★ We did it again

In last week's Morton Tribune we published the pictures of the candidates for various Sweethearts for Homecoming activities here in Morton. Somehow the picture of Miss Beverly Browne was not pictured with the other candidates. We would like to extend a personal apology to Miss Browne for this error.

Morton High School Marching Band brings home first place

The Morton High School Band traveled to Levelland Tuesday, November 12, to compete in the UIL Marching Contest. The contest was held in Lobo Stadium in competition with over 20 bands. Mortonites should be proud to know that Morton brought back a 1st place rating in their division.

Ten other bands competed in the AA Class division. Three of these were 1st place. They were Morton, Abernathy, and Dimmitt. Second places went to five schools. They were Hale Center High School, Lockney High School, Floydada High School, Olton High School, and Idalou High School. Third places went to two schools. They were: Post High School and Friona High School.

There were no fourth and fifth place winners.

Judges were Pat Patterson, James Jarrell, and Tim Jones.

The Morton High School Marching Band should be commended for their hard work and excellent showing for the contest.

Morton Indians to play last grid game of season Nov. 15

Ten Morton seniors will play their last game for Morton, the Indians travel to Post Friday night to do battle with the Antelopes for the district 4-AA cellar. The loser will take sole possession of the bottom spot, having no wins in district play.

The Antelopes have won only one game this season, that being a non-conference win over Roosevelt. Frenship, the district second place team, beat Post 42-14, and the champion Denver City Mustangs blanked Post, 68-0.

The Antelopes played one of their best games of the season last week as they dropped a district encounter to Idalou, 33-26. Idalou stopped Morton two weeks ago, 31-8.

Friday's game with Post is the last for the Indians this year. The Indians will be looking for their second win against seven losses and a tie, and have a good chance against Post as the Tribe finished strong last week in coming from behind to tie Tahoka.

Morton will go into Friday's game at full strength. Injuries have hampered the Indians all year, and the return of the team to full strength was evident last week.

The Morton High School Band and Pep Squad will make the long journey to Post, and all Morton fans are urged to go to help support the Indians in their final outing for the 1968 season.

Friday night's game will be the last for seniors Wayne Thompson, Alex Soliz, Danny Williams, Bob Hawkins, Dee Merritt, Tommy Waters, Tommy DeBusk, Curtis Gandy, Herschel Lamar, and trainer Joe Coker.

Budd Fountain named local chairman of Boy Scout campaign

Budd Fountain of Morton has been appointed local chairman for the Boy Scout annual Sustaining Membership Enrollment campaign to be launched in November according to Huston Hoover, Littlefield, finance chairman for the George White District.

The chairman pointed out that this campaign will represent the second year of a new method of securing funds for the operation of the Scout Council. Previously an annual finance campaign was held in the fall of the year. Under the current plan, the financial supporters of the council are enrolled as annual Sustaining Members, and support Scouting in a financial way much the same as others give of their time and effort on behalf of the Scouting program.

Funds raised through the membership effort will be used to underwrite the budget of the South Plains Council, Boy Scouts of America, a 20 county area in West Texas.

The South Plains Council uses the funds secured to provide essential services to local Scout groups. Included in the services are the organization of new Cub Packs, Boy Scout Troops, and Explorer Posts; the operation of Camps Post and Tres Ritos; training courses for Scout leaders; area wide activities including

Cochran Historical Museum exhibits painting by Meigs

The Cochran County Historical Museum in Morton announces the temporary exhibit of a western painting by noted artist John Meigs of San Patricio, New Mexico. The egg-tempera, entitled "Riding Out," illustrates a cowboy-windmill-prairie scene which might well have been Cochran County fifty years ago. The painting is some 30x40 inches and is framed in a beautiful antique frame.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Dean of Lubbock arranged for the Morton exhibit of the painting through the courtesy of the artist and Baker Galleries of Lubbock. Mrs. Dean, the former John Anna Boyd, is the daughter of Hiley T. Boyd, early manager of the Slaughter Ranch in Cochran County and one of the first County

Two rural accidents reported by patrol

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated two accidents on rural highways in Cochran County during the month of October, according to Lieutenant James Mason, Highway Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in two persons injured and an estimated property damage of $1,175.00.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first ten months of 1968 shows a total of 24 accidents resulting in no persons killed, 16 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $20,150.00.

Conservation District News

From the Office of BUDD FOUNTAIN

The idea for Soil and Water Conservation Districts came from experiences of the 1930's. A pyramid of mounting erosion, floods and land damage was topped monstrous dust storms.

Conservation leaders studied these problems. They analyzed the experience of the Soil Conservation Service with its early erosion-control demonstrations projects and the Civilian Conservation Corps. It was apparent that real effective conservation work was done better and lasted longer when the landowners themselves took a large & active part in the job.

Legally, a district is an independent subdivision of state government, similar to counties, townships, school districts, drainage or irrigation districts. Districts are governed by citizens who know local problems. The typical district has 5 supervisors.

The U.S. Dept. of Agriculture has entered into a Memorandum of Understanding with each of the districts. It will cooperate with and assist the district in carrying on erosion control and soil conservation work.

The Soil Conservation Service has entered into a Supplemental Memorandum of Understanding with each of these districts. The S.C.S. makes available the services supplies the facilities necessary for planning technically and economically sound conservation measures and furnishes certain other types of assistance as needed and available.

Each district has the responsibility for developing a district-wide soil and water conservation program aimed at solving local problems. The district carries forward that program by helping upon request, land owners and operators, individually or in groups, to plan, to apply, and to maintain technically and economically sound soil and water conservation measures.

The Cochran Soil & Water Conservation District is made up of Cochran county. There are five elected supervisors, one from each zone. The term of office is for five years.

The board directs the use of assistance to help farmers and ranchers further their individual conservation plans.

To find out more about the services available from the S.C.S. and the District, inquire at the Soil Conservation Service office.

Tax Man Sam sez:

If you earn part of your income from tips, you are required to report the amount of tips to your employer, who is required by law to withhold Social Security and income taxes on them. If you do not earn enough wages to pay the taxes that should be withheld, you are required to pay the rest to Internal Revenue. A recent court decision upheld an Internal Revenue Agent who assessed taxes, interest and penalties on 10% of the cost of all meals a waitress served. It pays to keep a record of your tip income.

Annual bonfire

... again
MHS band's practice field behind school, Thursday night, 7:30; this was the setting of Morton's annual bonfire. The pile of wood was ten feet in the air. The fresh air was assisted by several upper classmen of the Student Council, gathered the night before. A paper mache Bulldog was burned in effigy on top of the bonfire. The MHS band started off the pep rally with the fight song, and the cheerleaders led with a series of yells between members. The bonfire was termed a success, despite the student body's that it would "flop".

Hi gang! How is this cold weather treating you all? I sure wish whoever ordered all this snow and cold would send it back!

Well, how did you like the ballgame last Friday night? In case you haven't heard by now, the scoreboard showed the Morton Indians and the Tahoka Bulldogs tied at the end of the game. However, despite the scoreboard, the Indians won on penetrations 5 to 2. Also, the Indians should have had some extra points for their kick after their final touchdown, but for some reason, the officials saw fit to call this attempt "no good". Personally, I think the kick was good but the referees probably wouldn't have listened to me had I told them so, so I kept my mouth shut. This turned out to be a great disappointment to the boys since they came so close to coming out on top of the score. But I, for one, was very excited by the outcome of the game!

Homecoming queens were presented at halftime of the game, as the band played an arrangement of "More". Friday night was also designated as "Dads' Night". The dads of the football boys wore their numbers and sat on a special place on the field.

I see where Denver City beat Frenship last Friday night by a score of 16 to 0. D.C. thus clinched the District 4-AA championship. I was really kind of sad to hear this. Since Frenship has been doing so good this season, I hoped they would go to steal this championship this year. I guess I'm just a little prejudiced against Denver City in the first place, though.

Well, tomorrow night will be the senior football boys' last game as they meet Post there in the final clash of the season. It'll also be my last game to cheerlead, along with Caroa Freeland and Vivian McDaniel, and I'm pretty sad about that, but I guess that's just the way it goes. Y'all come on out to the ballgame tomorrow night and help the Indians POUNCE ON POST!!!

Morton Indians and Tahoka Bulldogs end in tie ballgame

They said it couldn't be done. They said the Morton Indians couldn't come from behind and win. But they did, at least the Morton fans think so, even though the scoreboard showed an 8-8 deadlock after last Friday night's Homecoming football game with the Tahoka Bulldogs.

The miraculous comeback drive that saw QB Wayne Thompson move the Indians 77 yards in less than a minute to score with no time remaining was nothing short of fabulous, but the spirit of the jubilant tribe was stunned as Mike Bryan's extra point conversion sailed high and inches to the right of the goal standard, sailing close enough to being good that several Morton fans rained the departing officials with bitter protest.

But, for the Indians, the tie was a victory and the records prove it. The charges of Coach Lane Tannehill played mistakeless ball as far as penalties and fumbles go; The Indians never lost the ball on a fumble despite the wet field and cold air, and drew only 4 penalties for 35 yards.

The Indians penetrated the Bulldogs 20 five times, while Tahoka crossed the Tribe 20 only once. Morton outrushed Tahoka 152 yards to 151, and Wayne Thompson experienced his best passing night of his career as he hit seven of ten attempts for 92 yards. Alex Soliz, for the second straight game, racked up more than 100 yards as he ran for 121 on 26 carries, snared 4 passes for 42 yards and a TD, and passed once for 8 yards.

For Football Queen Patsy Collins, the Indians TD drive was a perfect gift. With a minute and a half left in the game and trailing, 8-2, the Indians appeared headed for their eighth straight setback as they immediately drew a 15 yard holding penalty that pushed them back to the 23. But Thompson unlimbered his passing arm went to work as he found Ralph Soliz who fought to the Indian 39. On the halfback pass, Alex Soliz hit Terry Harvey at the 47 with only 29 seconds left. Thompson's third down pass fell short, but on 4th and one, he hit Alex Soliz on a sideline pattern at the Bulldog 35 with 25 seconds left.

Then came the big break for Morton. Thompson rolled out and fired to Soliz, but the pass was short. However the deep Indian receiver was tripped up at the 17 and the Indians had a first down at that point as a result of the pass interference call. Alex Soliz made another spectacular catch on the next play at the four and fell out of bounds with only four seconds showing. And then came the crowning climax for a full slate of Homecoming activities, Thompson faded back and then flipped the ball to Alex Soliz who went down on one knee and then fell to the ground in the end zone, but hung on to the ball and the Indians had a tie with no time left. As Bryan's kick was in the air, flags flew and the Tahoka Bulldogs had the honor of declining an offside penalty against the Indians.

The Indians missed their opportunity to win outright on two occasions. The first came in the opening seconds of the game as Tahoka fumbled away the opening kickoff at the 23. The Indians drove to the 10, but the drive bogged down as Alex Soliz was dropped at the 17. Tommy Waters carried to the 16, Thompson's first pass fell away, and his fourth down run was halted at the 10.

And, early in the second period, Morton found themselves with a first and goal at the Bulldog four after Alex Soliz had been stopped after a 41 yard gallop. The Indians drive had begun at their own 21, a drive that saw Morton gamble on fourth and one situations twice. But at the four, the Indians could not move. Soliz hit the middle twice and carried to the one, Waters was dropped at the line, and then Thompson was thrown for a nine yard loss as he tried to roll out and fumbled.

The Indians picked up two points early in the game after Tahoka's center sailed the ball high over the head of their punter Jody Edwards, who was standing on his own 10. Tommy Waters trapped Edwards in the end zone for a two point safety.

Tahoka's lone TD came late in the second period capping a 63 yard drive. The Bulldogs passed very little, but QB Charlie Brown teamed up with HB Greg Thomas twice to pickup 33 yards and a TD, the last pass covering 15 yards with just 20 seconds left in the half. Tim Walker edged across for the extra points.

It is no Secret...

One of the great joys that children have is in telling a secret. This is one way that secrets have of becoming known.

However IT IS NO SECRET what God can do for you. This was never intended to be a secret, for God wants all to know the good news.

Isaiah said: "The Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings ... to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord."

Attend church regularly and hear God's word preached.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

LOANS CAN PROTECT FARM PRICES, SAYS ASC CHAIRMAN

Growers are cheating themselves if they market their crops at prices below the Commodity Credit Corporation loan levels, according to Danny Key, Chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee.

The price-support commodity loan program was developed as a means of helping farmers sell their crops at a time when market conditions are most favorable, the chairman points out, and that time normally is not at harvest time when supplies are ample and prices are likely to be down.

He explains that the Government loan gives an immediate return to the participating farmer at harvest time, and at the same time the farmer retains control of his crop. By storing it for a while and then repaying the loan and selling the crop later after the marketing peak, the grower frequently can get a much better price. How effective the loan is in protecting farm prices really can be decided only by the farmer, Chairman Danny Key emphasized. Only he can make the program operate as intended.

Local loan rates for 1968 crops — which are adjusted for individual crops according to grade and quality — are as follows: (List county loan rates for major crops grown locally) County Loan rates for Cochran County; $ 1.63 per cwt Grain sorghum; 2.41 Soy Beans; 20.20 cotton for mid. 1 inch; Wheat $1.26 per bu.

The Chairman reminds farmers, also, that the loan is only a part of the total price support protection available to participating growers of such major crops as wheat, corn, grain sorghum, and cotton. A grower who helps to stabilize crop supplies by taking part in commodity diversion programs also receives a price support payment on the crop (marketing certificate for wheat) which substantially boosts his total cash returns from his crop. The price-support payment is separate from the program payment, made for diverting acreage from production into a conserving use.

Morton's annual homecoming conducted November 7, 8

Homecoming activities for Morton were Thursday and Friday, November 7 and 8 in Morton.

The freshman team played the Olton team Thursday at 5:00 p.m. At 7:30 p.m. a traditional bonfire was held west of the school. A large turnout gathered for the colorful blaze which ended the day's activities.

The homecoming festivities were begun by the playing of the Football, Band, and Pep bands. The new Football Band was led by Miss Patsy Collins. Her attendants were Miss Sharon Irwin and Miss McCasland. Their escorts were Jerry DeBusk, Terry Harvey, and Curtis Fields, Byron Lee Willis, and Curtis Crowne as Pep Squad Sweethearts. Miss Nina Lewis. Attendants of the queen are Miss Deborah Miller and Karen Ruzell. Their escorts were DeBusk, Terry Harvey, and Curtis Fields.

At 8:00 p.m. Friday afternoon the Pep Band was held in the High School Boy's Gymnasium. Later that afternoon the Supper sponsored by the Morton Boosters was held in the school cafeteria.

At 7:30 p.m. the long awaited Football game began between the Morton Indians and the Tahoka Bulldogs. The last few minutes of the game brought Indian fans to their feet as the score was 8-2 in favor of the bulldogs. Morton had a chance to win the game 9-8 when a touchdown was made making the score 8-8. The chance to score the extra point for a field goal proved of no value when a penalty was called on Morton in the last seconds of the game. Losing the point, the Indians tied the bulldogs 8-8.

A visitation period was given after the game for all exes. It was hosted by the Morton Ex-Students Association.

The Homecoming for 1968 was a joyous occasion and the 1969 Homecoming is anxiously awaited by one and all.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayland Altman spent the weekend in Ballinger and attended the wedding of Judy Lyles, Mrs. Altman's cousin.

Mrs. Neil White and daughters, Judy and Susan traveled to Abilene for Homecoming Activities. After the game they attended an Aggie Club Banquet where Bill White, Mrs. White's son, gave a speech. While in Abilene they visited with some old friends and then brought Judy back to LCC in Lubbock.

Morton High Class of 1953 holds reunion

Assurances that "You haven't changed a bit" rang out at the county activity building November 9 as the Morton High School graduating class of 1953 held a class reunion.

With old annuals, a model windmill and outshone the Theme was "The Good Ole Days."

1973 will mark the classes' 20th year so another reunion was planned for the summer of that year according to Mayor Jack Russell.

This class was the last class to have a Senior trip in Morton. They built the original snack stand at the Morton football field. This class also was the charter members of the Campfire Girls in Morton.

When this class was in the 5th grade the school building burned to the ground and the remainder of the year the class went to school in the church house. They had one of the few printed school newspapers "The War Whoop". These were some of the memories recalled by members of this class.

— Editorials — Grateful for aid

This editorial will be short and, we hope, to the point. During the short span of time we have been heading this newspaper we have been commended by many fine folks for the way we are trying to improve the news content of The Tribune each week by more thorough coverage of local events. In this we are fortunate in that many are rallying to our aid and helping to see that no newsworthy story is overlooked. For this we are very grateful and want to say keep up the good work. We appreciate it.

Now we are wondering just how long it will be before some non-advertisers will see the light and become regular advertisers of their merchandise to the end that we may be able to give you readers more pictures and more news of a local nature, as well as expand the income of the advertisers by attracting more customers to Morton.

After all, revenue from the advertisers gauges the number of pages of a newspaper and thereby sets the pace that a newspaper may be of service to a community. Think it over.

Shooting and safety

Nineteen years ago, the state of New York passed a law requiring previously unlicensed hunters under the age of 16 to take a course in safe gun handling before getting a hunting license. But, no instructors or standardized course in safety existed at that time. At the request of the state, the National Rifle Association, using information from its newly-established Uniform Hunter Casualty Report as a means of analyzing the causes of hunting accidents, created a basic course in safe hunting practices. The NRA prepared an instructor's guide, developed a method of certifying instructors in the course and was designated to administer the program to young hunters in the state of New York.

Today, 40 states and 7 Canadian Provinces administer Hunter Safety Programs. One-fourth of some 15 million licensed hunters in this country are graduates of the NRA Hunter Safety course. The results have been dramatic, with official figures showing a drop of 15 per cent in U. S. hunting fatalities during the period from 1950 to 1965. The purpose of the program has been described as not to turn out sharpshooters but rather "... to instill in the beginner a fundamental knowledge of guns and ammunition, proper gun handling under field conditions, a grasp of the hunter's responsibilities to landowners and other hunters, and an attitude that makes him put his knowledge into practice."

Some 52,000 dedicated individuals throughout the 50 states, as instructors in Hunter Safety, are devoting their time and energy to getting this message across. In the interests of preserving and bettering the enjoyment and experience of hunting for present and future generations of Americans, every hunter should participate in this program. It deserves the commendation and support of every one of us, hunter and nonhunter alike.

Winning essays printed

Curtis Griffith and LaNeta Davis came out winners in a recent essay contest. The story concerning this competition appeared in an earlier issue of the Tribune. The winning essays on "Americanism" follow:

WHAT AMERICANISM MEANS TO ME By Curtis Griffith

Americanism is the group of traits and customs exhibited to the world by the people of the United States of America. It is the hardworking Yankee shopkeeper devising an easier way to do some everyday task and amassing a fortune from the idea. It is the Quaker farm couple content to spend their lives tilling a small plot of soil because they know it is by this kind of life that they can best contribute to the glory of God.

Americanism is a poor father working his life away at a miserable job so his children might have some advantages in life he did not have. Americanism is one of this man's sons bleeding to death on a foreign battlefield so a child in that land might be free.

It is the determination which made the pioneers carve a civilized land out of a wilderness. Americanism is also the compassion which made them try to help the Indians whose land and pride were stripped away by the westward movement.

It is the imagination which makes a child in subject poverty want to grow up to be President. It is also the cold, unfeeling social system which makes the fulfillment of his dream impossible.

But impossible has never been a very important word in the American vocabulary. It was impossible to sail west across the ocean and not fall off the edge of the world. It was impossible for a group of uneducated farmers to defeat the mighty British Empire. It was certainly impossible for these same farmers to set up a workable system of government, much less the most perfect system ever devised by the minds of men.

Even now there are many who say that it is impossible to rid the world of poverty, hunger, ignorance, and disease. These prophets of stagnation say that human nature is unchangeable, and the problems of the world will always be with us. But even if they are right, this is no reason not to try to improve mankind.

The group of outcasts who came to the land called America have built it into the greatest nation the world has ever known. They have conquered the Earth itself, but their descendants have chosen a greater challenge. They are trying to spread love and happiness throughout the world and make every human being free and independent. Even if they fail in this attempt, the world will be improved by the effort. But if they should succeed, it will be the greatest accomplishment by mortal men in all of history, and the love of God for this dirty, sinful creature who calls himself Man may yet be justified. If that day should come, one can truly be proud to say, "I am an American."

WHAT AMERICA MEANS TO ME by La Neta Davis

America is a great country. As the years go by I realize the freedom we possess. I know that in the Constitution we are guaranteed freedom of speech, religion, and press.

We also have the privilege to pass laws and elect men to enforce them. America is also a nation of education. Our schools are the finest in the world. We have the best trained teachers and the best equipment to work with. Everyone has the opportunity to get an education and may receive help from the government if he is financially unable to pay for his schooling.

America has the most modern, the cleanest, and up to date hospitals in the world. Our doctors are the best trained and have access to all methods of life saving and healing techniques.

America is also a nation of recreation. Americans have more recreational time and more ways to spend it than any other country.

America is a nation everyone wants not to visit, but to live in. All over the world people wish they could say, "I am an American." We have a heritage of which we should be proud. America is a great country and we should stand tall and lead the world in solving its problems.

Fire, unlimited

Burning trash in his back yard, Harold took note of the fact that the grass was dry and the breeze was blowing. So when the fire had died down, he stomped around the edges and scuffed up the embers with his toe.

But, though Harold didn't know it, the fire smoldered on. During the evening it spread to a neighbor's garage and burned it down. And in due course the neighbor filed suit for damages.

"But I really did try to put the fire out," Harold protested at the trial.

Nevertheless the court held him liable, blaming him for not taking greater precautions — such as throwing dirt or water on the embers to make sure they were out.

"Always and everywhere since the beginning of civilization," said one judge, "fire has been regarded as a dangerous as well as a beneficent agency, to be handled with care."

That doesn't mean the person who starts a fire is automatically liable for everything that goes amiss.

Thus a farmer who was tending a brush fire — with every reasonable safeguard — was held not liable when a sudden, ferocious wind spread the flames to his neighbor's land. Pointing out that the farmer had done nothing wrong, the court said he could not fairly be blamed for an "act of God."

But once a person has been negligent with fire, then his legal responsibility may be far-reaching indeed. He may have to pay not only for property damage but also for personal injury or death to persons trapped by the fire's spread.

He may even be liable to someone who, while not in danger at first, got hurt rescuing those who were. Take this case: Sparks negligently emitted from a passing locomotive set fire to a house in which children were asleep. Their mother, outside the house, rushed in and managed to beat out the flames.

For the burns she suffered, the railroad was later held liable. The court said that, if railroad employees had given proper thought to the spark danger, they could have foreseen not only that a house might be set afire and its occupants jeopardized but also that a rescuer might get hurt too. Said one judge:

"Danger invites rescue. The wrong that imperils life is a wrong to the imperiled victim; it is a wrong also to his rescuer." A public service feature of the American Bar Association and the State Bar of Texas. Written by Will Bernard.

Texas Farm Bureau membership list shows over 5,000 gain

WACO — (Spl.) — For the first time in the history of the Texas Farm Bureau, the state's largest general farm organization has more than 110,000 member families.

Final 1968 membership tabulation shows TFB now has 110,689 member families, according to Wayne Little, TFB organization field services director.

Farm Bureau gained 5,036 member families during the past membership year which ended Oct. 31. The organization has more than doubled its membership in the last 16 years, having gained each of the 16 years.

Nine of every ten Texas farmers and ranchers who belong to a general farm organization are members of Texas Farm Bureau, Little said.

There are 203 organized counties in the Texas Farm Bureau. The organization is supported by voluntary dues-paying members.

A pair of fingernail clippers is a handy item in the tackle box. They are great for snipping line and save wear and tear on teeth and fingernails.

TURNROW TUNKEL

I read that according to the Dept. of Labor, there is a shortage of experienced butlers in the U. S.

This is one problem I won't lose any sleep worrying about. Television repairmen and orthodontists, who as far as I know are the only people who can afford butlers, will just have to get by the best they can.

Did you read that doctors have decided that overwork does not contribute to heart trouble, but too much sleep does?

That's terrible news. What is a fellow going to tell his wife when she wants him to work in the backyard on Sunday afternoon instead of taking a nap?

I understand that most television programs scheduled for the early part of the evening are designed for younger people.

Maybe that's the reason I don't watch TV much. I get sleepy before they start the programs aimed at my age group.

Did you read that manufacturers are building larger and fancier lawn and garden tractors? Some cost more than $2,000, and many people buy them as "status symbols."

In my part of the country, I think boats are considered status symbols. The no other way to explain people who live 300 miles from the nearest lake in a house worth $3,000 with a $5,000 boat parked outside.

I see where the Government has published a pamphlet telling people how to avoid being struck by lightning.

That figures. I've said all along that those Washington planners think the average citizen doesn't have enough sense to come in out of the rain.

Did you know there is a psychiatrist in Los Angeles who specializes in treating dogs? A session costs $50 an hour.

Of the three parties involved — the dog, its owner and the doctor — I'd say at least two were crazy. There's no way of being sure about the dog.

How many carrots can be grown on an acre?

Enough to ruin all the peas grown on 100 acres.

Did you read that Aristotle Onassis gave Jackie a ring valued at more than $1 million?

Well, when a billionaire visits "the place where people go when they are through playing games", he can afford the best in the store.

What did you think about George Ball resigning his post as ambassador to the U.N. and joining Mr. Humphrey's organization?

The way the polls are looking, George may have made a mistake. The U.S. never accomplishes anything, but the U.S. is steady, and the outfit will probably still be in business after November 22.

A cigaret with a filter tip contains tobacco is now on the market. What do these have any advantages?

Yes, a person who happened to light the wrong end would never know the difference.

Did you read that Richard Nixon keeps his weight down by eating a lot of cottage cheese?

Anyone who has to shave twice a day and eat cottage cheese to stay thin must have a lot of will power. Under the same conditions, I'm afraid I'd end up as a fat man with a long beard.

A political expert says it is difficult to unseat the party in power, because more than 33 million Americans distrust regular government checks.

I don't think this holds true under present administration. The people are getting checks are envious, and those deceiving them think they should be large.

Busy Fingers Sewing Club met November 7

The Busy Finger Sewing Club met at the home of Mrs. W. E. Childs, November 7, at 2:00 p.m. The president, Mrs. Clayton Stokes, called the meeting to order. The minutes were read and the new members were taken care of. Plans for a Thanksgiving dinner were made to be held at the Wig Wam Club at 7:00 p.m., November 21. All members are urged to come and bring a gift with them. Also a Christmas party, December 12, in the home of Mrs. Clayton Stokes was planned.

Some of the members knitted alpha others crocheted sweaters, and others sewed. Mrs. Ludi Cooper demonstrated how to make a pillow with a five inch square of material.

The hostess served refreshments consisting of pie, cake, spiced tea, and coffee. They were served to Mesdames Roy A. Sup, H. B. Bedwell, C. W. Howard, A. Lindsay, Clayton Stokes, and C. C. Boham. All enjoyed the evening and refreshments.

New Concept in Sprinkler Irrigation The Farmhand Walking Water System!

- New * Kink-proof tower to tower safety system.
- New * Gaskets eliminated by continuous one-piece sprinkler line.
- New * Skids give you better traction, better stability, more floatation.
- New * One oil hydraulic cylinder controls movement. All your irrigation water is evenly distributed. No excess water around the tower.
- New * Patented, positive in-line control. System won't buckle, tangle or go down.
- New * You control both rate of travel AND water flows according to your needs.
- New * Tall towers put the sprinkler line above crops.
- New * Annual lubrication cuts maintenance time to a minimum.

I started ditch irrigation in 1948. I went from ditch, to canvas pipe, to hand move sprinkler line then to wheel move. The Dowd-Farmhand is by far SUPERIOR to any system I have used. I like the single hydraulic oil cylinder located at the pivot point, and the self-alignment feature. The Dowd-Farmhand has been the most trouble-free system I have ever operated.

The Dowd-Farmhand saves roughly 30 hours of labor per week over other type systems I now have in operation.

Jack Sheridan

Lubbock editor donates books

According to Mrs. H. B. Spotts, librarian, a gift of 76 books were recently given to the library here from the private collection of Jack Sheridan, Lubbock Avallanche-Journal fine arts editor.

In presenting these books Sheridan said: "It is my sincere hope that the books selected from my collection for the shelves of the Morton Public Library will not only serve to provide reading for entertainment, pleasure and reference for the patrons of the library but that they will also serve to acknowledge the growth and advancement of the library with the opening of the new and larger quarters.

"Books are quite comparable to people. I think they are gregarious and they must be circulated, read and in use to sustain life. A book captive on the shelves of a private collector gathers dust and its importance fades into a sterile nothingness. Books that are waiting and available for a reader contain the excitement and the promise that, as an author, I know the writer intended. I hope these books will serve the Morton readers as they have served me."
