Grain Elevator Slated for Construction Here

A usually unlucky number "13" could prove one of the keys to the future of Morton and Cochran County, Texas. It was determined this week with the announcement that a new business has come to Morton — "to stay."

The Market Poultry and Egg Co., with offices in Anson, Texas, has come to Morton and will erect a grain elevator and a warehouse or more for government storage grain. The company, with more than 4 and one half million bushels of grain storage, had previously operated in 12 Texas towns. Morton is the 13th.

The significance of the development in Morton, cannot be accurately predicted at this time. But, as the proposed builders of the first grain elevator in this town, the company will handle traffic for in the neighborhood of 200 or more carloads of grain per year that could be shipped from Morton by rail, if there were rails. It could be an important push in a drive to secure train facilities for Morton, one of the things that has hampered the growth of Morton for many years.

A. T. Ballard, representative of the company, is in Morton for the remainder of the season buying grain and setting up the local organization. Some local men may be appointed manager of the local office within the next few months, Ballard said Tuesday, the company had purchased ten City of Morton lots, from Higginbotham — Bartlett Company, early this week. The lots purchased are adjoining the Willingham Gin lots.

The company will concentrate on purchase of milk which they are already doing — they're trying to buy more everyday and offer top market prices — and storing it on the ground. After the first of the year they will construct the elevator and storage warehouses. At that time they will have depleted a lot of their present stock of government stored grain and will begin to move the grain on open lots to storage bins. Rarely is the grain sold straight off the lot, Ballard said.

Ballard, whose home is in Haskell, said they will use Cochran County Gin, owned by Curtis Wilcox, to weigh their grain and estimate several thousand bushels of grain have already been purchased and stored here. The new company has installed an electric truck lift and auger for quick unloading and will be done automatically. The company, which has many big contracts including a large one with General Mills, does not mix feed, but handles only the brokerage and of grain. They also are in other phases of business, none of which are being contemplated here at the present time. They have local storage in Anson, Haskell, Hamlin, Stamford, Brownwood, Rotan, Rube, Spur, O'Brien, Blanket, Dickens, McLeod, Petersburg and now in Morton.

The company will buy delivered, on the turn row, or will make contract for delivery. They need several million bushels of milk at the present time.

WAGE SURVEY REVEALS $1.50 IS PREVAILING "PULLING" SCALE

The Bureau of Employment Security, a Division of the U. S. Department of Labor, released this week their first finding in the recent wage surveys in Cochran County — on irrigated acreage only — and had cheering news for Cochran County farmers.

The results, announced by Ed McDonald, Regional Director of the Bureau of Employment, show the prevailing wage effective in Cochran County as of October 8th is $1.50 per hundred weight for the cotton pulling. This means, according to a government spokesman, the farmer using Mexican National help for pulling, will have to pay him only the $1.55 guaranteed to him under the law.

The spokesman said a new survey finding would be released about every two weeks. If the average wage jumps to over $1.55 — effective that finding the farmer using Mexican National labor will have to pay them the prevailing wage if it exceeds $1.55.

B. T. O'Connell, of the Texas Employment Commission of Lubbock was charged with the responsibility of notifying of the finding — but his department, as was the case last year — has nothing to do with making the survey or ruling on it acting merely as the bearer of sad or glad tidings as the case may be.

Presumably the Department of Labor will notify of any changes in the prevailing wage every two weeks.

INDIANS POST FIRST WIN; SHUT OUT PRICE CARDS 13 to 0; JOURNEY TO RALLS FOR GAME FRIDAY

The Morton Indians with an unusually alert display of defense, scuttled Price College's Cardinals on Friday night on the Indian's Field for their first victory of the season after four setbacks.

The Indian's alertness at capturing fumbles, must be pointed the decisive factor in the game. The Indians covered no less than eight fumbles, six of them made by the Cardinals. One fumbled halted a Cardinal threat. Two others gave Morton the ball deep in Cardinal territory. Still another set up a touchdown. And another enabled Morton to retain possession of the ball right after they had scored a touchdown.

Actually it was Price College mistakes that contributed greatly to the downfall of their team, but one thing that stood out clearly, was the Indian's determination to win. With fewer men, Price College did have a better team in average weight. The speed of the two clubs was about the same — neither appearing to have a real breakaway runner. But Morton's boys played more as a unit than they have in many a day. Everyone in the line was helping on defense with little Mickey Coleman standing out because of his small size. Buddy Naum, another newcomer this season, played excellently on defense. The reserves did a fine job, and Dave McHester's quarterbacking showed a marked improvement — he seemed to be relieved of a lot of the tension. He passed well, and his receivers did fair, though not as well as they have a time or two previously this season.

Morton's first TD came on a one yard dash over the right side of the line in the late minutes of the first quarter after a five yard pen-

Ike Can't Make It Rain, But He's Still Best Man

The other day I asked a farmer if it was dry out his way. He said it sure was. "Looks like we just can't get any rain," he said. "Why, when Noah had his 40-day flood, we didn't get over half an inch."

There's no mistake about it, Texas is having itself a real drought. Some of the farmers and ranchers in our county are in such bad shape that they may vote for Stevenson.

Old Man Jones, from across the river, said he wasn't going to go to any such extreme. He said he needed rain as bad as anybody else. He claimed water was so scarce in his community that the preacher was baptizing new members with a wet handkerchief. But he was holding out awhile longer, anyway.

"I may be stubborn," said Old Man Jones, "but I just ain't been convinced that President Eisenhower is keeping it from raining."

He said he knew that Stevenson and Kefauver acted like they thought so, and they had a right to their opinion. Lyndon Johnson, he figured, knew better, but he was sticking with Adlai and Estes for the sake of unity. He said he didn't figure Mr. Sam Rayburn had known whether it was raining or not for the last 25 years.

"I hate not to go along with such a widely known crowd of weather observers," Old Man Jones said. "If there's anybody who keeps up with which way the wind is blowing, generally speaking, it's Stevenson, Kefauver and Johnson."

Then he went on to say that he realized the national farm program hadn't pleased everybody—including him. If he was in the White House, he would do things different, at least in our county. He allowed that the $50,000,000 spent by the Eisenhower administration for drought relief in Texas could have been doubled and still not made all the farmers happy and prosperous.

"But," said Old Man Jones, "I been remembering that the main reason for our troubles, besides the drought, is the fact that we are not at war now. If Adlai and Estes really want to jump on President Eisenhower, there is a real issue. They've sure got the goods on Ike in that respect. If he hadn't stopped that Korea War, farm prices would be higher, no doubt. I wonder why they never mention that?"

Old Man Jones was kidding a little, of course, in his usual way, but I think he had something there. We have got to adjust to peace-time, which is taking awhile but President Eisenhower is working at it. And meanwhile our boys aren't fighting and dying on foreign soil. It's worth thinking about.

Yours truly, Tex

The Morton Club is an active unit of the International Association of Lions Clubs, which is dedicated to community betterment in all its aspects: to national and economic social and cultural progress; and to the promotion of international understanding and unity. In all these fields, Lions International has won strong influence and prestige, because of its countless constructive services.

terment of Morton and Cochran County.
Members of the local club are invited to attend and invite a representative to this important meeting, in order that more business and professional men will learn of the benefits in which the Morton club has sponsored, and of the accomplishments made. It is also important that all members of the Lions International be present to hear the inspiring message that District Governor Stark will bring to the club.
The Lions Club of Morton, beginning this week, changed their regular meeting place to the County Office and Activities Building Banquet Room. The meeting time remains the same — 12:00 noon on Wednesdays.

Plenty of Bull

Everything is done on a big scale in Texas. Convict cowboys are no exception when it comes to bull riding in the annual Prison Rodeo's opening event. They ride 'em in bunches of 10 at a time and call it the "Mad Scramble." This unique event will open each of the four bigger, better and wilder performances of this year's 25th Annual Prison Rodeo at Huntsville each Sunday afternoon in October.

Allah!

That striped-clad fellow on the ground might be calling an Allah from all appearances, but he's only one of the inmate cowboys participating in the annual Prison Rodeo who failed to ride that wild, leaping bronc. The big convict rodeo, wilder than ever, plays its 25th season with four big Sunday performances, October 7, 14, 21 and 28.

Fords 'Sold Out'
For Time Being
Folks who didn't get a view of the new 1957 Fords at the Mahan Motor Company last week are just out of luck, temporarily. Mahan sold every one that he had on display, and though he is desperately trying for a new shipment, he won't promise a definite date. Seems the public reception of the new designed Ford was more than the local company or the Ford people expected, and there just aren't enough Fords available for sale right now. Mahan promises he'll have some more as soon as possible, so if you haven't had a peek at one, keep your eye on the local company, more are on the way.

Members of Farm Bureau leaders met to insure accurate classification of cotton by the government, and the wholehearted support of the American Farm Bureau Federation.

B. Shuman, president of American Farm Bureau Federation, today announced the results of the AFBF Cotton Classification study to give specific study to establishment of a non-governmental cotton classing review board for the purpose of reviewing classing over cotton classing. This action is a direct result of the Texas Farm Bureau leaders to obtain accurate classing by the government's Smiley classing service.

Classing hearing — requested by Farm Bureau leaders — held Sept. 18 in Greenville. A hearing was a permission of the cotton subcommittee of the House Agricultural Committee that the Congress will immediately after it convenes to set a "light spots" classification for cotton put in the current loan.

We had a good weekend. Two wins, in two games. Now, for the first time this year, we're even with the board. Our four area teams have won eight, lost eight, and tied two. Morton has won it's first game, and Whiteface still is undefeated. This week, four games on tap, three of them are conference battles. It's homecoming for both Bula and Three Way. Whiteface takes on ever tough Meadow, and, ahas been the case most often this year, Morton is playing a rugged opponent. These merchants, join with all of the folks of the Last Frontier in saying, "Let's go — all of you, and get above the even mark." In fact, why not have a perfect weekend? Four wins. We're counting on at least two District champions this year — and these conference games are the ones that really count.

HURRAH! for the boys, hurrah for the coaches, hurrah for the team spirit that prevailed last weekend against Price College. To a lot of people the victory Friday didn't mean much. To the team and the school it meant a great deal. To the coaches it perhaps meant more.

MORTON DID more than break a long losing streak. They did a lot more than win their first game this season. They did, in fact, vindicate a lot of faith, a lot of judgment. They didn't by any means set the pattern for a successful future season. But, they did prove to themselves that they could combine the elements of a defense & an offense for victory. They did prove that it takes teamwork for a victory, not one man's efforts. They did prove that no coach can be a winning coach, without his team having the desire to win. Often times you lose when you try hard. But the reverse is not true. You don't accidentally win by not trying.

Friday you saw . . .

A HUSTLING team, and a team that was maller and slower, rise up and win a game, not necessarily because of superior ability, but certainly partly because of superior fight. Morton outgout the Cardinals. Morton took advantage of some of the breaks. These have come to Morton all season long. For the first time Friday, we made use of them. The next step is to win one without the breaks. And, if you are one to doubt the boys efforts — if you are prone to blame their defeats on lack of effort — try shutting your eyes and remembering the overall teams we've had the past four or five years. You'll remember a few hustlers on each team — but you'll suddenly remember how the overall team effort just didn't stack up to the effort the boys have made this season.

You don't often . . .

JUMP FROM a losing team to a winning one. Usually, the transition is by degrees — and comes as the result of combining a lot of necessary ingredients. Good boys can't win without coaches. Good coaches don't win without boys willing to "put out." — each is a necessary ingredient.

its the end . . .

OF A RATHER remarkable era in Morton, this week, as the Morton Lions club will begin eating in the Activities Building banquet room. Wednesday, being served by an individual instead of the combined efforts of the Methodist Ladies. If ever any group had earned and deserved a rest, it certainly is the faithful group that made an agreement to take care of providing meals for the Morton Lions club more than 15 years ago — and since has fulfilled that obligation.

THE RECORD WOULDN'T BE so remarkable. But in a town as small as Morton has been the past 16 years, and with all of the natural troubles that arise over a period of years in any community, its almost unbelievable that this band of ladies have risen to the task of preparing these meals every week for 16 years, without being forced to quit from lack of help, lack of interest, or something — even a petty misunderstanding. To them, the Lions Club owes a real vote of thanks.

It's hard to know . . .

JUST EXACTLY when a debt to mankind is "squared." And this is good, for if this world had people who thought only of "squaring" accounts — and never of doing something without expecting to be amply repaid, it'd indeed be a pitiful place. Such a debt is owed by Cochran County and one Donald York, to Boy's Ranch. This week, Don came home — after three years at Boy's Ranch. Three years in which he learned a great deal of things that he would have never learned here. Three years in which he finished High School — he wouldn't have in Morton. Now, Don is out. He's not necessarily an accomplished worker. He knows about as much concerning work as do most boys his age. But he is faced with what will be a big job for him. That of getting a job, adjusting himself to being on his own, and making a home for his father who for years was in Morton and then developed tuberculosis, and was sent to a sanitarium. Don's job isn't an easy one. He'll need help, and he'll need to help himself. A lot of encouragement from folks, in general will help. In the end, we hope he will repay his debt to Boy's Ranch not necessarily in finances — but by using the knowledge he has received at the ranch to become a success — that is the kind of repayment Cal Farley an associates would want. And, meanwhile, local folks can help by not forgetting to send along a small contribution to Boy's Ranch every year or so. It all helps, no matter how small.

HEAR, very clearly, the laughs with which we were received about nine years ago when we first came to Morton and talked to what we thought were influential citizens, about the need for a railroad running to Morton. These men, to be sure, were a lot smarter than we were. They knew that it was the next thing to impossible to get a railroad in here, since the Santa Fe already has Morton pocketed, and surrounded by a railroad on almost every side. But these men, also were uninterested in putting forth the necessary effort that is necessary to make this next to impossible thing come true. We hope all they lack is the interest. We hope, if the idea got to a talking stage, they wouldn't actively oppose it on the grounds that they want things to stay as they are.

now we think . . .

THE TIME IS RIPE to begin a series of talks with railroad officials on the need for a railroad. We know the first answer we'll get is a flat "no." We know that if we press the issue we'll be told they might consider it if the right way were obtained, or if so many thousand tons or cars of shipping were guaranteed, or if certain types of industry or plants were located in Morton, or — a lot of other possible "ifs." Somewhere between this flat "no" and the "ifs", lies a common ground upon which we can start to work. And, well have a railroad someday — if you and you fellow townsmen want one. Its time we all went to work thinking in terms of what a railroad can do for the community and deciding what it is worth to the community. The quicker we start — and harder we decide to work at it — the quicker this pipe dream will become a reality.
