THE first subject to which I in and Agents and Locaters, vite your attention is the fence troubles. There may have been, and doubtless were causes of complaint in some instances, against the action of large pasture men; his acts. ant they amounted to nothing but xeuses. On the other hand pastare men found exquises for acts neither justified or excused by law. Indeed, they were simply excuses on either side. As for justifications, there were none.

If the law abiding people had acted promptly, at the beginning of these troubles, the law w uld have proven ample. BROWNWOOD, TEX., Dec. 28, 1888 DEAR SIR: Inclosed find copy of Uniform Constitution of Texas Land League. The bject of this erganization is to secure such legislation as will prevent land monopo ly in Texas. The name Land League has been adopted because the read, water, pasture and simiar questions which are now agitating the public mind in Texas. all grow out of, or are connected with, the land question.

The trouble upon these que sine is due principally to unwise or defective legislation, and it i- believed that it can, in a great measure, be remedied by wise legi-lation a will receive the endorsement an support of the majority of the good citizens of the state. But at pres ent the people do not know wh legislation they want. The object of this organization is to get the delegates to county convention Carriage, and petition the legislature for aut and Furniture legislation as they may desire.

There will be legislation of our and Calcimining, done in session of the Eighteenth leg aints of best qualities and ture. The monopolists are at wor they have the time and the me and their views and wishes will made known at Austin.
