In making the announcement members of the church expressed their appreciation for Minister Williams' work here, but pointed out the Panhandle church gave him a larger field in which to work.

Don Williams of Olton, no known relationship of Minister Williams, will preach Sunday morning and night at the Eastside Church of Christ.

Thugs Visited Here But Tho't Twice

Apparently local peace officers discouraged three Lubbock thugs from hitting property here the early part of December.

After studying the thugs' pictures in the Lubbock Avalanche Journal Wednesday morning, local peace officers said they felt sure at least one of the "hooded" thugs were in Morton around 3 a. m. Sunday, Dec. 6.

That morning Marvin Ray, J. O. Mills, and Vaughan Killian were riding in the city patrol car.

They observed another car driving about downtown, and when the opportunity afforded itself, drew the occupants into conversation.

At least one of the three occupants of the car, the peace officers believe, was one of the confessed "hooded" thugs.

Readers Invited to try Hand at Naming "Mystery" Man Each Week

CALLING ALL PERRY MASONS FOR FUN, PRIZES!

If you enjoy working with clues and/or getting better acquainted with your friends and neighbors, your favorite "dish" will be served up in the Morton Tribune beginning soon.

You won't need a gun or be willing to travel... this is strictly arm-chair detective work. The mysteries to be solved will be right here in Cochran County and vicinity.

So make a reservation for your favorite arm chair after February 1, and get set for a wits-matching contest between your detective skills and your editor's best effort to outwit those detective skills!

The two of you (your editor and you) can flex your mental muscles over a game called "Who's Who in Morton," which will start on Feb. 4 or 11. It will be explained fully in that issue, but here's a little sneak preview of the kind of family fun game that has won more "fans" than any other feature offered in weekly newspapers.

You will start by looking over a group of small ads under the title "Who's Who in Morton." As you glance through these ads, you will observe some words, letters, numbers or phrases that don't quite "fit" the rest of the ad. Your first reaction (without this previous warning) MIGHT be that your editor has developed a mental block.

Such a conclusion would, of course, be unfair and unjust. Actually, printers DON'T develop mental blocks any more than other people (IT JUST SHOWS UP MORE IN PRINT). And such a conclusion would be inaccurate in this case also!

Or you might think those things that don't "fit" in the add copy are mistakes. But our readers all know that we don't make mistakes; so that possibility is out also.

Actually, those odd things that don't "fit" will be clues - clues to the identity of some man or woman in the area who has been selected as the mystery personality of the week (Mr. or Mrs.

had previously announced. R. C. Strickland announced as the third candidate for the Commission of Pet One. Ran Holloman, present office holder, and Leonard Coleman had already announced their candidacy.

Bill Burkett, City Patrolman, filed his candidacy for the Office of County Sheriff, thus becoming the first man to run with Sheriff Hazei Hancock who is seeking re-election.

We Hope Our Commissioners Never Face Need for These Regulations

It's often the "little headlines" that eventually make big news.

Such may, or may not be, the case in Scurry County.

The Abilene Reporter - News recently carried a news story regarding Commissioners' Court "discussions" at Snyder.

According to the story, the County Judge has set up the following regulations regarding meetings of the Scurry County Court.

BUSY WEEK NEARLY CLEANS UP COUNTY DOCKET

Boxes are being placed at Willis Food Store and Dosa Food Store in Morton, today (Thursday) for the receipt of old Christmas cards and all occasion cards.

The items received are made into gift occasion cards which in turn are sold, profits going to the Cystic Fibrosis fund.

Cystic Fibrosis, the disease which took the life of little Wanda Hodges, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hodges, last July, is not included in any of the other fund drives.

Mrs. Hodges, who is a member of the Lubbock Chapter of the National organization with headquarters in Philadelphia, said this week, funds are urgently needed for research and care of patients.

She will place pamphlets explaining about the disease, in a box next to the container where she hopes Mortontonites will leave the old cards they have received. The pamphlets also explain about the organization.

Mortontonites are urged to take just a few minutes to gather up their old cards and leave them in these boxes.

SEEK REGISTRATION OF ALL YOUTH IN ANNUAL SCHOOL DIST. CENSUS

Parents are reminded again this week that the school census is being taken during the month of January all over the state of Texas.

It is extremely important, to the school, that every child who will be six years old before Sept. 1, 1960 and not over 18 years of age, before that date, be counted.

That includes anyone not in school for one reason or another. Most often overlooked are youngsters who are the first child of school age in their family, and who will be entering school in the fall. Quit often, with no older brothers or sisters, the school overlooks the family.

Also often missed are youth still under 18 years of age who get married, or drop out of school to work.

Anyone who either thinks their family has not been listed, or who has any reason to think they know of another family overlooked, is requested to contact Dab Hodges, Assessor-Collector, as soon as possible, January 31 is the deadline.

Ray Lewis was re-elected by the group as Chairman for the show and he accepted the job. The group lit into several problems concerning the type of show and came up with a premium type show with an auction sale only on the top 20 percent of the animals.

In the hog division there will be a minimum of five animals to the division, or else the division will not be included.

Ervin Merritt was appointed chairman in charge of the hog division; Tom Lynch in charge of the lambs; and Ray Griffith in charge of the beef. On the weighing committee are V. E. Collins, Ken Coffman and Lewis Walker and Coffman and Walker are on the loading committee after the show.

CITY COMMISSION ASKS E.A.S. PHONE CONTRACT

In one of the busiest meetings held by the present group of City Officials since they took office, the Morton City Commission voted Monday night to request General Telephone Company of the Southwest to get together with Five Area Telephone Cooperative and one way or another try to come to an agreement over the present phone dispute.

The group, in an unanimous vote of those present instructed the secretary to notify the phone company by letter that they are tired of the long wait for negotiations and they want action in the immediate future. They made it clear that if action is not forthcoming soon, they will demand negotiations between the two companies.

They hope the wording of the request will get the action started without hard feelings, but they recognized that the City of Morton is caught in between the dispute and is getting the majority of the blame, plus the loss of confidence and loss of trade.

This was only one major item of interest acted upon by the group which met at 5 p. m. Monday with five voluntarily guests, two invited guests, four of the five regular members, and the City Secretary, Joe Seagler.

Mayor Pro Tem, Amos Taylor, members R. C. Strickland, Rob Richards and B. Merritt, were on hand. Roy Gentry was out of town. Meeting with the group were two members of the L'Allegro Study Club, Mrs. Jack Wallace and Mrs. James McClure; Joe Marshall, Bill Burkett and Hazel Hancock. City Attorney George Boring and Eddie Irwin were invited and attended.

Mrs. Wallace and Mrs. McClure appeared to ask if an ordinance existed or could be drawn up to protect the community against blind corners which exist throughout the city because of two main reasons, construction of fences, etc., too close to intersections and failure of property owners to cut tall grass and weeds in the summer.

They were informed no such ordinance existed, and probably would be unenforceable, but that the city would attempt to cut down on traffic hazards by asking those concerned to move fences back on their property far enough to allow drivers to see; and by cutting weeds on vacant lots when notified the hazard existed.

The City Secretary, in thanking the ladies for appearing on behalf of safety, and for the club's project in safety, also told the group the city is preparing to erect some more stop signs and replace some that have been destroyed, and would take this matter into accounting on the erection of signs.

Joe Marshall appeared asking the city about the status of domino halls in Morton, as pertaining to the law governing such. The law, drawn up on Jan. 18, 1940, was read to the Commission and

Inspection Date Is April 15th

Cochran Counties were once again reminded, last week, in a visit by a district official under the auto inspection program, that the deadline for that is drawing near.

April 15 is the date by which all motor vehicles must display the 1960 inspection sticker.

Residents are cautioned that it is much easier to obtain the stickers now, than wait until the last few days, and be caught in the tailend rush.

Not All GOC 'Wings' Claimed

Any former members of the local Ground Observer Corps, now deactivated, who earned "wings" for their sky-watching time, but never received them, can obtain those wings from Rusty Reeder, Cochran Power and Light.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

The Annual Report of the Cochran Soil Conservation District, prepared and presented by the Board of Supervisors of the District, to the cooperators, was received here recently and it points up a lot of effort that has gone into the Conservation Program in this county during the recently concluded, 1959.

The five Supervisors are: Zone I, M. A. Silvers, vice chairman; Zone II, O. L. Castle, chairman; Zone III, H. H. Rosson, member.

Zone IV, D. L. Tucker, member; Zone V, Hub Cadenhead, secretary.

The Board of Supervisors, which meets each month on the first Thursday night, in the SCS Office at the Activities Building (to which the public is invited) held 6 regular meetings and 2 special meetings during the past year.

Created in 1952, by a vote of the landowners, the Cochran District comprises all of this county which receives technical aid from the SCS. Total area of the district is 500,400 acres and of that total, 490,470 are in agricultural use. In the district are 702 operators, 561 being district cooperators, and their land totaling 384,616 acres.

Soil Conservation Service technicians assigned to the Morton Unit provide the technical assistance to the District and to the District Cooperators. At the present time, these men are: Edward E. Thomas, Work Unit Conservationist; Jesse J. Jackson, Soil Conservationist Aid; Ansil W. Outlaw, Soil Scientist; and Joe Krizek, Agricultural Engineer.

The high point of 1959's accomplishments, as far as the Board is concerned, came with the signing of 34 new district cooperators; and with the approval of 24 Great Plains Conservation Program contracts.

Basic practices which cooperators undertook, with respect to their land, for which they received varying amounts technical assistance both from the SCS and the district, include the following: A total of 1,938 acres in the Conservation Cropping System.

A total of 21 acres has been planted to wind breaks.
Improved Water Application has been the goal of efforts expended on 4,826 acres.
Irrigation Water Management has been carefully taught in the maintenance of 1,445 acres.
Laterals, 5.5 miles.
Sprinkler Irrigation systems, 23
a total of 3,146 acres served by these systems.

Twenty seven new basic plans of operation were written; 475 of the total 561 cooperators were contacted by the SCS Technicians; and 15 basic plans of farming were revised.
All of these figures help point out the tremendous job being done throughout the county, which would be impossible without the help of the SCS Technicians; without the efforts of the five men who sit on the Board and who offer their time to help farmers that want to be helped, conservatively; and through the efforts of farmers who CARE where they will have land five or ten years in the future, whether their sons will have land, and whether at the condition of this land will be.

FINAL WATER VOTE TABULATION SHOWS HEAVY VOTE IN COCHRAN COUNTY WAS THE DECIDING FACTOR

Unofficial voting, by boxes in the Water Board election last week, shows a total of 100 unmutated ballots were cast in Cochran County, 111 in Hockley County and 82 in Lamb County.

Navy on Plains With Newest Reserve Unit

"Navy on the Plains" . . . U. S. Naval Reserve in Lubbock . . . starts 1960 by offering young South Plains men between the ages of 18½ and 25 years old with no prior military service an opportunity to enlist for 5 years. Lt. (jg) Quitman Lindley, commanding officer, says that of this six years, the first year will be spent in the reserve unit at 710 College Avenue, Lubbock.

The unit now has vacancies for this age group. During his first year in the unit the Reserve will complete indoctrination, classification and military courses and will be given an opportunity to advance in rate and to also choose the type of rate training best suited for him. The second and third year will be spent on active duty with the Navy putting into application the things learned the first year.

Upon completion of active duty the Reserve can then spend the 4th, 5th, and 6th year in the home town Reserve Unit if he desires. Lt. Lindley points to this as an ideal way to complete military obligation and at the same time spend most of it at home. Interested young men are asked to check with the U. S. Naval Reserve Training Center, 710 College Avenue, phone: PO 5-6474 for further details.

Joe Greenhill Announces for Assoc. Justice Post

AUSTIN, (sp.) — Associate Justice Joe Greenhill of Texas Supreme Court Monday announced for re-election to the court, on which he has served since 1957.

He said he will make his official filing with the Democratic State Executive Committee during the week, for a place on the May 7 primary ballot.

Judge Greenhill, 45, a Navy veteran of World War II, was appointed an associate justice of Supreme Court to succeed the late Judge Few Brewster. In 1958, he received nomination in the first primary and was elected for the remaining two year portion of the term. He is now seeking a full six year term.

WORTH MORE BECAUSE THEY WORK MORE

Chevy's new torsion springs and Sturdi-Bilt design are changing everybody's ideas about how much work a truck can do. Last year's schedules are out—Chevrolet trucks ride faster over the rough runs to get in more trips a day! Big repair bills are no longer a problem—Chevrolet trucks soak up punishment that means downtime to other makes! And trade-in time's put off for extra makes! And trade-in time's put off for extra makes! And trade-in time's put off for extra makes!

New Dollar-Saving Prices
Step-Vans, 4-Wheel Drives, many light-duty models with automatic transmissions—all are lower priced. Prices have also been reduced on all optional V8's.

New Torsion-Spring Suspension
Eliminates I-beam shimmy and wheel fight! With torsion springs up front there's a brand-new, smoother, easier handling feel behind the wheel. New rear suspensions include wide-based coil springs in most light-duty models; tougher variable-rate leaf springs in medium- and heavy-duty models.

Electronically Balanced Wheels
Front wheels and tires are balanced at the factory. Helps make that new ride revolutionary!

New Cabs—Wider, Safer, More Comfortable
Many models are a whole 7 inches lower (without sacrificing road clearance), so it's easier to hop in and out of cabs. Still there's more space inside: more room for hats and hips, more foot room with suspended pedals. Cabs are safer, too; new build makes them 67% more rigid.

Plus Improvements All Through the Line
A new steering linkage system that cuts vibration, means better control. There's new V8 efficiency. Sixes long famous for saving. New key-turn starting. Higher, wider visibility. Talk to your Chevrolet dealer about the world's most advanced trucks.

MULESHOE TEAMS DISH OUT DOUBLE DEFEAT TO MAIDS, INDIANS ON LOCAL HARDWOOD, FRIDAY

The Morton Indians dropped the second District 2-A-A conference encounter and the Indian boys dropped their first league game Friday night, as Muleshoe won a double victory on the court.

Muleshoe piled up a tremendous lead and never were threatened as they romped to a 44 triumph.

Through the final score of the game was almost identical, 44-24, the game was a contrast that with only 3:40 left to play the game, the point spread was 44 to 22, in favor of Muleshoe.

quarter. Muleshoe left the floor at halftime with a 34 to 16 bulge.

Until Muleshoe subs began to stream onto the floor in the fourth period, Morton didn't even show signs of a flurry of a rally. Against subs, the Maids did post a fourth quarter 15 to 9 margin.

Miss Gross finished the game with 24 points to pace all scorers, and Miss Wedel totaled 14.

For the Maids it was a case of not being able to hit the basket. While Muleshoe was breaking loose under the basket time after time for easy crisp shots, their defense forced the Maids to shoot their first half shots from out on the court. And the Maids were cold.

Norma Flanagan finally began to work loose in the fourth quarter adding 8 points, and six in the third quarter for a game total of 18. Patsy Amyx had 11, mostly on free tosses and Doris Fleener added 10. Doris made five field goals and in a disillusioning first half, she was the only Maid to exhibit the ability to score from the field.

It was one of the coldest nights of the season for the usually hot shooting Morton girls and thus was one of their poorest overall performances.

The Mulettes came here as a acknowledged good team and showed in their fine playmaking.

In the boys game, Morton's men were every bit as cold in their shooting, as were their sisters. They fell far behind in the early stages, came on strong with a remendous Rally, and then buckled in the final three minutes, fouling excessively as they tried to get the ball in order to stay in the game.

Muleshoe took a 16 to 9 first period lead. They bulged that to 7 to 18 at halftime and had a 20 to 10 margin with only 5:15 to play in the third period. Then the Indians warmed up to their task, Middleton hit a free throw, and Zuber and Pylburn dropped in a free throw and at 2:54 the lead was cut to 34 to 23. Zuber's fielder cut the lead to two points but Muleshoe closed with a flurry and at the three way stop they led 39 to 24.

Quickly they ran it to 42 to 34, and Morton fans were about to give it up when the Indians started another flurry. Middleton, Brown, Morrison and Gathright hit to cut the score to 44 to 42, and Morton was really putting on the pressure.

Then came the parade to the free throw line. Muleshoe threw in 13 consecutive points, seven of them from free throws, and Morton was through. The fouling cost them the services of their all man, Bob Pylburn, in the third period and Tommy Morrison in the fourth quarter.

Muleshoe had no great night at the free throw line, but the overwhelming number of free tosses they had, provided the margin. They pumped in 15 of 28 while Morton converted only four of 15. Thus Muleshoe shot 13 more free throws than did the Indians and converted 11 more.

Murvin Gathright posted a 15 point total for Morton and Steve Middleton added 7. Tommy Morrison added six.

For Muleshoe James Shepherd, the tall man, had 20 points while Darrell Oliver was contributing 15. The game was a rather wild and woolly affair, with the Indians hustling all the way, hawking lots of rebounds from their taller opponents, but to often throwing the ball away.

For conference play the Muleshoe girls are 1 and 1 as is the Morton team. In boys' 2-A play, Muleshoe is 1 and 1, while Morton has won none and lost two.

Two of the more prominent boys on the South Plains College Texan cage team this year are Clyde Brownlow who starred at Morton; and Warren Norris, a real giant who did his high school playing at Whiteface.

After a red hot start, the Texans have cooled off considerably and dropped their first conference game to Odessa last week. But Brownlow is one of the top scorers and Norris, a 6 foot 8 inch center, continues to improve. It takes a heap of coordination to move 6 feet, 8 inches of man, and Norris like most tall boys, has had his troubles.

With lots of steady work at it and real determination, we think he could be a fine ball player.

Sharp Differences Expected for 1950 Congress

Senate Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex.) predicted Sunday that sharp differences of opinion would mark deliberations of the Congress, but he said this was a healthy and desired situation.

"One of the keystones of a democracy is the freedom to think and the equal freedom to freely express those thoughts," the Senator said in a weekly radio report to his Texas constituents.

Johnson noted that within the United States Senate was one of the world's greatest forums for the free expression of ideas.

"Here," he said, "the elected representatives of the people of this nation may freely express their views and — in the final analysis — arrive at what is best for the nation."

He touched on various basic problems, embracing differences of opinion, such as the defense needs of the nation, the national farm program, civil rights, and the sharp differences of opinion embodied in that subject, as well as the budget and fiscal responsibility.

As for the budget, Johnson told his listeners he had "no doubt as to the course that will be taken by the Congress."

"Again, I confidently expect that the Congress will cut the President's budget recommendations." He noted that the Congress last year sliced $1,800,000,000 from the Chief Executive's spending recommendations and forecast "the same careful analysis that was given every spending request last year will be given the President's budget recommendations this year."

CONFERENCE 3-B

WHITEFACE LANDS SEVEN MEN ON ALL DISTRICT GRID TEAMS

WHITEFACE (sp.) — Seven Whiteface players were named to the District 3-B all conference team recently in a meeting of the coaches of the schools.

The Antelopes dominated the 24 man all district team. Meadow and Whitharral each got four places on the team and Ropesville placed four, Amherst three.

Six of the players were named to both offensive and defensive teams including Whiteface back, Jimmy Collins.

Other Whiteface players placed on the team were, on the offensive team, end Jesse Hodges, tackle Elton May and center, Don Galvin; and on the defensive team, middle guard Frank Henderson, safety James Ashmore.

Honorable mention included Odell Scribner and Nathan Mason on the offensive team, and Dwight Stone, Ken Wesley and Odie Summers.

Whiteface lost a B-team boys' game, 51 to 20.

Bula Wins Pair From Three Way, — or Did They?

Bula won a pair of games from Three Way, Friday night, but the results of the boys' game is still in doubt... or was Monday, as far as Three Way was concerned.

A rather unusual occurrence caused officials to decide they would have to check with Austin and get an interpretation of the rules to determine the winner.

The boys' game was all knotted up after a double overtime, and the teams went into a sudden death playoff. Although the rules call for the first team to score two points to win the game, officials wondered whether the intent was to have one team ahead by two points.

The referees ordered the game played until Bula won by a two point margin, 45 to 43. But previous to that, Bula tallied a free throw for the first point in the sudden death period and then Three Way netted a field goal for the first "two points."

Laurwood Aaron was the apparent hero for the winners, tallying the winning field goal while Larry Pollard contributed 30 points in a well divided team scoring effort.

In the girls game, the touted Bula girls rolled to an easy 31 to 36 triumph as Carol Cooke poured in 37 points, Linda Sim's 20 counters was high for Three Way.

Two of the more prominent boys on the South Plains College Texan cage team this year are Clyde Brownlow who starred at Morton; and Warren Norris, a real giant who did his high school playing at Whiteface.

Levelland Chamber Manager Speaks At Monday's Jaycee Meeting

Bob Walker, Chamber of Commerce manager from Levelland, spoke to the Morton Jaycees and a group of guests Monday at the regular luncheon meeting of the Morton group.

Walker outlined the history of Chambers and their purposes, touched on the financial end of the project and budgets of chambers in neighboring towns, and indicated steps which should be taken in order to form a Chamber.

He indicated the main need for the Chamber is the "willingness" of businessmen to participate, both in money and man power, and stressed the need for a strong program of activities in order to keep the Chamber functioning.

He told the group he would contact Ralph Duncan, the contact man from the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, in order to arrange a meeting in Morton to further push the project.

Walker told the group that in 1957, Lueters, a town of only 750 people, had an active Chamber of Commerce. He said Chamber budgets from towns about this size range all the way from $1,800 to $8,200, but indicated that he felt to get a young man starting in the field, trained in that work, he felt the salary scale would be from $4,200 to $4,800.

Chevrolet has added a new 2-door coupe to its line and shipments to dealers are now under way. The new model of the rear-engine compact car has the same basic dimensions as the 4-door Corvair sedan, but has its own distinct sporty styling motif. This is accentuated by a split front seat and a new roof design which features a large sloping rear window.

PAID POLL TAXES, according to the office help in the Assessor-Collector's office, late last week, were around the 1,900 total and with any kind of an effort to remind people in the final two weeks of the month, we'd estimate that the total should reach 1,900 to 1,750.

"RACES" have developed, at this writing, in the Attorney and Commissioner Precinct One election, but others may be forthcoming. Add to this the fact that "Dee", who has been tremendously popular with voters, despite what anyone may think about the administration, will not be running again and a lot more people than usual have been expressing the sentiment that they just haven't seen the type of man they want to vote for as President, mentioned as a possible candidate.

Lack of Interest in Voting Was Morton's Gain

The Morton voting box carried by a considerable margin the largest number of votes cast in the High Plains Underground Water District election last Tuesday, proving something that has been said time and time again, but is seldom shown in as graphic figures, in a community such as ours.

Lack of interest, self satisfaction, too many outside interests, failure to promote issues... or any one of many other ways of stating it... is usually the controlling factor in any election.

Local persons decided just about 19 days prior to the Water District election, after talking to Roy Hickman, local candidate for the district office, that there was an excellent opportunity to prove to themselves what could be done.

The idea was born when Roy Hickman confided in the group that he would very much like to serve on the Board, that he had studied the water problems for many years, and that he had definite ideas of things that need to be done to protect citizen's water rights.

That was the key to the entire situation. Here we had a man who had not just "consented" to serve... here was a man who wanted to serve.

Armed with this fact, and the certain knowledge that persons have exhibited for many years a "don't give a damn" attitude toward the water election, this local group was sure that Morton votes alone could put Hickman in privacy today. We may dislike a lot of other things that indicate machine voting (and we mean by machine voting, voting of a bloc of controlled votes). But certainly, only man's personal honesty stood between us and fair elections in the days gone by.

POPS UP IN our mind again and again, has personal honesty, and integrity become a thing of the past? Has this race for more material things in life, a race that seems to stack all the odds in favor of the person who can operate recklessly, without any sign of conscience or principle, become so great that the voter who would do right, is just foolishly whistling in the dark? Maybe so.

TO MAINTAIN a belief in humanity. But is that belief justified? but we'll...

GO ON PAYING poll taxes and voting for the man we think might do the job that is needed. Certainly if it has never been shown that we could accomplish our desired ends by giving up...

IS ABOUT the only weapon you have left, with which to fight the things that make government less and less, a government of the people.

those who believe...

IN THE tendency of people to try to get something for nothing; in the trend toward taking the burdens of worry off the individual, must be beginning to wonder if we haven't really hit something good in this new insurance law.

DON'T PRETEND to be able to figure whether it is good or bad, for the state as a whole, but like any other thing that gets this far down the road, we wonder if it wouldn't be a pretty good thing to let it ride for a few months and see.

LIKE THE AUTHORITY that came up with the plan. We're from the old school that believes legislation should come from the Legislature that we elected; not from a bureaucratic group set up by the administration.

nevertheless...

WE GET TO wondering, when all the special interest groups get our Constitutional right of voting on our own terms and really start comparing, if the new ruling hasn't struck a vital cord that has long needed to be struck, in the fight against bad driving. We wonder if the new ruling hasn't very neatly plucked the only string left on this horrible problem of public indifference. We always said, the pocketbook is about the only nerve some people have left.

we wonder how many... OF THOSE WHO ARE shouting the loudest belong in one of two groups. Either the ones that are to pay a big fat premium because they have a habit of not giving a hoot about others when they're in a position in our society where they have been pre-occupied by the people we have just described.

It takes votes... TO BE ELECTED to many positions... and a tremendous amount of these votes are cast by the "I don't give a damn," a group of people that just don't give a damn for anyone but themselves.

it was decided, before the meeting was adjourned that a new ordinance should be drawn up clarifying the issue and setting forth conditions which must be met under a health code. However, Mr. Marshall was to be informed that under present city ordinances, the only thing governing the operation of a domino parlor is the need to purchase a permit.

Bill Burkett appeared before the Commission seeking a leave of absence in order to campaign for a County Office. It was later decided, after lengthy discussion, that the city could not grant a leave of absence under the circumstances, but as long as the man did his campaigning on his own time, and was doing his present job for the city, it was up to him when he quit the job to run for office. He was also to be informed that upon submitting an application for the City Marshall's post, following the election, if he desired to do so, that they would be glad to give his application every consideration, if the position had not been filled to the satisfaction of the city.

Sheriff Hazel Hancock was summoned by the Commission and asked to understand that the city was appreciative of the fine cooperation shown in the past and had hopes it would be continued, and that it was understood the action taken by the city was neither an indictment or endorsement of any man in the County race. He expressed his pleasure also at the cooperation and said he was sure it would continue, both on the part of the Sheriff's office and the city.

The question of the status of the mayor came up and under the advice of the City Attorney, George Boring, it was agreed that the city would continue to operate under a Mayor Pro Tem, until such time as the City election would come up in April.

City Secretary Joe Seagler asked that the present commission be thinking about whether or not they will be candidates for re-election and hoped that if they decided to do so, they would announce their intentions 60 days prior to the elections in April, though the deadline by law is only 30 days. He also noted he had the application forms on hand.

The City Commission was informed that the addition to the city meter shop would be extended, since the extra storage space would be much less expensive at this time, then to add on at a later date. No vote was taken, but approval was expressed.

The subject of purchase of an addressing machine for use on meter bills was taken up and the Secretary was instructed to investigate the machines available and the cost and bring it back to the Commission.

A trash hauling situation was discussed in that a customer has objected to paying of the $1.00 trash hauling fee, and has ordered the trash men to stay off his property. After discussion the Commission agreed that the Secretary must simply refuse part payment, the next bill due date, and then disconnect city services.

A situation in which three city court cases have been appealed to County Court and were to be dismissed for lack of evidence, on Tuesday, was brought up. The Council authorized City Attorney to seek prosecution of the cases, Tuesday, in order to keep the Corporation Court decisions from becoming ineffective. The City maintained that they were not informed of the cases to be brought before the County Court, except by indirect approach. They made it clear that while those cases may not have had sufficient evidence to be prosecuted in County Court, they wanted the City Attorney and the County Attorney to have an understanding in all cases appealed from City Court so that the judgement of the Corporation Court would be effective, just and understandable in the future.

All members present voted aye on this motion made by R. C. Strickland and seconded by Rob Richards.

Then the telephone situation came up and was discussed at length and it was decided that the city must push for some kind of contract between the two companies. The Secretary then asked the Council to push for an agreement and payment from the county to the city on fires covered by the Volunteer Fire Department outside the city limits. Agreements have been reached previously but the city has not received all the money promised. He pointed out that fires cost the city $2,607.72 last year, most of which were outside the city limits, and that either the city must receive help from the county to pay this bill or they should raise taxes to pay for this service.

The Commission instructed the Secretary to go with the Fire Chief to appear before the County Commissioners and try to work out a satisfactory agreement.

The salaries of two members of the office staff were raised.

Earns Publication Of Article in Farm Magazine

Cochran County has its own Ann Landers — not Ann, but Lenda. Younger, cuter, and just now taking her first step — into the journalistic field of matrimonial advisement, that is, Lenda, who is a freshman at South Plains College, Levelland, as the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Landers of north of Morton.

A graduate of Muleshoe High School, Lenda recently won first place in a national contest for her article entitled "Finding a Husband."

Lenda's work appeared in "Heart to Heart Talks" department of the Progressive Farmer.

Concerning the subject of "Finding a Husband," Lenda wrote: "Sometimes the female population acts as if life wouldn't be worth living without men . . . and one must admit it may not be very pleasant and romantic, but it has been proved possible.

"There is no need for everyone to rush out and join the local Old Maids' Club, but can't one just relax and quit worrying so much?"

"Meanwhile, while you are waiting for Prince Charming, why don't you get a new hobby . . . and not just a self-centered one? Help with an unselfish project, such as those sponsored by church and civic organizations. And for once just forget you. Go to church, not to find a man, but for the real reason of worshipping God.

"As you become more interested in helping others and less interested in helping only yourself, you will become a better Christian and a more desirable person.

This prize winning article netted Lenda $15 in cold cash. Lenda, 18, plans to major in elementary education.

Plans are to get a floor set from independent packers-buyers before the show gets underway.

Other committee and planning meetings will be held in the near future, but the enthusiasm expressed in the Friday meeting was welcomed by all as the sign for a good show.

The pre-show outlook is for lots of good hogs in the show and County Agent Homer Thompson said they expect 8 to 12 calves to be shown. He said the slightly early date may have an effect on the size of the animals by show time.

POTENTIAL NOT NEARLY REACHED... Prominent Terry County Grain, Liquid Fertilizer Dealer Foresees Bright Future for Cochran County Agriculture

Grady Goodpasture, well known Brownfield grain producer, buyer and shipper, and also well known in the area in the liquid fertilizing business, attributed Saturday, in a visit to Cochran County, the increase of production of our nation, agriculturally, to the use of chemicals.

"Chemicals," Goodpasture said, "is the reason we are able, as a nation, to feed ourselves," adding that only the nations of the world with strong use of chemicals have been able to feed their peoples.

Pointing out that farm commodities are the cheapest products on the American market, he discussed the increase in cotton and grain production on Terry County farms in the past 10 year period. Reminded of the fact that "turnout" on our cotton wasn't what we had hoped it would be this past crop, Goodpasture attributed the loss in the turnout to the "too sharp difference in weather," as far as Terry County was concerned. He said the rainy spell lasted plenty long enough, but when it did get hot and dry in Terry County it went to the extreme.

He felt the use in fertilizers had proved one of the major factors in showing increases of up to $60 per acre on test plots. Dryland test plots here showed a $4 an acre increase in profits.

Discussing the problems of the fertilizer industry, especially the liquid fertilizer end, the Brownfield man said their problem is to attain the highest possible analysis and still keep the fertilizer in a liquid state. After you reach a certain point it has the tendency to solidify. Their constant battle is to improve it, mostly built around mixtures that will resist this solidifying urge.

Quizzed about certain types of land he reaffirmed the view that there is no such thing as reclaimable land, and in a tour through Cochran County he noted the land was in better shape than most adjoining counties. The success in fertilizer use in Terry County is built around the fact that a lot of the land was well on the way to being "farmed out," and certain chemicals are just what the land needed to restore its producing value.

Goodpasture, who was here on business with an associate from Lubbock, Neil McAllister, also reaffirmed that the tests on their fertilized cotton produced in Terry County was showing better staple length and micronaire although in some instances, the grades had not held up. By far the majority of grades held well and it will take several more years to determine many of the causes of slipping grades.

Admitting that the fertilizing industry, as applicable to this county, is still very young, Goodpasture predicted great things for the future, through the use of fertilizers. In a two hour tour through Cochran County and southwest Bailey County he noted that a lot of the land wouldn't show a remarkable increase in production through use of fertilizer, since "it still is good land with lots of chemical content. But he also pointed out that in this competitive business of today, the many who recognize the value of the slight extra margin of profit, is the man who will progress.

He especially praised the type of soil found in farms around the Maple Community.

Amazed and astounded at the extent of farming acreage increases in this area since his last tour through the area, many years ago, he remarked that he felt Cochran County was just on the fringe area of real expansion in production and realization of its tremendous potential. He recounted the time, money, effort and even failures that are necessary to get through to residents of an area, the ways of realizing their potential.

Goodpasture, questioned about various aspects of raising cotton including fighting insects, angular leaf spot rust, and in nursing cotton crops through particular troubles that occur because of weather conditions of a certain season, reminded that the farmer who "gets after" his troubles, instead of waiting and watching, is the one who is finding ways to overcome the problems.

TREE SEEDLINGS AVAILABLE FOR WINDBREAK PLANTINGS

Established windbreaks are an excellent means of preventing wind erosion of valuable topsoil as well as providing protection for farmsteads, especially in West Texas. The Texas Forest Service this year will again make available tree seedlings for planting windbreaks.

Deadline on orders for the seedlings is March 1. Red Cedar, Arizona Cypress, Austrian Pine, ponderosa pine, cottonwood, mulberry, sycamore and osage orange (bois d'arc) seedlings are available and will be shipped for planting shortly after March 1. The price is $1.50 per hundred for the seedlings, and order forms are available at the County Agent's office, local SCS offices or from the Director, Texas Forest Service, College Station, Texas.

The seedlings will be packaged bare rooted in moss and moisture proof paper rather than being individually wrapped in burlap. Smith pointed out that the seedlings may be used only for windbreaks - not for shade or ornamental purposes.

LOCAL WATER PROBLEMS

On January 12, 1960, the Water Committee met with the Home Demonstration Council. Drinking water was discussed principally for health reasons on the farms and ranches in Cochran County. Mr. V. T. Hancock, attended the meeting and held an informal discussion on the water wells that supply the homes of farms and ranches.

The location and installation of home water wells may be the reason why some of the farms have polluted drinking water. The pollution comes directly from coliform organisms. Coliform organism is the same as sewage organism. Mr. Hancock brought out that cesspools were outlawed and not legal in Texas. Septic tanks should be constructed in their place. Water wells should be located at least 150 feet or more from the septic tank and on the uphill side if possible. All wells should be sealed or cased off of so dirt or live organisms cannot settle in or around the pipe. Sealing the well at the surface should be done around the casing several feet deep. This not only prevents water and dirt returning to the well but keeps out rats, dogs, birds, etc. - all of which will contaminate your drinking water.

Pressure tanks are normally sealed with air tight fittings but not always. These should be inspected and corrected if improperly installed.

All open tanks are especially unsafe for home water storage because sand, birds and other foreign matter will collect in them. Even when covers are provided for overhead tanks they are not usually safe because the wind sifts organisms in the cracks around the lid and other openings.

Mr. Hancock made the statement there is no rule of the thumb how often water should be tested for organism furnished by these home wells. But if he had small children he would have them tested frequently, once a month would not be too often he thought. It was suggested that all wells should be tested once a year or once each six months would probably be better.

Sterilized bottles are available at the Extension Service Office for collecting these samples of water. Instructions come with the bottle. After the faucet has been disinfected by burning, turn water on and let it run a few seconds before collecting a sample in the bottle. To sterilize by burning - use cotton soaked in alcohol attached to a wire. Do not use paper or matches.

Mr. Hancock enumerated several human diseases which may result from drinking contaminated water. He said one of these could be polio.

Following this meeting a discussion took place in the County Agent's office on the Salt contaminating fresh underground water from sump pits or from the oil well pumping salt water which has not been properly sealed off around and below the fresh water level.

It is possible that it may be necessary to check these wells to determine whether or not they have been sealed properly. I was pointed out that it may be possible that oil wells sealed down through the water line and even past that, could more quickly contaminate underground water than the surface sump pits. The end of our salt water problem is not in sight because the more we get into this the worse it gets as one of the committee members slated.

Some people believe that oil wells, though sealed off, were not sealed deep enough to prevent salt water from contaminating the fresh underground water. Is there a way to check and determine the problem of the oil well being sealed properly - if the oil company does not cooperate, is the question now? These are a few of the items discussed in the meeting advises the County Agent.

SENATOR *** Yarborough's Report

Texas ranks 43 in the nation in the quality of its library service to state citizens, according to latest figures given me by Roscoe Rouse, an official of Texas Library Association. For the purpose that improved public library service be made available to millions of Texans, I have joined in co-sponsorship of a bill to extend the Library Services Act.

Purpose of this bill is to authorize matching funds over a five year period so that Texas counties which choose to do so may establish new libraries or improve existing services.

One of the clearest statements on the need for the Library Services Act was made by Dr. L. Quincy Mumford, the Librarian of Congress, who said:

"Millions of people, in effect get little opportunity through their lives to do much reading beyond the textbooks, their local newspapers and occasional magazine and perhaps the mailorder catalogs. For most people the public library is the chief — and sometimes the only — means of carrying on their education after they leave school. The public library," he said rightly, "is the adjunct of our free public school system, and as such is vital to the maintenance of independent thought and action."

Under the existing Library Service Act, which is due to expire June 30, 1961, substantial improvements have been made in our state's library service.

State Librarian W. B. Harwell of Austin reports that under the Library Act passed by the Congress, some 225,000 books have been circulated, twenty nine Texas counties have received assistance in establishing new or improving existing library services, and the services will be extended in 14 additional Texas Counties in 1960.

Some of the counties now being served include Burnet, Blanco, Llano, Hidalgo, Starr, Willacy, Brazos, Burleson, Grimes, Madison, Robertson, Jim Wells, Kleberg, Live Oak, Nueces, Crosby, Dickens, Garza, Kent, Floyd, Houston, Liberty, Polk, Trinity, Walker, Dawson, Gaines, Callahan and Taylor. However, Mr. Harwell reports that there are still 181 predominantly rural counties in Texas with no library service or with inadequate library service."

The purpose of the bill I am co-sponsoring is to extend this very worthwhile program so that library services can be improved over a period of several years. It is my hope that this library service may be made available in every county in Texas, to every family in Texas.

Good books are keys to the door of knowledge. I hope to unlock these doors for millions of our people.

HERE'S WHAT GOES INTO THE PRICE OF A PRESCRIPTION

You give the pharmacist a piece of paper. A little while later, he hands you a package of medication. What you get for your money is not just a bottle of tablets or capsules or liquid. It's a great deal more. — As follows:

RESEARCH
Thousands of man-hours and millions of dollars have been expended by the manufacturer to find the drug that will do exactly the job the doctor wants done. For every 100 drugs tested, at great expense, only one usually turns out right. Only after costly research . . . in the test tube, on animals, on human patients . . . is the product ready to go.

AVAILABILITY
The finest drug in the world is useless if it's not available to the person who needs it—when he needs it. To deliver the newest drugs to every city and hamlet—overnight!—the drug industry maintains a highly organized distribution network. Strategically located manufacturer's depots . . . wholesaler's warehouses . . . thousands of men and women and vehicles—all play a vital indispensable role in getting every new life-saving drug into the nation's pharmacies in the shortest possible time.

PRODUCTION
To mass-produce today's wonder drugs . . . so that all who need them may have them . . . requires the most fantastically complex equipment. Moreover, complex and costly procedures must be followed to make sure that safety and potency and efficacy are guarded every step of the way from raw materials to finished medication.

DISPENSING
To make sure he learns how to dispense your medication safely and accurately, the law requires your pharmacist to undergo 5 years or more of rigorous, costly education and training. To do his job right, he must then invest thousands of dollars in stocking at least 3,000 different drugs, many of them rarely called for. He must also invest in a wide array of precision equipment—designed for the proper storage, compounding, and packaging of each prescription.

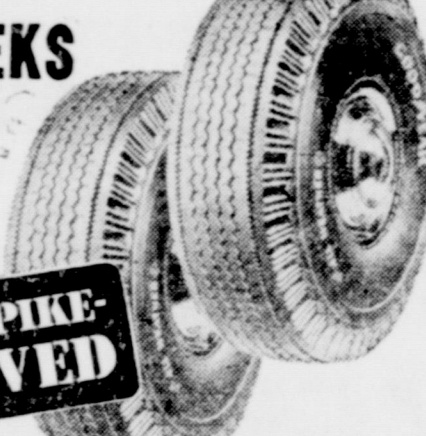

Those are SOME of the things you get when you pay for a prescription. But over and beyond all these, you also get better health . . . speedier recovery from illness . . . fewer hospital bills . . . and an ever longer life.

DRY BEANS OFFER GOOD NUTRITION AND GOOD EATING

You get a lot of food value at low cost in dry beans and peas. A pound of dry beans for example, will provide seven to nine hearty servings.

Beans and peas go well with meat and other foods. They are easy to store and use. With different seasonings, they make an almost endless variety of tasty dishes.

Look at the food values they offer. Rich in carbohydrate content, which your body uses for energy, they also contain some B vitamins, and are good sources of calcium and iron. And along with all of this, they provide useful protein.

To get the most good from the bean - family foods, plan to serve with some grain food, like bread, or some meat, cheese or other animal protein. Baked beans with brown bread, pork and beans, and chili con carne are popular flavor combinations.

Save time, if necessary, by using a pressure cooker to cook dried beans or peas.

BOSTON BAKED BEANS
2 cups navy beans or Great Northern beans.
1 1/2 quarts water
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 pound salt pork
1/4 cup molasses
1/2 teaspoon mustard

SNOW ON SHRUBS
A heavy snow on shrubs may look like a dream picture at the time but it may cause limbs to break off or split. Snow should be brushed or shaken off to prevent permanent damage to shrubs and small trees.

Limbs that are broken off of shrubs or trees should be removed with a saw. A good clean cut will lessen the likelihood of diseases infecting the plant as well as improving its appearance.

HELP YOUNGSTERS SOLVE MONEY PROBLEMS
Youngsters have money worries too. Mrs. Eula Newman, our Extension Home Management Specialist, says the problem may only be a penny size one at first, but by the time a youngster reaches his sixteenth birthday, dollars will have become one of his biggest problems.

Money management has to be learned as does reading, writing and arithmetic, reminds the specialist. If your child begs and teases for nickels, dimes and quarters, you likely need to change your money management with him.

Many of the questions parents and youngsters ask about these problems are answered in the 4-H leaflet, "Where do you get Your Money," by extension farm and home management specialists.

Get a copy from this office, then call a family conference and help your youngsters improve their plan for spending.
