WOODWORK BY DALTON

BEING FRANK and earnest may not always pay off, but at least it appears safer than being Curtis and Ernest. A couple of brothers made the news last week by being unmasked as switching places in the armed services, or something like that.

Brother Curtis took an Air Force test and passed it, using Ernest's name, and Ernest got into the Air Force and served a couple years—honorably, I suppose—then it was discovered he wasn't the one who took the test. So they are trying to court-martial him for wearing the uniform illegally, and, according to the story, impersonating himself.

They then found out that Ernest had served in another branch of the service as Curtis, and that Curtis had served somewhere or other as Ernest.

From the sound of the plot, one of them may turn out to be Jerry Lewis.

AN OLD saying around here is that only fools and newcomers predict the weather, and even the Weather Bureau is more often wrong than right in these parts. But most of us are pulling for one bunch of newcomers—an agricultural weather service—which the other day audaciously predicted that each farm in the area would get five rainfalls within the next month.

First reaction is that the boys have flipped their mops, but did they think AS IT CA

Trade 'N' Trav'—THE BEATLES were mobbed in Copenhagen the other day. Unfortunately, they escaped. They were minus Ringo Starr, the drummer who had a case of tonsillitis. He doesn't sing, but then neither do any of the rest of them, and judging from the sound, I'd say they all had something wrong with their throats.

ARE YOU one of the millions of Americans who feel that a $2 is unlucky? The U. S. Treasury is trying to popularize the $2 bill, because printing them instead of printing quite so many $1 bills would save the Treasury (and the taxpayers) an estimated one and a half million dollars every year. Astonishingly, many people regard a $2 bill as unlucky, so the Treasury goes printing up more ones than it would like to.

Please check your funds for $2 bills. Our office will be open all day this week to take them off your hands if you feel they are unlucky. We're not a bit superstitious, and we even will give you a dollar apiece for them.

38 SIGN UP HERE FOR DRIVERS' EDUCATION—Thirty-eight students have signed up for a summer course in Driver's Education, being taught through the Sudan Schools by Jimmy Alsup. The course will include classroom study as well as actual practice in driving.

SS REPRESENTATIVE TO BE HERE WEDNESDAY—A representative of the Lubbock Social Security office will be in Sudan Wednesday, June 17 at 2 p. m. in the City Hall.

Jack Riley New Pastor For Methodists

New minister of Sudan Methodist Church is the Rev. Jack Riley, who comes to Sudan from Pampa, where he was minister of St. Paul Methodist Church the last four years.

Rev. Riley, who has been in the ministry 16 years, was graduated from Briscoe High School in 1943, from McMurry College in 1949 and from Perkins School of Theology, SMU, in 1954. He has served churches at Hamlin Mission, Harrold circuit, Wesley Chapel at Lockett, Snyder's Trinity Methodist, and Pampa.

It has been nine years since the minister married Ruth Ellen Kelly of Memphis, Tenn., and the couple have two daughters, Kelley Anne, 5, and Bonnie Ruth, 7.

Mrs. Riley holds a bachelor of home economics degree from the University of Tennessee, and a master's in religious education from Perkins. She was employed one year as conference youth director in Louisiana, and presently is secretary of missionary personnel for the Northwest Texas Conference WSCS.

NO DEBBIE

Welcome For Debbie Lacks One Vital Item

A lot of folks in Debbie Landers' home town were all set to give her a big welcome back from Washington Tuesday.

So more than 30 persons were near the intersection of the Sudan cutoff from U. S. 84 and the Santa Fe railway track just west of Amherst when Tom Davis of Amherst brought the Lamb County and South Plains spelling champion and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Landers, Debbie's two sisters, and Brenda Davis home Tuesday afternoon. Davis had gone to Clovis to meet the group returning on the train, and brought them home by car. His daughter, Brenda, had accompanied her friend to the big spelling bee in Washington, where Debbie represented the South Plains in the national spelling bee and finished about midway in the contest of champions.

Meantime, back in Downtown Amherst, several businessmen and individuals prepared a spontaneous reception for their favorite 13-year-old. Mrs. Dorothy Crawford painted a large sign reading "Welcome Home, Debbie" and it was placed in the center of the street, on a chair. A puff of wind blew the chair over, and the sign went skittering down the street, smearing some of the letters. John Faust, who operates a cleaning business, brought it back for artistic repairs. They finally got it back in place, with the help of some other downtown folks.

However, nobody had told Davis, or Debbie or any of the group which met the returnees outside of town, and Davis took a shortcut to the Landers home, skipping the downtown area entirely. At last report, Debbie still didn't know about it, and all her friends know she sincerely appreciates the gesture, even though she missed the downtown group. Mrs. Crawford took it all good-naturedly, with this comment: "We felt like taking the sign up there and putting it up in her yard!"

Dodgers Go On Rampage

The Sudan Cardinals retained their first place spot in Intercity Little League this week despite losing once. The Cards now have a record of five wins and two losses, while the Angels are close behind.

Probably the biggest surprise of the week was the ease with which the last-place Dodgers walloped the league-leading Cardinals, 26-2, as Jerry Dell Price pitched the entire game for the winners. Brent Whiteaker was the loser for the error-plagued Cards, who also used Terry Wood and Steve Edwards on the mound, with little better results.

Just a couple of days earlier, the Dodgers had upended the Angels, another front-running team.

Sudan Pee Wee Reds and Amherst Pee Wees tied 3-3 after five full innings in Amherst Saturday. Andy Perez pitched a two-hitter for the Reds. The Sudan Blues downed Field-ton last Saturday, on Eddie Powell's two-run homer in the last inning. Mark Hanna pitched three of the four innings for the Blues, and Mitch Chester and Eddie Powell split the final inning.

Survivors include his wife; three daughters, JoAnn Stanley and Mrs. Mary Duncan, both of Ralls, and Faye Stanley, Colton, Calif.; eight sons, Raymond, Littlefield, Ollie Ray, Lariat,

Class Views Royal Gorge

(Special)—Members of the Senior Class of Sudan High School have returned home after visiting Colorado's famed Royal Gorge on their recent tour.

It was a highlight of a trip that included Seven Falls, Garden of Gods in Colorado Springs; State Capitol, Mint Amusement Park, Museum of Natural History in Denver; as well as other points of scenic and historic interest in and around Colorado Springs, Denver and Canon City.

At the Royal Gorge, they crossed the world's highest bridge (1,100 feet above the roaring Arkansas river) rode the world's steepest incline railway (100 percent grade) and viewed some of Colorado's most magnificent scenery.

Sponsors on the tour were Mr. and Mrs. Byron Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Parrish, Mr. B. A. Narramore, Sr. and Roger Pierce, Bus driver.

U.S. 84 Work Here Budgeted

Work on U. S. Hwy. 84 making it four-lane from the Bailey County line through Sudan and past Amherst to near Littlefield is proposed in the Highway Department's budget for 1965-66. A total of 16.7 miles of construction, costing an estimated $1.81 million, was announced by the state.

J.D. Chester Services Held

Services for John David Chester, 78, a longtime resident here, were held Monday afternoon at 2:30 in the First Baptist Church, with the Rev. Willie Hazel, pastor, officiating and assisted by Rev. O. L. Turner.

Chester died Saturday at West Plains Hospital, Muleshoe. Burial was in Littlefield Memorial Park under the direction of Hammons Funeral Home, Littlefield, Masonic graveside rites were conducted.

A retired farmer, Chester moved to Sudan in 1929 from Vernon.

Survivors include his wife, Annie Bell; two sons, Earl Chester, Frietas, and Dorman Chester, Sudan; a sister, Mrs. Hattie Duplissey, Houston; a brother, Howard Chester, Huntsville; four grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

The work was described as being along U. S. 84 from 1.7 miles southeast of Bailey County line southeast to proposed loop west of Littlefield, 16.7 miles of grades, surfaces and structures, four-lane.

Lamb County voted bonds for the highway project several years ago, and this area is the last of the stretch from Lubbock to be made four-lane.

Personals

Kathy Barnett is in Washington D. C. visiting her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ewing Barnett. While gone she will visit the Worlds Fair in New York. Accompanying her to Washington, D. C. was her cousin, Linda Boyd of Fort Worth.

Unlicensed Dogs To Be Picked Up

Sudan City Commissioners, beset with several complaints by citizens regarding damage done by dogs, and nuisance created by dogs in local neighborhoods, on June 4 voted to get a dog catcher to pick up all unlicensed dogs in Sudan.

A spokesman said the commission recognizes that dogs running loose are a serious nuisance and a possible health problem, and pointed out that all dogs within the city are required to be licensed at a fee of $1 for males, or $2 for females, with a tag to be worn on the dog's collar at all times.

In addition to this, it was noted, dog owners are required to keep their pet up and not allow them to run loose in the city.

All citizens owning dogs were urged to license them immediately and keep them penned; otherwise they will be picked up.

HITS PARKED CAR—The auto at left, driven by Andy Perez of Sudan, smashed into the parked car at right, belonging to Joe Wilkinson and parked in front of the Palace Barber Shop. The accident occurred about 8:30 p. m. Tuesday. No one was injured. Damage had not been estimated, but the parked car was knocked onto the sidewalk and into the barber pole. (Beacon-News Photo)

FHA GIRLS ATTEND OFFICERS WORKSHOP

Seven members of the Sudan FHA and their sponsor, Miss JoAnn Henry, will attend an officers workshop at Texas Tech beginning Tuesday, June 16 through 18.

About 700 girls from this area are expected to attend the workshop which will consist of assembly programs as well as individual training for their respective offices that the girls will hold this year in their FHA chapters.

Miss Henry reported that the girls going from Sudan will be Kay Baker, Dorma Ann Chester, Nancy Hayes, Mammie Sue Underwood, Jennie Candwell, Sonja Ford, Rue Jean Hancock. Miss Henry and the girls will stay in a dorm at Tech during the workshop. Mrs. Hancock will accompany the group to Lubbock.

DEVOTIONAL

HOUSE

Scripture: St. John 12: 37; 12: 44-50; Galatians 5: 17, 18, 25; 6: 4; 6: 7-9; 1 Corinthians 10: 12-13; Ephesians 6: 10-18.

"But though He had done so many miracles before them: yet they believed not on Him."

Do you believe on Jesus? For He has done many miracles before you and me (one of the miracles was "when Jesus saved my soul, cleansed and made me whole, it was a miracle of love and grace") — He died for our justification, in payment of death for our sins, to blot them out with His own shed blood. He arose (body and Spirit) from the tomb, and walked on earth before men, witnessing that He is the only Son of God, a living Lord, and the only way by which man can obtain eternal life.

Don't be like the mule, but be "man" and use your mind and your heart as well as your eyes and your ears to hear and see Jesus. For Jesus is what He said, and He can do what He said, if you will choose Him!

"For I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak. And I know that His Commandment is life everlasting...."

"For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; and these are contrary the one to the other; so that ye cannot do the things that ye would... If we live by the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit...

But let every man prove his own work..."

Have you proved "your own work", your own faith in Jesus and in His power to save and keep you? But someone may say, "I tried—I accepted Jesus as my Savior, and then when I was tempted, I fell. So, I tried, but I just could not resist temptation."

And you are right; you could not resist temptation, but Jesus could and would for you, if you let Him. By my own experience, I plead with you to try with Jesus, for you cannot resist except by obedience to God and His way. When you are tempted (oh, the chain of the sin that binds you, with which Satan would hold on to your eternal soul—you are trapped!) only Jesus Christ is strong enough to resist and break the chain of sin for you. Then do like He did when tempted (St. Matthew 4: 4-11) and learn to quote some verse of Scripture; turn quickly away (run, if you must!) and, calling on Jesus, start living by the Word of God, worship and serve only God, then the devil will leave you. Have you really let Jesus fight for you? Remember, if you believe in Him, you are His, what you ought to be—if you truly want Him to do it! But you must turn from your temptation to Jesus, call on Him (He hears His own child's faintest cry), serve only Him.

Put up your own sword, (St. Matthew 26:52) and remember God's Word says Jesus would not allow you to be tempted above what you could resist with Him fighting for you. So, to be tempted is not sin, (Jesus was tempted) it is the yielding to temptation that is sinful, for in yielding you turn away from your Savior, Jesus. He is there—very near—always there when you turn to Him.

"Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall."

"There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man; but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it."

He will make you a way of escape, if you will do it! Easy? No, it is never easy to climb upward, but it's easier than sinking into the devil's hell both here and now, and forevermore. Then, with Jesus triumphant, there is such a joy and humbleness and wondrous love, only in Jesus can you win the victory—by your faith in Him you will live eternally! And here is warning and promise to us who have this eternal life in Jesus.

"Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting. And let us not be weary in well doing; for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not."

"Finally my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of His might. Put on the whole Armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil."

LUBBOCK—The boll weevil survey that is to be carried out this summer preparatory to entering the "diapause" weevil control program this fall got underway June 2.

By means of intensive surveying this summer the cooperating agencies will be able to tell exactly where it is necessary to spray in the fall. And also, through surveys, it is hoped that more effective in-season control can be achieved to reduce weevil migration, thereby reducing the acreage it will be necessary to spray in the "diapause" program.

Final plans for the survey were laid June 1 at a Lubbock meeting of representatives from the USDA Plant Pest Control, Texas Department of Agriculture, Plains Cotton Growers, the Extension Service and Farmers Home Administration. Some of the things agreed upon by the agencies at the meeting are:

- (1) The Federal Plant Pest Control will be jointly responsible for carrying out surveys in counties above the Caprock.
- (2) The Extension Service will survey counties below the Caprock.
- (3) W. L. Owen, Extension Service Entomologist, Lubbock, will make identification of all weevils collected from above and below the Caprock.
- (4) The Extension Service and Plains Cotton Growers will have joint responsibilities for publicity.

Party Time—Whipped Strawberry Frosted Cake

It's springtime partytime... and our new idea for dressing up cakes made from a mix is delicious. Simply slice the cooled cake into layers and make light, fluffy Whipped Strawberry Frosted Cake. It's in the best tradition of "easy do" recipes, for the ingredients are few but the flavor is incomparable. The secret is Carnation—the milk you can whip like cream—at one-half the cost of cream!

Not only is Carnation ideal for all sorts of recipes, it's easier than ever to use because of a new, improved can design that permits you to open it with an ordinary beverage can opener. Now there's more reason than ever to make your evaporated milk Carnation—for coffee, for cooking and all your baking, too!

- WHIPPED STRAWBERRY FROSTED CAKE
(Makes 13x9-inch cake)
- 1 package (10 ounces) frozen sliced California strawberries, thawed
  - Water
  - 1 package (3 ounces) lemon flavor gelatin
  - 1 cup marshmallow whip
  - 1 cup undiluted evaporated milk
  - 2 tablespoons lemon juice
  - 1 (13x9-inch) lemon cake, cut crosswise into 2 layers
- Drain strawberries, add enough water to measure 1 cup liquid. Heat liquid to boiling. Pour over gelatin in large bowl, stir until dissolved. Blend in marshmallow whip. Chill until consistency of unbeaten egg white. Chill evaporated milk in refrigerator tray until soft ice crystals form around edges (about 10 to 15 minutes). Whip until stiff (about 1 minute). Add lemon juice. Whip very stiff (about 2 minutes longer). Fold with strawberries into marshmallow mixture. Chill 10 minutes. Frost each layer. Allow to set in refrigerator 15 to 20 minutes. Stack layers; chill until serving time.
