STINGUISHED VISITOR . . .
DOLPH BRISCOE, second from left above, prominent south Texas rancher from Lubbock who is widely-known in Democratic party circles, spoke on agriculture and its contributions to the economy of the state and nation at a Lions Club meeting in Morton Wednesday. The former four-term Texas Legislator ran for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Texas in 1968 and speculation has been made of a possible candidate in 1972. While here, Mr. Briscoe met with the Cochran County Women Democrats at a tea in his honor at the Morton Insurance Agency building. He is being greeted above by Lions Club president Orville Tipton, far right, with the aid of District Judge M. C. Ledbetter, left, and County Judge Glenn Thompson, second from right.

School enrollment in drop; parent students given eye

All faculty positions for the Morton Independent School District have been filled. Enrollment in all schools had reached a total of 1,090 students by Friday, September 10, Superintendent Bob A. Travis has announced. The enrollment, which was expected to be well over 1100, is somewhat disappointing, Travis said, but there are more expected to enroll during the next few weeks which should bring us up close to the expected level, he added. The superintendent also issued a mild warning to parents who have children in the school ages of 7-17 years who don't have them enrolled as yet. They are breaking the law and school and county authorities will begin seeking out these children during the next several days, Travis stated. A complete list of faculty and supervisory personnel in the Morton schools is as follows:

 Bob E. Travis, Superintendent; Harold W. Drennan, Elementary Principi; Mrs. Dorothy D. Rose, Curriculum Coordinator.
 Miss Connie Cumpton and Mrs. Iva Williams, Kindergarten.

Tribe indicates high potential in downing Plains Cowboys 38-6

The Morton Indians scored their first touchdown of the 1971 grid campaign just twenty-two seconds after the opening kickoff and went on to run up the highest total for Morton football team in the last four years with their 38-6 victory over the Plains Cowboys.
 Sophomore halfback Larry Thompson scored in the kick-off at his 15-yard run, broke up the middle behind some fine blocking, and carried the ball to the 32 before he was stopped by the Cowboy between him and the goal-line.
 Two plays later Elton Patton took a hand-off from Keith Embry and skirted the end for 9 yards and the TD. The PAT by Jerry Silhan was good and the tribe had a lead which they never relinquished.
 Mid-way through the first quarter the Indians recovered the first three 'Poke' punts they gobbled up during the game. The Tribe was hampered in its drive to the goal line by two penalties, but these only seemed to spur the Indians to greater efforts.
 Facing a fourth and goal from the 10-yard line, Embry fed the ball to Kevin Kuehler who galloped into the end-zone standing alone. Silhan again added the PAT and Morton's lead stood at 14-0.
 In the second quarter following a fine 65-yard punt from the toe of Patton, the Cowboys found themselves with their backs to the wall at the 11-yard line. On the second play after the punt, corner-back Ted Thomas picked off a Joey Silhan aerial and tight-rope'd his way down the sideline for 18 yards and the Tribe scored on the extra point was wide to the right.
 The cheering Morton fans had hardly settled down before they were back on

Indians will offer no 'Friendship'

The Morton Indians served notice last Friday night that they are on the war-path once more as they mauled the Plains Cowboys 38-6. With that victory under its belt, the Tribe will be out this Friday to make up for one of last year's most embarrassing defeats. That loss was at the hands of the Frenship Tigers to the tune of 49-0.

The game which is set for an 8:00 p.m. kick-off will be the first home game of the season for Coach Doug Reed's Indians. The Tigers are a very young ball club returning only 7 starters from 1970's 6-3-1 team.

Coach Jack Tayrien's team was given a rude inauguration into the 1971 grid season by the Iowa Park Hawks. The Hawks, the Class AA-state champions for the past two years, ran roughshod over the Tigers and whipped them 46-0.

The big score is somewhat misleading though as Iowa Park made only one drive for a touchdown. The other scores came on mental lapses by the Frenship squad.

The key player in the Tiger attack is senior fullback Joe Rogans. Rogans gained 972 yards rushing last year, and he was responsible for three-fourths of Frenship's rushing yards against Iowa Park. The basic offense will be a straight-T. The Tigers like to run a lot of off-tackle plays and quick traps up the middle with Rogans carrying the ball. Near the goal-line and in short-yardage situations, the Indians can again expect Rogans to be carrying the mail.

The Morton Scouts report that the Frenship fullback is seldom stopped by a single tackler, so the Tribe defense will find that it faces a severe test this week.

The Tiger defense is led by none other than middle linebacker Joe Rogans. He averaged 14 tackles a game last year as a junior and earned All-District honors at his defensive position. Rogans is a three-year starter and is a solid All-State EXPERIENCE IS IMPORTANT . . .

THE TWELVE RETURNING LETTERMEN above are expected to assume a heavy load of responsibility for the won lost fate of the Morton Indians by the time the season winds up in November. They showed what experience means when they used it to great advantage in corraling the Plains Cowboys 38-6 Friday night in Plains. Front row, left to right, includes William Grant, 62, tackle; Jimmy Harvey, 21, fullback; Keith Embry, 10, Quarterback; Dubbie Bryan, 52, center; Allan Joyce, 22, halfback; Leslie Garber, 72, tackle and Bryant Lewis, 80, split end. Standing: Tony Bramblett, 73, guard; Kevin Kuehler, 44, fullback; Elton Patton, 40, halfback; Ted Thomas, 81, tight end and Larry Thompson, 20, halfback. Most play both offense and defense.

True bills returned included three against Larry Gene Bates of Morton on three separate charges of burglary. The indictment charges him with burglary of the Fralin Pharmacy building, the Morton Drug Store building and the dental office of Dr. Joe Dorsey in the Morton Professional Building, all allegedly occurring on June 5, 1971.

Four indictments were returned against Gerald Lynn Bates, brother of Larry Gene Bates, three of which charges him with the same burglaries and the fourth charging him with possession of narcotics. The narcotics possession offense took place on June 7, 1971, according to the indictment.

Two indictments were returned against Farris Hall, one charging him with defrauding by worthless check and the other charging him for forgery. The worthless check charge specifies the passing of a worthless check in the amount of $60.21 to Jack Buckner at the Allsup 7-11 Store in Morton. The forgery indictment charges him with forging the signature of R. J.

McCasland on a check in the amount of $65 which was passed to A. Baker of the Morton Independent Oil Company.

Dennis Ray Ledbetter was indicted on a charge of forgery involving the same $65 check and transaction with Baker that is specified in one of Hall's indictments. The date cited in the indictment for the forging and passing of the check is July 4, 1971.

Arrestment date for those under indictments had not been announced at press time Wednesday.

Letter to the Editor

(Editors Note — The following letter from Gov. Preston Smith was received very promptly following a recent column in which we disagreed with him on pay raises for teachers and state workers during the President Nixon-imposed economic freeze. Gov. Smith certainly has the right to present his side of the question and we feel complimented that he has chosen the pages of the Morton Tribune for even a small part of his rebuttal to those opposing his views on the subject. His letter is published verbatim and, as is our stated policy, we will not "second guess" or "last word" him here. If we have a rejoinder, it will be found in the form of a column or an editorial.)

AUSTIN, TEXAS 78711
September 10, 1971
Mr. Bill Sayers
Morton Tribune
Morton, Texas 79346
Dear Bill:

Most Texas newspapers and an unfortunately large number of our citizens reacted to our position on the wage-price freeze, as it affects State employees and teachers, on the basis of emotion, without realizing that there were very good, logical and legal reasons for our position — reasons which compelled us to take that position.

The issue is not, as has been suggested by many, that we or the State of Texas oppose any reasonable means of curbing inflation. Nor is it that we want special treatment for our State, its employees or teachers.

It is simply a question of whether Texas will be treated in a manner consistent with other States, almost all of which have already had pay raises go into effect for their employees in the past year, whether the Governor is supposed to protect and defend the Constitution and laws of his State, or simply forget his oath of office, and whether the Congress actually could authorize, or did authorize, the President to void State laws.

Indeed, we in Texas have been in the vanguard of the fight against inflation and recession. We operate under a spend-as-you-go budget, unlike the federal government's inflationary policy of deficit spending, which put this nation more than $20 billion in the red last year.

We have cut spending wherever possible and even vetoed the entire second year of the biennial appropriations bill so that we could reduce spending to more sensible levels. We have prevented the enactment of unnecessary taxes which would have placed an added burden on the already economically strained pocketbooks of our citizens. And, more than a year ago, we called on the Republican Administration in Washington to revise its failing economic policies in favor of well-planned, reasonable wage and price controls.

Obviously, there are many complex legal problems involved which make it difficult for the people to understand the action we took. Hopefully, greater understanding of the necessity for our action will become apparent as more and more people acquaint themselves with the facts.

Sincerely,
Preston Smith
Governor of Texas

Annual field day, open house set at A&M research center

"Research for Progress" was the theme of the 62nd Annual Field Day and Open House, slated for Tuesday at the Texas A&M University Agricultural Research and Extension Center at Lubbock.

Activities at the Center are coordinated by Dr. George McBee, resident director of research; and Billy C. Gunter, district agricultural agent for the High Plains. The professional staff includes some 40 Experiment Station and USDA researchers and Extension specialists who will be on hand to explain the latest scientific experiments and answer questions on farm equipment.

Dr. Jerry Johnson, Experiment Station agronomist who is chairman of the field day, says that visitors will have the choice of a general tour of the Center's 300 acres and also four special tours. These special tours will feature discussions of sorghum varieties, weed control, narrow-row cotton and control of Verticillium wilt. They will start every 30 minutes and include detailed explanations of current experiments.

"The grain sorghum tour will allow visitors to observe 66 hybrids growing under identical field conditions," Johnson says. He and agronomist Dr. Darrell Ross will show sorghum varieties that have been converted from original exotic plants. Visitors will be able to see exotic types growing side-by-side with improved varieties.

On the weed control tour, Dr. Dudley Smith and Dr. Allen Wiese of the Experiment Station will discuss the use of pre-emergence and post-emergence chemicals in cotton and grain sorghum. Corn, johnsongrass, whiteweed, and other weeds will also be covered also with plans for minimizing residue carryover.

Planting patterns for irrigated and land conditions will be the main focus of the narrow-row cotton tour. Dryland cotton will be shown in a planting system that can be cultivated; and varieties being developed for narrow-row production will be discussed by Dr. Levon Ray. Earl Hudspeth will talk about narrow-row planting and harvesting equipment.

The Verticillium wilt tour will feature cotton varieties being grown on severely infested land at the Center. The effect of crop rotation and narrow-row production on wilt control will be covered by Dr. Earl Minton.

Other Extension specialists and researchers will be available for questions such as soil fertility, irrigation, other crops, swine production, horticulture and farm management. The public is welcome to bring plant specimens for consultations with entomologists and plant pathologists.

In addition, there will be a large machinery exhibit and a general open house of the Center facilities. Johnson says. The various laboratories and greenhouses will be open; and the USDA Soil Plains Ginning Research Laboratory at the Center will also welcome visitors.

The field day is from 1-5 p.m. on Tuesday, September 14. The Center is on one-half mile north of Lubbock on U.S. 87, the Amarillo Highway.

TPEA seeks wage freeze for 60,000 state employees

The Texas Public Employees Association today pressed its case for an exception from the wage freeze for 60,000 state employees the only such workers in the 50 states whose pay raises voted by their Legislature were "banned by the President's order."

"On its face this is a gross inequity, and we are doing everything possible to impress this fact upon federal officials," said Jim Stewart, Executive Director of TPEA.

Stewart, TPEA President Jerome Chapman and their attorneys, Charles Babb and Sam Winters, were granted a hearing in Dallas Wednesday afternoon by George Hastings, regional director of the Office of Emergency Preparedness.

"We explained our case in detail to Mr. Hastings, outlining the tremendous inequities affecting public employees and the will have in performing the functions of state government, Mr. Hastings gave us a full and courteous hearing and is transmitting additional information on our case to the Cost of Living Council in Washington."

Stewart said he expects a decision from the Council before the end of the week. Texas was the only state government adversely affected by the wage freeze order because its fiscal year began September 1 — two weeks after the order — whereas 48 other states began their fiscal years July 1 or earlier and therefore escaped the freeze. Alabama's fiscal year begins October 1 but its Legislature is in session and it has not faced a problem comparable to the Texas situation.

A petition for an exception was filed formally by TPEA in Washington last week. Among the points of inequity stressed by TPEA in its amended petition are the following:

Since the last state salary adjustments went into effect on September 1, 1970, having been voted in 1969, state employee salaries have in no way contributed to the inflationary spiral and in fact have lagged far behind the increase in the cost of living.

The tax bill to fund the September 1 appropriations bill went into effect last week — thereby requiring state employees pay increased taxes to fund the raise they now will not receive and thereby damage them economically.

The state funds frozen by the President must be held by the state until the Legislature meets and decides what to do with them, meaning that they will flow into the economy by being deposited in state depositories. Thus, the money will not be withheld from the economy to cause inflation, but only be denied to cash-strapped workers who have been victimized by inflation.

Many state workers have dropped private insurance policies in anticipation of a broadened state insurance program which apparently cannot go into effect September 1 under the freeze order.

Stewart said TPEA is sympathetic toward and supports the intent of the President's economic stabilization program. He pointed out, however, that the Congressional act under which the President moved is aimed specifically at a stabilization of the economy which contribute to inflationary spiral.

"It is utterly impossible to demonstrate that public employee pay rates in Texas have contributed one iota to the inflationary spiral," Stewart said. "One out of five state employees are being paid by the federally-designated poverty level. Some state employee families are far below on welfare. Our pay rates are far below federal, business and industry levels. Last year we ranked 35th among the states in compensation for public employees."

"We feel there are gross inequities in the Texas situation and we hope the officials in Washington will agree with us."

STORING COOKIES — Cookies — baked or unbaked — will keep about six months in the freezer, say Extension foods and nutrition specialists. But before freezing them, make sure they are cool. Store them in plastic bags or in sheet wrapping in the freezer.

Post-Mortons

BY BILL SAYERS

It was quoted in ancient times by some nameless but extremely wise Guru and handed down the misty isles of antiquity, that the only permanent element in the universe is that of constant change.

This is not a direct quote, mind you, our experience and relationship with Gurus of both the ancient and mod variety being as flimsy as it is. Never-the-less, the innate wisdom of this small morsel of knowledge was brought home to us this week quite forcibly by a letter to the editor that we received, signaling the passing of an era.

Ordinarily he letter would be published in the "Letters to The Editor" section, but this one, for reasons which will become apparent as you read further, was not signed. It is a rule of our that all letters to the editor must be signed in order to be published in the conventional manner. (There ain't nothing that says you can't put it in a column, however.)

Belaedly getting down to the nitty-gritty, we herewith publish this letter verbatim. We reserve the right to refuse all hospital and doctor bills from high school English teachers who we are certain will pale and wretch at the classic job done on the King's English involved: Letter To The Editor.

We, the official toilet tissue decorators, at this time would like to make public our resignation of decorating the town's houses with toilet tissue. We feel that we have had our fun. We hope that while we were having fun, we didn't make anyone too extremely angry.

This occurrence may continue to happen, but if it does you will know that the official decorators had nothing at all to do with it. We resign in hoping that we haven't run this matter into the ground. We all know that you can over do things of this type. For this reason we feel that we have done enough.

We also hope that you realize that we have done this strictly in fun. We hope that we haven't caused hard feelings among anyone! We appreciate your laughing attitude toward this, and assure you that we will no longer do this again. Yours truly,

The Official Toilet Tissue Decorators P.S. You can look at it this way: At least we gave you something that you might be able to use. Ha! If we may be allowed a brief reply: Morton Tribune Citizen (victim) September 13, 1971

Official Toilet Tissue Decorators Boys And/Or Girls Morton, Texas We deeply regret that you have been forced to suspend operations and have declared intentions of dissolving your company. We enjoyed our brief business relationship with you and are confident that the same spirit of good will we have experienced in the past will endure in the future should you ever decide to resume your business activities. Your services were highly appreciated and reflect the true spirit of good will and humor that is so hard to come by these days. All best wishes for the future. /s/ Ye Editor

P. S. Considering the favorable credit ratings that we have afforded you during our business relationship, we would expect, and would be appropriately grateful, to receive any supplies and/or equipment that your firm may have in surplus. Hia! NEDERLAND, TEXAS REVIEW: "For nearly 30 years, Uncle Sugar up Washington, D.C. way has tried to reduce farm... For more than 40 years the Rus-out put to certain levels, and has failed... sians have tried to raise farm output to certain levels, and have failed... It just goes to show you that governments can't farm."

From any standpoint, a personal letter from the Governor of your state can be a memorable experience. We are in receipt of such a letter, a letter that was written in rebuttal to opinions we expressed in a recent column concerning the Governor's stand on wage increases for teachers and state workers in Texas. His letter is published elsewhere in today's issue and we agree that it makes a lot of good sense in certain areas, however, our position remains the same. Certainly, we prefer the Texas fiscal position over that of the federal government, but we insist, that there can be little logical comparison between the two. At any rate, the issue is a dead horse, which will be decided by the federal commission formed for that purpose and there is little use in kicking same at this time.

We would like to compliment the Governor on one point that his constituents throughout the state can point to with pride — he was mighty quick to respond to a voice from the boondocks (that we really never imagined he would hear) and we are most happy that he has his hand so closely on the public pulse. We must assume that he is very well informed on events and controversies throughout the state, and that can't be bad in a Governor. Ole' Jerry must be on the ball, too.

We underwent a new experience that was truly gratifying Saturday night when we attended the closed circuit television broadcast of the Texas Tech-Tulane game at the Coliseum at Texas Tech. The whole situation had an on-scene atmosphere, what with the direct connection with the Tulane stadium in New Orleans in which you could hear yourself in the coliseum cheer right at the game.

We didn't count noses, but we estimated that here were 3,500-4,000 in the Coliseum and they made quite a racket. The whole thing was fun. The new Tech mascot (that riverboat gambler type with the big red mustache and twin six guns) was really amusing. They use him inside and Charcoal Cody outside — guess which one is house broken.

Actually, it was so pleasant that you couldn't keep me away from the Tech-Texas game with a club. (This of course being in direct contrast to the words I muttered coming away from our defeat Saturday — I did shed a few crocodile tears.)

HOMEDALE, IDAHO, NEWS: "Those pioneers who once fought taxation without representation should see it with representation."

There is a small matter that we are very reluctant to comment upon, but feel that it is necessary. The businessmen of Morton support the school activities in this area in an exemplary manner, as near as we can figure. There are seven schools that solicit for advertising in our town for their annual publication, and what have you. The record of support, year after year, is excellent, and we are sure will continue as such. However, there is one school which has literally priced itself out of business, or nearly so. We ask why should their advertising rate be double the rest of the schools? We don't blame the kids, they are all new to the situation, but we can look askance at the supervisors that either set, or allow to be set, the unrealistic prices they are charging.

We came very close to abstaining this year before agreeing to an ad we believe to be smaller than last year's. Nobody likes to be exploited. Take note — the undisclosed high school involved — Oh, yes, we should remind you that your big advance in price came after August 15.

closey associated with Lubbock, we have always been convinced that we didn't have the type element there that would pull that type of dem'oonishment.

There is no way to slice it to come out any way but baloney. The high school incident we feel, was exploited by a group of professional dissidents, probably strangers, that were determined to use the situation for their own purposes.

It is amazing how quickly these things are taken out of the hands of amateurs with their possibly well-meaning protests and taken over by professional, or semi-professional, militants. A deep analysis of the situation might turn up the fact that with all the busing and other controversy in Lubbock, that subversive types are operating and finding fertile ground in which to work.

ASCS Farm News

John W. Hall, CED Economic Actions Will Strengthen Agricultural Markets for Farm Products, at home and abroad, are a goal of the series of economic actions by Clarence Danks, prominent Texas farmer and president of the Texas Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) Commission. The dollar from an arbitrary and allowing it to float, at a determined by international trade exchange is designed to make U.S. farm products — including farm products — competitive in world markets.

America agriculture more scope for its production potential. "The President's actions put the world on notice that the U.S. is going to find solutions to its balance-of-trade problems, as well as battle inflation and increase the competitiveness of the U.S. economy," Danks said. While welcoming the inflation-fighting freeze on prices and wages, he expressed keener interest in the Prsident's actions "As a farmer, I know just how important that trade is. Production from about one-quarter of the harvested cropland in this country is exported. And exports offer our best opportunity for expanding farm markets."

Opening grid tilts reveal muscle in 3-AA

Football 1971 in District 3-AA was predicted to be a year of strong teams. And the first weekend of the season proved

All eight teams in the district barged into competition on the opening weekend and six of them came out victorious. Average out the points scored, and the totals run almost 24 points per team. Defending champion Floydada posted the league's only shutout (21-0 over 4-A Ralls), but Littlefield and Morton came away from their openers with the biggest point outputs.

Littlefield, playing its first game under coach Jerry Blakely, blistered Class A Crosbyton 38-6, after building a 37-0 halftime advantage, and Morton worked over Plains 38-6, aided by a running attack good for over 300 yards.

Lockney stepped up to AAA level and knocked over Levelland 20-15, Abernathy led a defensive gem to drop Class A Peterburg 12-6 and Friona won its former County duel with Farwell 26-8. Only losses came at the hands of AAA clubs, Dimmitt bowing to Muleshoe 18-16 and Olton dropping a 14-0 verdict to Tulia. Effort pleased Littlefield coaches — effort and teamwork.

"We were real tickled with the effort," commented Blakely. "We hit real good and played extremely well as a team. We're playing much better, and if we continue to improve, I think we can be fairly competitive."

Coming off a 1-9 season, the Wildcats had only 230 yards total offense — all rushing — against Crosbyton but recovered six fumbles and intercepted two passes — one for a touchdown. And they took advantage of the opportunities. Leading the defense was middle linebacker Bill Hamblin, mentioned by coach Blakely as the leading tackler.

Offensively, tailback Ralph Funk scored five touchdowns, including a 65-yard punt return. Funk carried 21 times for 102 yards, and fullback Dennis Hartley had a sparkling 86 yards on only six carries.

Hartley's total includes a 50-yard sprint for a touchdown.

Morton got balanced rushing from its wishbone quartet in the win over Plains. Keith Embry wound up with 120 yards rushing, Elton Patton and Ted Thompson 48 each and Kevin Kuehler 47. Embry scored twice, as did Thompson.

"Penalties hurt us," commented coach Doug Reed. "Don't get me wrong; we were guilty. We drew 140 yards in penalties — against their (Plains) 30. We will have to be ready this week, though, against Frenship. They beat us 48-0 last year, and we gave up the ball eight times inside our ten. The kids remember that."

A pair of Tony Ford to Cleo McGee passes netted touchdowns in Lockney's victory over Levelland, a team which plays at Littlefield this week. Lockney will play Post, a 21-0 victim of Hale Center.

Dimmitt got 16 points from running-back Daniel Frierson in its loss to Muleshoe.

This week, the Bobcats try Farwell, which didn't score until the final quarter against Friona. Johnny Randy scored once and passed for two more TDs as the Chieftains mounted a 28-0 halftime lead and made it stand up for victory. It was Friona's sixth win in last nine years against Farwell and left Farwell leading only 18-16-1 in their long rivalry.

Friona plays Bovina this week, after Bovina bested Boys Ranch 27-18 last week. Abernathy broke a 6-all deadlock in the fourth quarter, as Jackie McLaughlin intercepted a Peterburg pitchout, then lateraled to teammate Bobby Rogers. The defensive play covered 64 yards to bring a 12-6 triumph.

Runningbacks Van Mitchell, Walter Harris and Jim Kunkel scored once apiece in pacing Floydada's victory over Ralls. Floydada hasn't lost a regular-season game since 1968.

The district faces another round of stiff tests this week, including Abernathy's battle with Class A power Seagraves. Seagraves is state ranked. Tulia tries Floydada, and Olton runs into Muleshoe. With the five touchdowns, Funk jumped away to a quick lead in the individual scoring race. Frierson is next after scoring all of Dimmitt's points.

Beef consumption up; bright future seen for cattle producers

People in the cattle business can look to the future with optimism as beef consumption continues its upward spiral across the country, according to Dr. Ed Uvacek, livestock marketing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The specialist refers to a recent U.S. Department of Agriculture research publication which states that beef now accounts for about two-thirds of all red meat consumed in the United States.

Says Uvacek, "Continuation of the present per capita trends is expected and this coupled with an increasing population will call for a third more beef by 1980. The average American today consumes about 114 pounds of beef annually."

The expansion of beef cow numbers may hold the real key to meeting this increase demand for beef, explains the specialist. Today practically all available calves are being used for feeders, and calf numbers will have to be increased to maintain the growth of the beef industry.

"Cattle feedlots over the U.S. handle more beef today than the entire cattle industry produced a scant 20 years ago," notes Uvacek. "Yet the industry still needs to increase its output by a third to keep pace with trends in population and per capita consumption over the next 10 years."

The specialist suggests that cattle feed-

County Agent's Field Day on September 22. A farm tour will leave from the Activity Building at 9:30 a.m. and will return for lunch at 12 noon.

Tribes wins...

their feet again. The staunch Indian defense had once more turned the ball over to the offense in good field position. Quarterback Embry then called his own march and followed tremendous blocks by Thompson and Allen Joyce for a 33 yard sprint around right end to pay dirt. The pass for the extras was no good.

This score brought the Cowboys to life and following the Tribe kick-off, the 'Pokes put together their only sustained drive of the night. The march was capped by Tony Chandler's 7 yard burst up the middle. The extra point attempt was blocked by Kuehler and the Indians went to at half-time with a 26-6 lead.

The Plains' defense seemed to plug a few of the holes during the break, but the Tribe found enough space to score two more touchdowns.

The first came on a 7 yard scamper by Tony Chandler's 7 yard burst up the kick by Silhan was again off the mark.

The Indians received 13 penalties for 135 yards against the 'Pokes, and Reed feels that the team cannot afford to stop a drive against a team like Frenship with the same kind of mistakes made against Plains.

Pamela Jane Auburg

December wedding plans announced

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Auburg of Levelland have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Pamela Jane, to Douglas Steven Dunn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Dunn of Bledsoe.

The bride-elect is a 1969 graduate of Spur High School, a graduate of Bauder Fashion College in Arlington and is now attending South Plains College.

Dunn is a 1968 graduate of Bledsoe High School and is a student at Texas Tech University, majoring in sociology.

The couple plan to be married December 28 in the chapel of the First Baptist Church in Levelland.

The National Cotton Advisory Committee meeting in Washington September 15 and 16 is to discuss three major aspects of the 1972 cotton program, according to Donald Johnson, Executive Vice President of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., a recently appointed member of the Advisory Committee.

The principal topics under discussion Johnson said are (1) the level of the 1972 cotton loan, (2) the size of the 1972 base acreage allotment and (3) set-aside provisions, including both the amount of acreage required to be set aside and the permissible uses of such acreage.

Johnson was appointed to the Cotton Advisory Committee by Agriculture Secretary Clifford Hardin on September 3, along with W. A. Fulford of Brownfield and six others in the Texas cotton industry. The committee has no decision-making powers, but is called in "to advise the Secretary and other officials on matters such as domestic and export requirements, and production adjustment and stabilization programs." Appointments are for the period ending April 28, 1973.

Under the terms of the Agriculture Act of 1970 the loan for 1972 is to be set at 90 percent of the previous two-year average world market price, except that the Secretary may adjust the loan level as he deems necessary to "keep U. S. cotton competitive and to retain an adequate share of the world market for such cotton."

World cotton prices for the past two years have been such that, if the Secretary uses the same formula he used in 1971, the loan for 1972 would come to about 21 cents per pound, basis middling-inch, 3.5 to 4.9 micronaire, net weight. Whether this same formula is to be used, or whether the Secretary is to exercise his option to "adjust" the loan level, will be thoroughly discussed in the Advisory Committee. The 1972 loan must be announced on or before November 1 of this year.

There is a widely held belief in the U. S. cotton industry that additional cotton production will be needed in 1972, and some are urging USDA to raise the 1972 base allotment next year as an inducement to increased acreage. "This too will be discussed," Johnson said, "but in preliminary talks USDA officials indicate they may not be so inclined."

Under the "open-end" planting provisions of current law, USDA feels an increase in the paying base acreage would secure increased plantings only on the less efficient farms which in 1971 planted only the minimum acreage required to qualify for full price support payments. Farmers who overplanted allotments in 1971, USDA reasons, would probably plant about the same acreage in 1972 whether the paying base is raised or not. Thus increased plantings would not be in proportion to increased cost of the program. Whether this view will hold remains to be seen, Johnson noted.

Set-aside requirements is another problem. Current projections say there will be an oversupply of feed grains and wheat at the end of this year, which brings about a need for reduced acreage of these crops in 1972. And how to assure such a reduction is no less puzzling than how to increase cotton acreage. The set-aside approach embodied in the present farm program makes production control a far less exact science than was the case under previous programs when there were stiff penalties for planting above assigned allotments.

USDA fears that if, for example, they raise the percentage of base allotments required as set-aside for feed grains, too many producers would drop-out of the program, bringing about increased feed grain plantings instead of the reverse. This could be overcome in two ways. Price support payments to cooperating growers could be increased to discourage "drop-outs," or a mandatory set-aside could be set at a lower level with producers given the opportunity for additional voluntary set-aside, with appropriate compensation. At the moment, the first solution appears most likely.

On cotton, if this year's 20 percent set-aside requirement is lowered to encourage additional cotton production, farmers might well plant the newly available acreage to feed grains or wheat instead of cotton. Another possibility that will be talked, if USDA in fact does feel the need for measures to encourage additional 1972 cotton production, would be to increase the cotton set-aside requirement to the 28 percent legal maximum, then permit planting of cotton and cotton only on the affected acreage.
