of C finalizes 'Last Frontier' plans

Announce schedule of events

Final plans were firmed up and a schedule of events for the annual rodeo and Last Frontier Days celebration were worked out at a special joint meeting of the Morton Chamber of Commerce and members of the Rodeo Association held here last week.

This being the fiftieth anniversary of Cochran county's organization, an extra large celebration has been planned, with events stretching out over the entire week, beginning Sunday, July 28. Highlights of the celebration will be Motorcycle races on Sunday afternoon; Giant street dances Tuesday night; an All-faiths devotional, Gospel singing and ice cream supper on Wednesday; Rodeo parade, giant barbecue, old fiddlers contest, rodeo and rodeo dance on Thursday; Rodeo and rodeo dance on Friday and Water polo, horseshoe pitching, tobacco spitting contest, beard judging and rodeo performance and dance on Saturday.

Three entries have been received so far for the rodeo queen contest, which will be conducted by the same rules as past contests, with the contestant selling the most tickets on a $350 shopmade saddle becoming the winner and named "Last Frontier Rodeo Queen of 1975."

Verna Richards is the entry of the Morton Area Chamber of Commerce; Lisa Gerick will represent the Cochran County 4-H Club and Karen Clark is the entry of the Cochran County Roping Club.

The barbecue last year proved such a rousing success that it was decided to obtain

On 25th anniversary

Girlstown observance 'emotional'

BY NELDA STOGSDILL
Memories were bountiful, and even a few tears flowed as the 25th Anniversary of Girlstown U.S.A. was celebrated Saturday, July 13, at the Whiteface Campus.

In many ways Saturday was a milestone. Several girls knew the big open house and barbecue marked their last as official Girlstown residents. Their tomorrows are filled with school, marriage and even a few are returning to their homes.

The highlight in the day's activities was the crowning of Miss Girlstown 1974-75, Miss Joan Toney. Miss Toney is a sixteen year old Junior at Whiteface High School. The brown haired, blue eyed beauty was runner up last year in the pageant. Her crown was placed on her head by the very first Miss Girlstown, Mrs. Sandra Roberts Heinrich, who wore it for the first time in 1963, when the pageant first began.

Mrs. Heinrich was one of twenty-one ex-residents of Girlstown who attended the celebration. Five of the exes were former Miss Girlstown representatives.

Other girls nominated for the title of Miss Girlstown, chosen on the basis of leadership and citizenship among the 62 residents were Renae McPhail, 15; Susie Young, 15; Kathy Young, 17; and Anita Taylor, 15.

The State of Texas was widely represented at the open house. Beta Sigma Phi members from Midland, Lubbock, Eastland, Littlefield, Sweetwater and Levelland, and many members of the Texas Cowbelles, and many members of the Board of Directors were present.

Mrs. Marshall Cooper, wife of the Director said, "Beta Sigma Phi gives Girlstown $1200.00 per month from their International Endowment fund, and this is the only

The deadline for sign-up for the cotton, feed grain and wheat programs for area farmers has been extended to 15 August, ASCS director John Hall announced this week.

The original deadline was 15 July — but that date is extended 30 days, Hall said.

Loot high in local burglary

Local law enforcement officers were still without a lead late Wednesday as to the identity or whereabouts of the person or persons who burglarized the Allsup 7 to 11 on South Main late Saturday night or early Sunday morning.

Potential loot in the break-in was unusually high for such a burglary, with the main item being up the score being African Express money orders, whose face value could be $38,400. There were 192 money orders, each with a potential face value of $200, and these, together with $5,200 in cash, $5,200 in checks, money order engraving and $1.22 in change made the total even higher.

Entry was made through an opening on the south end of the building which is located under the eaves. From

'Big top' to be featured 1974 4-H dress review

Plans are being finalized for the County 4-H Dress Review which will be held Monday, July 29, at the Figure Salon Studio on West Washington.

"Some of the garments to be modeled, according to Wyn Crone, Junior Leader, will feature the 'big top' which is in the news for fall. The top makes way for a softer, looser, effortless way of dressing. Separates follow the body gently. They're relaxed, comfortable and totally today."

Fabrics to be shown will include poplin, denim, pinwaile corduroy, gabardine, flannel and double knits.

Dresses with news at the top reveal soft shirtmaker details, neck yokes and billow sleeves. Shirt jackets for '74 will be plentiful with the Western Look. Shirts will have all the classic western details, including pointed yokes and pocket flaps, "pearl" snap fasteners and curved hemlines, plus something extra-iron on transfers from landscape scenes to embroider on the front and back yokes.

Some forty young ladies are expected to enter the annual County 4-H Dress Review.

contribution that we can count on every month." The Texas Cowbelles have recently taken on the task of providing beef for all three Girlstown campuses, one at Borger, one at Austin and the campus at Whiteface. A spokesman for the Cowbelles said they plan to furnish each campus with a beef a week for at least a year, possibly longer. She said the response has been tremendous. People have called and offered beebes from all over the Panhandle area.

Cowbelles representatives attending were from Happy, Hereford, Wildorado, Vega, and Littlefield.

During the brief program before the crowning of Miss Girlstown, Mr. Marshall Cooper, Director, said, "We are tremendously grateful to the Cowbelles for taking on Girlstown as a project."

Cooper said of the open house festivities, "I thought we had a really good turnout, and I was very pleased with the number of ex-residents who attended."

Girlstown originated at Buffalo Gap, just south of Abilene on March 13, 1949, then four months later on July 13, nine girls made the initial move to Whiteface. Tom Duggan, a rancher, near Whiteface gave 1,425 acres of land, located nine miles south of Whiteface to the girls, so they would have a ranch and plenty of room. The original facility was one small building. Later two other buildings were moved onto the ranch, a small two room house and a small one room house. That same year, construction was under way for a dormitory. Now the facilities include, two large dorms, a dining hall, and a gymnasium.

According to Cooper the capacity at Girlstown is 68 girls, but due to a shortage of staff members they are limited to 62. He said, "If we had another cottage for 16 girls, we could fill it next week." Cooper also stated the qualifications for house parents are that they have at least a high school education and one year's experience. He said, "The work is very demanding, and staff members are difficult to find."

Special recognition was given to the Littlefield Volunteer Fire Department. This is the sixth year they have donated their time to cook barbeque beef, donated by area residents, for the open house. Also special thanks were given to the L'Allegro Study Club of Morton, who have for the past fifteen years served coffee and tea to guests at the open house.

This year around 500 persons attended the event.

PLANS FROM PAGE ONE

approximately twice as much beef for the event this year, and two beefs have been obtained. The county commissioners court voted to allocate $1,000 for purchase of the meat and all the trimmings that normally go with a barbeque.

Plans include the erection of a jail in downtown Morton again this year, into which will be placed all those men who are not sporting a rodeo beard or mustache and all women who are not wearing an old-time bonnet. Either sex may buy their way out of trouble with the "sheriff" by purchasing a shaving or a dress permit from a Chamber of Commerce member.

Response from riding groups throughout the area has assured a large parade this year and chamber officials express optimism that it will be the biggest parade and the biggest celebration ever held in the county.

The week's schedule reads as follows:

Sunday, July 28—Motorcycle rodeo and races at County Park. Registration for the unlimited events will begin at 12 noon and the races will begin at 2:00 p.m.

Monday, July 29—Nothing scheduled.

Tuesday, July 30—Street dance (both round and square dancing) on the city square beginning at 8 p.m. Most stores will remain open that night until 10:00 p.m.

Wednesday, July 31—All-faiths devotional and gospel singing at the county park beginning at 8 p.m. and followed by an ice cream supper.

Thursday, August 1—Senior citizens luncheon at 12 Noon. Rodeo parade beginning at 4:30 p.m. Barbeque beginning at 6 p.m. and an Old Fiddlers Contest to begin at 7 p.m. The rodeo performance will begin at 8 p.m. and the rodeo dance at 9 p.m.

Friday, August 2—Rodeo performance at 8 p.m. and rodeo dance beginning at 9 p.m.

Saturday, August 3—Fire Department water polo, on the square beginning at 10 a.m.; Horseshoe pitching, beginning at 10 a.m.; Horseshoe finals at 3 p.m.; Tobacco spitting contest, on the square beginning at 4 p.m.; Beard judging on the courthouse lawn at 5 p.m.; Final rodeo performance and naming of the 1975 rodeo queen beginning at 8 p.m. and the final rodeo dance, to begin at 9 p.m.

The tobacco spitting contest, which has been anything but a success in previous celebrations, has some extra added incentive this year: the Beechnut Company, who manufacture Beechnut chewing tobacco, has volunteered to show the local folks how to conduct a real old-fashioned spitting contest and are furnishing all the necessary materials for same—up to and including the tobacco itself, the necessary aprons, umbrellas, spittoons, etc., and are awarding valuable prizes to the winners. (They have even included a Ms Division for the more liberated of our local ladies.)

was made by Mrs. Jackie Gibson when she reported for work at approximately 5:45 a.m. Sunday. She had been the last employee to leave the store after locking up at near midnight Saturday, according to information furnished by Mr. Pat Hank, area supervisor for Allsup.

According to Hank and information furnished by the sheriff's office, a close record is kept of the serial numbers on the blank money orders and they will be very hard to dispose of for a profit, even though the engraving machine with which they are made out was stolen along with the blank forms.

The $5,200 worth of personal and other types of checks likewise will be difficult to dispose of, officers explained.

Store manager Layton Taylor and Hank urges all persons who cashed or wrote checks at the store on Friday or Saturday to call or drop in to the store and help the management to cancel payment on as many of the checks as possible.

It was a "smooth job" as described by law officers investigating the incident: "Whoever it was got in and out with a minimum of disturbance to anything and with absolutely no damage to the safe they opened" one of them observed.

Investigation of the break-in is continuing, sheriff's personnel said Wednesday.

Hank told the Tribune Tuesday that with 16 stores in their chain and the late hours they keep, they expect a certain number of break-ins and outright robberies. He said out of several robberies over the past few years, there was only one injury or death and that was when a man wielding a shotgun fatally wounded a 15-year-old boy in a Clovis, New Mexico store.

Making Light of Heavy Work

There's a jack-of-all-trades in the life of every young Jill on the go, and what modern homemaker isn't off and running these busy days.

The "jack" in question is that old reliable "Degreaser" available from independent dealers selling the products of Stanley Home Products, Inc. of Westfield, Mass. The star of the Stanley line, there's virtually no cleanup job "Degreaser" can't do.

In the kitchen, it dissolves grease in seconds, from pots, pans, grills, broilers, skillets, dishes, countertops and meatboards.

In the laundry, it's ideal for greasy cuffs and collars. A half cup to each wash load makes a great laundry booster.

For general cleaning, there's no end to its versatility, for walls, woodwork, car, tools, driveways and garage floors—you name it. Used in dishwasher, it helps keep drains and garbage disposals clean and grease-free. Used full strength in drains, it keeps them free flowing.

And that's not all. Versatile "Degreaser" is concentrated, so it's economical. One quart makes 64 gallons of dishwashing solution. Moreover, it contains no phosphates or enzymes, works in hard or soft water, and is biodegradable.

No wonder our young Jill above has time for everything with her jack-of-all-trades on the job for her.

HERE IS THE PATH

"Thou wilt show me the path of life,
in thy presence is fulness of joy."
PSALM 16:11

"Thou wilt show me the path of life,
in thy presence is fulness of joy."
PSALM 16:11

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving His neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long preserve and the freedom which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

About Local Folks

General Manager Dukus Cotton Incorporated will be in July 24 with seven of his top 25 cotton producers to discuss the story of how cotton production is being used in the battle for bigger cotton yields and more cotton production. The program will be presented at the South Park Inn, South of Indiana Avenue, Lubbock.

... OF THE beltwide cotton company's operations is being Lubbock area producers and at the invitation of the High District Women's Cotton Association, made up of 10 women's cotton promotion clubs, will provide cookies and cake of cottonseed flour as an attraction. Small groups of producers will be invited to hear firsthand about things being done for cotton production. Mrs. Wanda Ligon, for Claunch Gin at Bulsa and the district women's group, will also provide information on how to produce cotton to enhance the producing cotton.

PCG-LUBBOCK Cotton Estimates Committee met July 12 and there were at that time reports of "standing" cotton in 1974 counties surrounding Lubbock. The committee noted that reports to county offices are being reported to county offices and Conservation Service, the ultimate source of final acreage figures, were not far enough along to promote much confidence in the estimate's accuracy. Others knowledgeable of Plains crop conditions have guessed the area total at from 1.6 to 2.3 million acres. Planting in the 25 counties in 1973 totaled 2,825,000 acres.

USDA's July estimate of "planted" acreage, released July 11, placed national acres at 14,275,400, of which about 2,800,000 are reported as planted on the High Plains.

"THAT FIGURE FOR OUR AREA is obviously too high," says Johnson, "even after taking off acreage planted and later lost to hail, sand and drought." Most observers, including at least one USDA official, agree that USDA's estimate for the Plains and for the nation includes some acreage earlier intended for cotton, but by reason of drought, flood or other factors was never planted.

A better indication of acreage in cotton this year will not be available until around August 1, after the July 15 deadline for farmer reports to ASCS. The PCG-LCE Estimates Committee at that time will compile a new acreage estimate and project possible production for the year.

The chart below shows the 25 PCG counties and a comparison of acreage planted to cotton in 1973 and the PCG-LCE estimate of standing acreage on July 9, 1974.

Consumer alert

by John L. Hill, Attorney General

AUSTIN—The mobile home industry, with its low-cost alternative to conventional home-buying, exercises a growing appeal for many Texas families. As evidence, there are approximately 100,000 mobile homes in our State now, and sales are increasing by 25,000 units each year.

Recently, we organized a new Labor Division within the Attorney General's Office which will have responsibility for enforcing consumer laws related to mobile homes, as well as labor-related statutes. This division represents the Texas Department of Labor and Standards, the agency with regulatory power over mobile homes in the state.

OUR LABOR DIVISION attorneys just settled the first case arising out of the 400 complaints they have received regarding mobile homes. They have found that many dissatisfactions arise not only from misunderstandings about mobile home construction, but about terms of the sales contract, regulations regarding the mobile home, moving the home, locating the home, and mobile home park restrictions.

Some mobile home complaints could be prevented if consumers took time to investigate all these things before buying their mobile home.

Any sales contract should include a description of the mobile home furnishings, appliances, and any other items to be included in the purchase. Mobile home purchasers should understand the contract and the method of financing and are urged to sign the "placement certificate" only after the mobile home is delivered and set up.

OUR AREA OF concern is "tie-down" of mobile homes, since, in 1973, the Legislature amended the Mobile Home Standards Act to require these restraints to prevent mobile homes from being blown or knocked over. Under the new law, all mobile homes purchased after March 20, 1974, must have approved tie-down systems if they are less than 300 feet from another structure. Mobile homes in coastal counties must meet more stringent requirements for tie-downs because of the danger of hurricanes and resulting high winds.

The Labor Division warns that some persons are selling tie-down systems that do not meet standards. It is important to get all claims about such systems in writing, to check with the Performance Certification Board of the Texas Department of Labor and Standards to make sure such claims are valid, and not to pay a fee for installation of the system until it passes inspection.

MR. AND MRS. DOUGLAS L. FORD

Mr. Ford-Miss Parsons wed in Arizona ceremony

Berta Jean Parsons became the bride of Spec. 4 Douglas L. Ford in a candlelight ceremony at the Mission Drive Baptist Church, Saturday, June 15 at 8 o'clock in the evening. The vows were spoken before an altar decorated with blue carnations and white and yellow roses. The Rev. J.A. Kirkpatrick officiated.

Miss Parsons is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Parsons of Phoenix, Arizona. Ford is the son of Mrs. T.J. Ford of Phoenix and Onvy Ford of Paradise Valley, Arizona.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional gown of white satin, fashioned in princess lines and applied with Valenciennes lace encrusted with seed pearls and crystal beading. The long pointed sleeves were inset with the lace and bead work. The bodice was buttoned from the high collared neckline to below the waist with tiny satin covered buttons. The detachable train was chapel length and repeated the lace and pearl appliques. A shoulder length veil of bridal illusion fell from a white satin band adorned with fresh yellow rosebuds and baby's-breath. She carried a white bible topped with a cascade of blue carnations and yellow roses.

The bridal attendants were Mrs. Davey Bowland, Matron of Honor, and Debra Sue Parsons, sister of the bride, Junior Bridesmaid. Their deft blue dresses were princess lines with long full sleeves fashioned of chiffon. They wore headresses of fresh blue and yellow carnations and carried bouquets of blue and yellow carnations and white roses.

The groom was attended by his brothers, Steve Ford as Best Man and Greg Ford as the Junior Groomsman. Ushers were Rev. Eddy Parsons, brother of the bride, and Steven and Victor Wimer.

At the guest book and gift table were Linda Parsons and Kathy Parsons, sister of the bride.

The reception, held at the West Plaza

Club House, honoring the couple, the bride's table was covered with a cloth of white net and satin, handmade by Mrs. W.P. Culton, a family friend. It was applied with felt bell and birds highlighted by pearls and iridescents. The serving table was centered with an arrangement of blue carnations and yellow roses. The four-tiered wedding cake was topped with white satin bells adorned with miniature blue carnations and yellow rosebuds. Friends of the bride's family assisted as hostesses for the reception.

For their going away attire, the couple chose matching outfits of dark blue shirts and light blue pants.

After a brief honeymoon in Phoenix, Los Angeles and Honolulu, the couple will be home at 24 Maalo St., No. 3, Wahiawa, Hawaii.

Out of town guests for the wedding included the bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Kenneth Pyburn of Morton; the bride's paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L.D. Parsons of Olney; Mrs. Robert Cauthen of Dallas; Mr. Ray Tapia of California; and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Julian of Wahiawa, Hawaii.
