

MHS grads to receive diplomas Friday night

Twelve years of hard work in the long climb up the educational ladder will come to a climax for 56 Morton High School seniors here Friday night. Commencement exercises for the class will be conducted in the auditorium of the County Activities Building beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Dr. Berlie J. Fallon, chairman of the department of education at Texas Tech, will deliver the main commencement address.

Delivering the Salutatory address will be Janella Nebhut, second ranking student in the class. Following her speech, Wayne Thompson, highest ranking senior, will give the Valdictory address.

Van Greene, president of the Morton Independent School District Board of Education, will present the diplomas to the graduates.

The commencement program will begin with a concert by the Morton High School band, scheduled to begin at 6:30 p.m. The seniors will march into the auditorium to the music by the band. Their entry will be followed by the invocation, to be given by J. A. Wooley, minister of the Taylor Street Church of Christ.

Following the invocation, Bud Fountain will sing the school song. The benediction concluding the program will be given by Reverend Van Hoose, of the First Assembly of God Church.

Dr. Fallon is a native West Texan, having been reared in Big Spring, and has made an indelible mark in education.

There will be a meeting of the Band Parents for the Morton High School Band Thursday, May 22 at 8 p.m. in the Band Hall of the High School.

All parents of band members are urged to attend this most important meeting.

Whillock named head grid coach

Morton basketball coach Ted Whillock was given a rousing vote of confidence by the board of education Monday night as it voted to hire him as head football coach, head basketball coach and athletic director for the 1969-70 school year.

Whillock, who coached the Morton Indian basketball team to an impressive record last season, replaces as grid mentor, former head football coach Lane Tannehill, who resigned the post after one year at the helm.

The board also voted to add Lester Dupler to the staff of teachers in the capacity of assistant coach and science and math teacher.

Superintendent Bob Travis recommended to the board that Whillock be hired in the three-pronged capacity, based upon his past record as a classroom teacher and coach. He further based his recommendation on the school board's established policy of advancing persons within the system who have proven themselves worthy.

Whillock is a veteran of nine years in the Morton High School coaching ranks. He has served in the capacity of assistant football coach, head basketball coach and teaches social science studies at the high school level. His wife is also a junior high school teacher here.

Dupler is a native of Morton, a graduate of the local high school and received his degree from Texas Tech in 1968. He coached and taught at Whiteface Junior High school during the 1968-69 school year. His wife is a second grade teacher in the Morton school system.

Great day approaching . . .

THESE MORTON High School seniors were so happy this week with graduation day approaching that they just couldn't help but ham it up a bit when the Tribune photographer arrived for a little informal picture taking. Their great moment arrives at 7:30 p.m. Friday when their commencement exercises will be held in the Activities Building auditorium where they will say farewell to 12 years of work, worry — and maybe just a little happiness and good fellowship as well. The happy graduates are, from left, Sharon Irwin, Janella Nebhut, Danny Williams, Terry House, Wayne Thompson, Rheda Jane Brown and Vivian McDaniel.

Community action committee to seek merger with Hockley

The Cochran County Community Action Steering Committee voted Tuesday night to request incorporation with its counterpart organization in Hockley county.

The vote, which came at a regular meeting of the committee Tuesday, followed an explanation of the advantages of such a move given by Howard Maddera, area coordinator for the Office of Economic Opportunity at Lubbock.

The proposed merger would fulfill the federal government requirement for a 100 population area as an administrative unit and would greatly facilitate the work of the organization and put it on a more economical basis, Maddera told the group.

Mayor Jack Russell was elected chairman of the steering committee and instructed to make recommendations to incorporate with Hockley county at the next general meeting scheduled for June 10.

For the June meeting, each committee member has instructions to bring with him two additional persons, one of whom will consent to serve if elected to the permanent board of directors. The meeting will be held at the Morton school cafeteria beginning at 8:30 p.m., June 10.

The committee again discussed the need for a day care center and adult education classes. Maddera advised the group that it must first organize such activities and satisfy planning requirements before applying for federal funding for the center. Once these requirements are met, the center will be free to work on whatever projects the board feels the community residents need or desire, Maddera concluded.

Morton Chamber signs thirteen new members

The Morton Area Chamber of Commerce has enrolled 13 new members in its current membership drive, it was announced at the regular board of directors meeting Tuesday morning.

The membership drive, which was originally scheduled to last only until May, has been extended indefinitely due to the unusually busy nature of the planting season. No date has been set for termination of the drive, Ray Griffith, Chamber president stated.

The 13 new memberships have added a total of $670 to the coffers of the Chamber and more is expected as new members are signed, Leon Kessler, manager, said. The new members, seven are area farmers and the other six are local businessmen.

In other business, the board heard an auditor's report for 1968 from Fred Payne and a progress report and outline of future plans for 1969 from Kessler.

★ Bible School

The Assembly of God Church will conduct their Vacation Bible School from May 26 until May 30. Classes will begin at 9 a.m. and will end at 11 a.m.

This is for all children between the ages of five and thirteen and everyone is invited to attend.

Sox, Colts ride high as Little League resumes after rains

Little League baseball resumed play Monday after an almost solid week of rain-outs, with four games being played through Tuesday.

The Sox continued their winning ways in the first game Monday defeating the Giants by a score of 8-5. The Sox scored three in the first, two in the second and one each in the third, fourth and fifth to wrap up the win. The Giants started slow with nothing in the first three innings but put on a spurt in the late innings which just fell short. They scored one in the fourth, and two in the fifth and sixth but just couldn't make up the deficit.

The box score showed the Sox with seven hits, eight runs and four left on base with five bases on balls and the Giants with five hits, five runs and 11 left on base with two bases on balls.

The Sox battery consisted of James Snitker, pitcher and Kevin Franks, catcher, both going the route and the Giants had Lonnie Harrison pitching and Rex Coffman catching, also all the way.

In the Monday nightcap the Pirates were snowed under by the hard running Colts to the tune of 12-0. The Colts got off to a slow start, scoring one in the first and none in the second, but from there on it was all their way. They tallied seven in the third, three in the Distribution of county sketchbook underway

The "Cochran County Sketchbook" has been completed and is now ready for distribution, the Cochran County Historical Survey Committee has announced.

The sketchbook is a portfolio of drawings depicting historical sites, persons and events in Cochran county and is entirely the work of local artists.

The sketches are pen-and-ink drawings done by local artists and reproduced by offset printing in black ink on white snow-crest paper. They are 9 inches by 12 inches in size, and are suitable for matting or framing. They should be suitable decorations for businesses, schools, and homes.

Some of the drawings were done by young artists, such as Edward York of Morton High School, and others by more accomplished artists such as Frances Stegall of Goodland and Evelyn Seagler of Morton. A total of ten artists' work in twenty drawings are included in the set, along with two pages of textual material explaining the drawings and identifying the artists.

The "Sketchbook" was published by the Cochran County Historical Survey Committee, and sets of the drawings may be obtained from any member of the Committee. The Sketchbook may be obtained by mail from Mrs. Hume Russell, Treasurer; 808 E. Lincoln, Morton. The publication is limited to two hundred copies and many expect it to become a collector's item.

Mrs. Gary Willingham

Mrs. Gary Willingham named outstanding junior clubwoman

Mrs. Gary Willingham of Morton's Emilee Smith Jr. Study Club has been named the outstanding Junior Club Woman of Texas. The announcement was made at the Texas Federation of Women's Club Convention in Houston.

After being named Outstanding Junior Club Woman in the Caprock District at the District Convention in Plainview April 1, Mrs. Willingham competed with all other district winners from the state of Texas for the honor. The announcement was made at the Junior Luncheon where she was presented a plaque.

In winning this award, Mrs. Willingham was judged on a completed community project, federation activities, church and family life. For her community project, she was Crusade Chairman for the Cancer Crusade for the 1967-68 year.

Other civic activities include serving as Vice President of the Cancer Crusade, working in Headstart, member of Frontier Cotton Council and Ex-Student's association as well as helping with the Salvation Army, Heart and March of Dimes Fund drives.

She is also a Sunday School teacher, communion stewardess, memorial book chairman and a member of Women's Society of Christian Service of the First United Methodist Church.

Mrs. Willingham's husband Gary is a cotton farmer. They have two children, Annette, age 8 and Todd age 6.

Other Emilee Smith Junior Study Club members attending the convention were Mrs. James Walker, Mrs. Earl Polvado and Mrs. Sherrill Griffith.

Mrs. LeRoy Johnson, First Vice President of the Caprock District and member of the Town and Country Study Club presented awards to the Junior Clubs for participation in project "Operation Healthy Baby" at the convention.

What ye sow . . .

SO SHALL YE REAP, at least that is what the farmers on the High Plains are hoping as planting time comes once again and the farms and farmers take on new life and spirit. The six-row rig above is symbolic of what is taking place almost anywhere one chooses to look as the soil temperatures have steadily risen and drenching rains have made planting conditions near ideal in the area. The photo was made on the land of J. P. Powell who farms 1,400 acres of cotton and feed grain near the Maple community. Cotton is being planted here.

fourth and one in the sixth to put the game out of reach of the struggling Pirates.

Troy Patton started on the mound for the Colts and was relieved in the third by Bobby Patton who was in turn relieved in the fifth by Randy Hall. Lanny Tyson went the distance behind the Plate. The Pirate battery consisted of James Cornish pitching and Doug Barker catching.

In a thriller Tuesday night, the Cubs beat the Cardinals 12-11. The Cubs scored 3 in the first and 5 in the second while the Cards scored 1 in the second to make it 8-1 after 2 innings. The score remained 8-1 until the 4th inning when the Cards scored 3 runs and it was 8-4 Cubs after 4 innings. The Cards scored 4 in the fifth to tie it up going into the 6th. This was the clutch inning as the Cards scored 3 runs in their half only to see the Cubs come back and score 4 runs as Tino Sabala stole home to win the game.

Tony Soliz got 3 hits, one on inside the park homer, to lead the hitting for the Cubs. John Davis and Danny Silhan both got three hits to lead the Cards.

Tony Soliz pitched all 6 innings for the Cubs and Tommy McClintock caught. Soliz struck out 10 Cards.

Lee pitched 4 innings, Davis 1, and Rozelle 1 for the Cards as Danny Silhan caught.

Tuesday night's windup game once again saw the hapless Pirates taking it on the chin from a fired-up Sox club. The final score read Sox 14, Pirates 1.

The Pirates were in there pitching all the way but just couldn't match the power of the smooth-running Sox. Their coach, Wayne Gilliam, suffered a badly broken arm and was not present to direct his team which may have had some effect on the players' performances.

The Sox tallied five in the first and third and four in the sixth to account for all their scoring. The Pirates lone tally came in the second inning.

The battery for the Sox was Michael Williams pitching and Kevin Franks catching for the entire game. Rusty Lamar pitched the whole game for the Pirates with James Cornish catching.

By Libby Mudgett

THE STATE of our nation is much, much better than it was several years ago and a whole lot better than I had feared. I never go by the President's state of the union message, but by which records and recording artists (?) get the Grammy awards. I am happy to report that of this year's eleven winning records, I could understand the words of six, make out the melody of seven, and two were actually kind of pretty.

THE FIRST AWARD went to a group called The Temptations wailing "Cloud Nine" and I was, about ready to write our whole country off as already declined and felled. They are supposed to have made the best contribution in rhythm and blues, but surely in our whole wide nation somebody somewhere can do better than that! I swallowed hard and tried to remember what my grandmother used to say about Harry James and his trumpet. Jeannie C. Riley got best country female recorder for her "Harper Valley PTA" and I must say it was a relief to understand every word, listen to a story, and follow a simple melody, even though her voice twangs like a dime store banjo.

BEST NEW ARTIST and best contemporary male performer awards went to Jose Feliciano. I've heard that young man sing very well and play his guitar expertly, but not for what he got the awards.

He banged and squealed for someone to "Light My Fire" and that was very sad to think he had to do that to get awards. For the first time I realized how my grandmother felt when she heard "The Dippy Doodle."

GLENN CAMPBELL got best country singer for his "Wichita Lineman." I was amazed to catch myself thinking how clean cut he is, when only a few years ago I would have considered his hair too long and his sideburns ridiculous. Maybe everything IS relative.

BEST POP FEMALE vocalist was Dionne Warwick singing "Do You Know The Way To San Jose."

Again I could hum the tune and understand the words, but they didn't say anything. However, I remembered my grandmother asking me how could moonlight keep from becoming everybody and what did that song mean by saying it goes with the girl's hair?

NEXT CAME The Beatles. The announcer said they were going to sing "Hey, Jude," so I guess they did but I'll never know how anyone could prove it. Seeing them made me understand why I now consider Glenn Campbell clean cut.

Mason Williams played "Classical Gas" on his guitar and got best instrumental arrangement. While doing so, he completely restored my faith in the Now Generation's ability to know MUSIC when they hear it. It was beautiful.

A YOUNG LAD named Bobby Goldsboro sang "Honey" very clearly and it had a pretty melody but it was kind of gruesome. As my grandmother said about "Gloomy Sunday," it ought to be banned. She never believed me when I told her later that it was, because a man shot himself after listening to it over and over in Houston.

SIMON AND GARFUNKEL (doesn't that sound like the name of a dry goods store to you?) warbled "Mrs. Robinson" and for their efforts got best contemporary pop vocal group.

This tore me up, but not near as much as when later that same record got the coveted award of Record of the Year. If you don't know who Mrs. Robinson is, ask a youngster, but do it in the dark or you'll blush.

BEST COUNTRY RECORDING went to D. C. Smith's "Little Green Apples." That song should have gotten Record of the Year with Roger Miller singing it. Miller makes Smith sound amateurish. Good song, though. Just about a man who loves his wife and loves him back.

Nobody two times nobody, nobody hates nobody, nobody kills nobody, nobody even makes nobody sad. Which is probably why it didn't get Record of the Year.

BEST SCORE by an original cast went to the cast of Hair (oh, wash out my mouth and disinfect my typewriter) for screaming, hollering, and yowling "Aquarius" and "Let The Sunshine In."

I should have suspected what it was going to be like when Tommy Smothers introduced 'em, saying they had the guts to do it as they felt it.

I really never knew what he meant, but I don't think I want to.

I just wonder what my grandmother would have said.

I THINK FOR ONCE she would have been speechless.

STATE Capital NEWS By VERN SANFORD

AUSTIN, Tex. — Senate filibusters against new college bills may take up much of the remaining days of the legislative session due to close June 2.

A proposal to create a medical school at Texas Technological College in Lubbock brought prolonged oratory from Sen. Joe Christie of El Paso who wanted the school in his home town.

Sen. Don Kennard of Fort Worth warmed up on the Tech bill for an extended effort to delay approval of a University of Texas at Dallas on property of the Southwest Center for Advanced Studies.

Senate State Affairs Committee voted out other bills to set up upper level (junior-senior-graduate studies) colleges at Midland-Odessa, Corpus Christi and Texarkana and an additional University of Texas dental branch.

STATE AFFAIRS Chairman Sen. William T. Moore of Bryan emphasized he is opposed to all of the bills and intends to make his views known on the floor. Moore postponed action on any of the group over the weekend by leaving town with the bills locked in a vault — and unreported to the senate floor.

Meanwhile, a House-Senate conference committee coached by Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes and House Speaker Gus Mutscher plowed slowly through the job of writing a one-year budget bill that will necessitate no new taxes.

Gov. Preston Smith spelled out his opposition to such a short-term approach to state governmental budgeting as more costly in the long run as evidenced by recent experiences with the one-year plan and emphasized he interprets the Texas constitution to require a biennial appropriations pattern.

BY TRIMMING proposed spending and switching some unused surplus in several state funds, a conference committee headed by Sen. A. M. Aikin, Jr., of Paris and Rep. W. S. Healy of Paducah believes it can provide the teacher pay raise requested by the Texas State Teachers Association without new taxes.

Smith feels that the state's dollars simply cannot be stretched that far. Barnes thinks they can cover the basic needs of higher education, state hospitals and special schools and state agencies, and still leave $61.9 million for the first year of the teacher pay raise.

Smith said there was a movement afoot to kill the $15,000,000-a-year general fund allocation to farm-to-market roads. Barnes said the Senate conferees would not propose taking that program away.

Governor declined to say he will veto the one-year bill. "Several alternatives will be open to the governor," said Smith. "It would not be proper or possible for me to choose one at this time, because I do not know what the circumstances will be."

LEGISLATURE NEARS WINDUP — With adjournment deadline closing in, legislators are getting day and night workouts on literally hundreds of bills.

House finally completed action on a watered-down $1.25-an-hour minimum wage bill. Amendments sent it back to the Senate. House earlier approved creation of a dental school for San Antonio, new regulation of coin-operated amuse-higher service charges on large real estate loans, a new upper-level college at Laredo, strengthened rules for transporting migrant workers, elimination of the requirement that jurors be free-holders or house-holders and county civil service systems for major counties.

Senate, not so productive due to filibusters, passed three bills to remove legal obstacles to heart and other organ transplants, agreed to creation of a new medical school in Houston and another in an unnamed city, approved a broadened tuition-aid plan for needy students, and proposed submission of a constitutional amendment to abolish the welfare spending ceiling in 1970 (in event the August 5 vote fails).

BOTH HOUSES completed action on bills to expand the program of special education for exceptional children between the ages of 3 and 21, make universities out of Stephen F. Austin (Nacogdoches), Southwest Texas (San Marcos), Angelo State (San Angelo), and Sul Ross (Alpine) State Colleges, permit use of Spanish in teaching in the first six grades of public schools by repealing the prohibition against use of a foreign language in public classrooms, create a board to license private detectives, set legislative salaries at $6,800 a year (if the voters approve a constitutional amendment at the special election Aug. 5 to permit the increase from the present $4,800 a year), allow courts to issue driver licenses to persons who drive for a living but have lost their licenses for traffic law infractions (to be used on-the-job only and not for private driving), create the University of Texas Clinical Nursing School at San Antonio, make public agencies liable to persons injured by mistakes of public employees while driving motor vehicles or operating motor-driven equipment, and regulate practice of optometry.

OMNIBUS COURTS BILL — Rep. Renal Rosson, chairman of the House Judicial Districts Committee, says Sen. Murray Watson's bill which combines all requests for new courts and court reorganization will get to the floor of the House before adjournment. Says Rosson, "a subcommittee needs to work on the bill, but it will probably be out of committee next week."

Senator Watson's bill will reorganize the 71st, 124th, 33rd, 35th, 38th, Second 38th, 63rd, 119th, 49th and the 79th Judicial Districts and create the 229th, 236th, 232nd, 159th, 158th, 240th, 244th, 243rd, 242nd, 241st, 239th, 237th, 238th 149th, 188th, 230th, 228th, 227th, 226th, 225th, 194th, 181st and the 192nd Judicial Districts. It also creates or reorganizes the 168th District Court, the 237th District Court and the Court of Domestic Relations for Midland County.

HORSES RUN SLOWLY — Rep. Glenn Kothmann of San Antonio did not even come close in his effort to submit to the voters a proposal for local-option horse race betting.

And the funeral oration of the Kothmann resolution was preached by Rep. David Allred of Wichita Falls. Thirty-Three years ago his father, Gov. James V. Allred, kept calling the Legislature into special sessions until horse race betting was repealed. So this week's fight by Representative Allred was a rerun of history.

COURTS SPEAK — Finding no reversible error in the Court of Civil Appeals, State Supreme Court upheld the annexation by Pasadena of 576 acres on the Houston ship channel. Annexed farm land of Houston Endowment Inc. is surrounded by unannexed oil company holdings and the foundation contended unequal taxation would result.

High court stuck with its decision upholding forfeiture of 5,000 acres of sulphur leases by Cobra Oil and Gas Corporation in Culberson, Pecos and Reeves counties.

A Lubbock prosecutor argued for Supreme Court reversal of the decision that juveniles charged with offenses have the same right as adults to be proven guilty "beyond a reasonable doubt."

OIL ALLOWABLE JUMPED — June oil allowable was boosted by Texas Railroad Commission to 63.5 per cent of potential, highest since 1948 when an all-out effort was made to replenish war-depleted stocks.

Allotment tops periods when foreign imports were shut off due to international crises.

Estimated top allowable is 4,187,252, slightly more than the record 4,186,004 of August, 1967, when the Arab-Israeli war flared. But actual production next month probably will be less than that of August, 1967, when a 54 percent factor was in effect. Production figure for June is estimated at 3,258,184, compared with 3,314,000 during the Arab-Israeli crisis.

Maximum allowable for May, under 53.8 percent formula, is 3,710,928. Actual production will be about 3,089,660.

Commission Chairman Ben Ramsey said crude stocks are 6.3 million barrels less than a year ago.

LEASES BRING $3.5 MILLION — Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler reports bids of more than $3.5 million were received from mineral leases on far West Texas lands of University of Texas. Total brought the University fund to $528,049,139.

Steve Schmidly, full time student; full time director

A 19-year-old South Plains College sophomore is probably the state's youngest band director. He is Steve Schmidly, full time student and the director of three bands in Whiteface.

Schmidly attends college classes every morning and leaves in time to get to Whiteface at 1 p.m. for his first band class. He directs the high school, junior high school and the beginners, 6th grade, bands. He also crowds in some extra hours for night rehearsals. There are 61 in the high school band and a total of 140 in the entire band program.

The former Whiteface director left at mid-term and when the word reached Schmidly that the school was seeking a part-time director, he immediately applied and was accepted.

His presentation at the college Bandarama Sunday afternoon in the new SPC Texan Dome was evidence of the quality of his instruction. The Whiteface High School Band played three numbers and then joined the Levelland High School, Levelland Junior High and the college band for the final number, "America, the Beautiful."

Already chalking up honors for his bands, The Whiteface High School Band received the award for the outstanding concert band at the Hale Center Festival in March of this year. Approximately twenty bands participated in the contest.

"I am getting a lot of good experience for the profession which I plan to follow, and it is a great opportunity for me to be able to do this work and attend college too," Schmidly said.

He has been in band activities since the 5th grade and was named to the All-Region Band in senior high; 1st division on two Class I solos and one Class II solo; first division Class I ensemble. He was drum major at Levelland High School two years and has been drum major of the college band the past two years. He plays the French horn in the college band and is the band's student director.

A native of Levelland, Schmidly was graduated from Levelland High School in 1967 and was a member of the National Honor Society. At South Plains College he is a member of Phi Theta Kappa and is vice-president of Phi Zeta, music club.

A music major, Schmidly plans to transfer to Texas Tech this fall and continue with his band work at Whiteface.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Schmidly and has one brother, David, who is working on his Ph. D. at the University of Illinois.

A SYMBOL OF SAFETY

When the ship is in danger, we can depend on the life-boats to take us over the seas to safety. It is comforting to glance at the life-boat when the seas are rough.

Our Armed Services are a symbol of safety when our country is in trouble, when war threatens to raise its ugly head. In the past, when war has come, our servicemen have not hesitated to give their lives to protect and defend us.

There is a special Day each year when we remember and honor our servicemen who have died in the defense of our blessed country. Let us not forget, as individuals, to honor these dead and give thanks to God for those who protect us even now. Remember them as you attend church this week.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Balance of nature upset, people die

"In San Joaquin, Bolivia, a DDT malaria-control program aimed at mosquitoes had the side effect of killing off the numerous village cats.

In the absence of the cats, there occurred an invasion of wild, small mouse-like mammals.

This creature, unbeknownst to anyone, harbored the black typhus virus.

Before this was discovered and the former chain could be restored, more than 300 villagers had lost their lives in plague.

There is certainly a moral here for man who can no longer afford the singleminded innocence of his past when using dangerous chemicals." — Stewart Udall in Scientific Aspects of Pest Control, National Academy of Science-National Research Council, 1966. Campaign launched to combat screwworm menace in Texas Screwworms are on the prowl in Texas. Case numbers are already higher than last year and a statewide campaign has been launched to combat the current threat of a major outbreak by this livestock pest.

At an emergency meeting in San Antonio on April 30, livestock producers were told of the seriousness of the situation. An action program was outlined stressing greater vigilance and better herd management practices along with the release of sterile flies in an effort to reduce the impending threat of heavy screwworm re-infestation.

Screwworms socked-it-to-Texas last year when a record 9,268 cases were confirmed, marking the worst epidemic since the eradication program began in 1962. The severe outbreak claimed the life of a South Texas woman last fall.

The cattlemen have announced plans for re-activating County Screwworm Eradication Committees to "beef-up" educational programs and keep all livestock producers and sportsmen advised of the serious screwworm situation. Collection kits and vials for mailing larvae to the Mission Laboratory for identification will be available from the county committees as well as from county agents.

Dolph Briscoe, Jr., Uvalde rancher and president of the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation — industry group leading the battle against screwworms — told almost 100 key leaders that "no ranch is immune to the threat of screwworms this year. Texas has recorded more cases in a wider area this year than last, and case numbers in Mexico are much higher than last spring. Fertile fly migrations also are greater, and nearly ideal weather conditions exist for fly propagation."

Briscoe emphasized that prevention of cases is more important than ever. "for it costs about $800 to produce enough sterile flies to treat a single screwworm case."

Dr. S. C. Gartman and Dr. M. E. Meadows, Jr., U. S. Department of Agriculture veterinarians from the Mission Screwworm Eradication Center, also emphasized that the threat of a major screwworm outbreak this year is considerably greater than last year, due to reduction in sterile fly production during the winter.

"Conditions are right for a heavy screwworm re-infestation, since sterile fly treatment in the barrier area along the U. S. Mexico border has been lighter than usual with the limited number of available flies. Sixty-three cases have been confirmed in Texas this spring, compared to only 40 a year ago. Sterile fly treatment areas presently include the lower portion of the state as well as the Edwards Plateau region and along the Rio Grande to the Big Bend area. Fly drops also are underway in Arizona and New Mexico, where cases have been confirmed; and for preventive purposes in Mexico," Dr. Gartman said.

The renewed battle against screwworms calls for county committees to emphasize the need for regular inspection of all animals, treatment of wounds — man-made and otherwise — with a product recommended for that purpose; and spraying herds with a recommended product.

"When infested wounds are found, livestock owners are asked to collect from 6 to 10 representative worms from the wound and mail the sample to the Mission Laboratory for identification," Dr. Meadows reminded. Only cases that have been positively identified as screwworms can be treated because of the cost factor.

Trustees of the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation, meeting prior to the general session, re-affirmed the need and desire to move the screwworm eradication program southward into Mexico. Officials of the Foundation, including President Briscoe and Vice Presidents C. G. Scruggs of Dallas and John Hays of Yarnell, Arizona, have ratified a joint declaration to that effect with officials of the National Livestock Producers' Confederation of Mexico.

Foundation officials emphasized that in order to move into Mexico, the project must move through diplomatic channels and then be accomplished by the governments of the two nations involved. In preparation for a joint program between the U.S. and Mexico, SWAHRF trustees authorized the financing of an architect's plan for a plant to produce sterile flies in Mexico. The designs are to be worked out in cooperation with officials of Mexico.

Federal employment increases reported

Executive agencies of the federal government reported civilian employment in the month of February totaling 2,967,940. This was a net increase of 7,116 as compared with employment reported in the month of January, according to a statement by Rep. George H. Mahon (D-Tex.), Chairman, Joint Committee on Reduction of Federal Expenditures. The increase was largely in seasonal employment.

During the month of February fulltime permanent employment of executive agencies covered by the personnel limitations of the Revenue and Expenditure Control Act of 1968 decreased approximately 4,500, partially offset by increases of about 2,500 in employment exempt from the Act's limitations.

COST OF THE nation's high Social Security program to the employer has proven to be much less than was projected in 1935. First estimates said the employer's net cost would be 5 percent of the payroll by 1968. But, as the law stands now, the net cost is about 2.8 percent, says former Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare Wilber J. Cohen.

Hi! Well, it's been two years now since I started this column, so I guess it's high time I turned it over to someone new, isn't it? You know, this last couple of weeks has been full of turning things over to people, and I don't quite know what to do with myself.

School has been a really happy experience for me. A lot of us seniors have been together since the first grade, and have really formed some lasting friendships.

I feel like the class of '69 has pretty well left its mark. We were pretty much the same as all other classes in elementary and junior high, but our class began to have a unique personality our freshman year. That year, there was never a dull moment! As a whole, the class was a closely knit group. We'd all go to town almost every night, and our "boy-girl" parties were numerous. There was a slumber party most Friday nights for the girls, and camp-outs for the boys. At school there were good times to go along with our studying. We would have pep rallies in the hall at lunch, and Bobby Combs and Terry Anglin (two of the "big kids") were always there leading a group of kids in singing folk songs before the last bell rang. We won the class basketball tournament!

Our sophomore year was different. Several people moved away, and the death of Charles Hofman left a gap in the class that has never been replaced. The class wasn't very close; everyone pretty well went their separate ways. The year was rather uneventful; at least to me it was.

Then came our junior year. Things began to pick up, and friendships were rejuvenated. The year was full of money-making projects, hard work, and lots of fun. The first major task, the junior play, "If a Body Meet A Body," was worked on by almost everyone, and was a success. Then work started on the junior/senior banquet, "Tahitian Holiday." Numerous trips were made to Lubbock and other places in preparation for the banquet. It, too, was a success. We also sponsored a Senior/Faculty ballgame and bake sale and made a surprising profit on that.

And finally after waiting 11 years we became seniors, and that seems like only last week. I feel like this year has been a very good year, considering. We have had a lot of disappointments that I don't know how to explain, but we've made it through them and the world hasn't ended yet. We have had a lot of good times though. MHS had a speech department for the first time, and I think the kids who took that really enjoyed it.

Well, that's our class in a nutshell. Personally, I am really sad and scared about graduating, but I'll get used to the idea of not having an apron strung to hold on to sooner or later. I'd like to think that Morton High School just won't be able to make it without us, but I know better. I read something in a magazine last week by a fellow named Elbert Hubbard that really made me think: "Graveyards are full of people the world could not do without." That makes you feel kind of humble, doesn't it?

This column wasn't very newsy this week, but it's just my way of signing off. I have really enjoyed writing for the Tribune, and wouldn't give anything for the experience it has given me. It's been a ball! Bye!

Senator Tower discusses student unrest

By JOHN TOWER
UNITED STATES SENATOR

As you know, student unrest on the campuses of many of our nation's colleges and universities has reached major proportions.

Dissenting students have taken over buildings and administrative offices by physical force. Sometimes these students have engaged in violence in behalf of their demands. In at least one state, the governor has found the need to call out the National Guard to bolster the forces of law enforcement in dealing with student unrest.

The number of students involved on each campus has usually represented a very small part of overall enrollment. The number of colleges and universities which have experienced actual disturbances has been small in comparison with the large number of institutions of higher learning in our nation.

NEVERTHELESS, student unrest in our nation has reached crisis proportions.

It has drawn the attention of the Congress and the administration. A number of men known as leaders in civil rights work have been moved to criticize the methods of dissenting students.

Bayard Rustin, a long-time activist in the Negro civil rights movement, recently criticized students demanding so-called black studies courses for seeking the easy way out.

He called it "tragic that, instead of taking advantage of the opportunity for learning, they are reducing the situation to a series of courses that cannot really prepare them for the kind of life which they have to live when they get out of college."

President Nixon noted recently that student attempts to take over universities in Latin America in past years succeeded and that the result was that the Latin American educational system generally is "one of the most inferior in the world."

Mrs. Wayne Porter, outgoing President, was presented a Rose Bush with the Club's thanks for her outstanding work the past year.

Those present for the installation were: Mesdames, Bill Crone, Jerry Graves, Wayne Porter, Roy Hill, C. D. Hill, Fred Payne, Ray Griffith, Bill Sayers and guests, Mrs. Owen Egger, Mrs. Bill Wells and Mrs. Irene Keller of Liberal, Kansas.

HE URGED college faculty members and administrators to have the "backbone" to stand up against dissenting students who terrorize teachers and other students, who engage in violence and who carry weapons in the classroom.

Attorney General John Mitchell has echoed the President's mood. He has called for "an end to patience. The time has come for us to demand, in the strongest possible terms, that university officials, local law enforcement officers and local courts apply the law." Those were the words of our Attorney General, and these comments accurately reflect my own view.

Actions of violence, whether on a college campus or elsewhere in our land, must not be condoned.

Several members of Congress are ready to take legislative action against student violence.

They have introduced bills which would provide fines and imprisonment for persons found guilty of disrupting the administrative operations of educational institutions which receive federal assistance.

ATTORNEY GENERAL Mitchell has indicated that the 1968 Civil Rights Act might be properly invoked to deal with leaders of student protest which results in violence.

That act made it a federal crime to use force or the threat of force to intimidate persons engaged in federally-assisted programs. It also made it a federal crime to cross state lines with the intent to incite a riot.

I sincerely hope that it will not be necessary to employ federal sanctions in order to prevent violent protests on our nation's campuses.

But it is imperative that order prevail on the campuses.

As a former university professor, I know of the work which goes into obtaining a college education. For most students, a higher education is the result of long hours of study and the expenditure by someone, maybe several people, of large sums of money.

Campus disorders can only be detrimental to the efforts of the vast majority of students who are making a conscientious effort to learn.

DISRUPTION OF classes results in less teaching and less learning. It might result in failure for a student who otherwise would have earned a passing grade. And failure of a critical course could result in the necessity for attending an additional semester of school — or leaving a college without the desired degree.

This is the real tragedy of student unrest.

It may be possible for students who are frustrated in their academic goals due to other students who have been a disruptive force on their campus to obtain relief in civil court procedures.

But more importantly, it is primarily the responsibility of school administrators to act to prevent campus disruptions.

Campus administrators should take that action if they have not already done so. On the one hand they should act to satisfy legitimate student complaints. But, on the other hand, they should lay the groundwork necessary to obtain appropriate court injunctions and appropriate law enforcement assistance to deal rapidly with possible future disorders.

We cannot tolerate the disruption of America's educational system.

2 New Hybrid Grain Sorghums

PLANTERS' 1st CHOICE

Grainmaker 200-Grainmaker 300

Grown in this area last year for the first time, either of these Hybrids will do you a good job on irrigated or dry land. The plant height of these Hybrids make it much easier to move sprinklers, because at maturity height is 40 to 44 inches. Due to short height and strong stalk these Hybrids have an excellent standability.

Fumigation for nematodes can be done while planting cotton

Farmers who need to fumigate cotton land to control nematodes but have not been able to get fumigants put down in pre-planting operations shouldn't give up the idea. They can fumigate at the same time they plant.

That's what Terry County Farmer Loyd Yowell of Brownfield and Bill Elms of Amherst in Lamb County did this spring when they got pressed for time.

Yowell and some of his neighbors have been running knife-type fumigation rigs just ahead of their planters in two separate operations. In some cases, only a few minutes elapse between the fumigation and planting of a given area.

Elms' approach is to fumigate, plant, and shpae beds all in one operation by fitting fumigation chisels and other rigging on a double tool bar with the planter.

The chisels on Elms' rig run about 4" deeper than the opening plow. To apply nematocide at the recommended rate he slowed his tractor speed from 5.5 miles per hour — which he considers his normal planting speed — to just under 5 mph.

The idea of fumigating and planting at the same time is new. Until last year, it was recommended that the nematocide be placed in the seed bed 10 days to two weeks before planting. But these recommendations were changed after research showed that fumigating at planting time gave equally good nematode control.

The result is that farmers have more flexibility in planning nematode control, says Dr. Calvin Orr, nematologist at the Texas A&M Agricultural Center at Lubbock.

"Now we can make the application right up to planting and be in real good shape," Orr points out.

Nematode-infested cotton usually is spotty in stand and doesn't grow off as it should. Sometimes there's a slight yellowish discoloration. A farmer often can see knots, galls and gnarls on the roots of cotton grown on land where nematode populations are heavy. Nematode-damaged roots are shorter and have fewer feeder roots than do the roots of healthy cotton.

Of one thing, Yowell is certain: Even if a farmer runs short on time at planting time, he shouldn't bypass nematode control if he has a nematode problem.

New sheet uses

Bright printed sheets turn up all over the house nowadays. For instance, sheets backed with plain plastic linings make ideal shower curtains. Most cotton percale sheets in decorator prints come with coordinated terry cloth towels, so give your bedroom a new decor look with matched shower curtain and towels.

Centerpiece idea

Use squares of bright-colored napkins and centerpiece at your next dinner party. With a solid color tablecloth add napkins that are wildly different in color and pattern. For the centerpiece, arrange napkins in a big brandy snifter, gathering them in folds like a bouquet of fabric flowers.

Pastures should have fertilizer, expert says

With abundant rainfall in most areas of Texas, pastures need to be fertilized to maintain forage quality, says Neal Pitt, Extension agronomist at Texas A&M University.

Grazing plants have certain requirements for nutrients which should be met if crops are to be high quality, says the agronomist. In years of normal rainfall the level is lower than in years with abundant rainfall. Ample soil moisture means that grazing plants probably will be deficient in fertilizer nutrients unless fertilizer and lime are applied.

Another benefit from fertilizing pastures is that hay can be made from excess forage growth during late spring and early summer. The fertilized hay should be good quality for feeding to livestock in fall and winter.

Most pastures in Texas, he notes, are being used to produce forage up to their capabilities, especially when abundant rainfall is available. A soil test is the best guide for determining how much fertilizer to apply for good quality grazing crops, says the agronomist.

Knits now washable

Most cotton knits now have wrinkle-resistant, shape-holding finishes, and are machine-washable. If you prefer to hand wash, remember to squeeze the garment without twisting, and rinse without wringing. After rinsing, blot out excess moisture by rolling the garment in a clean bath towel. Spread it flat on dry towels to dry. Smooth and shape the garment in place. If touchup ironing is needed, use a steam iron.

Take extra care

Sewing with cool, summery fabrics like cotton voile, dotted swiss, or cotton eyelet, calls for a little extra care with seams. They should be as invisible as possible, neat and narrow. The French seam is the best choice. Check sewing books for exact instructions for stitching this seam.

Lamesa youth wins journalism scholarship

A member of a long-time West Texas newspaper family, Paul C. Wade of Lamesa, is the winner of the 1969 West Texas Press Association scholarship.

Lynna Williams of Abilene High School is first runner-up, and Dean Singleton of Graham is second runner-up.

John H. McGaughey, publisher of the Albany News, chairman of the WTPA scholarship committee, announced the results.

The WTPA scholarship is valued at $800, paid $200 each of four years in college. It is good at any college in the boundaries of the West Texas Press Association which offers either a major or minor in journalism.

"ALL THREE of these young people, and some others who also applied, were outstanding and hold great promise for successful careers in journalism," McGaughey said. "It was most difficult to choose one among these as the most deserving."

Young Wade, 17, is the son of Mrs. Ruth Grimes Wade, who teaches at Union School in Dawson County. His father, the late Bob Wade, was a long-time printer and commercial job shop owner who was killed in an automobile accident in January, 1960. The father came from a family engaged for many years in the newspaper business at Jayton.

A SENIOR in Lamesa High School, he played middle guard and was captain of the Lamesa High Tornadoes last season, and won all-district honors.

He was elected Booster Club "Hero" by the student body, is president of the "L" Association and Quill and Scroll Club, is a home room representative to the Student Council, and belongs to numerous clubs. He is an Eagle Boy Scout with Gold Pal, and a member of the Order of the Arrow in Scouting.

Wade works part time with the Lamesa Press Reporter as a sports writer, photographer and general assignments man. He also serves on the staff of the high school paper, the Tornado Observer, and is a member of the journalism class.

WADE WILL graduate from high school in May and will enter Angelo State College in September. He plans to major in journalism and history.

He credits his father with kindling his interest in journalism.

The first runner-up, Miss Williams, is co-editor of the Abilene High School Battery. In her senior year, she has won first place in features in the Texas High School Press Association competition in Denton, and second in the Interscholastic League Press Conference meet in Austin.

SHE PARTICIPATED in the Abilene Reporter-News journalism intern program last semester.

Dean Singleton has been active in her FFA, 4-H Club, journalism and the high school newspaper in Graham. He is sports editor of the Graham News and correspondent for Wichita Falls Record-News and Times.

Skelly Oil Company celebrated Fiftieth

Employees of the Skelly Oil Company recently celebrated the company's Fiftieth Anniversary.

The West Texas District employees gathered at the Midland Country Club at 6 p.m. recently to be served a dinner; and some, for the first time, met their president, Ernest Miller, Jr. and his wife. Several other men and women of the home based office at Tulsa, Oklahoma were also in attendance.

Charles E. Smith, who is Director of Public Relations for Skelly Oil Co., served as master of ceremonies.

Introduction of the guests was made by P. L. Nunley, District Production Manager of the West Texas District.

Miller presented service Awards to a large number of employees then a color movie was viewed on "An Adventure Called Skelly."

The theme for the anniversary was "People . . . Products . . . Progress." These stand for; people — men and women with imagination and ability to make their talents productive are the backbone of the company; products — traditionally producing the finest petroleum products; progress — being better today than you were yesterday, thereby moving ahead.

Ideal for shirtwaists

Cotton fabrics are ideal sewing choices for the popular shirtwaist dress. Easy to sew and comfortable to wear, the classic shirtwaist is suitable for all ages and sizes. For a dressy version, choose fabrics like cotton organdy or romantic cotton lace. For sporty looks, make up the shirtwaist in cotton oxford cloth or printed sailcloth.

Terry cloth is an extra absorbent cotton with warp thread woven into loops.

Folding important

When you cut out cotton corduroy for sewing, don't fold the fabric crosswise. If you do, the same pattern piece will have the nap running up on one side and down on the other. Rub your hand across the corduroy to determine whether the nap runs up or down. It will feel smoother running down.

News from Threeway

by MRS. H. W. GARVIN

The Three Way F.H.A. Mother and Daughter Banquet was held in the cafeteria Tuesday night. On Friday night the Father and Son Banquet was held.

The Three Way Lions Club met Monday night at the Cafeterium for their regular monthly meeting.

The Fifth and Sixth grade students of the school went to Lubbock Wednesday on a field trip. Teachers accompanying the students were Mrs. Bickley and Mrs. Robertson. M. C. Roberts drove the bus.

Party given in honor of Miss Karen Davis

Miss Karen (Squeek) Davis, bride-elect of Charlie Bob Abbe, was honored with a gift shower on May 10 in the home of Mrs. Caton Tyson at Maple.

The honoree opened and displayed the gifts in a room which featured one wall of pictures of the young couple from their early childhood to the present. Seated underneath the pictures were the honoree, her mother, Mrs. Leonard Davis, and her future mother-in-law, Mrs. Charles Abbe, each wearing a white carnation corsage accented with yellow presented by the hostesses. Spring-time flowers and butterflies adorned the rest of the walls. Floral arrangements of spring flowers were used throughout the home.

The honoree was assisted with the opening of the gifts by her sister, Miss Lanita Davis, and Miss Dyrinda Tyson. Mrs. Randal Robertson from Lubbock, sister of the honoree, registered the gifts, and Miss Cheryl Abbe, sister of the future groom, registered the guests.

The table was laid with a white lace cloth over yellow. The centerpiece was a bridal doll with a white lace parasol placed in the midst of yellow flowers with a three branch crystal candleholder on each side. Yellow and white frosted squares of cake were served with yellow punch or coffee and pastel colored mints. The table appointments were of crystal and silver with a silver service set and a crystal cut punch bowl used in the serving.

The hostesses presented the honoree with a set of stainless steel cook ware in Poppy Red color.

Brighten stairs

To brighten basement stairs, carpet them with deck canvas, an extra-tough cotton fabric available at awning shops or marine supply houses. It comes in 31 to 33-inch widths. Glue canvas down the natural-colored fabric a bright look as well as more durability, paint each step a different eye-catching color.

The first successful cotton textile mill in the U. S. was built in 1790 by Samuel Slater, an Englishman.

Mrs. Chris Hodnett, Mrs. Shirley Partlow, Mrs. Marg Powell, Mrs. LaWana Lee, Mrs. Doris Richardson, and Mrs. Jean Bridges were the mothers who attended. The group toured Mrs. Baird's Bakery, Radio and TV station Channel 11, the Coco Cola bottling plant, and the museum.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Wheeler spent Thursday night in Lovington with their son and family, the Jimmy Wheelers.

Mrs. Glen Campbell and children from Baytown and children are visiting in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bowers.

Amistad fishing said improving steadily

With Amistad Lake at 23,000 of its eventual 67,000 acres, fishing is steadily improving and producing several sizes of bass, officials report.

Large numbers of bass in the 5 to 6 pound class are being caught as well as others weighing from 1½ pounds to 2 pounds. The smaller fish are probably made up of river fish, fish from Devil's Lake, Lake Walk, and the 2,503,400 bass stocked by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department since 1965.

The lake is presently at an estimated one-fourth the acre-feet of anticipated water.

Bass spawning has begun with some females already spent and others with eggs ready to spawn.

You've already scored big and it's an open field.

Cleaning tips

Here are some cleaning tips for stylish leather-like cottons. Leathery vinyl with a cotton backing should be cleaned with a sudsy sponge. Cotton leather that has a silicone finish comes in washable versions and can be dry-cleaned as well.

Well managed grassland . . .
 THE PICTURE above shows cattle grazing on well managed rangeland. Rangeland with proper grazing practices and a little knowledge from the rencher can produce more than one that is over grazed and under managed.

Conservation District News

From the Office of BUDD FOUNTAIN

Overgrazing will reduce the vigor of grass and allow the rangeland to be come infested with weeds and other undesirable plants. This infestation of undesirable plants will mean a decrease in the weight of calves that are to be sold. Cattle is the cheapest tool we have today for turning grass into money, so therefore in order to have more money we need more cows and more grass. This goal can be accomplished by increasing the forage production through good conservation practices.
 When a ranch runs out of grass the rancher has two choices, either sell out

Jimmy Dean Meat Co. grand opening to be May 24-25

A new era of West Texas agriculture begins Saturday and Sunday, May 24-25, as some of the most important Texas leaders converge on Plainview for the grand opening and dedication of the Jimmy Dean Meat Company.

Activities for the two-day event are designed to herald the arrival of the pork industry on the Texas High Plains.

Texas Governor Preston Smith will be among guests present for the dedication ceremonies at the plant located northwest of Plainview on Highway 87. Master of ceremonies will be Jimmy Dean.

With a bill like this at the top, it's an almost surefire guarantee of one of the biggest events to come to West Texas. And this is what is planned.

Dedication ceremonies will begin at 11 a.m. with Governor Smith cutting the ribbon and presenting the principal address.

Following the dedication, the Jimmy Dean Meat Company will be open for grand opening activities with tours to be conducted until 6 p.m.

Open house will continue Sunday from 1 p.m. until 6 p.m. with Jimmy Dean on hand to greet all visitors.

Participating with the meat company in arranging activities for the dedication and grand opening are members of the Plainview Chamber of Commerce and the Chamber's Women's Committee.

Miss Plainview, Viki Turner, and Sharyn Hemphill, Plainview's Miss Congeniality, will be among those greeting and registering the V.I.P. guests. Also in the line will be Chamber Redcoats, official Plainview greeters, and hostesses from the Women's Committee.

About the grand opening and dedication ceremonies, Jimmy Dean said, "My one dream since we began preparation for this plant almost a year ago, has been in anticipation of this day. We are proud of our new plant and the facilities that will offer the American public the best quality pork product on the market today.

"We are proud of this area and are proud to be a part of this growing agricultural empire. I am looking forward to seeing my friends and old acquaintances in this West Texas area and making new friends," he said.

The Jimmy Dean Company is the newest pork processing plant in the country and will utilize the most modern equipment to process Specific Pathogen Free hogs for Jimmy Dean Pure Pork Sausage.

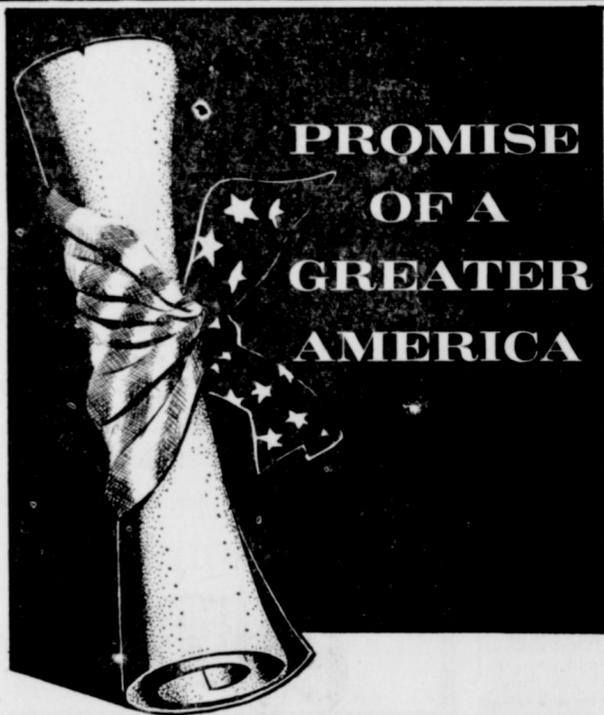

Primary plans call for marketing the product in the general West Texas area before spreading into other parts of the state and nation.

The meat company will process 100 head of hogs per eight-hour day. Dean said that the plant would not be limited to processing SPF hogs due to the demand for carcasses by pork processors in areas where a good supply of live hogs is available.

To you we say congratulations on a job well done.

REYNOLDS-HAMILTON FORD

We extend our heartfelt congratulations to all the young men and women of this area who will be graduating this year. You have achieved a worthy goal and are to be commended.

SPC named as center for college test

South Plains College has been designated as a test center for American College Test on Saturday morning, July 19. Mr. Donald J. Melton, test center supervisor, said, "High school students who want to take the test on July 19 must acquire a Test Registration Form and mail it, along with their $8.00 fee, by Monday, June 16."

The necessary registration form may be acquired from Melton at South Plains College or by writing to Dr. Vernon L. Odon at 1626 50th Street, Lubbock, Texas 79412.

Nearly one million students will write the ACT test at 2,100 test centers around the world this year. Ninety-nine of the colleges and universities in Texas participate in the ACT program. Some colleges use the test results as admissions instruments; others use them primarily as counseling tools. The test battery consists of sub-tests in English usage, math usage, social science reading and natural science reading. A unique feature of the ACT assessment is the Student Profile Section by which students describe some of their non-academic potentials and other personal data for the use of college admissions officers and high school counselors.

Each student's assessment is sent to the three colleges of his choice. Currently over 1,500 American colleges utilize the data provided by the American College Testing Program.
