WOODWORK BY DALTON

THE BERKELEY CAMPUS of the University of California has been involved in a rash of sit-ins and student demonstrations last November and December, mostly by a bunch of kids who apparently weren't satisfied with just going to college to learn something.

A couple of students, named Mario Savio, 22, and Marilyn Goldberg, 25, applied for a marriage license last week in Oakland, saying they met and fell in love during the sit-ins on the campus, some of which were demonstrations clamoring for free speech.

"They received the license after Miss Goldberg paid the $2 fee," reported the Associated Press.

As much as I'd like to, I just can't make the comment that comes naturally.

WE NOTICE THAT Great Britain has decided to switch to the metric system of weights and measures. England, like the United States, always has used the linear system of inches, feet, miles and so on, but much of Europe uses centimeters, meters and kilometers.

They will start teaching the system in the schools.

Most people agree that the metric system makes more sense because everything is divisible by 10, but it's doubtful that the United States ever will go to the system, because we're just too set in our ways to ever make such a drastic change.

Personally, we sort of like things the way they are. We never did care for meters—especially water, gas and light.

Rimrock City Opens Saturday

The Southwest's newest educational and recreational center, Rimrock City and Zoological Gardens, will be unveiled to the public this Saturday and Sunday, May 29 and 30.

Bill Thomas, manager, announced recently that in addition to the Frontier City, Zoo, Reptile House, Miniature Golf course and Amusement Ride area, special attractions such as Go-E the clown, Indian Dancers, Bull Whip demonstrations and shoot outs have been booked for the opening.

Rimrock City and Zoological Gardens is located just east of Loop 289 on the Buffalo Lakes Road in Lubbock.

SUDAN REPRESENTED AT ESA CONVENTION

Epsilon Sigma Alpha International held its 16th annual state convention in Fort Worth May 14, 15 and 16. Those attending from Sudan were Mrs. Martha Taylor, Mrs. Romie Duvall and Mrs. Jackie Markham from the Iota Eta Chapter. Representing the Zeta Delta Chapter was their educational director Mrs. Virginia Masten.

One of the most rewarding highlights of the convention was a letter read from our First Lady Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson. She commended ESA for the outstanding work being done in Texas as well as throughout the nation. She also asked for the chapter's assistance and offered suggestions for ways that they could help in fighting the war against poverty and was in turn assured the wholehearted support of ESA.

The regular meeting of Iota Eta Chapter was held Thursday, May 13, in the home of Mrs. Charlotte Brown. Mrs. Mary Lee Cowart served as co-hostess. Installation of officers highlighted the evening, with outgoing president Charlene Blume presiding.

New officers installed were Charlotte Brown, president; Ronnie Duvall, vice president; Bettye Martin, recording and corresponding secretary; Mary Woods, treasurer; and Maxine Nichols, educational director. Attending were Mesdames Cowart, Blume, Brown, Duvall, Martha Markham, Martin, Matt McKenzie, Arlene Provence and Woods.

It was announced that the socials would be discontinued during the summer months. Regular meetings and socials will resume in September.

James H. (Jim) Fowler, manager of General's Littlefield district for the past two months will become Brownfield district manager. Named to replace Fowler as Littlefield district manager is Alan Waldrop, who currently serves as a communications consultant in General's Sulpher Springs, Texas exchange.

A DAY TO REMEMBER

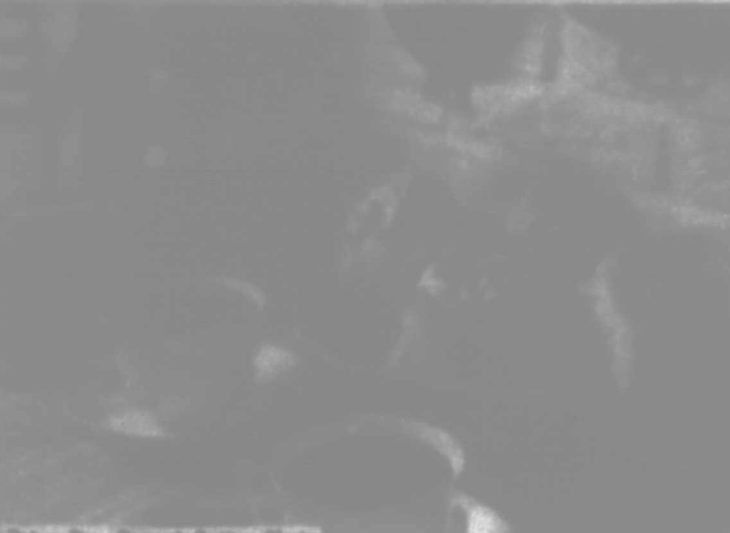

MEMORIAL DAY

The muffled drum's sad roll has beat
The soldier's last tattoo:
No more, on Life's parade shall meet
That brave and fallen few.
On Fame's eternal camping ground,
Their silent tents are spread,
And glory guards, with solemn round,
The bivouac of the dead.

Peas

Funny thing about cinnamon buns. They're enjoyed the four seasons through anytime from breakfast to a late-night kitchen raid. You can eat them plain, toasted or oven-warmed, with or without butter or your favorite jam, which makes the ever popular cinnamon bun about as versatile as any food can be.

Cooks in many lands have their favorite recipes for this worldly yet homey favorite. However, the Peter Pan home economists have developed a delicious approach with the use of crunchy peanut butter in the ingredients to give a subtle "nutty" flavor to the buns.

PEANUT BUTTER CINNAMON BUNS
(Makes 8 buns)

- 1 package (15-1/2 ounces) hot roll mix
- 1/2 cup Peter Pan Crunchy Peanut Butter Cinnamon
- 1/2 cup dark seedless raisins
- 1/2 cup melted butter
- 1/2 cup sifted confectioners sugar
- 2 teaspoons milk

Prepare hot roll mix according to package directions. After first rising, knead smooth on lightly floured board; roll into 12-inch square. Spread with peanut butter; sprinkle with cinnamon and raisins. Roll in jelly roll fashion; cut into 8 slices. Place (cut side down) in greased and floured 9-inch round cake pan; let rise. Bake in 375° (moderate) oven 30 to 35 minutes or until done, brushing with butter the last 5 minutes. Turn out on cake rack to cool. Blend sugar and milk; drizzle on warm buns. Serve warm or cold.

SHORT AND SWEET

More Americans are turning to good reading now than ever before... A nationwide survey conducted by the American Library Association in cities with a population of 35,000 to 50,000 has reported that reading habits are shifting from westerns and feather-light romances to historical, biographical, psychological, political and mystery novels. In non-fiction, readers want to know more about civil rights, education, the nation's space program, juvenile delinquency, mental health, government and American history. Interest is steadily rising in international affairs, with a particular demand for works on Africa, the Soviet Union, Cuba, and Viet Nam.

Printer best seller lists and newspaper book pages were found to be the media most responsible for creating demand... The booming paperback industry is helping to foster demand... Nearly one million paperbacks are sold every day and are available in some 25,000 titles ranging from the philosophy of the ancient Greeks to pogo humor... They have an economic and psychological impact which offers something to everyone - they are inexpensive, easy to carry around, do not take up much room and invite heavy to light readers.

French fries, spaghetti, vanilla and ice cream were introduced to North America by Thomas Jefferson... Sauerkraut originated in ancient China during the building of the Great Wall... Coolies were fed cabbage and rice spiked with red wine to preserve the cabbage... The Tartars passed it on to Eastern Europeans who renamed it. Sauerkraut... Drinking a toast was just that in Anglo-Saxon times... Was-sail bowl, the drink used to wish good cheer, was made up of mead, beaten eggs, sugar and nutmeg, with toast floating on top.

LIFE ETERNAL

Scripture: St. John 3: 16; 14: 1-6.

All men seek for life
Where death will not be;
But many the method
And ways travel we.

We try to be better,
To work and life earn;

But death e'er confronts us,
Which way do we turn?
Shall men live again
After pain, then to die;
Is there truly hope
For one such as I?

Is there a place
Where life never ends,

Where death cannot come,
Neither tears, pain, nor sin?

How then, can man find it,
This life of reality;
And who can e'er guide me
To find immortality?

Who knows the way
And can guide us from here?
This One who still loves us—
God's Word makes it clear.

Jesus, the Son
Who came down to earth
To die for man's sin,
And bring us new birth.

A Spiritual Father,
A Spiritual Child,
(His grace and our faith),
Through Christ reconciled.

So follow Christ Jesus,
He, only, gives life
That's rich and eternal
And free from all strife.

A gift, life eternal
From God unto us
What love makes Him want us!
In Him we shall trust.

Then take the Lord Jesus
As Savior and Friend
For He is the way
To find life without end.

TRUST AND OBEY

preached that men should repent, they cast out devils, and ministered with all manner that were sick, and healed them. What do we preach today? That the nation should pray for peace, that we should study and learn about God and His teaching money and love; that if Christ is only Lord, He must live within us all these and participate in all our thoughts and activities. And sometimes, too often I am afraid, we preach what Dr. Somebody said in his latest book.

So what have we preached? The same gospel that the Kingdom of heaven is "at hand" and that men should repent of that sin, although we certainly should literally use the Word of God for the complete message. Because unless one has repented and asked God's forgiveness and help in living and learning to pray, and study and learning of His Word and in meditation, and walks with Christ within and without—unless one has repented he or she cannot do the above. For only by God's grace through our faith in Christ can we have the power to do good works which are acceptable and pleasing to God.

Man's nature is so inclined to evil that continually that he cannot will himself by trying to do good works and more education, but only by repentance and acceptance and continuation. Through God's grace to lead to man a better free death into eternal life, by faith in repent of sin and accept Christ, then we can "hear" into God's family and begin to learn with our Father's Holy Spirit helping us to develop and grow. And we grow by developing a spiritual appetite—by eating, and by resting and exercising.

Are you spiritually hungry? Take a look at your spiritual diet, and see for yourself if it is sufficient for your growth. On what, and how often do you "feed" your soul? "The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want." Do you read God's Word, study it and seek to think with the mind of Christ, as you pray and meditate? Do you eagerly seek to join with

'GENESIS' STUDY COMPLETED BY WESLEYAN SERVICE GUILD

The Wesleyan Service Guild of the First Methodist Church met in the home of Mrs. Vera Wood Tuesday, May 4 for its regular meeting.

The invocation was given by Ruth Venson, who also gave a "Bible for 1965". Ruth Ellen Riley presented the list of four houses on the bank of Canada.

President Mary Oble conducted other children of God to praise and worship Him? Do you read and study His Word, and know the delight of sharing another Christian's thoughts and experiences with the same loving Father who is also your own? Then when all this is contemplated into your own personal life and experience, you can use your brother or sister's writings in experience to give glory and witness to God. For we are a family: God the Father, and we through Christ are His children. So we live by the Word of the Father. He feeds us, and we have no lack of food available for our soul's growth.

Then after the soul is well-nourished, do you have a quiet retreat for having your spirit rested and refreshed and strengthened? "He leadeth me to the down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters." Have you tried Jesus, God's only Son? Have you tried praying? They will be done? Have you, in the cool green pastures, and by the calm waters, heard the still small voice calling you to do His work, by the power of His Spirit within you, beginning now where you are? "He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake."

Are you exercising your spiritual muscles, both the little ones and the big ones, that your strength may increase so you will be ready to take any step, when the time comes, by faith in Christ Jesus? To exercise, one walks each day one step at a time, now that our soul is restored to abundant and eternal life in Christ, in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. He leads, we follow, trusting His wisdom, strength, and His everlasting love for us. Repent... all men need a Savior from their sin... accept Jesus Christ and take up your cross daily and follow Him... and live in joy and peace now and forevermore.

If you have sinned and will confess it to Him, He is "just and faithful to forgive us our sin and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness", all of us are subject to the same temptations, and only in Christ do we need a saving help to overcome our besetting sin. Trust Him, follow Him, give yourself to Him; trust and obey for there's no other way. Jesus is the One, the only one, who can give you eternal life. And He loves you!
