with school registration underway for Juniors and last Wednesday at Rankin School, was the issuing of annual. In the picture are Betty Blevens and Debbie from the Class of '73 who were on hand to issue books. A statement was made today that the Annual Signing Party will be held Sunday afternoon at the swimming pool park. The party will be at 5 p.m. Parents who want to get their children signed by school officials are invited to be on hand.

Lion Broom Sale is Planned for Monday

Rev. Gordon Miller, publicity chairman, today announced that Rankin Lions Club would again hold their annual Broom Sale on the opening day of school, next Monday, August 20. Time will be from 8 a.m. until 6 p.m. at the parking lot next to the Post Office. Door-to-door sales will also be made by Lion members in the afternoon.

Enrollment Figures Expected Near Normal

School Bells to Ring in Rankin Next Monday

Registrations were moving at an even clip this week in all three Rankin Schools and all is ready—as nearly as possible—for the first regular school day next Monday, August 20, Superintendent A. C. Copeland said that from all indications, enrollment would be near the projected figures of between 475-480. As of Wednesday morning, some twenty-five new students had been logged into the local system and more were expected as vacations ended.

In the "Oil Patch" schools, it's generally difficult to tell, even from week to week, exactly how many students will move into or out of a district.

CAFETERIA PRICES

As it has to all things, inflation has come to the school cafeteria, according to Mr. Copeland. As a result, he reported that Rankin School Board last Tuesday night adopted several new policies for the school cafeteria.

Prices for student lunches for Kindergarten through 8th Grade were increased 5-cents, to 50-cents per plate. Prices for student lunches, grades 9 through 12, were increased 10-cents, to 55-cents. All meals must be paid in advance or in cash.

In commenting on the actions of the Board the Superintendent noted that the cafeteria is not a budgeted operation, that it must pay its own way and that food prices were very unstable at this time. The added increase for the older students was made necessary due to the fact that they will be given more food than those in the lower grades.

"Most schools in our area already have this policy of feeding the older students more food. We believe it is necessary," said the Superintendent.

In commenting on the "cash" basis of operation, he noted that this was being done to prevent the additional cost of billing for those who have used charge accounts in the past. "The cost of billing for meals is now substantial," he said, "and if we can save some money here, it won't have to be passed along in higher meal prices."

Applications Open at City Secretary Slot

Announcement was made today by Rankin City Council that applications are now being taken at the City Hall for the position of City Secretary and Tax Assessor-Collector. Applications will be accepted until September 1.

Mrs. Vacie Workman, longtime employee of the City, who presently holds the position, has announced her plans for retirement on December 25 of this year.

Application blanks are now available at the City Hall and may be picked up there. All applications must be submitted on these forms by no later than Sept. 1.

The City Council is expected to go over applications at their regular September meeting and will announce their selection for the post shortly thereafter.

Hopes for Still More to Report --

Fifty-Two "Troops" Report for Football Practice

52 working now and for several others to school starts on Monday head coach Dwayne reviewed his roster of Rankin Red Devils last Tuesday, the second day of two-a-day workouts. In speaking of those he hoped to see report later, the coach noted that several boys had jobs and would have to work up to the beginning of school.

"They would be a little behind the rest of the team in conditioning," he said, "but they can catch up and we hope to see them here soon."

Faced with the prospect of having to rebuild both the offense and the defense due to graduation from last year's ball team, time was of the essence to the coaching staff and ball players in the opening days of drills. Full uniforms are not allowed until Friday under UIL rules and a good bit of this week has gone into agility drills and skull practice.

"We feel like we have the people to fill the gaps if we can get in enough practice for them to learn their positions. We ought to show improvement as we go along and gain experience," the coach stated.

Members of the team who had reported for work-outs as of last Tuesday included the following:

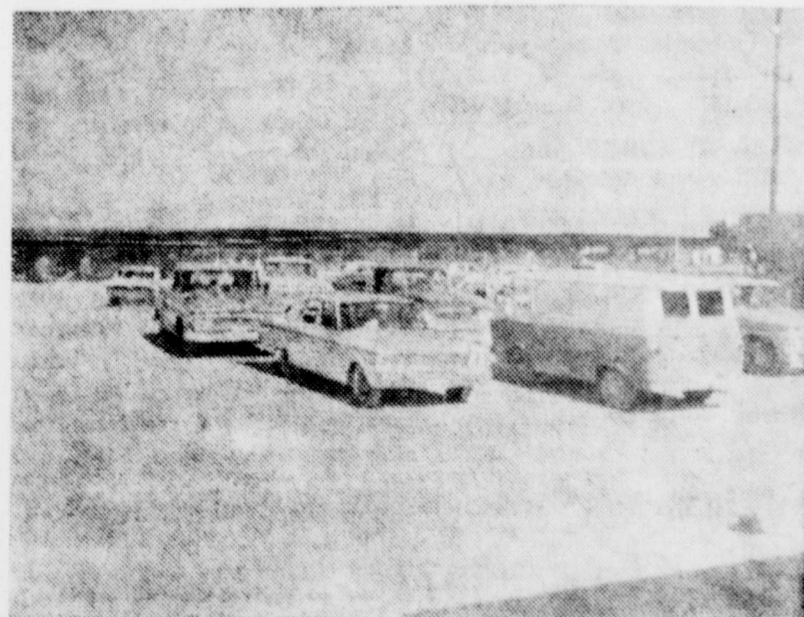

Jimmy Mathews, Eric Fitzhugh, Freddie Plagens, Brad Winn, Donnie Cole, Greg Feuge, Richard Loftin, Bobby Johnson,

Greg Copeland, Mark Russom, Asa Rhodes, Curtis Copeland, Mike Peters, Jimmy Eggemeyer, Alan Speed, Randy Hodges, Gary Dupriest, Lee Evans, Kirby Shipp,

Tommy Gray, Doug Brazil, Dan Garlington, David Wilkerson, Tony Peters, Rusty Stewart, Morris McKenzie, Tommy Johnson, Billy

Used Car Lot or Football Game . . .

No, friends, they were not having a ball game last Tuesday — even though the parking lots at the field were pretty well filled with vehicles. Some belonged to the coaches and players, but a lot of them were Red Devil fans already "scouting" the team.

Let's Move It, Men

James Heffernan, wearing a camera in background, sends his linemen through agility drills Tuesday. Facing the camera are Alan Speed, Charlie Peterson, David Wilkerson and Mark Parker. Other footballers are unidentified.

IT FIGURES —

There's some good news and some bad news. First the bad news: the head of the U.S. Health Department, participating in a tv program — rerun — has allowed as how eggs are very bad for one's health, especially if you happen to have a heart.

Now for the good news: at the present prices—and still rising, it's not likely that many of us are going to be eating any of those bad old eggs—or much of anything else for that matter.

It's a funny thing about this egg business—not the fact that the price is up—but, rather, that it is now being spread about that eggs are not good healthwise. We all know that ever since the first grade we have all been taught to eat the right things in order to be healthy and right at the top of the list of right things has always been eggs.

As late as last Sunday's issue of the Odessa American, a retired home economics school teacher was giving tips on how to help make up for the lack of meat in the diet and her first suggestion was to eat eggs. It's stuff like that that tends to complicate life.

Here on the one hand we have the learned advice of a scientific group saying that eggs are a bad-die, and on the other, an equally supposedly qualified, well educated authority, saying "scarf-up on the eggs, folks, they're good for you." It's stuff like that that gets you up tight, and as has long are being given the old run_around some place here. For many years eggs were cheap and even newspaper editors could afford to eat them. Now, due probably to government meddling, eggs are out of a lot of wage-earners price range and we're being told they are not good for you anyhow.

All these learned authorities had better get together on their facts.

LIFTED --

Over in Fort Stockton, the Pioneer—that's a newspaper—runs a column called "Pecos Willie Says." Actually the guy who writes it does not live in Pecos County and may have never even been there. being a chap who writes and sells his column to a number of newspapers—mostly those who can afford to pay him for his services. This week, I'm lifting one of his columns from the Pioneer since Pecos Willie has a point or two going in his, "How to Run A Farm on the Watergate System." If you don't like the word, farm, make it "ranch."

"As I understand the operation of government in Washington after listening to a lot of the Watergate hearings, nearly everything is done by memos and logs.

That is, if you leave your office a secretary write it down in a log, and when you get to somebody else's office his secretary writes that down in her log. If anything happens at such a meeting you leave, get logged, return to your office where you're logged back in, and then dictate a memo, either to your superior, to a co-equal, to an underling, or, if you can't think of anybody else, to yourself.

All these memos are then filed away and at the end of the year are counted I guess and the one with the most wins.

I got to thinking, how would such a system work out here on this Pecos County grass farm? I tried it for a day and it went like this:

7 a.m.: thought about getting up.
7:45 a.m.: got up. 8 a.m.: breakfast conference. 9 a.m.: logged self out the back door, noticed a flat on my tractor, wrote a memo to have it fixed.

9:15 a.m.: read newspaper. 10:30 a.m.: examined tractor, noticed tire still flat, wrote a back-up memo to have it fixed. 10:35 a.m.: logged self back in the house to get a drink of water.

11 a.m.: had telephone call. Told banker I had no recollection of signing note. John Dean must have done it. 11:30 a.m.: recessed for lunch. 12:30 to 2 p.m.: nap.

2:15 p.m.: wrote memo on plans for next day's work. 3:45 p.m.: coffee break. Reviewed international and domestic situation with fellow coffee-drinkers. Wrote memo deploring both.

Read newspaper. Discovered an article saying perjury before an investigating committee can cost $2,000 in fine for every case. Figured government can net 14 million dollars at least just from the Watergate witnesses. 5:30 p. m.: logged self back into house. listened to evening news. 6 p.m.: supper conference.

7 to 9 p.m.: watched reruns. 9:15 p.m.: shredded memos, went to bed. Dreamed government was in as bad a shape as this farm."

Barrett-Routh Wedding Is Held in Rankin Aug. 11th

Wedding vows for Martha Jane (Janie) Barrett and William Lee Routh were exchanged at 7 p. m. Saturday, August 11 in the First Baptist Church in Rankin. Rev. J. C. Tankersley, pastor, officiated at the single ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Barrett of Midland and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Routh of Rankin. Both are graduates of Rankin High School.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of embossed peau de sole in an A-line silhouette, featuring a yoke and bell sleeves of Division and Halliburton Resources Management Company, all operating entities of the Halliburton Company.

Sproul had been assistant division credit manager for the Denver Division since June, 1972. A native of Eldorado, Sproul attended San Angelo Junior College. He worked as a roughneck and driller in the West Texas oil fields before he joined Halliburton Services at San Angelo in November, 1972 as a truck driver.

Sproul worked in Halliburton's Midland Division as a dispatcher, imported Chantilly lace encrusted with seed pearls. A chapel train of the same lace highlighted by pear trim fell from the back yoke.

Her elbow-length veil of silk illusion was held by pearl encrusted petals. She carried a white satin Bible, topped with a cascade arrangement of white daisies and yellow sweetheart roses.

Best man was Wesley Roach of Alpine while Mrs. Roy Winters, sister of the bride and a resident of Morton, was Matron of Honor. Bridesmaids were Gay and Mary Routh, sisters of the bridegroom, and both of Rankin. Ben Bentley of Canyon and Jack Campbell of Rankin were groomsmen.

Bill Barrett, Jr. of Sterling City and a brother of the bride, and Roy Winters, her bother-in-law, were ushers. Music was by Mrs. Nolan Corder, organist, and Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Nowlin who presented a duet.

A reception in the church fellowship hall followed the ceremony. Lois Crawford registered guests while Diane Day and Sue Jackson were at the bride's table, and Sheryl Eggemeyer and Mrs. H. L. Haynes, Jr., presided at the bridegroom's table. Others in the houseparty were Mrs. Bill Barrett, Jr., Mrs. G. F. Crawford and Donna Sewell. The latter, a cousin of the bridegroom, distributed rice bags to the guests.

The Rouths are currently enrolled in West Texas State University in Canyon. Mr. Routh is employed by Canyon Public Schools this fall.

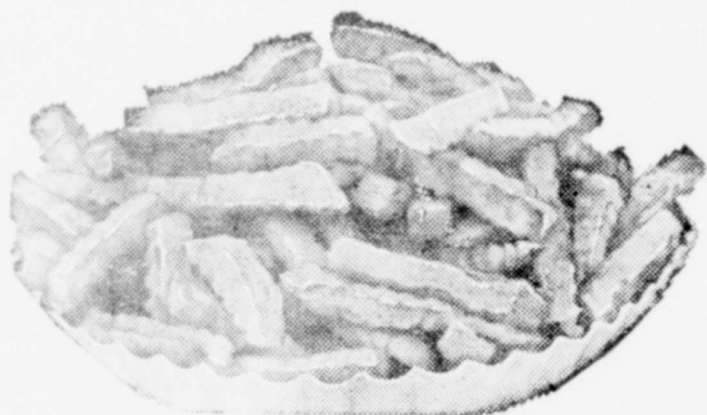

cementer acid treater and field supervisor for six years before moving to Rankin, and on to Denver as assistant division credit manager.

His office is in the Colorado State Bank Building in Denver. The Denver Division serves the petroleum industry in northern Colorado, Idaho, Wyoming, most of Utah, Montana, North and South Dakota and western Nebraska. Halliburton Services offers technical oil field services throughout the world.

ballitis is only a mild Rankin but within the weeks it will as always demie proportions with fans turning gassy-eyed and exhibiting symptoms of a sheep that has been too long on the loco weed.

So far there has never been a fatal case reported in Rankin and since practically all of us are affected more or less to the same extent it's probably not anything serious. In any case, we begin.

And, as usual, 4th & 10 will again point out in this first column that he makes no claims of being a football authority other than to say that he can do as well at the Saturday morning quarterbacking
as can most of the other "coaches"
we have in Rankin such as Skinny Taylor, Shank Bloxom, Dean Nicholson — to name only a few — and that fellow in Dallas
called Tom Landry.

I realize that's not saying much
on your own behalf; however,
this column is written for the sole purpose of boosting the Rankin Red Devils and the entertainment of its readers.

AS USUAL—

Speaking of that fellow Landry
in Dallas reminds one that Rankin

is also a hot-bed of Cowboy supporters and to them I extend my sincere sympathy. True, Dallas made it to the finals for some seven or eight times and has won the Superbowl once but you don't hear too much about the fact that, until the Washington Redskins turned into a team, the Dallas conference was a set-up.
Still, whenever they meet a physical team, such as the Chargers in last week's exhibition, they get walked on—the score in that one not being a true indication of the way the Chargers pushed the Cowboys all over the field in the 4th quarter, and even the poorest sideline quarterback knows that you have to win the 4th quarter
in any good ball game.

It was interesting to sit and watch how many plays San Diego ran at the Poke line, right thru the position of No. 74. It was a bunch.

I will, however, give credit
where credit is due. Tom Landry has taken an outstanding quarterback in Roger Staubach, and made him into just another run-of-the-mill guy who hands off the ball and throws it now and then.
That may be the way to do it in the big league but in so doing,
the excitement that was once a part of the Dallas game is gone—
along with, I suspect, a goodly number of supporters.

Still, it must have took some doing to remake a ball player such as Staubach into a molded pattern that must stand like a dummy until he's clobbered by the opposing linemen; but it appears that Landry has pulled it off.

THE YEAR OF THE DEVILS —

Getting to the important part, it is naturally, what about the 1973
Red Devils? Right at this point, it's doubtful that even the coaching staff has much to go on. It's simply too early to tell a lot about the team.

This could well be "The Year of the Red Devils", as is being proclaimed; however, it will not come easy and the boys face a lot of hard, dedicated work before they will be ready. In their favor are one or two things with the most important probably being their attitude. They think they can do it and that's half of any battle. Also, they may have a bit more weight than last year and have several boys with the potential of being great.

This year the district will likely be tougher and the non-conference slate will certainly be a tester.
On defense, the Red Devils ought to be in pretty good shape and if they can get an offense together
in time, may be off to another good start.

About the only thing that is a sure bet at this point is that they will have support from their fans.
This will be 4th and 10's 20th season of reporting Rankin games and that support has always been the one constant factor.

Now if we can just get them to move up September 7 a week or two we'll get the show on the road.

Pressure canners are needed to process foods low in acid content.

Bacteria will not be killed unless low-acid foods are cooked for a long period of time at boiling temperatures.

Cooking with a pressure canner raises the temperature used to kill these bacteria and takes only a fraction of the time for the canning process.

It is safe to can jams, jellies, fruit butters and high-acid foods without a pressure canner.

Foods which don't require pressure canning are cucumbers when pickled, cabbage when made into kraut and fruits including tomatoes. (Continued to Next Page)

Country Western

Dance Friday Nite

An "Off to College" and "Back to School" dance, for graduates and current students of Rankin High School, and their dates, will be held Friday night at the Rankin Country Club. Country-Western music featuring local talent will perform on stage.

An added attraction will be the stereophonic sounds of rock music, said to have never been heard in Rankin before.
