One portion of the program that is a little short on boys is the Farm Team where only about eight or ten are participating at this time.

"Any young boy—not able to play on a Little League team, is welcome to take part in the farm program and will get to play a lot of baseball. If there are such boys around, we'd sure like to have them come on out," he said.

To enter the program, a boy—kindergarten and up—need only fill out a baseball card. These may be obtained from Barton. His phone number is 693-2524, after 5:00 p.m.

The first ball game of Little League will be Friday, April 23 and will follow the official opening of the season which will be highlighted with a downtown parade. Time of the parade and the opening game have yet to be worked out.

Next Meet Coming Up Next Week --

Red Devils Win Monahans Meet

Red Devils managed another track victory last week at Monahans. It may have been an exciting victory as Jim Vick, the pole vaulter, returned and was to have the hospital this week. He managed to improve slightly.

Along with the bad news, some good news. Most quad members appeared covering from their flue. They had decked them in the meet, and led by performances by Bloxom, and a number of others, signs of getting strong. A bright spot is the good team has received from members who, although they have yet to win any first, manage to gather points and thus add considerably to the overall team results.

This week the Rankin crew is again slated to meet some of the best when they enter the Mustang Relays in Andrews. It will be a meet comparable in size and quality of competition to the San Angelo affair.

Made up of 56 teams in four divisions, Rankin will be entered in Div. I in the big meet and will face competition from Wellman, Crosbyton, Sanderson, Van Horn, Eldorado, Petersburg, O'Donnell, Plains, Lubbock Cooper, Sudan, Lazbuddie, Grandfalls, Clint and Borden County.

This will be their final outing prior to the district track meet in Iraan April 15.

GOLF TEAM SECOND

Rankin High's golf team, competing in the District Meet held in El Paso last week, were not able to overcome the Iraan squad and had to settle for second. However, this position did earn them a trip to regional, to be held in Lubbock later this month.

Leading the Red Devil effort in El Paso was Monroe Sullivan and he was joined by teammates Terry Stephens, Tommy Gray, Randy Braden and Robert Sigmon.

This week a portion of the team is to be in Iraan on Thursday for a warm-up tournament prior to the Lubbock outing.

Midkiff Baptist plan April 18-25 Revival

Midkiff First Baptist Church has scheduled revival services, to begin Sunday, April 18 and run through Sunday, April 25. Time will be at 7:30 p.m. nightly.

Evangelist for the series of meetings is to be the Rev. Ross Payne. Rev. Gordon Burks is pastor of the Midkiff church.

A nursery will be in operation at each of the services and a warm welcome has been extended to the public.

THE SCOOP by Scoop

SOME STUFF—

It's said and with some justification, that the people of the United States are widely divided. But not on the Calley conviction. I don't recall any instance unless it was that following the bombing of Pearl Harbor, when so many people seem to agree that a great injustice has been done.

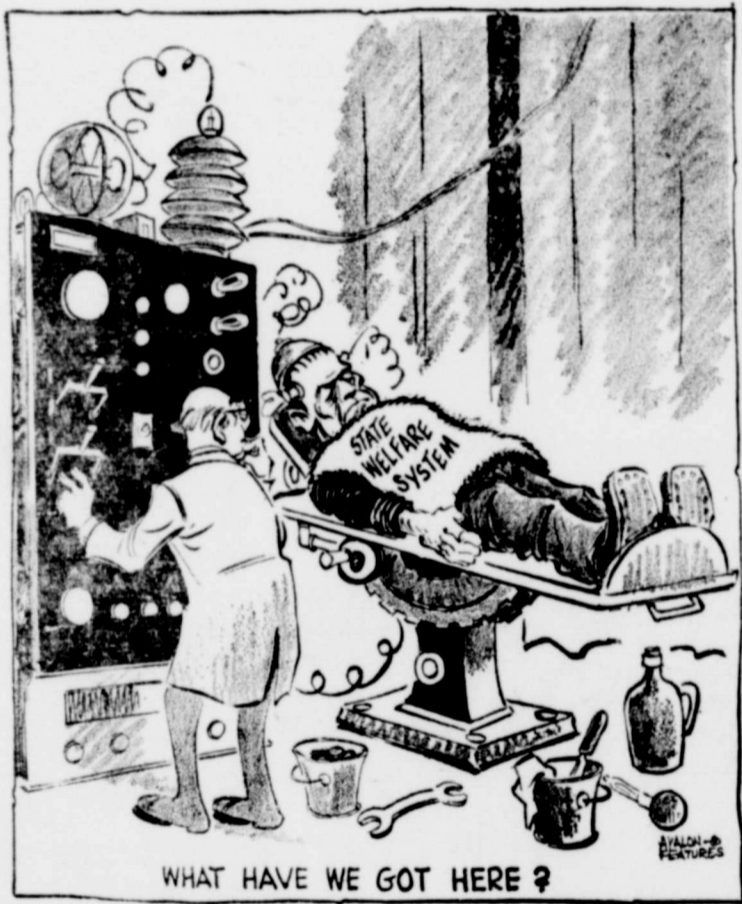

There's no doubt that Calley did kill a bunch of people in Viet Nam and I'd venture to say that most of us think he did the wrong thing, but most seem to feel that he should not be punished for his acts simply because in war people get killed. It happens daily over there and if the Army is going to punish Calley, then they will have to do the same to every pilot who drops a bomb, to everyone who fires an artillery piece and to all who are assigned the duties of combat in the "front lines".

The Rankin (Tex.) News—
Thursday, April 8, 1971

It's hard to understand what the motives of the Armed Forces are in even bringing him to trial but it's not so hard to understand why people are so united in his defense. I would suggest that in backing Calley, most of us are expressing our dislike for war as a whole and this war in particular.

NO RAIN—

What'ta you know—it didn't rain Sunday like Branch said it would. But it did get cold and blew a little dirt. Maybe that counts.

But I almost saw a rain. We were in San Antonio over the week-end and it tried real hard all day Sunday — misting and sputtering but just couldn't hack
it.

And, folks, it's dry all over.
Usually at this time of year, the

Maybe this week-end it will decide to rain—but don't bet on it.

SOME ELECTION—

While our neighbors over in McCamey were having a ball in something like 20 candidates — we blew it here in Rankin and didn't have a single contested race.

It's not that I particularly had any grudges against the folk up for re-elections, it's just a lot more exciting when there's opposition. I guess, however, it does give us some idea of how voters

IRISH POTATOES

Who put the "Irish" on the potato?

This potato got its name in the United States from two sources. One was from the early growing of potatoes by a group of Irish immigrants in New Hampshire around 1719, and later from the famous tragedy of the famine in Ireland in the 1870's.

The potato was brought to England and Ireland from South America by ship owners and returning colonists who were interested in the plants of the New World—but Ireland first realized the potato's economic and nutritional benefits.

In the 1600's, farmers in Ireland quickly recognized that potatoes could be planted and would yield heavy production at a modest price per acre. The potato's usefulness slowly spread throughout Europe, and early Irish immigrants to the New World carried potatoes—as security against an uncertain food supply.

In later years, other travelers brought potatoes to America, but by that time American farmers were developing their own varieties which were hardy and flavorful.

Potatoes still remain an Irish and American vegetable favorite. They continue to be a priceless food gift to many Europeans who never miss having a potato with each dinner.

There's a plentiful supply of Irish Potatoes at your grocer's now. You'll also find a good volume of instant mashed and frozen potatoes.

The call then however, came at the time of a heavy afternoon thunderstorm, and many people were drenched before they could get inside cars, or reach shelter surrounding the Capitol grounds. There has been limited floor action this week in the House of Representatives. Almost the entire Monday session was spent in debating the two resolutions providing for an investigation of the charges against state officials (Continued to Page 7)

JOHNSON'S

Reflections . . .

by Ann Richardson

Everyone is searching for something and regardless of the many different ways it is described and the many different ways in which it is sought, it can be summed up in one word—"Happiness".

Happiness is, without doubt, the rarest, most prized, and most misunderstood state of man. We need to learn that happiness is not a state we can achieve and keep; it is something that must be won over and over—no matter what the defeats and losses.

Failure may be frightening but failure that follows attempt is better than no attempt at all. We must learn from our failures and then dismiss them from our minds rather than dwell upon them and allow them to overcome us in such a way that we give up our search for happiness and become content simply to exist.

If we allow fear to become our master then we will lose the only thing from which there is no recovery—our illusions. We must see fear for what it is and then overcome it. Someone once said: "Fear is a thin stream of worry trickling through the mind."

If we could only realize one thing then we would have no cause for worry and it is simply this: Life demands from each of us only the strength we possess. Only one feat is possible—not to have run away. Once we accept this, we will find that happiness is quite easy to come by.

Happiness is many things. It is unselfish devotion to persons and causes outside oneself. Happiness is emptying our hearts of resentment and bitterness and filling them with peace. Happiness is knowing that the only true possession is self possession. It is knowing that dishonesty breeds dishonesty. Happiness is truth and

Cub Scouts Hold Recent Meeting at Rankin Park Budg.

The Indians outnumbered the Cowboys at the recent meeting of Cub Scout Pack 156 at the Rankin Park Building. The ceremony began after two braves from Den 2 presented the colors and the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

The Indians were seated around the council fire and huge teepee, built by the Webelos Scouts. Cub master Danny Kingsley and a few Cowboys were captured and placed in the middle of the council ring as the Indians danced to the song, "Zulu Warrior".

Den 1, under the direction of Den Leaders Mr and Mrs. Leon Feuge, presented an Easter egg skit which ended in a surprising way.

Dens 1 and 2 played an old Indian game called "Leap Frog" with Den 2 coming in as winners.

The meeting was highlighted by the "Wapolonie" Indian Dancers, composed of Boy Scouts from Troop 56. Ronnie Surber, Mike Vick, Gehrig Feuge, Chris Barton, Bobby Johnson, Rick McAlister and Randy McAlister put on the dance. Traditional Indian dances such as the "Fluffy" and the "Elk Dance" and others were performed.

The awards were presented by the Cubmaster, assisted by the Den Chief and Gehrig Feuge. Wolf badges went to Greg Skiles and Rodney Johnson with Gold Arrow points going to Cecil Holcomb, Rodney Johnson and Skiles. Mark Sides received an assisttant denner stripe.

Best dressed Indian and Cowboy awards were made to Rex Surber of Den 1, Rodney Johnson of Den 2 and Clay Midkiff of the Webelos Den.

The parents' awards was recaptured by Den 1 as the meeting came to a close. Refreshments were served by the Webelos to all present.

April 17 will be Cub Scout Junior Olympic Track Day at the high school track field. The public is invited.

April is also the month for the annual Cub Scout light bulb sale.

Winners Named in Kite Flying Contest.

Cub Scout Pack 156 held their annual kite flying contest, Saturday at the Pony League baseball park.

Winners of the contest went to Mark Sides, first for "Best Looking Kite", and Blair Tharp and Kyle Wells tied for second, 3rd place was Rodney Johnson.

First Place in "Crashing" was taken by Wells with 2nd to Russell Lee and third to Carl Feuge.

Wells also received a first-place ribbon for the "Longest Flying", as many of the entries bit the dust in the high winds that prevailed. Second was Feuge and, third was Lee.

Refreshments were served to all parents and Cubs who braved the winds by the Den Mothers, Nelda Johnson and Charline Feuge and Den Leader Coach, Hazel Kendrick.
