WHITEFACE ANTELOPES SEEK BI-DISTRICT HONORS FRIDAY; WILL FACE HAPPY COWBOYS AT PLAINVIEW; AT 2:30 P. M.

Whiteface Juniors Change Show Date

The bi-district game scheduled on Friday of this week between Happy and Whiteface, has forced the Whiteface Juniors to change the date of their talent show.

Originally set for this Friday, the show will be held at 7:00 p. m. on Friday, November 26, in the High School auditorium.

Pies, cakes, and coffee will be sold in the Cafeteria after the program.

Contestants will compete for 1st, 2nd and 3rd place awards.

Festive guests will be the well known "Four Teens," — one — of whom is a Whiteface boy.

The change of dates was announced by Laquita Todd, reporter.

Enochs Methodists Plan Dinner

Enochs Methodist Church is sponsoring a Thanksgiving Dinner at the church, November 23rd.

The event is an annual affair held each year on the Wednesday before Thanksgiving.

Tickets are 50c for children and $1.00 for adults.

GOC Meeting Friday Night

The Morton Ground Observer Corps unit is tried to attend an alert and business meeting Friday night from 8:00 till 9:00 p. m. in the Veterans Hall.

E. L. Roeder, Chief Observer, said the discussion would include an important plan for bringing the local Scouts into the program.

He said the local unit had been asked to work with the Scouts on this program.

Reader urged all members who have copies of the manual to bring them to the meeting.

Cagers Work Out

Morton's Indian basketball squad began two weeks of pre-season practice on Monday of this week in preparation for the season's first fixture, a rugged encounter with the Class AA Maleses, Mules.

Maleses defeated Morton in the two team's only meeting last season and went on to win their class AA District Title while Morton was winning their title. Both teams will return with most of last year's squad in tact.

FFA Turkey Shoot Saturday, Sunday At the Cliche Pit West of Morton

Area shooters are reminded that Saturday and Sunday, November 23rd and 24th, is the opportunity to bag a 7 1/2 lb. turkey for their Thanksgiving table, or a ham or side of bacon — or to the sure "muff good shooters" — all three.

The Morton FFA group, for the second successive year, will sponsor a turkey shoot at the Hancock Cliche Pit, one mile west of the city on the New Mexico Highway.

Duane Knott, sponsor of the local FFA group, said a brand new trap had been purchased and promised the targets should be livelier than ever. He said shooting competition would be in shotgun, rifle, and pistol classes.

The turkeys will average 12 lbs. in weight and the hams and bacon will average 10 to 12 lbs. Knott has been promised. Shooters will have their choice.

Competition will begin at 10:00 a. m. on Saturday and continue until dark. On Sunday the shooting is to begin at 1:00 p. m. and continue until 3:30.

Phillips Station Says, "Thanks"

Tip Windom, local Phillips 66 wholesaler and Dave Beck, operator of the new Phillips Station in Morton, this week offered their sincere thanks for what they termed a terrific grand opening held last Saturday.

They said the opening far exceeded their expectations.

The Whiteface Antelopes — still smarting under a ruling late last season that found them with an ineligible man and cost them a Class B bi-district championship — will be back on familiar ground Friday at 2:30 p. m. when they meet the Happy Cowboys for the bi-district title.

Coach Emmett Broderson's Antelopes will meet Happy for the second straight year. The game will be played at Plainview, at 2:30 p. m.

The game is rated a toss-up. Whiteface, rebounding considerably from the team that last year went through a regular season without a loss, and then won the play-off on penetrations from the Cowboys, only to have to forfeit later.

And Happy, a perennial champion in their district, returning with most of the same team.

Whiteface are champions of District 3-B and Happy won the laurels in District 4-B.

Whiteface lost only one game in

Most Merchants Will Close On Thanksgiving Day

The Tribune, because next week will find the paper getting out too late to give the information made a spot check Wednesday and found that most of the grocery stores are planning to close, the lumber businesses, three dry goods houses, two furniture businesses and even two cafes. It is impossible to get an answer from all firms.

One cafe definitely is planning to serve a Thanksgiving dinner and then will close around 2 or 3 p. m. Two other cafes hadn't decided.

All county, city, and state offices will be closed as well as the bank.

Cochran County schools all plan to be dismissed on Thursday and Friday.

Since next week is the week the December Dollar Day paper will be published, and next Thursday is the day most ads are taken for the Dollar Day paper, merchants are asked, if at all possible, to get their ads early in the week. Hold-up limitations could make it possible that Dollar Day ads couldn't be accepted on Friday.

With the advent of Thanksgiving, a number of Morton merchants have chosen this week's paper to begin their Christmas season advertising. More are expected to use the December Dollar Day, Monday, December 2, as the opening of their season. So, if you intend to advertise in the Dollar Day paper, get it known as soon as possible so you can save you a space.

P-TA, Open House Well Attended

Morton's young Parent-Teacher Association had a large turnout on Tuesday night of this week as the school combined the regular meeting night with the open house in all schools.

Parents began to attend the open house at 6:45, as each teacher was in her homeroom ready to discuss with the parents the work of the students, and papers prepared by the students were on display.

While the turnout didn't quite equal the number last year, the principals all were gratified by the large number of visitations.

Refreshments were served in the cafeteria just prior to the P-TA meeting at 8:30.

The program for the P-TA found Principals Jerry Barton, Elmo Smith and Jim Kidd explaining the system of grading and attendance marking used in the school.

Immediately after the regular P-TA meeting, the association's executive board got together for a meeting and changed their regular meeting date to 2 p. m. the fourth Thursday of each month. The regular P-TA sessions will be on the same date.

The group also appointed chairmen of three committees to work with the P-TA.

The Morton High School band will leave at 3:30 p. m. this afternoon for Lubbock where they will enter the Region Marching contests to be held in Jones stadium.

Not counting the forfeits, the Whiteface team has scored 18 victories, one tie, and one loss in the past two seasons of play, a fine record for Coach Broderson.

Odis Echols to Bring Rock 'n Roll Variety Show to Morton, Tonight

The Morton Jaycees will bring to the city Thursday night — Odis Echols Variety Show featuring a varied group of entertainers headlined by Charlie Phillips and a group called the State Lamers.

Echols, who has been with Radio Station KCLV at Clovis for many years, and who has, years ago, been an introducer of fine gospel quartet singing throughout those parts, will bring his show to the stage of the County Auditorium, tonight (Thursday), at 7:30 p. m. with admission $1 for adults and 50 cents for students.

One of the featured attractions of the shows is a rock and roll unit called "the 4-Teens" which includes a Whiteface boy on the guitar.

Also a featured attraction is the Coral Recording star, Charlie Phillips whom Echols is grooming for big stardom. Echols was the discoverer of Tommy Sands, now a popular singing sensation, and he thinks Phillips may be an even greater smash hit.

The 4 Teens have an engagement beginning the first of the year, in one of Colorado's biggest Hotels, in Colorado Springs.

Phillips only this week returned from Nashville, Tennessee, where he has been attending a recording session.

Echols and his group, and the Jaycees emphasized this variety is not a program of gospel music. It will include all kinds of music, plus variety acts. It should be a big hit among teen agers and, since Echols himself was quite a promoter of gospel music, will probably have at least a gospel song or two in quartet setting.

The show was scheduled last week by the local Junior Chamber of Commerce, in answer to a request for a western - type show to be brought to Morton. Echols and his group were to have appeared Saturday in the nationally famed western show, "The National Barn Dance."

Everyone who appreciates a good variety show, including dancers, twirlers, and plenty of music — will enjoy the Odis Echols Show — family type entertainment.

Lubbock Man Is Nabbed with Load; Posts $1,500 Bond

A Lubbock man, Jesse Valdez, was arrested by State Highway Patrolmen after a routine investigation, Friday evening.

Valdez, driving a pickup truck loaded down with liquor and beer, was arrested by State Highway Patrolmen after a routine investigation, Friday evening.

Valdez paid a traffic fine in a J. P. Court as did a brother-in-law Stephen Garcia, also of Lubbock. The brother - in-law was following behind the pickup truck and was stopped after the driver crossed the center stripe several times.

At that time, the patrolmen had no idea the two men were related. Questioning later developed that the boy's sister had been killed in a Lubbock fracas the night of Mexico Independence Day observance last September. The other man also told officers his wife had been killed in a similar incident. Garcia admitted they were brother-in-law, but Valdez denied it.

After paying a ticket, Valdez and his load were brought to Morton where he pled "not guilty" to the liquor charge in County Court and his bond was set at $1,500 by County Judge Fred Stockdale.

Confiscated from the pick-up truck were 24 cases of quart sized bottles of beer, one case of half pints of whiskey, two 1/2-gallon bottles of wine, one-fifth of whiskey, and part of a six can pack of beer which was opened.

Gene Benham Resigns Position On Morton School Board of Trustees

D. E. (Gene) Benham, member of the Morton School Board, last Thursday night tendered his resignation to the Morton School Board.

Benham, in a lengthy letter which he read to the Board and asked that it be placed in the minutes of the meeting so that his reasons would remain clear and so that any one who was interested could read the letter, said he thought it was for the best interests of the school and reminded the Board members and Supt. John Barrow — he would support them as strongly off the board as he had when a member of the Board.

Benham's resignation was accepted by the group which named a successor, but asked his name be withheld pending his acceptance of the position.

Benham's resignation came as no surprise. He was preparing his resignation when a law suit involving the school was filed and he agreed not to tender it until the proceeding was over. He enumerated many reasons in the letter and clearly stated his position and the principles on which he had made his decisions since a member of the Board of School Trustees. Among other things he recommended to the Board that he had heard criticism that no one on the Board had any children in the elementary grades.

The resignation was the main item of business at the meeting except the routine of paying bills and a discussion of a bus transportation problem.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

With the harvest of grain sorghums nearing completion it is becoming necessary to give consideration to the handling of the residue that is left. This residue is a very important item as it acts in several ways in adding to the fertility & protection of the soil. When this plant residue is sufficiently rotted it goes back to the soil as organic matter. As we all know, organic matter is often referred to as "the life of the soil."

In choosing the best method of returning this residue to the soil, obtaining the most rapid decomposition and at the same time protecting the soil from high wind velocities, it is important to consider a few principles of nature.

First, let's consider the decomposition or rotting process. Decomposition of plant and animal residue is performed by tiny micro-organisms, such as bacteria that live in the soil. These micro-organisms actually break down the residue, digest it, and then their bodies remain in the soil to become matter themselves. The larger the population of organisms present and the better working condition they have, the quicker the decomposition occurs. It is necessary that most of these organisms have oxygen to survive, consequently their most optimum working location is near the surface of the soil. For this reason, residue left near or on the surface of the soil has a better chance of becoming rotted quicker.

Another principle of nature that merits consideration is that of soil cover or protection by maintaining an adequate amount of plant residue on or near the surface of the soil a protective coating is provided.

This coating, or "mulch", aids in keeping the soil temperature between regulated which provides for better bacterial action. This mulch also helps protect the soil from soil erosion. In order to maintain an adequate mulch near the surface of the soil it is necessary to have enough residue to give full protection during the period of high winds, and also manage that residue to keep it near the surface through the growing season of the next crop. Ordinarily grain sorghums in normally spaced rows do not produce enough residue to adequately shred down and provide a mulch cover. For this reason, most cooperators in the Cochran Soil Conservation District do what seems to be the next best thing.

Senator Preston Smith

With the dawning of the second called Legislature last week, the old segregation "hot potato" was tossed back into the capital in the new dress of an anti-troop bill. Such a bill, called "a necessity by the governor," would provide alternatives of action for the state's school boards should integration situations result in the U. S. government sending troops to occupy Texas school grounds.

Governor Daniel insists, and in press conferences has cautioned reporters, that the anti-troop bill is not a segregation measure, and stands on its own feet as a state's rights measure.

But the issue, state's rights or not, has come down to the political point of segregation, regardless of the immediate definition of the anti-troop measure.

There are actually two major fields of concern in the Capitol at present — and finances.

Financing the Legislature's second called session if it runs more than a week, has been of concern to the members. Only about $45,000 remains in the legislative appropriation which financed the session just ended. Gov. Daniel suggested "that if this wasn't enough, there is his $300,000 deficiency appropriation, and the Legislature could use some of that."

In the first 30-day special session however, all five of the governor's requests were okayed. Most prominently discussed bill was that of lobby control.

The lobby measure, which passed only 10 minutes before the end of the first called session, requires a full reporting of all money spent during Legislative sessions in "direct communication." No itemized statement is required, however.

Those who must register and file reports are persons paid as lobbyists; any person, not paid, but acting for the benefit of another by direct communication; and persons acting for themselves whose expenditures for "direct communication" are more than $50 per session.

Another Christmas Mail Flood Seen

Predicting that the Christmas mail this year will set an all-time record, even exceeding the record set in 1956, Postmaster Murry Crye announced his 1957 "Mail Early for Christmas" Campaign late last week.

With Christmas only a little more than a month away, the Postmaster reminds us, "It's later than you think!" Most folks have a tendency to wait until December rolls around before they give their Christmas mailing plans a thought!

The Postmaster further suggested that right now is the time to take the following steps: Check your Christmas card lists very carefully — make sure that each address includes the full name, city, zone, and state.

He also said that it is a good idea to stock up on heavy wrapping paper, sturdy corrugated cartons, strong cord, and paper adhesive tape for use in securely packing & wrapping your Christmas gifts. If you would like to include your Christmas card or letter inside your gift package, just add the appropriate first class mail postage to the postage for the package itself; thus, insuring simultaneous arrival of your gift and greeting.

ng, that is, leave the stalk standing through the winter and critical spring season then either shred them or use a stalk cutter. Sometimes, when residue is scarce, it is even necessary to do emergency tillage to reduce wind damages.

The practice of "stubble - mulch ing" or maintaining all residue within the top few inches of the soil is becoming more popular every year. It will be possible to get cost - share assistance through the local ASC office for carrying this practice out.

Some crops that this practice can be accomplished with are: close spaced grain sorghums; drilled or heavy residue producing legumes, grasses, small grains such as rye and other drilled crops such as forage sorghums, sudan, and millet.

Under irrigated conditions, more growth is usually obtained from the high residue crop, using a balanced fertilizer at planting time. A shot of nitrogen applied early to the residue of this crop or to the that available nitrogen used through the process of decomposition.

Under dryland conditions in the district, research does not indicate that fertilizers are necessary for best results.

Another practice that is becoming more popular each year is the maintenance of soil fertility and for protection from wind erosion the application of cotton burs, gin waste. It is also possible to obtain cost share assistance through the local ASC office for this practice.

FUMBLES COST INDIANS DISTRICT CROWN; BOW TO PRIONA CHIEFS IN SEASON FINALE BY 12 - 7 COUNT

What happened? was the question Morton was asking, during the game last Friday night. The Morton Indians, on the eve of their first district championship in 21 years, fumbled away the championship to a Priona eleven, 12 to 7.

The result was that Morton fumbled and lost the football six times and had two passes intercepted. Morton was held to minus yardage in the first half, and to no first downs in the first three quarters of the game. Priona scored twice, both on fumbles recovered deep in Morton territory, and that was the game — with the exception of a thrilling final outburst, three plays in which Morton almost won the game in the final 14 seconds to play.

Down 12 to 0, with 14 seconds to play Morton took over on downs on their own 16 yard line. On the first play, Jackie Brown tossed a short pass in the flats to Eddie Thompson who roared down the right side line guided by big brother Freddie Thompson, 84 yards to a score. With the clock stopped at four seconds to play Dewaire booted the point after. On the ensuing kickoff, Freddie Thompson tried an outside kick and Morton recovered on the 49 yardline. Again it was Freddie Thompson who covered the ball. The Indians got a time out with two seconds left and then were penalized five yards on the time out. They tried a real dippy do play on the center, going into a double reverse with Seaney getting the ball and Priona completely fooled. Seaney retreated to the 25 yard line and let go the longest pass he could throw. His target was — you guessed it — Freddie Thompson who had slipped behind the Chief defense and was two strides ahead of anyone else streaking across the 10 yard line. But Seaney just did not have enough arm and the pass went to the 18 yard line where it was intercepted to end the game.

But the victory belonged to Priona. Having lost their quarterback, Charles Houch, on the fourth play of the game, with a dislocating blow, the Chiefs seemed to gain fire. Leon Marney took over at the quarterback post and guided them excellently. Larry and Weldon Fairchild shouldered most of the offensive load but it was the Priona line on defense that spelled the difference. Four times they nailed Jackie Brown in the Morton backfield before he could handoff or pass. On two occasions they caused him to lose the ball on a handoff. End Omar Stacey recovered the first 3 fumbles for Priona. Cap on the 1st yard line led to the first score as Jerry London went over for the score. The third, recovered at the end of the first quarter, on the 33 yard line set up the second score. Larry Fairchild scored the 75 yard touchdown on the 75 yard line. Finally they reached the treacherous river that separates Communist China from free China. Many people died in their attempt to get across this river, but his father knew that death awaited them at the hands of the Communists if they stayed so they made the attempt and reached the other side.

A family in California heard of their flight and took full responsibility for them and made arrangements for them to come to America.

Mr. Amegin, whose Russian name was Shelonvastoff, wanted it to be Amegin which derived from the Bible means "beginning." He said it was truly a new beginning in a new land — a Christian land where they could worship God.

As the Thanksgiving season approaches, let us be thankful for America, this great land of ours, where we have freedom of religion and can worship God as we desire.

Attend the church of your choice. If you do not have a church home, we invite you to worship with us at the Emanuel Baptist Mission.

HOME FOR HOSPITAL. R. L. Page, who has been in a Dallas hospital for sometime, last week returned to Morton. This week he was again downtown visiting friends.

Bible Student Tells Of Family's Flight To Freedom

The Emanuel Baptist Mission was privileged to have two young Ministerial students from Wayland Baptist College in their morning and night services, Sunday, November 17.

Ward Mallett from Terrel did the preaching and George Arnegin from Sacramento, California, led the singing. Mr. Arnegin also played the accordion and the cornet.

Mr. Arnegin told his experiences of coming to America. He was born in a small town in China on the Russian border. His father was a preacher and when the Communists began persecuting the Christians, his father and mother, with their children, and all the absolute necessities they could put on a two wheel cart pulled by two horses, fled across the continent of China.

The crossed barren deserts that took days, weeks, and even stretched into months. They saw graves all along the way. They crossed the mountains where there is no human life because of the extreme cold. Here, on the frozen ground with only rocks for a marker, they were forced to leave a baby brother who died because his little body could not endure the cold and hunger.

Finally they reached the treacherous river that separates Communist China from free China. Many people died in their attempt to get across this river, but his father knew that death awaited them at the hands of the Communists if they stayed so they made the attempt and reached the other side.

A family in California heard of their flight and took full responsibility for them and made arrangements for them to come to America.

Mr. Amegin, whose Russian name was Shelonvastoff, wanted it to be Amegin which derived from the Bible means "beginning." He said it was truly a new beginning in a new land — a Christian land where they could worship God.

As the Thanksgiving season approaches, let us be thankful for America, this great land of ours, where we have freedom of religion and can worship God as we desire. Attend the church of your choice. If you do not have a church home, we invite you to worship with us at the Emanuel Baptist Mission.

The 58 FORD is here now...

there's nothing newer in the world

With all that's new for a world of differences

There's bold, new styling—new Interceptor V-8 Power—new Cruise-O-Matic Drive—new Ford-Aire Suspension! The 58 Ford is the only car ever to meet a world-wide test and win world-wide approval before its public premiere!

You could search the world over and never find a car to match this 58 Ford's new beauty... new power... new ride... all at the low Ford price. We know! We tried it!

In Paris... the most style-conscious fashion critics in the world had a deep, low bow for Ford's latest style creation. In the mighty Himalayas, Ford's new Interceptor V-8 engine with Precision Fuel Induction won the day!

Then there's nothing newer than the true air ride of Ford-Aire Suspension. It's like riding on a cloud! But you don't have to go to foreign soil to drive this newest Ford. We'll gladly save you the trip. Come in today!

From London to Bangkok... the whole world loved it!

The 58 Ford stopped traffic in Trafalgar Square when it passed through on its round-the-world trip. And that was typical of the excitement this Ford caused in Paris... Rome... Athens... Istanbul... Calcutta... and Bangkok. For this Ford was proved around the world in the toughest "shakedown" cruise in history.

THESE ARE NOTHING NEWER IN THE WORLD OF STYLE!

THE WHOLE WORLD SEEMS SMALLER WITH FORD'S NEW INTERCEPTOR V-8 ENGINE!

COME IN... SEE THE CAR THAT WAS PROVED AND APPROVED AROUND THE WORLD!

By HOMER E. THOMPSON
H. B. KING'S CROP

Mr. H. B. King, Morton, Texas, planted New Mexico winter barley on 14 acres last fall, 1956. This year, on June 1957, H. B. harvested over 22,000 pounds of barley off this 14-acre field on the barley was about 1600 lbs. per acre. In June 1957 he prepared the 14 acres of barley land for grain sorghum by applying 200 pounds of 33-0-0 and disking the land. He immediately drilled maize in 14 inch drills on this same land. In November 1957, H. B. harvested 48,000 lbs. of grain sorghum from this land or an average production of 487 lbs. per acre. For 1957 the two crops produced on the 14 acres were 1600 pounds of barley per acre and 487 pounds of milo grain sorghum per acre. This is quite a record yield for these two crops.

Yes, these two crops were irrigated. I believe H. B. told me each year that the two crops were greater than the acre yield shows, because one acre yield shows, actually 13 acres harvested. H. B. is now preparing this land for re-planting to the New Mexico winter barley this month (November) 1957.

HIGH MOISTURE GRAIN

So long as cool, wet weather continues, it is evident that storage of grain sorghum will be a problem and much damage to stored grain will no doubt occur where proper drying facilities are not available. To prevent extra losses and needless expenditures the following points are given:

1. Generally, safe storage of grain sorghum in farm bins requires the moisture content be reduced to 12 per cent. If grain has to be cut at considerably higher moisture levels, it should be reduced as quickly as possible, to safe storage moisture content.
2. Drying high moisture grain (from 16 per cent to 12 per cent) with unheated air requires: (a) 2.5 cubic feet of air per minute per bushel, (b) Maximum depth of grain to 8 feet in the bin, (c) Fans and motors that will deliver the above volume of air against a static pressure of 2.8 inches (water), (d) Approximately 14 to 21 days drying time, (e) CAUTION: Aeration equipment (supplying approximately 1 cfm per bu) is designed for cooling grain only! Do not attempt to dry grain with a low air volume aeration system. Be sure any equipment is bought on the basis of guaranteed delivery of the required amount of air (cfm) per bushel.
3. Drying grain with heated air

(160 degrees to 190 degree fahrenheit) should be done in thin layers (12 to 18 inches); then placed in storage. You will find that trying to dry grain with heated air in deeper bins will usually result in over drying the bottom part and spoilage from moisture in the upper part. In selecting equipment remember: (a) Caution: Grain sorghum for seed should not be exposed to greater temperatures than 105 degrees to 110 degrees fahrenheit, or germination may be reduced. (b) It requires large volumes of air to dry the grain (75 to 100 cfm per sq. ft. of grain surface in the thin layer.) (c) It requires large quantities of heat to effectively do the job: (20 BTU per 1000 cfm for each degree (F) rise in temperature.) This formula multiplied by 60 gives an approximate size of burner which is normally rated in BTU's per hour.

Still Time to Get All Polio Shots Before Summer

Basel O'Connor, president of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, writes in the National Foundation News, that "people who have not yet had any Salk injections do not realize they won't be able to get fully vaccinated for the polio season of 1955 unless they act now."

"Getting the first shot early in November means the second can be given in December and the third early in January. Getting a second shot early in June and getting a third shot next week, means avoiding the possible 'rush' at the last minute next spring, when polio is imminent."

"It is essential that the drop-off in vaccination rate coincides with a vastly increased supply of licensed vaccine. For the first time since April 1955, there is sufficient vaccine in the pipeline to meet a sizeable demand," he writes.

400 Attended Sunday Performance of Lubbock Christian College Choir

Approximately 400 persons attended the Lubbock Christian College choir concert Sunday at the Cochran County Activities Building.

Dr. W. F. Mattox, president of the college, spoke at the intermission.

Under the direction of Wayne Hinds, director of music at the college, the choir is composed of some 50 voices, including two students from Morton, Miss Betty Sullivan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Sullivan, and Truman Harris, son of Mrs. Lela Harris, a former Morton resident, who is now associated with the college.

Dr. Mattox outlined the work of the college administration. He announced that first year enrollment had now reached 192 students, and that plans were on schedule for construction of the administration building.

Some 500 persons spread lunch at the Eastside Church of Christ dinner at noon in the dining room of the activities building. This included 53 visitors from the Children's Home in Portales, N. M., 49 children and four adults.

At the 11 a.m. services at the church, chairs had to be set up to accommodate the crowd that was in attendance.
