NEW AUTO INSURANCE LAW MAY BRING UNWANTED REACTION

By Eddie Irwin
Not only will the new Safe Driving Plan, which will be inaugurated in Texas, beginning January 1, 1960, be a surprise to a good many motorists, it may bring unpleasant surprises to the insurance firms.

Like any other radical change in the "scheme of things" the new law has brought wails of complaint from motorists themselves, from some insurance agents, and from people in general. The goal is simple: That of rewarding careful drivers through less expensive insurance premiums, and that of placing the financial burden of motor vehicle mishaps on those who are to blame.

Two groups will get the biggest jolt, if the law brings about the desired effect. Those who drive with apparent disregard to traffic laws, and thus receive an abundance of tickets, and those who are accident prone, will feel the sting in their pocket-books.

But one of the major questions to be answered is: will this be the effect of causing more motorists who are in the two groups mentioned, to decide to take the chance and drive without insurance, rather than pay the increased rates. If so, it could have a dangerous unwelcome effect.

The basic system operates this way: You, the insurer of the car, go to your agent to renew of your policy. You fill out a questionnaire stating how many accidents and how many convictions (for forfeitures of bail) you have had in moving traffic violation cases. You sign that statement, which also includes your driver's license number.

The Agent then figures your "points against" record, if any, and applies your insurance to that chart. He also sends to Austin for your driving record, which must be furnished before he can write the insurance.

If you have had no accidents, and no tickets for moving traffic violations, in the 36 month period ending 90 days prior to the request for insurance, you will receive a 20 percent credit. That means, you will get your insurance at 20 percent below the standard rate. According to figures of the Department of Public Safety, 57.1 per cent of all drivers will fall in that group.

But when you get your first ticket, then the penalty starts. You lose all your credit with one ticket. A second ticket, or one accident without any tickets, brings a 20 percent penalty. At a total of six points, the premium rate (by being up 20 percent with each ticket) reaches double of what it would have been, with one point against.

Figuring that the average income of a driver is $3,000 a year, a 20 percent penalty means you will pay $600 more for your insurance. At a total of six points, the premium rate reaches double of what it would have been, with one point against.

J. W. Masten Rites Held Friday at First Methodist

Funeral services were held in the First Methodist Church Morton, Friday, at 2:00 p. m., for John Wesley Masten, 71, Morton, who died Wednesday while working at his farm near Baileyboro.

Rev. J. E. Harrell, pastor of the church conducted the services and burial was in the Morton Memorial Cemetery under the direction of Singleton Funeral Home of Morton.

Mr. Masten died after apparently suffering a heart attack at 4:00 p. m., while he and a brother, Alton Masten, of Maple, were preparing to pull cotton.

Survivors include the wife, Alice Masten, Morton; one son, Cecil Masten of Wellington (formerly of Morton); two daughters, Mrs. Thelma Curry of Wellington and Mrs. Eva Bagwell of Ft. Worth; three sisters, Mrs. Dona Doughty, Morton; Mrs. Oia McClure of Hereford and Mrs. Alice Frazier of Sudan; five brothers, Alton of Maple; Gilbert, Robert, and F. Eight A&M Graduate Students and Prof Tour County Farms, Ranches

A group of eight graduate students members of a class in Farm and Ranch management at Texas A & M College, and their instructor, spent a day and a night in Cochran County last weekend, viewing various outstanding examples of South Plains Farm and Ranch economy.

The men, the students of Vance W. Edmondson, associate professor at A & M for the past three years, left College Station at 5:30 a. m. and on the way to Lubbock, stopped off near Waco to view a beef cattle feeding operation. There they viewed forage and grain production on "Mac" Gorham's farm.

Arriving in Lubbock at 8:00 p. m. Thursday night, the group of nine men stayed at a motel at Lubbock and had a full day of siteseeing slated for Friday. They visited the Plains Coop Oil Mill and the Plains Marketing Association. They went to Lester's Feed Lot and Feed Mill, which also has a packing plant in its operation.

The operation viewed by the class is located about 5 miles southeast of Lubbock on the Slaton Highway.

Since one of the members of the class is vitally interested in poultry farming, the group viewed Robnett Poultry Farms, where they saw 140,000 hens.

Friday night they took part in a seminar at Texas Tech University set up through the Tech Agriculture Department. The aspect discussed mostly in the two and one half hour session was economics of South Plains farming. The major discussion centered around the accumulation of capital with which to finance South Plains farming operations, and also special management factors peculiar to South Plains farming.

Jack Thomas and Ray Billingsley of the Tech Agricultural Department were among those who scheduled this get together and among those siding in the discussion was L. H. McElroy, Lubbock County Agent. Some of Cochran County's farm leaders were also at the seminar.

The group got up early Saturday morning and drove to Whiteface where they met the county's agricultural service workers and several other top Cochran County leaders in farming, at the Blue end Gold Cafe. There they began a planned tour of Cochran County farming operations going to Frank Bennet's eight section ranch. Frank has an extensive cow and calf program which was of great interest to the men. Also they were shown his efforts at control of shin oak (shinnery) and another operation that especially impressed Dr. Edmondson, the range grass reseeding operations. In Cochran County, some great strides have been made in the reseeding of ranges for various farmers and the results have attracted widespread interest.

Then the group viewed the operation of an "agrie", Leonard Coleman, who has been conducting interesting work in the field of grasses. Switchgrass, weeping grasses, and other members of the LCC faculty.

Thanksgiving TIME TO REJOICE AND BE THANKFUL

Busy Volunteer Firemen In 7 Runs; Only One Has Sizable Fire Loss

The Morton Volunteer Fire Department had their hands full with three fire runs in the space of two hours and a half, Sunday morning, and before they completed the third run, they were involved in helping douse a fourth fire.

All of the fires were at gins, and none of them were what could be termed major fires, though a strong wind blowing probably was the actual cause of all four and could have whipped them into disastrous proportions.

The first call came at 11:40 when the crew went to Enochs to the Gardner - Hankins Gin, where a storage building and considerable cotton bagging was completely destroyed. A trailer of cotton was also lost.

Scarcely had they returned, when the second call came, this time from the Morton Gin Co. in Morton, where a trailer load of cotton was set afire. This was caught in its early stages and the fire was put out without the loss of much cotton in the full trailer. Of course some water damage to the cotton was recorded.

The crew got its third call at around 2 p. m. when they were called to the Griffith Gin, 13 miles west of Morton where the burr pit was acting up. They were cautioned that the run was more of a "standby basis" than to halt the fire, and thus, when about four miles west at the Star Route Gin, they arrived just in time to aid in putting out a fourth fire. It was in the burr hopper

Joe Seagler Heads South Plains City Officials Group

The organization covers a 19 county area. Twenty seven towns have membership in the organization and 17 were represented at the Plains meeting.

The group will hold its next meeting at Andrews, February 19.

SURGERY SUCCESSFUL ON EARL CADENHEAD

Surgery was performed Wednesday, at the Methodist Hospital in Lubbock, for Earl Cadenhead, Cochran County farmer. The surgery was said late Wednesday to have been successful, but there is still a five day danger period for Mr. Cadenhead. What originally was thought to be surgery to remove a tumor, turned out to be the removal of a section of the main artery leading from the heart. The surgery, performed by young Dr. Kreuger, was one of the first of its kind performed on the plains, it was said.

Cooper Gets Even With Whiteface In Bi-District Football Triumph

The Whiteface Antelopes ran into a team "bent on revenge" and were outclassed by the Cooper Pirates in a Friday bi-district Class B game, at Levelland.

Whiteface had decided the Pirates early in the season, 20-14, and Cooper hadn't lost a game since. Nor had they forgotten the pain of that early defeat. Friday they led the Lopes all the way in posting a 16 to 0 verdict, but the scoring wasn't as the score would indicate. Two touchdowns and two double extra points. Instead, the Pirates missed one try at the points after, but added a fourth quarter safety, a tribute to their hard defensive play during the entire game.

Cooper Gets Even With Whiteface In Bi-District Football Triumph

The Lopes were forced to kick and on the second play from scrimmage, Eric Perkins raced 62 yards for the touchdown and Jenkins again added the point after with a kick.

Em Broderson's boys just lacked the punch that would carry them, offensively, though both teams did an exceptionally good job in the defensive game.

I.O.O.F. Lodge Will Sell 1960 S. Plains Yearbook

The Morton IOOF Lodge No. 15, has accepted as an organizational project, the sale of "Parade of Progress" yearbooks.

The Lodge voted Tuesday night at its regular meeting here, to put the books on sale and they will conduct a canvass of Morton in the near future.

Anyone interested in obtaining one of the books, can contact Maurice Lewallen, H. T. Golden, or other members of the Lodge.

Tarango Rites Held Monday

Funeral services were held at 10 a. m. Monday for Mrs. Paula Tarango, widowed Spanish woman, who died at Maple, Friday after a long illness.

Father Fred Hyland conducted the services at the St. Anne's Catholic Church in Morton and burial was at the Morton Memorial Cemetery under the direction of the Singleton Funeral Home.

Mrs. Tarango, whose home was in Candelaria, Texas, was with her children who were in the area harvesting crops. They were living at Maple.

Born in Mexico, in 1871, she had been widowed for many years. She had been a member of the Catholic Church all her life.

Survivors include three sons, Manuel, Roberto, and Raymon and two daughters, Lucia and Juana.

BIG DOLLAR DAY FINALE . . . SANTAS VISIT, SHOPPER'S NIGHT, AND NIGHT PARADE SET DECEMBER 7

The Christmas Shopper's Night in Morton, features a down to town parade after dark; the appearance of Santa Clause, and a shopper's night from 7 p. m. to 9:30 p. m. will be held on Dollar Day, Monday, December 7th.

The decision was made Wednesday morning at a meeting of seven members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Morton Lions Club.

The group also made plans to contact five women's clubs in Morton to see if they will handle the Christmas Parade, which is to be held at 6:30 p. m.

The women's clubs will be asked to name a co-chairman for the over-all Shopper's night, to serve with Bill Hulse, named co-chairman of the event by the Lions and Jaycees.

The Lions will handle the contacts with the merchants and the Jaycees will complete preparations for bringing Santa Clause to town during the parade.

Hulse said he already has five organizations that have indicated they will enter a float, and are awaiting only to be told what theme is to be used.

If they accept, the women's clubs will be responsible for setting up the parade, for what is entered in it, for what theme is used, for deciding what prizes to award, for inviting schools and organizations to participate in the parade, for arranging the order of parade, and for seeing that it is conducted.

38,075 Bales Said Ginned in County

Ginning was moving rapidly throughout the South Plains the past week and in Cochran County it passed the estimated halfway mark and was expected to be all but completed in another two weeks or so.

The Texas Employment Commission, in its next to the last report to be issued on this year's crop, estimates 63 per cent of the crop is harvested and 95 per cent of the crop is now open.

The condition of the crop is still "good," and gins are now working around the clock trying to alleviate a shortage of trailers that has forced many farmers to pile cotton in the fields, and others to hold up on picking.

Total bales ginned, as of this report, which is a week or so old, was 38,075 of an estimated 60,000 bales.

Murder Victim Was Once Booked At Local Jail

Cochran County was "rung in" on the mysterious death of a woman between Lubbock and Levelland, sometime early Sunday morning, through a newspaper article appearing in the Lubbock Avalanche.

The article mentioned that Sheriff Hazel Hancock had viewed and identified the body as that of a woman who had formerly lived in Cochran County.

The Sheriff said this week, the way he became identified with the case, was through a comment by one of the persons being questioned, to the effect that "the Sheriff over in Morton can identify the woman, he had her in jail."

Sheriff Hancock then identified her as a woman who was arrested for drunkenness in Morton, on April 4, 1958, as Dee Young Gresson. At that time she claimed to be 28 years old, but also at one time during her conversation with local officers, claimed to have a son 23 years old.

That was the only time she was in custody here, the Sheriff said, and said she had left this county sometime in 1958.

Local officers felt that the woman was considerably younger than the age "58" which has been tabbed as her age. They had no other information on her, in the local files except as to her size, 5 feet, 2 inches tall, weight, 120 lbs., hair, reddish brown.

When arrested she was alone.

Former Mortonite Believed Lubbock Holdup Man

J. A. Avery, a 23 year old ex-convict who escaped from a Tarrant County (Fort Worth) jail a week or so ago, and who has been identified by victims, from a photo, as the man who held up a Lubbock Super Market over the weekend, formerly lived in Morton.

Avery, while living here in the "mid forties", was sent to prison on a charge involving stolen wheat and a stolen saddle, in Bailey County.

"FOOD COMES FIRST" CONTEST FOR HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

Here's news for High School students — especially for juniors and seniors interested in journalism. It's an opportunity to win a free trip to the National Youth Power Congress in Chicago and a vacation year next summer. Also, this is an opportunity to learn more about the farm to table story of food and the importance of eating a good diet every day.

Entrants must write a food related news story or editorial column. All original work in connection with food is eligible for competition. Suggested topics include: The farm to table story of food, the food industry in my town, food for health, happiness and achievement, benefits from a proper diet by teen agers and adults, etc. Closing date for entries is December 20, 1960.

Entry blanks and assistance are available from County Extension Agents offices, and from vo-

The top 50 winners in the State will be invited to attend the "Youthpower - Food Comes First" breakfast and program at the Stephen F. Austin Hotel in Austin, January 9, 1961. One boy and one girl, selected from this group, will receive a trip to the National Youthpower Congress in Chicago, February 11 - 13, 1961.

"Food Comes First — for Youthpower" is a program planned by Texas and National committees representing youth and food interest.

WHAT IS THE VALUE OF TEXAS' 10¢ COIN CLUB MEMBERS?

What is the value of a boy or girl? A bar of iron, of certain size, is worth $2.30. This same bar of iron, if made into horse-shoe nails, is then worth $10.50. If this same bar of iron is made into needles, its value is increased to $35. This same bar of iron made into balance springs of fine watches, is worth $50,000. In every case, the material is the same, the difference is in what is done with the material. Now, can you tell me how much a boy or girl is worth, or, the value of the 10¢ Texas 4-H Club members and home demonstration agents, through 4-H work, strive to build "nails" instead of "nails". Will you help them in your community.

Registration, accompanied with a $25 deposit, for any Scout who will be at least 12 years old by January 1st, must be made by the deadline, Dec. 3. The remainder of a $160 fee will be payable next spring.

Ross also told the group about plans for a Tres Ritos, N. M., summer camp for the local troop next June. The Jamboree will be in July.

INSURANCE —

off your record for 36 months. In addition to the 57.1 per cent of persons who have no blots on their driving record, another 15.9 per cent, who have only one ticket, would get their insurance for about the same they paid the past year. A total of 14.7 fall in the 20 per cent boost class. Records show 5.1 per cent will pay 140 per cent of the base rate; 3.5 per cent will have four points against them; 1.4 per cent have five points against them; and 2.2 per cent have six points.

In small towns around the state, especially those with policemen who are not prone to "push" traffic violations, motorists will have a definite advantage. Any city or other court that does not send complete records to Austin on traffic violations, will also help defeat the purpose of the new law.

And, one of the major changes expected, is that folks who previously found it cheaper to plead guilty and pay a small ticket, than to fight a case, or easier to post a bond and simply not appear, and forfeit the bond, may sing a different tune under the new law.

It stands to reason there will be more cases taken to court, less guilty pleas, less bond forfeitures. Even if convicted in Corporation Court, there will be lots of folks who will appeal it and thus something seldom heard of, a traffic case in county court, may become commonplace.

These are results that could happen, and probably will, according to insurance men who have studied the plan. And if the plan makes insurance for negligent and careless drivers so costly, they may become negligent and careless about applying for insurance, it would be a bad thing. It's a big risk they'd be taking, but it's a big premium they have to pay.

How do insurance men feel about this new law?

Did it come about as a result of their actions, their lobbying. One of the first things they want you to know is that it did not. Their first reaction is a deep concern. It looks like the insurance agent may get hurt, by writing less insurance and getting less commission. A second glance, at the figures on the number of careful drivers, gives the insurance man some reassurance. For he, as a man who is accustomed to dealing with facts and figures; from charts and scales, soon perceives that it may not be so bad.

His main concern is now, will the public hold him responsible if these unpleasant reactions to the new law become too great. He naturally also has a thought or two about what per cent of motorists applying for insurance, will suddenly forget their driving record. And, the insurance co., by law, must be the one to check the records at Austin, and turn up their absent-mindedness.

One thing that won't bother him a great deal, will be those who drop their insurance because the premium is too great. No insurance company is fighting for the right to write great risk insurance.

The ultimate outcome should be very interesting. There will be a flock of questions to be answered. But by and large, the plan should accomplish at least part of its purpose. It definitely will wake up the general public as to the facts and figures on auto mishaps... especially the man whose insurance suddenly increases from 40 to 100 per cent, because of his own negligent driving, because of the driving of a wife who just doesn't care, or because of a teen aged son who mmer down' on dad's gas likes to occasionally "let the ha-gy."

with 10 farmers as partner-owners.

When they came back to Gene Benham's farm they viewed that fee there. The associate professor and Benham had been working and studying together years ago in Arkansas, and have been close friends for a long time.

On coming back to Morton they were taken to the various homes of "Aggies" of Cochran County where they spent the night, and Sunday morning the group assembled in downtown Morton and returned to College Station.

Included in the group of students were six men looking for a Master's Degree in Farm and Ranch management and one seeking a PhD degree in farm and ranch management. The other seeks an MD in Poultry Science. The man seeking the PhD is a 34 year old Chinese student, Tien En Li, of Kansu, China, located in northwest China. Li has been in this country about three years, studying previously in Oklahoma, and coming to A & M this past year. The staff at A & M said they hope Li can be persuaded to remain in this country.

Li's father operates a wheat and vegetable farm in China. He also raises sheep, horses and some other livestock. His son got his degree from the National Institute of Political Sciences at Nanking, China. He later taught at Taiwan College, Formosa, and came to the U. S. where he got his MS degree at Oklahoma State U.

The other student member of the class who is not United States born, is William D. Shupe, 24 year old resident of Colonia Juarez, Mexico. Born at Colonia, in the state of Chihuahua, where extensive farming operations are now being carried on, Shupe was reared on a poultry and orchard farm. He is a Mormon, and a member of the National Poultry Science Club, and got his BS degree at Brigham Young University, in Utah. He is the man seeking the degree in Poultry Science.

Dr. Edmonson said the class usually takes 10 or 11 field trips during the school year but only one of them is a four day trip, such as this one. The others are usually two hour to half day trips to various operations near the college campus.

All of the members of the class offered their sincere thanks both to the Aggies who were their hosts, and to everyone in Cochran County and on the Plains who extended them a sincere hand of friendship and hospitality during their short stay here.

Other members of the class, and their homes, are: Edmonson, who is originally from New Edinburg, Arkansas; Wayne E. Burton, Bingham Nebraska; Alfred D. Byrd, Porum, Oklahoma; Arlon M. Scott, Corpus Christi and Howard R. Yeargen, Corpus Christi.

Morton Cagers Drop Two Games At Frenship; 46 to 40 and 50 to 46

Morton's girls and boys basketball teams officially opened the cage season with games at Frenship, Friday night, and the Frenship cagers proved not such friendly hosts.

The Maids were the first to feel the sting of defeat in a pair of real close games. Frenship captured a 46 to 40 verdict in that game.

The Indians, who had been playing basketball only about seven days, dropped a 50 to 46 decision to the Tiger quintet.

Norma Flanagan paced Morton's scoring with 17 points while Patsy Amyx and Doris Fienor each added 8. Frenship's

Ropesville Takes Pair of Games From Bledsoe

BLEDSOE (spl.) - The Bledsoe Cagers were outclassed in a pair of basketball games played at Ropesville, Friday night.

The host boys team captured a 45 to 37 decision from the Cochran County School as Buford Moore ran wild with a 24 point performance to pace the winners.

The Eagletta team poured it in the Bledsoe girls to the tune of 54 to 25 in the opening game of the evening.

Mike Bibbey got 12 points for Bledsoe and Jay Ness added nine in a vain effort to keep their team "in the game."

Lack of scoring punch was the main problem with the Bledsoe girls. Sharla Biggs had 18 points in the game and Helen Cain added 16. The closest Bledsoe could come to either of these scores was a 19 point effort for Thelma Bibbery.

Pep Boys Beat Sudan; Gals Lose

PEP (spl.) - Pep's cagers split a double header with usually potent Sudan of Class A, Friday night in games played at Pep.

The Pep girls were overcome by a rugged Sudan crew, 58 to 34. Georgia Abus paced the Pep crew, with 14 points, but Sudan with plenty of height and experience, were never forced to press in the game.

In the boy's battle it was a different story. The Buffaloes, possessing considerable potential as shown in early season games, took an early narrow lead, nursed it most of the way, and then went on to pull away in the final couple of minutes for a 40 to 32 win.

The scoring was well divided for Pep's record at 3 and 3, while the Pep girls, having a rugged time getting started, have yet to dent the winner's circle.

Pep's enjoyment of the boy's victory may be short lived, however. The Buffaloes and their 21's team traveled to Sudan Tuesday for a return game, the results of which will be found elsewhere in this issue of the Tribune, if they were received before press time.

TURKEY CROQUETTES

Thick White Sauce:
1 cup broth
1/4 cup turkey fat
1/4 cup flour
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 pound ground raw turkey
1 cup bread crumbs
1 egg, beaten
1 cup cracker crumbs

Melt fat, add flour, salt and blend. Add broth slowly, stirring constantly until thickened. Add all ingredients except cracker crumbs to white sauce. Shape, roll in cracker crumbs, and fry in deep fat at 325 degrees F. for 10 to 12 minutes. Drain on unglazed paper. Serves 4 to 6.

CREAMED TUKEY

3 Tablespoons butter or margarine
1 tablespoon flour
1 cup broth
1 cup milk
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon paprika
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon finely grated onion
1 1/2 cup diced cooked turkey

Melt fat, add flour and stir over low heat until blended. Add cold broth and milk all at once. Cook, stirring constantly until uniformly thickened. Then set over hot water. Add the seasonings and turkey and heat thoroughly. Add more seasoning if desired. Serve over bicuit, toast, plain or fried noodles or rice. Serves 6.

Note: If cream mixture is thicker than desired, thin with hot milk or water.

HOT TURKEY OR CHICKEN SALAD

2 cups cubed turkey or chicken
1/2 cup chopped toasted almonds
2 teaspoons grated onion
2 cups chopped celery
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 cup mayonnaise
1 cup crushed potato chips
1/2 cup grated cheese

Combine ingredients except cheese and potato chips. Toss lightly. Pile lightly into individual bakers or custard cups. Sprinkle with grated cheese and potato chips. Bake at 400 degrees for 10 minutes. Serves 6.

TULIPS FOR SPRING BLOOM

It is not too late to plant your tulip bulbs for spring blooms. According to authorities tulips may be planted as late in the fall as the ground can be worked although late October or early November would have been better as early plantings pay dividends in better spring blooms.

Plant in open spaces, never in grass or shade. Some sun is necessary. Tulips may be planted in beds, borders, drifts or among the shrubbery or in the perennial border.

In virgin soil, pulverize the soil and open a trench, placing the tulip bulbs on an inch bed of sand 6 inches deep and 8 inches apart. With a top dressing of home meal in the spring and adequate watering, good blooms can be expected. In soil that has been used 3 years or longer it is well to place plant food below the bulbs where it is immediately available.

Much better effects can be had if few colors are used in beds.

Johnson Says He Is Not Candidate for Presidency In a speech prepared for radio delivery last week, Senator Lyndon Johnson made it definitely clear that he is not seeking the nomination for President but at the same time allowed to see the door on his right to refuse the nomination, if offered to him.

Somehow in the mailing of material to newspapers, the Senator sent the Tribune a radio script instead of the news story. Since the material is essentially the same, with the style being the only major difference, the Tribune here prints the text of the script as written for radio:

Senator Johnson, should it be given you, would you accept the Presidential nomination?

Answer: I am not a candidate for President. I don't expect the nomination to be given to me. I have never known a man to be nominated who did not seek it and I don't think it's likely to happen now. We have customs and traditions, a Constitution and a Bill of Rights which fairly well set forth the procedures by which Americans select their nominees and their presidents.

General Sherman said that if nominated he would not run and if elected he would not serve. General Sherman, as a military man, had a number of considerations in mind when he made that statement, but I think that anyone who loves his country, has to be careful about saying that he would refuse to serve his country. I am very happy to serve my country as I am now serving. I do not seek any other type of service. If I did, I would tell the people without hesitation that I would like to enter this new field. However, I am not going to say today that, if my country said to me that it wanted me to do a particular type of service that I would close the door and say that I would refuse to do that service.

If I am asked if I am a candidate, I say no. I think that a direct answer, if I were seeking the nomination, I would say yes. Those are short words that I think the American people can understand.

By EDDIE IRWIN

NOT BY popular demand, not for any reason except perhaps for just plain cussedness, but here we are back in business again after a many months lay off of writing this column.

to say that . . .

ANY ITEM which appears in this column which in any way tends to cast a reflection on someone, is purely coincidental . . . is trite, and might not even be true. To say it is not intentional, is true. But we're not silly enough to think that our prejudices will not creep into what we have to say. Suffice it to say simply the opinions expressed in this column are the opinions of the author whose name appears at the head of the column, and that we'll make an effort to make them as unprejudiced, as correct, as possible. And, we'll gladly correct mistakes in facts and misleading statements, when called to our attention.

we'll borrow

A LITTLE TOO. Because we've never gone a week without coming across an item someone else has written, mostly in area papers, which we think would be of interest to our readers, but which, in itself, was not of sufficient news value to carry as a story in itself.

in case . . .

ALL THIS BUSINESS about the new auto insurance rates has you confused, try to bear up and keep reading. We're planning to publish all the information we can find about it. In addition to a series of ads we are publishing, we also are attempting an overall story to explain just what the new law is about and how much an individual can expect to pay.

PROMPT SERVICE

YOUR FRIENDLY FORD DEALER - STATE INSPECTION STATION -

It was a . . .

REAL FINE community Thanksgiving service, held Tuesday night at the Assembly of God Church under the sponsorship of the Ministerial Alliance. The auditorium was about two-thirds filled and the program was well planned and well executed. Certainly the Alliance is to be commended for helping bring the spirit of oneness, of unity, to the people of Morton, working toward common good.

we hope . . .

MR. HULSE isn't sorely disappointed when we get through with this Shopper's Night project in Morton. Though some parades have been better than others, Mortontimes, since we have been here, don't seem to take to this type of thing. Seldom have we been able to get a project and really get cooperation from the bottom to the top, one end to the other, or whatever you want to say.

It doesn't imply . . .

THAT FOLKS HERE are not trying to cooperate in things, its just for some reason we have a town of folks who often don't know how. A lot of times in the 10 years or more that we have been in and around Morton, we have seen good, worthwhile projects fail, because the guy in charge just didn't have the time to get it done, or the ability or contacts to see that it was done.

this one time . . .

IT WOULD BE NICE if merchants all over town contacted some club or group at the school and told them, "you go build the float and we'll help you get the equipment, decorations, etc."

this time . . .

IT'D BE NICE if a lot of groups, clubs and individuals, that previously hadn't had the time to do this sort of thing, just planned to take the time at night to work up some kind of participation in the project.

WE'LL readily agree that Christmas has been grossly over-commercialized in the recent years. But how many of you Morton "Scrooges" are really stodgy enough to think that you can't find some part of this project worth your time? The visit to Morton of Santa Claus certainly can do something for a lot of children in the community that will be worth while. Think of all the religious themes that can be used on floats. Think of the Christmas caroling possibilities. Why the evening could even end in a Christmas season church service. No-sir-ee. We just can't agree with folks who not only won't take part in things because they just don't suit 'em in every detail, and even decide they'll stand in the way and block the efforts of others to do some thing.

COMMERCIALIZATION, Christmas is today, the same glorious time of the year it has ever been. And it'll be only what we, as citizens, make it. The positive approach, with a good direction, is more often far better than the negative approach with no direction at all.

T&C CLUB HEARS REPORT ABOUT QUEEN ELIZABETH I

The Town and Country Study Club met on Nov. 18, in the County Activities Building. Mrs. Pat Hughes served refreshments. Mr. and Mrs. Willard Cox presented an interesting film from the American Cancer Society. Mrs. Keith Kennedy gave a report on the life of Queen Elizabeth I, entitled "Good Queen Bess."

A brief business session followed the program and each member was asked to bring to the next club meeting a gift which could be sent to the mental hospital at Wichita Falls to be used as Christmas gifts.

Mrs. J. D. Glass was welcomed as a new member.

The thought for the day was "If we know the political and moral condition of the state, we must ask what rank women hold in it. Their influence embraces the whole of life."

Sports Notes —

By Eddie Irwin

There's a lot of folks around Morton who had a dickens of a time trying to find out this past weekend where a man would go if he were to go watch Morton Play Frenship.

Seems like everyone you asked would say, "just go to Frenship." Pressed for more complete answer we went to at least a dozen persons, even the coach, and got answers showing that none knew exactly where it was. Yes, it's around Lubbock. And it's near Reese Air Base. But where is it? Well sir, let it be known from here on in. If Morton, or any other school in the immediate area is playing Frenship, the chances are they are playing the school located just outside of Wolforth. It's a consolidated school, which can be reached by following the Lubbock Highway from Morton until you pass the caution light at the road going into Reese Air Base. Down the Highway a mile or so you make a right turn to go to Wolforth. The school is just outside of the town of Wolforth.

You phone them at Wolforth; you write them and the mail is on the Abernathy Route; but you play them at Frenship.

Coach Bobby Travis said this week he was trying to match a scrimmage game for his Morton Indians with the Causey, N. M., team for Friday afternoon.

Local fans, who have seen the young Indian team drop two games to Class B competition have been wondering what happened.

Is nothing major to worry about. The past few years we were blessed with a group of kids that had abnormally good shooting eyes, and this year, 'aint so.

They need a lot of work, and they'll get it. In the first two games Bobby hasn't been able to find any combination that looks like a winning combination, but give 'em time.

sentinel; David Tarver, reporter and Mike Holland, student advisor.

Levelland placed second. Again in Senior Chapter conducting it was Whiteface on top with a team composed of: Duane Cookson, president; David Skinner, vice president; Robert Guajardo, reporter; Ken Wesley, treasurer; Elton May, secretary; Delbert Hinson, student advisor; Royce Drennan, sentinel and Len Martin and Ragen Haney, members.

Morton's second place team which nosed out Sundown, included: Bobby Nieman, president; Steve Middleton, vice president; Lee Oden, secretary; Dale DeBord, reporter; Bill Gray, treasurer; Glen Kuehler, sentinel; and David Haralson, student advisor.

Whiteface had a third place in the Quiz, with a team of Howie Smart, Tommy Carter, Tommy Eaton and Johnny Mayo. C. Duane Knott is Morton's FFA advisor and James Carroll is the Whiteface FFA advisor.

Coach Bob Travis says they pulled ahead one point each time dropped behind and at the end of their Whitharral led 28 to 26.

Morton worked more in the early moments of the fourth quarter and built a 36 lead with 3:21 left in the game. They began a stall that lasted for two minutes, but with one minute remaining in the game they potted a basket, put them ahead to stay. The point performance was by Whitharral, with Marwan S. Gathright tossed in 23 points and Bob Pitzer in 10.

Morton's cold shooting from the floor was their drawback. The Maids, on the other hand, hit right well in the field, in a game in which Hughes used nearly all his strength.
