AFTER TRYING off and on for years to raise trees around the yard, I have become convinced that although I am green in many areas, the thumb is not one of them.

The best we ever did in planting trees around the house was in Plainview where a couple of fruitless mulberries went on up in a hurry and leafed out. But the webworms made them a mixed blessing. More about those things later.

In Sudan we had a tree which was called something I can't remember, but which I called a bean tree, because it had beans all over it. It kept getting shorter every year. Not this may sound unlikely to anyone who has never lived in Sudan or Morton or anywhere out in that country. If you ever lived on the southwest corner of a block in that area, you know that the yard keeps getting higher and higher as the sand blows in, making the trees shorter. We were one of the few families around with an underground fire plug at the corner. Finally we had the yard cut down more than a foot because we were afraid the kids might fall out of the yard onto the pavement.

Anyway, back to the trees. One of our daughters gave her mother a four-foot plum tree for mother's day last year. It was doing beautifully and we just knew we finally were going to have a nice tree in our back yard. Anyone who is interested now can come by and look at the hole in the yard where it used to be. The dog dug it up, and it died after that.

Most of the little pines we got from the chamber of commerce did a good job of dying. And my wife even lost a few of her tomato vines. (I pulled them up, thinking they were weeds).

In Plainview we had two trees in the front yard. One was a fruitless mulberry, and the other was a webworm tree. The latter really was a weeping willow or something. (I have a lot of trouble getting things straight. Last week I said Donny Anderson plays for the New Orleans Saints, when actually he plays for the St. Louis Cardinals.... Anyway I knew there was a saint in there somewhere).

That weeping webworm tree in Plainview grew 30 feet tall in just two or three years. Then my neighbors started calling and complaining about the worms all over it, fearing they would get into their own trees. This was the first time I knew that it wasn't supposed to have worms in it. I went out and sprayed a few thousand of them with my Flitgun. A hundred or so of them died laughing, but the others were unaffected. This angered me, especially when I found the webworms in my other tree the next day. I took some copies of the Avalanche-Journal (who says it is useless?) and made torches and burned a bunch of worms.

But I couldn't reach the ones way up in the top. So I got madder and poured charcoal lighter all over the tree as far as I could reach, then set the whole tree

LITTLE LEAGUE & BABE RUTH TOURNAMENTS SLATED

ALL-STARS NAMED

The All-Stars have been named for the Sudan-Amherst Inter-City Little League and the Almo Senior Babe Ruth teams with tournaments upcoming.

The Little League All-Stars were disclosed following the three-game play-off for the league title. The Dodgers received the title by besting the Braves in two games. After winning the first game last Tuesday night, they lost to the Braves 14-4 Thursday as the Braves went on the warpath during the third inning to gain a substantial lead. The Dodgers went ahead to add eight more points during the fourth inning, thus leading 13-4 at the end of five periods of play. Both teams remained scoreless during the last inning. A grand slam home run by Kenneth Ivery aided the Braves in the scoring department. The winning pitcher was Tommy Garcia.

In the crucial game Friday night, both teams scored runs in the first inning. However, Sudan seemed to come alive during the second period and added nine runs while holding Amherst to six. Amherst scored 3 runs in the fifth in an attempt to take over. No sixth inning was played, thereby giving Sudan a 15-11 win and the title. Pitcher for the Dodgers was Steve Warren.

The Little League All-Star tournament will be played in Sudan this year with play to get underway Thursday, July 19 and continue through Friday, July 20. Representing Sudan-Amherst will be the following boys with Robin Davis as manager and Rodney Maxfield as coach.

From the Dodgers are Victor

The Sudan-Amherst Senior Babe Ruth team closed out their regular season Saturday night in a game against Littlefield with an 8-7 win. Both teams had a big inning during which they scored 5 points, but the deciding run came during the ninth inning when Sudan-Amherst won two.

Named to the Senior Babe Ruth All-Star team were Mark Hanna, Roby Lynn, Don Noles and Richard Tamplin, Amherst-Sudan; Kelly Pratt, Randy Wesley, Bobby Matthews, Littlefield; David Faver, Don Long, Gary White, Muleshoe; Alan Carson, Billy Walker, Tim Givens of Olton; Barry Key, Bryant Lewis, Billy Dean Joyce and Ted Thomas of Morton; Robert Mayberry of Dimmitt. Coaches for the team will be A. W. Hedges, Sudan-Amherst; John Stiles, Olton; Hub Cadenhead, Morton.

The State tournament will get underway Tuesday, July 17 at Olton. The local team is scheduled to first meet the South Plains team at 8:30 p. m. Tuesday. Other teams competing will be Northside and Southside teams from San Antonio, Graham and Lubbock.

The Amherst Junior Babe Ruth team took an easy victory Thursday night when they overran Security State 15-1, whose only score came in the second inning. Curtis Ivey was the winning pitcher.

TOPS REPORTS

The Texas Department of Public Safety is actively recruiting applicants to fill the ranks of its uniformed services. Major C. W. Bell, Regional Commander of the DPS, announced that the training school for new uniformed law enforcement personnel will begin Sept. 25, 1973.

The Major noted that the DPS has been increasingly successful in recruiting persons from minority groups to these positions and said efforts in this direction will continue.

Also in keeping with the current trend, female applicants will be considered for these rewarding careers in law enforcement.

Major Bell said general qualifications for DPS officers are these: applicants must be 20 through 35 years of age; height not less than 68 inches; weight not less than two pounds per inch of height; visual acuity of 20/40 correctable to 20/20; and a minimum of 45 semester hours of college credit.

Applications may be obtained by contacting any DPS employee or officer. The completed application form should be taken to offices in Lubbock, Amarillo or Wichita Falls where the competitive examination is given each Tuesday and Wednesday at 9 a. m.

Major Bell said persons selected as cadets will be assigned to Austin for training at the DPS Academy. The salary during training will be $625 per month. Upon being commissioned the salary is raised to $719 monthly with the opportunity to advance to $848 per month. Uniformed personnel receive additional longevity pay for each five years of service to 25 years. They are also granted a monthly uniform cleaning allowance, and receive travel expenses when away from their station.

Uniforms, vehicles, weapons, ammunition and related equipment are furnished. Group life and hospitalization are paid for the employee and dependent coverage is available at reasonable rates. Officers participate in the Employees Retirement System of Texas as well as Social Security. Vacation, holidays and sick leave are as provided for all State employees.

Successful graduates will be assigned to the Highway Patrol License and Weight Service, Motor Vehicle Inspection Service, or Drivers License Service, according to the needs of the DPS and consideration of personal preference.

All officers are eligible to compete for promotions after two years of service. Experienced uniformed DPS personnel interested in criminal investigation may apply for appointment to positions in the Criminal Law Enforcement Division, which includes Narcotics, Intelligence, Motor Vehicle Theft and Texas Rangers services as vacancies occur.

Arrangements will be made for a physical examination. A character investigation will be conducted and those persons who are accepted for employment will be notified prior to the beginning of the September recruit school.

BOLL WEEVIL MOVEMENT ALERTS AREA FARMERS

LUBBOCK—Boll weevil catches on the trap line which border the Caprock are the highest they have been for this time of the year since the trap line was set in 1970. The boll weevil trap line is a series of weevil traps at one mile intervals along 300 miles of the Caprock from Briscoe County to Borden County. The traps are baited with a synthetic hormone called "pheromone" which attracts boll weevils. The trap line is used to monitor the movement of boll weevils onto the Caprock.

The trap line has been in service since the beginning of May and 90 weevils had been captured through June 23. This may not sound like many weevils for 300 traps over a two month period, but over the same periods last year the traps had captured only one weevil. In 1970, the trap line had captured no weevils during this period.

This year's weevils have been detected on the Northern portion of the trap line in Silverton-Cedar Hill area and also on the southern portion around Post, Grassland, and peninsula in Borden County.

Program officials of the High Plains Boll Weevil Suppression Program now feel that we could be facing a real boll weevil year.

Last year with excellent weather conditions for weevil development and the Boll Weevil Suppression Program hampered by application problems, more potential overwintering weevils were observed to enter overwintering habitat (shinnery trash, etc.) than in the past couple of years. The winter was cold but with more snow than usual; thus, the insulating effect of snow cover may have contributed to the successful hibernation of the weevil.

Officials of the High Plains Boll Weevil Suppression Program feel that we may be facing a real boll weevil year—and with the diapause weevil control slated to begin around September 1, it might not be sufficient to keep weevils from causing economic losses to some producers below the Caprock and to keep the weevils from moving to fields on top.

They suggested that producers spot treat since it will aid them in handling their own in-season weevil problem and in making the fall diapause program more effective. Producers should consult their county Extension agents for materials suggested for boll weevil control.

Seventy-seven manufacturers from 23 states and the District of Columbia displayed their products in the United States pavilion in Paris at the 30th Paris Air Show.

Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz.) was President Nixon's personal representative at the show. In requesting the Senator to attend, the President said, "Indeed, our foreign sales of aircraft have been by far the most dynamic element in our export expansion in recent years. While our overall trade balance slid by $12 billion between 1965 and 1972, our trade balance in aircraft sales grew by $2 billion."

The U. S. exhibit was dedicated to the theme, "Man in Flight: From Kitty Hawk to the Planet." It commemorated the 70th anniversary of the Wright Brothers' first flight and celebrated modern America's aerospace achievements.

Throughout the nation, Texas continues to be the number one livestock state. Texas has more than twice as many cattle and calves than the second place state. It has almost three times more beef cows than the second ranking state.

The cattle and calf production population for Texas as of Jan. 1 this year is 15,350,000 head; this is an increase of about 2,500,000 head from 1972.

Beef cows—the factory of the livestock business—numbered 6,320,000 in Texas; this compared with second place Oklahoma's 2,283,000 head.

Texas is also first in the nation in cattle on feed and first in the nation in numbers of sheep and lambs.

THE MAY hatch of egg-type chickens in Texas is down nine per cent from a month ago. The May hatch of broiler chicks is down two per cent from a month ago. The total turkey poul hatch was up eight per cent from a month ago.

Egg production in Texas during May was seven per cent below a year ago, but four per cent above a month ago.

Nationwide, egg production during May was three per cent below a year ago. Layers on hand declined four per cent from May a year ago and two per cent below April.

VACCINATE your horse now for the three types of equine encephalitis. The types are Eastern and Western equine encephalitis (EE and WEE) as well as Venezuelan (VEE) which ravaged horses in Texas in 1971.

The three diseases are caused by different viruses that are carried by mosquitoes, and can be transmitted to humans. Effective vaccines are available for all three. However, vaccines for EE and WEE do not protect against VEE; likewise, VEE vaccine does not protect against the other two.

Outward signs of the three diseases include depression, lack of appetite, and drowsiness. Animals may frequently grind their teeth and stagger when moving. Death is common.

A report on two history-making grain movements

Two "Backbreakers" BACK-TO-BACK

1. The huge export grain movement

(Santa Fe can report "mission accomplished" for moving its share of grain to Russia — just one phase of the big export job!)

2. The largest winter wheat harvest in history along the Santa Fe

(Now getting underway)

Moving millions of bushels of grain is a big job. To move it in a limited time period while the economy is booming and all shippers calling for more cars and service, makes these huge transportation projects "BACKBREAKERS."

Santa Fe is setting records meeting current demands for service, but no backs are being broken. For example, since last August Santa Fe has moved over 150,000 carloads of grain, a 50% increase in shipments. That's a staggering amount, but it's only part of the story.

With no prior notice to the rail industry to make special preparations, the Russian grain movement of 400-MILLION bushels was announced last year with a completion deadline of May 31, 1973. At the same time even many more millions of bushels were also being exported to other nations.

What Santa Fe did. Starting with a transportation system in excellent condition, Santa Fe people put their "know how" and all facilities in full throttle position.

2,000 new jumbo covered hopper cars were added to bring Santa Fe's fleet to 12,000, the largest in the rail industry.

4,100 smaller covered hopper cars were drafted for use, too, as well as regular box cars. Open-top hoppers not normally used for grain were also employed. In addition 64 new diesels are now hard at work moving the record traffic volume.

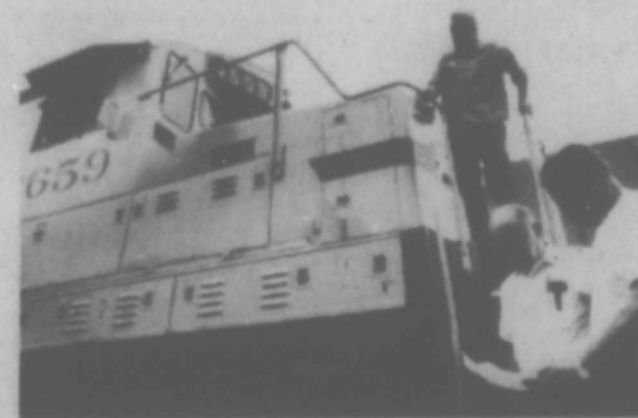

Even with all of this, special measures were worked out at considerable expense to the Santa Fe for handling cars to minimize port congestion and keep the railroad fluid.

Santa Fe can report "mission accomplished" for handling its share of the grain to Russia, and we still have other export grain to move, but the big job now ahead is moving this year's harvest.

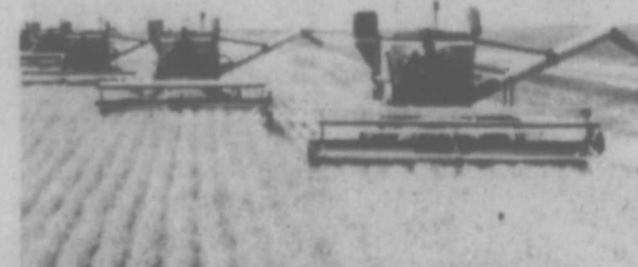

Largest wheat harvest along the Santa Fe, 687-MILLION bushels The harvest extends from Texas, across Oklahoma, Kansas, into Colorado and New Mexico. It is already started. It is a vast project and the Santa Fe job is to move the wheat to elevators during the brief period of harvest time.

What Santa Fe is striving for principally is more efficient car utilization, faster yard operations and the best possible use of locomotives to move the grain while keeping all freight rolling.

It's a job that can't be done without the help of everyone in the grain industry and cooperation of all shippers. With everyone working together, two of the greatest moves ever recorded in the history of rail transportation will be accomplished... the huge multi-million bushel export grain movement and the largest harvest in history along the Santa Fe. Two "BACKBREAKERS," back-to-back, with Santa Fe putting its best efforts into getting the job done.

Santa Fe employees who have worked long and hard on the export wheat project are now focusing all efforts on the new harvest.

The harvest moves at a record pace with Santa Fe's fleet of 12,000 grain to elevators and moving centers.

2,000 new jumbo covered hoppers bring Santa Fe's fleet to 12,000. These giant cars are ideal for moving grains, potash and other bulk commodities.
