In Teenage Baseball Play --

Rankin has Two District Champs

As they have done on several occasions in the past, the Rankin Teenage Baseball Teams have put together winning combinations and are advancing to greater things. Both the Go Team—13-14 year olds, and the Reds—15-16 have emerged as District winners and are engaged in Regional play. Should they survive the competition at this level, they will advance to state.

15-16 age group, jumped off to a fast start in a tough district that included several area teams, then cooled off but still managed to win the nine games required to take the district crown.

With James Heffernan as manager and Jim Braden as coach, the team has a roster of Rankin boys as follows: Jimmy Joe Mathews, Ronnie Surber, Earnest Black, Ricky McAlister, Terry Lester, Bart Collins, Randy Braden, Alan Speed, Charlie Peterson, Freddy Plagens, Eric Fitzhugh and Tommy Gray.

As district winners, they were entitled to pick up three boys from other teams in the district and chose Ricky Stephens, Leland Bolen and Curtis Brown, all of McCamey.

Opening play Tuesday night in Monahans, they were defeated by the host team and were to play at 6 p.m. Wednesday when their opponent to have been Floydada.

Winner of this match will again face Monahans.

For the Go Team, Regional play is to be in Crane where the play started last Tuesday night. Rankin, in the bottom bracket of the five team event, drew a bye in their first day's action and are to have met the winner of the Ft. Stockton - Crane game at 9 p.m., Wednesday, July 26.

Other teams in this tourney are Monahans and Odessa. The championship will be Saturday, July 29 at 7 p.m.

The Go Team won eight of ten in regular season.

Upton Court Meets;

Pick Election Judges

At the Special Session, Monday, July 24 of the Upton County Commissioners Court, all members of the court were present, along with Sheriff H. E. Eckols and County Clerk Buena Coffee.

Among actions taken was the adoption of a Resolution whereby Upton County is to participate with other Texas counties and cities in interlocal assistance of law enforcement officers during emergencies. This action was taken pursuant to the provisions of Senate Bill 233 of the 61st Texas Legislature which, in essence, provides for all law enforcement officers in Texas working together whenever a state of civil emergency has been properly declared in any given area of the state.

The Upton Court appointed the Sheriff and his department to participate in the program.

In still other matters, they appointed Election Judges and assistants and the Special Canvassing Judges for the November 7 General Election.

These included the following:

Precinct No. 1: Mrs. Sam Holmes, judge; Mrs. Boyd Cox, assistant judge;

Precinct No. 2: Mrs. Ross Wheeler, judge; Mrs. Hamp Carter, assistant judge;

Precinct No. 3: F. W. Payne, judge; Oteka Darby, assistant;

Precinct No. 4: Geneva Sumrall, judge; Mrs. Tom Waddell, assistant judge.

For the Special Canvassing — counting of absentee ballots: Mrs. Flora Shaw from Precinct No. 1, Mrs. Judith Wilkerson from Precinct No. 2, Kenneth Caldwell from Precinct No. 3, and Kenneth Babcock from Precinct No. 4.

The Court will meet next on August 14 at 10 a.m.

Boy, That's not Only Fast; That's Next to Real Fast

Times change. If you don't believe it, just ask any of the old-time calf ropers, and Rankin has some World Champions, now retired.

Time was when 15 seconds would win you a calf roping contest, 12 seconds was mighty good and 11 was some sort of record.

In the recent AJRA Rodeo held in Rankin, the Boys 16-19 calf roping was won with a time of 8.75 seconds and 11 didn't even place. That's a pretty speedy bit of action. Some can't even get on and off a horse in 8.75 seconds, much less rope and tie a calf along with it.

In commenting on the times posted in the local rodeo, Leslie McFadden, secretary - manager of the AJRA noted that one reason may have been that the calves used here were rather small; but aside from that, the young ropers of today a probably better trained and are riding better and faster horses.

"Boys who are 18-19 years old in the AJRA are in their prime," McFadden noted. "They have been roping since they were about 8 years old and they're just that good."

To which might be added . . . they're real good.

OH, GOODIE—

Page 1 headlines in area daily newspapers of the past few days have been set in bold type, telling Texans that a cut in car insurance rates is forthcoming. It's a great feeling.

And that's about all it is as far as most of us folk out here in the back woods are concerned.

In Texas, insurance is tied into politics and anything with a political connection is generally a poor arrangement as far as benefitting Mr. and Mrs. John Q. Public. A good example of the politics - insurance connection is seen in the present instance in which a cut in auto rates is being dangled before the public.

Recently certain people in Texas, including Sen. Mike McKool of Dallas and a former member of the board that is supposed to regulate insurance in the state, I don't have his name at present, have been putting the heat on the board and insurance companies by asking rather pointed quesions concerning rates and profits. McKool has been pushing for a full-scale investigation for the entire matter.

And he was gaining support in high places for his efforts, including the Governor's office where Preston Smith, already defeated and a lame duck, has little to fear political-wise from anyone or any group.

So up comes the insurance handed out. If you live in Harris or Dallas Counties—where about 35 percent of all Texas voters live, you will get a $13 reduction. (I assume this means 13 percent.) If you live in Bexar or Tarrant Counties, you get $10.

If you live in Lubbock, you get a $3 increase. If you live in rural Waller or Montgomery, you get a $15 increase. Upton County is not listed but "Western Counties" are to get a $3 cut and I'd assume we are a Western County.

Now I'm not very bright and being a country boy, I never understand much about high finance but it doesn't take much of a brain to figure out that the bigger reductions are being offered in areas that have the most votes with the odd exception of Lubbock County, the home of Preston Smith.

In Dallas and Harris counties, where you have a possible concentration of 100 cars to the square mile, the rate reduction is to be $13. In Western counties, where you might average one car to 10 square miles, the reduction is to be $3. Now how does that grab you. Where do you believe the most traffic accidents happen — in the big towns or in Western Counties?

About all I can say is, get 'em, McKool. Don't take the bait. Keep right on plugging until you get that full-scale investigation.

BEEFED UP—

From the St. Louis Post Dispatch: Tahlequar, Oklahoma — a man here learned something about the cost of meat. He was found guilty of stealing a T-bone steak from a local store and fined $100 and sentenced to ten days in jail.

When he was arrested he had a knife and fork in his pocket.

BRISCOITIS—

Fortunately for some, The Scoop has never been one to rub it in by saying "I told you so" but all strong Briscoe supporters in the area got a good sample of their man in action in the recent Democrat convention when he tired to straddle the fence and vote for just about everyone at the convention for President.

After stalling around on the roll call vote—each time addressing the woman clerk taking the count as "Mr. Chairman", Dolph finally announced that Texas cast so many votes for Wallace, so many for Jackson, so many for McGovern, etc., etc., he then said "and in the interest of party harmony, we take 13 of these and give them to McGovern".

Over the PA system, you heard the clerk ask someone, "How in the world do you count that?"

Entirely aside from the confusing and somewhat comical exhibition by Dolph, in swithing all the votes around and stalling until it didn't matter anyway, he managed to pull off one of the all-time big political boners. He got just about everybody mad at him.

It's not unusual to see a politician put his foot in his mouth — we all do that from time to time; but I don't believe I ever saw anyone get not only his foot but also his ankle and shin "plum" up to his knee.

Right on, Dolph. You keep that up and we may not have you for Governor after all. However, wiser heads are prevailing and they have managed to keep him under cover since the convention. And if his supporters are smart, that's where he will stay until after the November election.

Much more of his antics, they don't need.
