Junior High Promotions Scheduled Thursday

Promotion Exercises for Rankin Junior High are scheduled for 8 p.m., Thursday, May 22 at the high school auditorium. A total of fifty-three students will set up to Freshman status—twenty-three girls and twenty-two boys.

The program calls for the professional, followed by the invocation, to be given by Alan Zoller.
Stephen McSpadden will give the welcome while the class history is to be presented by Carol McBee and Bart Collins.

Presentation of awards will be made by Principal E. G. Walker, to be followed by musical selections after which Mr. Walker will present the 1969 class.

H. G. Adams, superintendent, is to present promotion certificates after which Calvin Luck will render the benediction and activities will be closed with the recession-al.

Wide Range of Activities on Tap --

School's Out, Summer's at Hand

Friday the school bell will ring for the last time for the 1968-69 term.

And then the fun begins -- or what passes for fun. For the students, it will be summer vacations with no schedules and no homework. For the adults, it will be a test of nerves, rolling out of the campers and boots and the scanning of roadmaps and vacation plans.

For others, it will just be another three months of work before school opens again.

Getting summer activities off to a big splash will be the opening of the swimming pool at the county park next Sunday. Mrs.
Tommy Owens will be the pool manager this year with Dwayne Holder as the life guard. The concession stand operator has yet to be named.

The pool will be operated on the same schedule as in the past and a swimming program will get underway shortly, sponsored by the Rankin Youth Council.

Out at the Rankin County Club, cement was being poured this week with the new pool expected to be open to club members in the early part of June.

Vacation Bible School starts at First Baptist Church Monday for a five-day course and on June 6 and 7, the Twentieth Annual All-Kid Rodeo will be staged in Rankin. The rodeo will also feature a Youth Horse Show.

Plans are well along for a July 4th Celebration in Rankin, under the sponsorship of the Beta Sigma Phi Chapters with assistance from the Rankin Lions Club. Last year was the first time the event was held in recent years and it turned out to be a big success.

A driver education program will get underway in the near future at Rankin High School, as will the summer educational and recreational program.

And then there's the baseball season, currently being highlighted by Little League Play where the Yankees are well out in front of the action, having yet to be defeated. In second place are the Cardinals, followed by the Dodgers and the Giants.

Friday night's games call for the Giants and Yankees to open action, followed by the Cardinals and Dodgers. Saturday it will be the same teams with the order of play switched.

Beginning Tuesday, May 27, game nights will be switched from the Friday-Saturday schedule to Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Action in the older boys baseball will also be picking up.

And before you know it, it will be September and the next sound you hear may well be the punting of a football.

Like a ninety-day note, the end of summer comes all too soon.

Poppy Day Sales in Rankin on May 23

On Friday, May 23, a poppy sale will be conducted in Rankin by members of the American Legion Auxiliary and other volunteer workers.

Poppy Day is an annual observance in American when citizens are asked to make a voluntary tribute to servicemen who have given their lives or who are now disabled as a result of service to their country.

By accepting one of these poppies, aid is given to the living victims of these past wars. Made by disabled veterans the poppy sales give many of these men their only opportunity to support themselves and their families.

Sea Scouts to Help in Holiday Travel

Rankin's recently formed Sea Scout Troop will be trying something new Memorial Day weekend. They will participate in "Operation Coffee Stop" an undertaking designed to cut down on highway traffic accidents during the Memorial holiday.

The Scouts will set up booths

Vacation Bible School Begins Monday at FBC

Vacation Bible School opens on Monday at the First Baptist Church.

In making the announcement, Rev. J. C. Tankersley, pastor, said that the dates for this year's school are to be May 26 through May 30. Classes are to be held each day from 8:30 a.m. until 11:30 a.m.

A commencement service has been planned for Sunday, June 1 at 7:30 p.m.

"The Vacation Bible School is for all children, ages three thru twelve," said Tankersley.

"Everyone in the above age categories is cordially invited to attend this school. We will have some good times together as we give study to the Bible. Refreshments will be served each day and everyone will receive a big welcome," he concluded.

First Baptist Church has annually held a Vacation Bible School following the close of the public school term. Attendance is usually over the 100 mark and the school is open to children from families of all faiths.

urday, May 24. The closing will

THE CHANGES—

Time was not so long ago that when you spoke of someone going to pot you were saying that he had become a bit careless in his living habits or that he was getting over toward the fatty side. Now . . . well times do have a way of not only changing people but meanings in expressions as well.

Pot, dope, weed—whatever you want to call it, is currently the big talk and—if you listen to some, you would begin to feel that just about all the younger generation and a goodly number of the rest of us are turning into raving drug addicts.

Well, that may be so in some places—it's always hard to see what is or is not true in such places as California or New York without actually being there. But as for here at home, that's one big bunch of rot—rot, not pot.

Maybe it's the country air, maybe it's the Rankin water but I've seen a pretty fair number of "kids" grow up here. Some leave, others stick around and still more

WELL THAT SECOND TRACK

You have slowed down for the advance warning signs, stood a safe distance from the tracks, and waited for the freight to pass. Don't get impatient now. You may dart out, just as the caboose passes, right into the path of a fast moving train on another track. Wait for the train to clear a sufficient distance to insure good visibility. Never move while the flasher lights are still operating. "Look Before You Leap."

have their own ideas and ambi-

You can bet on it.

WE PROTEST—

Almost every newspaper you pick up these days and news telecasts you see have something about protestors. And there are almost as many causes as there are protestors. You name it, somebody's out protesting about it. It's the thing to do.

And that may be why there's so much protesting going on for certainly protesting is nothing new. We have always had protest-ings. You might say that the Revolutionary War was a protest; that the Civil War was a protest.
Both were fought over an idea for more than any other reason.
The main difference may be that they were protests by nations of grown people instead of protests by groups—many of them from the younger generation.

At least the current siege has not—as yet—led to large-scale armed conflict. Some say we are headed toward that very thing and, without doubt, some of the radical protestors want just that but it seems a mighty far fetched idea to me that there could ever be enough support for any of the current dissatisfactions to reach the scale of a war-type thing with armed camps on two sides, fighting battles.

For one thing, armed conflicts are mighty expensive things nowadays and it would take the support of some outside power to finance any sizeable uprising in the United States. That would be a mighty hard thing to carry out.
Secondly, such a conflict would have absolutely no chance of success.

Changes there will be and a "revolution" may well take place here but it will not be carried out by force.

When you look back twenty years, it's not too difficult to see that we have already had "revolution", particularly in the matter of civil rights, and twenty years from now, it may well be still going on.

Some good old fashioned head-cracking would be in order at this time for the protestors who

County Dress Revue, Saturday in Midkiff

Mdikiff 4-H Club and Mdikiff Home Demonstration Club are hosting the county Dress Revue, Saturday, May 24 in the Humble Recreation Center, north of Midkiff.

Judging begins at 10:00 a. m. with the girls in Project I and continues until finished. Mothers, leaders and members are to each bring a paper sack lunch. Drink and dessert will be served by the host clubs in the home of Kathy and Beverly Hoelscher from 12 to 1:00.

The revue of the girls dresses will be at 2:30 p.m. in the recreation hall for all visitors and parents. Awards will be at 3:00 p.m.

Mrs. Mildred Eiland, County Home Demonstration Agent of Martin and Glasscock Counties is to be the judge.

4-H members enrolled in Home Economics programs are doing more short term projects. Clothing is divided into units to fit the girls age, skills and abilities. Each unit may be finished in a six to ten week period. Each project includes the construction of a garment by the girl for herself.

Upton County has three 4-H girls clubs, Rankin, Midkiff and McCamey. These clubs have 4-H girls enrolled in Clothing.

insist on carrying their gripes as far as the destructive stages, support of the Viet Cong, carrying of guns and that sort of stuff, but as for those who have a serious, grown-up approach in presenting their grievances, it might be well to listen to what they have to say.

It would be a pretty sad world, if, like cattle, we all went along crewing our cuds and swishing at the flies and never once giving out with as much as a moo while we're being milked.

There are always those who fear any rocking of the boat but it is perhaps the unique thing about this nation in that it is so constructed that it can stand a good bit of rocking without tipping over.

As for those who are interested in chopping holes in the boat rather than rocking it . . . throw the bums overboard I say.

Library Notes

Dr. Eric Berne, the author of "Games People Play", has come forth with another gem, "A Layman's Guide to Psychiatry and Psychoanalysis".

Here Dr. Berne presents the information necessary for an intelligent understanding of psychiatry and the psychoanalytic method. Included are psychiatric social work, behavioral disorders involving alcohol, drugs and other addictions, and community psychiatry.

Reading this book is like having your most troubling questions answered by a thoughtful physician seasoned with the understanding that comes only from long experience in dealing with anxieties and disorders that prey on the minds of men.

We have recently put on our shelves many useful and informative books. Among them are William L. Langer's "Encycloped" (Continued to Page 7)

New Effort Planned on Law Enforcing

A local effort to reduce crime and to improve law enforcement in West Texas has been initiated by the Permian Basin Law Enforcement Advisory Committee.

This committee, representing seventeen counties of West Texas, has recommended a regional in-service training program for law enforcement officers and the establishment of a continuing study of local law enforcement needs.

Among those serving on the committee is Upton County Judge Allen Moore.

This recommendation grew out of an extensive survey conducted by Odessa College in March. The survey inventoried equipment, services, and needs of the entire justice system of the seventeen-county region. This includes the sheriffs and police departments and the city, county, and district courts.

After the completion of the survey, the twenty-member Advisory Committee recommended that additional in-service training centers be established in the area and that existing ones be expanded. These centers will be within driving distance of all the cities in the region. Big Spring, Midland, Odessa, Andrews and Fort Stockton were suggested locations.

The Advisory Committee requested that the State of Texas contribute 60 percent of the $14-160 that this training program is expected to cost.

The Committee also suggested a central employment pool to recruit applicants, the adoption of an objective merit system to reward qualified officers and the elevation of standards and salaries of law enforcement personnel.

Other recommendations include a plan calling for the expansion of Police Science Programs of Howard Junior College and Odessa College. The Committee also called for the adoption of a standardized system of records and procedures of the separate law enforcement agencies within the region and the establishment of a central information center that would tie into a central office in Austin.

The Committee also urged the creation of a permanent committee that would continue to assess law enforcement needs and to make recommendations to law enforcement agencies.

Counties included within this regional study are Andrews, Borden, Crane, Dawson, Ector, Gaines, Glasscock, Howard, Loving, Martin, Midland, Pecos, Reeves, Terrell, Upton, Ward and Winkler.

The Sea Scouts will be working in cooperation with Explorers in this undertaking.

In other recent actions taken by the Sea Scouts, the boys voted to name their unit "Sea Scout Ship La Moyne" in memory of Roy La Moyne Dirickson, recent victim of a fatal automobile accident. He was a member of the new organ- ization, currently skippered by his father, Roy Dirickson.

Last week-end the Scouts held a car wash at the Shell Service Station and reported good results.

This week-end the Ship will be in Camp Sol Moyer for a boating expedition.

Hospital Auxiliary Findo No Eligible Scholarship Takers

Rankin Hospital Auxiliary this week announced, with regret, that the two applicants for the nursing-student scholarship award which they make annually did not qualify according to the Constitu- tion and By-Laws as originally set up by the Scholarship Com- mittee in 1967.

"For the benefit of interested citizens who have contributed so generously to this award through memorial gifts, qualifications for applicants are given, in part, as follows," said an Auxiliary mem- ber:

Must have an overall high school average of 85 or better

Must be single.

Must not be engaged to be married.

Must have need for financial assistance.

Must be accepted by an ac- credited college before applica- tion is presented.

Must be a part of the Candy Striper program.

Must present application by May 1 with transcript of high school grades.

"Since the applicants did not meet some of these requirements, they had to be declined at this time by the scholarship commit- tee and executive board of the Auxiliary," stated the spokesman.
