WOODWORK Band Marches At SP Fair

BY DALTON

BIGGEST outdoor sport on campus this fall, according to Roger Doughty of Newspaper Enterprise Assn., is Frisbee flinging. The International Frisbee Assn. has 28,000 members, but that's nothing, says Doughty, "compared to the unorganized (or disorganized, as the case may be). Whole thing may have started in 1827 when a Yale man named Frisbee threw a collection plate 200 feet across the campus in protest against compulsory chapel, or might have originated in Hollywood in '40s when actors tossed empty film cans around on their lunch hours."

Pretty good theory, I guess. Who knows, maybe it was the first Frisbee tossers who started all this stuff about flying saucers.

KNOTHOLES IN THE WOODWORK: With all the new 1970 cars out last week, we notice that Cadillac has one model (Eldorado) with a standard 500 cubic inch engine which supposedly generates 400 horsepower. This is sort of the height of the ridiculous race for power in autos. Nobody needs that much horsepower. You tromp on the gas pedal, the gas tank goes dry with a big slurp, and the engine jumps out from under the hood and goes tearing off into the sky by itself. Speaking of cars reminds me of drivers and speaking of drivers reminds me of liability insurance. Why in the world isn't liability insurance sold to the driver instead of to the car? That way the driver would be covered no matter what car he is driving. To answer my own question, it undoubtedly is because the insurance companies can make more money the way it is set up now. Germany has started its Oktoberfest, the world's biggest beer bust, which goes from Sept. 20 to Oct. 5. The rules of the festival are a little hazy, but so are the participants, no doubt, by the time they spend all those days drinking beer. In a football contest the other day, yours truly missed 12 out of 24 games. Any idiot with a crayola, marking indiscriminately, could surely do as well as 50 per cent.

HORNETS OVER BULLDOGS, 39-0

"WEAVER, WEAVER, WE WANT A TOUCHDOWN"--Shown above is FB David Weaver, 84, headed for the goal line as Sudan fans cheered him on.

By ELRAY RASCO

The Sudan Hornets chalked up their second victory of the season Friday night as they shut out the Amherst Bulldogs, 39-0. The Hornet defense did a great job, allowing the Bulldogs only 5 first downs and 43 yards rushing.

In the opening minutes of the game, the two teams played a game of "exchange" as the football changed hands about four times before the Hornets finally started moving the ball. FB Larry Hanna broke the ice for the Hornets with a 15 yard run for the touchdown. Halfback Jerry Bellar kicked the extra point, and the Hornets led 7-0.

As the ball was kicked, the Hornets rushed downfield and Bellar covered a Bulldog fumble on the Amherst 12 yard line. The Hornets were pushed back to the 17, when Bellar broke through on 4th down and ran 17 yards for another TD. The try for point was no good, and at the end of the first quarter, the Hornets led 13-0.

When the Hornets got the ball, three plays later Hanna ran 30 yards for 6 more points. Bellar kicked the point, and the score was 20-0. The Hornet defense held the Bulldogs, forcing them to punt, and Bellar made a 15 yard punt return to the Bulldog 40 yard line. The Hornets moved on down to the 19, where they fumbled the ball and Jimmy Humphries was there to cover for the Bulldogs after the ball exchanged hands, and several plays later, Sudan QB Rex Boyles ran 33 yards for the TD. Hanna kicked the extra point, and the Hornets led 27-0. Several new Hornet players took over in the backfield for Sudan including a new quarterback, Bo Lance. He handed off to fullback David Weaver, who high-stepped his way through the Bulldogs for a gain of 21 yards to the Amherst 15. With only 5 seconds remaining in the first half, Weaver plunged over from two yards out for another score. The try for point failed, and the Hornets led Amherst 33-0 at the half.

Starting off the second half with a bang, Rex Boyles intercepted an Amherst pass and ran the ball to the Hornet 40, only to lose the ball on the downs on the Bulldog 30 yard line. But the Bulldogs only had the ball for two plays when HB Roger Boyles intercepted an Amherst pass on the 48. Then it was the Hornet's time to fumble, and Kim Harmon covered the ball for the Bulldogs. Late in the quarter, guard Eugene Lopez recovered a Bulldog fumble for the Hornets on the Amherst 37. Moving on down to the 18, the Hornets failed to make a first down, and this quarter ended with neither team able to score.

The Hornets tried to score again early in the final quarter with Bellar running 40 yards into the end zone only to have the play called back on an offside penalty. The Hornets made their final TD when QB Boyles tossed a pass to end Shawn Potter for 30 yards with the play totaling 44 yards as Potter ran over the line into the end zone. The try for EP failed. QB Boyles then intercepted a pass on the 30 yard line and the Hornets ran the clock out to end the game Sudan over Amherst, 39-0.

Hanna was top ball carrier in the game with 90 yards. Weaver, who was playing for the first time this season, was in second place with 87 yards.

Outstanding on defense were guard Steve Edwards, Rex Boyles and tackle Harvey Willey.

The Hornets travel to Morton Friday night to meet the Morton Indians. Game time is 8 p. m.

AMHERST HOSPITAL TO GET ELEVATOR

Floyd Rowell, Administrator, and the Board of Directors, South Plains Hospital-Clinic, Amherst, Texas, are happy to announce that they have been promised a grant from the Halsell Foundation to be used toward the purchase of an elevator which has been so badly needed since the hospital was built in 1942. This grant will cover only a portion of the total expense incurred.

The east wing of the hospital is, at the present time, being remodeled for use also. Anyone wishing to donate funds for the purchase of furniture for the east wing of the hospital - or anyone wishing to donate funds for the installation of the elevator may contact Floyd Rowell or any of members of the Board of Directors.

The hospital administrator expressed the groups thanks to everyone for their cooperation.

The Hospital Auxiliary would like some magazines for the hospital. We would like all magazines not earlier than July 1969 issues. They may be left at the hospital desk or Blossom Shop.

You'll have a hard time finding a wagon as easy to get into as a 1970 Chevrolet.

Try it sometime. Climb into any other wagon, then climb into one of ours. Chevrolet wins in a walk. With a dual-action door that swings open without any jutting hinges.

With a rubbered stair built right into the bumper. With a roof that slants thoughtfully forward so you won't hit your head. Look into a walk-in at your Chevrolet dealer's. Putting you first, keeps us first.

group strength caused the increase. It may be that labor got a better contract, which means higher wages and increased benefits. It may be that the large corporation which manufactured the product needed more profit, or the industry that manufactured the particular item needed more profit.

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN TO FARMERS? We are living in the year 1969, not 1950 or 1930. Individuals can no longer compete with the big companies that have developed nationwide. I think it is foolish for farmers to think they can go it alone.

Now I know that a lot of business people—I mean the ones in the store—the ones that try to make a living in town may have thought this article was directed at them. In a way it was, but mainly to your business counterparts, your country friends, your farming neighbors. I will say to our city friends: the next time you take a coffee break, look who is sitting next to you. I'll bet it is a farmer.
