But it is well known one dollar spent at local level will do the work of at least two dollars filtering down through a Washing-ton bureau. And this is not the time, it is felt, to create any more federal spending bureaus. Rather, it is time to cut down, or eliminate them.

Because despite all propagi da consumer buying and instruent credit have created in self is creating inflation.

In year just ended, gross national income was approximately $334 billion. Total governmental expenditures, federal, state and local, accounted for about $114 billion. Thus, governmental ex-penditures equalled over onethird, or 34%, of total national income. Many outstanding economists claim when any nation has reached a 25% ratio, economic collapse has followed.

reas, school needs are critical, problem is quite elemental.

The situation is serious. Truman administration failed to stop march of inflation. Eisenhower dministration has also been indectual in this direction.

Purchasing power of dollar has nce Revolutionary Days. Las tober, consumer prices hit all me high, going up almost 18% ver 1947-49 level.

that 1956 was banner year as far as incomes were concerned, yet governmental spending equalled 4% of that high level. With even slight recession, or a slight in crease in governmental spending, governmental expenditures could easily equal 50% of national in-come, sending dollar down even further in value

Thus, if Johnny or Susie does thave a desk to sit at in school there may be some parental con-solation in fact money that would have bought that desk went over seas to help some foreign mo nopoly get an even tighter stran-gle hold on world's economy. Perhaps price of that desi-equalled cost of one U.S. donated omb England dropped on Egypt blowing sky high Egyptian equiv-alent of little Johnny who didn't have a desk, either.

Congress could help the school children of the nation immediately. But that help will not come from pouring billions into a new federal bureaucracy. That help will only come from cutting down on federal spending so that local governmental units can raise oney to take care of vital, es-

$25,000,000 Contribution ... to Farmers and Ranchers

Within the past four years the railroads have contributed to the farmers, ranchers and dairymen, through a 50% reduction in rates on hay and other feedstuffs, 25 million dollars.

Both the Congress of the United States and the Legislature of Texas, by resolution, have expressed their thanks to the railroads for this substantial contribution.

Urging Better Government Legislation A Senator from the Panhandle and a West-Texas Representative have joined hands in sponsoring one of the 15 anti-secrecy bills requested of the Texas Legislature by the Texas Press Association. Measures advocated by the press stem from recent scandals in Duval County, the Land Office, and in a less spectacular way in several areas of the state. Pictured above are Rep. Howard Green of Fort Worth (standing) and Sen. Andy Rogers of Childress (seated), as they confer on HB 167 and SB 224. Their companion bills require that suits be filed by county and district attorneys for the recovery of missappropriated or unlawfully expended monies belonging to a county, school district or other political subdivision. Should those officials refuse to act, then the Attorney General is empowered to do so.
