County livestock show to get underway today

The biggest Cochran County stock show in recent history will get underway at the county show barn today with all the animals to be in place by 6:30 p.m.

The largest show was assured when the entry list reached 217 animals in all divisions by the entry deadline.

A total of 27 steers have been entered in this year's show, making that the most ever entered in this event.

There are 70 lambs entered in the sheep division and 120 entries in the swine division.

Officials and judges were named for the show last week by the Cochran County Livestock Improvement Association.

They include: General superintendent of the show, Bobby Neal of Whiteface.

Judging swine and steers, Bobby Lemons, Mitchell county agent from Colorado City.

Judging the sheep division will be T. J. Niell of Merkel.

Operating the scales will be Vic Jackson, Star Route, Morton and Larry Beseda, also of Morton.

Auctioneer will be Hank Mathews of Levelland.

Weighing-in for the show will begin at 10 a.m. today and will be completed by 6:30 p.m.

The order of judging will begin at 9 a.m. Friday with the showing in the swine division. It is expected to be completed by approximately 1 p.m.

Lamb judging will follow at 1:30 p.m. and should be completed in one hour.

Steer judging will begin immediately following the sheep event and is expected to take approximately one hour.

Saturday the floor prices for the packer buyer auction will be set at 12:30 p.m. and the auction itself will get underway at 12:45.

The first two animals, or the top 25 percent of each class, whichever is the greater, will sell at the public auction in the order of their placing. The remainder will sell at the packer buyer auction, if so desired, by their exhibitor. The champion and reserve champion in each division must sell in the auction.

A total of $698 in premiums will be distributed through all divisions of the show.

Steer division prizes will total $195 with the grand champion exhibitor receiving $50 and the reserve champion $35.

The swine division total will be $273.50, with the grand champion receiving $25 and the reserve champion $20.

The sheep division prizes will total $170, with no grand champion or reserve champion money awarded.

There will be three showmanship and three herdsman awards of $10 in each of the three divisions.

The showmanship awards will be decided on the manner in which the individual animals are presented; the dress and manner of the exhibitor and the manner in which the animal is trained and fitted for showing.

The herdsman awards on the kind and condition of the animal's bedding; a clean and damp isle to keep down the dust; appearance of the animal and exhibitor and the conduct and discipline of the exhibitors.

Though this is a Cochran county show, there will be animals and exhibitors from a short distance out of the county. The show will include 4-H club members and FFA chapter members from Morton, Whiteface, Bledsoe, Three-Way and Bula.

The Cochran County 4-H Clubs will have concession stands at the show where both food and soft drinks may be obtained.

Young Farmers Association members from Whiteface will again aid in the loading and unloading of animals as they have done in the past.

Lubbock company wins airport paving contract

H. E. Squires Construction Company of Lubbock won the contract for paving improvements at Morton airport as bids were opened at a special commissioners court session last week.

Squires won the contract on the low bid of $13,799.43. It was substantially below the 15,887 yards of paving at $1.35 per yard bid by the Falco Trucking Company of Andrews and the $14,250 bid by Williams and Peters Construction Company of Lubbock.

The improvements consist of asphalt paving for the north-south runway to be 40 feet wide and 2,550 feet in length. Also included are two 30 feet wide by 900 feet long taxiways at either end of the runway, connecting it with the ramp, and a warm-up pad measuring 75 feet long by 100 feet wide.

Acceptance of the low bid was by unanimous vote of the county commissioners.

Morton's Willis makes All-South Plains team

Morton High School has placed one member on the AA All-South Plains basketball team.

Byron Willis, a senior, was notified of the honor a short week after he wound up his high school cage career here.

Of the ten men picked on the all-star squad, Willis was high point man for the year with 641 points.

Willis, who had high games of 41 (against Plains) and 39 (against Tahoka) this year, finished with 243 field goals on 532 attempts and 155 of 199 free shots for 641 points. The 6-1, 170-pounder also grabbed 293 rebounds for a 21-8 squad and finished with 2,160 career points.

Asked what his college plans are, Willis replied that he definitely plans to attend but hasn't settled on any particular school as yet.

"I sure hope it is one where I can play basketball, though, and preferably on a scholarship," he reiterates.

Area schools slate elections

Three area school districts have joined the Morton Independent School District in scheduling election for the board of trustees on April 5.

School boards of Whiteface, Bledsoe and Three-Way will each elect two trustees to fill expiring terms.

Trustees whose terms are expiring at Whiteface are S. J. Bills and W. D. Ashmore. Those whose terms are expiring at Bledsoe are Rex Griffiths and C. E. Buchanan.

Texas Public Schools . . .

TEXAS PUBLIC SCHOOLS and Respect for Law and Order Week will be observed during the week of March 3-7 in the state of Texas. Morton and other surrounding schools will conduct their annual open house and other activities during that week. Here Wayne Thompson hands Clara Richards, Tribune office manager, a poster to be displayed in the window as a reminder of Public Schools Week.

City council approves 5% pay raise to all employees

A five percent cost of living increase in pay for all regular salaried city employees was the main result of the city council meeting Monday night.

In addition to the five percent raise, seven employees will receive an additional $10 per month raise to bring their salaries into line with the over-all pay structure.

City Secretary Elra Oden was the one exception to the standard raise given. His salary was upped $55 per month from $545 to an even $600 by unanimous vote of the council.

Oden, who is a six-year veteran in the responsible city secretary's position began his duties with a salary of $535 per month and has received only one $10 raise since taking the position.

The city now employs 23 persons who will share in the salary increases which will become effective April 1.

In other business, the council heard a report by the sanitation department recommending the acquisition of a bulldozer for more efficient handling of trash at the city dump. The dump is reported becoming over loaded and a bulldozer is needed to manage the large accumulation.

It was decided by the council to retain the present trash collection truck in service for the remainder of this year and to replace it next year. The report indicated that it is nearing the point of uneconomical repair.

Maurice Lewallen, head of the city gas department, reported that many complaints are being received by gas patrons who consider their gas charges inaccurate. He explained the reason why at least a large number of them are not as accurate as they should be on occasion.

Class B Coach of Year awarded to Dickerson

Whiteface High School basketball coach Max Dickerson has been named All-South Plains Coach of the Year for Class B schools.

Dickerson rebuilt a team that finished the 1967-68 season with a 9-12 record and built into a district champion.

His team finished the regular season this year with a record of 21-6 that took it to the bi-district playoff against Amherst Monday. Unfortunately, they dropped the tilt to Amherst by a score of 63-75.

In earning the coach of the year honor, Dickerson coached one of his players into a birth on the Class B All-South Plains team. He is Joe Tienda, a five foot 10 inch 145 pound senior who lives in Whiteface.

Tienda scored 431 points and copped 324 rebounds in compiling his all-star record.

A veteran of 11 years coaching on the High Plains, Hickerson is in his third year at Whiteface and coached at Cooper and Whitharral in prior years. He has five years experience as a head basketball coach.

20 days before the election and continue through the fourth day before the election. This makes the deadline for absentee voting Tuesday, April 1.

Absentee ballots may also be obtained at the various school superintendents' offices.

At press time, none of the incumbent members above had made it known to the Tribune whether or not he will be a candidate to succeed himself.

Under meat on the hoof . . .

YOU COULDN'T BLAME Jenna and Barry Key, of the Morton 4-H club, if they have mixed emotions about what the stock show will bring to their favorite calves in the judging Friday. If they finish high, it is certain goodbye to their pets as they must be sold at auction. Nevertheless, they were determined to do their very best to win a big prize as they readied their animals Monday for the annual show. This is the first show for the youngsters who are the son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Danny Key of Morton. Buster is the name of eighth-grader Barry's Hereford and fifth-grader Jenna calls her Angus Albert.

Water Association talks on High Plains problems

A discussion of water problems on the High Plains and what is being done about them was held in the Morton Chamber of Commerce conference room Monday night.

The group then discussed the annual meeting of Water Inc. held Feb. 18 in Amarillo, and which some of those present had attended. A review was made of the information presented at the meeting with all who wished to presenting their views.

Bud Thomas, vice-chairman of the CCIWA, presided at the conclave, in the absence of Buddy Greener, chairman, who could not attend.

Other CCIWA board members and guests present were Ike Williams, Pegues Houston, Ray Griffith, Omar Sims and Van Greene.

The next meeting of the group will be called by the president. At that time a set of by-laws and plans and objectives of the organization will be discussed.

Patricia Butler has returned from childrens' hospital

Patricia Butler, ten month old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Butler, has recently returned from a Dallas hospital.

PATTI JAMES, who recently performed in Dallas, holds little Patricia Butler to pose for photographer as she visited the Children's Medical Center in Dallas. Patricia has undergone treatment at the hospital and has shown much improvement in the few months she has received the treatments.

Patricia is a victim of Cystic Fibrosis, a hereditary and lifetime disease, and periodically goes for treatment at the Children's Medical Center in Dallas. While the Butlers were in Dallas a performer, Patti James who had an engagement elsewhere in Dallas, stopped in to visit the hospital patients. Miss James's picture was taken with Patricia for use in a Dallas newspaper.

Cystic Fibrosis is a thickening of the mucous in the throat caused by the pancreas making it extremely difficult to breath. Mr. and Mrs. Butler are clinging to the statement Patricia's doctor made saying that if as much progress is made in the next ten years as there has been in the last ten years, there will be a cure for Cystic Fibrosis.

When Patricia was born she weighed a normal 7 lbs. 6 oz. At the age of six months, before her treatment, she weighed twelve pounds. Now, after the treatments have been started she weighs nineteen pounds at ten months old. She will return to the hospital in four months.

The child was lucky enough to become part of the Texas State Cripple Childrens Assn. This organization will and has paid all of the bills for her treatments and expenses to and from Dallas as well as the oxygen tent she must sleep under every night.

She has an older sister DeVon who is four and an older brother David who is two. Although these children do not have the disease it is considered that they may be possible carriers as the disease as it is hereditary but no tests have been developed as yet. They are presently under observation with a pediatrician in Lubbock. Grandparents of the children are Mr. and Mrs. Skinner Butler of Morton, and Mr. and Mrs. John Wines of Lubbock.

1936 Study Club listens to program "A Time for Art"

The 1936 Study Club met in the home of Mrs. Gage Knox on Wednesday, February 19.

The program for the day was "A Time for Art" and Mrs. L. F. Hargrove and Mrs. Hume Russell spoke on Southwest artists.

Mrs. Hargrove had several pictures representing one of the Southwest's newest artists Kenneth Wyatt, a former pastor of the First United Methodist Church in Morton.

Wyatt is a man of many talents, his ministry where he has served for 21 years; his public speaking over a wide area representing the National Knife and Fork Circuit; and his painting which sometimes fills as much as 90 hours of his time in a week.

Wyatt's most popular paintings are of the western era when there were no cameras and so few pictures depicting that time. His draftsmanship of horses has been praised as exceeding Russell or Remington.

Mrs. Russell reviewed the early life, family connections, and development of one of the Southwest's older and better known artists, Peter Hurd.

Hurd's early murals for Post Offices in Big Spring, Albuquerque, and Dallas led up to the painting of his famous historical murals in the museum at Texas Tech. Hurd was described as a mimic and a humorist, a good host, a good neighbor and courteous to all who visit him at his home in San Patricio, N. M. There he enjoys music, dancing, and polo along with his painting.

Kenneth Wyatt was quoted as once asking Peter Hurd for criticism of his work to have Hurd reply, "I have no criticism — just advice to give you — to paint and paint." Wyatt remarked that he did not know for sure if this was good or bad!

Members enjoying the program were Mesdames: Cy Fields, B. H. Tucker, D. E. Benham, Neal Rose, Glen Thompson, James St. Clair, John Crowder, W. W. Smith, Lessye Silver, Lloyd Miller, M. C. Ledbetter, and one guest, Mrs. Mike Barrett.

The March 5 meeting of the 1936 Study Club will be in the home of Mrs. Hume Russell instead of Mrs. H. B. King who is out of town.

First animal health conference scheduled in San Antonio Friday

Livestockmen of the southwest converge on San Antonio Friday, for the First Annual Southwestern Animal Health Conference. The Conference, a two-day affair, is the first of its kind in Texas and features fifty speakers from seven states.

According to Dr. A. I. Flowers, veterinarian of Bryan, Texas, and president of the Conference, authorities in the various areas of large animal medicine will present the latest health information to producers to help solve some of the many problems of economic production of livestock.

More than two hundred livestockmen have already registered, Dr. Flowers said, and several hundred more are expected. The facilities of the new San Antonio Convention Center on the grounds of HemisFair are being utilized.

Live animals will be used on several topics and livestockmen may choose from five sectional meetings to allow them to hear speakers on the livestock of particular interest to them.

The Animal Health Conference is sponsored by the Texas Veterinary Medical Association and the College of Veterinary Medicine at Texas A&M University.

Avenue of Opportunity will be dedicated

The Area Federation of Women's Clubs invites you to the dedication of the Avenue of Opportunity to be held at 10 a.m. Saturday, March 8, at Girlstown, U.S.A.

All local clubwomen are invited to attend. Reservations should be made to your local club president by February 28.

Keep More of Your Marbles In the Home Game

After all ... here's where you get to take your turn at shooting

Our big-city neighbors offer invitations to us every day to put our marbles in their bigger and fancier rings ... so they can take out more for themselves.

But the game that OUR winnings have to come out of ... is the HOME game. And ... the more of our marbles we put into THIS game, the more WE get a chance to take out.

Maybe you've noticed the city folks bragging about how much trade volume they take away from the small towns like ours in their "trade area" ... getting our marbles into their pockets for keeps.

Trading at home ... and making it more attractive for our neighbors to trade here ... is the direct and positive route to better jobs, better property values ... better schools, better living ... a better community for US to live in.

Karen Rhyne selected for Presidential Classroom trip

Karen Rhyne, 18 year old Monterey School senior and granddaughter of Mrs. J. H. Rhyne of Morton, is one of 350 students who has been chosen to participate as a member of the Presidential Classroom.

Miss Rhyne and the other students are presently in Washington, D. C. and will return Friday, February 28.

The Presidential Classroom is a new educational project planned to teach government operation to select high school seniors for a seven day period. Five of these classes will be conducted in 1969 to involve some 1,750 students.

The students were chosen by their principals for noteworthy academic and personal school records.

While in Washington, the students have been dining and attended daily classes at the Washington Hilton Hotel.

The course has included academic instruction in the three branches of government, executive, legislative, and judicial. The trips have offered the opportunity to meet and talk with congressmen and senators as well as many other officials in Washington. This was not designed as a tour of Washington but the students had one afternoon this week to visit national landmarks such as Mount Vernon, Arlington National Cemetery, and other historical sites.

The week of study will be ended with a graduation banquet, with a yearbook diploma awarded each student.

Mrs. Owen Egger is host to LeFleur Garden Club

"Flower Arranging" was the subject for study in the February 13 meeting of the Le Fleur Garden Club hosted by Mrs. Owen Egger.

Mrs. Roy Hill presided in the absence of the president. The project Committee reported that five more Mountbatten Junipers had been planted and a Smoke Tree had been set out in Observance of Arbor Day. Some of the members had worked at watering and hoeing on the Museum Grounds. Another work day will be scheduled soon for planting shrubs.

For the program, Mrs. Don Samford discussed containers, bases and mechanics used in arrangements. She constructed a triangular mass arrangement of glycerined pecan and magnolia leaves, mullein seed stalks, pine cones and fluffy dandelion heads used as blossoms. All plant materials were in natural shades of browns. The completed arrangement was placed on a brown wooden base.

Mrs. L. Z. Scoggins sent for display and discussion, a massed line arrangement of pheasant feathers and feather flowers. The container was of bottle green glass which repeated the greens of the feathers. The design was a Hogarth Curve.

Mrs. Roy Hill presented a vertical line arrangement of brown Magnolia leaves and brilliant, orange, wool flowers in a gold toilet container.

Each of the three arrangements was discussed according to principles of design-balance, contrast, dominance, proportion, rhythm and scale.

The Valentine arrangement by the hostess was also discussed.

Members present were Mesdames; Olin Darland, W. A. Woods, E. G. Gardner, Roy Hill, Don Samford and the hostess.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. L. Z. Scoggins for an Arbor Day program and an arrangement workshop. Each member is reminded to bring all materials she will need for making an arrangement.

GOOD FRUITS

"The wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be entreated, full of mercy and GOOD FRUITS."

There are two forces at work in this world, evil and good. We have the freedom to choose between these two things.

"O taste and see that the Lord is good:

blessed is the man that trusteth in him."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Morton Indian basketball statistics given by Whillock

Morton senior Byron Willis captured six of the six statistical categories for the 1968-69 Morton High School basketball season, according to statistics released this week by Coach Ted Whillock.

The Morton Indians, 21-10 for the year, finished up the 1968 season last week with a thrilling victory over Idalou, and took sole possession of second place in the district play. The district champs, Over City, fell to Dimmitt, 83-73, Tuesday night in bi-district action.

Indian statistics reveal a good balance of statistical data among five of Morton's six players, but Willis, a lanky 6-3 four-letterman topped the four categories daily. Willis led the Indians in total points, scoring 643 in 30 games for 21.4 points-per-game average. He also was top rebounder with 293; he led all players in field goal percentage. Willis hit 199 of 558 field goal attempts for a 46 percent average.

Senior guard Wayne Thompson led the Indians in total games played. Thompson played all 31 games; no other Indian did.

Stan Coffman, a 6-3 sophomore, captured the free throw percentage category, hitting 49 of 60 attempts for a good 82 percent average.

Significantly, three of the top six Indian statistical leaders are sophomores, and the future looks bright for Morton basketball.

M. C. Collins, a 6-3 sophomore, hit 212 points for the season and was second rebounding with 212. Collins' 41 percent field goal average matched Thompson's 41 percent.

Sophomores Stan Coffman and Terry Harvey scored 237 and 204 points respectively.

Statistical averages reveal that the top Indians averaged 40 per cent from the field in shooting for the season, and the good average accounts for much of this year's success. Four of the top six players over the 40 per cent mark; Willis, Thompson, M. C. Collins, and Bob Hawkins. The Indians averaged 66 per cent on free throw tosses.

This season's schedule was as difficult as one would ever want. Morton faced 11 opponents six times, and dropped four of those games, but the games were close and the larger schools were top teams in their own class. For example, Lamesa and Levelland both were in the playoffs for their district championship. The Indians fared better the second half of this year's season, winning 12 of 16 games. Morton was 9-6 through the first 15 games.

Besides retaining his three starting positions for next year, Coach Whillock will be welcoming returning squadmen

Jerry Steed, Keith Embry, and George Pritchett. Top prospects from the B team will include Dennis Clayton, Gerald Baker, Mike Bryan, Eddie Lewis, and Elton Patton.

Prospects look very good for a successful season next year.

by PATSY

Something new! This week while I was busy writing my research paper for chemistry, my mom surprised me by writing my column for me. So following is this week's "Teen Scene by Patsy's Mom."

"Hello there! How about Patsy's Mom writing the "Teen Scene" this week, huh? To begin with, maybe I can see it from a different point of view.

"Yeah! It has really been rush week for everyone, what with the National Honor Society, the last of the basketball games, and volleyball, and plays.

"The last basketball game was played last Tuesday night at Idalou. I am really not very sports-minded, but it was a very exciting game! They even got me to hollering! (The Indians won in an overtime defeating Idalou for the second place position in district standings). I have watched some of the boys grow up, and it's hard to believe that they are old enough to finish school . . .

. . . and of course, the cheerleaders. There again I haven't been very enthused, but you will have to admit that as far as cheerleading goes, they have worked hard and have done a good job! Of course I may be a little bit prejudiced since one of them happens to be my baby, and since I have watched some-I guess all of them all the way through school. You can't beat a relationship like that.

"The plays (presented by the Speech department), I understand, were good too. Well, you see, it was this way: I didn't even go to that. That really put me in the dog house for sure, so I guess I had better make a better effort than that next time. "Then there was the Hippy Party for the National Honor Society. Well, I couldn't very well miss that —you see, it was in our garage. But I will have to say this: from where I sat, it looked like everyone enjoyed it, and we can very well be proud of them all."

Well, That's my Mom! Do you think she'll put me out of my job? That's it for the "Teen Scene" this week. Thanks Mom, I appreciate you helping me out!

down on the breakage. The meters are usually located in the alleys and easily accessible to children playing there.

A reorganization plan placing the cemetery and parks departments under the street department and the dog catcher function under the police department was approved by the council. The reorganization plan was submitted by Mayor Jack Russell.

A personnel report was read to the council by Oden which came in for lengthy discussion. Personnel matters approved included continuing to consider pay raises for city employees two times per year as in the past. They would come up for consideration during the months of March and October.

Steps in the pay scale for city policemen was abolished. The payment of overtime to employees, the granting of 90 days sick leave, designation of six official holidays per year, the three months probation period for new employees and the requirement for a physical examination for employment were all approved by the council.

The municipal budget was submitted by the city secretary to the council for its consideration. It was decided to take no action on it at this meeting to allow time for the council members to study the proposals. It will be considered for adoption at the next meeting on March 10.

L'Allegro Study Club meets in L. J. Wallace home

The L'Allegro Study Club met in the home of Mrs. L. J. Wallace for a regular meeting February 20. The meeting was opened with a prayer by Mrs. Wallace.

Program for the evening was "Inspiration of Our Flag." Mrs. Van Greene showed a very interesting film presentation on "The Story of Old Glory." The different flags which had flown over the United States were shown as well as the different wars that were fought under various flags. She also gave each member a book on American Flag Facts. She pointed out that when repeating the Pledge of Allegiance, it seemed to be a habit with the American people to pause after the word "Nation" on the line that reads "one Nation under God" and this is incorrect. It should be said "One Nation under God" with no pause in between.

During the business meeting, a letter was read from Mrs. Lane Decker, President of the Caprock District reminding the Club members that Saturday March 8 had been set as Tree Planting day at Girlstown and club members had been invited to have lunch at Girlstown that day while attending the ceremony.

The Bridge Marathon Committee reported that 40 couples have entered the Marathon.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses to the following members, Mesdames Van Greene, Bud Thomas, Harold Drennan, J. C. Reynolds, Al Mullinax, Tom Rowden, James McClure, Truman Doss and Eddie Irwin.
