FORTIETH YEAR

SUDAN, LAMB COUNTY, TEXAS WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1964

NUMBER 39

WOODWORK BY DALTON

THIS IS, or will be, a good week for lots of folks, with some exceptions. Although the so-called smart boys who operate the TV programming have ruined the day for Texas Aggie and Longhorn fans, most of us still have plenty to be thankful for.

For example, you can be thankful it's Nov. 26 and not April 15. Be thankful you have a roof over your head and that your stomach is full (some of us probably will be much too full right after Thanksgiving dinner). At the time I'm writing this—prior to Thanksgiving—my intentions are to watch the Aggie-Teasipper contest Thursday night, as they re-run it, providing some idiot doesn't up and tell me what the score was before then. In which case, I'll probably just forget the whole thing.

You also can be thankful you're not a turkey.

THE WINTER'S first story of a family dying from heater fumes was in Sunday's paper. Anyway, it was the first one I had noticed, but every winter this happens to scores of individuals or families in the United States.

Space heaters, which burn up the oxygen in the air, especially when the residence is shut up tightly at night against the cold, will go out, and the fumes can kill the sleeping persons.

Although, it's vitally important to have fresh air coming into the house at night from somewhere, many ignore the danger and leave all windows closed.

It's better to be cold for a little while than cold forever.

COLUMNIST Hal Boyle, when he can't think of anything to write his daily column about, always runs a bunch of unrelated short takes about things which used to be but aren't any more. I suppose the older one gets, the more he likes to reminisce. In a Boyle-ish tradition, I will say this: You're no teenager if you can remember:

When BB Bats were a penny, and you could eat on one all day.

When Baby Ruths also came in penny size, almost as large as the ones you get for a nickel now.

When the Saturday afternoon movie was attended by every kid in town. It was always a double feature western, and usually included one chapter from a 13-part serial. (And we could hardly wait to see the next ep-

When mother and grandma used to make up big batches of soap in an old black pot. They also made butter in a big old churn, and if my memory doesn't fail me, it tasted a heck of a lot better than oleo.

When the whole family would come to town every Saturday on a horse-drawn wagon. They'd buy groceries for the week and linger to talk with folks they hadn't seen since last Saturday.

I can remember all those things myself, and I don't feel old. Others who can remember a lot further back than that aren't old, either, but some folks are old nearly all their lives. As Mac MacAllister says, it's not the years, but the fears that get you.

ONE MEMBER of our staff, referring to three pictures of Wayland students from foreign lands who will speak Dec. 1 at Frio, inquired, "what kind of names are these, that these singers have?"

We informed her that those were speakers, not singers, although that first fellow, Nelson Huang, probably could sing the Huang Huang Blues. (our apologies to Mr. Huang).

Cotton Growers Will Vote On Quotas Dec. 15

GOLD STAR AWARD—County Judge J. B. Davis, right, presents the Gold Star Boy award for outstanding work in 4-H club, to Rodney Bowling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Bowling of Sudan. The award was presented at the annual achievement program in Littlefield Nov. 10.

The cotton quota vote coming up on Dec. 15 will mark the 12th consecutive year in which growers have voted on marketing quotas for their upland cotton crop, Harvey D. Vann, Chairman, Lamb County ASC, said this week.

"Beginning with the referendum on marketing quotas for the 1954 crop, growers have approved quotas for each year's cotton crop," he said. "In the vote last year, on quotas for the 1964 upland cotton crop, 94 percent of the growers voting approved to quotas."

By law, quotas must be proclaimed in years when the cotton supply exceeds normal. The estimated 1964-65 total supply of upland cotton exceeds the estimated normal supply by 41 percent.

The National acreage allotment is 16 million acres (the smallest permitted under law), plus 200,000 acres from the national acreage reserve to take care of minimum farm allotments. Notices of individual farm allotments will be mailed to operators of cotton farms in advance of the Dec. 15 referendum.

If at least two-thirds of the growers voting in the referendum approve quotas for the 1965 upland cotton crop, price support at a level within the range of 65 to 90 percent of parity will be available to growers who do not exceed the farm's acreage allotment, additional price support in the form of payments will be available to growers who keep their acreage within the farm's "domestic allotment," and marketing quota penalties will apply to any excess cotton produced on a farm.

If more than one-third of the voters oppose quotas for the 1965 crop, the regular allotment program will remain in effect, and price support will be available to growers who do not exceed their acreage allotments, at 50 percent of parity, as provided by law.

All farmers who engaged in the production of upland cotton in 1964 are eligible to vote in the Dec. 15 referendum.

Negro Man Shot To Death Here

Roosevelt Sloan, 52, well-known Sudan Negro resident, was charged with murder with malice Monday following the Sunday night shooting of M. C. McLaughlin, Sudan Negro farm laborer.

The shooting occurred near Sloan's residence in Sudan about 9:30 p. m., it was reported. Deputy Sheriff Homer McLaury said McLaughlin was shot with a .385 automatic pistol after an argument with Sloan.

Sloan pleaded innocent of the charges before Justice of the Peace J. N. Bowen of Littlefield and had bond set at $2,000, Sheriff Dick Dyer said. He remained in county jail Monday. Sloan told officers that McLaughlin had threatened his life.

McLaughlin was pronounced dead on arrival at West Plains Hospital, Muleshoe, about 10 p. m. Sunday. The body was to be transferred to Midland for services and burial.

BROTHER OF SUDAN MAN DIES IN WRECK

Cacy Thomas Day, 69, of Midway community, was killed Monday night when his car struck the rear of a truck-trailer east of Lubbock.

Day was brother of Roy Day of Sudan, who learned of the tragedy when he saw it on television.

Services were pending Tuesday at Sanders Funeral Home, Littlefield.

MRS. FOSTER LEADS BIBLE CLASS STUDY

Mrs. Joe Foster led the study of the Ladies Bible class of the Church of Christ when the group met Monday afternoon.

Present were Mesdames Quinton McCaghren, Joe Fisher, Beulah Wiseman, E. B. Hutchinson, Bernard Wilson, C. E. Nichols, T. Fife, Weaver Barnett, Paul Mathews, R. S. Gatewood.

Cotton growers will vote in a referendum on whether marketing quotas will be in effect for the 1965 upland cotton crop. That is only a few days away, so don't forget the date. Polls will be open from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.

Voting places include: Community D and F—Farmers Co-op Gin, Amherst, Texas. Community D—N.B. Embury Gin, North of Littlefield.

Community E—Farmers Co-op Gin, Sudan.

MISSION BOOK TOPIC FOR WMU SESSION

"Frontiers of Advance", a mission book, was the subject topic for the meeting of the WMU of the First Baptist Church held Monday afternoon. Mrs. L. F. Meeks was program leader and gave the first two chapters of the book.

Present were Mesdames Meeks, John Ruth, Halbert Harvey, Robert DeLoach, Homer Morris, Willie Hazel.

MRS. TERRY HOSTESS TO 1935 STUDY CLUB

Mrs. W. V. Terry was hostess Monday evening for a meeting of the 1935 Study Club when the program topic was "New Flags in Our World".

"America—Half brother of the world" was the motto and the project for the meeting was gifts for the patients of the mental hospital in Wichita Falls.

Mrs. R. D. Nix was Program director. Mrs. Kenneth Wiseman discussed the subject "New Europe and the United States". Mrs. Wesley Hargensheimer gave the subject, "Africa in Transition".

Initiation services conducted by Mrs. Terry and Mrs. S. D. Hey were held for Mrs. Max Bulloch and Mrs. Jack Riley.

Others present were Mesdames Weaver Barnett, R. S. Gatewood, Sara Woods, J. S. Smith.

Jim Moring of Pampa, who lived in Sudan from about 1945-1949 when his father was superintendent of schools at Sudan, visited here Monday. His father, Perry Moring, now is teaching at Coahoma.

TRIO AT FRIO — These three international students at Wayland College will speak to the Baptist men of the association at the First Baptist Church of Frio, near Hereford, at 7:30 p. m. Dec. 1. Baptists and any other interested persons in the area are invited to hear Nelson Huang, left, David Akande, center, and Daniel Martinez. Huang was born on a tiny island near Quonoy during World War II. He and his family fled to Hong Kong in 1949. Martinez is from Santo Domingo, Cuba, and Akande is from Nigeria.

HOW TO ROAST TURKEY LIKE A PRO

You may have talked turkey, danced the turkey trot, sung "Turkey in the Straw"—but do you know how to prepare roast turkey like a pro?

According to the experts, correct roasting is slow cooking by dry heat on a rack in an open pan. It requires no water, little basting, no cover and no searing. Low temperatures assure better flavor and appearance, less shrinkage and less loss of juices. A shallow open pan allows for the heat to circulate around the bird, roasting it evenly.

For best results, follow these simple steps recommended by the makers of Wild Turkey Bourbon:

1. Preheat oven to 325° F. (slow).
2. Rinse bird with cold water, drain and pat dry. Rub cavity of bird lightly with salt, if desired.
3. Insert stuffing, if used, just before the turkey goes in the oven for roasting. Push drumsticks under band of skin at tail, if present, or tie them to tail.
4. Place turkey on rack in shallow roasting pan, breast side up.

Brush skin with fat. If a roast meat thermometer is to be used, insert it so that the bulb is in the center of the inside thigh muscle or in the thickest part of the breast meat.

5. Place in preheated oven. If desired, baste or brush occasionally with pan drippings—especially any dry areas. When turkey is two-thirds done, cut cord of band of skin at drumsticks.

6. When the meat thermometer registers approximately 185° F., the turkey should be done. A bird weighing between 6 to 8 lbs. will take about 2 to 2½ hours before it registers that temperature. An 8 to 12 lb. turkey will have to be kept in the oven anywhere from 2½ to 3 hours, while a bird of from 12 to 20 lbs. will need 3 to 4½ hours for completion.

Rex Graves of the U. S. Army, will leave Thursday for Fort Benning, Ga., after visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Graves.

Thanksgiving Prayer

Dear Lord, we give Thee thanks this day,
But not alone for daily bread—
For all Thy gifts which bless our lives.

We thank Thee for love, that makes life's burdens light.
For friendships shared, for hope and joy,
But mostly for the precious right

To think and speak as conscience leads,
To worship Thee, each in his way,
To walk in freedom where we will,
Lord, as we pause to praise and pray.

LUBBOCK—The hard, cotton, killing freeze which descended on the High Plains Nov. 20 can rightfully be described as a double blessing to farmers in the area. The year's first freeze, which traditionally paves the way for full-throttle harvest operations, this year brought the added benefit of applying the brakes to spraying operations in the area's huge Boll Weevil Control Program.

A killing frost spells doom for boll weevils and stops the necessity for further spraying in a diapause control system by destroying the weevil's only food supply. The lateness of the freezing weather—latest on record since 1946—has been a growing source of irritation to officials in the boll weevil control program as they helplessly watched costs mount beyond original estimates.

Early-fall guesses on the aggregate number of acres it would be necessary to spray in order to stop weevil migration and reduce the number of weevils going into hibernation before frost ran only about 750,000 acres, but an exceptionally heavy build-up of the pest populations, plus the record-setting late freeze, boosted the final figure to about 1,100,000 acres sprayed. Final cost figures for all phases of the program are not yet complete but observers close to the program feel that the belated weevils - stopping frost has probably halted expenses somewhere near the $1 1/4 million mark.

Despite adverse weather conditions in the form of wind, fog and rain which have hampered spraying from the start, officials of the Plant Pest Control Division of the USDA are confident that the 1964 leg of the program has accomplished its major objectives.

Dr. E. P. Lloyd of the State College weevil laboratory, after extensive and scientific field checks in the latter stages of the program, said: "While exact results cannot be determined until weevils begin to emerge from hibernation next spring, there is every indication that the number of weevils killed before they could leave cotton fields for hibernation sites has been in excess of 90 percent."

By reducing the number of hibernating weevils each fall for three years running, the program is designed to bring weevil control along the eastern edge of the area down to a matter of fighting local outbreaks.

Don Anderson, chairman of the Boll Weevil Steering Committee—made up of farmers in the control zone—stated that there can now be no doubt that this year's spraying stopped the tremendous westward migration potential of weevil populations which exploded in late summer and early fall to levels above any previously seen in the United States. Many feel that such extremely high numbers of the pest would have sparked movement west into many of the now weevil-free counties on the Plains had it not been for the initiation of a spray program this year, and Anderson said that he believed High Plains farmers have "gotten their money's worth" from this migration halt along.

Cost of the control effort is being borne jointly by farmers in the 23-county High Plains territory served by Plains Cotton Growers, the State of Texas and the federal government. Federal funds are committed to match State and local expenditures up to $1 million. Producer contributions are being made at the rate of 50 cents per bale, collected at area compresses with refunds available to those who do not wish to be a part of the program. Funds collected in this manner are kept in a completely separate Boll Weevil Control bank account, and any money from this year's crop which is not used will be carried over to help with the cost of spraying in 1965.

ROGERS IN UT'S AIR FORCE ROTC

James Richard Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Van Rogers, Star Route, Sudan is in his first year of Air Science in the Air Force ROTC program at The University of Texas. Cadet Rogers is now a freshman, majoring in pre-med and upon successful completion of the Air Force ROTC program, he will be eligible for a Reserve Commission as a Second Lieutenant in the United States Air Force.

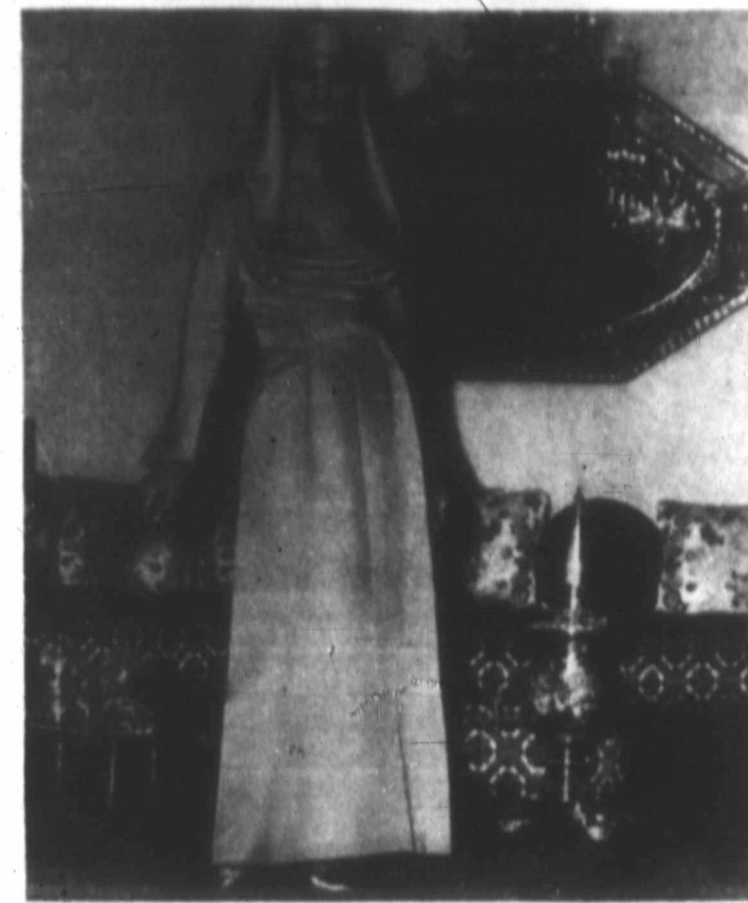

Mr. and Mrs. Acie Daniell visited Sunday with his mother in Amarillo.

Mrs. J. S. Smith visited last week in the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. N. Nichols in Lubbock.

Juanell Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Wood, was ill and confined to South Plains Hospital in Amherst the first of the week.

Susan Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Cardwell, was honored with a birthday party on her seventh birthday Saturday.

The Cover Girl Look

A MOROCCAN THEME is the keynote of the new Cover Girl Look. Bill Blass' dramatic low-cut gown of intricately-seamed brilliant yellow silk was inspired by the native caftan. A cowl-draped fez in flashing "Moroccan Pink" complements the exotic mood. Cover Girl's Creamy Light matte make-up and soft, shimmering Natural Frost lipstick provide an effectively pale backdrop for the boldly accented eyes.

Hard Work Pays Big Dividends For Talented Lone Star 4-H'ers

Miss Wilkinson Pittman Miss Mahaffey Miss Christenberry Miss Skinner Platt

Six Texas 4-H'ers lived up to the club motto—to make the best better—in winning the 1964 best-in-state placings in their favorite projects.

Five of the winners have been selected by the Cooperative Extension Service to represent the state at the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago Nov. 29 through Dec. 3. The state winner in the dairy foods category was presented a wrist watch.

Dwight Pittman, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Pittman of Stephenville, was the swine award winner. His congress trip is sponsored by the Moorman Mfg. Co.

10-Year Member

A freshman at Tarleton State College, Pittman has been a 4-H'er for 10 years. During that time he won 66 ribbons for his 4-H dairy cattle project, won the 1964 showmanship trophy for swine at the Stephenville project show and sale, and won 10 grand champions and nine reserve grand champions with his swine.

Pittman was a member of a national champion poultry judging team and a first place state dairy judging team in 1963. He was named winner of the $2,000 Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo scholarship.

Gayla Wilkinson, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Wilkinson of Denton, was named winner in food preservation. Having carried this project for five years, Miss Wilkinson estimates that she has saved her family approximately $500 a year by canning and freezing foods. She has won a total of 20 blue ribbons in adult competition and has won 27 blue ribbons in county and district 4-H competition. Miss Wilkinson was presented the Texas State Fair charm award in 1963 for the third highest number of awards received in the foods department.

Canning Champion

As part of her 4-H project work, Miss Wilkinson has canned 669 containers of vegetables and fruits and frozen 265 quarts of food. Her trip is sponsored by the Kerr Glass Manufacturing Corporation.

Maurine Christenberry, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Christenberry of Springtown, will attend the congress as a guest of the Oliver Corporation for her dairy project. She has been a 4-H member for eight years.

Miss Christenberry was named Champion Holstein Girl of Texas in 1961 and has shown dairy cows at 38 shows throughout Texas. She was awarded the reserve champion prize in 1962 and 1964 at the Dalworth District Fair and the Parker County Show. In other 4-H projects such as dress revue, she has won seven blue ribbons in county competition.

An electric project captured the state prize for Eddie Platt, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Platt of Palestine. Platt's 4-H electric record book won first place in county and district competition for three years. In 1963 he received the State Fair award of honor for his project. Platt has placed first three times in the county and district individual and team demonstrations in electric projects. He has built 27 electrical appliances. His trip is sponsored by the Westinghouse Educational Foundation.

Safety First

Safety is a favorite subject with Wanda Skinner, 16, of Honey Grove.

Miss Skinner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Skinner, was first place winner in the junior division for two years. In 1964 she won first place in the district with a Civil Defense demonstration. She has been a member of 4-H for seven years.

Miss Skinner was selected as state winner for having learned and demonstrated safety on the farm, home, highway and community. Her trip is provided by General Motors.

Michele Mahaffey, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Mahaffey of Canton, was winner in dairy foods. She was awarded a wrist watch by the Carnation Company.

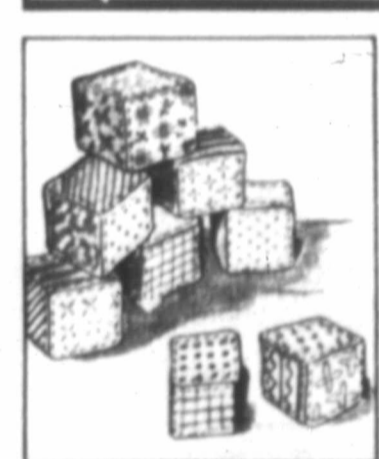

Miss Mahaffey won first place in the county and district in 1964 for dairy foods project. She is a freshman at North Texas State University.

GLAMOUR DREAM

Romantic new sleepwear styles combine the luxury of crepe with nylon's easy-care virtues. The American Enka Corp. has just introduced Crepe-nylon, a nylon with the crepe pebbling built into the yarn itself.

BAG TRICKS

CALICO BLOCKS—Easy to make and easy to wash, these bouncing baby blocks can be made from cotton feed or flour bags. Cover two-inch foam rubber cubes with bright prints and stitch all around. Blocks are light, machine washable and will bounce off furniture. Make a set of eight for your favorite youngster at Christmas.

The trees will be displayed and put on sale on the lot just across the street from the Security State Bank on Phelps Ave. in Littlefield.

A ticket sale campaign will be conducted in connection with the tree sale. All tickets sold will be worth $1.00 on the purchase of any tree, and all tickets sold will be placed in the hopper for a drawing for valuable prizes. The drawing will be held at 4:30 p.m. on the afternoon of Dec. 21, with prizes as follows:

First Prize -- A playhouse displayed on the Christmas tree lot. This house is fully carpeted, finished, painted inside and out, and wired for electricity.

Second prize -- Two season tickets for the 1965 football season for the area high school of your choice.

Third prize -- A 3-pound fruit cake. You do not have to be present to win. All proceeds from the Christmas tree sale will be used for the entire band program of the Littlefield Schools.

U.S. Infant Death Rate Too High, March of Dimes Physician Says

By VIRGINIA APOSTOL, M.D.

Director, Division of Congenital Malformations, The National Foundation-March of Dimes

Did you know that 10 nations have a lower infant mortality rate than the United States? That every year we lose about 105,000 babies aged one year or less?

That this tragic and discreditable situation exists despite the fact we have the best trained physicians, the most medical schools, more hospital beds than any other nation, and probably more prenatal clinics than any other country?

How, if at all, can our infant mortality rate be lowered? In the course of my work with the program of The National Foundation March of Dimes to eliminate birth defects as a leading cause of infant mortality and disability, I have talked to scores of obstetricians and pediatricians, leaders in public health and other experts to seek answers to the problem of the infant mortality rate in our country. All feel that better prenatal care would help.

Everyone agreed that probably the most blameworthy culprit is a young woman we might call Sally B. She is 20, reasonably pretty, a high school dropout after a year, and she is married to a laborer whose education ceased at age 12. She has had one baby stillborn and two miscarriages, and more such shattering experiences are probably in store for her.

Intimately acquainted with this prototype is Vera R. Keane, now research director at Yale University School of Nursing, New Haven, Conn., and formerly director of parent education, New York Hospital-Cornell Medical Center. She has had long experience as a public health nurse, and to me she describes the group to which Sally B. belongs in these terms:

"At any given time in the United States, we estimate that there are some two million women pregnant. Of these, about 500,000 belong to that hardcore, lower socio-economic group who turn a deaf ear to prenatal advice and refuse to attend prenatal clinics because they say, they don't consider pregnancy as being 'sick.'"

"When you ask these women and girls why they won't go to prenatal clinics in communities where these facilities exist, they say they don't need any advice or, if they do they can get it from a girl friend or neighbor, or they don't have the time, or they don't have the money for transportation to the clinic and for a baby-sitter while they're away from home, or even if they are pregnant they're much more concerned about their husband being out of work, or worried about where they are going to get next month's rent or the money for this week's food. They just poopoo the whole idea of the protective and preventive health service. That's your typical Sally B."

But let me say to women in early pregnancy that even if they do feel some reluctance about making their first visit to a prenatal clinic we usually find that only about one in five will need to return frequently. Those who are requested to return at close intervals are the high-risk cases where we find such disorders as diabetes, high blood pressure, anemia and obesity. I hasten to add that in these cases there are remedial measures that can be taken.

If our infant mortality rate remains shocking and frightening that tragedy is no justification for doing nothing to improve it. The time is long overdue for us to roll up our sleeves and get to work. We most certainly can make our prenatal clinics more inviting and less wearing on those expectant mothers who should use them.

"Green Monster" Sets World Land Speed Mark

This is Art Arfons' Timken bearing-equipped "Green Monster" jet streamliner which holds the world land speed record.

Akron, Ohio's Art Arfons recently set a new world land speed mark of 536.71 miles per hour in his Green Monster jet-powered racer. At one point during the second half of his two-way run over the half-mile salt track, his car reached a speed of more than 600 miles per hour.

Engineers from The Timken Roller Bearing Company's Automotive Division worked with Arfons on installing Timken tapered roller bearings in the inner and outer positions on the four wheels. They also suggested the proper type of grease to use and advised on modifications to the wheel seals.

R. L. Williams, Chief Engineer - Automotive Division of The Timken Roller Bearing Company, said the outside diameter of the tires on the big racer was 30 inches. Traveling at 536.71 miles per hour, the wheels were making 5,800 revolutions per minute.

Arfons' record represented the fourth time in one month that the record was broken, and the second time by Art Arfons. Earlier in the month he set a record of 434.02 miles per hour.

SALVATION IS FREE

Scripture: 1 Peter 1:18-25; Romans 8:2; Ephesians 2:2, 8-10.

Salvation is a free gift offered to you and me. You cannot earn or work for it, or buy it, but only accept it as a gift from God. Then you are God's child—a Babe in the kingdom. However, your daily walk is not immediately as high as your position with God. No great or good deed you may do affects your position, but how you learn in your daily walk with Jesus affects your growth, your present joy, your spiritual capabilities, and your future eternal rewards for service.

It is the blood of Jesus Christ that redeems the believer from the guilt and the penalty of sin, as it is the power of the Holy Spirit that delivers him from the dominion of sin.

There could be no redemption from sin for man without a blood sacrifice — so God sent His Son, Jesus. His death, his shed blood was necessary to atone for our guilt and to pay off our death penalty. And the power of His Holy Spirit is necessary to keep sin from having dominion over you.

So, how can you be saved? One way—through the shed blood of Jesus on the cross applied by you, in your confession to God of your sin, and repentance (being sorrowful that Christ death was necessary because of your sin and mine); and a turning away from sin to choose Jesus—believing that He is God's Son, who loves you and came to save you.

Take Jesus as your personal sin-offering, your Savior, and the work is done. Christ finished His work for man's salvation and nothing you or I can do could add to that for it is perfect and complete. All that we do to be saved from guiltiness and death is to accept Jesus! Immediately you are God's child.

But you are new, you are clean, you are God's child, and yet you are here in a world full of sin and sorrow and death and violence. How are you to remain clean and fit for God's household? One way—by the power of God's Spirit; in your seeking Him, loving Him, God freely gives all the power to His child, (any and all His children) that you will use—all you need, if you will be loving and obedient to His tender, loving, or wise guidance.

But, remember within the believer is two natures—the old nature which is not changed (you cannot save yourself) and the new nature which is Christ's own. So, as long as a believer lives in the physical body, the two natures battle for dominion, or rule over you. But the believer is free—God's child, and God will not allow His child to be tempted above what that child can withstand, by the power of His Spirit that worketh in you.

Which power (nature) is working in your will, within you? You choose to follow Jesus, confess Him, read God's Word for instructions prayerfully, that you may know how to follow (closely) your beloved Friend and Savior—and He will be your Lord forevermore.

What's different about "Holiday Pumpkin Chiffon Tarts"—festive dessert suggestion from the Lever Homemaking Center? It's the delightful light texture of the fragrantly-spiced filling featuring the folding-in of prepared Lucky Whip Topping Mix. The fluffy filling is lightly piled into delicate, flaky tart shells and chilled until firm. No last-minute baking is called for in this convenient recipe—an important advantage in Thanksgiving and Christmas entertaining. For extra-flaky tart shells use Light Spray in your favorite Pastry recipe.

Pumpkin Chiffon Tarts
(Makes 6 tarts)
6-3/4 inch baked tart shells, cooled
1/2 cup brown sugar
1 envelope unflavored gelatin
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon ginger
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
1/4 teaspoon cloves
2 eggs, slightly beaten
1/2 cup milk
1 cup canned pumpkin
1 envelope Lucky Whip Dessert Topping Mix

Mix brown sugar, gelatin, salt and spices together in saucepan; add eggs, milk and pumpkin; blend well. Bring just to a boil over medium heat, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Cool thoroughly. Prepare Lucky Whip according to package directions; fold into pumpkin mixture. Fill lightly in baked tart shells. Chill until firm, about 2-3 hours. Garnish with additional Lucky Whip, if desired.

Gin Your Cotton 2 to 3 Weeks Earlier—Without Losing Money!
WATKINS GIN HAS THE NEW K-B (KIMBELL-BISHARD) COTTON CLEANER AND GREEN BOLL SEPARATOR. THIS UNIT MEANS TO YOU:

- BETTER GRADES: Earlier harvesting of the cotton before weather damage and deterioration of staple and grade. The K-B removes green bolls and preserves the quality of the lint. Dirt and trash are also removed in the first gin operation instead of the last operation as previously.
- NO INJURY TO FIBER: All cleaning is done by air. The K-B unit does not break or damage the fiber as is done with beating cylinders, etc. Fiber damage means shorter staple and lower micronaire.
- MICRONAIRE NOW PART OF GRADE: Removal of immature bolls means better micronaire. Reduces number of wasties and barkies, which can mean up to $15.00 per bale more to you.
- BETTER TURNOUTS: Through the return of green bolls to be ginned later after they open. This can up the turnout by as much as 5 per cent.
- PRACTICALLY 100% WEED SEEDS REMOVED from burs and seed eliminating noxious weeds, and less hoeing.
- EARLIER PULLING: This machine will allow you to pull your cotton 2 to 3 weeks earlier. You do not need to wait until your cotton is completely open before stripping.
