WOODWORK

—by Dalton

SOME OF US can remember when food and gasoline were rationed, and Hershey bars and tires were almost non-existent. This, of course, was during World War II, when the basic gasoline allotment was four gallons a week, although most people had an allotment of eight gallons a week.

Thanks to Ralph Nader and his anti-pollution junk, and our own penchant for loading down our cars with all kinds of gas-eating goodies, eight gallons a week would seriously curtail our driving these days. And four gallons wouldn't get our four-barrel underslung tire-squealer in and out of the garage seven days a week.

We don't anticipate a return to gas rationing even approaching the level that was allowed in WWII. But there definitely is a shortage of gasoline these days in some areas.

During World War II the black markets sprang into being. People were illegally peddling sugar, tires and scarce commodities at high prices. And now some observers believe we may see a return of the black market on some scarce items. So, like jugs of homemade whiskey, jugs of gasoline may be offered at sky-high prices in areas where gasoline is short. And people on vacations and in spots far from stations may be glad to pay any price for the gasoline.

From what the big boys tell us, some of that moonshine you can get in Tennessee or Kentucky might make a good substitute for gasoline. Only thing is, if you poured it in your tank, the car probably wouldn't go straight.

Some responsible witnesses are saying that there really isn't a gasoline shortage; that the whole thing is a gimmick of oil companies to force prices up. We heard a speaker the other night suggest that the oil companies and auto manufacturers work together on this thing, asserting that the auto makers could make carburetors that would get us all 25 or more miles to the gallon if they really wanted to. We don't know, but we have no reason to doubt either assertion.

We also hear that the fuel oil situation in the colder areas of the nation will be more critical than the summer gasoline shortage.

Obviously some sort of substitutes for fuel oil and gasoline are needed. But they probably wouldn't be satisfactory. After all, there's no fuel like an old fuel.

KNOTHOLES in the Woodwork: The Tire Industry Safety Council says summer is rough on tires and underinflation is the worst enemy. In fact, they recommend you inflate your tires about 4 pounds more than the carmaker's recommended level, and say never bleed your tires when they are hot after prolonged driving (always check pressure when the tire is cool). It was noted that underinflation from 4 to 12 pounds cuts tire life from 10 to 40 per cent. They also suggest that you check the tread safety depth by putting a Lincoln-head penny into the tread groove. If the top of Lincoln's head is visible, then the tire should be replaced. We tried putting Lincoln-head pennies in the treads of our tires. It sure does make them ride rough... Bob Bullock, who used to be Texas Secretary of State, is announcing for the office of Comptroller of Public Accounts... Gayle Cornelius of Hereford caught a 15-pound Northern Pike from Greenbelt Reservoir near Amarillo April 20 and this fishie, 37.5 inches long, set a new record for the state. Previous record for a northern pike was 13 pounds... Biggest fish I ever caught wouldn't have weighed that much if he'd been loaded with lead to the gills... Be thankful you live in West Texas. A couple of area men who recently visited Washington, D. C., were telling us about how all the hotels are locked at 7:30 p. m. and patrons warned not to go on the streets where it isn't safe.

GOOD PROSPECTS SEEN FOR AREA CROPS

Most area crops are looking good. The irrigated milo is advancing with a vigorous growth while most dryland grain sorghum is progressing at a slower rate. Some of this is due to replanting caused by adverse weather conditions.

More cotton is being planted this season with prospects for a better market. Some small cotton is reportedly being damaged by light infestations of thrips. Thrips, a micro-sized winged insect, slashes the tender leaves and sucks the sap thereby giving the plant a brown, burned look. A few green bugs have also been spotted in the irrigated milo.

Wheat harvested in the area produced a bumper crop, with some reports reaching as high as 25 bushels per acre.

Security State at Littlefield Saturday night and they will have one make-up game which has not been scheduled.

LOCAL BUSINESSES BUILD AND EXPAND

Work began last week on the expansion of the present Frank Lane Ford building. The vacant building adjoining the motor company were purchased and a face-lifting of these is presently underway. The building next to the alley has been torn down for additional new car parking.

The building when finished, will more than double the current floorspace of the motor company.

Work has also been progressing on the new John Deere Service Center on Highway 84. The new business will handle all service and repair work when completed. An opening date has not been announced at this time.

Mrs. King Named Chairman

Mrs. Tom King III has been named chairman of the Breath of Life Campaign to fight children's lung diseases, according to Frank Scott, president of the North Texas Chapter, National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation.

Mrs. King of 507 Main St., will lead Sudan volunteers in raising funds to support research and care programs for children affected by lung-damaging diseases like cystic fibrosis, severe asthma, chronic bronchitis, bronchiectasis, and a condition called childhood emphysema.

Cystic fibrosis, an incurable genetic disease, is inherited when both parents carry the recessive gene for C/F. It is believed that one in twenty persons or 10 million Americans may carry the C/F gene, usually without knowing it. Current research funded by the National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation is seeking a practical test to identify these carriers.

Because of improved therapy and constant research, many C/F patients are living beyond infancy to their teens and into young adulthood. That same kind of therapy is relieving and often curing children suffering from other respiratory afflictions whose symptoms resemble those of C/F.

"Most people don't realize that there are six million children in the U.S. affected by pulmonary illness," said Mrs. King. "For some of these children, breathing is not the natural function we, who are lucky, take for granted."

The Breath of Life Campaign supports not only research but over 100 C/F Centers for diagnosis and treatment across the country.

REQUIREMENTS EASED AT WEST TEXAS STATE

AMARILLO, Tex.—West Texas State University has eliminated its physical examination requirement for incoming students, Dr. T. Paige Carruth, vice president for student affairs, says.

Under new regulations adopted by the Board of Regents, only a record of a student's immunization are required for admission.

Mrs. Louise Mitchell of the University Health Center says, "In the past, a student would go to a doctor for a physical examination and the doctor would give him several tests that were not required by the university, such as chest x-ray, blood tests. This practice was very expensive for the student."

Carruth says the university's only medical requirement now is that students must have had the oral polio and the combination tetanus-diphtheria immunization within the last 10 years.

"Last semester we gave more than 375 shots in one day because students had not gotten their shots or did not realize they had to have them," Mrs. Mitchell says.

Gilbert - Dedmon Vows Solemnized

Miss Sandra LaVon Dedmon became the bride of Mickey Dale Gilbert, Sunday, June 17 at 4:00 p. m. in the First Christian Church of Miami. Henry Gilbert of Sudan is the father of the bridegroom.

The Rev. L. O. Sharp of Anchorage, Alaska, uncle of the bride, officiated the double-ring ceremony. Mrs. Cecil Martin, organist, played traditional wedding music and accompanied Miss Laurel Maddox as she sang "Always" and "Whither Thou Goest". The "Twelfth of Never" was played as the mothers were being seated.

Vows were repeated before two six-branched candelabra decorated with greenery and a centerpiece of spring flowers. Honor pews were marked with ribbons of the bride's chosen colors of spring pastels.

The bride paused coming down the aisle to present a long-stemmed pink rose and a kiss to her mother. The bride was given in marriage by her father with the "her mother and I" avowal. She wore a formal length gown of satin covered with chantilly lace with sheer lace sleeves and lace around the neckline and fashioned with an empire waistline. The veil was of bridal illusion and lace accented by a band of white roses. She carried pennies bearing the birth dates of the bride and groom. Her "something old" was a heirloom pin from the groom's family.

"Something new" was her bridal gown, and "something borrowed" was a ring belonging to the groom's family. She also wore the traditional blue garter given to her by her paternal grandmother. She had a new penny in her shoe. Her bouquet was of split carnations with pastel streamers atop a white Bible. A long-stemmed pink rose was given the bridegroom's mother, following the ceremony.

Miss Sharon Holland, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor and Miss Priscilla Bentley of Lubbock and Mrs. Joan Nix of Seminole served as bridesmaids. All three attendants wore identical street length dresses with empire waistlines and standup collars in pastel shades of double knit. Each carried a carnation matching her dress. Miss Diana Burris of League City, sister of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She wore a pink dress matching those of the other attendants.

Candle lighters were Miss Cindy Wallace of Lubbock, niece of the groom, and Miss Linda Burris of League City, sister of the groom. They were dressed in blue dresses identical to those of the other attendants.

Harvey Willeby of Sudan served as best man. Groomsman were Tim Nix of Seminole and Monte Roberts of Sudan. Mike Dedmon, brother of the bride and Ronnie Gilbert, brother of the groom were ushers.

The bride's mother was attired in a street-length dress of white and green double knit with white accessories. The groom's mother wore a two-piece suit of blue and white with white accessories. They each wore a corsage of white carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church. Miss Laurel Maddox provided the music selections. The serving table was covered with a multi-colored cloth and topped by a hand crocheted table cloth and fashioned by the bride's paternal grandmother. The three-tiered wedding cake was decorated with fresh flowers, cupids and a miniature bride and groom atop the cake.

Mrs. Lloyd South of Miami assisted at the punch bowl and Miss Rita Gull of Miami served the cake. Miss Sharlene Powell, sister of the groom registered the wedding guests.

For the wedding trip to Amarillo, the bride wore a street length two piece suit of burgandy. She chose white accessories and the corsage lifted from her wedding bouquet.

The couple will make their home in Lubbock. The bride is a 1973 graduate of South Plains College and will attend Texas Tech in the fall. The groom has attended Ranger Jr. College, South Plains College and will be a Senior at Texas Tech.

The rehearsal dinner was held at the Red Keys Restaurant in Pampa.

MRS. GARY JOHNSON

Johns on - Trussell Marriage Vows Read

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Trussell of Clyde and Mr. and Mrs. Orlie Johnson of Haskell are the couple's parents.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of jersey knit, fashioned with a draped neckline. A gathered skirt was attached to an empire bodice. Her fingertip veil was held by a beaded hat.

The bridal bouquet was a cascade arrangement of white fringed carnations centered with an orchid atop a white Bible. The Bible has been used by each of the bride's sisters. For something old, the bride carried a handmade handkerchief belonging to her great-great aunt. A string of pearls, borrowed from her sister, and a blue garter served as other traditional remembrances.

Mrs. Haroldine Slinka of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, served as her sister's matron of honor. Mrs. Jayellen Wilson of Sudan was bridesmatron. Their avocado green dresses of polyester crepe were fashioned with an empire waistline and long full sleeves. Music was provided by an Appella group from Abilene.
