Phone Service Grips Are Voiced To General Telephone Manager

A group of dissatisfied citizens, upset over alleged "poor service" by the General Telephone Company of the Southwest, met with area manager Paul Farrar, Saturday morning, in the County Courthouse at about 11:30 a.m. and registered their complaints.

The group emphasized that their gripes were not on account of the three day period of no out-of-town telephone service last week due to heavy storms just outside of Levelland.

Farrar explained that the lines were put up two times last week after storms in Hockley County, and each time it blew down again. He said a mile of line with about 18 broken poles caused the damage.

Members of the group complained about troubles getting the long distance operator during normal times and asked if General Telephone Company had enough operators on hand to take care of the business.

Specific complaints were registered and Farrar took notes and promised Mayor Roy Tarver, Jr., he would check into the matter & report back to him in two or three weeks.

Some of the specific complaints were the fact that it often takes a long time to get the operator; the fact that she is so busy she can't handle their traffic; the fact that cutouts are not made promptly after long distance calls are completed; being cut off in the middle of conversations; and the fact that operators don't call back on delayed long distance calls.

The company was praised on the courteousness of the operators.

Among those attending the meeting were James McClure, H. S. Hawkins, Carl Ray, Mrs. Otha Dennis, Durwood McClintock, Dewitt Allsup, Henry Badwell, Hazel Hancock and E. H. Irwin.

COMMITTEE WILL STUDY OTHER COUNTIES' TAXING OF LAND, OIL PROPERTIES

The Cochran County Commissioners' Court, nearing the end of long hours of work in re-evaluating Cochran County property, will take one more step, Friday, toward clarifying what they are doing for the people of the county.

Friday they plan to appoint a 6 or 8 member group of residents to a committee which will make a tour of area counties and county seats and ascertain just how the county's taxing programs are being carried out, and just how oilfield property is being assessed.

The date is drawing near for a hearing with oil company representatives on setting the oil companies' taxes for the next year. The Court hopes to have a group of citizens who can, after studying the taxing methods of other area counties, help in making whatever decisions must be made.

County Judge Glenn Thompson said Wednesday, we want the people of Cochran County to know just what's going on. If we in order to meet our budget for next year, are going to have to tax on 18 per cent, instead of 15 percent, we want the people to know why. If we must battle the oil companies in court, we want the people to know why."

Hail Destroys 500,000 Acres of Plains Cotton

Approximately 500,000 acres of growing cotton were lost to hail, rain, and wind during the past few weeks, it was estimated last Friday at a meeting of state and county ASC officials at Dimmitt.

Attending the meeting from here were Willard Cox, ASC county committee chairman; Roy Hickman, county vice-chairman; and Mrs. John McGee, office manager.

The meeting was called to explain how farmers who have been hailed out may go back to plan "A" in place of plan "B", according to rules and regulations of the ASC.

Loss in sandstorms do not qualify farmers for the program, Hickman said.

Only about 250 acres in Cochran County were hit by hail, and that was in the far northeast corner of the county, Hickman said. The cotton acreage of two or three farmers were involved.

"Thankful," was the term employed to describe the condition in the county.

The meeting, called by the ASC district man, Dale Carter, was also attended by Mr. Hott of the state office; Mr. Osborne, chairman of the state committee; and Allen Webb, state committee member from this district who organized and promoted the meeting.

Roughly, here is the way the loss was reported: Castro County, 40,000 acres lost; Parmer, 22,000 acres lost; Lamb, 32,000 acres lost; Crosby, 60,000 acres lost; Hockley, 80,000 acres lost; Randall, 12,000 acres lost; Bailey, 24,000 acres lost; Floyd, 30,000 acres lost; and Terry, 20,000 acres lost.

The figures include, as nearly as possible, the acres lost and replanted. Hickman said many farmers had replanted as many as three times.

SENATOR ☆☆☆ Yarborough's Report

Because all Texans have a deep interest in our state's schools, we should be greatly concerned by a step in the wrong direction proposed by the Administration in its bill to cut funds to Texas schools in federally impacted areas by some six million dollars for the next year.

Federally impacted areas are localities where the schools are attended by children of people working in nearby defense installations or military bases. This puts a heavier burden on the schools and the federal government help with the current expenses and operating costs under Public Law 874, and also provides funds for school construction under Public Law 815.

The Administration's proposed bill would slash these Federal funds to Texas by more than half. The state is entitled by Public Law 815 to $2,218,000 but the proposed new law would chop that to $790,000 or a cut to Texas, whose schools are already struggling with serious financial difficulties, of $1,427,310. Under PL874 Texas is entitled to $10,778,982, while the Administration's suggested change would knock this down to $5,635,312 or a loss to the state of $5,118,670.

This money for the schools would have to come from the only other available source - higher state and local taxes in Texas.

Large communities and areas with lots of defense installations are not the only ones to receive supplemental aid. There are 257 Texas school districts receiving assistance under PL874 and 153 Texas school districts being helped by PL815.

This help is badly needed. Texas ranks 36th in the Union in the percent of population 25 years or older with at least four years of high school. This in view of the fact that Russia is now turning out about twice as many chemists, physicists, mathematicians and engineers as the United States.

Our schools are in need of repair and replacement and are dangerously overcrowded. And the need for change in this regard was graphically brought home in recent school disasters in old, overcrowded buildings. Yet, in spite of overcrowding, statistics show approximately one of every five school age children is not attending schools, this ranks us 33rd in the nation in percentage of enrollment.

Texas and this nation cannot afford - cannot allow the reduction in funds for education proposed in this Administration bill.

Dear Friend:

Ignorance is a gateway through which the Communists day-by-day attack the beliefs and goals of the free world. It can be closed by the powerful force of knowledge - basic knowledge that will erase the blot of illiteracy now stamped on an estimated billion people of the free world.

This thought was brought forcefully home the other day when I was presented with an honorary degree by Brown University at Providence, Rhode Island. There at this great University, founded in 1764, I recounted to myself the many things for which Texans and Americans may be thankful.

I was thinking of our many blessings-including the basic ability of being able to read and write.

Education is one of the great blessings. And to a free man in a free world, the ability to read and the knowledge to write can be the most valuable talent of all. It can open the door to untold blessings. A billion people who can neither read nor write know this fact.

These are people who live in ignorance and poverty, sustained by the confidence that they know the secret of our progress and power is knowledge. These people want to read. They want to write. And many of them look to us for help in overthrowing a dictatorship of ignorance.

With this achievement could come great dividends. Friendly nations, now unable to walk alone, would eventually no longer need our aid. We would be offering the greatest help of all by helping them to help themselves.

Being privileged to participate in this commencement, to visit briefly on the campus of this fine, old university, left me with a feeling of great humility, thankfulness and responsibility.

It also brought to mind that with commencement exercises comes the season of vacations. I hope some of you will be coming to Washington. It's a fine thing - not just for the children, but adults as well - to look in on the center of our great Government. If you should come to Washington, and I hope you do, call on us if we can help you. If you have questions, we'll try to answer them. If we can't, we'll help you find the folks who can.

Governor Signs Anti - False Advertising Bill

Governor Price Daniel, on May 28, signed the Anti-False Wholesale Advertising H. B. 201. This bill makes it unlawful for any distributor of merchandise to misrepresent himself to the buying public as selling at wholesale unless the advertising is directed to retailers who are to resell the merchandise.

According to the author of the bill, Representative Bo Ramsey of Beckville, the new law does much to protect the public, who have many times in the past thought they were buying merchandise at wholesale when in reality they were not.

Representative Ramsey said "It has been firmly established through court decisions as well as through common usage of the term, that wholesale is a sale made for the purpose of resale and not one made to the consuming purchaser. This being true, then it is reasonable to assume that no merchant would or could long stay in business selling merchandise to the buying public at the same price it cost him to buy it from the wholesaler. The new law does not in any way attempt to set the price of merchandise."

In the words of Senator George Parkhouse, who sponsored the bill in the Senate, "This law does not keep anyone from selling merchandise at any price he chooses. Actually, he can buy an item for one dollar and sell it for a nickel if he wants to. It does, however, prohibit misrepresentation to the public that it is buying merchandise at wholesale when, in fact, they are buying it at retail."

The new law will become effective on August 11 of this year.

Another section within the law provides that any merchant who advertises a going-out-of-business sale must include in such advertising the name and location of the owner of the business.

RETURNING TO DALLAS

Wilburn and Judy Zuber left Monday for Dallas where they live. They have been visiting in the Jack Cartwright home over the weekend. Wilburn and Judy are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow W. Zuber who recently moved to Dallas.

Senator Preston Smith

Amid many disagreements at every turn, there is one thing that all three branches of the Texas government "can" and "do" agree on - United States Supreme Court decisions.

All three branches have agreed firmly in apprehension and criticism of the dangerous trend of U. S. Supreme Court decisions.

Recently, a very frank appraisal of a new Supreme Court five-to-four decision was unanimously voted to be preserved in the permanent records of the Senate. This move added one more event of criticism to the court, which has been the subject of similar action in state legislature here during the past several years.

Into the record went the opinion of the Senate that the recent opinion by Justice Frankfurter in the Baltimore "Rat Inspector" case was a definite action to trample the guarantee of the citizens contained in the Fourth Amendment of the Bill of Rights.

Chief Justice John E. Hickman of Texas Supreme Court was among the top jurists of a long list of states who signed the blanket plea a few months ago for the United States Supreme Court to use moderation in its process of "writing new law, rather than interpreting the law."

And the executive department, through governor and the attorney general, went to bat in resistance of the Supreme Court decision actually by a minority of the court which stripped Texas and other states of their titles and in defiance of the declared policy of Congress. States have been concerned in many other areas of federal court decision, such as the ruling that state courts are rendered in-potent to assume jurisdiction in courts with "making law" in many decisions, charging the federal actions of recent years.

The Texas Senate has probably led all other state branches in opposition to U. S. Supreme Court matters of state law wherein the federal government also has statutes, even though federal agencies such as the National Labor Relations Board refuse to act under them.

COTTON FARMERS OUTLOOK IS GETTING "DIMMER" WITH IMPENDING PRICE LOAN LIMIT, OFFICIALS NOTE

The outlook for cotton farmers faced with a Congressional move to limit price loans to $50,000 appears very "dim", officials of the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. said Monday after returning from Washington where they consulted with both Representatives and Senators and had a special session with Senate Majority Leader, Lyndon Johnson.

Wilmer Smith, Vice-President of the PCG, and George Pfeifferberger, Executive Vice-President, were in Washington last week to attend the Universal Cotton Standards Conference when news of support loan limitations broke.

Pfeifferberger explained that they worked with representatives of the National Cotton Council in opposing such limitations. He added that a Senate proposal is due for presentation some time this week and calls for action on price support limitations to begin this crop year.

Smith, Pfeifferberger and Ed Bush, of the Texas Ginners' Association met with Senator Johnson last Wednesday to express opposition to the limitations measure and ask that a committee be set up to study effects of such a proposal.

Johnson gave the group little assurance that such a committee could be instigated and Pfeifferberger said the group then asked, "That if Congress deemed limitations on farm participation in price supports inevitable and $50,000 is the ceiling that the Congress believes is necessary then we would like to see the $50,000 amount for non-re-coures loans to any one farmer applied only at the time the loan is called."

"This means that a farmer could obtain recourse loans in excess of $50,000 during the marketing year to facilitate orderly marketing, but he would be required to reduce his loan balance by the end of the marketing year to a maximum of $50,000," Pfeifferberger added.

"Our group is still strongly opposed to price support limitations, but the outlook in Washington is dim and if they are to be instigated we feel such a program as this would at least help our members," Smith explained. "Recent publicity on huge farm surpluses have caused a build up of public opinion that has been expressed to Congressmen and little hope is now seen of forestalling such a bill as this one on limitations," Smith added.

Pfeifferberger said that no study on what effect such a limitations measure would have on the entire cotton industry has been made.

It could affect our farmers in many ways and we feel it should be investigated more before the measure becomes law, but such a study now seems impossible before passage.

The National Cotton Council reported Monday that because of the far-reaching implications and unknown effects of limitations, Senator Stennis (D-Miss.) proposed that no limitation be imposed until Senate Agriculture Committee could study the problem. When this effort failed, Stennis attempted to soften impact of committee action. His proposal would provide that $50,000 limit would apply only to type of Loans CCC now makes which do not have to be repaid by the farmer. No limit, however, would be placed on amount of recourse loans farmers could obtain from the CCC. Stennis' effort failed in full committee on a tie vote. Later, on the Senate floor, Stennis discussed this proposal and urged Senators to study it carefully. The bill is scheduled for action on the Senate floor this week.

Smith said that PCG officials agreed with Council analysis which stated that limitations would: 1. Destroy the orderly marketing system. 2. Depress prices and hurt all farmers, particularly small ones.

3. Increase rather than decrease government stocks of farm commodities "While $50,000 sounds like a large amount, remember this represents gross, not net, income to a farmer. Cotton thus forced on the market, instead of being orderly marketed with the aid of the loan, will depress market prices and hurt all farmers," Smith said.

Pfeifferberger said PCG officials are continuing their vigil on the limitation proposal and will do all possible in the fight against this program.

Texas Congressman George Mahon and Walter Rogers, along with Senators Johnson and Ralph Yarborough, voted against the limitation measures and have tried to help fight such action.

Two or three of the best farm publications have run reader surveys to determine whether or not the farmer wants the government to continue the support programs . . . one of the surveys indicated that only 22 per cent of the readers wanted more help from the government . . . another survey showed that 86 per cent of the cotton farmers wanted some kind of a support program . . . now there are all kinds of ways of reading into a survey the results you wish . . . in fact, it is pretty difficult to reach any kind of firm conclusion as a result of a survey taken like either of the two mentioned here . . . but one thing is certain to anyone who stops to think about it: continued supports that keep the price of any product above its true value can't last forever . . . we can't expect to keep on getting a price for American grown cotton that just isn't real-

Amount of cotton used in the U. S. is increasing over estimates of '58-'59 season . . . in fact, the USDA has had to up its forecast for the third time since November . . . estimate now is the U. S. spinners will utilize 8.7 million bales . . . that's up 450,000 bales over the November estimate.

More Farm Cash??
All across the country used farm machinery is bringing better prices . . . up about 20 per cent over last year . . . folks who know say this is because the farmers have money to spend now, that they are looking forward to large crops and that they hope to beat the high cost of farm labor by adding machines instead of farm hands . . . new equipment is priced about 5 per cent higher than last year.

In 1958 the major insect pests of grain sorghums were the sorghum webworm and the corn earworm. Both insects were difficult to control in varieties of grain sorghum having characteristically "tight heads", said Neal M. Randolph associate professor of entomology at Texas A&M. These insects often occur together in damaging numbers in heads of grain sorghum. Sorghum planted late in the season generally is subjected to more insects damage than are earlier plantings.

The sorghum webworm does damage to grain sorghums especially during wet seasons and extensive losses have occurred throughout the eastern half of Texas, he said.

The corn earworm, also called the tomato fruitworm and the cotton bollworm, is one of the most destructive insects attacking grain sorghum. It is often referred to as the "headworm" when feeding in the grain sorghum head.

Randolph said that studies conducted by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station showed that fair to good control of the sorghum webworm could be obtained from certain insecticides. The insecticides used were: parathion, methyl parathion, thiodan, Sevin, Phosdrin, toxaphene, and Hercules 5727. Some of the insecticides are restricted as to use and the instructions on the label of the insecticide should be followed closely, he noted.

Low infestations of the corn earworm persisted throughout both experiments and only fair control was obtained from the application of any of the insecticides used, the entomologist said.

Methods and insecticides used for controlling the insects along with the results obtained, are discussed in Progress Report 2083, released by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station. Copies are available from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas.

Diminutive Mac Tubb, pint-sized Texas Tech sophomore to be, who has always been a tough competitor in the area golf tournaments, edged veteran Lubbock plumber, Roland Adams in a 19-hole thriller to win the Morton Invitational Golf Championship, Sunday afternoon.

Tubb, whose size belies his ability to hit the ball, matched Adams' long tee shots closely enough and took advantage of an unusual Adams falling in putting to stay even in a real dogfight through the first 18 holes. First one was ahead, then the other. Here a remarkable pitch from a tree hole, a seven-iron Tubb had to hold flat and use on a half swing, was the turning point in the match. Tubb bladed the shot 75 yards and it rolled another 75 yards to within six feet of the pin. Adams' attempt to stay with him, over shot the green, missed a first putt and shook hands with Tubb in a gesture of conceding the title.

Morton's Spring Tourney winner, S. M. Monroe made a tremendous come-back from four behind at the end of nine holes to even his championship consolation final match with Danny Elliston, on the 17th hole, and then took Danny out on the 19th to capture the consolation title.

The tourney was a fine one in every respect — except financially. A dead telephone all day Friday, and a late afternoon wind and rain storm, cut the field of golfers in the invitational to 64 players. The result was a good tourney, Saturday and Sunday, with all of the golfers having plenty of time, no one forcing the issue. The club had made plans for 96 golfers and the cut in players caused the Country Club to go in the hole financially.

Except for the brief Friday outburst, the weather for the tourney was good. The Friday pro-am found 25 foursomes of golfers entered and most of them did well though only six of the foursomes had a pro to lead them.

Friday's barbecue was postponed to Saturday because of the weather, but it went off well on Saturday.

When the tourney wound up at 6:30 Sunday evening, Morton golfers won their share of the "loot", although only about one fourth of the competitors in the meet were Morton golfers.

Adams, who was favored, all the way, shot two rounds of erratic golf, and two very good rounds in the two days of tourney play. Even with a poor round he managed to slip by Monroe in the first 18 holes of play Saturday morning, then shot a terrific sub-par round with D. L. Craig to win Saturday afternoon, chalking up a 4 under par 66.

Sunday morning he again fired a red hot round at Muleshoe's Russell Haberer, but barely ousted him, 1-up over the regulation 18.

Then in the championship round Sunday afternoon, Adams and Tubb played "Alphonse and Gaston." First one would give a hole to the other with a poor chip or putt,

GOLF TALK and . . . TOURNAMENT NOTES

By Eddie Irwin

It was nothing unusual that inclement weather caused the country club committees a lot of headaches in the invitational tourney held last week. Only once do we remember when the weather remained good for the entire tourney.

Friday, qualifying day, was the most crucial day, since the financial success of the tournament depends on the entries. With heavy wind and rains adding to the troubles late Friday afternoon, after 100 golfers got underway in the pro-am event, the club was able to get a fair representation of golfers entered. But there is no telling how many tried to call in and enter the Saturday - Sunday Invitational, only to find telephone lines down.

It wasn't the first time this problem has plagued the golfers. A few years ago, when the Jaycees sponsored an invitational, the phone was out all day, in addition to a heavy rain.

If these troubles weren't enough, the water system sopped up at the club and tourney chairman, T. L. McAllister was about to give up. But things brightened up on Saturday and Sunday. Weather was a mite breezy at times, but pretty good as a whole, and the 64 golfers in the tourney really enjoyed themselves.

Morton's new grid coach John Paul Jones and wife had a good chance to meet local folks as well as area folks as the coach competed in the tourneys. They passed the word they were moving into Coach Alexander's house as soon as Vernard and Patti move to Post. The Alexanders are hoping they have found a house at Post — but on Saturday, they weren't sure.

By the way, the new coach is a pretty fair golfer — he proved that in the two day meet.

L. F. (Snooky) Russell found out it isn't always so pleasant to fire a red hot qualifying round. On Friday, Snooky fired the best round of his golfing at Morton, as he parred the course, 35. He kept up his fine shooting with a 28 on the last nine to just miss the medalist honors, also just miss a chance for a tie at pro am honors, but he qualified for the championship flight. Then on Saturday, he was ousted in his first two matches in the championship flight to lose all chance of being a prize winner. Some tried to convince him it was more of an honor to compete in and lose in the championship flight than get in the lower flights and win a trophy.

Of all the visiting golfers, Ted and Russell Haberer and Bill and Lowell St. Clair, of Muleshoe, seemed to have the best time. Each year the Muleshoe delegation has been more faithful at attending the Morton meet. Runner-up Roland Adams had a fine time also, even though he lost when most of the crowd seemed to feel he was the best golfer on the course. Adams truly has an amazing bag of shots to his game. He can beat you nearly any way, and only a tendency to clown and have fun, keeps him from showing really great stuff. He was seldom serious seldom very far off, no matter if he was putting left handed with a two iron or chipping close-in with a four. His putting, for the most part is devastating and his booming drives are beautiful to watch.

It was nice to see a couple of ex-Morton schoolboys in the field, Bill McAllister and Paul Adams. Both learned their golfing right in Morton, when the Country Club was just getting started, with sand greens and gopher hole fairways. In those days it was hard to tell which was the rougher — the fairways or the rough. This past weekend it was hard to tell if the fairways or rough was the best place to play the ball. The course was in real fine shape.

Local golfer Babe Van' who though an amateur, acts in the capacity of a pro, deserves a lot of credit for the fine shape the course the first three and halved the other; split a hole; picked up a hole on No. 14 and then lost No. 15 to go two down. Then Smiley won 18 and 11 to even the match, blew a chance to win the match on 18, and then let Elliston beat himself on No. 19.

In the first flight Morton's new coach, John Paul Jones, playing his first tourney of the summer, beat out Lubbock's Stan Gray-wear, tripped up out going local coach Vernard Alexander, 2 and 1; eliminated Snoball Willis and then lost in the finals to T. F. Vaughan.

is in. As does Terry Hans who was busy riding a tractor mowing the grass. But Terry got his reward by winning one flight.

Another ex-Mortonite who enjoyed himself through the first 3 matches before he was eliminated was Dr. Norman Monk, who is doing fine, and sent his and his family's best wishes to all their friends in the Morton area.

Others who certainly deserve a pat on the back for their share in the activities and in making the visitors feel welcome, were Ray Keith Monaghan and Babe Van, judges; the entire staff who aided in Saturday's barbecue, and the Ladies Golf Association of the Morton Country Club, who furnished a flock of sandwiches and other food, and who helped kept the tally board.

Tom McAllister expressed the club's sincere appreciation to a lot of outsiders who helped make the tourney a success by various donations of labor, effort, time, etc.

Don't know how the golfers feel about it, but the idea of awarding golfing equipment as prizes instead of trophies seemed to make a lot of good sense. Of course the two schoolboys got trophies instead of prizes, but the other golfers won a fine assortment of clubs and golf bags.

Tourney Chairman Tom McAllister could have seen the meet turn into a real family affair if everything had gone right. His grandson, Terry Hans was a winner, and his son Bill, nearly won an award. But Tom himself, who is the better known golfer of the three, told the group Sunday as the tourney closed, he was the only golfer in the meet to lose two matches and play only 17 holes.

Most of the folks also agree on two things which you can learn only by experience. That to have the program on the same day that the golfers qualify for the tourney has some adverse effects. It takes an awful lot of time to play the program, and a lot of golfers who might want to qualify for the tourney aren't interested in competing in the pro am. One of the good points was the fact that a lot of ladies played in the pro-am.

Another fact seems pretty sure, that 64 golfers is just about all a nine hole course can handle. Perhaps one more flight could have made it without crowding up too much. But you just don't have enough time to handle 96 golfers in 18 hole matches, without someone having to do a lot of waiting, and without some golfers having to get up before dawn, in order to tee off by dawn.

Looks like another year they would be a whole lot better off planning for five flights instead of six.

One of Morton's better golfers, Babe Van, didn't compete in the tourney. He felt he just had plenty to do taking care of the odds and ends that had to be cared for to help make it a good tourney. And, when it was all over, he, like a lot of others, said he enjoyed the meet about as much as any he had seen in Morton.

Babe, Ray Keith Monaghan, and perhaps another or two, may play in the tourney at Wichita Falls this week. That's Monaghan's old stamping grounds.

Fox, and former Mortonite Paul Adams, of Amarillo.

Bob Thomman beat another former Mortonite, Bill McAllister of Corpus Christie for the consolation title in the second flight.

Jim Williams won the third flight, taking out Gene Haggard, Jack Wallace, Dale Pepper and Deo Brown. Jimmy St. Clair, consolation winner over Wood.

Tigers Trip Tigers, 2 to 1; In First Little League Game, Monday

A thrilling season opening for the Indians would ever want to see the Indians get off to a fast start over the Tigers. Monday night, in the Babe Ruth League — but not until the last ditch effort of the first game to do it.

Middleton and Buck Huckel broke up a double play performance by the Indians in the 7th inning with a fielder's choice, scored across the tying and winning runs.

At this time the Tigers had tallied scored in the second without the aid of a hit, but for a 1 to 0 lead.

In a fine pitcher's duel — the two hurlers pitched a type of ball. Up to the line, the Tiger's Larry Dupler allowed only one hit, a double to Steve Middleton walked only one man, and others reached base on errors.

But Dupler picked two men out and had done a real fine job.

Connie Baker Buys Hillman's Interest In HB Service

HB Service Station has changed its name, with the announcement this week by Connie Baker that he has purchased the half interest of Herb Hillman in the station.

Baker bought out Hillman as of June 1st and has changed the name of the station to Connie's Gulf Service.

Hillman will announce future plans shortly, he said.

Baker said the hours of operation of the station would remain the same as before, 6 a.m. to 12 midnight, and also said they would provide the same services.

Improvements to Babe Ruth Field Are Noted

When the Frontier Babe Ruth League began play on Monday of this week, fans, managers and players, league officials and even the umpires had choice comments on the improvement of the field and its surroundings.

And well they had a right to be proud. Under the direction of Leo Holland and Denton Thompson, assisted by several others, the park has been improved greatly.

The field itself shows the greatest improvement. Through the use of the city tractor, a pitcher's mound has been constructed, something that was sadly lacking last season. Also the field has been cleaned off with a maintainer and at the close of the season will be seeded.

Water has been piped to the bench and later will be piped to the outfield in sufficient quantity to operate a sprinkler system.

Of course, the fence was rebuilt for the third time, this time will be painted, and has been bolted to keep it in place in case of strong winds.

Twenty new bulbs were installed and many of the lights had to be repaired, and almost all of them re-adjusted.

The improvements to the concession stand were equally eye pleasing. The stand had to be righted after a wind storm last year tilted it to one side. It was then succeeded, double-dashed, the doors repaired, new locks installed, and given a general cleanup by Hank Zielinski, the concession operator.

Yes everyone agrees, the ball playing should be infinitely better, this season, at the Babe Ruth League.

Sox Continue To Set Fast Pace In 'Home Run Happy' Little League

The Sox continued to roll to a solo blast in the top of the sixth commanding lead in the Morton Little League as the fourth week of play closed.

The undefeated Sox were three full games ahead of their nearest competitor.

The accent on offensive was the highlight of the first four weeks of play with 25 home runs having been potted out of the park.

THURSDAY —

The second place Cardinals cemented their hold on that position in the local Little League, Thursday, by humiliating their closest competitor, the Pirates, 19 to 8.

An 8-run sixth inning was the blow that actually crushed the Pirates. After the Cards had taken a 9 to 0 lead, the Pirates battled back to cut it to 11 to 5, and had they held the Cards scoreless in the top of the sixth, their three run outburst in the last half of the inning would have made it a close game.

But Pirate errors were the biggest trouble for them. They not only threw the ball away, time and again, but played shoddy and listless ball most of the game.

Both teams had a home run — the Cards', by Tommy Dupler, a

FRIDAY —

The first Little League game of the season, washed out by rain, occurred Friday afternoon. Managers of the Cubs and Sox, who were slated to play, agreed the weather was too foul, before the game got underway.

It will be rescheduled sometime later in the season.

SATURDAY —

In the strongest comeback of the season, the Pirates really pulled one out of the fire, Saturday, by tallying 7 runs in the last half of the sixth inning.

So strong was the comeback that the Pirates didn't even have an out when the winning run romped home.

Although Giant errors played an important part in the first six Pirate runs, Pirate errors — nine of them, played an equally important part in the Giant runs. But the last ditch Pirate spurge was not born of errors. They just simply began to hit the ball hard. A home run, two doubles, four singles and a walk did the damage.

Charlie Hill potted the home run for the Pirates but the Giants, in a losing effort, did the heaviest hitting. Sherril Griffith blasted out a pair of home runs and Lamar Polard chipped in with a home run.

The resurgent win for the Pirates left them only a game behind the Cards in their fight for second spot and left the Giants battling with

The Sox continued their bombardment of opposing pitchers in Monday's Little League game, blasting out a 15 to 5 victory over the Pirates.

The Sox used only 7 hits in piling up the total. Robert Decker's 4-run homer was the big blow and he also chipped in with a run scoring single. Charlie Ledbetter also homered for the Sox who had an 11 to 0 lead when Ledbetter, who pitched the first three innings, gave way to Gary Franklin in the 4th. Wildness bothered Franklin as he issued six walks and was reached for 4 hits.

Charlie Hill, with a double, two singles and a walk, paced the Pirate offensive. Gary Welch was the losing pitcher for the Pirates.

As usual, errors played a big hand in the Buccaneers' demise. They were charged with 8 miscues in the game and they led to seven unearned tallies.

The win kept the Sox undefeated for the season and put them nearly out of reach of the other teams, even if they should suddenly hit a losing spell.

Line Score:
Pirates 0 0 0 2 0 3 - 5 6 8
Sox 6 4 1 0 4 * - 15 7 2

TUESDAY —

The Giants and Cubs split a double header, Tuesday, after a fashion, when the Giants scored 3 times in the first inning of a played off tie game, and won it 12 to 9; and the Cubs came back strong to outslug the Giants, 13 to 8.

A seven run Giant rally in the last of the 4th inning, for awhile, put a serious threat on the Cubs' 12 to 0 lead. Had they come on strong to win it, they would have dropped the Cubs into the league's cellar.

Tommy Terrell had to come on the mound for the Cubs in the last of the 7th inning to preserve the Cub win. He retired the last two men with a rather weird double play in which two Giant baserunners were thrown out in a weird exhibition of baserunning.

Terrell also paced the Cubs' attack at the plate with four hits in four times at bat.

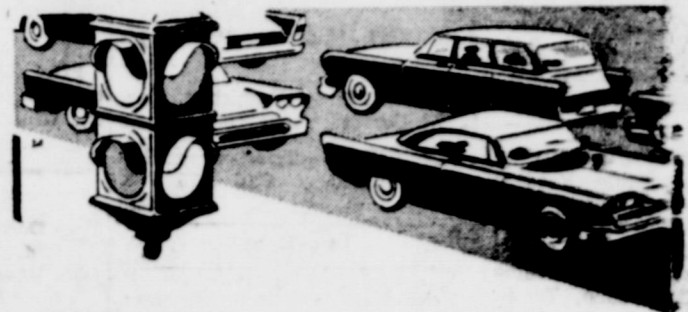

The abbreviated one-inning finale of a game, was the 8th inning of a game played earlier by the two teams which had ended in a 9 to 9 tie. The Cubs were unable to push across a run, but the Giants scored three times to take the game.

Line Score of the day's regular game only:
Cubs 2 1 4 5 0 1 - 13 10 5
Giants 0 0 0 7 0 1 - 8 9 5

Extensive Publication Issued On Crop Destroying Grasshoppers

Every year grasshoppers destroy crops in some parts of the State. During severe outbreaks, the losses run into millions of dollars. About 5 million acres of rangeland in the Panhandle area of Texas in land was infested with grasshoppers in 1958.

Of the infested rangeland only about one million acres was sprayed, leaving four million acres of infested land that received no control. Valuing the grass destroyed at the figure of $1.25 per acre, ranchmen in the Panhandle alone lost about five million dollars worth of grass. Most of the grass could have been saved at a nominal average of about sixty cents per acre by spraying at the proper time.

As an aid to farmers and ranchmen, entomologists of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service have prepared a leaflet titled, "Grasshoppers Common to Texas."

The leaflet discusses the different species of grasshoppers found in Texas and their identifying characteristics. Also included is a discussion of the life cycle of grasshoppers from the time the female lays the eggs to maturity.

Local Sailor Takes Part In Calif. Landing

Camp Pendleton, Calif. (FHTNC) Doyle W. Blake, boilerman third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill R. Blake of Morton, serving aboard the USS Guadalupe took part in an amphibious landing on the beaches of Camp Pendleton, Calif., May 28.

The operation, known as "Twin Peaks" were cruisers, destroyers, minesweepers, submarines, underwater demolition teams, and assorted amphibious force ships which comprised both "friendly" and "aggressor" forces. They employed conventional and simulated atomic weapons in carrying out their part in the amphibious assault exercise.

Bond Sales Are Doing Well Throughout State

Cochran County is running only slightly behind — .6 of one per cent — the state average of Savings Bonds.

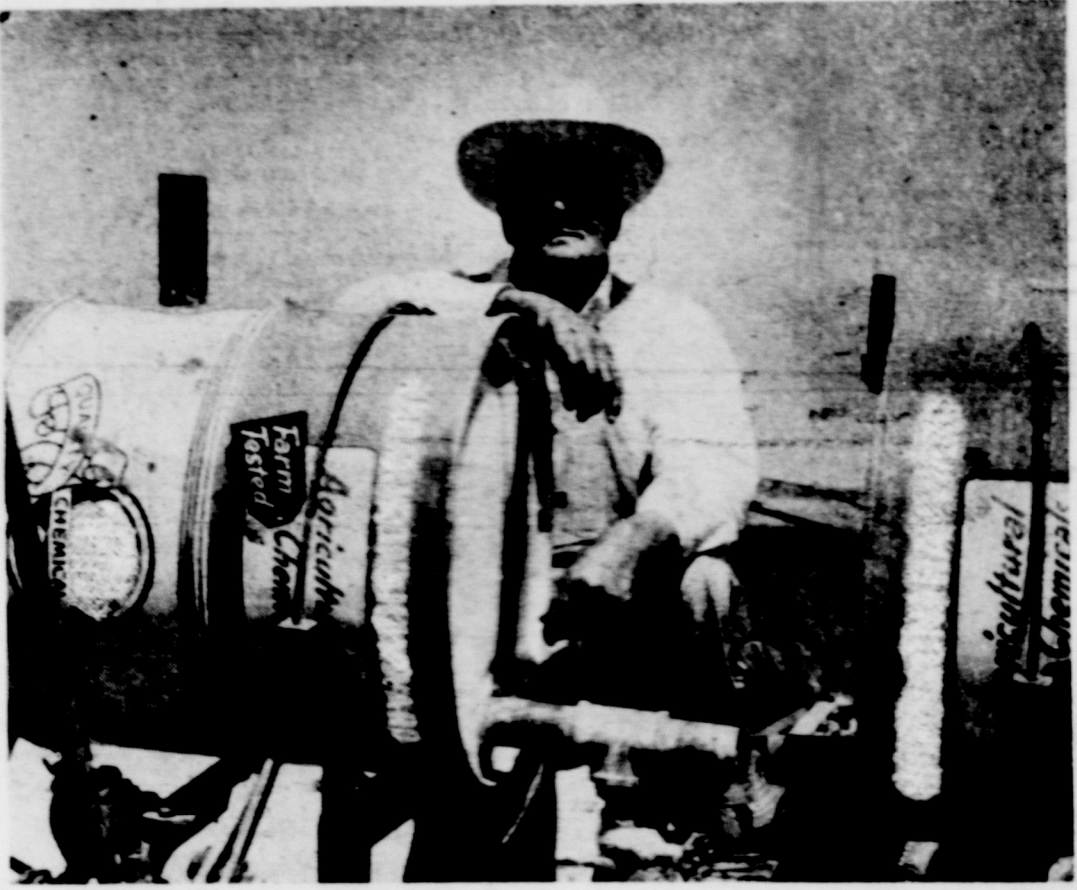

W. W. Williamson, Cochran County Savings Bond chairman, announced today that Savings Bonds sales for the first four months of 1959 totaled $17,060.00 which equaled 31.2 per cent of the county's 1959 goal. April sales in the county were $841.00.

Sales for the first four months of the year totaled $58,105.381 of which $12,908,783 were purchased in April. Texas has achieved 31.8 per cent of its yearly goal of $182,600,000.

"Savings Bond purchases play an important part in the U. S. Treasury's task to wise debt management. Each individual who buys a bond is helping to provide for his country's future security as well as his own. Secretary of Treasury Robert E. Anderson pointed out recently that any person who buys a Savings Bond is putting real meaning into the slogan 'Share-In-America.'" Chairman W. W. Williamson said.
