WOODWORK

BY DALTON

HEADLINE in the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal last week, in large type all way across the page, said something about "Integration" problems. Anyone who would write such a headline ought to be sent to Cuba.

THE FOLLOWING is stolen from Wendell Tooley's column in the Floydada Hesperian (more on this later), who in turn stole it from the Houston Post, and an article by a Dr. Raphael Haley of Houston. Dr. Haley concluded after studying a Texas map that the "Society for Naming Small Texas Towns was a disorganized group:"

- From Blanket to Comfort, 130 miles.
- Dawn to Noonday, 500 miles.
- Noonday to Sunset, 160 miles.
- Ding Dong to Bells, 200 miles.
- Direct to Point Blank, 212 miles.
- Cost to Price, 175 miles.
- Telephone to Telegraph, 325 miles.
- Welcome to Pleasant Valley, 185 miles.
- Loop to Circle Back, 80 miles.
- Eden to Paradise, 180 miles.
- Pep to Energy, 285 miles.
- Big Foot to Elbow, 270 miles.
- Lariat to Ropeville, 90 miles.
- Petroleum to Gasoline, 525 miles.
- Ace to Spade, 490 miles.
- Bangs to Cut and Shoot, 225 miles.
- Hungerford to Needville, 14 miles.
- But it is only 32 miles from Kennedy to Nixon.

ONE THING he didn't mention was that in Texas, it's also only about 300 miles from Earth to Venus.

SOME OF US were wondering how the Floydada paper got its name, and the first thing I found in the dictionary, looking for "Hesperian" was Hesperides, which in Greek mythology referred to four sisters who (with a dragon's help) guarded the golden apples which Gaea gave as a wedding present to Hera (?). Well, I never heard of any golden apples in Floydada, although Wendell has laid a couple of eggs in his column since he

GREENBELT GRIDDERS TO REPORT JULY 22

Childress (SPECIAL)—The 14th Annual Greenbelt Bowl Football Classic will have a special meaning this year, as the game will become a part of the 75th anniversary celebration of Childress County. The celebration will start on July 18 and will end on Sunday, July 28, following the Greenbelt Bowl Game.

The players will report to Childress on Monday, July 22, at the Childress Hotel. They will be given the equipment, have their pictures made, meet their coaches and start their first drills. The people of Childress have prepared a warm welcome for the boys and their queen nominees, as they will be given passes to the swimming pool, the theater, and will be given a hospitality picnic.

Players for the east squad include Mike Masten, guard, from Sudan.

CUBS PUT SIX ON ALL-STARS

Fourteen players and four alternates were named to the Intercity Little League All-Star team Monday night, with the league champion Cubs putting six on the first unit.

Arvil Blair of the Cubs will be manager, and Joe Bellar of the Sudan Cards coach for the all-stars, who will meet Plainview in the first round of the all-star tournament in Littlefield July 18.

All-stars selected were: Cubs—Royce McAdams, Ronnie Hedges, Darrell Moates, Gary Robinson, Rodney Maxfield, Mike Coffey. Cards—Phelps Blume, Green Underwood, Jerry Bellar, Dusty Rudd. Braves—Pat Duffy, Dodgers—Stevie Martin, Mickey Gilbert, Billy Ford.

Alternates are Bruce Nicholson and Mickey Johnson, Braves; David Williams, Dodgers; and Freddy Perez, Angels.

Mrs. H. M. Nichols of Winters has been visiting with Mrs. J. S. Smith.

Among those from Sudan attending funeral services for Loyd Cheshier held Friday in Littlefield were Rev. Frank Weir, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Salem, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Slate, Trindel Ferguson, Reed Markham, Clay Cole.

Pete Lance of Lubbock was in Sudan Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Woodard and Donald Ray of Wichita Falls visited overnight in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Wood.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Smith of Rodessa, La. have been visiting his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Olds.

Rev. and Mrs. M. H. Walker of Roy, N.M. visited last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Salem.

Horace Hyatt and daughters of Spur visited recently in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Salem. While here they also visited Mrs. Newt Harkey in Littlefield.

Mr. and Mrs. Prentiss Fields of Paducah visited during the weekend in the Lewis Fields home.

Clay Matthews was to be in Big Springs Wednesday where he was to undergo surgery at a Methodist hospital there.

In regular season play, the Cubs wound up in first place, the Dodgers second, Cards third, Braves fourth and Angels fifth. The Dodgers won two games last week, 4-3 over the Braves and 29-6 over the Angels.

Harvey Willeby and Mickey Gilbert pitched against the Angels, and Damon Provence led the Dodger batters with three home runs. Stevie Martin also homered, and Buck Tollett hit two triples. Freddy Perez hit a home run for the Angels, who used three pitchers, Allen Black, Dennis West and James Sloan.

The Cubs downed the Cards 10-1 Friday as Royce McAdams pitched a one-hitter. Cub hitters were led by Gary Robinson's triple, and a triple and double by Mike Coffey. Green Underwood was the losing pitcher, and Jerry Bellar got the only hit for the Cards.

The Cards socked the Angels 16-1 Thursday as Bellar pitched a one-hitter, with Perez getting the Angels' only hit. Roger Bellar hit a triple and double and Underwood duplicated the feat. Johnny Gage tripled and Dusty Rudd doubled. Jerry Bellar struck out 12.

Amherst won its first game, and the Sudan Reds won three more games last week in Pee Wee action.

Miller and Noles pitched the Amherst team to a 6-2 win over the Sudan Blues last Thursday, while Mark Hanna and Andy Perez pitched for the losers.

The Reds walloped Fieldton 15-1 last Thursday behind the pitching of Jerry Dell Price and Terry Wood. Price also hit a home run and Wood tripled. Doubles were hit by Keith Downs, Pete Garza, Wood, Kevin May and Larry Baker.

The Sudan Reds won two games last week, but managed to win them both, 10-8 and 14-11. In the first game, home runs were hit by Dusty Davis of the Blues, and by the Reds' Price and Wood. In the 14-11 game, Norman Chisholm of the Blues and Rocky Williams of the Redshomered, and Price hit two home runs for the Reds. Williams and Kevin May also scored home runs on errors.

The Pee Wee Reds, winners of nine straight games this year, finally bit off more than they could swallow Monday night, as the Amherst minor leaguers, bolstered by five members of the Amherst Braves little league team, walloped the Reds 21-12.

Dickie Hughes, John Bisnat and two other Amherst players whose last names were not given hit home runs for the winners, who pitched Ricky Miller and Ricky Allenworth. Jerry Price pitched the entire game for the Reds, who actually led 5-3 at the end of the second inning. The roof fell in on the Reds in the fourth inning, when the visitors made 12 runs.

Reagan Baker, who had played with the Reds all season up to the last two games when he moved up to Little League, drove in five runs for the Reds with a home run and two doubles.

Scripture: St. Matthew 18: 1-3, 10.

I read in a Commentary on one of our S. S. lessons that people in the world without God would be like children left in a nursery without a supervisor.

As I thought about this and the Scripture that Jesus gave us, I began to study a little child with "becoming as a little child" in mind. (That is what we as Christians call seeing with the eyes of Christ, or our spiritual eyesight).

One of the first things I noted about a little child was: as he began to try to walk, he would take a few steps and fall down. His parents, or loved ones, would help him up, holding his hand encouragingly and finally he walked a little better. When he fell down he got up to try again. (If you fall down, do you get up and try again, or have you just stayed down? Jesus is always holding out His hand to help you up.)

Then I thought if we were to leave an outside door unlocked, that the little child would run against the door and fall out to perhaps his death or permanent injury, all unconscious of the danger; And sometimes resenting loudly the fastened doors that are for his own protection. (Do you know that as a "child" of God in this world, God will protect you from harm, sometimes by closing some doors that you, and I, in our unknowing childishness, resent? But God does this like a parent, for love's sake, for our protection, not for thanks.)

Then we offer some gift, perhaps of entertainment, to the child to make him forget the closed door, and much better entertainment than he could find outside. (God always gives us better gifts than we know how to ask for, if we take up our cross of service and deny ourselves, coming away from the closed doors of this world. He gives us joys that make us forget the things of the outside world, and we are no longer conscious of the closed door.)

In a nursery, if there were several children and no Supervisor, in play the children would soon be fussing, and sometimes fighting, over their toys. (Aren't we, in this world, the same way when we do not have God in our lives?)

A little child alone cannot provide food for himself, but must depend on his parents for food. Jesus said it, "Except ye become as a little child...". We, then must depend upon God for our Spiritual food, and you know that one cannot live without food. It is just as true Spiritually, as it is physically. So, don't starve your Spiritual body to death. Feed on God's Word, in prayer, in worship, in fellowship and recreation with other children of God, in meditation, in music and song, in art, in work, in study, and under God's Supervision.

Then, one other thing I would like to mention about the child: Did you ever really look at a child's faith in his parents? Take notice, and be humble, Christians, for here is the kind of faith that Jesus wants us to have in Him. A child will hold on to his parent's hand and step off anything, not worrying about the outcome, for he is sure that mother, or daddy will take care of him. He will start up steps much too high and steep for his little legs. But he makes it up the steps by holding on to his mother or daddy's hand, as they also, (much more than the child is conscious of) hold firmly to his hand.

Do you hear this, Christians, with your Spiritual ears? The child makes it up steps much too high and steep for him to make it alone, but how he loves to climb those steps! Have you dared to take a step far beyond your own ability to climb, but confident in holding to God, our Father's hand that you would make it all right?

Peter had that kind of faith until he took his eyes off Jesus and began to look at all the storm and the terrible high waves around him. Then he started to go under, but as soon as he looked back to Jesus and called to Him, "Lord, save me," Jesus reached out His hand to save him, saying, "O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?"

Is it time we looked back to Jesus, and call Him "Lord"?

Quick and Easy Potato Salad

Wherever you are—at the mountains, seashore or home sweet home—there's picnic weather ahead. Appetites are ravenous... and in the nick of picnic time we dig into our hampers and bring you a memorable potato salad. Quick Potato Salad. It's easy to make, inexpensive and sure to rate raves with family and friends. The secret is Carnation, the milk you can whip like cream, and it costs only one-half as much.
Carnation Evaporated Milk has been a necessary ingredient in America's cooking and baking for over sixty years. Carnation Company is introducing a new can label this spring in full color with spectacularly illustrated recipes featuring the many uses of evaporated milk. Besides adding that "something special" to so many recipes, evaporated milk is a fine source of Vitamin D, proteins, and minerals so essential to good health!

QUICK POTATO SALAD
(Makes about 12 servings)

1 1/2 cups mayonnaise	1 tablespoon salt
1/2 cup (small can) undiluted evaporated milk	1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 cup lemon juice	1/2 cup finely chopped onion
1 tablespoon prepared mustard	1 1/2 cups finely chopped celery
3 cups (about 10 medium) cold cooked potato cubes	8 sliced hard cooked eggs

Mix mayonnaise, evaporated milk, lemon juice and mustard in large mixing bowl. Add potatoes, seasonings, onion, celery and 4 eggs. Toss lightly until well mixed. Spoon mixture into serving bowl and garnish with remaining eggs. Chill in refrigerator until serving time.
