WOODWORK

BY DALTON

I CAN'T UNDERSTAND what all the fuss is about these topless bathing suits. Seems to me that Swedish beaches have had them for some time, and personally, I've been wearing one for years.

ONE OF my pet peeves always has been rooms that are poorly lighted. I admit I'm not famous for being economical, and perhaps that's the reason why I always sneered at people who go running around cutting off lights (like President Johnson) and who use 40 and 50-watt bulbs because they figure burning larger ones will cost too much.

It always irritates me to try to read something in a room which is lighted like a bowery restroom. If you want to play cards or dominoes, or piano, or practically anything other than parlor smooching (for the younger ones), a good light is preferred.

The way some people light their living rooms, you'd figure they can't stand to look at each other. I have a couple of faintly glimmering fluorescents in my own living room which constantly threaten to replace with a jar full of fireflies.

So far as the cost angle is concerned, consider this: If you burn a 75-watt bulb in a ceiling fixture for 6 hours a night, it will cost you about .9 of one cent. If you replace this with a 150-watt bulb which is much better, I think, it would cost twice as much for six hours, or about 1.8 cents. This is less than a penny's difference per day, and could even skyrocket to 25 cents a month more for good lighting.

Even if you did this in four rooms, your extra cost would be about a dollar a month. Personally, I'd be more than willing to pay that much extra just to see what's going on, especially if you're playing 74 with someone who is inclined to cheat on the scorebook, just because you can't tell what they're writing down.

We even have a 150-watt bulb in one of our closets, and I can truthfully say it costs us no more than a 75 or 100-watt bulb would in a month's time. It's burned out.

Southwestern Public Service Co. is going to love me for this.

Carla Jean Crouch of Lovington visited last week in the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Vereen.

Mrs. Mary Bowman entertained with a fish fry Saturday evening when those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Vereen and Kevin of Estancia; Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Nichols; Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Vereen, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Henson and family of Littlefield, Mrs. May Philips, J. W. Olds, and Carla Jean Crouch of Lovington.

Visiting Sunday with Mrs. G. L. Morrow were Mrs. Bonnie Rector and Mrs. Lily Ivy of Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Jones and family of Colorado have been visiting nisparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Jones and other relatives.

Mary Bettina and daughter, Melinda, of Amarillo visited during the weekend in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Adlan Martin.

Cards Move Nearer To League Crown

With less than a week remaining in the regular season of the Intercity Little League, the Sudan Cardinals appeared to have first place almost clinched.

Closest to the Cards, who sport a 10-3 record, are the Angels, with a 7-5 mark. The Angels, who have four more games to go, could pass the Cards if the latter team lost all its remaining games.

On Monday night the Amherst Cubs defeated the Angels 14-7, using Eddie Moates, Roy Lee Young and Gary Robinson. The Angels pitched Reagan Baker and Willie Jr. Williams. Freddie Perez of the Angels hit a home run.

The Cardinals last week shut out two opponents, whitewashing the Dodgers 9-0 behind the pitching of Jerry Bellar, and stopping the Amherst Braves 8-0 Monday with Bobby Drake the winner. Larry Hyman was the losing hurler for the Braves, and Jerry Dell Price was the loser for the Dodgers.

In the Dodger game, first baseman Rex Boyles rapped a 3-run homer, Drake hit a 2-run homer, and Brent Whiteaker had a solo home run. This full six-inning game took only 55 minutes. For the Dodgers, the only threat was a hardhit triple by Price.

In the Braves' game, Jerry Bellar was the star for the winners, hitting a home run and making two astounding putouts. On one of these, a Braves' player hit a ball deep into center field, where the fielder chased it down right against the fence, and tossed it to Bellar, who had followed out almost to the fence from shortstop. The runner already was rounding third when Bellar made his throw home from deep center field, and it was a perfect peg to catcher Steve Edwards who made the putout.

Another time, Bellar made a difficult catch--this time on the right field side behind second base -- and then pegged out the runner at first for a double play.

The Braves rapped the Cubs 16-2 last Thursday with Hyman the winner and Roy Lee Young the loser. The Braves also tripped up the Angels by 18-2 Friday.

The Dodgers outscored the Cubs 23-15 last Friday, as Shawn Potter was the winner and Doug Cummings the loser.

Home Ec Food Classes Scheduled

July 22 - Nutritive Value of Milk, to be presented by Mrs. Hazel Kinbrough, homemaker teacher, Littlefield, at 2 p. m., County Courtroom.

July 29 - Nutritive Value of Bread and Cereals, 2 p. m., County Courtroom, Littlefield.

Appeal Made For Clothing

The First Methodist Church of Sudan has designated this Sunday, June 28 to highlight their Appeal for Clothing, Kenneth Burgess, chairman of drive, reported. This is part of the annual United Clothing Appeal by churches of all denominations all over the world which is carried out by an agency of CROP, Church World Service Centers, of which one is now located in Houston.

A million pounds of clothing is the mark set for the drive with Texas' quota being 300,000 pounds.

Any useable clothing, shoes, and blankets are especially requested in this drive with emphasis on soap and children's clothing. You are asked to bring your donations of clothing to the First Methodist Church along with 8¢ per pound to cover shipping charges from the center in Houston to ports-all over the world. This clothing is sent to disaster areas or wherever it is needed to ease the suffering of the needy and it is distributed by church workers of all denominations, Burgess said.

If you have clothing that you would like to donate, but that needs to be picked up, please call Kenneth Burgess or Rev. Jack Riley, pastor of the First Methodist Church, for further information.

ESA ENTERTAINS WITH SWIMMING PARTY

Members of the Zeta Delta of the Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority entertained families and other guests with a swimming party Thursday evening at Littlefield.

Those going for the event were Messrs and Mesdames: John A. Humphreys, Edward Fisher, Harold Testerman, Bill Palmer, Macky Ballard, O. D. Martin Jr., Gayle Brown, Buddy Pickett, Jack Van Ness, Joe Bellar and Mrs. Bob Masten and Mrs. Gene Bartley.

FELLOWSHIP HOUR HONORS THE THURMAN BRYANTS

Dr. and Mrs. Thurman Bryant and boys were honored at a fellowship hour Sunday after the evening service at the First Baptist Church at which Dr. Bryant was the speaker for the evening.

The Bryants will be leaving soon for Brazil where they will be engaged in Mission work.

COTTON TALKS

The farm labor hassle in Washington promises to be a dandy later this year, and here are some of the facts and figures that both sides will likely be interpreting to suit their respective purposes as the battle picks up steam.

Foreign worker employment declined in 1963 for the fourth successive year. Average foreign worker employment for the U. S. dropped 20 per cent to 56, 500.

This area, of course, is primarily concerned with Mexican labor. Of the total 550,400 man-months of Mexican labor used in 1963, 57 per cent was used in California, 20 per cent in Texas 10 per cent in Arizona and 13 per cent by 16 other states. As a result of the restrictions placed on the use of Mexicans on long term jobs, the term of employment of the average Mexican worker declined from 2.94 months in 1962 to 2.62 months in 1963.

In Texas, foreign worker employment averaged 9,100—a drop of 42 per cent from 1962. There was also an eight per cent drop in domestic workers used, which should go a long way toward answering those who have contended that reducing the amount of available foreign labor would increase farm employment employment of U. S. citizens. To further answer such a contention, in the Texas cotton harvest the decline was 25 per cent for foreign workers and 27 per cent for domestics.

All figures are from U. S. Department of Labor's own "Farm Labor Market Developments," March, 1964.

With the expiration Dec. 31 of the program supplying us with supplemental labor from Mexico, High Plains farmers find few reasons to smile over the labor prospects in the immediate future. There is, however, one little ray of sunshine permeating the whole dilemma, at least for the moment.

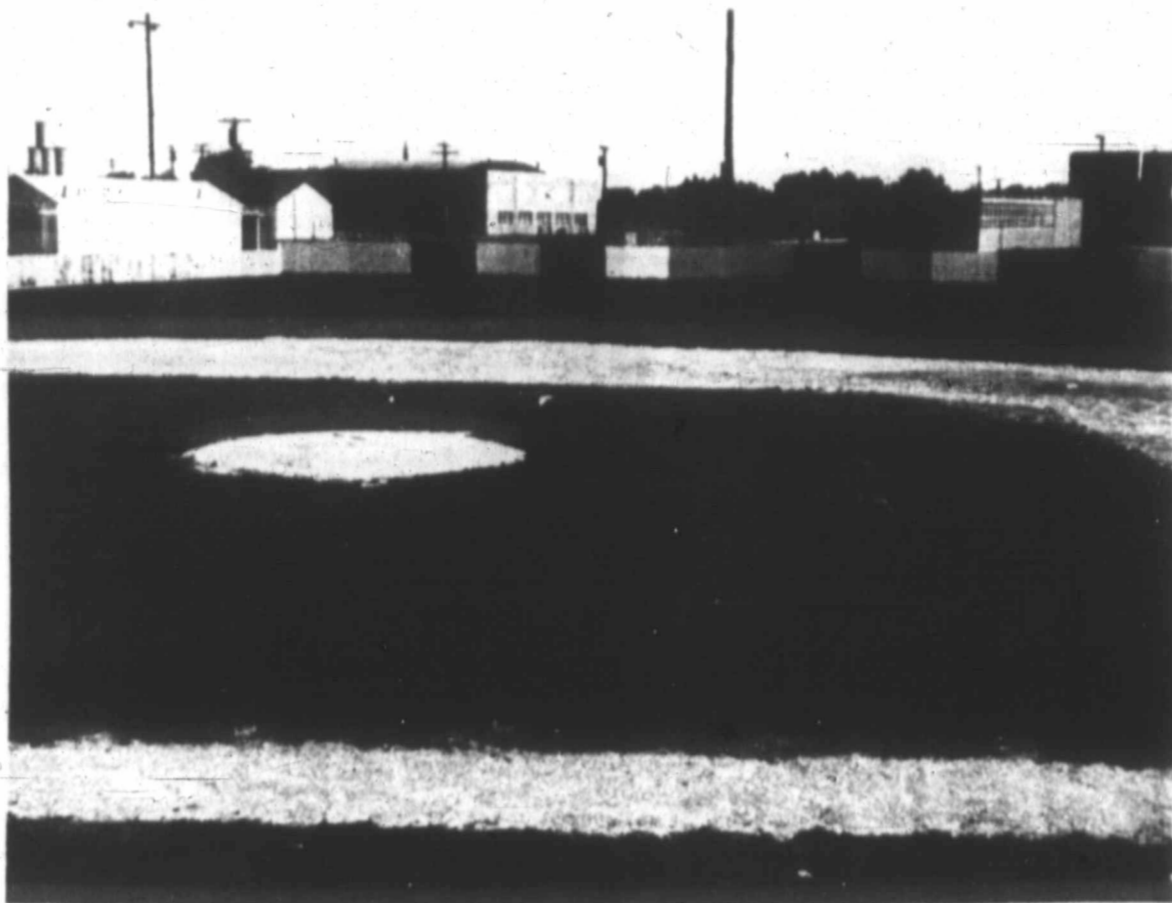

The Senate Migratory Labor Subcommittee has announced postponement to an indefinite future date hearings on S-528 and S-529. These are the bills which, if passed into law, would impose minimum wages and collective bargaining on users of agricultural labor.

PEE WEE REDS WIN TWO GAMES

Sudan Pee Wee Reds won both of their games played last week by beating Fieldton 8-0 Thursday and Amherst 6-5 Saturday at Amherst.

The Reds will play Fieldton Saturday at Fieldton.

Mrs. Ramona Engram who has been taking Tim Engram to Earth for swimming lessons, said new lessons would begin Monday morning at 10. Twila Whitford, qualified water instructor from WSTU, said the fee would be $10.00 for 12 classes, beginners and advanced students.

LITTLE LEAGUE PARK--With a new crop of grass this year, the Sudan Little League ball park is in the best shape ever. (Staff Photo).

JUDY WILLIAMS ATTENDS TECH MUSIC CAMP

Judy Williams is in Lubbock to attend Texas Tech's Music Camp. The camp lasts through next week. Judy will play first chair flute in the elementary band and also take baton twirling.

CARD OF THANKS

We cannot find words to express our appreciation and thanks to our many friends and relatives for every act of kindness extended to us at the death of our loved one.

Scripture: Psalms 117; St. Luke 8:8; 11:11-13; St. John 14:9.

What is your relationship to God? Are you fully "aware" of that relationship?

If you are a parent (and we have just passed a Sunday when we honored our "Dads") you are at least somewhat aware of what a father-child relationship is, or what it should be. But nothing makes you happier than for your child to simply show that he or she loves you. And you are proud and deeply touched when your child does something that honors both the child and you—and then to hear that child give you the glory and honor, in love and appreciation!

In old Testament times, the people prayed to God for an answer according to His nature (and how much we need to read the Bible and learn of God's very nature and also find what He is to us)—that is to be merciful, holy, truth, faithful, powerful, etc.

But since Jesus came, Christians pray through Him as our High Priest, according to our relationship to God.

Christ, in teaching the disciple to pray, based prayer upon relationship, freely revealing God as Father charging Himself with all responsibilities with all the affection of a Father toward all who believe on Jesus Christ. So, our prayer is the prayer of a child to a loving, forgiving, all-wise, all-powerful, Father-God.

Do you know God through knowing Jesus? The God whom Jesus said we could know if we knew Jesus! The God who, Jesus said, was able to these stones to raise up children of Abraham? Do you know Jesus, and how much He loves and wants you? Do you know He has the power to save and keep you safe with Him forevermore? Search the Scriptures, for they testify of Jesus! Then become personally acquainted with Jesus, as your own living Savior and Lord and King of Kings!

Do you know Jesus? Then, would God give you a serpent if you asked Him for food? Ask Him, seek Him, knock and He will open unto you eternal life with all its abundance—and even now as we begin to live as eternal beings on this earth, we taste of the joy and peace and love that can lift us up to higher ground amidst all pain, sorrow, storm or temptation. Seek Jesus, for He is seeking you.

What is your relationship to Almighty God? Is He only your great Creator—or is He also your loving Father? Jesus is "the way".
