A Trashy Dump Ground

Trash dumpers scatter rubbish along roadway leading into city dump ground area dumpground by any other is still a dumpground, but can't have to look quite like being put together by a dump. At least, that's the opinion of those responsible for making some sort of order and measure of neatness at the city dump off the Mid-Highway.

Commissioner Doc Adams as he said the situation last Monday with The News. "All we're looking for is a little cooperation from the public," the commissioner said.

Inspection of the site Monday Adams and the editor of The News, particularly tree stumps scattered helter-skelter all over the several acres and on the side of the road leading into the dump area. In one place it was necessary to drive over an old mattress that had been discarded in the middle of the road. County bulldozers must be moved to the area almost every week and the debris pushed toward the back of the dump.

"This is an added expense to the taxpayers and could easily be avoided," Adams said.

It is requested that those who haul trash, tree limbs or whatever to the dump grounds, unload their hauls at the far south end of the site. Also, that all dumping be done on the left of the road going into the grounds and that no items be piled up in or along the roadways.

"We're not fussing with anyone," the Commissioner pointed out; "but with just a little help and cooperation, we can make the job of trying to keep some sort of order at the dump a little less expensive and time consuming."

Adams also added that erecting of signs designating dumping areas was being considered.

School Board Race Draws the Most Candidates

With a midnight deadline of Wednesday facing them for filing, it appeared that Rankin Schools would get most of the action in upcoming April 6 elections. Two new candidates had filed as of Wednesday morning, Don Vickers and Sam Fitzhugh, giving the RISD ballot six names for the two seats open.

Other school candidates are incumbents Dr. J. D. Gossett and Lloyd Helms, and Mrs. Ann Kelley and Phillip West. There were no new names at the City or Hospital offices at press time.

Vickers, a graduate of RHS who moved back to Rankin last year, is employed by Union Texas Petroleum. Fitzhugh, who operates a water well drilling and service firm here, is well known in Rankin and told the News that he was making the race "because I plan to be around Rankin for quite some time and have a deep and abiding interest in our schools and the community."

Booster Scholarship Voting Underway

Voting for the Booster Club's Scholarship has now started and will continue through April 1. Ballots are available at the Rankin Drug Store. A ballot box will also be at the store, along with a list of all eligible seniors attached.

Ballots may either be placed in the box or mailed to Barbara McSpadden, Jimmy Lee, or mailed to the Booster Club. All ballots must be signed.

Flea Market Set for Rankin Country Club

Ways and Means chairman Mrs. Ann Kelley has announced that Rankin Country Club will sponsor a flea market at the club Sunday afternoon, March 31. It is to open to the public at 1 p.m. and will run through 6 p.m.

Mrs. Kelley has issued an invitation for all parties interested in securing booth space at the sale to contact her at 693-2867 or 693-8817. Mrs. Kelley says she expects spaces to go reasonably fast as they have been offered to interested persons or groups in Big Lake, McCamey, Crane and Iraan as well as in Rankin.

"We are going to give the flea market wide publicity," she noted, "and we expect to have a good turn-out. We'd advise those wanting booths to act promptly since space is limited."

School Asks Help

on Knobb Hill Field

Rankin School administration is respectfully requesting cooperation from the patrons and youth of the community in regard to the use of the school's track facilities and practice football field.

Recently twelve inches of new soil was placed on the infield of the track area and school officials are preparing it for grass seeding to grow turf for a suitable practice football field. Either by accident or on purpose, there have recently been several instances in which considerable damage has been sustained to the newly prepared seedbed by people walking through wet areas.

It is requested that all those using the track facilities — and this includes students — to please stay off the infield and not to move any of the sprinklers or watering equipment.

Historical Society to Meet on March 10

Upton County Historical Society has scheduled a meeting in the educational building of the United Methodist Church in Rankin for Sunday, March 10. Time is to be at 2:30 p.m.

Guest speaker for the afternoon is slated to be Mr. Sam Fitzhugh. His topic will be a discussion on plants and trees of this immediate area.

All interested persons are invited to attend.

Notices

Rankin High School's Speech Department needs to borrow a love seat for their one-act play. Anyone having a seat they would loan is asked to call the principal's office at 693-2351.

Due to the law suit filed Tuesday by the Humane Society, the demonstration and certification of use of the M-44 predator control gun, scheduled for next Tuesday, has been postponed.

There will be a meeting to demonstrate pruning and training of young pecan trees and a talk about fertilizing and care of trees, Monday, March 11 at 5:30 p.m. at the Doc Adams residence, 210 8th Street.

Hum, Rankin Wins Wink Meet Again--

Boys and Girls Make Good Track Showings

they had won it for some years in a row, it came as a surprise when the Rankin Devils repeated in taking a crown at last week's track meet. The Maroon team rolled to a total of 166

A track crown the past several seasons. Sanderson was a distant third in Wink with 82 points. Balmorhea and Wink, also from the district, counted 73 and 43 points, respectively.

And out in Van Horn, Clint, another 6-A contender, rolled to a whopping 238 points to win their division— against a much weaker field than that at Wink.

While the Boys Track Team was up to its old tricks of winning, the RHS Girls Track Team entered the McCamey Relays last week and made what may have been one of their strongest showings in a quality field. They finished 3rd in the meet that saw Iraan Girls continue their domination of West Texas fem relays.

Rankin Girls' track program has only been a serious effort for about the past four years and the young ladies have showed marked improvement each year.

This week, RHS activities on the sports scene will see the Boys at the Cactus Relays in Iraan and the Girls in Robert Lee. Rankin High's Golf Team will be in the Heart of Texas at Brady for Saturday play. They plan to go down on Friday for a practice round. In a practice session in Sonora last Saturday, they carded a 310 on a very demanding course. All four top scores were in the 70's.

Appreciated a few eyebrows went up at the rather strong performance received from the Iraan team total of 106. Previously it was felt that Sanderson probably be the strongest team in the district — next to Rankin, the winners of the 6-

HOT STUFF —

Man, this weather is great, especially on the days when the wind doesn't get the dust to rolling—and that's not too often. Still, there's a catch to it in one sense.

Another few days of summertime temperatures and chances are about 99-1 that you can kiss the fruit and pecan crop adios for this year. Just as sure as heck, somebody will leave the gate down in Amarillo about the first of April and we'll get a bone-chiller that will freeze everything.

It looks like even the weather has gone crackers and it leads one to think that somewhere we must have a Washington bureau or department trying to regulate it.

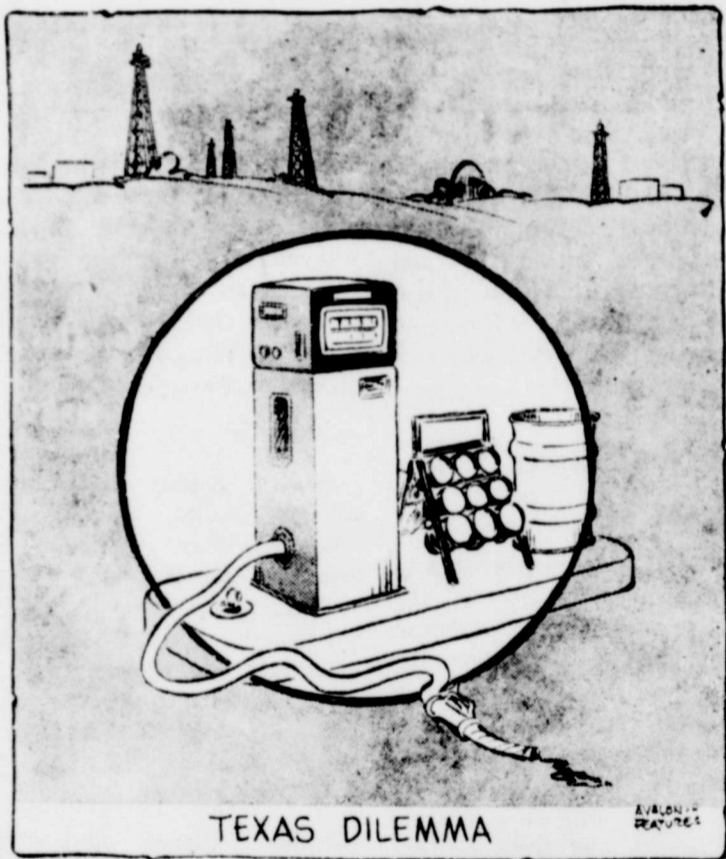

And that brings to mind the gas thing where the Federals have decided what areas of the nation are most in need of more fuel supplies. And wouldn't you know it—

The Rankin (Tex.) News — Thursday, March 7, 1974

they cut the Basin allotment and in so doing, slows down the area that produces one-fourth of all the oil in the U. S.

It just doesn't seem reasonable to assume that the folks who are in charge of these regulations are actually unaware of what they are doing. Still, it's either that or they're just plain dumb and I, for one, can't really believe round long enough to wear the title of "old timer" can recall when college students used to go a little ape once in a while and pull off what most of the more conventional of the times would call a weird stunt. Among these have been the fads of swallowing live golf fish, seeing how many people could be stuffed into a telephone booth or small car—all sorts of records of that nature—and, of a more recent origin, the panty raids.

All these, of course, have now been replaced with the current "in thing" of streaking—which, if you've read the newspapers or listened to tv, you know consists of either boys or girls—or both—taking off all or most of their clothes, and running or streaking from one place to another.

Sometimes it's only one or two people involved; other incidents may consist of a whole herd of people. Streaking has been reported in practically every part of the country and about the only place where it has caused much of a stir was up in Lubbock where the police arrested a couple of streakers at Tech and had a riot on their hands by students who felt that the police were a bit narrow minded. Personally, I had rather hear of the kids doing the streaking bit than holding a full-fledged riot and tearing up property, such as was going on in a lot of colleges a few years a go.

In fact, I've been keeping a sharp eye out here in Rankin — with camera ready—just in case we should have any streaking incidents to report. Once, during a pretty good sand storm, I thought for sure I had spotted me a real live streaker, but when it cleared up a bit, it turned out to be that ole yellow dog of Doris Speeds. In a way, I'm glad that it was for at the time, I remember thinking to myself "boy, if that's really a streaker, he's one of the scruffiest dudes I've ever seen and that Rankin ought to be able to do better."

Anyway, now that we've had all these fads, pranks or whatever you care to call them by the college students, it makes one wonder just what they will come up with next. About all you can be sure of is that it will not be what most of us would consider

Louisiana Services for W. F. Houck

Funeral services and burial of W. F. Houck, Rankin resident for the past five years, were held in Delhi, La., Saturday, February 16.
Mr. Houck was 72 years old and was born in 1902 in Magnolia, Arkansas.

He and his wife were visiting in Delhi at the time of his passing, which was attributed to bronchopeumonia with acute congestive heart failure. He had been in ill health since moving to West Texas from California.

Survivors other than his wife are two sons, Hubert Houck of Conroe and J. Y. Houck of Crane; two daughters, Betty Jo Pierce of Odessa and Gertrude Crocham of Magnolia, Ark.; two half-brothers, Corbin Houck of Waco, and Elton Houck of Dallas; 26 grandchildren and several great-grandchildren.

an everyday thing and I guess that's why students do them. As the popular explanation for anything done by younger people nowadays is that "they are just trying to find themselves", I suppose we can expect almost anything.

Still, it's a little hard to believe that somebody running around in his or hear birthday suit is really trying to find themselves once they strip to the bare facts. You would think they couldn't miss—especially on a cold evening up north where the temperature could well be below freezing. But as I understand it, that's the whole object of advanced education — to find out things you didn't already know.

6 WAYS TO CONSERVE AND SAVE ON HOME LAUNDRY

1. Wash and dry a full load, but never overload... it is essential for each item to move freely for proper cleaning and drying.
2. Choose the correct cycle for washing modern materials. Perhaps hot water isn't needed, and only a gentle drying temperature.
3. Too much detergent can clog machine and drains... always measure, don't guess. Follow the manufacturers recommendations for your equipment. Mixing brands of detergents can cause graying of clothes.
4. Many manufacturers of permanent press garments recommend machine washing and machine drying for best results. Following instructions on the garment tag can preserve the life of your clothing and give you wrinkle-free clothes without need for ironing. A big savings!
5. An important maintenance function for you to do is to clean the lint trap and lint filter on both washer and dryer after each load of a full day's use of your home laundry.
6. Never-Never pour bleach directly into the washer with clothes in it. Always dilute bleach before adding it to wash water. Also, timing is important. Bleach should be added after the clothes have washed at least 5 minutes.

Farmers and ranchers in Upton County will have an opportunity to learn about an experimental coyote control program March 12 at 4 p.m. at the Upton County Commissioners court room at the courthouse in Rankin, announces Dub Day, County Extension Agent.

The meeting will concern the safe use of the M-44 spring-loaded ejector which uses sodium cyanide capsules as a means of controlling predatory animal. The device has been approved by the Environmental Protection Agency for use in a 15-month experimental program in 44 counties in West, Central, and South Texas. The Texas Department of Agriculture will direct the program. Co-operating agencies are the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, and the Texas Rodent and Predatory Control Service.

The aim of the program is to determine the safest, least expensive and most effective means of controlling predators without harm to other wildlife and the environment, explains Day.

The March 12 meeting will be conducted by a wildlife specialist of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and a representative of the Texas Department of Agriculture.

Day emphasizes that only those farmers and ranchers who participate in the training meeting will be certified to purchase the M-44 and capsules to use in the pilot program. Each participant will be issued a certificate by the Texas Department of Agriculture at the conclusion of the meeting.

Day noted that a local supplier will be named in the county who will sell the M-44 and capsules to qualified producers. Those purchasing the predator control devices will be required to submit a monthly report to the County Extension Office on the use and effect of the control system. This report will be used by the representatives of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station and the Environmental Protection Agency to evaluate the program.
