Indians to open season Friday

STARTING FRIDAY NIGHT in the season's grid opener at Olton will be the seven offensive linemen shown above. Left to right they are Eddie Holloway, Kenny Coats, Mike Irwin, Jerry Elliott, Eddie Lyons, Larry Shaw, and LaMell Abbe. TRIBpx

Locals prepare for battle against Olton Mustangs

The countdown is in its last phase, and no holds are foreseen as the Morton Indians are poised on their launching pad ready to blast off the 1965 gridiron season against the always-tough Olton Mustangs on foreign soil Friday night. Ignition time is 8:00 p.m. The Olton club is favored to win their district in the grid wars this fall, while Morton has been given the nod for second position in District 4-AA. The local lads will be out to avenge a first-game loss to the Mustangs last year, one of only three defeats the Indians suffered last fall.

An entire new coaching staff has taken over the reigns at Olton this year. Otis Holladay, who was head mentor at Pampa last year, is directing the Mustangs, assisted by Jacky Moss, Tommy Lester, Ron Dennis, and Cecil Todd.

Three starters from last year's club are back for the Mustangs. Joe Priest, who will be starting for his fourth year, has been moved to tail back from quarterback, and Charles Church, who played end last year, is a wing back this season. Don Mitchell, 215 lb. tackle, is back at the same slot.

Olton is expected to run from a wing-T formation, with the wing to the right most of the time. In fact, in the Mustangs' scrimmage with Post, they never did vary their formation. Tommy Hall, a 155-lb. senior is expected to handle the signal-calling chores for the Mustangs, and Jackie Burkhalter, a senior weighing 140, will round out the Olton backfield.

Burney Hooper and Larry Neinst will be at the ends Friday night. Hooper is a 150-lb. senior,

Education law to be enforced

Provisions of the Texas Public Education Law, pertaining to compulsory education, may be enforced starting with the 1965-66 school year, according to Bob Travis, elementary school principal. Under the law, parents could be fined for violating the law.

Section 2892 of the law reads: "Every child in this state who is seven years of age and not more than sixteen years of age, other than a high school graduate, shall be required to attend the public schools in the district of its residence, or in some other district to which it may be transferred as provided by law, a minimum of one hundred and sixty-five days of the regular school term of the district in which said child attends school."

Section 2894 of the law says that any guardian who has a child out of school not covered by the specified "exemptions" but within the required school age limit, the guardian will first be given a warning by the attendance officer. If the warning is ignored, the attendance officer shall file a complaint against the guardian in county court or justice court.

Part of Section 2894 reads, "Any parent or other person standing in parental relation upon conviction for failure to comply with provisions of this law shall be fined for the first offense five dollars, and the second offense ten dollars, and for each subsequent offense twenty-five dollars. Each day that said child remains out of school after said warning has been given or after said child has been ordered in school by the

Morton woman's sister shells about Viet Nam

Betty Casey, sister of L. F. Hargrove, Morton, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Hargrove, spent six days in Saigon in August.

She said that the "beautiful little Viet women strolled down the streets with their a-dais flowing behind them" and there was nothing in the demeanor of shopkeepers and other residents of the city to indicate that "anything extraordinary" was happening around them.

Carrillo heads 4-H work

With training she received in her hometown of Morton, Mary Carrillo, 17, is heading a unique 4-H program in Burley, Idaho.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carrillo, who moved from Morton a couple of years ago to Burley. The Carrillos are currently visiting in Morton for about ten days.

The 4-H program which Mary is heading is aimed primarily at the youngsters who normally would not have a chance to participate in club work.

The program was organized under the supervision of the Extension Service. Through the cooperation of Burley High School, Mary, who will be a senior this fall, was chosen to head the program.

Mary's job is to recruit and instruct girls between the ages of 10 and 13 in 4-H work. She frequently visits the homes of potential 4-H members, explaining the program to them and inviting them to meetings. About half of

There will be a pep rally at 3:00 p.m. in the Morton High School gym today. Cheerleaders and band will add spirit to the program. The rally will kick off the 1965-66 football season. Coach Jones may say a few words.

Harris is new science teacher

Louis Harris, 22, is the new science teacher at Morton High School. He is married and will teach chemistry, physics, and general science.

Harris is a recent graduate of Stephen F. Austin, in Nacogdoches and is from Tyler. His hobbies are fishing, hunting and tennis. He is a member of the Christian Church. In college he taught freshman chemistry.

Harris said, "My wife and I

Chief Cloud asks drivers to watch for school zones

Police Chief Burtis Cloud said today that he wanted to remind everyone to "slow down in school zones now that classes are in session again."

Cloud said that during the summer many persons have gotten into the habit of speeding through school zones. He warned that the speed limit around the schools was 15 m.p.h. and in the school crossing away from school 20 m.p.h.

He said that one especially dangerous place was the school crossing on South Main near Doss Super Market. The speed limit there is posted on signs that have big flashing warning lights. Cloud said that the warning lights have slowed automobiles down pretty well, but that big trucks heading out the highway still are going a little too fast. He said that it would be hard

Amendment will go to polls

Cochran County voters will go to the polls next Tuesday to ballot on a proposed constitutional amendment which would increase the number of Texas state senators from 31 to 39. The amendment also would re-apportion the Senate according to population, instead of according to the number of electors as now prescribed. Also to be deleted by passage of the amendment would be the present constitutional mandate that no single county may have more than one state senator.

that no single county is entitled to more than one Senator."

The membership of the House of Representatives would remain at its present number, 150.

The proposed amendment has overtones of sectional politics in Texas.

If it is defeated and the state retains only 31 senators, a recently-passed senatorial re-districting

New marriage law is now in effect for Texans

Beginning last Wednesday, all persons who apply for marriage licenses in Texas must fill out written applications, according to Mrs. Lessye Silvers, county clerk.

The new marriage license law which went into effect Wednesday also does away with the three day waiting period previously required of minors.

Reserve seats are now being sold

It was announced today that Morton High School now has season tickets available.

Season tickets for admission to the five home games are $6.25 for adults, and $2.50 for children. Reserve tickets sell for $5 each.

Superintendent of Schools Ray Lanier said that the school is going to allow everyone who had a reserved seat last year to have the same seat this year. But it was stressed that persons who want the same seat they had last year should try to see someone at the

Under the new law passed by the last legislature, all persons seeking marriage licenses must appear in person at the county clerk's office to fill out the written application. (Under the present law, either the man or the woman may sign for the other provided he or she has sufficient proof of the other's age.)

The written application, which must be signed under oath before the county clerk or a deputy, covers the applicants' full names, residence address, dates and places of birth, color or race, for women who have been previously married, the surname prior to marriage, descriptions of each document accepted as proof of identity or birthdate and an oath setting out that all information

Donnie Melton . . . I had fun cutting out the apple. I liked the cafeteria too. The food was real good. Just as good as I get at home.

Whiteface football coach recaps season's outlook

The Whiteface Antelopes scrimmaged the Levelland B team Friday night at Levelland. The score was one for one.

In the first ten minutes of play Armando Alaniz, the starting Antelope quarterback suffered a concussion and had to leave the game. Coach Dale Read said that Alaniz should be back for practice Monday.

Read said that because the first string quarterback was injured early in the game, the team didn't get much of a chance to work on its offense. Dale Burtis, a 115 pound freshman quarterback, filled the vacancy while Alaniz was out. Read said, "We learned that we need a little more depth in the quarterback position. It's really hard for a freshman quarterback to run a team when he hasn't had the experience."

Read said that starting halfbacks Lupe Alaniz was also injured in the game. He suffered a sprained ankle and will be out at least a week.

Read said that Wayne Legan, a freshman guard looked good, and that James Seward, a sophomore tackle looked good. He also commended starting fullback Darrell Kitchens.

Read said, "The defense looked good. But we need some work on our passing and offense. We didn't get to use our offense a lot in this scrimmage."

Read said, "The attitude of the team is good. They have determination. We only worked out four days in pads before we scrimmaged Levelland B team, and we looked pretty good."

Read added, "The boys hit hard. We are going to try to get them and keep them in top physical condition so we can keep injuries down. Last year we were really hurt by the injuries problem."

Read said, "We are going to try to open up and throw the ball more this year. Our team is also a lot quicker than last years, not in break away speed, but just in general."

The Antelopes have ten lettermen returning, four of which are seniors. Read is assisted by coach Cecil Maddox.

The Antelopes are in the act of rebuilding to face a tough district 2-B. Gone are eight seniors from a good 1964 team. Gone are Guajardo, James Moore, Newman and Knox.

Some of the defensive standouts this year may be Wid Seward, Lupe Alaniz, and Darrell Kitchens. The team has been looking for a quarterback to operate the wide open T attack. Armando Alaniz, a senior, weighing 140, is the first string quarterback. Alvin Nock, a 115 pound junior and Dale Burtis, a 115 pound freshman are candidates for the position.

The halfback positions will probably be filled by the fastest men in the district in the persons of Lupe Alaniz and Wilmer Jackson. Lupe is a 150 pound junior and Wilmer is a 130 pound sophomore. Darrell Kitchens and Arthur Castillo are battling for fullback position. Castillo is a 145 pound freshman and Kitchens is a 155 pound junior.

At ends are two regulars who weigh 150 pounds each. They are Jerry Howard and Robert Ponds. At tackles there are quite a few candidates, but Ronnie Taylor, a 155 pound junior and Mike Gainer, a 165 pound junior may get the positions. Tommy Moore, Ike Fores, Mike Howard and Mac Ashmore are all battling for guard posts.

Gainer is the largest at 165 pounds. Wid Seward, the largest player on the team at 220, is slated to start at center but is being pressed by Ed Marks.

Last years team won 6 out of 10. The first game of the season is with Meadow Sept. 10 at Whiteface at 8:00 p.m. Read said that the two toughest teams might turn out to be Sundown and Amherst. He said especially Amherst because they lost only three boys from last year's squad.

Royce Hanna was in Lubbock Monday on business.

With the coming of the football season, also comes the advent of this column again, probably much to the dismay of many Morton sports fans. There are a lot of supporters of athletics in Cochran County who know more about sports, and are much more capable of writing a column than I, but it just so happens that I am in the position to be able to do, so here I am again.

We'd like to welcome Tommy Hinson to the Morton coaching staff. The Indians are real lucky to be able to grab onto a man of Tommy's calibre—he's a good 'un.

Four just ain't enuf . . .

Speaking of coaches, it kinda made us sick at the scrimmage with Littlefield Saturday night to see all four of Morton's coaches working on the field, while Littlefield had six mentors out there—probably only about half of their staff.

Sure, Littlefield is a larger school and in 3-A, but there shouldn't be as much difference in the size of the coaching staff as there is. We'd venture a guess that every 2-A team the Indians play this season will have a larger staff than Morton. Four men just aren't enough to work with the varsity, the freshmen, and the junior high boys.

Our coaches are doing a good job and have done a good job in the past, but how long are we going to be able to keep these high calibre men if they are continually overworked, and don't get a chance to work with their various squads as much as they would like.

Granted, athletics aren't the reason we are sending our young people to school, but it is an important part of it. Any subject, whether it is mathematics, science, or football, is not taught at its best when there is a shortage of instructors or when classes are too large.

Morton gained a coach last year, giving them five, but the number was cut to four again this year. We hope it will be for only one year.

Indians hustle . . .

The Indians hustled real good in their Saturday night scrimmage, and looked as though they had possibilities for this season. Of course, they need a lot of work on some aspects of their game, but overall, it was a pretty good showing for only two weeks of workouts.

The Morton booster club is meeting every Monday night at the high school. Club members meet, view game films, and hear from the coaches every week. Membership in the club is only $5.00. The boosters buy the movie film for each game, and also pick up the tab for the processing. That alone runs between $600-$700 per season. Their projects are worthy, so if you are asked to join—fork across five bucks to help the cause.

Little goodies . . .

Kenny Palmer, who suffered a shoulder separation the first day of workouts, will probably see action only as a punter for the first two ball games at least . . . Jimmy Studdard had a knot the size of a goose egg on his forehead after a collision in the Littlefield scrimmage Saturday night . . . Donnie Harvey looked like a comer in Saturday night's contest . . . Olton, the Indians' foe Friday night, has a completely new staff of coaches, and the changes came not long ago . . . "Jo-Jo" Bryan, former Olton coach, moved to Grapevine, a 3-A school . . . according to the word out, Denver City is loaded again, and so is Dalhart up in the panhandle . . . those two clubs have had some real donny-brooks in regional games in the past . . . Rumor is out that when Denver City moves to 3-A next year, Tahoka will move back up to 2-A, and move into our district, taking D.C.'s place.

Lawrence Nesbitt still critical in Lubbock hospital

Lawrence Nesbitt, 38 is in critical condition at the Methodist Hospital in Lubbock. Wednesday morning his family said that he was doing some better.

Nesbitt, his wife, Donna and their five children had been working with the wheat harvest when he became ill. He was admitted to the hospital in Hettinger, North Dakota Aug. 20 with encephalitis.

At the Hettinger Hospital he was in a coma until Tuesday. His family said he showed improvement from Tuesday through Friday, but then Friday he was barely holding his own. His family said that now Nesbitt has developed pneumonia and is in a coma. Mrs. Louise Talley, Nesbitt's sister, said that halfbacks; and Jimmy Studdard and Kenny Palmer, fullbacks. Palmer, who suffered a shoulder separation the first day of work, will see action only as a punter for the first two or three games.

Attitude "good" says football coach at Bula

Coach C. W. Fincher of the Bula Bulldogs said that the attitude of his team is "the best since I have been here." Fincher has been at Bula three years.

He said, "We started working out Aug. 16 and we still need a lot of work. We are slower than last year but we have fairly good weight."

Fincher said that the team was going to work on both offense and defense. He said that this year he was going to change the offense. He said he was going to use an unbalanced line, split end, and a flanker back. The team has eight backs from last year, three of which are starters.

The first scrimmage is set for Saturday with Dawson at 7:30 p.m. It will be at Bula. Fincher said that he was still changing positions and that he would probably make some decisions as to "who would play what" after he had watched Saturday night's scrimmage. Some of the positions he is sure of are: Dennis Turney, center; Randy Aduddle, RG; Sammy Nickols, QB; Dennis Newton, FB; Kenneth Overland, Flanker back.

Balloting begins for ASC community committeemen here

Ballots for the election of ASCS Community Committeemen have been sent to each known eligible voter in Cochran County. In case an eligible voter fails to receive a ballot through the mail they should call at the county office for a ballot. Generally, a farm owner, tenant, or sharecropper is eligible to vote if he is eligible to take part in one or more of the programs administered by the ASCS committees. Eligibility to vote or hold office as a committeeman is not restricted by reason of race, color, creed, or national origin. Ballots must be returned to the County ASCS Office not later than Sept. 8, 1965.

The following is a slate of nominees for ASC community committees:

"A" (Neelyward): Weldon Avery; Hadley Kern; Danny Key; J. C. O'Brien; Francis Shiflett and B. R. Stovall.

"B" (Morton): H. B. Barker; Owen Egger; Billy Gerik; Raymond Hall; D. L. Linder, Jr., and Weldon Newsom.

"C" (Whiteface): Jack French; Leonard Gainer; Raymond Hoffman; George Martin; Wendell Peters, and F. O. Taylor.

"D" (Lehman): W. W. Cook; Charles Cumpston; Walter Knox; Don Lackey; Harold Reynolds, and R. A. Stevens.

"E" (Bledsoe): Douglas Dunn; Wendell Mason; E. C. Nieman; Bob Polvado; Ernest Trull, and Buford Webb.

The community committees assist the ASC county committee in administering the price support, acreage diversion, agricultural conservation, and other farm-action programs in the county; they are particularly responsible for keeping their neighbors informed about the program. The county committee supervises the ASCS county office and is responsible for the administration of the various programs. For each community, three regular members and two alternates will be elected. The chairman, vice chairman, and third regular member of the community committee will also serve as delegates to the county convention where the ASC county committee will be chosen on Sept. 22, 1965, at 9:30 a.m. at the County ASCS Office.

ficer, T. A. Rowland, the 1959 Ford pickup was proceeding south on highway 214 when it was struck on the right front fender by a volkswagon going east on 125. Rowland said the occupants of the volkswagon were on route to a wedding in Morton and were coming from Las Cruces New Mexico. He said the driver of the volkswagon, Miss Jean Howell Kopp, 23, of Las Cruces, going east on 125, cut to the right at the Lehman intersection and then realizing she was going the wrong way to get to Morton, cut to the left and skidded into the passing pickup. The volkswagon struck the pickup with its right front fender. The other occupant of the volkswagon, Linda Sniegowski, 23, of Las Cruces, suffered a cut over her right eye and cut and bruises and was taken by ambulance to the hospital where she was released the next day. Miss Kopp, the driver of the volkswagon, was cited with "failure to yield right away at an intersection."

The driver of the pickup, Euladio Bill Rodriguez, Rt. 5, Muleshoe, his wife, and three children, were not injured. The owner of the pickup was Eddie Gonzales, Rt. 5, Muleshoe.

An automobile flipped over on its roof about 3½ miles east of Morton early Sunday morning on FM 1780, Edward Glenn Price, of Levelland, the sole occupant, was not injured.

He was given a citation of "unsafe speed." The car, a 1963 Chevrolet II, received an estimated $400 worth of damage.

Investigating officer, T. A. Rowland, said that the car apparently struck the curb on the left side of the road coming into Morton, struck the ditch, and then turned over in the loose dirt of the field.

Amendment

on population basis, if allowed to stand by the supreme court, would mean that rural areas would lose representation in the Senate and metropolitan areas would gain representation.

Proponents of the proposed amendment contend that its passage partially would off-set this imbalance.

They say that big city areas will gain eight senators for a total of 12 while areas considered predominately rural will lose eight senators, retaining a total of only 19, if the amendment fails.

However, say proponents, if the proposed amendment is approved by voters, metropolitan areas still would gain eight senators for their total of 12, but predominately rural areas would have 27 instead of 19. Most rural senatorial districts may be expected to remain substantially unchanged.

The political implications were pointed up thusly:

It requires a 2/3 majority, or vote of 21 senators, to pass proposed amendments to the constitution. It takes 2/3 majority to bring up bills for consideration out of the regular order of business.

Say proponents: "If the senatorial re-districting bill is allowed to stand as passed, bills favorable to rural areas would not command the necessary 2/3 majority for emergency action.

"If the 39-member Senate is approved Tuesday, legislation favorable to rural areas would have a chance to gain a 2/3 majority vote when necessary, and an excellent chance of approval by a simple majority."

With the 39-member Senate, domination of the Senate by Houston, Dallas, San Antonio, Fort Worth and El Paso would not be as likely as with 31 members, it was emphasized.

Proponents further contend that under the proposed amendment to the constitution, the supreme court order for re-districting by population could be followed precisely.

At the same time, the lop-sided power of the big cities would be curtailed.

Opponents of the proposed amendment suggest that the 39-member plan simply is a device to keep eight rural area senators from losing their jobs. They also contend that, if the measure is approved, it would mean a special session of the Legislature to draw up a new re-districting plan.

It is conceivable that in the power play of politics by unions, prominent in the metropolitan areas, the unions might desire to defeat the proposed amendment. That to add more senatorial strength to the largely union district.

Logically, it only is fair that the more highly populated areas deserve, perhaps, more than one senator. But, counter pro-amendment folk, not at the expense of the rural areas such as Cochran County.

for some of the trucks to stop in time to miss a darting child, if they had to.

Cloud also said that up around the school areas the traffic gets pretty congested, especially around 3:30 p.m. when parents come to pick up their children. He said, "I wish parents would stop in front of the traffic lights to pick up their kids. They block traffic behind them and it is a hazard to have kids running to the cars." He added, "There are plenty of parking places around the school area for parents to park and wait for their children."

Cloud said that he wanted to urge everyone to drive safely. He said that last year Morton was very lucky and had only one minor school-traffic accident.

Athletic Boosters set date for pancake supper

Morton Athletic Boosters set Monday night, September 13, as the date for their annual pancake supper at their regular meeting on Monday night in the high school.

Booster president Dean Weather- appointed Murray Crone and Lanier as co-chairman of the event, with Bill Bickett to contact suppliers.

Tickets for the pancake supper go on sale next Monday, September 6, and most booster club members will have them available. Price of the supper is $1.00 for all the hot cakes you can eat. The affair is scheduled to start at 5:30 p.m., and will continue until everyone has eaten their fill.

Immediately following the supper the regular booster club meeting will be held, and films of the Morton-Muleshoe football game will be shown to those interested.

It was also decided at Monday night's meeting to accept the offer of Morton High FFA instructor Owen Young that the FFA Chapter and the booster club split the proceeds from the sale of football programs at each home game. The FFA boys sell programs at each of the Morton home contests.

Considerable discussion was held on the possibility of staging a chili supper prior to the Indians' homecoming game with Dimmitt on October 1, if the Morton Exes were not planning a supper before that game.

The improvement of lighting at Morton football field also was the top of discussion by the boosters, but no action was taken.

Dr. Bill Jagers and family were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hickman. Their granddaughter, Loudana, is spending the week with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Roberts and Mrs. B. Toombs camped out at Ruidoso this past week.

Storage of moisture in land important

BY ALTON TAYLOR

Sorghum harvest is here and the plans for the next crop must start. Under cut sorghum stubble immediately to stop all moisture usage. Moisture in the soil when crops are harvested should be stored for the following crop. This moisture will be lost unless stubble is undercut with large sweeps. No other tillage implement will do the job and conserve the moisture like the large sweeps.

A disk plow if run deep enough to cut the roots loose will cause excessive soil disturbance and moisture loss just the same as the breaking plow. These implements

Reeder is made head of business federation chapter

Announcement of the appointment of E. L. Reeder of Cochran Power & Light Co. as Chairman of the Morton Chapter of the National Federation of Business was made today by Harry G. West, District mgr. of the Federation in this area.

Each business and professional member of this organization maintains a voting membership and is polled by ballots regularly throughout the year on bills and issues which affect independent business at national and state levels.

To maintain the American way of life and our competitive enterprise system, the businessmen express their opinions on the ballots each month, and give them to Mr. Reeder, who tabulates the votes.

These tabulations are sent, with the signed ballots, directly to Congressman George Mahon at Washington, D.C. and State Senator H. T. "Doc" Blanchard. They are the only method by which independent business and professional people can keep in organized, direct personal contact with their national and state legislators on measures which affect free enterprise opportunities.

The National Federation of Independent Business is a non-profit organization with the largest individual membership of any business organization in the United States, in which independent business and professional people participate with voting memberships, regardless of other civic or trade affiliations.

wife of a local policeman. In the brief history of the program, (the first club meeting was held May 27, Mary has organized two clubs which meet once each week with 20 members. Mary received most of her training at Morton High School, and later studied home economics at Burley High School. She is recommended by her teachers at Burley High for the leadership position. Her salary is paid by the Federal government under the Economic Opportunity Act (90 per cent) and the Burley Kiwanis Club (10 per cent). The program is the first of its kind in Idaho and according to the Extension Service, in the nation. Its primary function is to give all youngsters equal opportunity to enjoy the 4-H program. Efforts are now underway by Miss Carrillo to recruit children in the Burley Labor Camp.

while Neinst is a junior weighing 160. Joining Mitchell at tackle will be Jimmy Schrier, a 173-lb. junior. Playing guard will be Steve Moss; 182 a senior, and Curtis Hall, another senior who weighs 165. Center position will be manned by Gail Bizzell, a senior tipping the scales at 150.

Olton defeated Post 3-1, in a practice scrimmage last week, and it was reputed the Mustangs looked pretty good for having a new offensive system installed at the beginning of workouts this fall. The Mustangs are expected to stay on the ground for the most part, despite the fact that Priest is one of the finest passers the Morton club will run against all year.

The Morton team has eased off slightly in workouts this week, doing a little contact work, but sharpening their timing and their defensive work on passes. Saturday night's scrimmage with Littlefield, which Morton lost 3-1, showed deficiencies in both of these departments.

The Indians' starting line-up is far from settled, and the starters may change from week to week throughout the season, so close is the competition for some of the positions.

However, against Olton, John St. Clair will be at quarterback, while Jimmy Studdard will probably be at fullback. Halfback positions will be filled by Jimmy Joyce and either Randall Tanner or Timmy Petree.

Jerry Elliott will be at center, with Mike Irwin and Eddie Lyons at guard and Kenny Coats and Larry Shaw at the tackle slots. End positions will be filled by Eddie Hollaway and either LaMell Abbe or Danny Culpepper. The Morton squad has exceptionally good spirit, and the boys have been working real hard in workouts. The number of boys on the varsity squad swelled to 36 Monday, the largest number out for football in the history of Morton high. The Indians have more depth than in the past, and injuries shouldn't hurt the club quite as much as they have in the past.

Viet Nam

Mrs. Casey told of a joke that was making the rounds while she was there: A child asks, "Mother, can I go up and watch the war tonight?" The mother replies, "No you must study your history lesson tonight—you watched the war last night."

Mrs. Casey said that the war is a very routine one. She said that the American military people call it an "eight-to-five war." That is, she said, Viet and American officers alike go off for a day's fighting in the Mekong Delta areas, south of Saigon. At night, they return on schedule to bathe and dress for an evening's relaxation at the local officers' club.

She said that the only evidence of the war was the occasional sight of uniformed Vietnamese men on the streets and the encirclement of all American buildings with barricades of barbed wire.

Mrs. Casey, speaking about the attitude of the people said, "Perhaps, the rice farmer doesn't know what he is fighting for but the intellectuals know."

She said the wife of a Vietnamese major who had been fighting for over a decade, expressed the fear that the "U.S. was going to leave them."

given is true and correct. Among the documents which may be used as proof of identity and birthdate are driver's license passport, current voter registration certificate, birth or baptismal certificate or certified copy of school attendance record.

Although minors (women under the age of 18 and men under the age of 21) will no longer have to wait three days after applying for a marriage license before it can be delivered, they will have to have the express consent of a parent or guardian, made under oath and in writing.

The consent of the father of minor seeking a marriage license is sufficient if both parents are alive and living together. If the father is absent from the county or dead or if the parents are divorced and the mother has legal custody of the minor, then the mother's consent is all that is required.

Travis said that starting Monday school personnel would be going out and looking for children who are not properly enrolled in school and attending classes. Travis said, "The first time we find someone, we will just try to get them in school. But the second time we will turn them over to the proper authorities for action." Travis said that the sheriff handled many of these cases.

A few of the "exemptions" are: 1. Any child in attendance upon a private or parochial school which shall include in its course a study of good citizenship, and shall make the English language the basis of instruction in all subjects.

2. Any child whose bodily or mental condition is such as to render attendance inadvisable, and who holds definite certificate of reputable physician specifying this condition and covering the period of absence.

3. Any child who is blind, deaf, dumb or feebleminded, for the instruction of whom no adequate provision has been made by the school district.

4. Any child living more than two and one-half miles by direct and traveled road from the nearest public school supported for the children of the same race and color of such child and with no free transportation provided.

5. Any child more than sixteen years of age who has satisfactorily completed the work of the ninth grade, and whose services are needed in support of a parent or other person standing in parental relation to the child, may, on presentation of proper evidence to the county superintendent, be exempted from further attendance at school.

He added, "The school here is really well equipped. In fact, I am impressed with the stock of supplies that we have for the chemistry lab. Some of the equipment is better than what we used in college. I even wrote one of the professors and told him so."

Harris concluded, "I am very impressed with the school administration. They have been very nice to my wife and me."

Lanier also said that in the past several have been unhappy with standing in lines waiting to buy tickets to get into the games. He said that he hopes the selling of season tickets will help ease the problem.

GOD'S WILL

The greatest commandment is that we should love our God. This is a free choice that man has, but it is God's desire that all would seek Him. He is our heavenly Father, and desires only the best for us.

ATTEND CHURCH SUNDAY

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Warning flags

The warning flags are going up. They have to do with whether this country can spend huge additional sums for defense, because of the massive acceleration of the war in Vietnam, and at the same time carry on welfare programs of unprecedented scope and cost without courting the most serious kind of trouble.

Senator Russell of Georgia has expressed the view that there are even greater dangers of inflation now than at the time of the Korean War. Senator Morton of Kentucky points out that "... the Siamese twin of huge deficit financing is inflation," and he has all the historical precedent anyone could want to support that statement. Representative Laird suggests that there should be a reevaluation of proposed appropriations totaling some $8 billion for new domestic programs which are primarily of a welfare nature.

More and more thoughtful observers, in and out of Congress, are expressing similar fears and concerns. There is a theory that all this spending will generate vast new tax revenues and so minimize the deficits. But it is only a theory, and unproven.

What has been proven is that when we attempt to buy more guns and provide more butter at the same time the dollar's buying power is battered down and down. Then the people of small means — whom the welfare programs are supposed to help — are the hardest hit. Is that tragedy due to recur once more?

Crime and the welfare state

Is there a distinct and recognizable connection between the soaring crime rate and the development of a welfare state?

If that seems a queer and idle question, a paragraph written by Keats A. Pullen, Jr., that appeared in The Baltimore Sun may cause you to do a bit of thinking. He says: "It is easy to understand why crime rises precipitously in a socialist welfare state. Under socialism the state, in accord with its own arbitrary standards, rewards individuals for alleviation of poverty. Under crime the individual, in accord with his own standards, attempts to reward himself for similar purpose. In both instances, old-fashioned standards of morality are buried in a morass of gimme."

This is a harsh judgement but there is much evidence to substantiate it. The welfare state, whatever else one may think of it, cannot help but undermine and even destroy the ancient values which have sustained civilization — independence, a sense of personal responsibility, individual pride, honesty, and a determination to take care of oneself and one's family.

Crime — like all the other immoralities, to use that word in the broadest sense — will flourish when these values are degraded.

Curious indeed

Twelve years seems like a mighty long time to spend in self-exile from one's native country and family just to satisfy a curiosity. Yet, that is the reason turncoat-defector William C. White gave to reporters in Hong Kong for having refused repatriation to the US from a prisoner-of-war camp at the time of the Korean Armistice (1953), and choosing, instead, to live in Communist China. Now it appears that his curiosity has been satisfied and he wants to come back to the United States, bringing a Chinese wife and two children with him.

We note, in curious coincidence, that another of those American turncoats from the Korean conflict made the news again, along with the returning White, but for an apparently different reason. Clarence C. Adams, formerly of Memphis, Tennessee, is now serving the Communists quite openly by making propaganda broadcasts aimed at American troops, especially negroes, who are serving in South Viet Nam, telling them, in typical turncoat fashion, that they are fighting on the wrong side. This coincidence makes us a bit curious as to exactly why turncoat White is emerging from Red China at this time. We're no more inclined to take his word as to why he wants now to return to the US than we are willing to accept his explanation as to why he went to Communist China in the first place.

As Judge Learned Hand phrased it: "Liberty lies in the hearts of men and women; when it dies there, no constitution, no law, no court can save it; no constitution, no law, no court even can do much to help it."

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Mitchell and their two grandchildren from San Angelo were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Allsup last week.

A. Baker visited in El Paso with Dick Shipley last week. Milton Hendrickson was a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Harvey and Barbara last week.

Carol Williams is home from Baylor University at Waco for two weeks for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Williams. She will leave the 15th of September to start the fall term.

Lauretta and Carol McCuiston, Peggy Ramsey, Peggy Cheek, and Gaylene Wood attended Student Week at Glorieta last week.

VIEWS . . . of other editors

The Tired American

The following editorial recently appeared in the West Virginia Rock County Star Herald, which we feel worth reprinting:

I am a tired American. I'm tired of being called the ugly American.

I'm tired of having the world panhandlers use my country as a whipping boy 365 days a year.

I am a tired American — weary of having American embassies and information centers stoned, burned, and sacked by mobs operating under orders from dictators who preach peace and breed conflict.

I am a tired American — weary of being lectured by General DeGaulle (who never won a battle) who poses as a second Jehovah in righteousness and wisdom.

I am a tired American — weary of Nasser and others who bleed Uncle Sam white and kick him on the shins and yank his beard if the cash flow falters.

I am a tired American — weary of having my tax dollars go to dictators who play both sides against the middle with threats of what will happen if we cut off the golden stream of dollars.

I am a tired American — weary of the lazy do-nothings who wouldn't take a job if you drove them to and from work in a Rolls-Royce.

I am a tired American — who is tired of supporting families who haven't known any other source of income than Government relief checks for three generations.

I am a tired American — who is angered by the self-righteous breastbeater critics of America, at home and abroad, who set impossible yardsticks for the United States but never apply the same standards to the French, the British, the Russians and the Chinese.

I am a tired American — sickened by the slack-jawed bigots who wrap themselves in bedsheet in the dead of night and roam the countryside looking for innocent victims.

I am a tired American who is sick of reading about and looking at Negro extremists who use the cloak of "civil rights" to loot and burn and pillage, who seek full equality under the law but who are not willing to work their way into responsibility.

I am a tired American who resents those who try to peddle the belief in schools and colleges that capitalism is a dirty word and that freed enterprise and private initiative are only synonyms for greed.

They say they hate capitalism but they are always right at the head of the line demanding their share of the American way of life.

I am a tired American who gets more than a bit little bit weary of the clique in our State Department who choose to regard a policy of timidity as prudent — the same group who subscribe to a "no win" policy in Viet Nam.

I am a tired American — real tired of those who are trying to sell me the belief that America is not the greatest nation in all the world — a generous hearted nation — a nation dedicated to the policy of trying to help the "have nots" achieve some of the good things that our system of free enterprise brought about.

I am an American who gets a lump in his throat when he hears the "Star Spangled Banner" and notes of the brass trumpets when Old Glory reaches the top of the flag pole.

I am a tired American — who wants to start snapping at those phony "high priests" who want us to bow down and worship their false idols and who seek to destroy the belief that America is the land of the free and the home of the brave.

I am a tired American who thanks a merciful Lord that he was so lucky to be born an American citizen — a nation under God, with truly mercy and justice for all.

School Drop Outs . . .

Right now is the best time of the year for parents, ministers, teachers and businessmen all to look around and see if we can do anything in our own community to combat the school drop out problem.

Parents, first of all, should take the initiative if they have a son or daughter who is contemplating dropping out before at least finishing high school. Failure to finish at least four years of prescribed high school study will hamper a boy or girl the remainder of his or her life.

Sure, the parents themselves may not have finished high school, and they were able to get by. Some of our top businessmen today didn't finish high school either. But times have changed. These same people would have to be exceptional indeed to succeed in the world of tomorrow without at least a high school education. In the highly specialized world of the future, a drop out can expect to hold down only menial jobs or rely on the poverty program.

Frequently boys and girls will need only a little encouragement, a little friendly advice, a kind word, a show of friendship from an adult they respect, to keep them in school.

Our schools, too, can help out with a little extra effort in encouraging a boy or girl to return to the classroom. Unfortunately in far too many schools nowadays the school people don't want to be bothered with these youngsters. They'd just as soon they didn't show up as they sometimes cause trouble. But if any one of them is salvaged due to a little encouragement, any school person who is worth his salt as an educator will feel any trouble he has undergone as of small consequence.

The school drop out trend is one of the major problems facing our nation. Anything any of us can do to improve the situation in our own little sphere will be making a very substantial contribution to humanity.

Is there a boy or girl in your neighborhood, working for you, or that you happen to know who isn't planning to return to school this year? It won't take much effort to at least talk to them . . . to show a little interest in them. Your time and effort could very well salvage such a boy and girl from a lifetime of despair and give our nation an industrious producer instead of another member of that growing army on the public dole.

Farm Safety Success

That old phrase, "Oh, for the peace and quiet of the country," is probably used often in today's busy world, but a second look might show that the farm isn't always so peaceful.

One sure way to convince yourself it isn't is to take a long look at the accident tolls: an estimated 8,400 deaths and 780,000 injuries to farm residents last year, according to the National Safety Council.

Sounds a little incredible? Well, it's not. Each day many farmers work in the fields or in the barn, and suddenly somehow, sometime during the workday are injured or killed. Not only can an injury disrupt one or two workdays, but a permanent injury or death can totally change an entire farm or farm family.

The farm picture is constantly changing. With new machinery, chemicals and methods, it is a challenge to learn how to utilize them all safely. Unless you carry this new knowledge through in everyday practice, you are not fulfilling your responsibility to yourself and your family. You might, for example, know everything about a machine, but allow a boy barely able to reach the controls to handle a tractor.

What can safe farming mean to you? Success.

The unrepresented

We do not wish to belittle the serious concerns of those who invited arrest on the Capitol grounds under the name of the Assembly of Unrepresented People. By the latter phrase they presumably meant people fighting for such things as faster progress in civil rights and against such Washington-made, poll-supported policies as the present one in Vietnam.

Such people are indeed relatively unrepresented — in terms of political power and what former President Eisenhower called "the military-industrial complex." But they are part of a civilian-activist complex that must be among the most represented in history — in terms of public communications.

Indeed, in the rare moments

Highlights and Sidelights --

Over 12 new agencies begin

AUSTIN, Tex. — More than a dozen new state boards, agencies and licensing organizations go into effect this week.

Heading the list of important new agencies are the Coordinating Board, Texas Colleges and Universities to direct the state's higher education system (replacing the Commission on Higher Education) and the new State Board of Mental Health and Mental Retardation. The latter supplants the Board for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools.

Tuberculosis control functions of the old hospital board go to the State Health Department assisted by a new Tuberculosis Advisory Committee to the State Board of Health.

Among other groups which began functioning September 1 under broad reorganization plans ordered by the 59th Legislature are the Texas Water Rights Commission and the Water Development Board.

Legislature also set up an Air Control Board (for air pollution regulation), an Indian Affairs Commission, a Fine Arts Commission, and special licensing organizations for pesticide applicators, sanitarians and polygraph examiners.

All have legislative-directed missions in the rapidly-changing scene of a growing state government. Broadest changes in state history are expected of new programs for the hospital and higher education systems under revamped administrative organizations.

APPOINTMENTS — Gov. John Connally has buckled down to work on the mass of appointments to the many, generally, unpaid, state boards and commissions which run these state agencies.

Many of his choices are reappointments, either of his own earlier appointees or those of former Gov. Price Daniel.

New State Board of Mental Health and Mental Retardation will contain six from the old Board for State Hospitals and Special Schools. They are Ward Burke, Lufkin attorney; Dr. Horace Cromer, Austin physician; Mrs. H. E.

When we can stop thinking about the problems of which the activists are symptoms, we toy with a new assembly of unrepresented people:

The student who missed the demonstration, because he was going to class, waiting on tables, babysitting, and studying for tomorrow's exam.

The professor who failed to protest, because he really believed the Johnson policy was right.

The blue-collar man who didn't picket, because it was a working day.

The member of a minority who has always had a job and never thought of asking the government for anything.

The spinster who worked and saved and had a comfortable retirement paid for by herself.

The lawyer who was so busy defending people in court that he did not have time for civil disobedience.

The writer who was finishing a book and never got around to signing manifestos.

The minister who neglected causes, because he always seemed to be occupied ministering to individuals.

We could go on. But perhaps this is a representative selection of a certain kind of unrepresented.

W. Kendall Baker of Houston to State Board of Public Welfare.

R. G. Hollingsworth of Coleman, W. T. Stewardson of Santa Anna and Clyde Thate of Burkett to Central Colorado River Authority Board of Directors.

R. G. Muckleroy of Nacogdoches to Municipal Retirement System Board of Trustees.

G. C. Hubbard of Odessa and Joe A. Myers of Stockdale to State Board of Morticians.

Mrs. Eunice M. King of Amarillo and Miss Lucy Harris of Fort Worth to State Board of Nurse Examiners.

Archie L. Warnick, Fort Worth, to the Board of Barber Examiners. J. C. Wilson, Pecos, reappointed to the Pecos River Commission.

Eugene Fish, Palestine, reappointed to the Upper Neches River Municipal Water Authority.

O. B. Worley, Pampa, and Robert W. Mitchell, Longview, to the Credit Union Advisory Committee.

AIRPORT AID — Texas Aeronautics Commission has the difficult task of deciding which of the under-50,000-population towns who have applied for aid will get portions of the $200,000 authorized under the Texas Airport Aid Program.

Considering these six applicants in most "urgent" need, Commission offered Comanche, $12,000; Gatesville, $12,000; Hallettsville, $10,000; Lampasas, $8,000; Pecos, $15,000; and Caldwell, $11,000.

Thursday the Commission is scheduled to hear applications by Cameron, Clarksville, Post, El C a m p o, Floydada, Kouzas, Hearne, Jacksboro and Port Mansfield.

FPC ASKED TO — Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr has filed a rehearing motion with the Federal Power Commission on its recent decision to set the area price for oil gas in the Permian Basin at 14.3 cents per mcf and for new gas well gas at 16.5 cents.

Both the oil industry in the basin and the State had requested a price of not less than 20 cents mcf on all gas.

Carr said the lower ceiling price set by the FPC would "have a direct and material effect on the State's revenues from taxation."

POLL TAX SUIT — A three-judge panel has been designated to hear the federal court suit attacking the poll tax as a voting requirement in Texas.

Named by Fourth U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals Judge Elbert Tuttle to hear the suit are:

Judges Homer Thornberry and John R. Brown of the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals and Judge Adrian Spears, chief judge of the U. S. District Court for the western district of Texas.

SWINDLERS — Sen. Walter Richter of Gonzales, chairman of Governor's Committee on Aging, warns elderly Texans to beware of offers being made in the wake of Medicare passage.

Said Richter: "None of the Medicare programs go into effect before July 1, 1966, and anyone trying to collect money at this time for any purpose whatsoever in connection with Medicare is bound to be a fraud."

Warning followed reports in Dallas that two persons claiming to be Social Security workers tried to "enroll" people in Medicare, then demanded money for the "service." They were denounced by the Social Security Administration.

SHORT SHORTS — Under terms of a Senate resolution, Agriculture Commissioner John White called a meeting of Texas livestock men Tuesday to study the economic effect of import meat on Texas cattle, sheep goat and swine industries.

Texas Education Agency reports that 33 of the state's 1,370 school districts drew warnings of failure to submit acceptable desegregation plans as required by new civil rights act.

Draft quota for October will total about 1,504 a slight increase over September, according to Col. Morris S. Schwartz, state selective service director.

House Speaker Ben Barnes is seeking a Texas Legislative Council study concerning restoration and operation of old Texas forts and missions for possible development of a tourist attraction "Texas as Mission Trail" similar to that developed in California.

Texas vehicle inspection stickers for 1966, available September 1, will include replica of Lone Star flag.

Dam B State Park near Jasper has been re-named Martin Dies Jr. State Park in honor of the Lufkin Senator.

Two attorney general's opinions are held: operator of a passenger car used for commercial purposes who holds a valid operator's license is exempt from securing commercial license; and improvements are considered part of land on which they are located in determining value of town lots of rural property for taxation.

Volkswagen turns over...

THIS 1962 Volkswagen, driven by William Clarence Dunaway, 57, of Portales, New Mexico, turned over one and one-fourth times Tuesday about 12:25 p.m. 11.8 miles west of Morton on State 116. Dunaway suffered six broken ribs and the Volkswagen was demolished. Investigating officer T. A. Rowland, said that apparently the vehicle ran off the right side of the road, heading west, then crossed over the highway and turned over on the left side of the road when the driver tried to bring it under control.

Three-way team is young but players have good attitude

The Three-way team is young this year, according to coach J.
 W. Aldridge.

The team has one senior, and three juniors out, and the rest are freshmen and sophomores. The Eagles lost five seniors last year.
 Regular QB James Kindie, a junior, hurt his knee this summer and will be out until at least district.
 The Eagles have two starters back and will start two sophomores and four freshmen.

The Eagles scrimmaged Southland Saturday and the defense held Southland scoreless. The offense scored four times. Monte Toombs, a sophomore back, made two runs for touchdowns, and caught two passes for touchdowns from freshman quarterback Wendell Williams.

Aldridge said that his defense appears to be working well. He said Johnny Harris, 6'5", 228 pound lineman, and Billy Dewbre, 170 pound lineman, are doing excellent jobs of holding the line together.

Aldridge said, "The team is real young and we will have to open up more and try to throw the ball.
 We are too young and too small to butt heads with older teams."
 He added, "We will give it all we have. The attitude of the boys is excellent. In my ten years of coaching this bunch has the best attitude." He concluded, "If they have some trouble this year, I think they have the determination to come back next year."

The players out are: Seniors —
 Johnny Harris; Juniors — Tommy Black; James Kindie; Billy Dew-
 bre. Sophomores — Monte Toomb
 Deaun Carpenter; Shorty Hale;
 Perry Synsky. Freshmen: Wendle
 Williams; Jackie Dupler; Bruce
 Pruitt; Charles Abbe, Wayne Cuningtonham, Creg Chapman. Tommy Gish is expected to comeout. The assistant coach is Ronny Aldridge.

The Eagle's schedule is:
 Home games:
 Sept. 24 — Loop
 Oct. 1 — Bula
 Oct. 23 — Smyer
 Nov. 5 — Cotton Center
 Games away:
 August 28 scrimmage Southland
 at Smyer.

Sept. 10 — Sands
 Sept. 17 — Dawson
 Oct. 9 — Estelline (At Tulia)
 Oct. 29 — Forsan
 Nov. 12 — Bula
 Nov. 19 — Whitharral

PRODUCERS WINNING Battle of the Boll Weevil!

BOLL WEEVIL CAN BE BEAT

The efficiency and effectiveness of the 1964 weevil control program, together with the continued support of producers, strongly points toward a complete High Plains victory over this most dreaded and costly of all cotton insects.

20% LESS REQUESTED FOR WAR CHEST

Economies effected in the first year's spraying, plus the fact that over 97% of producers helped finance it, made possible a substantial carryover of funds from 1964 to be used in 1965. This in turn has made it possible to reduce the requested producer contribution in 1965 from 50 cents to 40 cents a bale. And there is hope this can be further reduced in 1966.
 The following is a financial report from the Boll Weevil Steering Committee of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. to those who are so wisely investing in this vital program:

BOLL WEEVIL STEERING COMMITTEE FINANCIAL STATEMENT

Statement of Revenue and Expense		July 1, 1964 to June 30, 1965

NET INCREASE IN FUNDS		$346,878.39
REQUIRED ESCROW FUND		$100,000.00 (7)
AVAILABLE FOR 1965 OPERATIONS		$246,878.39
(1) Producer investments at 50 cents per bale
(2) Paid to USDA in October and November, 1964, pending final audit
(3) Reimbursed expenditures from PCG general fund
(4) Less than 3% of total contributions
(5) Interest on money borrowed to begin spraying before contributions started
(6) Total cost of program in 1964 was $1,188,435.20, with the difference paid from Federal and State funds
(7) Required escrow fund to remain 2 years beyond termination of the program

Penelope Farmer wed to Mr. R. P. Monacelli

Woodwardia fern background accented by two seven-branched wrought iron candelabrum entwined with emerald greenery and white pom pom chrysanthemums tied with blue ribbon provided the setting at the East Side Church of Christ for the candlelight double ring ceremony uniting in marriage Miss Penelope Jean Farmer and Raymond Paul Monacelli, Saturday August 28 at 6 p.m. Eddie Swinney, minister of the Fluvanna Church of Christ, officiated. Two fifteen-branched spiral candelabrum completed the church decor.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Ira Brown and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Monacelli of Brooklyn, New York.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown with an empire bodice of Alencon lace featuring a scalloped portrait neckline and long tapering sleeves. The controlled sheath skirt was enhanced by a large garland of lace in front and swept into a chapel-length train. She wore an imported lace mantilla.

Her bridal bouquet was of three small white pupie-lipped orchids accented with stephanotis and white satin streamers tied with lovers-knots atop a white Bibie. She also carried a white linen hanky used by the groom's mother at her wedding.

Miss Marvalene Hoffman of Lubbock was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Caroline Martin of Tucumcari, New Mexico, and Miss Rheda Brown, sister of the bride. They wore formal-length gowns of Copen blue bridal satin featuring empire bodices with portrait necklines and A-line skirts. Their matching pillboxes were covered with blue illusion. Each carried one long-stemmed large white chrysanthemum with the stem wrapped with white velvet and accented with greenery.

Paul Monacelli of Rutherford, New Jersey, served his cousin as best man. Groomsmen were Eddie Byrum, cousin of the bride, and Robert Monacelli, brother of the groom. Fred Brown, brother of the bride, and Tim Byrum, cousin of the bride, served as ring bearers.

Julie Brown, sister of the bride, served as flower girl and was attired identically as the attendants. She carried a white basket filled with white daisy-chrysanthemums. David Ramby, ring bearer, carried the rings on a white satin, lace edged pillow.

Soloists were Mrs. P. B. Ramby who sang "Because" and "The Wedding Prayer", and Miss Rheda Brown, "I Love You Truly". Guests were registered in the foyer of the church by Miss Pam Reynolds.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Brown wore a light blue lace dress with off-white accessories. Mrs. Monacelli chose a champagne raw silk dress with sequin neck trim and matching accessories. Both added orchid corsages.

A reception followed the ceremony in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Doss, 712 South Main.

The bride's table was laid with a white organdy cloth with applied roses. The four tiered and pillared all white bridal confection was topped with a miniature bride and groom and served with white punch. Crystal and silver appointments were used. The attendants and bride placed their flowers on the table.

The groom's table, placed on the patio, was laid with white linen cloth. Dark banana nut cake and coffee were served from silver appointments. Attendants flowers decorated the table.

Assisting with the hospitalities were Mrs. Doss, Mrs. Joe Gipson, Mrs. Ray Tucker, Mrs. J. C. Reynolds, Mrs. P. B. Ramby, Mrs. E. V. Byrum, Miss Pam Reynolds, Miss Carolyn Houston, Miss Cieta Love and Mrs. Bobby Patterson, Midland and Miss Margie Berry, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

For a wedding trip to Cripple Creek, Colorado, the bride chose a three-piece moss green silk suit with matching accessories and an orchid corsage from the bridal bouquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Monacelli will reside in Las Cruces, New Mexico, where they are seniors at New Mexico State University. She is an accounting major and he is majoring in mechanical engineering at NMSU. The bride is a 1962 Morton High School graduate and the bridegroom graduated in 1960 from Lincoln High School in Brooklyn.

Out-of-town guests attending the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Farmer, Mr. and Mrs. John Carson and Bennie and Mr. and Mrs. John Carson, Jr. of Quail; Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Farmer, Merkel; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Claunch, Bula; and Arthur Tellers of Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Also Richard D'Amico, Brooklyn, New York, Miss Jean Kopp and Miss Linda Sniegowski, Las Cruces, New Mexico; Mrs. C. C. Taylor, Littlefield and Mrs. Joyce Hill and Sandy of Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hawkins of Ringgold visited last week in the home of their niece, Mrs. John L. McGee.

Resident's sister killed at Irving

Mrs. Jack Driver's sister, Mrs. Sandra Oclay, 19 of Irving, was killed Friday by a pistol shot at an apartment house in Irving. Services were held Wednesday at 10 a.m. in the First Baptist Church, Levelland.

Officiating was the Rev. Dale Lavender. Burial was in the City of Levelland Cemetery.

Mrs. Oclay was killed when struck by a bullet from a .32 caliber pistol held by a 25-year old man living in the same apartment house, police said. He was reportedly trying to eject a jammed cartridge from the chamber when the gun discharged. A justice of the peace ruled accidental death.

Other survivors include her husband, Mehmet, Irving; a son, Robert, 5 months old; her mother, Mrs. Bob Crank, Levelland; her father, W. S. Martin, Falmouth, Mass.; a brother, Doug Crank, Levelland; maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Toppie, Irving; paternal grandmother, Mrs. Lucy Martin, Port Arthur; and maternal step-grandmother, Mrs. Elva T. Crank, Whitharral.
