SEEK ANNEXATION TO COLLEGE DISTRICT

Roy Young Is Bailey Co-op's New President

Roy Young of Bula was elected president of the Bailey County Electric Cooperative Association at a special meeting of the group's Board of Directors here Friday evening.

Petitions from the Cochran County portion of Whiteface School District, requesting an election for the purpose of joining the South Plains College district, were received in Levelland and approved by regents of the College last Thursday night. It was reported in the Levelland Daily Sun News.

A meeting will be held at Whiteface, in the School Cafeteria, Friday — that's tomorrow — at 7:30 p. m., to discuss the pro's and con's concerning the annexation.

Interested citizens are cordially invited to the hearing, and every effort will be made to answer all questions concerning what the annexation will mean to Whiteface, if passed.

The two petitions, with a total of 36 signatures were the first step. Now the petitions must be presented to County Judge Fred Stockdale who will call an election.

Two elections must be held, one to annex the district and the other to approve an annexation.

It was the first move, outside of Hockley County, to annex other districts into the junior college district.

WHITEFACE (Spl.) — The Whiteface Lions Club went on record, at their regular meeting Monday night, to endorse the proposal of annexing that portion of Cochran County in the Whiteface School District to the new South Plains Junior College District.

Annexation into the district would result in certain benefits for the students within the district in bus service, tuition fees, etc. It also would mean a tax levy on every tax payer in the district.

The Whiteface Lions named a 3-man committee to lead the Whiteface Lions effort to back the proposal. Vern Bebee, Nathan Tubb and H. D. Galvin are on the committee.

Fat Stock Show Dates Are Set; New System of Premium Money Planned

Show date, March 14 and 15, for the annual Cochran County Fat Stock Show, is almost here.

The ribbons, trophies and money awards are waiting or will soon be here — for boys from Morton F. F. A., Cochran 4-H, Bula, Whiteface and Three Way F.F.A. and Maple 4-H club.

As the plans for the show have progressed it looks like a very exciting two days for everyone.

From all reports we should have a good number of animals entered in the Cochran show, plus event that are still in the planning stage for extra attraction and interest.

As the plans go now, the judging will start on Friday morning, March 14 at 9 a. m. The order of the judging has not been determined as yet but it will probably be swine, lambs and calves in that order. Ribbons will be presented at the time of judging by the F. F. A. sweethearts from the schools represented.

On Saturday morning a livestock judging contest will be sponsored by the Morton Junior Chamber of Commerce under the direction of Elwood Harris, president of the organization. Livestock teams from many of the surrounding counties have been or will be invited.

At a pre-determined time Saturday afternoon, March 15, the main event will be the announcement of the winners of the livestock contest and presentation of banners and ribbons first three high teams in each division.

Also to be awarded at that time will be the premium money for all winners.

The auction sale that is normally held will be replaced by premiums this year in order to have a guaranteed premium for the most worthy animals in the show. This action was taken by the Show Committee after it was discussed to local businessmen who have supported the auction sale in past years, with their unanimous approval.

There is still a lot of work to do on the show. The next Fat Stock show meeting is scheduled for Saturday morning, February 22, at 9:30 in the Activities Building and everyone is invited to attend.

Every effort is being made to mail rules and entry blanks during the week of Feb. 24. If you are from one of the organizations in the show, you will get this information as soon as it is ready.

Estimated 600 Attend Annual Membership Meeting of Bailey County Electric Co-op

Approximately 600 persons turned out here for the annual membership meeting of the Bailey County Electric Cooperative Association held Friday afternoon in the Cochran County Activities building.

Officials reported the meeting as the 'best attended' in the organization's seventeen-year history. More than one-half those in attendance were from outside Cochran County.

This marked the first meeting of the group outside Muleshoe. Glenn W. Thompson, director from here, promoted the Morton invitation.

On the program was a short concert by the Morton High School Band, a financial report, the election of two directors, short speeches by state senators and representatives, a discussion on future power costs, the awarding of door prizes, and the serving of coffee and doughnuts by Morton Rainbow girls.

Joe Sooter of Bailey County, retiring president of the board of directors, presided at the meeting. Minister Denton Thompson of the Morton Church of Christ, Second and Taylor, gave the invocation.

In presenting the financial report, Glenn Thompson, who is the association's secretary-treasurer, pointed out that the net margin for the 1957 year was $108,203.64. Total income was $841,187.20 with total assets valued at $4,920,542.72. The association operates in Cochran, Bailey, Hockley, Lamb, Parmer and Castro counties serving 3,614 members.

In a breakdown of expenses, Thompson pointed out that electric power costs the association $299,463.70, operating and maintenance expense $186,541.34, depreciation $154,483.30, amortization of loan $343.04, taxes $13,259.43 and accrued interest to REA $78,892.75. This makes a total expense of $722,933.56.

Besides $298,515.13 in cash in banks, the association had, on Dec. 31, 1957, $46,000.00 invested in U. S. bonds, and $247,192.93 invested in Federal Savings Loans and other organizations.

In his short talk, Senator Preston Smith of Lubbock and this district advised the group that the biggest per cent of legislators are honest, hard working people who want to serve the folks at home. But, he pointed out, the folks back home must tell them what they want.

Senator Smith said the important things facing the legislature's next session will be schools, roads, and public welfare.

Reward Offered For Information On Poisoning

Once again Mortonites are in a reward offering mood over the recent deaths of pets in their various neighborhoods by poison.

Last week, after a group of persons had lost pets, Ray Griffith offered a reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any person or persons who have been putting out poison where it may be obtained by children or pets.

Griffith put up a sum and said others would join in building up a reward fund.

A few years ago, in the wake of another surge of poisonings, a citizen offered $50 reward but as far as the Tribune knows it was never claimed.

Anyone interested in this effort to stop the wave of poisonings, should contact Ray Griffith.

Mrs. J. D. Hawthorne presided at a brief business session following the lesson. She appointed a committee to study ways of implementing the study. Plans were made for a group to attend the sub-district W. S. C. S. meeting at An-ton on February 13.

Present for the meeting were Mesdames Bill Glassford, D. E. Benham, Leon Stinson, E. L. Cox, Lessie Silvers, J. W. Covington, James Harrell, J. D. Hawthorne, Bob Huckabay and W. W. Smith.

Mrs. D. E. Benham spoke on "The Church Opening Gateways in Japan." She described the work of Christian missionaries in education, rural areas, evangelism, and special service. "The missionary must first make friends," she explained, "and a good way to do that is to teach English, for all Japanese want to learn our language."

There are from fifty to sixty schools, social centers, community centers, orphanages, and colleges in Japan which are maintained by the Methodist church. Eight of the schools are the sole responsibility of the Women's Society of Christian Service.

Mrs. Bob Huckabay teacher of the course showed a film entitled "Younger Brother, a Story of Japan." It showed how a young Japanese found a place for himself in the U. S. A. The film was shown at the home of Mrs. J. D. Hawthorne.

Whiteface Lions Observe Scout Day At Meeting, Mon.

WHITEFACE (Sp.) — The youth of the community were the topic of discussion at Whiteface Monday night, as the Whiteface Lions Club held its regular session.

The club had, for its program, a tribute to Scouts, during Scout Week and later voted to give a supporting hand to a proposal to annex the Whiteface School District to the South Plains Junior College District. More information on this action may be found in the story elsewhere in this issue of the Tribune, concerning the Junior College and its proposed annexation of the Cochran County area known as the Whiteface School District.

The club met from 6:30 to 7:30 and officially observed Scout Day and Scout Week by hearing from O. C. Rankin, Scoutmaster of the Whiteface Troop, No. 71, from Dove Stanley, Advancement Chairman of the George White Scout District and from Burnett Roberts, Finance Chairman of the George White District.

The group also witnessed a 15 minute film on the National Scout Jamboree at Valley Forge.

Lion President James Carroll presided at the meeting. A three man committee was appointed to push the College proposal.

Fertilizer Builds Increased Crop Yields

Potash is Mined 900 Feet Underground From Ancient, Buried, Inland Sea-Beds

Most of the potash found naturally in our soils is in rather insoluble forms, and not readily available to plants. Because of its importance as a plant food, potash has to be supplied in fertilizer mixtures, if your crops are to be productive under today's intensive farming. In obtaining potash for use in commercial fertilizers, it is mined deep underground from deposits that were once sea beds, hundreds of thousands of years ago. Complicated machinery, like that shown, is used to mine these deposits, and the potash material is then hauled to the surface in electrically-operated shuttle cars. The International potash mine, near Carlsbad, New Mexico, is reported to be the richest known source of potash in the United States.

PLAINS SOILS NEED ADDED PLANT FOODS

Many South Plains farmers already know, and others are quickly learning, that modern agriculture requires large quantities of fertilizer to replace plant food removed from the soil by harvested crops, leaching, and wind erosion.

And with a fair to good moisture content already in the soil, area farmers are looking more and more into the values of fertilizer.

Too farmers know that fertilizer not used in an off season usually is not lost. The residual effect in the second or third year after applying will often pay more than production increases than original costs.

Crop rotation and the use of farm refuse cannot always replace all plant food removed from the soil by harvested crops, leaching and wind erosion, and thus the addition of adequate amounts of fertilizer becomes a "must" for farmers. Jack Baker, owner - operator of Baker Feed, Seed and

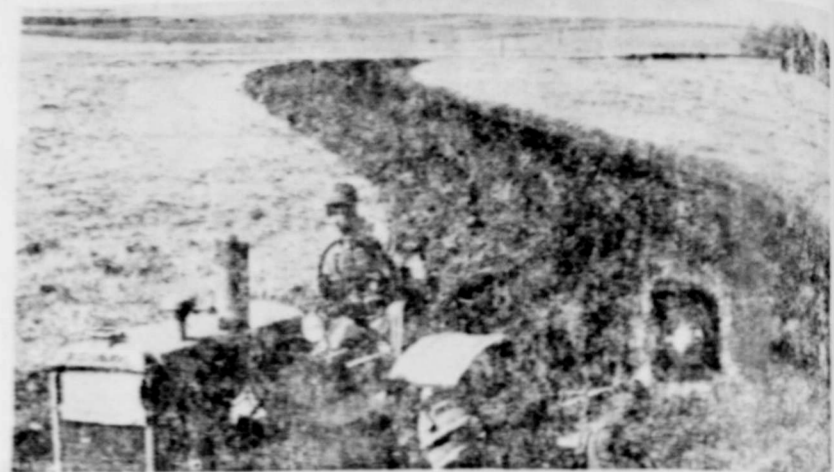

Correct Plowing Practices

Good Crops

Fertilizer points out:

Fertilizer, he says, builds increased yields in definite ways. Particularly Baker has reference to the use of Rainbow fertilizer as plant food, in the production of cotton.

He points out that the application of Rainbow, just prior to plowing, makes for a stronger root system, a base requirement for a good cotton crop anywhere on the South Plains.

Resistance to drought, Baker says, is another way Rainbow helps the dryland cotton plant in this area.

And, of course, this leads to stronger stalks and a greater resistance to disease and insects.

For detailed examples of the Rainbow plant food can do by Baker Feed, Seed and Fertilizer. Someone is always available to explain the values of Rainbow 7-14-7, Rainbow 10-10-10, low 10-20-5.

Fertilizer Responsible for One-Third of the Crop Output

According to U. S. Department of Agriculture estimates, 30 per cent of the nation's crop output is directly traceable to using commercial fertilizers.

And, although some farmers are using more than 10 times the commercial fertilizer they did in 1929, it's still not enough.

So, structures say farming lands need millions of tons of fertilizer each year to produce maximum crop production increases from the soil.

They point out that as the nation's population increases, production must increase, and as production efficiency goes up, farmers can not produce more crops.

and Fertilizer, Morton, advises farmers to keep your crop-output and soil with the use of good commercial fertilizers.

And, for further details, he in-production problems.

FARMERS URGED TO PLAN PLANTING NOW

Planting time will soon be upon us, and farmers are urged to plan now. The Cochran County Conservation District is urging farmers to plan now for the increasing each year cost of the better grass seed and very scarce, consequently, there will be several competitors in "fill two birds with one stone" by planting native grass as a part of their crop rotation and also to take a seed crop off for additional cash income. As we know, grass is the "answer" as far as soil conservation crops are concerned. It will improve matter in the soil from its top growth as well as its roots. It is one of the best soil conservers that we know of. Its fibrous root system, especially when left for two or three years, does wonders in penetrating the soil and breaking it down so that it will be in better condition. The roots also add organic matter to the soil.

There is still a need for seed of many of the native grasses such as: bluebonnet, indiana grass, little bluestem, prairie brome, grass, switchgrass, Indian grass, sand lovegrass, weeping lovegrass, and many of the other native and introduced grasses. These seeds are scarce and anyone planning to plant them this spring should be making arrangements for their planting seed. All of these grasses are high producers under irrigation in this district. They need extra care the first year in getting them established and keeping the weeds out. After the first year if a good stand is acquired, the grasses need very little weed control other than normal cultivation.

Now is also a pretty good time to be selecting seed for re-seeding rangeland and for those who are going to seed grass on conservation reserve land this year.

In planting grass under a "dryland" condition, a different situation exists than does where irrigation water is available. By not knowing just what the rainfall will be each month there is no way of knowing just what the moisture conditions will be throughout the growing season. Also when the top part of the soil gets dry and the winds are high, then the little grass seedlings are very easily buried out by blowing wind. For these reasons, the chances are much better for getting a stand of grass when it is seeded into a good seed litter.

By planting the later crop such as sudan, foreign sorghums, or milo, the summer before grass is planted, a dead cover is provided that helps protect the young grass seedling the next spring. The cover also helps to hold the moisture closer to the top of the soil and also cuts down on evaporation, thus preventing rapid drying and stranding.

According to experimental results and research, the most effective cover for grass seeding is obtained by putting it in close rows. Even better cover is obtained when it is drilled in. Close growing cover doesn't have to get too tall to provide good protection and if it is seeded in fairly clean land it helps to keep down weed growth by getting ahead of the weeds and shading them out and competing with them for moisture. Experience indicates that in this district, about the most favorable time to plant this cover is in July. Then, the grass can be drilled in the following spring.

In selecting the kind of grass to be planted in this dryland, thought should be given to the type of soil, and make the selection, as near as possible, of the grass that is best adapted to that particular soil. An easy way to do this is to observe a native pasture that is in pretty good condition and compare the type of soil with that to be seeded. On the sandy type soil, such grasses as sand bluestem, giant drooping little bluestem, indiana grass and sand lovegrass make up the most commonly found combinations while on the mixed and tight soils are found shorter grasses such as the blue grass along with sidrocks, little bluestem and some of the other mid-growing grasses. These grasses are growing because through a period of years they were the ones that withstood the erratic weather conditions and survived the changes of nature. They proved themselves as the types of grasses to be the best adapted to our climatic conditions and to the particular type of soil on which Fertilizer prices have advanced only 15 per cent since 1935, while the prices of other items farmers buy have advanced 125 per cent. representatives of International Minerals and Chemical Corporation report.

From a dollar and cents angle, they point out, fertilizer is a better buy today than ever before.

And, a dollar invested in fertilizer may return the farmer from $3 to $7 in added production, they point out.

Too much emphasis is placed on "best-price" bulk buying rather than "best-per-ton" of plant nutrients and the profits derived from them, they advise.

Jack Baker, at Baker Feed, Seed and Fertilizer, Morton, and representatives for Rainbow, urge area farmers to come by and see what Rainbow plant food can do for them on a basis of practical costs.

GOOD FOR LAWN One way to growing a good lawn is employing Rainbow plant food, Jack Baker of Baker Feed, Seed and Fertilizer advises.

FEED YOUR VEGETABLES In growing a garden, correct fertilizer is as important as water and Baker Feed, Seed and Fertilizer is the place to find the Rainbow plant food necessary for a good garden.

One "Bite" of the "Bigger-Digger" Supplies Enough Phosphate to Fertilize 100 Acres of Farm Land

Phosphate is mined from vast surface marine deposits in Florida with the mammoth piece of equipment shown above. As one of the major ingredients in commercial fertilizers, phosphorus is an important plant food because it stimulates root growth and aids the reproductive processes of plants—formation of grain and fruit. After phosphorus ores are mined, concentrated and ground, they are usually treated with acid to make super or triple phosphate materials for greater concentration of P₂O₅ and greater solubility. Then these phosphates are incorporated into the commercial fertilizers you buy. The "Bigger-Digger" pictured, is the largest dragline scoop in the United States, and was built for International Minerals & Chemical Corporation for its large-scale phosphate mining operation near Bartow, Florida.

This compared to a yield of 633 pounds on a check plot. My increase netted me $54.85 an acre. I got more well matured, five-lock cotton bolls, too."

Other Southwestern farmers have discovered that the 82% nitrogen in top quality Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia helps them to get more profit per acre, through higher yields and lower production costs.

They have found that, by using Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia, they get more cotton that grades out higher at the gin; yields of sorghum grain and ensilage are increased; more marketable vegetables are harvested, and profits on wheat are increased through better forage, and higher yields of grain.

Defendants, each of whose identity and residence are unknown other than claimants American Cancer Society, Inc., a New York corporation, and American Cancer Society, Texas Division, Inc., a Texas corporation, who have been joined as defendants in such suit for personal service.

GREETING: You and each of you are hereby commanded to appear by filing a written answer to plaintiff's petition before the Second 38th Judicial District Court of Kendall County, Texas, in the Courtroom in the City of Boerne, Kendall County, Texas, at or before ten o'clock a. m. on the Monday next following the expiration of 42 days from the date of issuance of this citation, said Monday being the 17th day of March, 1958, and then and there to answer the original petition of Dolores Mooers, a widow, as plaintiff, filed in said court on the 30th day of January, 1958, against H. B. Fuqua as Independent Executor under a purported will of Clifford Mooers, deceased, and in which suit the other named defendants are those persons first named in this writ and to whom it is above directed, and other defendants to be cited personally are:

American Cancer Society, Inc., a New York corporation, and American Cancer Society, Texas Division, Inc., a Texas corporation, and Betty Nuss, Chester Green, R. J. Kelly, Mrs. Gladys Van Pelt, Genevieve Conroy, Ralph Dahlstrom, Swen Lundahl, Russell Baughman, Charley McClaskey, Allen H. Ellingson, Paul S. Oles, and Mrs. A. G. Koenig, as executrix under the will of A. G. Koenig, deceased, and the said Mrs. A. G. Koenig, a widow, and Elizabeth Koenig, a feme sole, as the only heirs of A. G. Koenig, deceased; John T. Claybourne, Frank Demus, Mrs. C. W. Farley (and husband, C. W. Farley), Tom Walters, Leonard Ward, Bruno Brandt, W. B. Davis, and John W. Clark, individually and as constituting and representative of that class of five-year employees given cash legacies of $500.00 each under the terms of such purported will of such decedent.

Said suit styled "Dolores Mooers, A Widow, v. H. B. Fuqua, Independent Executor, et al.," being numbered 1525 on the docket of such court and a brief statement of the nature of the suit being as follows:

Plaintiff seeking equitable review asks to set aside a settlement made with her husband, Clifford Mooers, dated May 1, 1956, and this Court's decree of approval entered the next day in cause No. 1464, styled "Ex Parte: Clifford Mooers and Wife, Dolores Mooers," recorded in the minutes, Vol. 6, p. 636, and asks an accounting and for a declaration fixing the identity of the residuary devisee under a purported will of such husband as admitted to probate December 10, 1956, in which suit it is claimed that plaintiff as the wife of such decedent for 27 years before his death was induced to consent to such property settlement and decree by the fraud of her husband and his agents, consisting of false representations and concealment of material facts as to the nature, extent and value of the community property and of the plaintiff's true interest therein at such time, and because of further false promises to bequeath and on account of mistake induced by fraud of her said husband and coercion; and it is claimed that a fraud was also practiced by such decedent on this Court, and that the proceedings did not comply with Article 2624a.

It is further claimed in such suit that all or substantially all property in decedent's name at the time of such settlement and at the time of his death was community property, and that had the wife received those properties awarded to her in such settlement, such were greatly less than her share at such time, and such contract was grossly unjust and disadvantageous to her, but that there was further material fraud and deceit practiced on her as to those properties which it was recited she was to receive under such settlement because of failure of title and of consideration in material part and inability to deliver and failure to deliver personal property of the kind and value which it was represented such wife should receive.

Plaintiff offers to do equity and makes a continuing tender to restore that which she has received and asserts that due to her situation, inexperience, ignorance and deception she could not sooner have discovered such fraud and brought this action.

It is further claimed that since such husband's death the defendant H. B. Fuqua, acting as Independent Executor under the purported will of such husband, has come into possession of but has not distributed all of those properties which the husband wrongfully took under such settlement and decree and in which plaintiff had a continuing equitable ownership and interest, and that the other defendants are claiming to own or have some interest in such properties and estate as the respective cash legatees and residuary devisee under such purported will, and that among such properties are lands and interests in lands within the State of Texas including those described, listed and identified in such petition, including the following:

Morton Won Second District Battle with Farwell; Girls Romped to Easy Victory

(This game story held up from the paper last week because of lack of space. The game was played at Morton just before the Sudan game won by Sudan and reported last week.)

Morton's hot - shooting Indians turned in another 400 team shooting performance Friday night to win their 5th District 3-A game, their 17th game of the season, and to pull within one win of clinching one-half of the District 3-A title.

One quarter of the game was a display of terrific competition. The Indians caged 9 of 21 shots in the first quarter for 19 points while visiting Farwell was dropping a sizzling 8 of 12 for 17.

But thereafter the Indians broke the game wide open as the Steers just couldn't keep pace. The Morton first hit five of eight for 10 points in the first quarter and in the second quarter to pull out to a 33 to 21 advantage and won going away, 64 to 45.

Ed Gattis poured in 20 points to lead Morton's surge and Clayton Planagan added 15. Brownlow, 12. Johnny Lovelace had 15 points for the losers but after a hot 1st quarter he never found his basket eye again. He hit 4 of 5 shots in the first quarter for 8 points but was actually second best. Morton's Clyde Brownlow better than a practice first, hit five of eight for 10 points in the first quarter and in the ensuing three quarters got only two points more.

The Morton girls ran up a whopping 78 to 38 score on Farwell to maintain their hopes for a second place in the conference.

INDIANS STOP SUDAN IN DIST. PLAYOFF TILT, 39-36

The round robin playoff at went in with a big enough lead and... Friday night, the Morton, managed to stave off a Dan Wood... experienced another case rally and beat Sudan, 39 to 36.

apparently in the bag for Morton as early as the end of the first half as the Indians opened up a 21-14 lead. They entered the final eight minute canto with a 33 to 20 lead and Dan Wood had tallied only 9 points for Sudan, five on free tosses. Despite Woods efforts the Indians rolled into the final minute and 24 seconds of play with a 39 to 27 lead. Then Wood began his personal harassment as the Hornets began a full court press that produced seven Indian errors. The redoubtable Mr. Wood hit six gift tosses and a free throw in that final 1:44 of play.

Team shooting was the big factor in the win. Morton caging 15 field goals in 46 shots while Sudan was only able to bucket 10 of 45 tries. Gattis' 13 points and Brownlow's 10 paced Morton while Wood had 22 for high honors. Mackey Ballard of Sudan, their next highest scorer got only five points, and he was outscored by all of Morton's regulars except Clayton Flanagan.

Bula's girls, again a real powerhouse, tied with Whitharral for the District title and then walloped the Pantherettes in the playoff.

Whitharral and Bledsoe followed the Bula girls in the final standings and Three Way and Bula were second and third in the boy's competition. The Pep Buffaloes, coached by Bobby J. FFA Week Will Be Observed Future Farmers of America members throughout the nation are scheduling special activities to focus public attention on the work of their organization during National FFA Week, February 22 - March 1.

Locally, members of the Whiteface FFA Chapter plan to hold their father and son banquet on Thursday night (tonight), February 20th. The following committees will make arrangements for the banquet: Foods - Nathan Moore, Gaylon Baldwin and Duane Cookston; Program - Charles Lyons, Wayland McClellan and James Ashmore; Invitation - Neil Allen, Frank Henderson, and Terry Tubbs; Reception - Bobby Neal, Neil Allen and Bob Garrett.

Membership of the FFA is made up of farm boys who are students of vocational agriculture in high school. The organization's activities are designed primarily to help develop rural leadership and good citizenship, and to stimulate the boys to better achievement in their study and work toward successful establishment in farming.

The Whiteface FFA chapter has 40 members. Officers are: President Lewis Sims; Vice - President Jimmy Collins; Sentinel Neil Allen; Reporter Ed Whitehorn; Treasurer Nathan Moore; Secretary James Ashmore; and J. M. Carroll, vocational agriculture instructor in Whiteface High School serves as advisor of the FFA chapter.

The national Future Farmer organization has 380,000 members, with 9,500 local chapters in the 48 states, Hawaii and Puerto Rico. In Texas, membership totals 36,000.

Future Farmers choose the week of George Washington's Birthday each year for the observance of National FFA Week. Although usually recognized as a Revolutionary War General and our first President, Washington's first love was the farm he called Mount Vernon. There he was one of the first in the nation to practice contour planting, crop rotation, fertilization and other soil conservation & improvement methods. It was more than a century after the death of Washington before general use was made of many of the sound agricultural practices that he advocated.
