BY NORMAN FISHER

A YOUNG DUTCH girl has written asking for information about Baird because of the similarity between her name and the name of our town. She is Carla Blard, 13-year-old resident of Venlo, Holland.

The letter, addressed to the burgomaster, was delivered to Mayor J. L. Ault by the post office. If you can believe old movies, burgomaster is to the Dutch what mayor is in this country.

Her letter says, "My name is Blard. Your town is also Blard. (The spelling is hers). Can you send me please a city map and photo card of the city?"

"How many people are in your town. Our town are 50,000."

"Beforehand, thank you very much."

Granted, her English is not too good. But then neither is our Dutch.

Plans are being made to send Carla what she wants -- plus some copies of the Baird Star and perhaps a few other items of interest.

But what we would really like to know is where a 13-year-old Dutch girl found the name of Baird, Texas.

THE OPENING OF Baird High football practice last August brought one fringe benefit we would like very much to see repeated this year.

If you recall, the early part of last August was very hot, just like this year. But a day or two before football practice was to start, a cool front brought rain to the area.

And from then on, the temperature stayed at a more comfortable level. In fact, you may remember that a strong cool front moved into town the day of the first home football game last year -- and a lot of people at the game with jackets wished that they had had one.

As we said, we would like to see that repeated this year.

AT THE PLANNING meeting to complete details of this Friday's meeting of the Callahan County Pioneer Assn., someone noted that it is growing more difficult each year to line up plenty of volunteer help.

We had not thought of that before, but it is certainly correct.

Many of the older members of the organization are now unable to be as active as they once were, but second generation "pioneers" don't seem to have the interest their parents do or did.

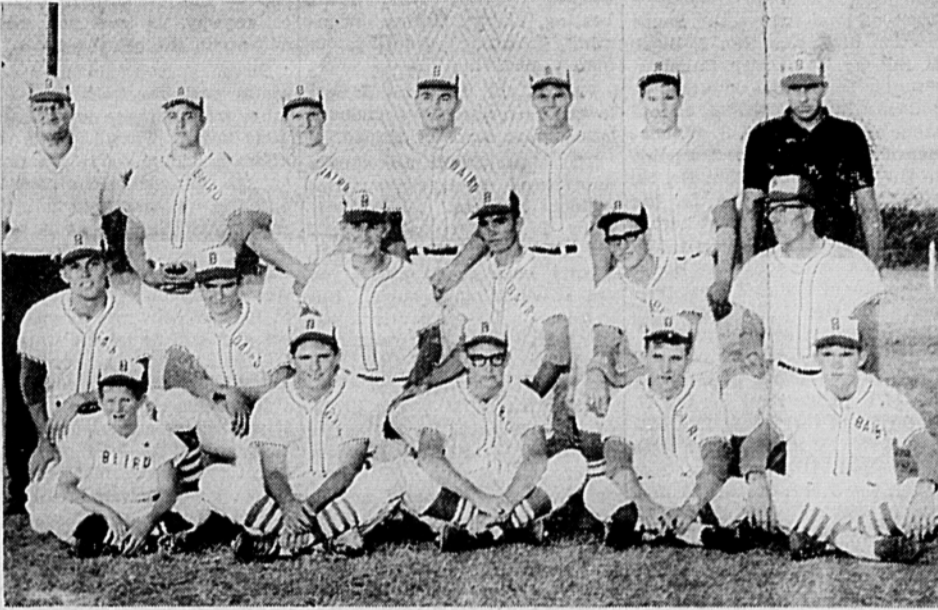

Apparently that is a phenomenon of our times -- the further we get away from something the more we take it for granted. And the Callahan County heritage seems to be taken more and more for granted.

IDLE THOUGHT in passing... Wonder how many championships, in all sports, have been won by the group of young men who are representing Baird in the state teenage baseball tournament this week?

This group of boys has been together through a good many seasons. And their record of honors won has been a bright one. I would be fitting if they could win this tournament, which will probably be their last appearance as a group representing Baird.

ON THE BIRTHDAY list for next week are:

Dana Jennings, Roy Stephen Petty and Veltan Moore, Aug. 15; Joy Helton, Aug. 16; Frances Barton and Paula Kay Petty, Aug. 17; Frances Dunlap, Aug. 18; and Kenny and Cathy Townsend, Aug. 21.

Baird to Play Thursday Tilt

Baird was to meet Waco or Haskell at 4:30 p. m. Thursday in the state senior teenage baseball action in Brownwood. Waco and Haskell were playing late Wednesday, with the loser to become Baird's Thursday opponent.

Baird was knocked into the tournament's lower bracket Wednesday night by the host Brownwood team, 8-6.

A loss Thursday afternoon would blast Baird from the tournament. A win would put Baird into a game at 4:30 p. m. Friday. The tournament will end Saturday night.

Brownwood built up a 7-0 lead before Baird could dent the scoreboard. The host team scored twice in the first, three times in the second and twice in the fourth inning.

Baird cut the margin to 7-2 in the fourth with a pair of runs, then put together a four-run outburst in the fifth to make it 7-6. Brownwood collected its final marker in the sixth, with Baird unable to counter in the sixth or seventh inning.

Brownwood touched Baird pitcher Richard Windham for seven hits for the night, while Baird's six runs came on only four safeties. Charles Ellis, Joe Henderson and Don Dillard shared pitching chores for Brownwood.

In earlier games Wednesday, Odessa beat Freeport, 7-2, and Galveston downed Mount Pleasant, 12-4.

Second Escapee Is Recaptured

The second of two men who fled the Callahan County jail a month ago is in jail in Birmingham, Ala., following his arrest by police there last Friday.

Thomas Wesley Murry, 45, who was sentenced to 40 years in prison on a narcotics charge by a district court jury in Callahan County, was reportedly arrested in a Birmingham cafe Friday.

Weldon Ray Waters, 23, who received a 35-year sentence from Callahan jurors, was retaken July 22 in Birmingham.

The two broke out of the Callahan jail after receiving the long prison terms. Both gave Birmingham as their home town. Both men also were wanted for numerous theft charges in Alabama and apparently will be retained there before returning to Texas.

Birmingham Police Capt. J. M. McDowell said Murry will be held in connection with burglary charges. He said the Jefferson County sheriff's office also has charges pending against Murry and the Federal Bureau of Investigation wants both men on charges of unlawful flight to avoid confinement.

After serving as president, John Quincy Adams was elected to the House of Representatives in 1830 and served for 17 years.

Outdoors In Texas

By VERN SANFORD

Play it safe — while at play. As careful as you may be you're going to run into a dangerous situation sometime during your adventures into the great outdoors.

It can happen when you're walking, sitting, lying down, boating, skiing, fishing, swimming, shooting, hunting, or merely observing.

Fact of the matter is danger lurks everywhere — indoors, outdoors, at home or abroad.

Too often people are caught unprepared when the surprise incident happens.

How do you prepare yourself for the unexpected? That's mighty hard to do unless you are anticipating trouble. But there are a few precautions you can take, and a few items you can carry with you that will minimize the danger.

For instance, if you're headed for an area where snakes may reside — stick a snake bite kit in your pocket, tackle box, or gun case. We carry one in the trousers pocket every time we hunt or fish. In addition there's one in the fishing tackle box, and the ammo box or the gun case.

We've had only three encounters with snakes, but one was enough to impress this angler with the importance of being prepared.

Once a rattler wraps itself around your arm you'll not forget this little precaution.

However, we suggest you don't wait until something happens to form the habit of carrying along snake bite kit. They're small, not much larger than a medium-sized pocket knife and their weight is nil.

If you are going boating — then good life preservers are a must.

We used to think it foolish to wear a life jacket while fishing with the old buddy in a safe boat well equipped with flotation.

But not after the little 14-ft. fiberglass rig hit a submerged boulder and knocked both of us overboard — and one of us unconscious.

It's a peculiar sensation to awaken 10 or 12 feet under water and not know which direction is up. Teaches you one thing though — that a life jacket or ski belt can be man's best friend.

One doesn't shy away from life jackets after an experience like that. In fact he seeks them out, and is even mighty careful about his choice.

Let others chide you if they like, call you sissy of "fraidycat" — you just wear that jacket anyway. At least you won't end up in the briny deep.

Nowadays you can buy a cigarette pack-size pair in inflatable water wings; or an inflatable shirt. They'll keep you afloat providing you're conscious enough to squeeze the pack or pull the release cord on the shirt when the accident happens.

But with a good life preserver already on you're as close to 100 per cent safe as you can get and still be in the water.

Storms create big problems. You'll be surprised how suddenly a storm can get into high gear. If you motor conks out, or the boat springs a leak during a storm you're in real trouble, even on a relatively small lake — not to mention a Texas-size one.

That's when you need to call on flares. Most people think of flares in terms of big boats and the Atlantic or Pacific waterways — or maybe the Gulf of Mexico. But they're mighty, mighty handy on lake — when the helping hand of a friend is needed.

Genrus makes a compact "Lifesaver" kit that resembles the tear gas pen that women are beginning to carry in their purses. Works on the same principle, but is a little more potent. It will eject the flare some 350 to 450 feet into the air and can be seen as far as 60 miles away.

If you've been stranded on the lake in a sinking boat, or with a burned out motor, or the boat afire, or even with a broken shear pin, it's a helpless feeling — even if a storm isn't brewing.

Too many times boats will pass you by when you hail them — or just wave right back at you in a friendly salutation — not realizing you're in need of assistance. But when a flare is shot skyward there's no mistaking that signal — even on the Fourth of July.

Put one in your tackle box — along with that snake bite kit. All of which reminds us of the importance of having some type of noise-making equipment handy.

You can buy all kind of horns for your boat. The squeeze bulb type lasts the shortest — since rubber deteriorates quickly on the water and in the hot sun. Those that are air or gas powered are better. But eventually they play out. The electrical type — the storage battery operated — last longer. And of course the best is the hand-operated siren. It seems adways work.

If you can't afford a horn get one of those squeeze balls that have a built in piercing whistle. They're cheap and can be replaced often without great expense.

Mainly what you want is something with which you can attract attention. Of course you can always resort to the old standby — a man's shirt or a woman's petticoat — waved in the breeze. If there's a storm coming there will be plenty of breeze.

Whatever the weather — be careful.

Ray Wilbanks and daughter, Mrs. Elmer Gilbert and Mr. Gilbert of Albany are in Chicago, Ill., to visit Mr. Wilbanks' daughter and family.

Conservation Helping Meet Need For More Recreation Facilities

The fact that urban population is increasing and rural population decreasing and people are spending less time on the job points up an increasing need for recreation and conservation.

says Barnette Cordray, Soil Conservationist assisting Lower Clear Fork, Middle Clear Fork and Central Colorado Soil Conservation Districts in Baird. "It is not true that rural people go to town and town people go to the country for recreation," states Cordray.

Consider some of the most common types of recreation in our area and where they are found. Bowling, skating, skiing, fishing, hunting or just "camping out", would rank highest. The first two are usually found in town while we have to go to the country for the others. "How many times have we seen bowling alleys and skating rinks spring up and flourish for a season, then fade away?" Cordray points out. This, he says is evidence of the fact that this type of recreation is only appealing to a few people. At the same time, beaches, recreation and camping areas are becoming more crowded each year, while farmers and ranchers are having more trouble with poaching. It is becoming necessary to make reservations at recreation areas before planning a vacation and at the same time, fishers and hunters are having more trouble finding places to go.

Conservation can and is meeting this need. A simple term or word for Conservation is Cover or Management of Cover. Cover is the basic need or necessity for all types of wildlife, for through this food is produced in abundance. Cover also contributes to a good quality, long lasting water supply -- a city lake. As cover increases, soil condition is improved, rainfall goes into the soil, saturates it to the extent that hills begin to seep into draws and these draws feed the streams and the streams feed the city lakes constantly and lakes being provided a free filter plant. This helps the landowner to produce high quality plants and more food. More food for wildlife as well as livestock

Another necessity for wildlife is simply travel lanes. The size depending upon the type. Deer, we know, require the largest which is about three hundred feet wide. These are needed because wildlife like to travel under protection to and from roost and water to areas producing high quality food. In our districts, these patterns are natural. Roost and water is along the creeks and draws. These are usually steep, rocky and "seepy." Because of this they produce heavy cover but cattle do not use it and brush is hard or some impossible to control. These make ideal travel lanes into the flat open country where food is produced.

"Why is hunting harder today than when dad hunted?" "Why is harder to run the same number of cattle than when dad was ranching?" Cordray asks. The answer to both is the same, like high quality cover. As cover is "mis-managed" undesirable plants such as mesquite, blue thorn and white brush move in to the extent that soil becomes bare. When the rains come, we see flooded roads, bridges washed out and water supplies silted in. Soil is moved from tops of the hills to bottom of the lakes. Instead of being used as an asset to produce food to meet the needs of a nation, it becomes a liability to the same people. Lakes and streams that once provided good wholesome recreation and a water supply, become "eye sores."

"QUIET MEDITATIONS"

The Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and gave His life a ransom for many. Matthew 20:28.

Here we have Christ's standard of greatness. It comes through self-denying service. In this lesson He took occasion to lay down the true principle on the whole subject, showing the true honors of His Kingdom and how they are obtained. It is not like an earthly court, where the kings of nations are set over the subjects, and men of rank exercise authority. It shall not be so "among you." The rule of greatness in His Kingdom is to serve, to minister.

Even as He gave the example, He took the form of a servant, made in the likeness of men, thought He was the greatest of Beings. This was His very object, to serve men, to give His life a ransom for many. A ransom is the price paid to redeem a captive. The price He paid was His own life. He died in the place of many. For the multitudes of earth.

Ambition in the church mistakes the nature of the Kingdom. It overlooks the spirituality of service, the sacrifice of self.

Ambition should seek, not earthly preferment, but the solid graces of the Christian life. Christ's example in giving Himself should always plead with the Christian for humility and self-sacrifice in the church and in the world.

Christ here declares His sacrifice to be vicarious. This makes it purely and only gracious. All men have sinned. No man can make atonement for his sin. Repentance and future obedience, doing present duty, cannot blot out past sins. No man is pure, and no angel can make atonement. God is pleased, therefore, to graciously accept His only begotten Son as a ransom for many - that the multitude who believe in Him, and accept Him as Saviour, and believe in His finished work, may be saved to life Eternal.

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER ONE ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 2, 1965. SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 24 proposing an Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas by amending Article VII, Section 17, providing a method of payment for the acquiring, constructing and equipping of buildings and other permanent improvements at certain state institutions of higher learning; providing for allocation of funds therefor; authorizing the issuance of bonds or notes and the pledging of allotted funds for the payment of same; providing for an election and the issuance of a proclamation therefor.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 17 of Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

"Section 17. In lieu of the state ad valorem tax on property of Seven Cents (7¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) valuation heretofore permitted to be levied by Section 51 of Article III, as amended, there is hereby levied, in addition to all other taxes permitted by the Constitution of Texas, a state ad valorem tax on property of Ten Cents (10¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) valuation for the purpose of creating a special fund for the continuing payment of Confederate pensions as provided under Section 51, Article III, and for the establishment and continued maintenance of the State Building Fund as provided in Section 51b, Article III, of the Constitution.

hereinafter provided, to secure bonds or notes issued for the purpose of acquiring, constructing and initially equipping such buildings or other permanent improvements at said respective institutions. Such bonds or notes shall be issued in such amounts as may be determined by the governing boards of said respective institutions, shall bear interest not to exceed four per cent (4%) per annum and shall mature serially or otherwise in not more than ten (10) years; provided further, that the state tax on property as heretofore permitted to be levied by Section 9 of Article VIII, as amended, exclusive of the tax necessary to pay the public debt, and of the taxes provided for the benefit of the public free schools, shall never exceed Thirty Cents (30¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) valuation. All bonds shall be examined and approved by the Attorney General of the State of Texas, and when so approved shall be incontestable; and all approved bonds shall be registered in the office of the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas. Said bonds shall be sold only through competitive bids and shall never be sold for less than their par value and accrued interest.

"Eighty-five per cent (85%) of such funds shall be allocated by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas on June 1, 1966, and fifteen per cent (15%) of such funds shall be allocated by said Comptroller on June 1, 1972, based on the following determinations:

"(1) Ninety per cent (90%) of the funds allocated on June 1, 1966, shall be allocated to state institutions based on projected enrollment increases published by the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System for fall 1966 to fall 1978.

"(2) Ten per cent (10%) of the funds allocated on June 1, 1966 shall be allocated to certain of the eligible state institutions based on the number of additional square feet needed in educational and general facilities by such eligible state institution to meet the average square feet per full time equivalent student of all state senior institutions (currently numbering twenty-two).

"(3) All of the funds allocated on June 1, 1972, shall be allocated to certain of the eligible state institutions based on determinations used in the June 1, 1966, allocations except that the allocations of fifty per cent (50%) of the funds allocated on June 1, 1972, shall be based on projected enrollment increases for fall 1972 to fall 1978, and fifty per cent (50%) of such funds allocated on June 1, 1972, shall be based on the need for additional square feet of educational and general facilities.

"Not later than June first of the beginning year of each succeeding ten-year period the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas shall reallocate eighty-five per cent (85%) of the funds to be derived from said Ten Cent (10¢) ad valorem tax for said ten-year period and not later than June first of the sixth year of each succeeding ten-year period said Comptroller shall reallocate fifteen per cent (15%) of such funds to the eligible state institutions then in existence based on determinations for the said ten-year period that are similar to the determinations used in allocating funds during the twelve-year period beginning January 1, 1966, except that enrollment projections for succeeding ten-year periods will be from the fall semester of the first year to the fall

This Amendment shall be self-enacting. It shall become operative or effective upon its adoption so as to supersede and repeal the former provisions of this Section; provided further, that nothing herein shall be construed as impairing the obligation incurred by any outstanding notes or bonds heretofore issued by any state institution of higher learning under this Section prior to the adoption of this Amendment but such notes or bonds shall be paid, both as to principal and interest, from the fund as allocated to any such institution.

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at the General Election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A.D. 1965, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon:

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights
by Vern Sanford
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — State offices are playing a game of musical chairs.

Better make note of these departmental moves that have just taken place, are now being made or will be completed this month:

Teacher Retirement System of Texas has moved from the fourth floor of the Sam Houston State Office Building, formerly State Office Building No. 1, to the third floor of the Lovich Building.

Texas' new Coordinating Board of Higher Education soon will occupy the entire sixth floor of the Sam Houston State Office Building.

Parks Division of the Texas Parks & Wildlife Department moves out of the Sam Houston Building -- into the newly acquired American Legion Building (State Office Building No. 2) into the west wing of the Sam Houston Building.

Texas Tourist Development Agency, now in the Sam Houston Building, will move into offices in the Reagan Building vacated by the Building Commission.

State Water Commission will move from the American Legion Building into the east wing of the Sam Houston Building.

AG OPINIONS — Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr reached conclusions in official rulings:

City employees installing rest room facilities in municipal parks must be paid the prevailing wage rate.

Board of Pardons and Paroles has no authority to recommend, and the governor no power to grant, a posthumous full pardon to a deceased convicted felon on application of a relative or other interested party.

An act authorizing Grayson County Commissioners Court to appoint a juvenile officer and assistant is unconstitutional as a "local and special" law.

State employees can collect $12 a day travel allowance if staying at regular public lodgings, but only $7 if they stay on military installations or at educational or eleemosynary institutions.

APPOINTMENTS — Governor Connally has named Judge James Ellis of Lubbock's County Court at Law as judge of the new 137th District Court in Lubbock County.

Lt. Governor Preston Smith appointed to the interim committee on state and local tax policy Sens. Galloway Calhoun Jr. of Tyler, David Ratliff of Stamford and Jack Strong of Longview. On the committee for restoration of the flag of Santa Anna, he placed Sens. Dorsey B. Hardeman of San Angelo and Charles Herring of Austin.

House speaker Ben Barnes selected five public-at-large members of a committee to study the problem of salt pollution of underground and surface water of inland areas and recommend legislation that's needed. They are former Congressman Joe Kilgore of Austin, former Smith County Judge Harry Loftis of Tyler, Charles P. McGaha of Wichita Falls, Runnels County Judge W. H. Rappy and former Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepperd of Odessa.

Barnes named Reps. G. F. Mutscher of Brenham and Maurice S. Pipkin of Brownsville to the Legislative Budget Board. Reps. W. S. Heatly of Paducah and Ben Atwell of Dallas automatically are budget board members since they are chairmen of appropriations and revenue and taxation committees of the House.

Earlier Barnes picked a committee composed of Reps. Roger Thurmond Jr. of Del Rio, Bill Rapp of Raymondville, John E. Blaine of El Paso, Dick McKisack of Dallas and Jack McLaughlin of Fort Worth to study the Texas liquor control act.

ANTI-POVERTY PROJECTS OKAYED — Three more Community Action Programs and four additional Neighborhood Youth Corps applications have been approved by Governor Connally.

Community Action projects in Houston, San Antonio and Mercedes carry federal grants totaling more than $2,000,000.

NYC grants of $155,040 will permit employment of 393 students in Luling, Anderson County, San Jacinto County and Trinity County.

CHEMICAL PLANT AT DIBOLL — Borden Chemical Company has purchased a 100-acre site at Diboll on which to construct a synthetic resins plant, Governor Connally announces. An initial $1,000,000 expenditure is contemplated. Company reportedly will market resins in East Texas for such applications as plywood and particle board adhesives and foundry core binders.

Selection of Diboll for the new plant site attests to the growth of and prospects for the southern pine plywood industry in Texas, Connally said.

INTERCOASTAL CANAL DILEMMA — Joe Moore has a $400,000 problem and, so far, no solution.

Moore, a member of Gov. John Connally's staff, is trying to find a way to allow Texas to live up to its commitment made by Gv. Allen Shivers exactly 10 years ago.

In August of 1955, Governor Shivers gave the state's endorsement to a proposal for the widening and deepening of the Intracoastal Waterways from the mouth of the Sabine River to just south of the Brazoria County line across West Bay.

He assured the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers that local sponsors would meet the cost of the right-of-way so that the canal could be widened to 140 feet from 125 feet.

"All that was needed to keep the project going in 1955 was the state's commitment," Moore said. "There was no need to produce the right-of-way money then. But there is now, if we're not going to lose the project. The state has at least a moral commitment to aid in getting local sponsors."

Although no firm figures are available, Moore believes acquisition of right-of-way for the project through Jefferson, Chambers and Galveston Counties would cost about $400,000. The federal government's cost of widening and deepening the waterway is expected to be in excess of $3,000,000.

Completion of the project would open the channel to Mississippi River barges.

TRAIN, LAKES. — Chapping times were reflected in three recent action of the Texas Water Commission.

Actions amend West Texas Water permits at the request of the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe Railway Company.

Company built three lakes years ago -- in Nolan, Lampasas and Mills Counties -- so that their steam-boiler engines would have water supplies.

Permission to use the lakes for recreational purposes now has been granted, since today nearly all engines are diesel and don't need water.

Nolan County's lake also will provide irrigation water for the Sweetwater Country Club.

SHORT SNORTS
Texas Railroad Commission has ordered its staff to devise tests for oil fields over the state similar to those used in East Texas.

Texas Parks and Wildlife Department will send hunting and fishing licenses to 2,500 dealers earlier this year to avoid the usual last-minute scramble.

Detailed hunting and fishing regulations for key areas now are available from the Parks and Wildlife Department.

Texas Railroad Commission is hearing opponents of an application to approve lower interstate rates of mixed shipments of interstate and intrastate products. Truck lines oppose the practice long followed by railroads.

Cigarette tax receipts increased $280,118 in July over the same month in 1964, but liquor stamp sales dropped off $103,182 and wine stamp receipts declined $53,458, according to Comptroller Robert S. Calvert.

Charles H. Huff of Austin is the new executive secretary of the Texas Veterinary Medical Association.

State Auditor reports that $5 of August 31 last year the University of Texas system held investments worth nearly $463,000,000.

Fourteen Texas cities have filed applications to participate in the Texas Aid Airport Program, which will have $200,000 to spend during the coming fiscal year. They include Brownwood, Caldwell, Clarksville, Comanche, El Campo, Floydada, Gatesville, Hallettsville, Hearne, Jacksboro, Lampasas, Paducah, Pineland and Post.

Attorney General Carr says his office will sponsor a series of 14 regional seminars over the state to acquaint law officers with the New Texas Code of Criminal Procedure and recent US Supreme Court decisions pertaining to criminal laws.

Governor Connally tentatively is planning to go to Japan on October 20 with a group of Governors participating in an exchange program sponsored by the Japanese government and the US State Department. A Viet Nam side trip is uncertain.

Texas League of Women Voters has issued the first of two Guides that will be published relative to this year's Constitutional Amendments.

Indications are that more than the initially predicted 1,600 youths will participate in the Attorney General's Youth Conference on Crime to be held in Austin on August 19-22.

Business outlook is bright for the last half of 1965, according to UT's Bureau of Business Research. On the basis of reports from 20 cities, the Bureau found business activity 13 per cent better for the first six months this year than January-June, 1964, and saw "nothing to dim prospects of continued prosperity" for the rest of 1965.

OPLIN OBSERVATIONS

By DAPHNE FLOYD

Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Windham and Paula were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Floyd last Saturday night. In a way it was a farewell dinner for Paula, who will be leaving for Carlsbad, N. M., where she will teach school again next year or maybe I should say where she will be counselor for the high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Miller of Stamford visited last Saturday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Miller.

Mrs. Holoway of Brady has been visiting for several weeks with her daughters and their husbands, Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Pierce and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Armor.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Breeding returned home last week after visiting their daughter and family, the Thomas Sallee, and reported there was sure a lot of difference in the weather this Sunday from what it was a week ago, for they were visiting in Denver, Colo., and there was plenty of snow up there in the mountains.

Donations to the Oplin Cemetery Fence fund: Mrs. Herbert Rogers $5; Mrs. Clint McIntyre $5.

Farming Stands High Among Most Hazardous Occupations in Nation

Farming ranks third behind mining and construction work as the "most hazardous occupation" in the nation. And, points out County Agent Pat C. Garner, farming lags behind other industries in safety training work.

Today's farmer wears many hats in order to operate his complex business. Within a single week he may be a machinery operator, a carpenter, a ditch digger, a stone mason, an electrician, a cowboy, a plumber, a veterinarian, a truck driver, a chemist, a fuel handler, a personnel director and any other kind of work you might name.

In most other industries, explains the county agent, workers are studied as they perform their assigned tasks. Their mistakes are corrected. But in farming, an unsafe act may be unseen and unrecognized. It can become a habit.

To make farm work safer, the county agent suggests that farmers look for accident hazards and remove them. Also, learn to work safely, with the hazards which cannot be eliminated. And finally, that a close examination or study of work habits be made so that better and safer ways can be found for doing the farm jobs often named as the cause of farm and home accidents.

Mrs. Warlick Jones of Moran visited Mrs. S. M. Eubank of Putnam Sunday.
