Lehman voted against the district 5-2. Shelton received 5 votes, Thompson 1 and Greene none.

At Townsend Gin, nine people voted in favor of the district and 2 voted against. Thompson led the at-large candidates 10 to Greene's one. Shelton drew a blank in this precinct.

The board's first official function will be to call an organizational meeting to elect a chairman and draw for terms. They will draw lots to determine which two of them will serve for two years and which three will serve for one year. Elections will then be held each year to elect board members. Members will serve two-year terms.

Morton All-Stars lose after one

Morton's Little League All-Stars came to the end of the line Friday night in Plains. They committed eight errors and gave up six unearned runs as they lost to Levelland 6-0. In the first game of the Area A, District 26 Tournament, Morton wiped out Ropesville 15-0.

In the finals Saturday night, Plains defeated Levelland 1-0.

Morton had little trouble against Ropes Thursday as they blasted out 15 hits to back up the one-hit pitching of Bryant Lewis. Morton struck quickly in the top of the first as Tommy Tuck and Ricky Woods both singled before the first out. Jim Risinger singled ahead of the second out. Jerry Silhan singled and moved to second on a fielder's error. That gave Morton four runs.

Ropes was retired in order in the last of the first on a ground ball to first base and two strike-outs.

Bryant Lewis opened the second with a solo home run over center field. Tuck singled, Thomas walked before two strike outs were recorded. But Risinger hit a ground rule double and Thomas came home on a passed ball. That gave Morton three more runs and a 7-0 lead.

Ropes went down in order again in the second on a ground ball to second and two strike-outs.

Morton really cut loose in the third, with seven runs on five hits. Randy Bedwell singled between two outs before the action really started. Tuck singled, Thomas walked, Woods singled and then James Partlow and Jim Risinger hit back-to-back ground-rule doubles. Rickey Bedwell walked and Jerry Silhan got on by error.

Ropes was retired in the third with two strike-outs and an outfield fly, after a walk gave them their first base runner.

Martin Salinas came in to relieve Mike Moore for Ropes in the top of the fourth and put out the fire.

In the top of the fourth, Salinas shut-out Morton. He struck out three, giving up only a single to Tuck.

Ropes threatened in the last of the fourth.

th. Stanley Shockley walked and was safe on an error as Moore hit a fielder's choice. Salinas was hit by the pitcher to load the bases. With one out, Billy Blackmon hit back to the mound for an easy force at home. A strike-out retired Ropes without allowing them a run.

James Partlow led off the fifth with a solo homer to boost the score to 6-0.

Ordinance is passed in City Council meet

The Morton City Council did their business in a hurry Monday night, adjourning before 8 p.m., less than an hour after convening their regular semi-monthly session.

The first item on the agenda was the reading and passing of an ordinance preventing swimming, boating, or wading in all city lakes. The motion calling for the approval of the ordinance was made by Donnie Simpson, seconded by Earl Stowe.

The ordinance, number 1-67, prohibits "swimming, boating, or wading, in all lakes located on property belonging to the City of Morton, Texas, providing for a fine of not more than $100.00 for violation, declaring an emergency and providing for publication."

The ordinance was designed especially to prevent children from playing in Strickland Lake. However, as the council had stated earlier, it still remains the parents' responsibility to educate their children about the dangers of playing near or in Strickland Lake, as well as other lakes and ponds located in the area.

The second, and last, item on the agenda concerned the drilling of a new city water well. The necessity for the new well was realized recently when the city's three current wells were being repaired.

Of the three, the oldest, dug in the 1930's, apparently suffers from a broken casing which prevents the sand from being bailed out. When the casing broke, it apparently shifted to an off-center position.

City Secretary Elra Ode recommended that a new well be drilled east of the problem well. Bids will be taken from the three local well drillers to obtain a turn-key job. It calls for a 16-inch casing with 14-inch gravel packing.

Oden emphasized that there was no problem about the current water supply. He said that it would be enough for the present time, with the exception of a long drought.

General thanks county for scroll

A scroll of support signed by Cochran County residents has been received in Vietnam. The scroll was signed during a Memorial Day observance here under the supervision of the Morton Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The following letter was received this week by Harold Ogle, president of the Jaycees:

"Dear Mr. Ogle: "Thank you for forwarding the testimonial signed by the citizens of Morton, Cochran County, Texas.

"We could not hope to succeed in our mission to help the Vietnamese achieve lasting peace without the wholehearted support of those at home. Your testimonial is evidence that we enjoy this much needed support and is deeply appreciated.

"On behalf of all the servicemen in this command, I extend heartfelt thanks.

Sincerely, s/Creighton W. Abrams General, United States Army Commanding"

Accident injures youngster

A Monday evening car-truck accident at 306 N. Main critically injured a Morton girl and caused an estimated $1,200 damage to a new car.

Listed in critical condition in Lubbock's Methodist Hospital is Melanie Polvado, 4. She and her sister, Robin, were riding with their mother, Mrs. Earl Polvado, when a truck driven by Leonard Lavinder apparently backed into them. Mrs. Polvado was traveling north on Main.

The accident took place at 6:30 p.m. in front of McMaster Tractor as Lavinder was backing a truck out of the parking lot into the street.

The truck bed sliced through the windshield of the car, pulling the front part of the roof inside the car and tearing out the right windshield post.

Melanie, riding in the front seat, was hit by the roof and post causing a compression fracture. Robin, who was riding in the back seat, received a bruised knee. She was treated at Morton Memorial Hospital and kept overnight. Mrs. Polvado was not believed to be injured.

Morton policemen are continuing their investigation.

Dream trip to New York . . .

JANETTE COOPER, a 1967 Morton High School graduate, received a trip to New York as a graduation present from her brother, a group supervisor for American Airlines in New York City. She returned from her two-month-long last week.

Dream trip is graduation gift for Janette Cooper, Morton

A graduation present most girls dream about was a reality for Morton High School graduate Janette Cooper. The present: a trip to New York City.

Janette was given the trip by her brother Lonnie who works at New York's Kennedy Airport as group supervisor for American Airlines.

The brown-haired beauty left for New York May 27 and returned to Morton July 20.

"My brother flew down here for my graduation," she said, "and I flew back with him the day after graduation." Her parents flew up the early part of July and Janette flew back to Morton with them.

"It was so great," she said about New York, "but I wouldn't want to live there. I really had a lot of fun visiting there, but it's great to be back," she said.

What did she do? "Oh, everything," she said. "We saw a musical, 'Hello, Dolly.' Janette said they had excellent seats, five rows from the front. "The show starred Martha Raye and she was very good," she said.

They passed the highest point on the Atlantic Seaboard on their way to the beach. "That's all they call it is the highest point; there's nothing there," she commented.

"And they don't know what Mexican food is. They've never heard of it," she complained.

Janette also said, "they call things different names there than we do here. For example when I went into a meat market and asked for some weiners, they just laughed. They call them franks.

"And my sister-in-law had to show them how to cut up a chicken Southern-style," she said. "They just cut it up into chunks, not separate pieces."

She told how during their sightseeing at the RCA Music Hall they saw Ed McMahon and Milton Delugg of Tonight Show fame and television personalities Florence Henderson and Lou Ayres.

"We saw Dean Rusk (U. S. Secretary of State) going into the United Nations building as we were there," she said.

Janette and her family also visited the Empire State Building, the new Madison Square Center, and the New York Public Library.

"I did so much I can't remember it all," she said.

She did remember the people of the city though. "There were so many different types of people around. It just fascinated me to watch all of them," she said.

"I didn't see any of the kids up there I would want for friends," she stated flatly. "They all had long hair and didn't Architect's sketch of remodeled courthouse . . .

STILES, ROBERTS & MESSERSMITH, architects for the courthouse and hospital improvements, have released this sketch showing the exterior changes in the courthouse. Additions will be added to both the north and south ends of the building to increase office space. Plans call for the exterior to be of light-colored solar tile, porcelain enamel panels and medium-colored brick. All stairways leading to the main floor of the building will be located on the inside rather than on the outside as is the case now. Interior modifications will include lowered ceilings, new floor and wall covering, new lighting and new fixtures.

Ropes went down in order in the fifth on two strike-outs and an infield fly. Morton went down in order in the sixth on the three strike-outs.

Ropes made one last effort in the last of the sixth. With one out, Mike Moore hit a blooper over short for Ropes' only hit. He took second on an error as Wilson got on by fielder's choice with two out. Carpenter walked to load the bases, but the next batter struck out to preserve the shut-out.

Lewis pitched one of his best games of the season. He allowed no runs on one hit, walked three, hit one and struck out 13.

Mike Moore worked the first three innings for Ropes. He gave up 14 runs on 13 hits, walked three and struck out six. Martin Salinas allowed one run on two hits, walked none and struck out seven.

Tuck led the Morton hitters with four singles in five trips. Jim Risinger had two doubles and a single in four trips. James Parlow and Ricky Woods each had two hits.

The Friday game was a different story as Morton booted the ball for eight errors and allowed Levelland to score six runs, all of them unearned. The teams had the same number of hits . . . four each.

Levelland picked up one run in the top of the first. With one out, Jones got on by error, Barnett hit into a fielder's choice, but both runners were safe. With two away, Bobo's hit was mishandled to allow one run in.

Morton went down in order in the first. Levelland tacked on three more runs in the second on a single and three infield errors.

Morton loaded the bases in the second with none away on singles by Parlow and Risinger and a walk to Rickey Bedwell. But an infield fly and two strikeouts erased any scoring possibilities.

Levelland went down in order in the third. Ricky Woods was hit by the pitcher with two out in the third. He got to third base but couldn't score.

Levelland got a run in the fourth on an error and a double by Childress.

Morton went down in order in the fourth.

However, Morton's infield pulled off the first double play of the tourney in the top of the fifth. With one out, Bobo singled. But Ware's hard-hit liner was pulled down by tall shortstop Bryant Lewis. He fired to Ted Thomas to double off the runner.

Sublett and Tuck hit back-to-back singles in the fifth with one out, but were erased trying to stretch their hits.

Levelland got his final run in the sixth on a catcher's throwing error and a single.

Morton went down in order in the last of the sixth.

Barnett was the winning pitcher as he allowed no runs on four hits, walked none and hit one. He struck out nine. Jack Sublett took the loss. He allowed six runs on four hits, walked one and struck out three.

None of the Morton players got over one hit. Ringo got two of Levelland's hits.

look too clean. People like that make me appreciate my friends here."

When asked for her impressions of the "Fun City", Janette said, "It's a great place for sightseeing, but it makes me sad to see how people have to live all crowded into a tiny apartments and dirty surroundings."

"There's no place like home," she said emphatically.

"The people up there don't care about you," she said. "That's why I like the friendliness of this area."

When asked if she rode in one of New York's famous taxis, Janette said, "Yes! They just whiz in and out of the traffic, but I felt safe with them driving. They knew what they were doing."

"And we drove by the riot area in Newark, N.J., while the riot was going on. But we didn't know it until we got close to it. I was scared! And they shoot whites on sight there," she said shakily.

While in New York Janette got to be quite a camera bug taking pictures all over the place. "Once we were sightseeing and I was getting on the bus and all these people were behind me. I turned around and said 'Wait! I want a picture of Fifth Avenue.' When I started to take the picture the back fell off my camera and my film went all over the place. Oh, and the people laughed at me. I was so embarrassed."

Janette said that the price of clothes is cheaper in New York than in this area. "I imagine that it's because of the tremendous competition they have up there. Anyway, I bought some clothes for college."

Did being from Texas create any problems? "They laughed at me every time I talked," she said with a smile. "And they'd always stare at you just like they knew you were from the South, even if you didn't say anything."

She misses high school already. "Even though I'm excited about going to college, I'm already missing high school. I wish I could do it all over again. It was so much fun," she said sadly, "especially cheerleading."

"But, college will be a lot of fun and I'm looking forward to it," Janette said.

Campfire Girls report 'we had a glorious time' at summer camp

By MRS. DANIEL ROZELL

On Monday morning, July 17, at 6 a. m. 41 sleepy girls, and nine counselors boarded buses, pick-ups and a station wagon and headed for Campfire Girls Camp in the beautiful Sacramento Mountains of the Lincoln National Forest near Cloudcroft, N.M.

The trip up the mountains was real smooth, with all of the rest stops running right on schedule. The girls visited Burnett Floral in Cloudcroft, N.M., which is the largest florist and greenhouse in the southwest. The girls were invited to eat their sack lunch there in the beautiful parking lot and then tour the nine huge buildings full of beautiful flowers.

At this point in the trip, Mr. and Mrs. Ellick Cox and Mrs. C. E. Dolle and Mrs. Daniel Rozell left the group and started the long drive up the hill to get the camp prepared for the girls' arrival. This group became so entranced in the beautiful scenery that they drove past the camp's turn off, went around, above, and below the camp, before finally taking the right road (quite by accident) and arrived at camp only a few minutes before the buses did.

On arriving at camp, the girls unloaded the luggage, made the barracks as "homelike" as possible and immediately met a bear! Monday afternoon was spent getting acquainted with their surroundings and finding the way to the bathrooms, dining hall and sports area, etc.

At 9 p. m., the girls were "herded" to beds — which proved to be just as uncomfortable as they looked — and began which proved to be a nightly ritual of giggling. No one slept very much the first night as those bunks took some "getting used to".

Promptly at 7 a. m. Tuesday morning, the "Arise" whistle blew and the trail to the bathroom was heavily traveled. For awhile we had to direct traffic on this trail. At 7:30 the girls gathered at the flag pole area and stood respectfully at attention as the flag of the United States of America was hoisted to the top of the pole. After the brief and impressive flag ceremonial the girls sang songs until the breakfast whistle was sounded.

After breakfast the barracks were cleaned, the beds were made neatly and at 9 a. m. everyone gathered in front of Wade Hall to take the morning hike. On the first morning the girls were divided into two groups and told to look for feathers that could be placed on two paper birds which were placed in Wade Hall. The group who found the most feathers would be awarded a blue ribbon to hang on their bird. This proved to be a close race as one group, the Navajos found two tiny feathers and the Cherokees found one.

The next day on the 9 a. m. hike girls were each given a penny match box and were told to see how many tiny items they could get in their box without any duplications. Miss Melissa Monk won the blue ribbon in this contest with 51 little items. Miss Trezelle Hill won second with 49 and Miss Becky Greene won third with 41.

After returning from their hike the girls were divided into two groups, the Cherokees going to handicrafts and the Navajos to sports. At 12 noon the line formed for lunch, which was followed by quiet time. At 2:30 activities were resumed with the Cherokees in sports and the Navajos in handicrafts. At 4 p. m. the girls began the line to the bathroom for showers and clean ups. At 5:30 we gathered back around the flag pole area to bring our beloved flag off the pole, fold it respectfully and place it in its place of honor for the night, then to Wade Hall for a song session and to wait for supper to be served.

After supper the girls enjoyed stunts presented by each other and especially enjoyed the hilarious one when the counselors did the "application of make-up" demonstration on the men in the camp. After stunt time each night the girls were served refreshments around the fireplace and then were sent off to bed to begin their "giggling." Taps were sung at each cabin by the Junior Counselors at 10:00 p. m.

On Wednesday Herbert Hammonds of the United States Forest Ranger Dept. arrived at 1 o'clock, after an invitation from Mrs. C. E. Dolle to come and talk to our girls. This proved to be the highlight of our camp — as the Rangers surely must have sent their very best man to take us on a hike. Mr. Hammonds held the whole group "spellbound", as he took them through a portion of the burned forest, explaining to them the terrible results of this fire and why they should be extremely careful with fire in the forest. And as he brought them back down through a portion of the lush green forest pointing in the contrast in what they had just seen that had been lost, Mr. Hammonds showed the girls how to identify trees and tell their age. The group then returned to camp, where the ranger showed two films; Smokey the Bear, and a film showing how the Rangers put out a fire and then try to re-seed and restore the burned out forest.

After the films Mr. Hammonds said, "This is the most remarkable thing I have ever seen. I have taken many, many groups on this tour and this is the best organized, best behaved, most enthusiastic group I have ever taken an I am not saying this lightly! I want to tip my hat to all of you counselors for your wonderful work, and please keep it up." At this time the girls expressed their thanks and appreciation to Mr. Hammonds and presented him with a Camp Honor Badge.

On Thursday night the girls, dressed in full Campfire Girl Costume, gathered around the fireplace to receive their Camp Honor Badges, and to express their love and appreciation to the counselors:

Mrs. C. E. Dolle — who took us on the "horrible hikes"; Mrs. Murray Crone — our wonderful nurse; Mrs. Ira Brown (better known as Gomer Pyle) — who directed us in sports and games; Mrs. W. C. Benham and Mrs. Bobby Adams — who showed us how to make beautiful things for our souvenirs; Mrs. Don Lynskey — who was everywhere at one time; and Mrs. Dexter Nebhut — who came for a "rest", but was too busy having a good time to rest. And to Miss Deborah Miller, Miss Janella Nebhut, Miss Rheda Brown and Miss Karen Rozell — our Junior Counselors — whom we love dearly for making our camp so lovely with their devotional, song sessions, stunts, bedtime stories and their beautiful singing of the "Taps" at our cabin doors each night at 10:00 p. m.

A standing ovation was given to the men of our camp — without them we would not have been there — Ira Brown, C. E. Dolle, Daniel Rozell, and Keith Kennedy. Special respect was paid to Mr. and Mrs. Ellick Cox, who had returned home, much to their regrets, because of an injury to

Recipe for progress

Inducing a payroll-producing, taxpaying industry to locate in a town or a state is the objective of most communities. Therefore, the remarks of an executive of a company that located in Albany, Georgia, are of more than passing interest to many localities. They give a measure of what a prosperous, progressive industry means to a community.

The company in Georgia builds business airplanes. It believes that the demands of business flying will become much larger. At ground-breaking ceremonies, the executive discussed his company's growth prospects and emphasized the mutual interests of industry and communities.

He said economists have calculated that 100 new factory jobs mean that 296 people make the community their home; 4 more retail business open; 107 more passenger cars are registered; 74 jobs are created in addition to the factor jobs; there is $590,000 more in personal income per year; $270,000 in bank deposits and $360,000 in retail trade. But, beyond that, new industry means more young people will find employment and advancement in their hometowns.

The company spokesman observed that his firm had the obligation to run an efficient operation that paid taxes, met the payroll, upgraded its workers and made a profit. No other kind of a company is worth having around. He asked in return fair treatment — no special treatment.

In conclusion, he observed: "We have to run a successful, competitive enterprise here or we are both in trouble . . . If the community is hurt in some way, our plant is hurt. If the plant is hurt, the community suffers. That's why we must cooperate with each other . . ." This is a relationship that holds true and makes good sense in every community large and small all across the nation.

Hi Plains' reckoning day

The concept of the most beneficial use for surface water has been adopted with varying degrees of success in Texas. But the concept has never been applied to ground water.

In the absence of conspicuous waste, limited control can be exercised over the pumping of water from underground formations by property owners. But the day may come when the state's ground water resources, too, will be reserved for the most beneficial use.

A prime example of the depletion of priceless ground water can be found in the High Plains of West Texas. There, farmers, primarily growing cotton, are pumping from 55,000 wells, at the rate of 5 to 6 million acre feet of water a year. The wells are tapping the prolific Ogallala formation.

The history of irrigation from the Ogallala from 1937 to the present time in the High Plains is a melancholy one. In the beginning, when only a few irrigation wells were in operation, there was little appreciable draw-down in the water table which varied from 50 to 300 feet below the surface. But today the water table is dropping at the rate of 4 to 5 feet a year. Within perhaps 10 years the declining water table will make it uneconomical to pump irrigation water from deeper and deeper wells.

The Ogallala is generally sealed off from the significant recharge from rainfall. The recharge is almost insignificant in view of the demands on the formation.

The question that High Plains residents must ultimately ask themselves is this: Should the Ogallala be reserved for municipal and ordinary farm use and denied to irrigation? At present only 2 per cent of the water from the aquifer is being used by municipalities — the remainder is for irrigation.

The alternative for irrigators is to find

AUSTIN, Tex. — Newspaper readers throughout Texas soon will be seeing long columns of type about important issues as Secretary of State John Hill begins to advertise the six proposed constitutional amendments to be voted on November 11. Fourteen additional amendments will be on the 1968 ballot.

Eight of the 20 amendments are of interest mainly to special groups (e.g. legislators or state employees). Eight others would provide local governments with new powers or duties. Only four of the group directly affect most Texans.

Amendments to be voted on this year will appear on the ballot in this order:

NO. 1, House Joint Resolution 3, to permit counties to put all tax money in a single general fund rather than dividing income in specified amounts among separate funds for ear-marked purposes as is now required.

NO. 2, HJR 37, allowing cities and other governmental units within hospital districts to levy taxes for participation in mental health and mental retardation community centers.

NO. 3, HJR 17, reviving the veterans land program and authorizing a total of $400,000,000 in bonds to finance continued purchase of farm and ranch land by veterans, including those who have served in Southeast Asia during present hostilities.

NO. 4, HJR 6, authorizing counties to pay medical, doctor and hospital bills of county law enforcement officers injured in line of duty.

NO. 5, HJR 12, authorizing a $75,000,000 state revenue bond issue for the development of state parks and recreational areas. Bonds are expected to be financed by a small admission fee.

NO. 6, HJR 27, permitting state officers and employees to hold non-elective positions under the state or U.S. government where there is no conflict of interest and where the state might benefit.

That's all for '67.

Top interest in these amendments doubtless will center on the park bond proposal and the veterans land amendment. Hospital mental health and mental retardation groups will emphasize the importance of Amendment No. 2 to the new community center approach of treating mental patients close to home.

CALLING THE 1967 election for Veterans Day and a Saturday, undoubtedly, was to assure a larger voter turnout for the land fund amendment. A substantial campaign to urge its passage already is taking form.

Gov. John Connally is the principal backer of the parks bond issue. Last December, he unveiled a 10-year plan for acquiring and developing 150,960 acres of recreational lands and historical sites. This would more than triple the present state park acreage and open a variety of new facilities for outdoor recreation.

ONLY OPPOSITION to the amendment to date has been based on the $1 a car park-entry fee, initially proposed by Connally to finance the vast program; and scattered complaints that facilities included in the governor's master plan do not adequately serve some areas of the state.

He is expected to spearhead an intensive fall campaign — supported by Parks, recreational and outdoor groups — to put over the bond issue.

The veterans land amendment would add another $200,000,000 to state bonds previously authorized and through which 25,300 veterans have purchased farm and ranch properties at low interest rates spread over a 40-year pay period.

This amendment would raise the amount which could be borrowed under the program from $7,500 to $10,000. The program was initiated in 1949. Additional bonds were approved by voters in 1951 and 1956. Amendments to enlarge the bond authorization were rejected at elections in 1963 and 1965. Opposition came mainly from Dallas and Houston.

PROPOSERS EMPHASIZE that while thousands of veterans have benefited from the program, it has cost the state no money and actually has turned a profit of $2,500,000 a year while providing an expanded land market.

Opposition has adopted the argument that it is not the function of state government to engage in the loan business and that veterans have had plenty of time to participate. Some also contend that "cheap money" invites purchases of land not needed and which will not be put to productive use.

Amendment No. 2 specifies that the legislature, in providing for creation of hospital districts, does not have to require that the districts assume full responsibility for community mental health and retardation centers and services. It would permit cities and counties to levy taxes and issue bonds for such services. Subdivisions within existing districts would be authorized to do so unless statutes creating the districts expressly prohibit.

AN ATTORNEY general's opinion held that the constitution does not allow political subdivisions within the boundary of a hospital district to levy taxes for medical and hospital service. Under that ruling cities and counties located in such districts were restricted from participating in establishment of community health centers. Therefore, only hospital districts could establish such centers, a key part of the mental health program.

Amendments No. 3, No. 4 and No. 5 are self-explanatory and apparently non-controversial.

Amendment No. 6 is aimed primarily at permitting educators, who are paid from state funds, to serve on federal advisory boards.

another source of water. Ambitious schemes, ranging from water from the Mississippi River to water from the Pacific Northwest, are being studied. But no water diversion scheme can be devised and placed in operation in time to avoid the hard facts of life that must be faced by the people of the High Plains. Perhaps only 10 more years of economic irrigation are in sight.

The day of reckoning, of hard questions demanding hard answers, is not far off for the people of the High Plains of West Texas.

Aid formula inadequate

The formula used in Texas for 18 years to determine the portion of public school costs that individual districts will pay has been weighed and found wanting. Some districts pay their full share or more, some districts pay considerably less than their share. The result is that many districts making the greatest effort to help in meeting school costs are penalized, while others in effect are rewarded for failure to make even an average effort to levy and collect taxes.

The weighing was done in a partial survey of school districts by the Governor's Committee on Public School Education, which is taking a hard and thorough-going look at operation of the state's public education system. So much unevenness in local school support was revealed in the sampling of 190 counties the committee has now ordered a statewide study of taxation for public school purposes.

Some school districts, the partial study discloses, assess school taxes on an extremely low percentage of market value of property, and others on varying high percentages. The disparity is marked.

This lack of any semblance of uniformity affects all school districts. State aid, aimed at supplying 80 per cent of the minimum financial requirements of schools, is distributed on the basis of the supposed ability of the local districts to pay. But if some districts are providing less than their local share, it is obvious that state funds are going to them which otherwise would go to other districts.

According to the committee's figures, the Fort Worth school system would be receiving $1 million more a year in state funds if all the districts levied school taxes on an equal basis.

The complicated formula set up in 1949 to measure the ability of districts to pay obscures this inequality and allows some districts to be rewarded for lagging effort. A simpler and more equitable way, and one the committee may recommend to replace the so-called economic index, would be to base the distribution of state school funds on the ratio of a district's tax rolls to the total tax rolls of all districts.

This would mean that each district would receive state aid in direct proportion to its own taxing efforts, and would make for greater equality in school taxation across the state.

Inequality in taxation among school districts is a problem in all states. Some in recent years have taken steps to bring about greater uniformity. Texas has not. The study ordered by the education committee should provide the legislature with a basis for action to overcome this remissness and to meet the growing costs of public schooling in a manner fair to all.

Cochran County reaches bottom, starts back up

When you've reached bottom, the only way you can go is up. And Morton seems to be on its way up after having reached bottom economically and psychologically during the past few months.

The way ahead isn't all smooth, but at least some of the major bumps seem to have been passed. Cochran County has endured some rough going the past couple of years with acreage cuts, terrible weather and high interest rates. Money has been tight and a few farmers and a few businessmen have gone under.

But it seems that there are at least a few breaks in the clouds now. Farmers are beginning to take advantage of other money crops and getting away from total dependence upon cotton. Retail business is gradually improving and money seems to be a little easier to get now.

We were personally pleased with the cooperation among merchants during last week's successful Frontier Friendship Festival. It marks the first time during the 18 months we have been here that Morton merchants have really gotten together for a good promotion.

And the 3-to-1 approval of a hospital district indicates that most citizens are aware of the need for a different type of operation to supervise the county hospital. They seemed to feel that available medical facilities and personnel are essential to the growth of this community.

Morton has an operating electronics manufacturing company now, with a gradually increasing payroll. Its officers are diversifying in a manner that will quickly increase payrolls and the chance of good profits without a long wait. Several plans of Sound Tronics, Inc., could make it a fast-running manufacturer in several different areas within the next year.

The Chamber of Commerce is investigating some new cash crops through its agri-business committee. These could easily be adapted for Cochran County and would help replace the loss of income from cotton and would also bring in large numbers of agricultural workers to replace the field hands that have been lost as cotton farmers have increased their use of chemical weed control and mechanical harvesting.

Cochran County is filled with tough, resilient pioneers. They have endured hard times before and have survived.

With hard work, imagination and cooperation, Cochran County again can become prosperous and progressive, a tribute to its many fine citizens.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Griffith over the weekend were Ann's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lillard Thomas of Lamesa, Mrs. Enis Barrington from Duncan, Okla., and Mrs. J. T. Newton and daughter from Lamesa.

Through the telescope by luck

Here it is the last part of July already, I've had another birthday and summer is slipping by all too soon. A lot of folks still have their vacations ahead of them and are dreaming of the cool mountains or the refreshing beaches. Ruidoso seems to be the favorite spot for most folks around here, although it has gotten too commercialized to suit me.

The Frontier Friendship Festival was a big success, according to everyone I've talked with. Our congratulations go to J. C. Deere of Levelland, who won the weekend trip to Ruidoso. J.C. is an insurance man who spends a lot of time in Cochran County. He also spends some money over here, which is appreciated.

We understand the Morton Country Club Partnership Golf Tournament is set for August 4-5-6, after being washed out the first part of July. Anyone wanting to enter can contact Babe Van, Ted Willock or most any of the club members. Entry fee is $30 per team which includes a barbecue.

And it's not too long until the annual Cochran County Rodeo, which is set for Aug. 10-11-12. Those are the last two major events of the summer.

Committees have been named for an Area Teachers' Appreciation Banquet, which will be held in Morton early in September. The Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the event, which will be held in the Morton school cafeteria. Harold Drennan is to set the date, Jim Walker is in charge of menu, arrangements and decorations, Dean Weatherly will be in charge of the program, while Harold Drennan and J. C. Reynolds will head the ticket sales.

Morton's Little League team won their first game in the District tourney, then lost their second. A lot of Morton fans stayed after the second game to see Denver City and Plains tangle. It was a beautiful game, with both teams squeezing in runs in the sixth. Plains won in the seventh on a Texas League single with a runner on third. One pitcher struck out 16 and the other fanned 17. Then the finals saw Mike Cayce of Plains throw a no-hit game as Plains won over Levelland, 1-0. Mike is only 6-0 and weighs 165; he throws left-handed, to make it even worse.

If there is sufficient interest, I plan to give some free tennis lessons during the remainder of the summer. The class will be limited to 16 students, either boys or girls, who are at least 12 years of age and who still have at least one more year of high school eligibility left. First class will be held at the Morton school courts at 7 p.m. Thursday, July 27.

I don't think the riots in Detroit are as concerned with race problems as with getting off with all loot possible and then burning the empty store. There is a big difference between peaceful demonstration and uncontrolled mob violence. We don't condone such actions as have been taking place in Detroit, Newark and other places. As far as I'm concerned, it wouldn't matter if the looters were black, white, brown, yellow or pea-green with orange polka-dots . . . they should be shot on sight. Too much crime and violence has been committed in the name of racial protest.

There's too much crime today. By those who get in Blacky's way. We're beginning to get a little sour about criminals who rob or loot. While hiding behind the tag "black power".

PRIDE AND JOY!

Proud Father... you bet... this is my child... she's sweet, trusting, lovely and brings great joy to my life. I work harder in order to better my income so that I can provide for her. She thrills me, and already I am making plans for her future. Right now we are all dressed up and getting ready to go to church. I love her, and I want the best for her. I want her to know early about God, and that he means a lot to me, and I want God to mean a lot to her, too!

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Le Fleur Garden Club tells of year's activities here

Recently three members of the Le Fleur Garden Club met with Dean Weatherly of station KRAN to pre-record a program in a series of programs given by the Federated Garden Clubs and seven Federated Study Clubs of Morton and vicinity.

These programs are presented weekly as a public service by the radio station. Mrs. Sammie Williams, club president, gave a brief background of the club and some of the programs for the coming year. These will include: flower arranging, corsage making, landscape design and horticulture. Conservation (namely drying and treating flowers for many uses) also Garden Therapy. Comprehensive study of "Flowering shrubs best suited to this Locality," among others.

She also mentioned that the club will be working for several awards this club year.

Mrs. W. A. Woods, secretary, gave the themes for the national, regional, state, district 1 organizations and also the local club's which is "Responsible for Nature's Natural Nuggets."

Mrs. Woods is interested in horticulture and named several topics to be covered in programs to be given. It is hoped that the well known Scott Fikes of Ft. Worth, who is in charge of planning parks and garden in that area, will be able to give a program on "Landscape Design."

She stated that the Le Fleur Garden Club is landscaping the Cochran County Historical Museum grounds and they plan to apply for a grant given by Sears, Roebuck and Co.

The club held a miscellaneous sale on Saturday, July 22, south of the First State Bank in front of the Historical Museum, Mrs. Woods said.

She also named some of the projects and activities of the club. One of these will be to place an arrangement in the Robert's Memorial Rest Home each month by a different member.

Hostesses will be responsible for an arrangement or a horticulture exhibit in their yard or garden to be constructively criticized by the members in attendance.

Mrs. L. Z. Scoggins, 1st vice president, explained more thoroughly the comprehensive study which is one of the requirements of a standard club. She stated that Mrs. Don Stamford, a special District Committee Chairman and a member of this club will be giving these programs. There will be three of these covering flowering shrubs, their care, best times to plant, and those best suited to this locality.

The ladies plan to place receptacles in strategic places to "Catch litter" in conjunction with the anti-litter program of the Morton Area Chamber of Commerce.

She also explained that the club is small that it isn't wise to have a regular flower show, so they plan a placement show in the spring, tentively the first Saturday in May in '68. Although the public is invited and urged to view the show, only members can contribute arrangements and horticulture specimens to be judged. However anyone having an unusual plant or flower is invited to display it in the show.

The club plans a pilgrimage in October to Texas Tech to visit the Chrysantheums Colorama and the Garden Arts Center. This is an annual trip and has been taken always before in the spring and is usually to a different place each year.

This activity is another of the National Club requirements. Anyone interested in visiting the club is welcome. Meeting dates are the 2 and 4 Thursday of each month, September through May.

Mrs. James Thomas St. Clair III

Jones - St. Clair nuptials performed in Odessa rites

Miss Mary Sue Jones became the bride of Mr. James Thomas St. Clair III in double ring ceremonies performed at seven-thirty o'clock the evening of July twenty-second in the First Methodist Church of Odessa, with Rev. Lawrence Menefee officiating.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Jones of 1509 Alpine, Odessa, and Mrs. James St. Clair and the late Mr. St. Clair of 318 East Taylor Avenue, Morton.

Organist was Mrs. Ashley Lawson, who played pre-nuptial selections and accompanied Miss Sharon Francis, soloist, as she sang "Whither Thou Goest", and "The Wedding Prayer".

Church decorations included a nuptial setting lighted with forty-five votive candles and cathedral tapers adorned at the base with emerald foliage of commadore fern. Flanking the altar were elegant arrangements of white gladioli and mums, and at each front corner stately arrangements of princess gladioli were placed. Cascades of green foliage and white satin bows marked the mother's pews.

The bride was attired in a formal wedding gown of de-lustered satin designed with a slender silhouette. Overlays of Chantilly lace, accented with crystal clusters, trimmed the elbow length sleeves and the skirt of the gown. An overskirt of controlled fullness was attached at the waist and swept into a generous chapel train. Her bouffant veil of pure silk English illusion was held by a Chantilly lace bridal cap adorned with de-lustered satin rosettes sprinkled with crystal, and she carried a cascade of roses, glamelias, and English ivy on a mother of pearl Bible from Jerusalem.

Maid of honor was Miss Mary Lyons of Odessa. Bridesmaids were Miss Cherie Sampson of Odessa and Miss Mary St. Clair, sister of the bridegroom, from Morton. Junior bridesmaid was Miss Tonya Porter of Medicine Lodge, Kansas, cousin of the bride.

The bride's attendants wore identical gowns designed in seakist silk with sculptured silhouette. The bodices featured scoop necklines, that curved from a high front to a lower depth in back, and brief sleeves that were accented with flared ruffles and a small bow. The A-line skirts were in three tiers. Their headresses were four layers of seakist tulle caught to three petals overlaid by small bows of matching silk, and they carried balls of English ivy accented with touches of matching tulle attached to their arms with a satin ribbon.

John St. Clair of Morton served his brother as best man. Groomsmen were Ray Tucker, Levelland and Lowell Hatcher, Venita, Oklahoma. Ushers were R. E. Thompson, Austin; Mike Holland, Morton, and Johnny St. Clair, Muleshoe.

The flowergirl, Miss De Shay Ebert, wore a floor-length princess gown of seakist silk and her headpiece was a circle of flowers. Ring-bearer was Randy Porter of Medicine Lodge, Kansas. He was attired in a black Eton coat, bow tie, and short black pants.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Jones selected a bamboo imported Italian silk dress which featured a softly draped neckline that crossed into a tie at the shoulder, and slightly flared elbow-length sleeves caught with a small button. Her accessories were multi-colored shoes and bag, a pink chiffon scarf and beige gloves. Her corsage was a pink glamelia.

Mrs. St. Clair, mother of the bridegroom, chose a sheath fashioned in blue Chantilly lace. It featured tapering, elbow-length sleeves. Her accessories were of matching blue and she added a clutch evening bag of white jewels and pearls. Her corsage was a white glamelia.

The newlyweds greeted guests at a reception held in the church parlor immediately following the wedding.

The bride's table was laid with a white organza and net cloth. At one end was placed the three-tiered bridal confection of white and silver, topped by wedding bells. Table appointments were of silver, and refreshments of punch, aqua mints, and nuts were offered.

Serving guests were Miss Susan Childs, San Antonio; Mrs. Mike Holland, Morton; Misses Martha McNau and Miss Jene McIntire, Odessa. Miss Vicki Jones of Anton registered guests.

Assisting with the reception was Mrs. Darrell (Butch) Webb, Mrs. Jack King, Mrs. Jack Avery, Mrs. J. B. Prickett, and Mrs. Don Wemken.

For a wedding trip to Colorado the bride changed to a two-piece ensemble of lime green textured Barkcloth featuring a sleeveless overblouse with a soft rolled collar tied to form a bow at the left shoulder. The skirt was double pleated, and she wore beige accessories and a rose corsage.

The new Mrs. St. Clair graduated from Odessa High School and attended Texas Tech for two years, majoring in elementary education. She was a member of Delta Delta Delta Sorority and Angel Flight.

The bridegroom graduated from Morton High School in 1961 and from Texas Tech in 1966. He received a Bachelor of Business Administration degree at Tech.

The couple will make their home in Denver City where St. Clair is manager of St. Clair's Department Store.

Out-of-town guests registering were Mr. and Mrs. Bell St. Clair and Mr. and Mrs. Irvin St. Clair, Muleshoe; Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Cooper, Andrews; Ruth Woodridge, Dallas; Sheila Dupree, Snyder; Donna Glass, Burkburnett; Mr. and Mrs. Glen Jones and Vicki, Anton; Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Garten, Oklahoma City; Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Ward, Big Spring; Mrs. Mame Brown, Coldwater, Kansas; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Garten and family and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Porter and family, Medicine Lodge, Kansas; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Spain and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Fouts, Haskell.

Attending from Morton were Maryland Abbe, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Nicewarner, Mrs. Peques Houston and Carolyn, Lloyd Hiner, and Mr. and Mrs. P. L. DeBusk, Jr.

Jaycee-Ettes hold regular meeting

The Morton Jaycee-Ettes met for their regular meeting July 10, at the Wig-Wam Restaurant. The treasurer's report and minutes were read by Carol Pruitt. Barbara Tyson gave a report on the Little Britches Rodeo and reminded everyone that the Jaycee-Ettes will furnish refreshments for Project Headstart.

Pat Hodge gave a report on the programs for the Last Frontier Rodeo to be held in August. It was decided to participate in the State Betty Crocker Coupon Project. Jo Ogle and Pat Hodge volunteered to take cakes to the Nursing Home for July.

J. Wayne McDermott was guest speaker. He gave a very interesting talk on his experiences as a House Page in Austin.
