went into effect on December 1,

The severity of the weather is the main factor involving the

ESTIMATED 17 INCHES HIT RANKIN IN TEN-DAY PERIOD—

Record Rainfall Gauged For Area

Pecos River Goes On A Tear

Considering that there's inflation in everything else, it probably figures that rainfall would also be up for the year. According to the Texas Almanac, Upton County has an average annual rainfall of 12.62 inches.
Although Mr. Fred Welling, who keeps the official records for Rankin, was out of town Wednesday and no exact measurements were available, it is estimated that approximately 17 inches of moisture has fallen in Rankin proper since Sunday, September 15. A large portion of this came in the period of last Thursday and Friday which saw flooding over wide portions of the draw country.
Officially, Mr. Welling had a total measurement of 12.70 in.
as of about 9 a.m. last Saturday. After that time, local rain gauges have gathered an addi-4 to 5 inches through Tuesday evening. No rain had fallen for the past 12-15 hours; however, it remained cloudy and good possibilities prevailed as of Wednesday morning. Total for the year so far is estimated at a...bout 20 inches.

In addition to the record rainfall, temperatures for this time of year were also believed to be hitting record lows. Stoves were being lighted, coats dug out of storage and electric blankets put to use.
Old timers in the area were reluctant to say that they could ever recall more rain in any ten-day period in Rankin. In 1932 it is said that it rained 18 out of 21 days, but that no accurate measurements were kept.
There have been instances of higher water — as recently as 1955 — but at that particular time, some five inches fell in the period of about an hour and a half. Most of the current falls have been spread over a much longer period of time.
Considerable damage is reported to some homes in the south part of Rankin, ranchers

As a rule, on crossing the Pecos River near Iraan, one has to do a quick look down into the river bed to see any water.
Not so last Thursday as flooding pushed the waters of the river several hundred yards past the bridge on the west and south sides. Later in the day, and during most of Friday, the entire bridge was under water as a 20-foot-plus rise surged down stream.
Just minutes prior to the taking of the above photo, a Volkswagen, attempting to make it to the pavement after coming in off a ranch road on the left side of the picture, found the water too deep and began floating—just like in the ad—and was washed into the main current of the river where it sank.
Two male occupants made it out of the water safely. By Sunday afternoon, the vehicle was visible from the bridge. It was laying on it's side, some 150 yards from where it started it's boating act.

And when they did get to the

went down 28-0 and the 7th
Grade dropped an 18-6 decision.

They'll Sit This One Out

Generally a group that will take on all comers, these RHS students wisely decided to sit out the high water that raged in Rankin Draw last Thursday. In the background the water laps
at the Santa Fe Railway bridge.
Considerable damage resulted up and down the rail lines from extensive flooding.

Speech Club Asks For Old Papers

As a combination conservation and fund raising effort, members of the RHS Speech Club are planning a drive to gather old newspapers, magazines and catalogues to be sold for recycling.
Once the current spell of wet weather is ended, the Club will place several barrels near the post office for the purpose of gathering material.
"We are asking the public to help us out on this project,"
said a spokesman for the Club.
"If they will deposit their old newspapers, catalogues and magazines in these cans, we will pick them up and take them to Midland. This will enable us, to earn a little money for our club
program and, at the same time, help out a little on the current paper shortage."

The Scoop

AWRIGHT, AWREADY —

The power of the press can sometimes be a little frightening. For example, last week I had a little headline on the front page that said "Let'er Rain." And, friends, it has. The question now before the house is, how do we get the darn stuff turned off? Even the ranchers are saying they've had enough and that has to be some sort of record.

In fact, it has rained so much that those with short rain gauges—up to five and six inches in depth—are having to grease them every other day to keep them from burning up. One fellow was using a gallon bucket to measure the rain and it was not big enough either. After one hard rain, it ran over for thirty minutes after it stopped raining.

And another ole boy declares that the frogs around his stock tank are all wearing hip boots. But like most things of this nature, there are always some who will tell of a time when they have seen in rain more or longer—but few will say that they've ever seen anything like this in Rankin. West Texans, and Rankinites in particular, are just not conditioned to this sort of weather. If the sun does not start shining before long, a

High Water Surges Into Homes

For the second time in recent weeks families living along the Rankin Draw in south Rankin were forced out of their homes by high water. The picture was taken at the crest of the flooding.

Janice Gardner, social chairman; and Mrs. Bargar George, telephone committee chairman.

A barbecue was planned for Saturday night, Sept. 21. It was followed by a dance at the Rankin Country Club.

Next meeting of the club is scheduled for October 1 at 7:30 p.m. at the Park Building and all wives of Halliburton employees are urged to attend.

Child Seminar to be Held in Crane

Shoe laces, paper sack puppets, hammer and nails — tools for teaching children to like learning, will be a part of "The Early Years—A Seminar About Children," for parents of young children in the surrounding area. Time will be at 9:30 a.m. on October 2 in the Crane County Exhibition Building located on the Grandfalls Highway in Crane.

There is no admission fee for the one-day program, sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, according to Mrs. Jalyne Burkett, County Extension Agent for Upton and Reagan Counties.

Six major topics will be covered. Conducted by a family life education specialist, nutritionist, kindergarten teacher and others, the seminar will feature a session of "Playing is Learning—Will You Play With Me?" Mrs. Burkett said.

"We will use shoe laces, paper sack puppets, hammer and nails, along with wooden beads, marbles and milk cartons, to show parents how they can play with their children to build positive attitudes toward learning," the Extension Agent explained.

In addition to games, the seminar will feature a symposium discussion on discipline, emotions, children and families, and getting ready for school.

A "Little Folks" luncheon will be served at the Exhibition Building. Luncheon reservations are $2 and are available from Mrs. Glenda Bland, Crane County Extension Agent, before September 27. Checks should be made payable to Early Years Seminar.

Closing time for the workshop is 2:30 p.m.

CONSERVE AND SAVE ON ELECTRIC COOKING

Today's modern electric range offers you a host of special features which assure uniform cooking results each time. You'll find that cooking electrically is clean, cool and economical.

For best results, use flat bottom utensils with tight fitting covers. Utensils of medium or heavy weight aluminum conduct heat faster, transfer heat evenly and respond quickly to temperature changes.

Match the utensil to the size of the unit. Use 8 inch units for large utensils. Use 6 inch units for small to average sized pans.

Use high setting for a quick start for any surface cooking, or to boil water quickly. When cooking temperature is reached, switch to a lower setting.

Do not pre-heat the oven for roasting or broiling, but do pre-heat the oven to the temperature given in the recipe for baking.

Select correct, measured heat. The accurate heat selector switch or oven thermostat enables you to select, exactly, the same correct temperature each time you use it.

For good heat distribution around the pans, when baking, they should not touch the sides of the oven or each other. Allow one inch clearance. Check for doneness at minimum baking time on recipe, don't keep opening oven door to peek.

Remember, Reddy supplies the energy—but only you can use it wisely!

4th and 10 ON YOUR OWN TWO

* Being a column dedicated to the proposition that "being a Red Devil is just a little something special"

LOOKING GOOD —

With their win last Friday in Jal, the Red Devils are looking good with the possibility of going through their regular season with a 10-0 record. And you will please note the word "possibility." There are always teams around who either don't read press clippings or don't believe what they read.

You can bet that every team that remains on the Devils' regular schedule will be out to try and beat them. It would be a considerable feather in their cap if they could upset the Red Devils and we all are aware of the old saw that "on any given Friday night, etc., etc."

Again I would say congratulations to the Red Devils for their fine record and high standings in the ratings; but, I would also warn them, and the fans, not to get too confident. As of now, if Rankin can get by without any injuries, there's not a team left on the schedule that can hold them a light; but—there are no guarantees.

For example, look at Marfa, a team that hadn't been considered much in pre-season prognostications; but they are winning some and making it hard on others. Against AA Van Horn they had two touchdowns called back or they would have won that game. Then there's the unknown quality of Clint and — when they play Rankin—the always tough Iraan Braves.

Rankin has already got one big break, that being the wet weather hitting when they have an open date. Practices sessions in the damp probably wouldn't be for the best if the Red Devils were facing a toughie this Friday night.

HO BOY —

For a long time 4th & 10 has held to the opinion that only a dummy would try to pick winners in football games. You can never figure the intangibles — who will get the breaks, who is ready to play, who is going to get it all together— stuff like that. As a result, you can depend that at least once or twice a year, "on a given Friday night," those who would try to pick winners in football are going to look mighty sick.

Last week I got killed. Over the years, I've had some bad nights, but last week had to be some kind of record— the kind that makes you want to crawl in a hole somewhere. In the picks of week before last, I hit seven in a row and was patting myself on the head— and that was on Friday, the 13th. As usual, about the time you think you've got it all figured out, a long comes that killer week-end and what a mess.

Jimmy the Greek, I'm not.

THIS WEEK—

This week, of course, the Red Devils are open and won't see action. Still, we won't be entirely without some action. Thursday there will be what is set up as a three game affair between the B Team and the 7th and 8th Grades, with Balmorhea here. In their last session with the Bears, Balmorhea could not get up a 7th Grade team and the 7th and 8th Grades combined for a single game. It will probably be the same Thursday. In any case, if you haven't seen these three Rankin teams in action, try to get down and watch. They play some pretty good ball and it gets exciting at times.

Two good games are on tap in the area for Friday night; one being Lamesa at Big Lake and the other, Coahoma at McCamey. Either one ought to give any fan a look at some good football with the best one probably being the Lamesa-Big Lake thing. The Lamesa squad is a tough bunch of cookies and ought to put on quite a show.

PICKINGS —

NOTE: if, from week to week, some of the games picked are not the ones actually played, it's the fault of one of our area daily newspapers. The schedules they had in their football maga-

Reagan Hill is Buried on Tuesday

A man's right to work is as fundamental as his right to free speech and the pursuit of happiness

If a man chooses to join a union, he should be free to do so. If he chooses not to join a union, he should be free not to. It's that fundamental, according to Doug Harlan.

Doug Harlan, lawyer and former government teacher, is a candidate for Congress in the 21st District.

If you're for a man's Right to Work. For a balanced Federal budget. For dealing with our water problem before it becomes a crisis.

And for continued conservative and enlightened representation in Washington, then you're for Doug Harlan. He's for everything he says he's for.

Help Needed in 4-H Club Work

A meeting of the Rankin 4-H Club has been scheduled for 4 p.m., Tuesday, October 1, at the County Agent's office at the Upton County Courthouse. Home economics projects for the year are to be organized.

"Volunteer 4-H leaders for the projects are needed," said the Extension Agent today. "The projects cannot be conducted without leaders."

At present, leaders for the Foods and Nutrition projects are needed for girls. One volunteer leader is currently conducting a Foods and Nutrition project for seventeen boys. A ceramics project will be conducted later and one adult has volunteered to lead it.

"Please, won't you help out and volunteer to be a 4-H leader so that the Rankin 4-H club projects will be able to continue," said the Agent.

It's A Boy

He has one sister, Rai Lynn, age 7, and one brother, Robby, age 3, who were also born at Mercy Hospital in Slaton.

Lions To Offer Hunting Chances

Prizes will include two one-day deer hunts on the Noelke Ranch and three one-day quail hunts for two on an area ranch. Funds derived from the project are used by the Lions in their local community projects.

Tickets will be available the latter part of this week from all Club members.

The skirt, attached to the bodice with an empire waistline, featured a softly pleated back which flowed into a chapel length train. The front skirt was accented with a deep ruffled scallop and lace inset. Lace appliques dotted with seed pears and sequins were sprinkled over the gown.
