FORTIETH YEAR

SUDAN, LAMB COUNTY, TEXAS

THURSDAY, AUGUST 27, 1964

NUMBER 26

WOODWORK BY DALTON

WEEKS LIKE this are a total washout if you are a television fan. And it's almost as bad for reading newspapers or listening to the radio. After the dreary Republican convention and now the equally dull Democratic filibuster, one would almost welcome a series of reruns of "The Secret Storm".

There really is no reason why the two major parties this year couldn't have run off their conventions in one day, except that it gave a bunch of people an opportunity to whoop it up for a week away from home.

Newspaper stories and television commentators have said everything there is to say about the convention at least a dozen times over. And the platforms of both parties are, as one commentator said, "unreadably long."

By the time you read this, Sen. Hubert Humphrey probably will be named the vice presidential nominee, perhaps because he has personally has one of the broadest platforms among the Democrats. (Possibly excluding "Fat Pierre" Salinger).

Thank goodness there are only two major political parties to have conventions.

THE SECRET Service says counterfeiting of U. S. currency has increased during the past year and blames nationwide crime trends as well as improved printing methods.

The economic situation of some of the counterfeiters might have something to do with it, too. Nowadays, it sometimes seems that the only way to make money might be to print it.

L'IL ABNER's creator, Al Capp, has been poking fun at the Beatles in his cartoon strip recently, in his references to "The Beatsties" singing "I Wanta Hold Your Ham," using the recording as a weapon to force L'il Abner to do all sorts of things. It would be interesting to get the reaction of the Beatles to the comic strip, since the shaggy screechers are in the U. S.

When the Beatle movie showed in Lubbock last week, starting at 9 a. m., teenagers were lining up at the movie theater before 6 a. m., in the dark.

Oddly, the Associated Press movie reviewer, James Bacon, said he was quite surprised to find that the show was a pretty good comedy, but pointed out that no adult would be able to enjoy it or even hear it because of the caterwauling of the teenagers in the theater audience. He saw it at a private showing.

A YOUNG WIDOW in Los Angeles filed a $15,000 damage suit because a fellow worker came by and kissed her "without encouragement." His defense was that her perfume was irresistible. To the disappointment of many feminine readers, she said she couldn't remember the brand name of the perfume.

It may have been one which Judy Canova once mentioned on a radio show. Miss Canova said her perfume was called "Cage Door," because it brings out the beast.

Several youth will be attending the Plainview District MYF meeting at Plainview Saturday.

Democrats Will Hear Blanchard

State Sen. H. L. (Doc) Blanchard of Lubbock will speak to the Lamb County Young Democrats at 8 p. m. Saturday, Aug. 29, at a membership meeting in the Reddy Room of Southwestern Public Service Co. in Littlefield.

All prospective members and anyone interested in promoting the Democratic nominees in the coming election are urged to attend. Members may be age 16 to 35, either male or female. There also are several honorary members over 35 in the group, which now has about 50 members, according to Benny Pickrell, Littlefield, president.

Meeting date of the organization has been changed to the second Thursday of each month in the district courtroom at Littlefield. The group met last Thursday to plan the membership meeting. The members also were given Democratic "donkey pins" to sell as a fund-raising project.

The pins may be purchased from any member for $2 each.

Rites Held

Funeral services for Mrs. T. M. Beuchamp, 95, of Shamrock were to be held yesterday, (Wednesday) at 2 p. m. in Shamrock. She is the mother of Mrs. H. G. Boyles.

Also attending the services were the granddaughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Jenkins, and Carroll Jennings of Leveland visited the Weldon Shaffers this week.

of Kerrville. Mr. Woods will direct the choir and youth fellowship meetings during the revival here. Each member will be expected to contribute at 7 p. m. for rehearsal. Dr. Leon P. Woods, pastor of the Grandview Baptist Church of El Paso and father of the aforementioned Mr. Woods, will be the main speaker for the revival.

Gale Masten, Gary West Married In Sudan Church

The First Methodist Church was the setting for the 4 p. m. wedding of Miss Wanda Gale Masten and Gary Ray West on August 22. The double-ring ceremony was performed before an archery of greenery and white mums with Rev. Don Ed Robison of Lubbock, uncle of the bride, officiating. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Masten and Mrs. Thelma West.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of white satin, fashioned with elbow-length sleeves, a scooped neckline, and a bell skirt accented by bows down the back. Her headpiece of sequins and pearls was attached to an elbow-length veil. The bridal bouquet was of white carnations and were carried atop a white Bible.

Attending the bride was Miss Glyna Masten, sister of the bride. She wore a street-length dress of yellow satin and carried yellow carnations.

Max Lynch served as best man with Bobby Newman and Jerry Bridwell acting as ushers and candlelighters.

Wedding music was provided by Miss Diane Curry, organist and Mrs. Matt Nix Jr., soloist. A reception was given in the church parlor.

For travel, the bride chose a brown and black knit suit with a corsage from her bridal bouquet.

After their honeymoon, the couple will be at home at 122-B Ave. X, Lubbock.

The bride, a 1962 graduate of Sudan High School, attended Texas Tech and is presently employed at Pioneer Natural Gas Co. West, also a 1962 graduate of Sudan High School is attending Texas Tech where he is majoring in accounting.

Gridders Set For Scrimmage

With eight players returning who were starters on either offense or defense last season, new Sudan Hornet football coach Henry Hall this week stepped up workouts prior to entering the 1964 grid season.

Hall—and interested local football fans—will get a closer look at this year's squad under fire in a scrimmage against Happy at 6 p. m. Friday at Happy. The Hornets open the regular season Sept. 4 at Plains, a community not noted for displaying brotherly love toward visiting football teams.

LUNCHEON HONORS BRIDE-ELECT

A luncheon held on Saturday, August 22, in Hemphill Wells' Monterey Gold Room in Lubbock honored Miss Glenna Gatewood of Sudan, bride-elect of Jerry Bridwell. Hostesses were Mesdames F. M. Smith, R. E. Drake, C. E. Nichols, and Doyle Watkins.

Other guests included Mrs. Glenn Gatewood, Mrs. Clovis Bridwell, mothers of the engaged couple; Mrs. R. S. Gatewood and Mrs. A. Stuart, grandmothers of the bride-elect; Mrs. Ronnie Gatewood; and Misses Carol Ann Watkins, Carol Ann Harper, Morsalene Pierce, and Kandy Miller, all of Sudan; and Mrs. Lincoln Warren and Miss Julia Alice Warren of Jackson, Mississippi.

The table featured a yellow, green, and white floral centerpiece of Killian daisies, English ivy, and yellow doves.

Hostess gift was silver.

The couple will exchange vows Sept. 4 at Sudan Methodist Church.

Hall and his assistants, backfield coach Wayne Potter and line coach Jimmy Alsop, have been working out 30 boys, including 11 seniors, four juniors, 10 sophomores and five freshmen. However, early indications are that at least four of the underclassmen will make the starting offensive lineup.

The Hornets this year apparently will be a bit larger than usual. While there are few giants among the likely starters, most of the boys are of medium size, around 155-160, and for Sudan, this is large.

The boys who are supposed to be in the know—big city sports-writers and magazine correspondents—already have picked Sudan pretty far down in the district standings. They have, in fact, made Springlake a shoo-in for the 3-A championship, and figure that all the others will be battling for second place.

With Springlake's speed, size and number of returnees from last year, the choice is obvious, but longtime district observers know that it's never wise to count out Farwell before the season, and Sudan and Hale Center could spring some surprises, too. For that matter, Kress and newcomer Silvertown may develop into contenders by mid-October.

Hall listed the following candidates for the team this season:

Tackles - Kenzel May, 175, Sr.; Robert Williamson, 170, Sr.; Marcy Arce, 205, soph; Robin Davis, 185, freshman; Van Seymour, 190, freshman.

Managers are Mike Fisher, Barry Potter, Jimmy Williams and Son Qualls.

Scripture: Proverbs 23: 7; Philippians 4:8; St. Luke 15:11-24; Ephesians 2: 3-10.

"As he thinketh in his heart, so is he."

Are you a Christian? Are you lost? Are you a prodigal son? Do you know the way back to your Father?

The minister in our church once said "You are not what you think you are; but what you think—You are." So, what do you think about? For the real you truly is what you think about most of the time.

"Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things." The true honest, just, pure, lovely, of good report, anything of virtue, or praise—think of these.

So, lets look at ourselves in this light of God's infallible Holy Word. When you begin to think on awakening in the morning, have you learned to think first of God, of His undying love and forgiveness extended to you? Do you think of the truth of the fact that He loves you enough to die in your place for your sin? Do you think of His mercy, of His watch-care over you while you slept? Do you think of how wonderful it is that He has given you another day of life to live here on earth?

Are you thankful to God for all this? Then do you ask Him for help, for forgiveness? Do you ask for daily cleansing of your soul and mind, that His Spirit may come in and dwell within you that other men may see Him in you, and come to Him and find eternal life? Then you have the joy (amid all sorrow, pain, temptation and turmoil) of His guidance and constant companionship, and the peace that passeth all understanding. You are thinking according to God's directing mind and Spirit.

Have you given your soul to Jesus Christ, accepting Him before men as your Savior and Lord?

Then, have you given Jesus your mind and body, your will to become His will? For Christ will have all of you, or none of you.

If you are a sinner, your nature, your way and habits of thinking, must be given to Christ that He may change the real you. Your part to do is to be willing to leave your sinful way, to turn from it, to uproot it by throwing away all the trash and "husks that the swine did eat" and arise and start back toward your Father's house. Read the stated Scripture of the prodigal son, and you will know the Lord stands near you, waiting for you to turn to Him, waiting with open arms of love and protection and joy and sufficient power and food to keep you His child forevermore.

GA NEWS

Nine girls were initiated into Girl's Auxiliary at the First Baptist Church, Monday, August 24. Diana Clark planned and presided at the service in completion of her Forward Steps. Those assisting with the Service were Andrea Ritchie, Janet Ritchie, Judy West, Judi Hazel, Kay Baker, Mrs. George Ritchie and

You are a new man (or woman) a new creation through Christ Jesus. You are new, born again, and ready for the process of thinking daily with Christ, seeking Him for guidance, for cleansing, for comfort, for forgiveness, for renewing life, the life which He has again made eternal for you!

You will have Jesus as Savior, and learn one step at a time to think on these things from God's Word, from the companionship of His mind and Spirit—or you will perish. You will die; not so you will know it immediately, perhaps, (for the devil deceives as he deceived Adam and Eve in the beginning) but you will die spiritually, mentally, and finally the body dies and you will be in hell eternally.

But Jesus came to save you and me from perishing. He came to give you something: abundant, eternal life! Be simple but wise—just take Jesus Now! Do not wait until you can reform yourself (you cannot earn eternal life) but come to Jesus like you are, turning away from your sin and following Him.

Start walking with Jesus, and think as He directs you, then your heart will be pure, and your actions will finally become according as you think.

"Come now and let us reason together, saith the Lord" (Isaiah 1: 18).

Mrs. W. C. Hazel.

Those initiated were Jeanne Baker, Mickey Logan, Mitchell Stanley, Cynthia Wiseman, Deborah Churchman, Debbie Stanley, Deon Grigsby, Betty Baker

AUGUST 27, 1964 VOL. I JACK RILEY, MINISTER

A RATHER ODD THING

"A rather odd thing happened in a Midwestern town some years ago. Two young professional men arrived in the community at about the same time. One was a highly trained physician, and the other was an equally well-trained young clergyman.

The young doctor was welcomed with much acclaim, "How fortunate we are!" the people said. "He knows the last word in medicine," and he did.

The young preacher was welcomed but with a tinge of suspicion. "I am a little afraid our preacher knows too much," one rather elderly woman said. "We want a man who is spiritual; we don't want an educated minister. If they know too much, they are not spiritual any more."

The people liked the young doctor, took his advice and his medicine, and were helped.

But the young preacher found that people listened to him with closed minds. They took the new drugs the doctor prescribed, but they refused to listen to the new facts the preacher was prepared to bring them. —Selected—
