THIRTY-NINTH YEAR

SUDAN, LAMB COUNTY, TEXAS THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 1963

NUMBER 27

WOODWORK BY DALTON

WHEN ONE OF my youngsters missed nine or 10 days of school one year, I thought he was slipping pretty badly. Imagine my surprise upon reading this week that the average Texas student misses 19.1 days.

This data comes from the National Education Assn., which says Texas thereby ranks 29th in days attended per pupil. Washington state was tops, with an average of 10.5 days missed, and the national average of absences was 18.9.

Nineteen days a year missed out of school seems like a heck of a lot to me, and I just find it difficult to believe that figures from our local schools wouldn't come within miles of that average (although I haven't checked).

I'll bet W. E. Hancock would personally shoot any student who missed 19 days of school in a year and missed up his average daily attendance record in such a way.

For heaven's sakes, if you missed 19 days of school a year, as the NEA says the average Texas student does, in 12 years you would miss 228 days of school—or more than an entire year out of school!

And some states are worse than Texas in attendance. Three states had no information available (guess they don't check the roll). The 46th ranking state, Alaska, showed students out of classes an average of 26.5 days a year (no blooming cold). But that doesn't seem bad at all to the big jump to the 47th and lowest-ranked state. According to the NEA, the average student in Nevada misses school 52 days a year!

(Junior isn't here today, teacher, he's down at Vegas rolling dice.) Oklahoma was listed as 19th, and that's the first time I knew they had schools up there.

Oh, I nearly forgot to mention the whole point of the story picked out of the mailbag which brought all this NEA data to my attention: The common cold is the biggest single factor contributing to all these absences, and kids in grade school have five times as many colds as adults, and if you don't buy their particular brand of cold remedy, there's no telling how much further down the attendance scale Texas may go.

FOOTBALL season is getting underway this week, and households are excited about prospects of winning the great Friday night. We urge everyone to go to the game and to take a look at this week's list of the season football ad, in which individuals and businesses express their support of the team.

You youngsters especially are urged to read the list of names and tell those whose names you see on the page that you appreciate their backing.

Wreck Kills G. W. Davis

Funeral services for George Wrether (Rat) Davis, 72-year-old former justice of the peace in Sudan who was killed in an auto collision Labor Day, were conducted Wednesday afternoon in the Sudan First Baptist Church.

Davis, a retired farmer, was killed when his car crashed into a car driven by Catresno Lina Jr., 32, of Littlefield. The wreck occurred at the western edge of Littlefield, on U. S. 84.

Littlefield policeman James Cox said the cars crashed head-on on the south side of the street in Davis' lane of traffic, about 8:50 a. m. Monday. Davis was headed for Littlefield to visit his wife, Vallie Mae Davis, who is a patient in Medical Arts Hospital.

Rev. Willie Hazel officiated at the services, and burial followed in Sudan Cemetery under direction of Hammors Funeral Home.

Survivors include his wife, a son, Carl, of Littlefield; a daughter, Mrs. Willie Mae Buris of Houston; eight grandchildren and three brothers.

KICKOFF TIME—Danny Allen of Sudan practices kicking off, a job he'll likely have if Sudan loses the toss at the first game here Friday night. The Morton Indians come to Masten Stadium at 8 p. m. (Staff Photo).

Rites Held For Mrs. Olds

Funeral services for Mrs. Class Olds, 57, were conducted Monday afternoon at the Sudan First Baptist Church, with Rev. O. L. Turner and Rev. Willie Hazel of Sudan officiating.

Mrs. Olds, who had lived in Sudan since 1924, died at 8:10 p. m. Sunday at West Plains Hospital in Muleshoe. A native of Louisiana, she was a member of the First Baptist Church.

Burial was in Littlefield Memorial Park under direction of Singleton Funeral Home, Muleshoe.

Survivors include her husband, J. W. Olds, three daughters, Mrs. Jerry Somalis of Denver, Colo., Mrs. Byron Linn of Sudan and Mrs. Pat Christal of Amarillo; two sisters, Mrs. Myrtle Shover of Gilliam, La., Mrs. Mattie Watson of Shreveport and six grandchildren.

RECORD CATCH—When Jay Miller caught this big one at the Santa Fe dock, it probably set a new record for big fish caught in the Sudan city limits. The salmon, dressed, weighed 20 pounds. It was caught in the state of Washington and shipped by rail to Sudan by George Lambert.

PREMIUM SET ON FIRST BALE

REVIVED CCA MAPS PLANS FOR PROGRESS

New plans to promote Sudan and the surrounding area were discussed and committees were set up to formulate a concrete program of community progress last Thursday night when some 20 persons met to reorganize the Sudan Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture.

One item which those present agreed deserved immediate attention was setting up a premium for Sudan's first bale of cotton, and the group voted to give $50 to the first bale grown in the Sudan trade territory. The CCA board of directors will decide on this award.

Elected as president of the group was Calvin Jordan, with Bill Nix chosen as vice president. Hoyt Robertson was elected secretary and treasurer, and directors chosen were Lester Shanks, Kenneth Burgess, Wayne Brown, Guy Walden and Nolan Parrish.

The board of directors met after the session and set annual dues at $15 for business firms, $10 for individuals, and $5 for associate and inactive members.

It was noted that the reorganization meeting was a called meeting, and that any other persons interested in belonging to the CCA may attend the next meeting, time of which will be announced.

Committees were set up as follows, with chairman's name first: Industrial and Business Development—Kenneth Burgess, Charles Garrett, J. W. Miller.

Agriculture—Nolan Parrish, R. L. Kamp, Marvin Tollett.

Trade Development—Lester Shanks, Bill Turner, Dean

Slaughter, O'Dean Heard. Community Education and Public Relations—Guy Walden, Waymon Gordon, Dalton Wood.

It's Football Time In Sudan!

By DALTON WOOD

Sudan football fans should find out Friday night whether their team has the potential to be as good as most close observers think it will be, or if the Hornets are no better than opposing district coaches and out-of-town sportswriters have them rated.

If the Hornets can win over a Morton team rated as better than usual, then Hale Center, Kress, Farwell and Springlake may be in for some surprises.

Last week's Morton Tribune said this year's tribe of Indians appears to be bigger and faster than Morton has had "in a long, long time."

If they are any bigger than they were last year, the turf of Masten Stadium could be in for some terrific pounding. But last year, an understated and understated hive of Hornets outcharged the big Indians in gaining a 6-6 tie.

Both teams should have essentially the same personnel as 1962, so another good game should be in store for fans in their seats by 8 p. m. Big gun in the ballroom backfield likely will be Charles Lottman, a nice runner whom Sudan fans should remember.

Coach Herb Brown was pleased with the results of last week's outmaneuvering against Nippy. "The boys hit pretty good," he said.

Brown gave a tentative starting lineup on offense as follows:

- LE—Danny Allen
- LT—Kennel May
- LG—Frank Caste
- C—Bill Boyles
- RG—Mick Baker
- RT—Robert Williamson
- RE—Denny Masten
- QB—Tommy Thomson or Mike Smith

EH—Pat Burrows
EH—Gary Reed
EB—Ray Roberts.

Brown mentioned the possibility that either Smith or Thomson would play halfback when the other was at quarterback, and said that Danny Ford and Mickey Caste would likely be starters on defense.

ROLLING ALONG Like Old Man River was this stream of water about a foot deep at the intersection of 15th and Commerce in Sudan Monday afternoon. It had just rained 1.7 inches in less than an hour. The rainfall did not extend far into the surrounding area, although some farmers north-east of town received some welcome hail. (Beacon-News Photo)

New Electric Bills To Come In Envelopes

Electric service bills for Sudan and Amherst customers will come in envelopes beginning this week, it has been announced by H. H. Potter, manager for the Southwestern Public Service Co.

The change from the postcard bill, which has been in use for a number of years, is the result of the installation of new electronic billing equipment, Potter said.

"I think the chances are slim that anyone would throw away an envelope with our company's return address on it, without first seeing what it contained, but it seems wise to point out, at the start of this new billing procedure, that the statement will be coming in an envelope in the future," Potter added.

The new envelope, white in color with a green block, is clearly marked on the outside as an electric service bill. Enclosed along with the new statement is a return envelope. The stub from the bill should be enclosed with the payment, the same practice that has prevailed in the past.

Potter said Sudan and Amherst customers would be billed at the same time of the month that they have been in the past.

Potter pointed out that there is a feature in the new billing system which might encourage more customers who have checking accounts to use the bank draft method of payment. He said that the objection to this method in the past has been that they didn't know how much their bank account had been charged.

Under the new billing system, the customer using the bank draft method of payment will receive a copy of his statement at the same time that the billing for customers is made. The statement will be clearly marked that it should not be paid because a bank draft will be drawn, but it will inform the customer of his monthly charges for electric service.

A small pamphlet, announcing the new billing procedure, will be enclosed in the first statements, scheduled to go out this week, Potter said.

Mrs. C. M. Spatman, a former Sudan school teacher, has moved back to Sudan and is a first grade teacher in the Sudan schools.

Pure Borax—For Sweeter Washes

Mothers of the diaper set, take note. There's a new member of the Church & Dwight family that bears the old and respected Arm & Hammer trademark on grocery store shelves. It's borax and it follows in the tradition of its sister product, baking soda, and comes to you 99 1/2 to 100 per cent pure. This means you can launder all your baby's washables with complete confidence knowing that there are no additives that can trouble tender skin. And the new borax comes to you in an easy-to-spot sparkling white package that epitomizes cleanliness and purity at a new pleasingly low price.

For brand new mothers whose biggest wash worry is diapers and who have not yet mastered the technique, here's the prescribed procedure.

When baby has settled down for his morning nap, put yesterday's accumulation of used diapers in the washing machine with a quarter of a cup of borax and a mild laundry soap or detergent. While the machine is whooshing it up, fill the diaper pail with cold water and add a quarter of a cup of borax for every gallon of water. Now you're prepared for the day's up-coming onslaught of diapers... and as each comes off of baby, plop into the pail it goes, rinsed first, though, if badly soiled. You'll still have time to fix formula for the day before diapers are ready to emerge from the washer. And when they do, they'll be soft and sweet as if they'd been line-dried in the sun, thanks to the new pure borax.

MEN NEEDED TO FILL RANKS OF STATE PATROL

TO HELP REVERSE RISING TRAFFIC DEATH TOLL AND ALARMING CRIME INCREASE

EMERGENCY — The alertness of Texas Highway Patrolmen in spotting and initiating warnings to the populace about dangers such as tornadoes has probably saved many human lives.

ROAD BLOCK — Highway Patrolmen play a big role in the fight against crime. The road block often proves an effective means of apprehending criminals.

DIRECTION — Part of the Highway Patrolmen's job is directing lost motorists to their destinations. Patrolmen stand ready to help travelers in any way.

COURTESY, SERVICE, PROTECTION — The motto of the Texas Department of Public Safety means what it says. Highway Patrolmen are always ready to assist motorists in distress.

The Texas Department of Public Safety is in need of approximately 100 "better than average" young Texans to fill the ranks of the Highway Patrol and help stem the tide of traffic tragedy and rising crime in the Lone Star State.

Applications will be accepted until September 14 for a training school which begins November 19 at the DPS Law Enforcement Academy in Austin where qualified men will participate in a police training program second to none. Trainees will receive salaries while in training.

Application may be made by men 21 to 35 years of age through any Department of Public Safety office, or by contacting a DPS patrolman.

The following will be applicable for men selected for the November 19 school:

1. The school will be for Highway Patrol personnel exclusively; all applicants selected for training will be assigned to the Patrol Service.
2. Every effort will be made to assign them to stations within 100 miles of their present homes.
3. Upon graduation, the new Highway Patrolmen will benefit by a pay increase from the present $412 per month to $453.

Highway Patrolmen also receive the following benefits:

- Two weeks vacation annually, 12 or more holidays each year as provided by the Legislature, 12 days per year sick leave which may accumulate to a maximum of 36 days, $10 per month added to salary at the end of each five years to a maximum of 25 years, modern liberal retirement system based on age and or years of service, social security benefits, traveling expenses when away from station as prescribed by law, group hospitalization and life plan available, uniforms and the necessary equipment to perform duties furnished.

PUBLIC TRUST IS SACRED
The career jobs offered actually are more than just jobs — they are positions of sacred trust in an organization whose people have earned for it the respect of not only all Texans, but everyone who comes to or travels through our great state," said Col. Homer Garrison Jr., department director.

"The satisfaction of serving and protecting his fellow men is the priceless possession of each of our patrolmen. We invite young men who can meet the requirements to secure the full facts concerning the rewarding careers offered in the uniformed ranks of the Department of Public Safety, by contacting a patrolman or one of our offices."

During the course of their study at the Law Enforcement

Academy student patrolmen are given intensive training in such subjects as Texas Highway Law, Traffic Accident Investigation, Emergency First Aid, Professional Driving, and Firearms Technique. In addition to the classroom work they are taught self-protection by means of judo, boxing, wrestling and various other police-protection methods. While in attendance at the Academy they will be brought into top physical condition.

SATISFYING CAREER
The training of a Highway Patrolman is a test of an individual's intellectual, emotional and physical stamina. It is an educational process which prepares him for one of the most self-satisfying careers in public service—law enforcement.

REWARDING SERVICE
In his training he is taught to recognize and control any situation that might arise from dealing with people under emotional stress. He is prepared for dealing with unusual situations under adverse conditions. The very nature of police work is demanding on the law enforcement officer—but it is also very rewarding. It deals with getting people to conform to the rules and regulations of society with a minimum of friction.

The Highway Patrolman's duties are as varied as the geography of the state in which he patrols. A day's duty may consist of tracking a tornado in the swirling sands of West Texas or rescuing a stranded citizen along a hurricane-swept coastal area. It may involve the high speed pursuit and apprehension of a flagrant traffic law violator or wanted criminal.

This is a specialized profession only for young men of above average intelligence, with high moral standards and unusual physical courage. The Highway Patrolman's primary job is much like that of a shepherd — supervising traffic on the highways, which includes accident investigation, traffic direction and traffic law enforcement. By his presence on the highways of Texas the Highway Patrolman has the opportunity and duty of assisting motorists in distress, whether it be helping change a tire or rendering first aid to someone critically injured in an accident—this same aid often being the difference between life and death.

EXCELLENT ADVANCEMENT
At the end of two years of satisfactory performance a patrolman is eligible to compete in promotional examinations to advance to the rank of sergeant, or to vacancies which may exist in the Narcotics Section, the Intelligence

Section or in other specialized services of the Department of Public Safety. He also is eligible for the Safety Education Service and, after five years the patrolman may apply for promotion to the rank of Texas Ranger.

PUBLIC PROTECTOR
For 28 years the Texas Department of Public Safety has been carrying out its duty of protecting the people of Texas in an era of trial and transition during which the present-day concept of law enforcement has evolved. The department was created by the Legislature on August 10, 1935, at a time when it was realized that the state's part in crime prevention and traffic control was inadequate and improperly organized. The law provided that the department be composed of three divisions: the Texas Rangers, the Texas Highway Patrol and the Headquarters Division.

From this beginning the department has grown with the State of Texas into the far-flung organization it is today. Many new tasks have been added to its duties and responsibilities.

To meet these responsibilities and the problems that present the department has the following specific programs: crime control, police training, driver licensing, motor vehicle inspection, safety education, accident reports, safety education, civil defense and disaster relief, and police training.

NEED IS GREAT
The current need for men to fill the ranks of the Texas Highway Patrol may be seen in the light of the continuing upward spiral in traffic death and crime across the State of Texas.

Traffic fatalities in the first seven months of this year ran seven per cent higher than in the same period of 1962 — which means that nearly 100 more persons lost their lives tragically and violently on the streets and highways. Unless this trend is broken, it is entirely possible that the 1963 traffic toll will exceed the all-time high of 2,611 recorded in 1956.

Crime in Texas as well as across the nation has been outstripping the population increase for many years. For the first six months of 1963, an increase of 6.2 per cent was recorded in the major crimes of murder and homicide, rape, robbery, burglary, aggravated assault, theft and auto theft in Texas.

Patriotic young Texans who are qualified for the Highway Patrol are needed to help stem these trends and at the same time embark upon a life-time career of security and service to mankind.

RESPECT — Highway Patrolmen are highly respected in their community as protectors of life and property.

Isaiah 6: 1-8; St. Matthew 27: 36-39; St. Luke 23: 27, 35-37; Revelation 6: 12-17.

O Lord, My God, How Great Thou Art!

I read in an Upper Room that "Jesus has need of us, no matter how small may be our opportunity to serve Him and His Church." Since His Church is made up of all of us who have accepted Christ as our Saviour, then is it not true that each and every one of us has some job to do where we are (and where He sends us), be the job small or large from our point of view?

Who of us can say what Christ can do through us and in us when we are truly willing? Christ does not judge as we judge in this world; He looks on the heart not on the outward deed. So who can say if a service for Him is either small or large? A smile given where a smile is needed, is a great service when one serves our Lord Jesus.

The world today, some people of our own community, have no fear of God. They do not know God. They hear of Jesus; they hear of the mercy, forgiveness, unending everlasting love of God (and this is true and good), and yet do not really hear and know God, for these (their counterpart) are in the crowd around the cross where Jesus was crucified. Some said in laughing scorn and ridicule: "Let Him save Himself, if He be Christ, the chosen of God." And others sat down to watch, while some just passed on by "giggling their heads". Praise God for those who wept for Jesus' pain, suffering and death when He took my place and gave His life that I might live. He took your place, too.

But Christ arose from death, appeared unto many, He ascended into Heaven, He sent back the Holy Spirit to be present now here on earth—still many people who saw Him after He arose from the dead did not believe. And, some do not believe today.

When the rich man (St. Luke 16: 19-31) died and was in hell, he wanted to be allowed to go back and warn his five brothers not to come to "this place of torment". But he was told that "If they hear not Moses and the Prophets, neither will they be persuaded though one arose from the dead." For Moses and the Prophets were what the Jews had who told them about Christ and who to look for in His coming to earth.

But now, my friends, One has arose from the dead! He is warning you, pleading with you, and

He died to save you from death and hell. Are you ready to meet God now? Jesus said "Watch therefore: for Ye know not what hour your Lord shall come." He came, He gave up His life, He arose, He ascended alive into heaven, now He intercedes at the right hand of the throne of God. He has done all for your (and for my) salvation from eternal death and hell into eternal life and heaven. How can we escape if we pass Him by?

As surely as Christ is coming again for His own children, there is coming an awful day of judgment and wrath of a Holy God for sin—and who shall be able to stand? Do you not fear the Almighty, all-powerful God who made heaven and earth and all that is therein—God who will not know you unless you have accepted His only begotten Son, Jesus Christ?

Your choice will be made now—so can you afford to lose this opportunity to choose Jesus? He did die for you because of His great amazing love for you, even while we were yet sinners. He came for your sake and mine. He is a gift of life to you from God—Can you afford not to accept Him? Do it now! Miss out if you must, on everything else, but don't miss Jesus!

Duty makes us do things well, but love makes us do them beautifully.

Sudan Girl Second In Tennis Tournament

Kathy Minyard, 13, of Sudan pulled one of the major upsets in the Tri-State Tennis Tournament at Amarillo over the weekend by winning three straight matches and going all the way to the finals in girls 14-under singles.

Miss Minyard was seeded fourth in a field of 14, but she advanced to the finals by defeating the second-seeded player, Carol Brouk of Amarillo, 8-6, 6-2. She failed in her bid to pull the biggest upset by winning, however, as she lost in the finals to third-seeded Cheryl Rapp of Estelline, 6-3, 6-3. Earlier, Miss Rapp had edged the top-seeded player, Terry Bayless.

Miss Minyard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Minyard, won a trophy as runner-up in the division. In her first round match, she outlasted Karen Arnold of Tuley, 6-2, 4-6, 6-2. In the second round, she downed Gwen McKay of Quitaque, who formerly lived in Sudan, 6-1, 8-6, and in the semifinals defeated

Miss Brouk. Kathy's brother, Pat Minyard, 11, won two matches in the tournament before bowing to the eventual winner of the division, Dan Novak of Amarillo, 6-3, 6-4 in a good match. Pat defeated Howard Leclair of Amarillo 6-2, 6-4, and Lewis Leclair of Amarillo 6-3, 7-5.

Lenda Wood of Sudan and Patty Manser of Littlefield teamed up in doubles, but drew the top doubles team from Amarillo in the first round, losing 6-1, 6-3, to the team which eventually won the title.

In singles, Mrs. Wood lost to Liz Parker of Lubbock 6-0, 6-3. In mixed doubles, Dalton and Lenda Wood defeated Gady Howard-Helen O'Moran of Amarillo 6-2, 6-3 in the first round, and were beaten by Johnny Kuffin-Imogene Wagner of Amarillo 6-2, 6-0 in the second round.

Dalton Wood won a first round match in junior veterans singles, defeating Gordon Novak of Amarillo 4-6, 6-3, 7-5, then lost to Bill Owens of Amarillo 6-0, 6-1.

Mr. Sims points out the simple control on the electric air purifier which automatically rejects pollen, dust and other irritants, giving the Sims family clean, fresh air throughout the home.

"Allergy had been a problem with our family before we had our all-electric home, but we've noticed a marked improvement in the three years we've lived here," says Mr. Sims. "We've taken full advantage of our electric heat pump and the electric air purifier to maintain dust-free air inside our home," continues Mr. Sims.

The Fish Are In The Bag!

The idea of spooning shrimp sauce over boned fish, then baking it in cleverly folded heavy paper, originated in old New Orleans French restaurants for serving Gulf pompano "en papillote." But it is adaptable to any fish, fresh or frozen, and ordinary brown paper sandwich bags, well brushed with oil, will do the trick. The bags keep the sauced fish piping hot and everyone opens his own and eats from it. It's an easy, exciting way to serve fish outdoors. The filled bags may be prepared hours ahead and refrigerated. Time-saving canned shrimp, always at their best in a sauce, are used in this one, and it goes together quickly. Later, these shrimp pop up in the bag, after extra cooking, as tasty, pink, and shrimp-shaped as you please.

SHRIMP SAUCE FOR FISH, EN PAPILOTE

- 1 can (4 1/2 ounces) shrimp
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 1 can (4 ounces) mushrooms, drained
- 1/2 cup flour
- 1 1/2 cups milk
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon white pepper
- 1/2 teaspoon cayenne
- 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard
- 1/2 teaspoon monosodium glutamate
- 1 egg yolk, slightly beaten
- 2 teaspoons lemon juice
- 6 raw fish filets
- 6 brown paper sandwich bags, oiled

Drain and rinse shrimp. Melt butter in a saucepan; saute mushrooms a minute or so. Blend in flour; add milk and dry seasonings. Cook over medium-low heat until sauce begins to thicken. Quickly stir a little of it into the egg yolk, then add yolk to sauce. Cook until sauce is quite thick. Remove from heat; add lemon juice and shrimp. Blot filets dry and spoon sauce over them. Place one in each bag; fold bag ends under. Bake about 25 minutes at 400 degrees.

MRS. KERRY DON ARNOLD

Wedding Vows Read

Miss Sharon Ann Bottoms, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bottoms, became the bride of Kerry Don Arnold, son of Mr. and Mrs. Buford Arnold of Tascosa, Texas, Saturday evening in the San Jacinto Baptist Church in Amarillo. Rev. Derrall Shaw of Dumas, uncle of the groom, officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mrs. R. C. Burnett, organist, presented traditional music for the processional and recessional, and accompanied Tom Achord, vocalist, of Sugarland, who sang "Because", "One Hand, One Heart", and "The Wedding Prayer". Floral decorations were an arch of greenery and giant chrysanthemums, candleabras and arrangements of white gladiolas and chrysanthemums. Matron of honor was Mrs. Carl Edes, Jr., sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Misses Mary Kay Eidman, of Brownsville; Helen Avana and Paula George of Amarillo.

Chuck McHargue of Corpus Christi, cousin of the groom, was best man. Groomsmen were Wade Collins, Clio Symes and Bill Roberson, all of Lubbock; and ushering were George Simpson, Tim Elkins and Davis Lowery of Amarillo.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal wedding gown of white bridal satin accented with alencon lace, fitted bodice, and petal point sleeves. The gown featured skirt fullness that swept into a chapel train. Her tiered fingertip veil of illusion was held by a head piece of alencon lace and seed pearls. She carried a cascade arrangement of white orchids and English Ivy atop a white Bible.

A reception in the church parlor followed the ceremony. A candleabra with white chrysanthemums and snapdragons centered the appointed serving table. Assisting in the houseparty were Misses Carol Ann Watkins of Sudan, Sheila George, Linda Kay Collard, and Bonnie Cliver of Amarillo.

The couple will be at home at Apt. 104 Inwood Apts., Dallas, on their return from a wedding trip to New Orleans.

Graduated from Tascosa High School, Amarillo, the bride attended Texas Tech. The groom also graduated from Tascosa High School, and graduated from Tech August 29 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Mechanical Engineering. He is a member of Phi Kappa Psi, social fraternity.

Pincushions For Your Garden

Scabiosa, called pincushion flower for the light-colored stamens peering between petals.

An old fashioned flower much improved is scabiosa, also known as pincushion flower. The "pins" are the light colored stamens which in darker colored varieties contrast with the petal colors so they look as if stuck into a cushion.

Scabiosa, once grown, will be one of the annuals you cannot be without for they are undemanding as to soil, very easy to grow, bloom from mid-summer to frost if dead flowers are removed promptly, and make excellent cut flowers.

There are scabiosa in the tall, medium, and dwarf height ranges. All of these have the double flowers you see illustrated above. The color range of these is wide, including blue, lavender-blue, pink, salmon-pink, scarlet, reddish-black and white.

In the north seeds may be sown in spring or in autumn as they will survive the winter cold. In the south seeds are sown in autumn for winter bloom. Seedlings are thinned or transplanted to stand 8 inches apart and watered well. Except for keeping the weeds pulled, plants require no particular care.

A hybrid strain of scabiosa also is available under the name of Giant Imperial Hybrid. These grow 3 feet high, have blooms to 3 inches across, which are filled with broad, wavy petals.

If you're looking for bits of color in flowers that are a bit different from the usual ones, and that will brighten your house as well as your garden, see seeds of scabiosa this year.
