Tribe ends year with 16-7 win

The Morton High School football squad ended a successful grid season on an up note Friday with a resounding victory that sent them home for the winter with a feeling of pride and accomplishment.

The Tribe proved once again that visiting teams should not invade Morton in a chartered bus. According to high school principal and former football coach Fred Weaver, no team that has ever come to Morton in a chartered bus has ever taken home a victory.

The favored Post Antelopes came in a chartered bus, run smack into a determined band of Indians, and went home smarting from a rather decisive 16-7 whipping dealt out by the Tribe.

The win, although it made little difference in the district standings, was a rather big and important one for Morton. The victory gave the Tribe a 5-5 season record, the best in five years for an Indian gridiron squad. It assured the Tribe of not having to settle for sole possession of last place. Instead, they finished in a tie for fifth with Taboka, 64-0 losers to Denver City. And the win proved to the Morton team and their fans that they could bounce back from a two-week slump that saw them bow to Idalou and Tahoka.

Ralph Soliz paced Morton's new wish-bone offense with 89 yards on 2 carries and punched over both Morton touchdowns, his fourth and fifth of the year. Mike Bryan accounted for the other four points, three coming on a 20-yard field goal late in the first quarter. Jerry Steed,

FIRE-RAZED BUILDING . . .

THE BYRON'S AUTO STORER BUILDING, located at the corner of Washington and South Main Avenues in Morton, was razed by two widely-spaced fires during Tuesday night and Wednesday morning. The first blaze was fought by firemen between 7 and 8 p.m. Tuesday and was considered to have been put out with only moderate damage. The blaze broke out again at approximately 2:15 a.m. Wednesday, and this time completely gutted the building. Approximately 20 volunteer firemen and both units from the fire department answered both calls.

Morton school board accepts 1968-69 audit, hears classroom report

The Morton Independent School District Board of Education voted to accept the 1968-69 audit submitted to it by Fred Payne at the regular monthly meeting Monday night.

Routine business was the order of the day as the board heard a report by high school principal Fred Weaver on the instructional program being carried on at the school. The report included the class scheduling procedure and an explanation of how teachers are utilized in each of the school departments.

Superintendent Bob Travis advised the board that the schools now come under the Tort Liability Act which will necessitate increasing the liability coverage on all of the school vehicles. The increased cost is estimated to come to approximately $4 per vehicle, Travis said.

A letter of resignation at the end of the first semester by Mrs. Douglas Reed was read to the board which voted to accept the resignation.

Travis was authorized by the board to recruit for two new teachers to participate in the program.

Basketball takes over sports scene as Indians begin action

Morton's High School basketball season will kick off tonight as the Indians host the always tough Levelland Lobos for a pair of cage contests beginning at 6:15.

The Tribe will travel to Lubbock Friday to take on LCHS, and then will journey to Plains for games on Tuesday. A Monday game with Seagraves has been changed to Roosevelt.

Coach Ted Whillock greeted some 23 candidates Monday as practice got underway. Morton coaches found themselves facing the rather pleasant problem of utilizing players blessed with experience, height, and talent. All five Morton basketball teams, seventh through varsity, posted winning records last year, and fortunately, most of those boys are still around.

Two major absences were noted by Whillock. "We lost two real fine basketball players," he pointed out in referring to Wayne Thompson and Byron Willis, both casualties by graduation. Thompson was the Indian playmaker for the past two seasons. Willis, a three-time all-district man, scored over 2000 points in his basketball career at MHS.

Although four boys that started last year are returning, Whillock was not quite as optimistic as one might expect him to be. He indicated that the team will miss the consistency of Willis's shooting and the leadership provided by Thompson.

But, he also pointed out that the Tribe "would be better than we were last year" on given nights and that his team, being young, should continue to improve as the season progresses. Morton was 21-10 last season.

A crew of sophomores showed great promise last season, and with a year's growth and experience, they should be able to provide Whillock with a fine quintet. Juniors M. C. Collins, Stan Coffman, and Terry Harvey all saw plenty of action last year. Sophomore Keith Embry also started frequently last season, but he will have to miss the first week of action as a result of a football injury.

Up from a 14-9 B team are seniors Dennis Clayton, Jerry Steed, Mike Bryan, and Gerald Baker. George Pritchett, Morton's jumping junior, missed much of last year, but is ready to go this season following knee surgery. Elton Patton, a 6-foot soph, also will be competing for starting

Local man seriously hurt in car-truck crash

David Villareal, 19, of Rt. 2, Morton was reported Wednesday in fair condition in Methodist Hospital in Lubbock following a car-truck collision five miles west of Morton Sunday night.

Villareal was seriously injured, and his 1963 Ford sedan totally destroyed when he overtook and collided with a flat bed truck near 8:50 p.m. Sunday, according to a report by DPS Patrolman T. A. Rowland, who investigated the accident.

The report indicates that both vehicles were proceeding west on SH-116 when Villareal's car, apparently traveling at a high rate of speed, smashed into the left rear of the truck bed. The truck was completely turned around and came to rest on its right side facing east in the north ditch.

The automobile came to rest, partially pinning Villareal under it, in the ditch on the south side of the highway. Extent of Villareal's injuries are not known but are reportedly very serious. Driver of the truck, Fabian Flores, 43, of Morton, was not seriously injured, the accident report indicated.

Nan Ray, Morton Smith win county 4-H Gold Star awards

Top 4-H Club boys and girls of Cochran county were honored at the annual 4-H Achievement Banquet Monday night, November 17 at the Morton School cafeteria. County Judge J. A. Love presented Nan Ray, 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ohlen Ray, and Morton J. Smith III, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Morton J. Smith Jr., the 1969 Cochran County 4-H Gold Star, this is the highest County 4-H award provided by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, according to Cochran County Agent Roy McClung.

Forty-seven 4-H boys and girls received various project award pins during the recognition ceremonies along with eighty-three 4-H year pins and twenty-four Adult Leader Awards.

Highlighting the Adult Awards was the special award of the 4-H Silver Spur. Adults receiving the Silver Spur Award for their outstanding 4-H Club work were Mr. and Mrs. James Whitehead, and Mr. James Dewbre, all of Morton.

Master of Ceremonies at the banquet was Larry Hale, 17 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Hale of Morton.

Morton J. Smith III, gave the invocation. After dinner entertainment was provided by Bruce Ayers of Morton.

Dr. Dean is appointed health officer for city

Dr. William Dean of Cochran Memorial Hospital was appointed city health officer for Morton at a meeting of the city council Thursday night. Dean will serve in the post from Dec. 9, 1969 until Dec. 9, 1970 under the appointment.

In other business, the council approved the payment of bills for the month of October in the amount of $6,193.

Following reports by the police and water departments, a discussion was held concerning extra charges by the street department for the hauling away of trees and other out-size loads of trash. The council approved extra charges for this service and authorized City Secretary Elra Oden and street department personnel to set the fees.

Mrs. Reynolds urges use of Christmas seals

The 63rd annual Christmas seal campaign is presently underway in Morton, J. C. Reynolds, local campaign chairman, has announced.

"I am very much gratified to have the opportunity to serve in this great cause which does so much real good for so many people," Mrs. Reynolds stated in inaugurating the seal drive.

The Christmas seals have already been sold out in the local area, and most of the people have probably already received theirs. We do hope that there will be a big response which will show the people of Morton and Cochran county really care," she said.

According to Dr. Taylor Evans, Lubbock area campaign chairman, 93 per cent of the proceeds from the Christmas seal effort in Texas remains in the state to support localized programs such as health education, public school anti-tuberculosis education, skin-testing for tuberculosis, mobile x-ray unit surveys, TB tests and respiratory disease classes. Although actual work of fighting tuberculosis and other respiratory diseases is upon medical researchers and official health agencies, the responsibility for winning the fight lies within the generosity of every West Texas resident," said Reynolds.

Because, last year, 3,216 Texans had tuberculosis, 440,000 Americans had emphysema, and $93,000, in all, found for the first time that they suffered from disabling disease, we ask you to show the world that you are doing something about it.

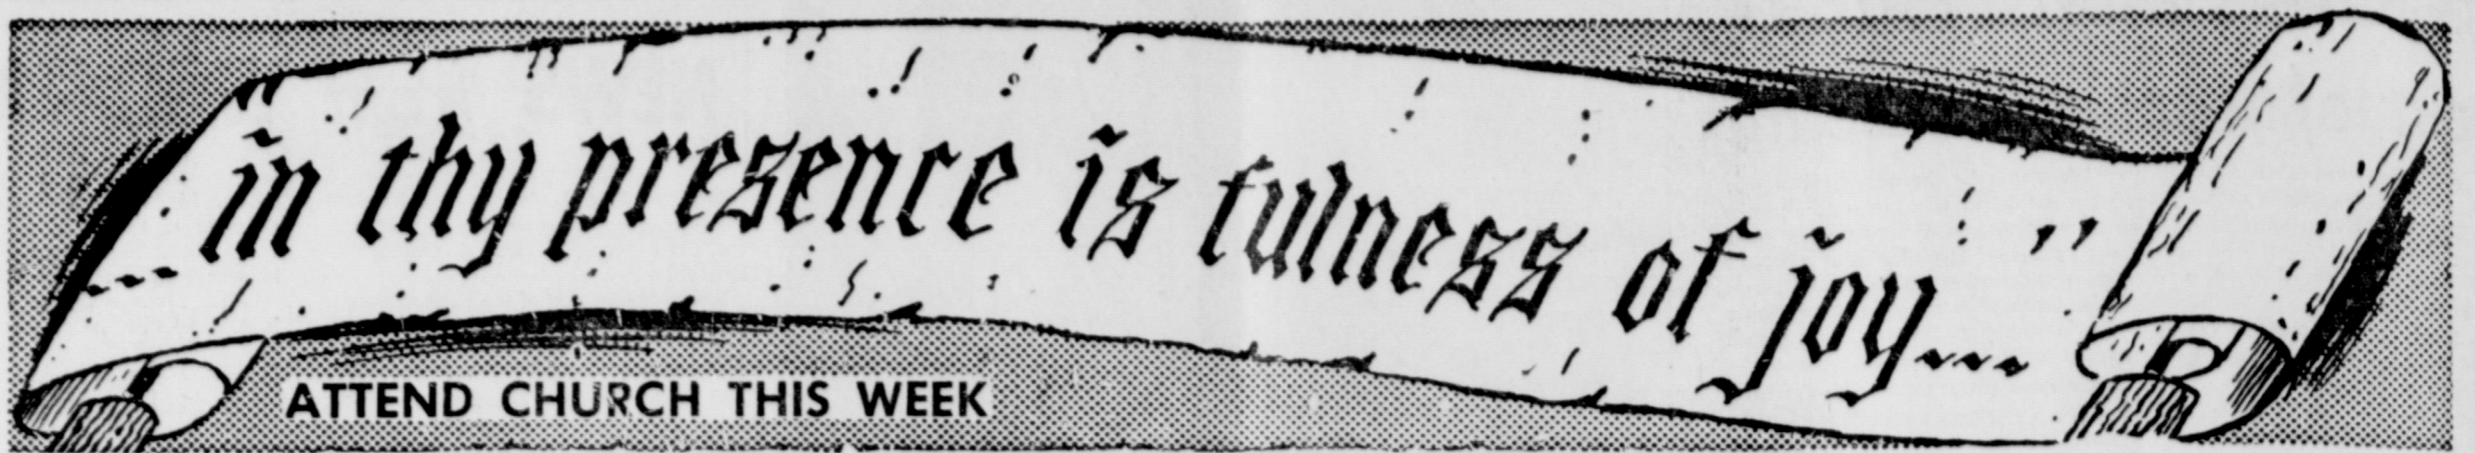

Use Christmas seals, Mrs. Reynolds urged.

NOT A CONVERTABLE . . .

THE 1963 FORD SEDAN shown above appears to be a convertible, at first glance, as the top was almost completely wiped off the vehicle as it collided with a truck five miles west of Morton on H-116 Sunday night. David Villareal, 19, of Rt. 2, Morton, was seriously injured in the accident and was reported in fair condition at Methodist hospital in Lubbock at press time Wednesday. Driver of the flat bed truck, Fabian Flores, 43, of Morton was injured only slightly, according to DPS Patrolman T. A. Rowland, shown above, who investigated the mishap.

Where to...?

Did you ever look down railroad tracks and wonder where they went... or put your ear to the track, listen to the hum, and try to guess when the train would reach you? These questions we may have asked when we were children, but as adults it is time to ask... Are we headed in the right direction? Are we prepared for things in the future regardless of when they will arrive? Choose now the path you will take. Let the church help guide you.

"Oh that my ways were directed to keep thy statutes!"

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

filling ably for Terry Harvey, got 50 yards on 13 tries.

Morton's touchdown drives were the most impressive of the year. The first one marked the first time in the year the Indians were able to put together a sustained drive. Previously they had scored on big plays or on short drives. The second score came following a 76 yard drive, the longest of the year.

The visiting Antelopes took the opening kickoff and moved rapidly from their own 31 to the Morton 49 before good defensive play stopped a fourth and two attempt. Post quarterback Ray Altman was hit hard on the play and fumbled the ball back to his 46 and the Indians took over at that point.

A five-yard offside penalty moved Morton back to the Indian 49. But then Soliz went to work, crashing for gains of five, eleven and three yards. With second and seven at the Post 31, Eddie Lewis was stopped on his first carry for no gain. Embry picked up five to the 26. Facing fourth and five, Embry pitched left to Lewis who broke to the nine before being run out of bounds. On the next play Soliz broke around right end for the Morton score.

On the attempted kick, the ball got away and Bryan had to retrieve it at his 25, but he fought back to the two before being pulled down.

Morton's defense kept Post from gaining a first down throughout the rest of the quarter, and late in the period, the Indians got another break as an attempted Post pitchout was fumbled and gathered in by the alert Bryan at the 17. And it looked like another sure TD for Morton as Soliz banged to the nine and Lewis to the five. With a first and goal at that point, the drive bogged down. Soliz hit right guard for no gain. On the next play, the Indians drew a five-yard illegal motion penalty. Soliz was stopped for no gain on second down as was Embry on third. On fourth and ten, Bryan attempted a field goal from the 10 but the try failed. However Post was offside and Bryan got a second chance. This time he split the uprights with a perfect 20-yarder.

Gerald Baker grabbed a Post fumble to kill a serious Antelope drive following the field goal. Post had moved from their 39 to the Morton 24. The Indians had to punt after picking up one first down, but forced the Antelopes to do the same with six minutes left. From the Morton 24 the Indians moved with the aid of a 15-yard penalty and a 35 yard pass from Embry to Willie Holland. With a first at the Post 17, Soliz picked up three, then Jerry Steed crashed for six. Lewis was stopped for no gain on third down. On fourth down, Soliz circled right end to score with 2:48 remaining in the half. Bryan successfully converted for the fifth time this season to give Morton a 16-0 halftime lead.

Post's only score came on their first possession in the second half. The Antelopes drove 80 yards in 11 plays to erase the zero on the board. Neff Walker scored his fourteenth TD of the year on a 17-yard gallop and Ray Altman converted. Morton's defense proved its worth once again in the second half. At one time, the Tribe's hard hitting forced both Antelope quarterbacks out of the game and Post had to resort to a single-wing formation which they ran rather well on the excellent running of Walker.

But the Tribe's defense stopped Post at the Morton 22, 49, 33 and 20 yard lines in the second half. Mike Bryan recovered his second fumble of the night during that time. Elton Patton picked off an Altman pass with six minutes left to kill another drive.

Sharp defensive play by David Carrasco, M. C. Collins, Gerald Baker, and Jerry Steed, kept Walker from breaking for big gains.

South Plains cotton harvest continues to gain momentum

South Plains cotton harvest continues to gain momentum during the week as stripping operations increase, according to W. K. Palmer, in charge of U.S.D.A. Cotton Classing Office in Lubbock. Palmer said that the classing offices classed 26,750 bales of cotton during the week ending Friday, Nov. 14th. This brought the total for this season to 38,000. Through the 14th last year 304,000 samples of cotton had been classed.

Low Middling Light Spotted was the dominant grade at Lubbock last week. It made up 22 per cent of all cotton classed. Other grades were: Strict Low Middling Spotted 10 per cent, Low Middling Spotted 10 per cent, all inged grades 16 per cent. The average length was reduced in grade from 31/32 to 31/16. The average length averaged between 31/32 and 31/16. Forty-four per cent stapled

1-inch and longer. Eighty-eight per cent of all cotton classed at the Lubbock office last week had micronaire readings in the premium range of 3.4 to 4.9.

Seventy per cent of the cotton classed at Lubbock last week had Pressley readings of 80,000 pounds and higher. Pressley is an indication of fiber strength and the most desirable Pressley reading is 80,000 pounds and above.

Trading increased on the Lubbock market and prices were higher. Average prices paid for the most predominant qualities in the 3.5 to 4.9 micronaire range were: Strict Low Middling Light Spotted 29/32 — 17.60, Strict Low Middling Light Spotted 15/16 — 18.00, Low Middling Light Spotted 29/32 — 16.70, Low Middling Light Spotted 15/16 — 16.75, Strict Low Middling Spotted 29/32 — 16.80, and Strict Low Middling Spotted 15/16 — 17.15.

Prices paid farmers for cotton ranged from $36.00 to $48.00 per ton and averaged $39.60 per ton.

ASCS Farm News

By John W. Hall

THE ASCS OFFICE would like to clear up a problem that has caused some questions to be asked by several producers in the county.

There was an article in last week's paper and The ASCS Newsletter concerning sweet forage sorghums on Diverted acres for 1970.

This means that you will not be able to plant sweet or Forage Sorghums on diverted ACRES for 1970 or subsequent years, but this does not mean that you cannot plant sudan and sorghum grass crosses on your diverted acres. You will also be allowed to graze your diverted acres during the grazing period, which is Oct. 1 to May 1.

MARKETING QUOTA REFERENDUM

A referendum for the 1970 crop upland cotton will be held by mail Dec. 1, through Dec. 5, 1969. Generally, those eligible to vote in this referendum are entitled to share in the 1969 upland cotton crop or its proceeds. Ballots must be postmarked by midnight Dec. 5, 1969. If you are also eligible to vote in the extra long staple cotton (ELS) referendum, make sure each ballot is placed in its proper envelope. ACP

Requests for ACP cost-shares assistance are being accepted for irrigation pipe lines, permanent sod waterways, terraces, deep breaking, and application of cotton burs. Applications accepted at this time will be issued from 1970 county funds and will be against the 1970 farm limit under the concurrent operation procedure. These practices must be completed by Dec. 31, 1969.

DESTROYED CROP ACREAGES

If you have crop acreage that you certified that has been destroyed by weather conditions since your report, and such acreage will not be harvested, and you desire such acreage to be changed on our records to "destroyed acreage," then you must request measurement service for such acreage and pay the required fee. Otherwise, the certified acreage will be used in determining the yield for future year yield appeals. If the entire crop acreage was destroyed, and no acreage will be harvested, no measurement will be made since you cannot prove a yield unless all three years have some production.

1970 COTTON PROGRAM

The national average price support loan rate for middling 1-inch cotton at average location has been set at 20.25 cents per pound. The price support payment rate cents per pound from 1969. This payment is in addition to the price support to program cooperators has been established at 16.80 cents per pound, up to 2.07 loan. It is the amount necessary in addition to the loan to provide producers at least 65 per cent of parity on cotton produced within the acreage permitted under the program. The payment is made to cooperators on acreage within the domestic allotment which is 65% of the total allotment.

NEW Secretary gives reason for the banning of Cyclamate

Last of October, foods containing the artificial sweetener, were taken from the market, disrupting a $1 billion industry.

The U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare Secretary Robert Finch removed cyclamates from the list of substances generally regarded as safe for use in foods.

His action was an amendment to the Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act which requires removal from the market of any food additive shown to cause cancer when fed to humans or animals.

Recent evidence indicates cyclamate causes cancer in animals. Experiments on rats showed malignant bladder tumors in those fed heavy doses (50 times normal adult intake) throughout their lives.

But it is alarming. U.S. consumption had increased in the last seven years. Estimated consumption of cyclamates this year is 70 per cent of this would be in the sweetener used in most diet and low calorie beverages which passed Food and Drug Administration criteria will no longer be used in foods by January 1 and in foods by February 1.

Many manufacturers already have replaced cyclamate sweetened beverages. They now are combining saccharin and sugar for low calorie items at the rate of 30 calories for an eight ounce soft drink rather than the previous one or two calories.

In April the Federal Food and Drug Administration (F.D.A.) proposed that foods containing cyclamates be labeled to tell the amount of the sweeteners in a normal serving. Labels warned that the product should be limited to those who must have few calories. But this wasn't strong enough.

F.D.A. considered 1.2 grams a day safe for children and 3.5 grams a day safe for adults. Higher amounts had laxative effects on volunteers. A can of diet cola averaged about 450 grams.

F.D.A. scientists have pointed out that, in any case, cell research is so new that there is little agreement over methods or findings.

Cyclamates have been used widely for 10 years with no reports of medical or congenital problems in man.

But research is continuing. Cyclamates flavor such foods as puddings, salad dressings, jelly, ice cream, "cured" bacon, pickles, dog food and flavored children's vitamins.

A product's label will tell if it contains the sweetener.

New textile blend developed by Texas Tech shows promise

Very good news may be in the offing for area cotton producers if a recent experiment at Texas Tech, outlined below, proves successful.

Texas is the number one state in the nation in the production of all three of the major natural fibers — cotton, wool, and mohair — and it has been the dream of Southwest fiber producers to market a strategic blend of these fibers that would be unique and competitive in the marketplace. This blend which would combine the comfort of cotton, the warmth of wool, and the high luster of mohair is now a reality.

Texas Governor Preston Smith, on a recent visit to the Textile Research Center, at Texas Tech University, was presented the first garment to be knitted from this promising blend. The garment is a beautiful golf sweater of "Red Raider" red and black, the colors of the Governor's alma mater, Texas Tech, and is composed of equal parts of cotton, wool, and mohair.

The fibers in the sweater were grown and produced in the Lone Star State and spun into yarn by the Textile Research Center. The yarn was then shipped to the USDA Western Regional Research Laboratory in Albany, California. This lab dyed and finished the yarn and shipped it on to Portland, Oregon where a commercial firm knitted the sweater.

While Governor Smith has little time for golf, he did testify to the comfort and beauty of the golfing sweater and to the great potential of the natural fiber industry by blending these beautiful and durable products.

Experts present testified that the sweater achieved, to a high degree, the goals of comfort, warmth, and high luster; plus the added quality of "breathing." Dr. John R. Bradford, Director of the Textile Research Center stated, "We are extremely pleased with the success of this blend and I believe that in the very near future we will see these blends gain popularity in full fashion knits."

Sophomore quarterback Keith Embry picked up 283 yards on the ground and passed for 374 more. Embry averaged 2.3 yards on the ground, and completed 24 of 65 pass attempts. Twenty-one completions came in the last half of the season. He passed for three touchdowns.

Junior tailback Terry Harvey took top honors in the yards-per-carry division with a 5.3 average. Harvey racked up 536 yards in seven games.

ACCENT ON HEALTH

Forty-three Texans died needlessly last year of five diseases which could have been prevented by immunizations.

In addition, more than 6,000 others suffered from the illnesses, which are preventable, reports the Texas State Department of Health.

What are these five selected diseases? Diphtheria, pertussis (whooping cough), tetanus, measles and polio.

The breakdown of deaths in 1968 show 11 from diphtheria's 131 reported cases; seven deaths from 892 reported cases of pertussis; 13 deaths from tetanus, which showed 17 cases reported; five deaths from 5,204 reported cases of measles; and seven deaths among the 22 reported cases of polio.

During the past five years these same diseases have cost the lives of 408 persons in Texas.

Biggest killer during this period has been measles, which has accounted for 170 victims in the past five years. A thorough statewide campaign against measles has cut the death total from 68 in 1964 to five in 1968 and 71,629 reported cases in 1964 to 5,204 last year, dramatically showing the success of immunization efforts. Complete eradication of measles appears possible.

Total reported diphtheria cases in the past five years was 294 with 41 deaths. During the same period 3,693 cases of pertussis were reported with 39 deaths.

Polio cases reported in the five-year span totaled 136 with a death count at seven. Tragically, the very young child has been most susceptible to polio.

Health authorities report a great upsurge in the number of immunizations when school age is reached among the six-year-olds, but they note that parents shouldn't wait until their children reach school age before having them immunized against diseases.

Deaths from tetanus fell below 30 last year for the first time in the five-year period. Thirty-two fatalities were reported in 1964 and 1965, while 30 deaths were reported in 1966 and 34 in 1967. The 13 deaths last year brought the five-year total to 141.

These deaths, State Health Department authorities say, indicate the continuing need for intensified efforts by private physicians, public health personnel and civic leaders to insure attainment of adequate immunization levels against these diseases in Texas.

The Farmer's Wife

By Libby Mudgett

WELL, I SEE HAT Katherine Hepburn is going to play Coco Chanel in a new play opening on Broadway.

Since both of these ladies are pretty fabulous creatures, the play will probably be a hit and then a movie.

Which will start a revival of interest in fashion a la Chanel. And that is a pretty dressy style.

So I'm going to get in my licks first with some pleadings for all those fashion setters before they start setting.

FIRST, THERE'S THE MATTER OF HOSE. That is probably the biggest racket in the whole consumer market.

I know full well that somebody somewhere can invent some hose that look like hose that DO NOT RUN. Tell me not it can't be done when I see on my own TV set men walking on the moon.

Virtually every pair of hose has a built-in destruct button that goes off about the third wearing. And pow! Another buck and a half shot.

Which brings us to the subject of those pills that darken the skin. You know, the ones that all those writers take while they go live with the dark-skinned ones long enough to gather material to write a book about their experiences and tet rich. Can't a pill be invented that would darken only that part of the anatomy one wanted darkened? Such as legs, thereby eliminating the hose problem altogether.

Or darken the face just enough to make everyone think you've already put your makeup on.

Or be deep copper colored to wear a white dress and pale, pale flesh-colored to wear with a black dress? (Depending upon whose flesh is concerned, of course).

SINCE CHANEL is famous for her suits, there will undoubtedly be a trend back to the dressy suit.

And that spells disaster for those of my caliber that can't abide women's suits.

If it's cold enough for a jacket, it's cold enough for a coat. But try putting on a coat over a jacket and you soon take off the jacket, thereby wasting the money you spent on the jacket.

If it's warm enough to go without a coat, it's too warm for that silly lined jacket, and once more you leave the jacket at home and you might as well have just bought a skirt and blouse.

OF COURSE, ONE CAN go ahead and wear the skirt, blouse and matching jacket and freeze from the rear down.

Or skip the blouse, but this can end disastrously in case you get in an overheated room and start perspiring and people keep inviting you to take off your jacket.

So please, fashion designers, don't go overboard on those Chanel-type suits like you did several years back to the point of forgetting to design some dresses for those cantankerous people like me.

THEN THERE'S FOOTWEAR. Keep putting out boots, please, for those of us that don't believe in being fashionable to the point of freezing.

But enough of those square-toe clomp-clomps that look as though they were manufactured by the LSD crowd. How about some more heels? And I don't mean those two inch square things that spillover like factory stacks.

I mean those high graceful heels that were thin as cathedral spires. Now those made a lady feel really dressed up!

Now in the cosmetic realm, how about a lipstick that will stay on? Or maybe a pill that would turn lips red, or orange, or pink, or rose?

AND A STAIN REMOVER for teeth like dentists use that one could get at the local drug counter?

Oh well, maybe I'm expecting too much. Or just too pessimistic. After all, it was Chanel herself who said that women used to dress to please men, now they dress only to astonish one another.

Letter to the editor

Mr. Bill Sayers: editor
Morton Tribune
Morton, Texas
Dear Mr. Sayers:

Saturday, November 15 was a day that brought increased awareness of national issues to many South Plains communities. American flags, expressing agreement with the administration's plan to end the war in Vietnam, were fairly numerous in Lubbock, Levelland and Muleshoe.

In Morton, however, there was very little evidence of support for the administration or the moratorium. One cannot help wondering if Morton citizens represent that so called "silent majority" who have not realized that the responsibilities of a democracy require its citizens to exercise their freedom of expression.

Mrs. David Newsom shares her recipes for Christmas

Mrs. David Newsom is the Tribune's featured cook of the week.

While her husband is in Fort Lewis, Washington serving with the United States Army, Pam is gathering hints from Mom and trying them out on Dad until the day she joins David.

Some of the goodies she is making to send in a Christmas box for David are Cheese Roll and Divinity, these are the recipes she is sharing with us this week.

Cheese Roll
1 3/4 oz. cream cheese
1 lb. longhorn cheese
1 small onion
1 tsp. garlic salt
1 cup nuts
dash red pepper
salt, pepper and paprika to taste

Put longhorn cheese, onion, nuts through food chopper. Add cream cheese and seasoning. Mix well and form into rolls 1" in diameter, roll in mixture of chili pepper and paprika. Chill or freeze.

Divinity
2 2/3 C. sugar
2/3 C. light corn syrup
1/2 C. water
2 egg whites-stiffly beaten
1 tsp. vanilla
2/3 C. broken nuts.
Mix sugar, corn syrup and water in saucepan. Stir over low heat until sugar is dissolved; cook without stirring until a little dropped into cold water forms a hard ball. Remove from heat and pour, beating constantly in a fine stream into the beaten egg whites. Add vanilla and continue beating until mixture holds its shape and becomes slightly dull. Fold in nuts. Drop quickly from tip of buttered spoon onto wax paper.

Last Friday afternoon at the last pep rally of the season, there was the greatest show of school spirit displayed this whole year. There was a determination in the minds of all the Seniors as well as the rest of the student body. The Senior football boys were aware that this was the last chance to win a football game. They realized it was the last chance for them to prove to their fellow class-mates, their coaches, their fellow team-mates, as well as to themselves that they could win. Each player had to have a positive attitude about the game to win 16-7 over the Post Antelopes. They knew District was lost, but still they fought to the very end. They gave their very best for their school and for themselves.

The Senior Cheerleaders realized they would have no more opportunities to cheer for their football boys this year. They showed great pride and respect for their school. They also had a determination to win the last football game of the year. They wanted to let their boys know they were behind them all the way.

As the band played, the whole student body rose to sing the school song. We sang this song with great pride and with a sense of responsibility to our school. We had to let our boys know we were behind them also. They, too, had to let us know they were out to win.

This hasn't been a lengthy column, but this week the Teen Scene is dedicated to: The Seniors of Morton High!

Dr. Berry and Roy McClung speak to Whiteface Club

"There are no perfect trees or shrubs, but if they are healthy and look good, they can be beautiful and very desirable in the home landscape," might have been the theme of the program presented by the Whiteface Garden Club, Monday evening in the Whiteface Elementary School Auditorium.

Dr. Robert Berry, Plant Pathologist with the Extension Service, now living in Lubbock, was the featured speaker. He evaluated many of the more popularly used trees of this area, and suggested others that might be used here, and some of the advantages or disadvantages of each kind. He noted, also, that iron deficiencies in the soil usually caused a yellow discoloration in the leaves during the growing seasons, and recommended a foliar spray of iron sulphate. If applied to the soil, the alkaline content of this soil soon makes the iron insoluble and useless to the plant.

Roy McClung, Cochran County Agent, showed some slides on landscaping the home landscape, emphasizing that such landscaping is to be developed in steps, with the basic steps coming first. The grass and larger trees are usually the first steps to be developed. Some of the slides showed good ways to plan the first steps to be developed. Some of the slides showed good ways to plan the landscape, others showed proportions to be avoided. Mr. McClung emphasized the need and ease of planning on paper, rather than trying to move plants around to find a likable design. Adapted varieties, from a reliable nursery, may cost a little more at the start, but probably will give a much greater return, both in beauty and health, than obtained elsewhere. Oftimes, it is the care and upkeep that determines the beauty and lifespan of any plant.

Next meeting of the Whiteface Garden Club will be the Christmas program at the home of Mrs. S. J. Bills, Dec. 1, with each member attending to bring a made gift and a choice recipe to

COA announces cotton price support loan, payment rates

The U.S. Department of Agriculture has announced 1970-crop upland cotton price-support loan and payment rates. The national average price-support rate for Middling 1-inch cotton at average location has been set at 20.25 cents per pound for the 1970 crop. Price support loans available to program cooperators for different individual quarters will be based on the Middling 1-inch cotton price at the time the loan is made. This is the same rate as that applicable to the 1969 crop. The price-support payment rate to producers has been established at 18.80 cents per pound. This payment is in addition to the price-support loan. The amount necessary in addition to the loan to provide producers at least 50 percent of parity on cotton produced under the acreage permitted under the program is made to cooperators on acreage planted within the national allotment which is 65 percent of the total farm allotment. The 1970 rate compares to a 1969 program price-support rate of 14.73 cents per pound. Today's announcement, along with previous determinations, gives cotton producers basic information on next year's program prior to a mail referendum, December 1-5, on 1970-crop cotton marketing quotas. In the referendum, at least 75 percent of the upland cotton growers must approve marketing quotas and the essential features of the program to go into effect. If more than one-third of the growers vote "no," the only cotton program will be price support at 50 percent of parity for growers who do not exceed their acreage allotment. The 1970 loan rate was established under legal provisions calling for a level which will reflect — for Middling 1-inch upland cotton at average location in the United States not in excess of 90 percent of the estimated average world price for the 1970-71 marketing year. The loan rate announced recently will continue "one-price" cotton making it possible for U.S. cotton to move in either domestic or export channels without an export payment. The carryover of upland cotton as of August 1, 1970, is expected to fall to the lowest level since 1953. In view of the small carryover, payments will not be offered in 1970 for diverting acreage from cotton. Special provisions for small farmers, however, will be continued. Small farms with allotments of 10 acres or less or with projected production of 3,600 pounds or less, may plant the entire farm allotment and, in addition to the price-support payment on the domestic allotment, receive payment of 11.95 cents per pound on the projected yield of 35 percent of the farm allotment. Previously announced were upland cotton quotas, national and State acreage allotments, national and State projected yields, skip-row planting provisions, the lease and sale of allotments, and the national export market acreage. Payments under the program would be subject to any limitation that might be required by Congress in the Department of Agriculture appropriations.

SPC giving Whiteface students science help

The South Plains College Science Department is working part time with physics students who attend high school at Whiteface. Arrangements are made periodically for these students to come to SPC campus and perform certain experiments in physics that otherwise they may not come in contact with in their regular course work. Mr. Homer McLean, Assistant Professor in Physics, at SPC has been working with these students, setting up equipment in the new physics instrument lab, and helping the students to come to some meaningful conclusions concerning the area of physics. Opportunities for the junior college to aid in the enrichment of science in our area is a welcome opportunity for the Science Department.

Conservation District News

From the Office of BUDD FOUNTAIN

The 1969 crop year has not been as good as others as far as residue production, therefore this should give us more incentive to make the best use of these residues. With proper management these residues should provide excellent protection against our well known West Texas sand storms. Management of crop residues helps to conserve moisture, increase infiltration of rainfall and increase soil organic matter besides providing protection against wind erosion. Many tests have been run on residue management comparing land preparation leaving residues on top and conventional methods destroying all residues. Production on nearly all cases is the same or somewhat higher on land with proper residue management. Due to the residue management operations being less expensive, the net profit per acre is increased. With increased profits as an incentive there is not much reason for us to allow our precious land to be destroyed by wind erosion when simple residue management practices can help solve the problem. A common method for keeping and making good use of residues is to run large sweeps on a chisel plow or stationary tool bar to cut the root system from the residues but leaving the residues on top of the soil to prevent wind erosion and to add organic matter to the soil. We should want to keep these residues because we have put a lot of money into the production of them and they could return some of it in the form of fertilizer or land saved from erosion.

"THE MAN WHO SAVES HIS OWN COTTONSEED"

Let's call him Grower A. He knows what seed production is all about . . . how seed quality insures greater production of higher quality cotton. He produces his seedstock with these elite methods: one variety farm, one variety gin for handling seed cotton, one variety trucking, one variety storage, handles big volume for processing one variety with absolute cleanup at every stage of handling. He knows that seed can be mixed at many points such as the gin or delinting plant and that "varietal mixture", so common with farmer-saved seed, hurts his overall production. Further, he's aware of the genetics and agronomics of seed production.

We salute Grower A. He produces planting seed exactly the way it should be done . . . exactly the way every bag of Johnny Cottonseed is produced. If your seedstock is anything less, you should be concerned. But maybe we can help. If you don't have the time, facilities or desire to go into the seed production business, check into our unique SEED BANK program at your local coop gin or elevator. You can get your choice of varieties in both guaranteed quality and supply. It's a service offered by your own cooperative, Growers Seed Association.

"LABOR IS LIFE"

Carlyle

Let's talk about labor — work, if you please, for that is what labor is. Labor has come a long, long way since ancient times when work was closely related to slavery. Aristotle described a slave as "a tool with life in it." In the Middle Ages, labor gained dignity and respect as slavery declined and Christianity spread. Then, later in the 1700's and 1800's the industrial revolution created conditions that led to the modern labor movements. Today labor has gained respect, wages and working conditions hitherto unknown before.

Labor is life. Work is satisfying. Through his work a man accomplishes, and creates, and provides for himself and his family. When deprived of the opportunity or ability to work, man often becomes depressed, even ill.

I Corinthians 3:9 tells us that "We are laborers together with God." We are His hands, feet, voice, and compassionate heart here on earth to spread the gospel, lift up the poor, eradicate ignorance and destroy disease.

Honor God and Labor this week by attending church.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.
