County Cotton Sub - Committee Discusses Various Cotton Problems

By Homer E. Thompson

On June 11 the Cochran County Cotton Sub Committee met with Tim Timmer, Extension Economist of College Station, Texas. This cotton committee is part of the county program building committee.

Mr. J. R. Kuykendall is chairman of the program building committee and he met with the cotton sub-committee.

Cliff Harvey, Pete Todd, T. K. Williamson, Gene Thompson, Merlin Roberts and the County Extension Agents.

Quality production was discussed as to items listed in last week's news story in the Tribune. The present cotton program on marketing and loans were given much attention. Dr. Timm brought up to date facts on the government buying program and possible new proposed program on marketing, acreage & handling the surplus cotton. He said "Don't count on any great changes under the present system."

Combined group action is likely necessary by all segments of cotton industry to get any great changes made.

There was a great deal of commotion about the shift of buying cotton in loan over the 1957 cotton being harvested last fall in regard to quality. It will require some good sound thinking, solid effort, and cooperation of all to suggest a sound program of acceptance.

Labor came in for a big portion of discussion by the sub committee. "A plan was suggested that all local people on relief be carefully screened to prevent unemployed

Anhydrous Ammonia Report Shows Considerable Increase In Crops

And here is what anhydrous ammonia can do for crops on the South Plains of Texas.

Recall that in the June 19 publication of the Morton Tribune you read a story concerning an experiment that J. W. McDermitt was making with barley on his farm just north of Morton.

Last fall McDermitt applied cotton burs to the acreage. Later he added Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia, the 82 per cent nitrogen fertilizer, to all but a small strip of land through the center of the acreage.

Then in February he seeded the land to barley.

Just prior to harvesting, a glance at the barley area showed that the anhydrous ammonia treated areas had produced stalks about twice the size of the non-treated areas.

And now for the bushels per acre — the non-treated acres yielded 1,140 pounds per acre as against 2,040 pounds per acre for the anhydrous ammonia treated area.

And that is the story of what anhydrous ammonia can do for barley here in Cochran County.

Scotch Tournery Set For Country Club On 4th of July

Safe Driving Urged over Holiday

Cochran County law enforcement officers will join with officers throughout the state, this "long" weekend, in an attempt to halt, or at least hold down the number of traffic deaths over the Independence Week holiday.

Sheriff Hazel Hancock said that motorists who are obeying the traffic laws in and around Morton will not have anything to worry about. But, he emphasized, he will instruct all available deputies and officers — men who usually, in his words, "are rather lenient in the writing of tickets," to write out a ticket to every traffic violator. He said the only way known to cut down on the amount of traffic accidents is to get rough with the habitual offenders.

Sheriff Hancock also dropped a hint that drunk drivers will come in for extra rough treatment in the fields, if the recommendations of officers have anything to do with it. He said, in these days when the roads are jammed with traffic, a drunken driver is proportionately more dangerous.

Governor Price Daniels, in a message radio broadcast around the state this week, had the following message for Texans:

"My fellow Texans: We are about to celebrate another July 4th, one of our nation's most significant holidays. Will we celebrate July 4th this year with death and destruction on our streets and highways, or by preserving and saving human lives? In a recent year when we had a three-day holiday period, 33 were killed on our streets and highways in traffic accidents. The Department of Public Safety predicts 28 this year. I urge all law enforcement officers and citizens of this state to join hands in reducing this figure. Slow down and live. Obey all traffic laws, drive carefully, and let's celebrate by saving human lives instead of destroying our fellow men.

Ministers Ask for Safe Driving

Ministers representing Cochran County join in urging people of this area to be cautious while driving during the July 4 holidays.

"Lives are more precious than celebrations," they stated. "We pray and trust that people of this area will drive with exceeding caution during these holidays."

The announcement was made after a regularly scheduled meeting of the ministers, July 1 at the First Baptist Church of Morton. Rev. Houston Walker, pastor of the church, delivered the devotional, and Rev. H. T. Clarke, chairman, and pastor of Morton's First Assembly of God Church, presided over the meeting.

The First Methodist Church of Whiteface will host the group at their next meeting slated for Sept. 2.

MRS. CLYDE HOWELL SURVIVES BOLT OF LIGHTENING

A severe electrical storm, which ushered in a heavy rain and some early night heavy winds Tuesday, almost brought tragedy to Cochran County when an area woman was felled by lightning in her home west of Morton.

Mrs. Clyde Howell, who was struck by lightning Tuesday in her home, was reported in improved condition in the Cochran County Hospital and expected to go home either late Wednesday or today.

Mrs. Howell was washing dishes at the time the lightning struck in her home one and one-half miles south of the Neely Ward school building.

No one was exactly sure how the lightning felled her but it was thought to have probably followed wires into the house.

Rainfall reports after the Tuesday night storm ranged from two and one-half inches in the Stegall area to none at all at Bledsoe.

R. H. McCasland of Bailey County Electric Cooperative turned in the only hail report received at the Tribune. He said a little, but not much to speak of, fell near the New Mexico state line.

Power lines were down at Bledsoe, Maple, Bula, between Morton and Lehman, and east of Morton.

One storekeeper at Maple reported being out of power all night. John L. McGee reported 1.3 inches of rain on his rye patch north of Morton; Glenn Thompson, who farms northwest, reported one and one-half inches; and Dean Jackson reported one and one tenth inches north of the airport.

Jackson had one of the few reports of damage. He said lightning struck and killed one cow and a registered black Angus male on his farm.

Reports of rainfall to the south were a little heavier. Jug Hill guessed he got two inches and Kenneth Watts, six miles to the southwest, reported two inches also. One and one-half inches of rain fell in Lehman, and one inch was recorded south of there. The Clayton Stokes farm had an inch.

LeRoy Johnson and Bill Daniels, who both farm west of town, reported one and one-half in each. C. B. Evans, Jr., gaged one half inch on his place west of the Famuliner community. George Burkett reported three and one-half of Star Route.

Three-fourths of an inch was reported at Bula and one and one-half inch west of Whiteface.

The official rainfall in Morton was 1.7 according to the Soil Conservation Service. At least two local gauges showed barely over two inches.

Friday night rains cut across a western edge of the county, including Maple. Friday night reports included: E. C. Wynn, 8; Bill Wood, 7; Hadley Kern, 5; and another half inch report at the Bledsoe grain elevator — all west of Morton.

Wynn said he had received from three and one-half to four and one-half inches since Thursday, of two weeks ago, up to this last rain. No report was received from him on Tuesday night's rainfall.

The storm was mostly local as far as Cochran County was concerned but deposited enough water that the few farmers who had thought of beginning to irrigate the cotton crop, will probably not do any watering for at least three weeks.

Rush Trip Made On Errand of Mercy

Notwithstanding the fact that the red light is blazing, some folks find it hard to believe that a patrol car is on an important errand when they see one whizzing down the highway.

Such a case — an errand of mercy — was the cause of Slick Nichols, Bledsoe deputy sheriff, making an hour and five minute trip to Lubbock and back Wednesday.

Nichols, who said he passed a lot of folks on the road, several of them from Morton, was going to a Lubbock Hospital to pick up some needed medicine for emergency treatment of Dennis Zuber.

Nichols said he especially was a target of suspicious glances from a group of local boys whom he passed near Smyer on his way over and whom he passed again just outside of Morton on the return trip.

The medicine was for 3 year old Dennis Zuber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Zuber who lapsed into convulsions during surgery. The lad was in a resuscitator at midnight showing some signs of improvement but his condition was listed as undetermined. Four special trips were made for the medicine. The doctors were uncertain as to whether the boys sudden reaction was due to an allergy to the medicine he received earlier or due to shock. They were hoping to be able to determine his condition by 6 a. m. this morning.

BY LOIS COURTNEY

The Southwestern Public Service Company sponsored an electric camp for 4-H boys and girls, June 25, 26, and 27. Attending were 14 couples with 27 representatives from each. Those attending from Cochran County were Mr. Homer Thompson, Dickie Walker, Bob Nieman, Lester Dupler, Mrs. C. R. Melton and Lois Courtney.

At six o'clock, of all times, we arose and ate breakfast Friday morning. At seven fifteen we began our trip to Plant X near Earth, via Greyhound Bus Service.

When we reached Plant X our guide showed us all over the plant - that is all we could cover in an hour and fifteen minutes. We saw a television picture of the fire in the boiler and the water level. We examined the generators, boilers, turbines, water softeners, compressors and many other things. We had a wonderful time there.

After returning to camp, we ate lunch and left for home.

BACK FROM VACATION
Mr. and Mrs. Hag Rogers of Morton and daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Gregg and three children of Clovis, N. M., recently returned from a vacation in California and other Western states.

We registered at camp Wednesday and were divided into four groups. After a hearty lunch, at the mess hall, we enjoyed going downtown to the "ready room" and seeing demonstrations on mixers, sewing machines, vacuum cleaners, and submersible pumps.

We then went to the Chicken Shack and enjoyed a good meal. Afterwards we went to the Plains Co-operative Warehouse by way of Greyhound Bus. We enjoyed square dancing till eleven, when we returned to camp, with cold hands, and stepped-on feet.

We enjoyed swimming on Wednesday and skating on Thursday, besides other things such as talking till midnight.

Thursday morning we learned how parallel and series connections worked. We also made either a trouble light, well lamp, or pig brooder. And guess what? They all worked. Thursday evening we had a lesson on the danger of electrocution, artificial respiration, and proper lighting for the home.

We again enjoyed square dancing and games at the tennis court on Thursday night. We enjoyed coles served by the Southwestern Public Service Company after the party.

Elect Judge Sarah T. HUGHES To Supreme Court

IN CONGRESS, JULY 4, 1776

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America.

When in the Course of human events, a people have become united by the same ties, and have adopted a Constitution, the first object of the Declaration is to declare the reasons which have compelled them to do so. We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. — That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, — That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to promote their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, in the superstitious reverence for the Constitutions of former ages, would forbid the alteration of them. But a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object, evinces a design to reduce us to absolute Tyranny, — that it is necessary to declare the Causes which impel us to separate from them, and to assume among the people of the United States, the name and character of a free and independent Nation. — That the Declaration of Independence, which we have adopted, is the only one which has ever been made by a people, and which has ever been acknowledged by the world. — That the Declaration of Independence, which we have adopted, is the only one which has ever been made by a people, and which has ever been acknowledged by the world.

erected upon the plains or of... We do propose that space... shall now become the route of... travel... and total... we have dedicated... in the task of... the... of the... our... the... of space.

Some say we now stand at the edge of the battleground for Armageddon. Others believe we are poised before the plains of the millennium. In either case, we have no national option but to marshal our resources, order our course, and proceed beyond the shelter and sanctuary of Earth's atmosphere into the realm of the limitless unknown.

To proceed prudently — as proceeded by John H. Poynter is a proper companion for this national journey. As a nation, we are motivated not by fear, but rather, by a confidence that a extension of our capacity into the realms of space will some day bring release from fear — for ourselves and all mankind.

We are moved by no thought of aggrandizement. We have no intention of planting flags of Texas by as much as 300 per cent. As a result, Texas can no longer be regarded as an agricultural dumping ground for inferior products from other areas.

The 33-year-old commissioner, who is seeking re-election to the top farm job in Texas, added that "ten years ago we were a convenient 'garbage pail' for the nation. Today, we can put most trust in our own production and know that farm goods shipped into the state must meet certain quality standards."

Commissioner White called the re-organization of the department as a major factor in increasing and increasing in services. It marked the first big overhaul in its previous 47-year history and helped put many programs on a self-supporting basis.

"Our goal during my past seven years in office has been to increase state services without making constant demands for new tax money," White stated. The clean-up of the state grain scandals, better seed laws, more effective insect controls and establishment of a market news service are just a part of the accomplishments under this system, he added.

White is actively campaigning to continue the programs he inaugurated after taking office in 1951. He defeated two opponents without the necessity of a runoff in 1952 and 1956 and was re-elected in 1954.

Borned and raised on tenant farms in North Texas, White said that "the challenge today is for even greater progress in our most vital industry — agriculture. It calls for devoted and experienced leadership in the future."

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"
 BY C. WILSON HARDY

For some time, the nation's independent businessmen, voting through the National Federation of Independent Business, have been in record favoring both cabinet rank for a small business representative, as well as making a permanent independence of the U. S. government.

Arguments advanced against these proposals have always been more or less along the line that the Commerce Department, for years has been quite shrewd in its neglect of the small, independent entrepreneur's needs.

Probably no better proof of this need is to be found than in the effect the current recession has had on small business. Actually, over a year ago, the Senate Small Business Committee, headed by Sen. John Sparkman, in a special study, predicted that in less than two decades, provided the trend of small business failures, and big company expansions continued, small business would be a thing of the past in this nation.

Not a small part of the high rate of small business failures in 1953 is due to about 16,000 persons, equal to roughly 10 per cent of the U. S. population, who are extremely unproductive tax policies in regard to small business.

Back in ancient Egypt, a young man by the name of Joseph made a pretty good name for himself by getting the then Egyptian government to squirrel away during good years some reserves to meet the lean years.

In 1938 and before that, in 1932, both major political parties pledged in their platforms to so revise the tax laws to permit small business to live again next year for many days. If these promises had been fulfilled in either of these times, it is quite probable that not only would small business be in a healthier shape today, but would also be taking up the unemployment slack created by a few huge corporations living workers.

As Rep. Wright Patman has often pointed out, the bulk of the employment in this country is provided by some 1,000,000 bona fide independent businesses.

Building a few new post offices, a few new dams, is no substitute for employment provided by an expanding independent free economy.

For example, the new money now sought for foreign governments is equal to the requirements of some 81,000 good independent retail outlets. Dollars that can furnish employment to over 750,000 people. Or it is a sum equal to some 8,000 good, moderately equipped regional independent bakeries and manufacturing plants, capable of furnishing jobs to over a million and a half people.

Thus, then, approximately 500 billion in taxes wadded up by the many different foreign give away programs, have sapd the vigor of an entire generation of independent business.

It is small wonder, then, that the nation's independent businessmen, according to the evidence in the files of the National Federation of Independent Business place their reliance on the Dept. of Commerce.

Star and Stripes

THE FLAG OF THE REPUBLIC OF LIBERIA, which is similar to ours except for having only one star, is becoming a common sight in the waters of the World. The small African country founded by freed slaves from the United States in 1820, now has one of the largest merchant marines in the world. Under U. S. Government encouragement, American shipowners and investors, together with shipping men from other small nations friendly to the United States, are responsible for this development, which has taken place in a mere ten years. The great new fleet includes some of the most modern and efficient vessels in the world, such as the famous Niarchos ship, WORLD BEAUTY.

Many of these ships serve America's foreign trade, bringing oil and iron ore from rich overseas deposits, to help conserve our dwindling supply of these vital resources. Others carry surplus grain to famine areas in Asia and help in the economic development of Western Europe. In time of war, this great new fleet would support our Armed Forces, which would require vastly more tonnage than can be supplied by the American flag merchant marine.

All Liberian ships are required to comply with the International Convention of Safety of Life At Sea (SOLAS) and are manned by highly trained officers and crews. The living standards, wages and union agreements, which Liberian ships have introduced to many ocean trade routes, have meant the dawn of a new day for seamen after thousands of years of the traditional life before the mast.

Peach Pie For a Picnic

"P" IS FOR PICNIC—and for "Peach Pie," too. There was a time when carrying a pie to a picnic presented difficulties, but nowadays there are so many ingeniously designed picnic baskets and containers that almost any food you serve at home can be brought along, undamaged, in car or boat.

Because easy-to-use quick-cooking tapioca is the thickener in this pie, the filling has exactly the right consistency, the juice is clear and sparkling, the taste of fresh peaches is unaffected by any other flavor. So for a perfect picnic treat we recommend:

FRESH PEACH PIE

2 1/2 to 3 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca
 1/2 to 1 cup sugar
 1/4 teaspoon salt

4 cups sliced fresh peaches
 1 tablespoon lemon juice
 Pastry for two-crust 9-inch pie
 1 tablespoon butter

Combine quick-cooking tapioca, sugar, salt, peaches, and lemon juice. Roll half the pastry 1/4 inch thick. Line a 9-inch pie pan and trim pastry at edge of rim. Roll remaining pastry 1/4 inch thick and cut several 1-inch slits or a fancy design near center. Fill pie shell with peach mixture. Dot with butter. Moisten edge of bottom crust. To adjust top crust, fold pastry in half or roll loosely on rolling pin; center on filling. Open slits with a knife. (Well-opened slits are important to permit escape of steam during baking.) Trim top crust, allowing it to extend 1/2 inch over rim. To seal, press top and bottom crusts together on rim. Then fold edge of top crust under bottom crust and flute. Bake in hot oven (425° F.) 35 minutes, or until syrup boils with heavy bubbles that do not burst.

Of course not! Yet the minutes you save by speeding could mean this baby's life... or yours! Nearly 40,000 died in traffic accidents last year, with speeding a factor in 3 out of 10 fatal crashes! So think how many lives just minutes can save... and slow down!

Help stop senseless killing on our highways. Drive safely yourself. Insist on strict law enforcement for your own protection. Work actively with others to support your local Safety Council. Remember—where traffic laws are strictly enforced, deaths go down.

Softball League

Morton knocking off Maple Levelland downing Pettit in a series of four games last Friday and Maple having edged by a 2 to 1 score, the previous night's play, the Morton City league was having its closing competition in many years.

At the end of three weeks of play the local league, four of the five teams were not in the running for the first place.

Ranked in first place are the Maple and Levelland entries, having won three of their four games played to date. Levelland beat Muleshoe for the first time in their first round of play. Maple was the only team to beat Levelland.

Maple lost to Muleshoe and Morton after beating Levelland and Pettit.

Pettit, the new entry, with four losses in four games, was the only entry yet to win.

The league, playing intermittently on Tuesdays and Fridays, will be playing full time in a couple of weeks after the Babe Ruth season ends.

Heavy winds last week blew down a section of the recently erected Babe Ruth League - Softball Field fence.

Rains Tuesday night forced the postponement of the two games on schedule — the first postponement of softball games reported yet this season.

League representatives will get together sometime next week to map out plans for the coming annual softball tournament to be hosted in Morton. The exact dates have not been set.

URGENT NEW INCOME TAX REVENUES ARE NOTED

1) Sale of wheat under contract in previous or a later taxable year. Wheat can be sold and delivered to the buyer in one year with the proceeds received as taxable income. This type of sale will be of immediate interest to farmers, speculators and others interested in the trade.

While the specific case discussed in the ruling concerned the sale of wheat, the interpretation undoubtedly will apply in the same manner to any commodity.

The key requirement of such a sale is that the seller must have no legal right to demand and receive payment until the year following the sale. Here is the gist of the ruling: See-ruling No. 58-162.

The proceeds from the sale of wheat by a farmer using the cash receipts and disbursements method of accounting, under a bona fide arms length contract calling for payment in the taxable year following that in which the wheat was delivered to the purchaser, are included in his gross income for the taxable year in which payment is received.

Personal exemptions cannot be carried forward or backward. Hence, unused exemptions are forever lost. It is good management, therefore, for farmers in high risk areas, whose incomes ebb and flow, to strive to level out year to year incomes.

DEDUCTIBLE EXPENSES FOR EDUCATION

Educational expenditures by a taxpayer for his education are deductible expenses provided the education is undertaken primarily for the purpose of (1) Maintaining or improving skills required by the taxpayer in his employment, trade, business, (2) Meeting the expressed requirements of a taxpayer's employer, which are imposed as a condition to the retention by the taxpayer of his salary, status or employment.

Expenditures are not deductible if they are for education undertaken primarily for the purpose of obtaining a new position.

Expenses for travel away from home primarily to obtain education is an educational expenditure. This includes transportation, meals, and lodging.

Remember expenses are not deductible to obtain a BS degree, but expenses would be deductible if the degree is obtained to improve himself in that phase of education.

COTTON SEED MEAL FOR USE IN SWINE RATIONS

Cotton seed meal can now be used safely in swine rations. This was not true a few years ago. New methods are now available for processing cottonseed meal and evaluating this high protein quality.

When the complete ration for hogs contains not more than 41 per cent free gossypol, the pigs will make good gains. The bulletin states that cottonseed meal containing no more than .04 per cent or less free gossypol are safe for swine feeding. Since cottonseed meal is rich in protein and being widely available at all times its important to know about its use in hog rations.

SOME POINTS TO CONSIDER IN TRACTOR SAFETY

To drive your tractor on the highway you will need to be extra careful because the normal 5 to 15 miles per hour of the tractor is almost the standing still on the highway to fast automobile traffic. Remember that one person out of 20 was killed in a tractor accident, but 12 persons out of 20 killed in fatal car - tractor accidents, were on the tractor.

INSECTS

Forty - nine fields of cotton were checked at random for insects in Cochran County by the County Agent during June. Several of these fields were checked while visiting the farmer in doing planning work or discussing extension farming methods.

1) Keep brakes equalized and tight enough to make short stops. 2) Be familiar with the machine you are operating and don't carry passengers on the tractor.

FERTILIZERS

Four farmers are conducting cotton fertilizer demonstrations using 2 check plots and two or more quantities of fertilizer application. They are C. A. Moore, W. L. Foust, J. W. McDermott and J. D. Hawthorne. The fields are designated and it is hoped that each will harvest each such plot separately where separate amounts of fertilizer was applied. This is necessary in order to get the true picture. This should give a good indication of how much fertilizer to use next year or if fertilizer pays. The lint increase is being counted and the results can be determined best by harvesting and ginning separately the various plots of crops.

Crop demonstration signs are being made up to be posted near these cotton fields, so the neighboring farmers may know where these fertilizer tests are and can observe cotton growth throughout the summer.

merous enough to be lightly infected. If fleahoppers this time of year get about 15 or more per hundred terminal buds, then control measures should be taken. Cotton aphid or lice are showing up in a few fields, but so are the beneficial insects - Lady bugs & Hooded beetles are getting fairly numerous along with the Scorpion and Lace Wing flies which will likely help a lot to reduce the harmful insect damage. Keep on the lookout, advises the agent.

From Austin — Highlights and Sidelights . . .

AUSTIN—First drought, then floods and now an old enemy, grasshoppers have come to plague disaster-weary Texas farmers.

After touring the affected areas in the Panhandle, Gov. Price Daniel called it the worst grasshopper infestation in 20 years. Unless checked, he said, the "hoppers" could destroy much of the crops and pasturage in 20 counties.

COX APPEAL DENIED—Ex-Rep. James E. Cox of Conroe has lost another round in his fight against a two-year prison sentence.

JUDGE'S OPPONENT OUT—One election contest has already been settled, some six weeks before election day.

Texas Supreme Court ruled Dist. Judge Graham Purcell of Wichita Falls not eligible to run for the Court of Criminal Appeals against Judge K. K. Woodley. Reason: Judge Purcell has had only nine years experience as a lawyer and judge. In 1945 the Constitution was amended to require 10 years experience for Supreme Court judges. LIKE A JURY—Defending State Board of Health's daylong meetings, Comm. Henry Holle said: "The Board is like a jury. You get the verdict, but you can't in on their comments." State Health Board has authority to allocate federal funds under the Hill-Burton Act to help local funds for hospital building. Its policy has been to announce names of hospitals to be rejected or why.

Blakely, Candidate For U. S. Senator

The story of Bill Blakely is the story of Texas!

He was born 59 years ago while his parents were crossing the plains of Missouri on their way to homestead a quarter-section of land in Oklahoma territory.

"During his boyhood in the Arkansas country he 'worked out' and by the time he was fourteen, was earning a cowhand's wages.

This rugged existence instilled in young Bill a determination to educate himself—to have a career. On graduating from high school, he enlisted in the Army during World War I.

After the war, he came to Texas and began earnestly to learn from "the books." He used the knowledge he acquired to become a certified public accountant and a lawyer—self-taught and self-made.

Bill Blakely's success in many fields—accounting, law, farming, ranching and business—never caused him to forget his humble beginning or to lose his love for the saddle. The great out-of-doors still beckons him. During the spring and fall roundup at his "rocker b" ranch west of San Antonio, he can nearly always be found putting in a full day's work with his cowhands.

Bill Blakely has never sought to attract public attention or acclaim. He has always worked quietly and unassumingly in behalf of worthwhile projects whose purpose is to improve the mental, spiritual and physical health of humanity.

These projects have included organizations dedicated to medical, agricultural and educational research.

He is married to his school sweetheart, whom he refers to as "My Bill."

Bill Blakely has been a Democrat all his life. Last year, when his vote spelled the difference between Democrat and Republican control of the U. S. Senate, he upheld the Democrat leadership and prevented a Republican majority from taking over.

The unanimous approval of his appointment by Democratic leaders in Texas and Washington and the widespread acclaim of his conduct in the Senate made him one of the most widely discussed personalities in Texas today.

In public speeches in various sections of Texas, Blakely has declared his belief in a strong constitutional government, founded upon state sovereignty and separation of powers in the national government.

He believes that a return to our traditional concepts of government is essential if individual freedoms are to be maintained, preserved and passed on.

"I am more than willing to accept any arrangement which a majority of the people and the states of the United States may desire—if they understand the impact on their freedom and if it is adopted by a constitutional method," he said in a recent speech.
