MHS graduation exercises set

All eyes will be on the youth of Morton Sunday and Tuesday of the coming week as formal Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises are held for the MHS class of 1970.

There are 56 candidates for graduation listed on the commencement program.

Baccalaureate services will be held May 24 beginning at 7:30 p.m. in the county activities building auditorium followed by commencement Tuesday at the same time and place.

Twelve long years of formal schooling will come to an end for the candidates as they march in as students and emerge a short time later as graduates and young men and women ready to make their way in the adult world. Some will undoubtedly plunge into the work-a-day world in an effort to win a place for themselves, while others will strive onward to a higher educational level.

Whichever it is they choose for their future, they will have a proud and affectionate community ready to give any assistance necessary.

The sermon for the Baccalaureate service will be delivered by Mr. Harold Drennan, minister and principal of the Morton elementary school.

The processional will be played by Mrs. Christine Polvado followed by the invocation by Reverend Paul McClung, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Morton. Introduction of speaker will be by Fred Weaver, Morton High School principal.

The benediction will be given by Reverend David Greka, of Saint Anne's Catholic Church, after which Mrs. Polvado will play the recessional.

The seniors this year have chosen as their class motto: "The world is a looking-glass, and gives back to every man the reflection of his own face. Frown at it, and it in turn will look sourly upon you; laugh at it and with it, and it is a jolly, kind companion." The words are by William Makepeace Thackeray.

The class flower is the pink rose, the class song "What is a Youth" and the class colors are orchid and pink.

The Morton High School band playing the processional will begin the commencement exercises at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, followed by the invocation to be given by Reverend Mearl Moore, pastor of the First Missionary Baptist Church of Morton.

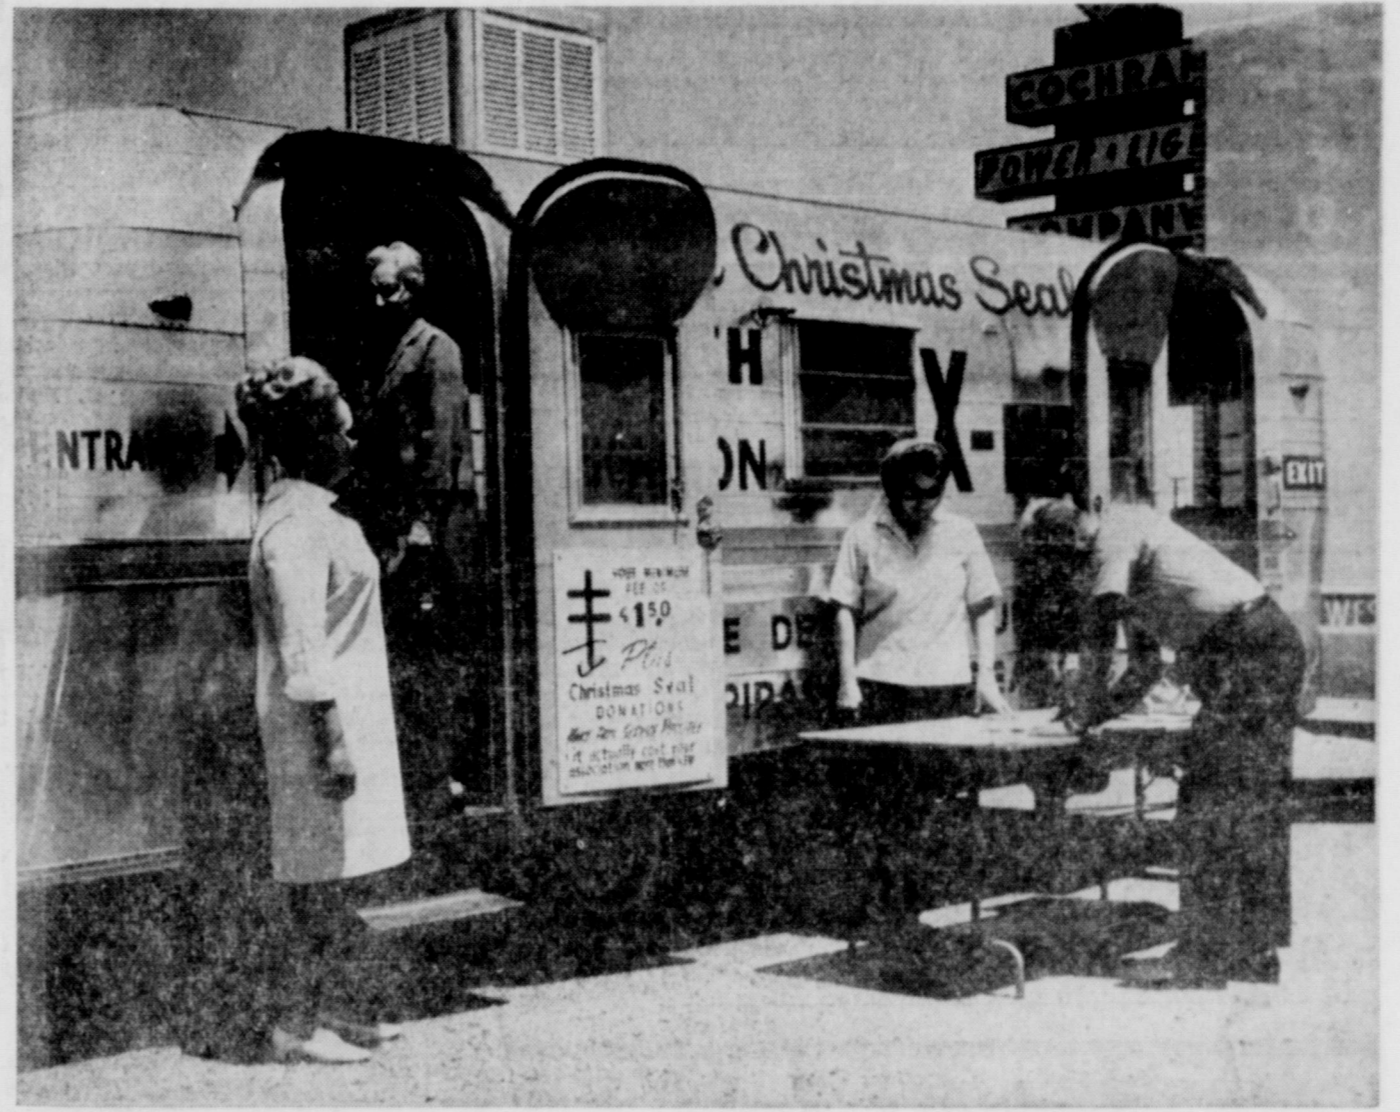

Following the invocation, the Salutatory address will be given by Miss Zoellen Ledbetter, second highest honor graduate of the class.

Following a departure from the traditional commencement exercises in which a prominent outside speaker was always included, the rites will include only class members as major speakers, with student body president J. Wayne McDermitt delivering the class address.

The class song, "What Is A Youth" will next be sung by Ann Townsend, followed by the class president's address by Dennis Clayton. The Valdictory address, delivered by Helen Lynch, highest ranking student in the class, will be next with the presentation of the senior class by Superintendent Bob E. Travis following.

Presentation of diplomas will be by Mr. Don Lynskey, president of the Morton Independent School District Board of Education.

A VALUABLE SERVICE...

IT WAS CHEST X-RAY TIME in Morton again Friday when the mobil unit, operated by the West Texas Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association and sponsored jointly by the Morton Lions Club and the Morton Area Chamber of Commerce, made its annual visit. There was a total of 304 persons photographed this year, more than any previous year. Shown registering for the service is Lloyd Hiner with Mrs. James McClure doing the honors. At far left is Mrs. Dorothy Barker, who assisted inside the unit and entering to have her picture taken is Mrs. Glen Thompson.

Rain slows Little League; Sox lose first to Pirates

By TOMMY O'DAY

Little League play got off to a slow start this past week due to the weather.

On Thursday May 14, the first game of the evening had to be called because of bad weather. No excuse could have kept the Colt 45's from clashing with the Sox in the second game.

Even as rain clouds hung overhead, the Sox and Colts battled, and in the bottom of the seventh inning; thanks to a grand slam home run, hit by Homer Van Hoose, the score was tied. In an extra inning of play, the Sox, pulled ahead by one run to win the nights spoils.

Richard Keuhel, out-pitched Mike Williams, and took his team to victory as the game ended, 11 to 10.

But not to be forgotten, the losing pitcher of that game, Mike Williams, pitched the Sox to victory over the Giants in the first game of Monday night's play. It was a hard-fought battle as the Giants finally sunk out of sight, 8 to 5.

The second game Monday night, saw the Pirates battling the Colt 45's. Troy Patton, pitched his team to victory, as the Pirates were shot out of the saddle by a score of 13 to 4.

Disputes and quick tempers lingered long after this game had ended. Close calls by umpires were questioned, and Coaches were quick to question most every play. General Ruhbarb, prevailed as the game came to an end.

The first game Tuesday night was an old-fashioned Donneybrook. The Cubs, third in the standings, shut down the Cards, in one of the best games of the 304 local residents receive chest x-rays Wednesday, May 13

The mobil X-ray unit arrived in Morton Wednesday morning, May 13. Olin Fryar, X-ray technician from Lubbock, set up shop at 8:30 a.m. and by 6:30 p.m. had completed 304 chest X-rays.

The unit was co-sponsored by the Morton Area Chamber of Commerce and the Lions Club. Members of the L'Allegro Study Club helped with registration.

According to Mrs. Tennie Wall, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, more residents of the County took advantage of the service than on any previous visit by the unit. "We feel one reason we had such good response, was the fact that last year two of our local people were notified that an irregularity existed and rays, these people were successfully treated." Mrs. Wall concluded.

MASTER PERFORMERS...

THE THREE MEMBERS of the Morton schools fifth grade band have turned in top performances in band events recently and were selected to play cornet solo in the band concert presented at the county activities auditorium last Sunday. They recently participated in the Springlake Band Festival in which Morton band members received first division in sight reading and second division in concert. Left to right above are Donnie Campbell, Susan Cadenhead and Robbie Gattis.

Band budget, Headstart head school board meeting agenda

Suspension of the summer Headstart program and a request to more than double the budget for the Morton schools were the main orders of business at the school board meeting Monday night.

Reason for not having the Headstart program during the summer, as explained to the board by Superintendent Bob E. Travis, is due to the fact that a preschool or kindergarten will be offered as a regular part of the school program beginning in the fall. This program, with the chief target the culturally and economically deprived families, becomes mandatory for all schools in Texas as a result of a law passed in the last Legislature.

The Morton summer Headstart program will be assumed by the Hockley County Community Action Committee, Travis told the board.

Morton band director John Stockdale explained to the panel that in recent years the band has used up to $8,500 in borrowed instruments and equipment to participate in area contests and concerts. The increased costs for instruments, music and repairs and the fact that the Morton schools do not have a good inventory of music instruments, makes it mandatory that the budget be increased substantially. He further explained that it would be extremely difficult to maintain the band at its present high standards without an increase in funds.

No action was taken on the band budget. See BAND, Page 4a

County population off 1,240, census figures indicate

Cochran county has lost a total of 1,240 in population over the past decade according to figures released by the Census Bureau this week.

Figures published by the bureau indicate that the count for the county in the now-completed census for 1970 is 5,177 as against an official figure of 6,417 in the 1960 census.

No figure is as yet available on Morton as the district office in Lubbock is not authorized to release the tabulations on towns of less than 10,000 population. No indication was given by Millard Townsend, Cochran and Yoakum county census supervisor, as to when the release on the smaller towns will be made.

Townsend stated that he is not authorized to quote any figures or close estimates due to government regulations, but did say that he expects the final count to show a substantial loss by Morton over

MEMORIES ARE MADE OF THIS
By Helen Lynch, Valdictorian

My schooldays at Morton High School are drawing to a close. But I know that all the activities, teachers, and friends I have met at Morton will always be a treasured memory. Looking back, my twelve years have been filled with excitement, fun, and just a little hard work!

In the first grade at Morton, I remember the very first day of school. The school, and even the kids, looked huge to me. But by the end of the year, I had made friends which would last a lifetime. I even got to play on the boy's baseball team at the end of school picnic!

The biggest thrill from my second grade was the Easter egg hunt at the County Park. A schoolroom of second graders scrambling for Easter eggs may be a funny sight — but to me it was serious business. I knew I had seen those Easter eggs first, but I never quite beat the kids ahead of me to them!

I really got adventurous in the third grade! My friends and I discovered a store right by the school — (off-campus!) Everyday we'd slide along the walls and make a run for the store — we were sneakier than spies. But, eventually, we were caught. Oooh! The Purple People Eater flew down into my life during the fourth grade. I never quite understood why everybody laughed when I sang that song. A purple people eater with a horn in the middle of See MEMORIES, Page 3a

I LEAVE WITH MIXED EMOTIONS
By J. Wayne McDermitt

The last four years of my high school life have been great. Morton High has truly been good to me, not only in activities, but in the academic field as well.

Being a part of a small school has many advantages, the students have an opportunity to get acquainted with each other and the teachers are able to administer individual help.

The teachers care about their students progress and will go out of their way to help those that are interested. I have witnessed this individual help since, unfortunately, during my high school years, I have been ill and if it were not for the teachers, principal and the councilor, it would have been impossible for me to make up my work. For this help, I shall always honor and respect these people.

Morton High has helped prepare me for college and the teaching I have received will make my future brighter.

I have had the opportunity to be a major part of the school, by serving as Student Council President, and because of this work, I know what a great job the faculty and administration are doing.

I will leave Morton High with mixed emotions, sad that I am leaving and yet proud to have been a part of such a great school.

REFLECTIONS

BY Zoellen Ledbetter, Salutatorian

As I look around my room and see all the seemingly endless tasks which must be completed before graduation next Tuesday night, I wonder if there is not more to school than book reports, homework and headaches.

But, I do not wonder for long because before me is a bulletin board loaded with memories. Memories of wonderful days spent with wonderful friends. Homecoming coronations, Christmas parties, football and basketball games, Junior-Senior banquets, and now, graduation parties have all made my years in Morton High School four of the most meaningful years of my life.

Of course, there is more to high school than studying and parties. There are lasting friendships to be made, friendships which will be remembered always and which will have a special place in my heart.

Some of these friendships are with teachers. Teachers who are interested in me and my problems and not in how much they can drill into my head in 180 days.

I shall say good-bye to high school Tuesday night, but I cannot, nor would

Zoellen Ledbetter

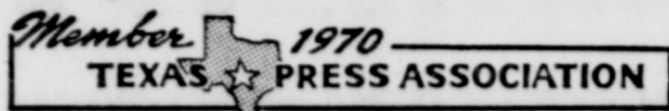

I, say good-bye forever. There are too many memories which will bind me to Morton High School eternally.

Post office proposes postal rate increase

The Post Office Department is proposing parcel post and catalog rate increases totaling $123 million to help meet the added costs of pay increases in recent years.

The proposed increases — which average 15.4 percent for parcels and 6 percent for catalogs — must be approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission before adoption by the Department.

Facing a $2.5 billion revenue deficit in the coming fiscal year, the Administration recently asked the Congress to increase postage rates for first and third class mail 33 percent and second-class by 48 percent.

Higher parcel post rates (zone-rated fourth-class mail) are also needed to comply with legal requirements that these services pay at least 96 percent of their allocated costs.

No increase has been asked for educational materials (packages containing books and phonograph records).

Under the proposals, minimum postage for parcels mailed for local delivery would be increased from 50 cents to 60 cents.

For non-local deliveries, the minimum per parcel rate would go from 60 cents to 65 cents. This 5-cent increase would apply on 2-pound parcels going to non-local zones 1 and 2 (distances up to 150 miles).

Some typical proposed rate hikes are as follows: a 5-pound parcel from Chicago to New York or other Seaboard cities in the Middle Atlantic States, from $1.05 to $1.20; an 8-pound parcel going from East Coast cities to West Coast points (zone 8), from $2.15 to $2.60; and 11-pound parcel for local delivery, from 65 cents to 80 cents.

The Department estimates that for 46 percent of its parcel post volume, the increases would amount to 5 or 10 cents per package.

Catalog rates will be increased a flat 2 cents per piece, both for individual-piece and bulk-rate mailings.

To compensate for the extra costs of hard-to-handle, parcels, the Department is requesting a 75-cent per-piece surcharge on parcels more than 36 inches long, or over 84 inches in combined length and girth. This would replace the 10-pound minimum charge now in effect for "loon" parcels.

The proposal, published in today's Federal Register, invites interested parties to file written statements with the Department by May 25, and participate in an informal conference in Washington scheduled for June 1.

After consideration of the views submitted, the Department plans to submit its final proposals to the Interstate Commerce Commission in June for new rates.

The effective date of any increase would depend upon ICC action. If Commission takes no action for 30 days the proposals would be approved automatically.

However, ICC can elect to institute investigation of the Department's proposal. In that event, that agency has days from the June filing date to report to the Post Office Department. The law requires the Postmaster General to certify to the Secretary of the Treasury that fourth-class mail is breaking even (within 4 percent) or that he has requested the ICC to approve rate changes or other reformations which would place service on a self-sustaining basis.

Full schedule of the proposed rates available to interested mailers for their consideration. These are subject to change and the final schedules submitted to may reflect revisions.

Miss Hatti Kilgore, Director, Research and Educational Department, Consumer Products Division of Kerr Glass Manufacturing Corp., Sand Springs, Oklahoma, will conduct a preservation demonstration at 1:30 p.m. June 5, in the County Activity Building Banquet Room. The public is invited, no admission will be charged.

The demonstration will be the actual canning of a vegetable, tomatoes and fruits, showing the recommended procedure for preparation and processing of the products.

Emphasis will be placed on the proper selection, preparation and processing of vegetables, fruit and tomatoes, also, the "do's and don'ts of canning as well as answers to many canning questions and problems that home canners may have.

A vegetable will be canned, using the hot and cold pack methods of preparation and the important steps in processing in the pressure cooker.

Tomatoes and one or two fruits will be canned using the Boiling Water Bath Method of processing. Emphasis will be given to this method and reasons why it should be used for fruits and tomatoes.

Other points to be discussed include the Open Kettle Method for jams, jellies and pickles, a discussion on freezing methods, and a question and answer session.

Miss Kilgore is widely known for her preservation demonstrations, as they are informative and practical as well as interesting and entertaining.

the ten year period. This is indicated by the large number of vacant houses encountered during the count, he said.

Preliminary figures showed Lubbock and Levelland as the only two larger towns who gained population during the period. These two gained substantially while the other major towns in the Lubbock district's 17-county area were losing people, Bill McCasland, district manager for the bureau, stated.

Population for five other cities in the Lubbock district is as follows:

- Lamesa: (1970) 11,401; (1960) 12,348. Plainview: (1970) 18,664; (1960) 18,735. Levelland: (1970) 11,386; (1960) 10,153. Midland: (1970) 58,199; (1960) 62,625. Snyder: (1970), 10,722; (1960) 13,850.

Tabulations for smaller towns will be released by the U.S. Census Bureau later in the year.

However, preliminary figures for 17 counties are as follows:

- Andrews: (1970) 10,217; (1960) 13,450. Cochran: (1970) 850; (1960) 1,076. Borden: (1970) 5,177; (1960) 6,417. Crosby: (1970) 8,791; (1960) 10,347. Dawson: (1970) 16,321; (1960) 19,185. Floyd: (1970) 10,582; (1960) 12,369. Gaines: (1970) 11,575; (1960) 12,267. Garza: (1970) 5,254; (1960) 6,811. Hale: (1970) 33,374; (1960) 36,798. Lubbock: (1970) 175,757; (1960) 156,271. Lynn: (1970) 8,829; (1960) 10,914. Martin: (1970) 4,592; (1960) 5,068. Midland: (1970) 64,168; (1960) 67,717. Scurry: (1970) 15,115; (1960) 20,369. Terry: (1970) 14,239; (1960) 16,286. Yoakum: (1970) 7,332; (1960) 8,032.

These city and county figures, McCasland emphasized, still are preliminary totals, and are subject to later — but probably minor — revisions when U.S. Census Bureau computers process all data.

McCasland, who operates a cotton gin during the ginning season, said he had expected all the rural communities to experience a drop in population because of mechanization on farms and ranches.

Also, he said, the oil economy in the area has been depressed for the last several years.

Not included within the Lubbock office's jurisdiction are several other thriving area towns such as Hereford, in Deaf Smith County; and Big Spring, in Howard County.

young season, 9 to 6.

Robert Randolph out-pitched Craig Kirby, in a game that couldn't be beat for pure baseball. Nice game boys! The Cards rallied late in the game but didn't generate the momentum they needed to win.

The second game of Tuesday evening was a real cliff-hanger. The Sox undaunted up until now, were sent home, mourning their first loss, by the Pirates.

The Pirates, number four in the standings, blew the hats off the Sox, in an over-time explosion. Ricky Dunn and Mike Parsons were the winning pitchers for the Pirates. The pitchers for the Sox, Steve Polvado and Richard Keuhler, couldn't "muster" enough "pazzz" to silence the Pirate's guns. The Pirates went home happy with the score 12 to 11.

Despite wins and losses, heartbreaks and happiness, rubbarbs and rough play, they can always look forward to another ball game.

MORTON MINOR LEAGUE

Friday, May 15, saw the minor league play it's first games of the season. Three games were reeled off that evening.

The first saw the Giants knock out the Orioles, 21 to 19. The Sox rallied and managed to finish ahead of the Mets, 19 to 17 in the second a War-whoop, went up as the Indians defeated the Yankees 23 to 5 in the nightcap.

Food stamp program said stimulating Texas economy

Major expansion of the Food Stamp Program announced in January has affected Texas. Latest figures show that food stamps valuing more than $2.5 million are spent by Texas limited-income households monthly.

The program has been implemented in 11 counties and 20 more are in the process of establishing a food stamp program.

The families buy a certain amount of federal food coupons (food stamps) each month. The U.S. Department of Agriculture then provides additional coupons to increase the family's food buying power. About 75 percent of the coupons are free.

All Texas counties should have food stamp or donated food programs by June 30, according to State Department of Public Welfare officials who administer the distribution of both programs.

The Texas Agricultural Extension Service coordinates county educational programs to help families use food stamps and commodity foods provide nutritionally adequate meals. These families are among those enrolled in Extension's Expanded Nutrition Program.

The Texas Agricultural Extension Service coordinates county educational programs to help families use food stamps and commodity foods provide nutritionally adequate meals. These families are among those enrolled in Extension's Expanded Nutrition Program.

The Texas State Nutrition Council asked the Extension Service to act as county coordinator of the educational programs in wise use of donated foods and food stamps. Home demonstration agents were asked to work with other agencies and groups on these programs.

Agents train leaders to work with the families. Mrs. Florence Low, assistant director for home economics, said, Leaders learn to give food demonstrations, conduct workshops and group meetings and make home visits. The leaders then work with families in the two programs.

Food stamps are used like cash in local stores authorized to accept them. They can be used only to purchase food.

Five Texas counties — Montgomery, Chambers, Parker, Wharton and Brazoria — soon will establish the program. The Food Stamps Program now operates in areas of Houston, San Antonio, Bryan, Ft. Worth, El Paso and Big Bend of West Texas.

In the commodity food program, low income persons receive about $14 a month worth of food such as flour, cornmeal, canned juice, cheese and canned meat.

According to existing plans, the Food Stamp Program will replace donated foods, said E. W. Kuykendall, assistant director for Commodity Distribution Division, Austin.

Heart attack in auto can spell triple trouble

Triple trouble may befall the person who suffers a heart attack while driving his car. His woes may include not only the heart attack itself, not only the accident that might follow, but even legal liability for any injuries he happens to inflict upon somebody else.

When will the law impose liability on such a person? Generally speaking, when he had reason to foresee the likelihood of a heart attack (or some other sudden disability). Anyone who takes the wheel under these circumstances is committing an affirmative act of negligence.

For example:
A MAN WENT for a drive, even though he had a severe, chronic cardiac condition. He did suffer a heart attack, did collide with another car, and did cause injury to the other driver. And, in due course, a court held him responsible for the injury. Reason: he should have avoided the accident by not driving in the first place.

On the other hand, courts usually say that a first-time disability, coming "out of the blue," is not grounds for liability.

Thus, in another case, a court refused to impose liability for an accident on a driver who had blacked out for the first time in his life. One court even classified as unavoidable an accident caused by a sneeze, when the man didn't have the slightest warning that the sneeze was coming.

In one unusual case, a man headed down a steep hill in spite of the fact that he knew his brakes were in bad condition. When the car began to roll out of control, he became so frightened that he fainted.

DID HIS SUDDEN fainting excuse him from responsibility for the collision that took place at the bottom of the hill?

No, ruled a court, holding him liable. The court pointed out that while the man could not be blamed for fainting, he could indeed be blamed for starting downhill with bad brakes. It was that original act of negligence, said the judge, that set the stage for disaster.

at the meeting.

In other business, the board appointed E. C. Hale, Joe Beseda and Harold Reynolds to sit as a board of equalization on school tax matters for the 1970 tax year.

Letters of resignation by Mrs. Winnie L. Holloway and Mrs. Cammie Jackson were accepted and Mrs. Ted Whillock was granted a one year leave of absence from her teaching position.

The following 13 student transfers into the Morton district from other districts were approved:

Nan Ray, Tonya J. Hodge, Curtis Duane Hodge, Ralph Allan Mason, Kathy Renee Mason, Judy Lynette Mason, Nancy Anne Courtney, Travis Owens, Sherry Owens, Trisa Owens, Jaye Linn Greer, Janna Leigh Greer and Roney McCall.

A recommendation by Travis that the district continue its contract with the Education Media Center in Lubbock to assist in obtaining federal funds under Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act, was favorably received and passed unanimously.

The board, acting as a body, made an inspection of the athletic field house for the purpose of determining what repairs or remodeling was necessary in order to keep it in service for a few more years. No action was taken at this time and the matter will be taken up at a later date.

Presentation of some problems facing school financing and a discussion of local fund assignments, by Supt. Travis, wound up the meeting.

J. Dukes Wooters Jr. named V-P of Cotton Producers Institute

J. Dukes Wooters, Jr., who has been a top official with Reader's Digest, will become executive vice president and general manager of Cotton Producers Institute, assuming full-time administrative duties on June 15.

In announcing the appointment, CPI President Howard Alford, Lubbock, Texas, said Mr. Wooters will head up a staff to carry out consumer and technical research for cotton. CPI is financed through grower payments of $1 per bale under the search and market development activities Cotton Research and Promotion Act.

Employment of Mr. Wooters follows a year-long study which concluded that CPI should have its own full-time management and staff. Previously, CPI had utilized the staff and facilities of the National Cotton Council.

Mr. Wooters, 52, had been with Reader's Digest since 1956 and was executive assistant to the company's chief executive officer.

He joined the staff as an executive sales representative in New York, served as associate advertising director, marketing director, general manager of the home entertainment and education division, and executive assistant to the executive vice president.

During 1969 he was managing director of the Reader's Digest Brazilian edition in Rio de Janeiro.

He was sales supervisor with Time and Life magazines before joining the Digest and earlier was a sales representative with Hearst Publications.

Mr. Wooters is a graduate of Lehigh University where he majored in business administration and of the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration where he was a marketing major. In World War II he rose from a private to a captain in the Army Quartermaster Corps. He lives in New Canaan, Conn.

Accent on health

"Caution" is the word to remember when you or a member of your family encounter a poisonous snake. A person's fear of snakes could well be his worst enemy in an actual encounter with any one of the four poisonous snakes found in Texas: the rattlesnake, copperhead, cottonmouth, and coral snakes. The most prevalent in Texas is the rattlesnake.

Should you encounter a rattler, the safest thing to do is to remain perfectly still or edge slowly away. The worst thing you could do is run, or shout, or make a quick motion. You only excite the snake, making it more apt to strike in self defense.

Actually, more people die of insect bites in Texas than snake bites. Some 46 persons died of insect bites over the past ten years, compared to only 31 deaths from snake bites. But snake bite deaths are most frequent among the young and old.

The wise outdoorsman will avoid places where a snake may make a home. Walking in weedy areas with brush piles or thick undergrowth is asking a snake to lash out. Don't assume that a snake will shake its rattles as a signal of attack, or that it only strikes when coiled.

In applying first aid for snakebite, make the victim lie down as soon as possible and apply a constricting bandage above the bite. The pulse in blood vessels below the bandage should not disappear, nor should the bandage produce a throbbing sensation. Loosen the bandage for a few seconds every 15 minutes. If possible, apply ice packs to the bite and get the victim to a physician or hospital.

If there is going to be a lengthy interval until antivenin can be given, make cuts cautiously through the skin into and just above the presumed venom deposit site, avoiding tendons, and apply suction. Antivenin for coral snake bites is available through the Texas Health Department. The State Health Department laboratory in Austin, and laboratories in local health departments at Dallas, Houston, Corpus Christi, and San Antonio, serve as distribution centers for the antivenin. When a bite by a coral snake occurs, the physician or hospital should immediately request antivenin from the nearest distribution center. Other poisonous antivenins are available through commercial sources.

To the People of Cochran County:

I want to come before you regarding my candidacy for County Judge and Ex-Officio School Superintendent.

I have lived in Cochran County for 35 years. I am 58 years of age, I have been a member of several different commissioner's courts here in Cochran County. I served as a commissioner member, then as County Judge and chairman. I have always been able to keep harmony on the commissioner's court and to have a working and productive court for Cochran County. I feel it most important for the benefit of all, that the County Judge help each commissioner with his problems and to work for the progress of all the county.

I feel that I am qualified to do these things now, and to cope with the problems that may arise these next four years. We are going to have to work, work if we keep Cochran County in its rightful place.

I am familiar and have worked with all the state agencies in Austin, such as the Highway Commission, Comptrollers Office, Texas Education Agency, State Dept. of Public Welfare, Attorney General's Office, etc.

I will appreciate your support in the upcoming election on June 6th. Let's turn out and vote then.

COTTON TALKS

FROM PLAINS COTTON GROWERS, INC.

Friday May 15 closed out the 25th consecutive week that has gone by the boards in Washington since the Cotton Subcommittee of the House Committee on Agriculture began hearings on a cotton program for 1971 and subsequent years. And it is now an odds-on bet that the half-year mark will roll past before Administration officials and Subcommittee members reach agreement.

Following the last futile meeting of the Subcommittee May 13, Chairman Thomas Abernethy returned to his Mississippi District. He will not be back in Washington until Tuesday, May 19. So the earliest the Subcommittee might reconvene would be on May 20. Assuming they could come to terms almost immediately, which doesn't appear likely, the full House Agriculture Committee still would be hard pressed to act on a farm bill and get it to the floor of the House before early June.

A significant step toward agreement on a cotton law was made several weeks ago when the Administration conceded that the total amount of money to be spent on cotton each year in 1971, 1972 and 1973 would equal the amount spent in 1970, about $840 million. But the big question since that time has revolved around how the total would be disbursed — on how many acres, on what yields per acre, etc.

Looking after the interests of producers, the Subcommittee is insisting that the language sent to the full Ag Committee will guarantee producers at least $840 million in each of the three years. The Administration is just as concerned that the wording agreed upon will guarantee that program cost will not go over $840 million.

The Administration strongly favors basing the amount of price support payments to producers on the difference between the average market price and 35 cents per pound. And with the average market price being an unknown factor, it is difficult at best for either side to accurately determine the ultimate total to be paid out.

Under these conditions it is easy to see how the present impasse was reached. Cotton producers and other industry people can only hope that the deadlock can be broken before it is too late for passage of a cotton program during this session of Congress.

Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. has received and is considering requests for financial grants-in-aid totaling over $64,000 to support cotton production research on the High Plains, including projects ranging from weed control to chemical and biological manipulation of cotton plant growth.

The PCG Research Committee, with Don Jones of Lubbock and Ray Joe Riley of Hart as co-Chairmen, accepted written summaries and heard oral presentations of each research project May 5 in Lubbock. Jones, now retired, is a former Superintendent of the Texas A & M Research and Extension Center north of Lubbock. Riley is a well known cotton farmer and seed breeder and current Vice President of the 25,000 member PCG. There are 14 other committee members from the six geographically balanced PCG districts.

Financial aid for seven research projects totaling $46,575 were received from the Texas A & M Research and Extension Center, for a single project from the Agricultural Experiment Station at Bushland to cost $5,000, for one project costing $5,000 from Texas Tech University, and for three studies costing a total of $7,250 from the High Plains Research Foundation at Halfway.

Committee Chairman Riley said it is unfortunate that PCG doesn't have sufficient funds to fully support all requests. "But with limited funds we will have to judge and assign priority to each request on its merits, primarily in terms of the potential dollar return to our growers."

The PCG fiscal year is from July 1 to June 30 each year and a decision on research grants will be made by the Board prior to June 30 this year.

Pesticide problems under state scrutiny

An intensified pesticide monitoring program to define any existing problems in the State of Texas caused by the use of chemicals in agricultural production is being developed by the Texas Department of Agriculture, Commissioner John C. White reports.

Brooke Tidswell III, a graduate of the College of Agriculture and Environmental Science at Rutgers University, is helping initiate the program.

In the program, TDA also began operating its new Pesticide Residue Laboratory in Brenham in October, 1969, with the primary purpose of testing crops for harmful residue. White's agency also operates a mobile pesticide residue testing laboratory seasonally in vegetable production areas of Texas.

Other functions of the developing program on agricultural-environmental matters, Commissioner White said, will include a study of ways to prevent and reduce pollution caused by animal wastes.

Tidswell, a native of Mount Holly, N.J., and a Navy veteran, came to TDA early this year as an administrative technician in environmental studies. He was discharged from the Navy in 1969 as a lieutenant (jg).

Forest Service will institute fee system beginning May 25

The U. S. Department of Agriculture's Forest Service announced today that a user fee system for designated National Forest recreation areas would go into effect May 25.

Southwestern Regional Forester Wm. D. Hurst said the Forest Service fee system, patterned after the Golden Eagle renewed by Congress, would include a $7 annual permit and one-day fees for specific areas ranging from $1 to $2 per car load. They will be available at all Forest Service offices.

Expecting momentary renewal of the national fee system by Congress, the Forest Service dropped all charges when the last annual permit expired March 31. "It now appears there may be an additional delay before a new national permit is adopted," Hurst said.

He noted that should the new recreation permit bill now before Congress become law, the Forest Service permit would be recognized at all Federal facilities including National Parks and Monuments or could be exchanged for the new permit. "Until then the Forest Service annual permit will be good only in the National Forests," Hurst said.

Recreation sites where the permit or daily fees are required will be clearly posted. The $1 daily fee will be most common. Only where special services are provided will the $2 fee be used. As in the past there will be special rates for large groups.

Lions 2-T-2 District convention changed

A streamlined one-day Lions International District 21-2 annual convention, quickly arranged to replace this weekend's cancelled conclave, was announced today for Saturday, May 23 by Lions District Governor Clyde K. Schneider and Convention Chairman John W. Lowery, both of Lubbock.

All business sessions, luncheon, and the Queen's Contest have been relocated and are to be held at Monterey High School during the condensed Saturday, May 23 event.

Critical motel-hotel needs of swarms of surance survey teams, and other disaster workers yesterday's cancellation of the original May 14-15-16 program.

May 23rd registration will begin at 8 a.m. in the Monterey High School auditorium lobby. Other rapid-succession program highlights continue with an 8:30-till-12 noon business session in the Monterey High School Auditorium. From 12 until 1:30, there is to be a luncheon with a speaker. Forums will be conducted from 1:30 till 2:30 p.m.

Election of district officers is slated for 2:30-3:30 p.m. A necrology ceremony honoring deceased Lions is planned for 4-4:30 p.m.

Forty four contestants representing the District's 63 clubs, will compete for the Lions Queen title, beginning with registration from 8 to 9:30 a.m. and concluding with the contest at 5 p.m. in the specially-decorated auditorium. Lack of overnight facilities and dining accommodations had prevented plans for the regular District Governor's banquet and ball following.

Change of convention date to Saturday, May 23 forced cancellation of both the traditional golf and bowling tournaments.

The compact 10½ hour convention program is a first for District 2T-2 Lions, an aftermath of Lubbock's worst natural disaster.

Mrs. Fields installs Whiteface officers

The Whiteface Study Club met May 5 at 7:30 p.m. to install new officers for the 1970-71 club year. Officers installed were President, Mrs. Royce Elam; first vice president, Mrs. S. J. Bills; second vice president, Mrs. Marshall Cooper; recording secretary, Mrs. Wendell Dunlap; treasurer, Mrs. Marvin Lasater; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Carroll Lanier; parliamentarian, Mrs. John Fietz; reporter, Mrs. R. K. McCoy; historian, Mrs. Sam Rankin. Conducting installation was Mrs. Cy Fields of Morton.

A salad supper was enjoyed by the club followed by the farewell address of outgoing president, Mrs. Vern Beebe.

The club pressbook was presented by historian, Mrs. Marshall Cooper, and viewed by members of the club. Several items of business were discussed and the meeting was adjourned.

Club members in attendance were Mme Vern Beebe, S. J. Bills, Marshall Cooper, Wendell Dunlap, Royce Elam, John Fietz, Carroll Lanier, Marvin Lasater, J. W. Smith, R. K. McCoy, Sam Rankin, James Sinclair, Jack French.

Miss Allsup-Jimmy Roddy exchange vows in Houston

Miss Donna Joe Allsup and Jimmy Harold Roddy exchanged wedding vows Saturday, April 4, in the Forrest Oaks Baptist Church in Houston. The Rev. Worth Huitt officiated.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Don L. Allsup of Denver City and Mr. and Mrs. Ercell A. Roddy of Morton.

Given in marriage by her ather, the bride wore a formal empire style gown of ivory bridal satin featuring a chapel length train. The scalloped stand-up neckline, bodice and petal point sleeves were accented with Alencon lace motifs. Her bouffant veil of illusion was attached to a lace headpiece accented with seed pearls. The bridal bouquet was of pink rose buds and pink and white carnations complimented by white lace streamers and English ivy.

Miss Linda Rose of Houston attended the bride as main of honor. Mrs. Darlene Williams, sister of the groom from Morton and Mrs. Jill Williams of Lubbock were brides-matrons. They wore formal empire gowns of pink floral voile and picture hats of pink organza and carried small white baskets of pink and white carnations with ivy accents.

Mike Ferrell of Houston was bestman and groomsmen were Kenneth Williams, brother-in-law of the groom of Morton, and Rhodney Williams, of Lubbock.

Brothers of the bride and groom, Ronnie Allsup and Jerel Roddy, served as candlelighters and ushers.

Wedding selections were "I Love You Truly" and "I'll Walk with God" were presented by Mrs. Bob Simmons of Houston.

A reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the Church following the ceremony.

Both the bride and groom are graduates of Morton High School. The bride attended South Plains College and Texas Tech University and is employed by TRW Controls, Inc. in Houston. Roddy attended South Plains College and is employed by Gulf Oil Company in Houston.

Guests attending the wedding from Morton were Mrs. Joe Sengler, Mrs. Wiley Hodge, Ricky and Kristi, Mrs. Charles Taylor and Richard and Loy Williams.

"It is of vital concern for all of us, as stewards of the soil in our own right as taxpayers and consumers of the land's bounty, to pay careful and deliberate attention to the opportunities and responsibilities bearing upon the future course of natural resources management and of the individual and public welfare tied in so closely with these resources." Seven-Step Cotton Program objectives said still sound

Though there have been many changes in practices and methods over the 24-year period since the 7-Step Cotton Program was initiated by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, its basic objectives are still very sound.

Last year, Fred C. Elliott, Extension cotton specialist, said that more than 47,200 farmers used cotton in their balanced farming program and followed other recommendations outlined in production guides and planned county programs.

Machines and chemicals continue to be vitally important to growers in cost-cutting, Elliott said. Almost half of last year's acreage was treated with pre-emergence chemicals for weed and grass control. After the crop was up and growing, were used to keep weeds and grass under control; thus largely eliminating hand hoeing, he noted.

As harvest season approached, chemicals again were used as defoliants or desiccants to get fields in condition for mechanical harvesting. More than 51,000 farmers, he noted, used harvest-aid chemicals.

Then came the army of strippers and mechanical pickers to do the harvesting job. An estimated 39,675 strippers were used to harvest 73 percent of the state's 1969 production while 5,762 mechanical pickers accounted for another 25 percent. Thus, 98 percent of last year's production was harvested with machines, he said.

Elliott took a backwards look at what has happened to per acre cotton lint yields in Texas for the last 90 years. From 1880 until the boll weevil hit in 1901, yield averaged over 200 pounds per acre. In 1901 it dropped to 148 pounds and only twice from then until 1946, when the 7-Step Program started, did yearly averages exceed 200 pounds per acre.

The all-time record yield was posted in 1968 at 410 pounds per acre with a 408 average in 1965. Over the last 20 years, he noted, yields have trended upward. This period, he also noted, has seen the most rapid advances made in using research findings and demonstration results.

The veteran cotton specialist credits many changes for the improved yield picture. Soil testing and fertilizer use, rotation systems, improved varieties, better cultural practices, more effective insect control programs, development of more effective chemicals for weed and grass control and larger and better machines and equipment; to name a few. Irrigation has also been a heavy contributor in many areas.

But, he added, it has been the cotton farmer's acceptance of the new ideas which have been of utmost importance. We're doing the production job a great deal differently from just a few years ago and the pace of change is not expected to slow much in the future, he predicted.

Often termed the largest North American land bird, the California Condor is facing extinction. The most recent survey revealed that only 50 are left.

Kathy Hicks receives Readers Digest award

Kathy Hicks, valedictorian of the graduating class at Three-Way High School, has been given the Annual Award of The Reader's Digest Association for students who by their successful school work give promise of attaining leadership in the community, it was announced today by Mr. Joel Parsons, principal.

Miss Hicks will receive an honorary one-year subscription to The Reader's Digest in any one of its 13 language-editions which she chooses, and a personal certificate from the Editors "in recognition of past accomplishments and in anticipation of unusual achievement to come."

The Reader's Digest Association is pre-community, it was announced today by sending these awards in senior high schools throughout the United States to the highest honor student of the graduating class.

The award to Miss Hicks, who is the daughter of Mrs. Marie Hicks of Maple, Texas, was made possible through the cooperation of Mr. Parsons and his teaching staff. They selected Miss Hicks to receive the award, designed to stimulate scholarship, citizenship, and continued contact with good reading after graduation.

Production analysis indicates future for swine on Plains

Recent developments in swine production have resulted in a rapid expansion of the swine industry in certain sections of Texas, especially in the Plains area.

Advances in production technology and favorable prices have caused many farm operators to consider swine as a possible supplemental enterprise in their farming operation, according to research and extension economists at Texas A&M University.

A study just released as PR-2756 by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station analyzes the economics of swine enterprises in the Plains area of Texas, dealing principally with partial confinement systems. Graduate Students W. R. Masch and J. M. Spratt in A&M's Department of Agricultural Economics and Sociology made the study.

They point out if a farm operator has the management ability and available capital, the addition of a swine enterprise can provide a means for maintaining or perhaps increasing his net income.

The researchers have provided in the publication detailed budgets on investment costs and returns under different conditions, emphasizing the importance of good management in the operation of a hog business. They conclude that an "above average" manager can profitably produce hogs in the Plains areas as long as the price of Number 1 and 2 barrows and gilts exceed 18 cents per pound and milo prices are below $2.00 per hundredweight. On the other hand, "average" management as defined in the study would need a price of three cents per pound more for hogs marketed to show a profit under the same system.

They looked at hog prices over a period of 16 years and found that the price of 18 cents per pound occurred 94 percent of the time over a recent four year period, but only about 50 percent of the time over the 16 years studied.

The authors estimate that a total investment of $600 or more per sow is required for a partial confinement farrow to finish system in the Plains areas. For a 120-sow system, fixed cost is estimated at $2.13 and variable cost at $15.28 for a total of $17.41 per hundred weight of hogs marketed. This should yield, they say, an estimated annual return to management of $7,600, basing the price of Number 1 and 2 hogs at $18.75 per hundredweight.

The authors point out that this is the first report in a project designed to estimate the economic importance of hogs in Texas under the different conditions which exist and is based upon information obtained from Plains growers during 1962.

Copies of the Progress Report are available from the Department of Agricultural Information, Texas A&M University, College Station, Texas 77843 or from area Extension Service farm management specialists. Local county agricultural agents can also assist interested persons in obtaining a copy.

LeFleur Garden Club show held Saturday

The LeFleur Garden Club held their 5th annual Placement Show "Mind Over Matter" Saturday, May 16, in the home of Mrs. Roy Hill.

Arrangements depicting "Moon Magic," "Romance of the Moon," "Moon Exploration," "Man's Triumph" and "What Next" were categories used.

"Moon Magic" and "Romance of the Moon" were traditional arrangements and First Place winners were Mrs. Olan Darland and Mrs. Don Samford.

"What Next" were abstract arrangements with Mrs. E. R. Fincher as First Place winner. Mrs. Samford won the Best of Show award.

In the Horticulture Division winners of First Place ribbons were Mrs. Samford, Mrs. L. Z. Scoggins, Mrs. W. A. Woods, Mrs. Roy Hill, Mrs. Fincher, Mrs. Darland. Mrs. Hill won an award of merit on larkspur.

Mrs. Samford won an award of merit on Dutch Iris and sweepstakes for most blue ribbons of the show.

Guests were received from 2 till 5 p.m. and refreshments were served.

The last club meeting of the year will be a salad supper and installation of officers by Mrs. Murry Crone May 21 at 8 p.m. at the Museum Ground.

Pep Naval aviator receives commission

It has been suggested that homemakers try a new twist on food shopping. Take two grocery carts through the super market — in one, put food products — in the other, non-food items. Total the bills separately. The idea may not be too practical but it will point up what's really being paid for food and might stop complaints about "high" food prices. It is estimated that more than 20% of the items in grocery carts are not food items but non-food products.

Miss Ledbetter, Billy Smart exchange double ring vows

Miss Margaret Lois Ledbetter and Billy Lynn Smart exchanged double ring wedding vows at 6 p.m. Saturday, May 16, in the First United Methodist Church. The Rev. Kenneth Wayatt, Northwest Texas Conference Evangelist from Tulia, officiated the ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Judge and Mrs. M. C. Ledbetter and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Smart.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal length gown of candlelight peau de soie with lace appliques and chapel train. Her veil, an heirloom of silk illusion and hand-applied lace fell shoulder length. It was made by the bride's grandmother, the late Mrs. J. A. Gowdy, and was worn by the bride's three older sisters at the time of their weddings. The bridal bouquet was a cascade of white rose buds and ivy on a pearl covered Bible.

Miss Zoellen Ledbetter, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Miss Donna Hofman of Bell Ranch, N.M. and Miss Sharon Irwin of Grand Falls were bridesmaids. They wore formal length gowns of avacodo green silk featuring empire waist and short trains. They wore picture hats of green silk organza and carried colonial nosegays of yellow daffodils and ivy with green and yellow ribbon streamers.

Dick Vanlandingham served as best man and Wayne Thompson and Lamell Abbe were groomsmen.

Danny McCasland and Ronnie Windom were ushers.

Wedding selections were presented by Mrs. Earl Polvado, organist and Mrs. James Walker, pianist. They accompanied Mrs. Clyde Brownlow, sister of the bride, of Amherst, who sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Guests were registered by Mrs. Charles Ledbetter, sister-in-law of the bride.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents.

The bride's table was overlaid with a lace cloth over green and was centered with an arrangement of white peonies and yellow roses. A three-tiered wedding cake and punch were served from crystal appointments. The groom's table was covered with yellow linen and featured a silver coffee service and dark Hershey cake. The centerpiece was yellow iris.

Members of the houseparty were: Mrs. Joe Slack, Archer City, Mrs. Lonnie Hamilton, Mrs. John Crowder, Mrs. Neal Rose, Mrs. Joe Nicewarner, Mrs. Lloyd Miller and Misses Dana Webb and Barbara Brook.

Alternating at the serving table were sisters of the bride, Mrs. Loy Kern, Mrs. Clyde Brownlow, Mrs. Glen Kuehler and Miss Zoellen Ledbetter.

Rice bags were distributed by the couples nieces: Rachael Kern, Holly Kern, Amy Brownlow, Ronette Smart and Sheribob Taylor.

For a wedding trip to Ruidoso, N.M., El Paso and Mexico, the bride traveled in a costume suit of beige and brown linen with matching accessories. After June 1, the couple will be at home at 3205 33rd St. in Lubbock.

The bride and groom are both graduates of Morton High School and Juniors at Texas Tech University. She is employed in the Texas Tech law library and he is with United Super Markets of Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Marina honored with dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Marina honored their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marina, with a dinner in their home Sunday, May 17.

Out of town guests attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Julian Masso and family and Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Masso and family of Plainview, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Masso of Brownfield, Mr. and Mrs. George Masso and Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Malouf of Hereford, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Issac and Mrs. Victor Issac of Muleshoe, Mr. George Malouf, Mr. Gary Smead and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Graves of Lubbock. Guests from Morton were Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Graves and Mr. and Mrs. Junior Linder.

Comments on Conservation

By Wayne Wilcox

The livestock auctions on the plains were busy last week. Cattle pulled off small grain fields, were sold by the thousands. The cattle ended up in feed lots, slaughter houses, and on native and improved pastures. How do the small grain fields look? They vary all the way from being grazed into the ground to having 3,000 to 4,000 pounds of growth not used. Which is best? For continued production, leaving 3,000 to 4,000 pounds is best. This amount will help feed the soil and keep the land productive. Too, if the small grain is handled to leave the stubble on the surface of the land, it will protect the land from the forces of the wind and water. Winged sweeps can be used to control weeds and fracture the surface of the land. Chisels can also be used to break up the hoof-pan created in grazing the land. The results of such treatments are: the stubble breaks up the raindrops and the rain water is able to trickle into the ground easier where packed areas have been fractured and shattered.

WATER IS HEREBY RATIONED-ONE GALLON PER PERSON PER DAY.

What would you do if you woke up one morning and found this to be true? Parts of Lubbock experienced a water shortage caused by storm damage. It is predicted that the whole plains area will experience water shortage one day. The more that water is wasted the sooner the shortage will occur. Roads and bar-ditches don't need nearly the amount of water they get.

April rural accident toll reaches new high

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated 14 accidents on rural highways in Cochran County during the month of April, according to Sergeant Hal E. Pirtle, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in six persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $3,225.00.

The rural traffic accident summary for Cochran County during the first four months of 1970 shows a total of 11 accidents resulting in no persons killed, 11 persons injured and $7,979.00.

The final school bell will soon be ringing. This will be the signal for summer vacations to begin with hundreds of thousands of people heading for the open highways.

To help insure a safe vacation and summer driving, the Sergeant suggests that you have the following items on your car safety checked:

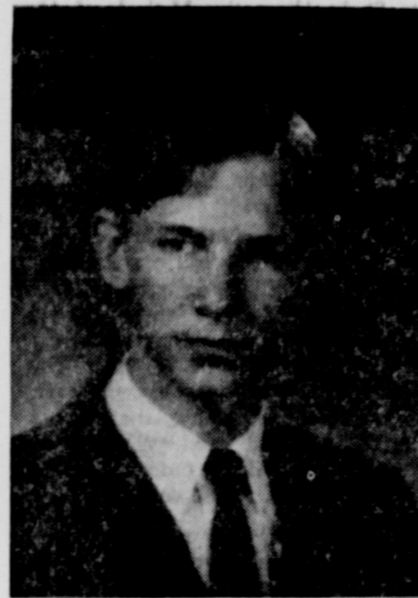

- Check the tires for worn and cut spots
- Check the steering and wheel alignment:
- Check all lights and mirrors
- Check springs and shock absorbers

As a FINAL REMINDER, 1,028 persons were killed last summer. Don't be a repeater this summer.

Miss Hoose, Terry House pledge double ring vows

Miss Doris Ann Van Hoose and Terry House pledged double ring vows at 7 p.m. Saturday, May 16, in the First Assembly of God Church. The Rev. Leslie Thompson, Jr. of Brownfield officiated.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Van Hoose and Mr. and Mrs. M. L. House.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal length gown of chantilly lace over white satin, featuring petal point sleeves and a fitted bodice. Her waist-length veil of silk illusion was edged in lace and the chapel train was attached by small bows at the shoulders. She carried a white Bible topped with white carnations.

Maid of honor was Miss Becky Van Hoose, sister of the bride, and bridesmaid was Miss Georgia Van Hoose. They wore empire gowns of ice blue lace and carried long stemmed white carnations accented by streamers of ice blue ribbon.

Lessel House, brother of the bridegroom, was bestman. Groomsman was Nolan Corder of Idalou. Larry Thorn and Monty Tanner were ushers.

Homer Van Hoose, brother of the bride and Earl Green, of Bridgeport, were candlelighters.

Roxanne Scoggins and Laura Beth Green, of Bridgeport, were flower girls and Gary Scoggins was ring bearer.

Mrs. Ernest Ruthardt was organist.

A reception in the Cochran County Activity Building followed the ceremony.

The bride is a student at Morton High School and the groom is attending South Plains College and is employed at St. Clair's Department Store.

The couple will reside in Morton.

'Miss Grain Sorghum' pageant in Dimmitt invites local girls

The Castro County Chamber of Commerce has extended invitations to girls 17 and older to become contestants in the Miss Grain Sorghum of the Nation Pageant. The two day affair will be staged in the Dimmitt High School Auditorium August seventh and eighth. Times for performances both nights have been set for 7:30.

Any girl who is of good reputation and who is endorsed by a civic club or business firm is eligible. Contestants must be single. This year, all contestants will be given an opportunity to present their talent acts before the judges. Previously, only the ten finalists presented their talent.

Top prize in the pageant will be a $1,000 college scholarship. Money may be used at any school of the winner's choice, provided the scholarship is used within one year. If not used, the Castro County Chamber of Commerce retains the funds which are made through generous contributions from grain sorghum related industries.

Along with the title and scholarship the contestant chosen Miss Grain Sorghum of the Nation will be the special envoy for one year of the grain sorghum industry. Past appearances by winners have been made before the National Grain Sorghum Producer's Convention; groundbreaking ceremonies; chamber of commerce dinners and on regional television hookups.

AUSTIN, Tex. — In the space of less than an hour, the State Finance Commission accepted the retirement of "Mr. Banking" himself — State Banking Commissioner J. M. Falkner; named a new banking commissioner; fired State Consumer Credit Commissioner Francis A. Miskell; and named a new credit commissioner.

These actions brought to an end long-time controversies over Falkner's replacement and Miskell's position.

Commissioner Falkner, who has been with the banking department nearly 50 years (23 as commissioner), has been wanting to retire for some time, but the Finance Commission could not agree on someone to take his place.

Falkner wanted his deputy commissioner (since 1965), Robert E. Stewart, to fill the post, but there was dissension on the board. However, the problems were worked out before the meeting, and Stewart was picked unanimously.

IN A SURPRISE move, Commission voted 6-2 to discharge Commissioner Miskell and named Asst. Atty. Gen. Sam Kelley to succeed him immediately.

Miskell weathered one storm threat early this year, when it was rumored segments of the loan industry were out to "get him" because of administrative actions against them. After stern talk, Commission refused to accept Miskell's resignation in February. There was no warning in this latest round. Commission members blamed administrative differences and the fact that four key agency staff positions had not been filled.

COURTS SPEAK — State Supreme Court overturned lower courts and held that Texas Aeronautics Commission had full authority to grant the Air Southwest Company of San Antonio a certificate to operate commuter flights linking Houston, Dallas-Fort Worth and San Antonio. Three major airlines have fought the application in a two-year-old legal battle.

Court of Criminal Appeals ruled that Amos Gaines of Houston, convicted of murder in Harris County in 1962 and sentenced to 99 years, should have a new trial. Court said the record of his first trial had been destroyed and the only way to make sure no error was made by the lower court was to have a new trial.

AG RULES — A member of the legislature cannot be paid from funds appropriated by the legislature for goods or services the lawmaker or firm of which he is a member sells the state, Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin said in a recent ruling.

Opinion concluded that whether the corporation in which a legislator owns stock is precluded from contracting with the state or county must be determined on the basis of each individual case.

In another ruling, Martin said state agencies may sponsor seminars on appropriate matters and charge registration fees to defray expenses. State employees and officials may be reimbursed for registration expense.

Smith named Sam Sinch Sr. of Austin and John T. Steen of San Antonio chairman and vice-chairman of American Bicentennial Commission of Texas to plan nation's 200th anniversary program. Other members of the commission include Marcella Perry of Houston, Dr. George Woolfolk of Prairie View, Ina May McAdams of Austin, Dr. Dies Jr. serves as ex-officio commission secretary.

Smith announced creation of Texas Urban Development Commission and named Arlington Mayor Tom J. Vandergriff chairman and Dr. Earl Lewis of San Antonio vice-chairman.

He designated James Goodwin of Austin to represent the state in the Southern Regional Environmental Conservation Council of Southern Governor's Conference.

Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes named Sens. Bill Moore of Bryan, Jack Hightower of Vernon and David Ratliff of Stamford to the Committee on State and Local Tax Policy.

Speaker Gus Mutscher named former Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr; Harry Hubbard Jr., Texas AFL-CIO; Houston Attorney Searcy Bracewell; and Reps. James Slider of Naples, Jack Ogg of Houston and Joe Hawn of Dallas to the Committee to Study Alternative Methods of Attracting New Industry to Texas.

CHEMICALS — Agricultural chemicals containing DDT will not be accepted for registration by the Texas Department of Agriculture until a study on their effect is completed, Commissioner John C. White announced.

Suspension of registration "does not mean that any ill effects from the agriculture use of DDT compounds have been reported or found," White said. He added that household products containing DDT will continue to be registered for use. Governor Smith has appointed an advisory committee to study the use and effects of DDT and other pesticides. It will report its findings, probably before the end of August, White said.

OYSTERING — Parks and Wildlife and State Health Department officials report that tests on oysters, shrimp and fish from state-approved Gulf Coast waters show no significant contamination from mercury or other heavy material.

One sample from San Antonio Bay during a period when it was closed to oyster- ing revealed a trace of mercury. But samples from Chocolate Bay — also closed to commercial oyster harvesting — have shown no trace of mercury although borderline amounts of heavy metals were found.

FUNDS APPROVED — A $326,999 Community Action Grant has been approved for Community Committee on Youth Education and Job Opportunities in Corpus Christi.

Other grants announced by the governor include:

$31,429 for operation head start in West Orange Grove school district.

$10,289 for head start in Erath County.

$8,938 for a legal services program to the needy in Brownsville.

$9,288 for City of Fort Worth to train police in traffic administration.

TAXES — Comptroller Robert S. Calvert has released his end-of-April statement on state income and outgo, comparing income with the same eight months (September through April) of the previous state fiscal year. Report shows that inflation and retail sales are continuing to grow.

In addition, the new fiscal year includes a 0.25 per cent increase in the state general sales tax. But even without the increase, the gain from last year's $222.0 million to this year's $295.5 million would

by VICKI GOODMAN

Just a few days left of school and will the vacation ever be welcome! It seems as though the last weeks are the hardest.

Last Thursday, the high school band presented concerts for the students of Bula, Three-Way, and Bledsoe. Then Sunday, following a salad luncheon, the Morton bands presented a concert to a Morton audience in the County Auditorium. The seniors have really been busy here show an increase in sales and retail prices. Car and truck sales are rising, since the tax take rose from $54 to $62 million. Net value of auto sales rose from $2.1 billion to $2.35 billion.

MASSIVE DISASTER — Acting Gov. Ben Barnes immediately called up state agencies for emergency duty in Lubbock following the devastating tornado which struck there May 11. Clean up and security details were coordinated by the State Defense Council.

An estimated 3,000 are homeless. Death toll is figured at 21 and injuries at 500. Property damage, highest in state history from a tornado, may reach $200 million.

President Nixon declared the battered and bruised South Plains city a disaster area. He also applied the same designation to Hockley, Hale, Briscoe, Donley, Swisher, Gray, Cochran, Lamb and Parmer Counties which were hit by storms April 17-18.

Maximum federal assistance thus will be made available in recovery operations.

SHORT SNORTS — Criminal Justice Council, after some discussion of whether it was usurping power only the Legislature has, voted to give the newly-formed Texas Board of Private Detectives $30,068 (Legislature appropriated only $11,000 for the present fiscal biennium) so it can begin its task of licensing every private investigator and guard in the state.

Attorney General Martin's anti-trust and consumer protection division accepted in district court here a voluntary compliance offer from a Dallas retail sewing machine outlet to discontinue allegedly false and deceptive advertising.

Hearing on the Lone Star Gas request for a Kerrville rate hike has been put off until June 1 by the Railroad Commission.

George Hurt, director of public school occupational programs at the Texas Education Agency, died after a brief illness.

ASCS Farm News

By John W. Hall

The Cochran County ASCS Committee met on May 19 and selected the wheat farms that will be checked for administrative control. Hub Cadenhead will be out to spot check the wheat on these farms that were selected sometimes late this week and next week.

To be eligible to harvest peanuts under the one acre provision, the requirements is that you can not have an interest in peanuts on more than one farm.

I have had several questions concerning the article that was in May Witter about the replating date for cotlately. Friday, they received their caps and gowns! Boy, were they ever happy! The parents of the seniors are hosting a hamburger party at the Country Club this Saturday night with the entire class as honorees.

Then Monday, the class is looking forward to a big outing together, hopefully the swimming pool! (If it's fixed!)

Sunday night baccalaureate services, then, Tuesday graduation will be held! Enough said??? The valdictorian, Helen Lynch, and the salutatorian, Zodie Ledbetter are rapidly preparing for their speeches. This year, instead of having an outside speaker, J. Wayne McDermott, who is a member of the class, will also speak at the ceremonies.

Monday night, the junior members of the National Honor Society were host to a hamburger cook out for the senior members of the organization. The get-together was held in Sue Winder's backyard. Everyone had a great time to say the least!

As the year draws to a close, kids will go their separate ways. Many seniors are attending summer school this year. One student plans to go to Europe (how nice!). Some are getting married and some doing their thing — like hoeing, moving pipe, etc. All those fun things that suddenly make you wish you were back in school sweating out a test!

Since this will be my last column for the Teen Scene, I would like to say I've enjoyed keeping you posted on a few of the happenings around M.H.S. and hope you have enjoyed reading it. I would also like to take this opportunity to say Congratulations, and all the Best Wishes in the future to all the grads of Morton and to the surrounding area high schools.

Vacation is near and "happie daze" ere here a "gin"! Yipee!!!!

The part about the June 1st final planting date does not mean that the cotton must be planted by this date. This only means that if your cotton is destroyed after June 1st you do not have to replant the land back to cotton, unless you want to replant it.

If the cotton is destroyed by natural causes after June 1st, you may plant the land to soybeans, millet, blackeye peas or any crop that does not have an allotment or base. Before you can replant the land to another crop, you must request approval in writing and have the crop inspected. You must pay an inspection fee for the farm visit.

If you do not have the moisture to plant now and it does not rain until the last of May or the first part of June, you may still plant your cotton after June 1st and receive the price support payments.

The office has begun taking requests for ACP payments for seeding a summer cover crop on diverted acres.

If you would like to have your crops measured and be certain that your acreage is correct when you certify you must request this service from our office by June 1st.

Donations received by Community Center

The Cochran County Community Center was the recipient of two donations this week, baskets of fruits and nuts by Hanes Grocery and a $15.00 contribution to the Child Care Center by the Church of Christ under the leadership of the Rev. J. L. Barnes.

Donations have also been received by the sewing room and clothing room which is going into a fund for the Child Care Center. It is hoped this center will be opening in the near future.

The Center announces the past year has been a successful one due to a cooperating community.

"It is fortunate that today there is a growing recognition on the part of land users and the public generally of the need to strengthen conservation in our upstate watersheds and to minimize flood damage." — Dwight D. Eisenhower
