season long.

There will be a meeting on the screwworm program for all interested ranchmen at the County Agent's office at the courthouse on October 24 at 3:00 p.m.

Slides will be shown at that time on the operation of the screwworm plant at Mission, Tex-

The Grand Jury in the 112th District Court, after long deliberation, turned in their report on their investigation of the Democratic Second Primary election in which they were critical of the manner in which certain parts of the election were held—particularly the absentee voting—without being very specific in their allegations of irregularities. Although they cited instances in the clerk's office, the tax assessor-collector and absentee canvassing boards where they made recommendations of handling voting, they did not name any definite instances of where they found any violations—if any—of the election code.
