Sharp rise in oil, gas production

total value
82.6 million

The production of crude oil and natural gas in 1974 continued to have a significant impact on the economy of Cochran County, with the estimated value of the county's production, royalty payments, and state severance taxes reaching new highs.

Cochran was one of 197 counties — an increase of four from 1973 — which produced oil and gas valued in excess of $100,000 in a year which saw the total value of state production jump from just over $6.7 billion to almost $11.4 billion.

The county ranked 34th in the state in the total value of petroleum produced — $82.6 million — with $79.6 million of that coming from the sale of 11.4 million barrels of crude oil; $3 million from the sale of 10.4 million MCF of natural gas.

This study by the Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association shows also that the county's petroleum production last year resulted in the payment of $10.3 million to royalty owners.

These figures, whether considered statewide or individually in almost 80 percent of Texas' 254 counties, emphasize the importance of a healthy petroleum industry in the nation's No. 1 energy state," said Sherman Hunt, a Dallas independent oil man who is president of Texas Mid-Continent.

"In the face of declining production in Texas, it is significant that this increased return to royalty owners and producers came from crude oil

MRS. MARINA AND MARY...A Hazardous Journey

Marinas encounter danger during visit to Lebanon

Two Morton women returned last week from a journey to the Middle East that would strike the more adventurous as an exotic adventure—and the more faint hearted as a perilous journey.

Mrs. Simon Marina and daughter Mary, 19, a sophomore student at South Plains College, spent two weeks with relatives in Lebanon, a pivotal country in the Middle East, which at the time of their visit was engaged in a very active civil disturbance, verging on a full-scale civil war.

The Marinas were aware of the disturbance, but at last were assured by relatives that it would be alright to make the visit. The two ladies departed Lubbock for Dallas, New York, London, Frankfurt, Germany, Istanbul, Turkey and finally Beirut, Lebanon, where they expected to spend three weeks visiting their many relatives.

Things were nice in Beirut for the first week until they began to hear this "thunder"—which they later were informed were bombs, rockets and machine guns. At that point a cousin warned them to "go to the mountains".

The mountains, as explained by Mrs. Marina, is a very nice resort-residential district several miles from the scene of action in Beirut, where they

4-Her's attend Electric Camp

Eight 4-H Club members from Cochran County left Monday, July 21, on a five-day trip to New Mexico's Camp Scott Able near Cloudcroft for training in Leadership and electrical projects, according to County Extension agent Roy N. Jones.

Each year three boys and three girls, accompanied by an adult, are selected from each of the 20 counties in Texas Agricultural Extension Service District 2 to attend electric camp. Since Cochran County was on the planning committee they were allotted an extra boy and girl.

They left Monday by bus, returning Friday, July 25. In all, some 120 youths and 20

IT CAN BE SAID for sunflowers, relative newcomers to this area, that they make one of the most beautiful farm crops of all—and with two local beauties to add to the sparkle, the scenery gets downright spectacular. Sabrina Wells, left, and Kathy Mason, right, recent Morton High School graduates, contributed a great deal toward enhancing the beauty of this field of sunflowers on the Ike Williams farm southwest of Morton Saturday.

Countians face college cost rise

Residents of Cochran County who have sons and daughters bound for college this fall are finding, not surprisingly, that it will take more money than it did last year. In general, their costs will be 6 to 8 percent higher than before, according to a survey of 2,400 colleges and universities throughout the country.

Many parents, especially those with two offspring going to college at the same time, find themselves in a financial bind as a result.

This year, because of the

Two lose lives in June mishaps

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated seven accidents on rural highways in Cochran County during the month of June, 1975 according to Sergeant H.E. Pirtle, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in two persons killed and one person injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first six months of 1975 shows a total of 24 accidents resulting in three persons killed and eight persons injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for the 60 counties of the Lubbock Department of Public Safety Region for June 1975, shows a total of 572 accidents resulting in 25 persons killed and 355 persons injured as compared to June, 1974 with 466 accidents resulting in 19 persons killed and 94 more injured in 1975 at the same period of time.

THE M&M BOYS—Mike Nichols and Mike Liner are justifiably proud of their new enterprise in Morton, the M&M Gun Shop, located in Nichols Mens store on the west side of the square. With stock still arriving daily, they expect very soon to offer a full line of sporting rifles, shotguns and hand guns together with all the equipment that accompanies them. They are open for business now.

Franklin pioneered drive for unity among the thirteen colonies

Two hundred years ago this week Benjamin Franklin became the focus of attention in two matters.

The first was the question of continental unity. Franklin had been concerned for many years about the need of the colonies to act in a unified manner. Twenty-one years earlier in 1754 during the French and Indian War he had proposed the so-called "Albany Plan of Union" that would have created a limited continental government. It had been rejected by both the British and the colonial governments.

Now in 1775 Franklin again believed that a continental government was needed since the Continental Congress was the only existing framework. Franklin explained that it was only a rough framework that needed refinement. Congress received his suggestion but tabled it immediately. In truth, Franklin was still ahead of his time — in this instance by about a year.

The second matter in which Franklin was involved was the establishment of a continental postal system. Congress recognized the need for some system that could convey messages from one end of the continent to another as rapidly as possible. During May Congress had appointed a committee headed by Franklin to study the matter. On July 26, Congress accepted the report and created a postal department with Franklin named as postmaster general. This was an appropriate appointment since he had served in a similar capacity under royal control.

Another pressing need was the matter of caring for wounded American soldiers. On July 25, Dr. Benjamin Church was named the first Surgeon General of the Continental Army. Congress approved the hospital organization and the positions within it. As chief physician Church was to name his subordinates. Church was a capable surgeon, but his chief distinction, unfortunately, came from his passing of army secrets to the British. Later, on October 4, 1775, he was courtmartialled with Washington presiding and was sentenced to life imprisonment.

In Spanish Texas a major part of the frontier work was done by the Church. The objectives of the Church were to convert the Indians to Christianity. The success of this endeavor can be questioned since there were many

WORCESTERED FRANKS
Franks and burgers still top the cook-out menu, but here is some Worcestershire "saucery" that will make them deliciously special!
Frankfurters will be popular prepared this way: Cut a slit lengthwise in a pound of frankfurters. Mix 1/2 cup chopped tomato and 1/2 cup shredded American cheese and stuff into slits. Brush with Worcestershire sauce and wrap each with slice of bacon. Grill 6 minutes over hot charcoal, brushing frequently with Worcestershire.
Another good-and-easy: Stuffed double burgers filled with surprises. Shape 1 1/2 pounds ground lean beef into 12 (3-inch) patties. Top 6 of the patties with diced American cheese and thin dill pickle slices. Cover with remaining patties and seal edges. Broil over hot charcoal, 5 minutes to a side.
Sassy Burgers are bound to be popular. Shape 1 1/2 pounds ground lean beef into 6 patties. Brush generously with Worcestershire sauce. Sprinkle lightly with salt. Broil 4 minutes on one side and turn. Broil second side 2 minutes. Mix 1/2 cup pineapple preserves with 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce and brush over patties. Cook 2 minutes longer.

SAVE THE POSTAL SERVICE AND THE FREE PRESS

Some rather startling recommendations were made recently by the administrative law judge of the Postal Rate Commission concerning future postal rates. If followed, these recommendations could spell disaster for the United States Postal Service itself and for freedom of the press as we know it.

Among other things, the judge proposes reducing the price of a first-class stamp from 10 cents to 8-1/2 cents. Sounds fine from the consumer's point of view, doesn't it? Well, it's not. And the reason is that the judge wants to make up the loss in first-class revenues by inordinate increases in the costs of mailing magazines, newspapers, books and packages. Actually, his plan would wind up costing the consumer more-not less.

And what does his plan do to the USPS? It means a reduction of $900 million in first-class revenues, and the doubtful prospect that this will be made up by the certain reduction in usage of the other classes of mail. Not to mention the fact that there is already a $1.6 billion deficit facing the postal service.

Bandruptcy! Certainly a possibility. Moreover, the judge's proposals could also cause an intellectual bankruptcy in the land, for they could force many of our valued periodicals to go out of business -- unable to absorb or pass along the huge increases in mailing costs. Newspapers and magazines would be hit by a minimum of a 121 per cent rise (weekly newspapers by as much as 250 per cent); books by 96 per cent, and packages by 67 per cent.

The single greatest tragedy in all of this as far as the American public is concerned is that the public-service function of the postal service -- the dissemination of informational and educational material -- is clearly recognized by our founding fathers -- has not even been considered in the recommendations made by the law judge in this case.

If his remarkable recommendations are followed, we may live to see the day when the thoughtful, provocative and beautiful magazine and newspaper is relegated to the role of coffee table decor for the very rich -- as opposed to an informational and educational natural resource for all to enjoy.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture has the authority to extend outstanding producer loans of 1974-crop cotton. But USDA announced on May 23 this year that loans would not be extended.

Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., a long time advocate of an 18-month cotton loan, has been urging USDA to reconsider that decision. But to date the PCG requests have fallen on deaf ears. A letter from USDA, written July 9 in response to a request from Congressman George Mahon, purports to justify the Department's refusal to authorize an extension. And, strangely enough, some of the reasons given for the refusal are the same reasons used by PCG in asking for the extension.

The loan program was designed as a mechanism to facilitate the producer's need to hold agricultural commodities off the market during times of burdensome supplies and unacceptable prices — the exact condition in which cotton finds itself in 1975. Heavy cotton stocks in the U.S. and abroad, coupled with slack demand for textile products around the globe, have driven prices to a point well below the cost of production.

But the situation appears to be improving. The world-wide recession appears to be bottoming, textile demand is showing a little life, and 1975 cotton production is almost certain to be below that of 1974.

USDA's letter to Congressman Mahon points out that U.S. supplies of cotton should be "more than adequate" to meet projected domestic and export requirements for 1975-76. It also agrees that "the economy and textile consumption are beginning to recover."

These are precisely the conditions under which producers should be permitted to hold cotton in the loan until supplies are no longer "more than adequate" and until textile consumption creates the necessary demand for price recovery.

But the USDA letter concluded by saying "Extending the loan could flash the wrong signal by creating an impression of shortage not actually existent, withholding supplies at a time when sales could be made, encouraging a larger production than otherwise, building up holes for much stronger prices ahead, and eventually piling crop-on-crop as each new season gets underway."

Had USDA announced a loan extension back in May, there is a possibility that larger production might have been encouraged. Even that is doubtful, and certainly such an argument is no longer valid in July.

As for producers "withholding supplies" when "supplies are more than adequate" and therefore "building up hopes for stronger prices," that's explicitly what the loan is supposed to do.

So behind all the verbiage USDA appears to be saying it doesn't want producers to have hopes for stronger prices and will not authorize a loan extension for fear the loan would then serve the purpose for which it was intended.

BACKGROUND ON BUSINESS

Helping Our Retailers To Help

To help push production up and keep prices down, businesses are installing small computers for a variety of production, accounting, and service functions. Users of small computers have a common interest in becoming more efficient, more competitive, more responsive to the changing needs of their marketplaces.

With a small computer in operation, a retailer can know what items are selling and which ones aren't. It can have up-to-the-minute records on just what products and what quantities it has in inventories. And billing and accounts receivable are more accurate and complete.

Whether they're food distributors in Oklahoma, plastics manufacturers in Illinois, or building supply dealers in Connecticut, they're using a small computer called the System/3 marketed by IBM's General Systems Division. It's known as the office computer that can help a company grow. For information on profit-saving computer systems you can write to IBM General Systems Division, c/o Information Dept., P.O. Box 2150, Atlanta, Ga. 30301.

When a retailer operates efficiently, the consumer feels it in prices, items in stock, and in the general environment of the store. A computer allows a retailer to spot varying trends immediately and be prepared to pull back one item and increase distribution in another. In short, a store can stock just what you want to buy.

MANKIND

Divided into three classes: those that are immovable, those that are movable, and those that move.

TIPS FOR OUTDOORSMEN

Trailer Warning

Due to the unusually high price charged for gasoline today, many motorists are purchasing the smallest automobiles possible.

This is a commendable way to economize on gasoline, but it's not so good from the standpoint of safety if you are going to be pulling a boat or trailer, unless the entire rig is a mighty light one.

Many a fisherman has discovered to his great surprise that a sudden and strong gust of wind can cause a loaded trailer to "flip" and in the process of doing so cause further damage by overturning the light automobile.

So, it is well to remember that the pulling car must outweigh the trailing unit, and then some.

Smallest damage that can be done is to crash your trailer and your boat. There's also a likelihood of seriously injuring yourself and your companions, and a possibility of crashing into an approaching or parked vehicle.

It's not worth the risk to underpower any automobile. But it is well worth the investment to overpower, just in case extra weight or added speed is needed for one purpose or another.

Charging Caution

When your car or boat battery goes dead and needs a quick charge, a booster charge, or a lift from another battery, be sure and disconnect your battery from both of the battery cables.

Otherwise you may damage such equipment as the radio, clock, alternators or impulse tachometers.

Reason is that semi-conductors can be injured by current exceeding their own ratings.

Special Notice

We have been advised by Dekalb that only 27,000 bags of Hybrid Wheat will be available for this district of Texas. This means a complete sell out. So if you are planning on planting some of this wheat please give us your order so we will be sure to have it.

Dekalb claims about a 20-25% increase in yield on this wheat over other varieties & about 25-30% more grazing. Due to its tillering ability seeding rate can be decreased somewhat. Being a hybrid this wheat should be more vigorous & should stand better. I think it will really pay especially if you plan on grazing it. So don't forget if you want some of this wheat please give us your order now.

amount and kind of soil, colorfastness and type of fabric. A regular laundry load will need a full 10-minute

Pretreat extra dirty spots on clothes with Spray 'n Wash® laundry soil and stain remover. Spray it on extra-tough spots and stains, let set for one minute, and launder the item normally with the rest of the wash.

Use an all-temperature detergent.

Don't over-dry laundry. Besides wasting electricity, over-drying wrinkles clothes.

Take full advantage of clear, warm days and hang your wet laundry outdoors to be air-dried.

Save on ironing, too, by folding clothes while they're still warm from the dryer. Wrinkles can be "pressed out" by hand if they don't have time to set.

A Land Bank loan at work

Labor-saving devices won't turn farming into a "rocking chair" occupation. Still, there are ways that a long-term Federal Land Bank loan at reasonable cost could help you expand—and handle the increased production with less effort. In fact, if you've been working too hard, your credit probably hasn't been working hard enough. To find out how expansion capital might be used to get more efficiency, see your Land Bank Association.

Save Money At Laundry Time

Follow some simple energy-saving tips at laundry-time to save money, too! Here's how:

Wash clothes in cold water. There's no noticeable difference in laundering results between hot and cold water washes.

Do only full laundry loads. Several small loads of laundry use more water and electricity than one big load.

Sort clothes according to Helen of Troy, whose lovely face the poet said launched a thousand ships, was really the prize in a fabulous contest. Three Greek goddesses asked Paris, prince of Troy, to judge which of them should be awarded the golden Apple of Discord. He gave it to Aphrodite who had promised him in return the love of the fairest of women, namely Helen. So Paris took Helen to Troy—and the Trojan War resulted!

If you are not covered by a pension plan where you work, LEVELLAND STATE BANK has good news for you.

Self employed individuals can set aside $7,500 tax free!

* Self-employed individuals can set aside 15 percent each year from earned income to a maximum of $7,500. This sum is completely tax deductible from 1975 income taxes.

Contributions made for employees are also tax deductible. This program is known as the Keogh Plan and was part of the Pension Reform Act, signed into law by President Ford on September 2, 1974. Under the Keogh Plan of September 2, 1974, the self-employed person pays no taxes on the money set aside prior to retirement. During retirement exemptions are higher, income less and the person pays taxes on a lower tax bracket.

Employees can arrange $1,500 tax free retirement savings!

As an employee of any organization, independent business, industrial firm, political subdivision, charitable or religious organization, farm, professional group, etc., you now qualify for deferred income tax payments if you are not adequately covered by a pension plan where you work. The IRA (Individual Retirement account) Provision of the new law provides tax-free income for employees not now adequately covered, by a pension plan or special annuity of some type. Eligible employees are permitted to contribute cash to an individual Retirement Account up to 15 percent of pay received for a total not to exceed $1,500 annually.

and natural gas which is free from restrictive federal price controls. But there are at this time proposals in Congress which would place all of Texas' petroleum production under federal price controls, with predictable disastrous consequences for the industry, as well as the whole economy of the state," Hunt said.

The survey also shows that the State of Texas received $3.9 million in production taxes from county wells, with $3.7 million coming from crude oil output and $230,000 from natural gas production.

Oil and gas developers and producers spent an estimated $3.5 million drilling 48 wells in the county last year, with 19 percent of that figure lost in nine dry holes. The total drilling yielded 22 oil wells and 17 gas wells. The exploratory effort in the county included the drilling of three wildcat wells seeking new oil and gas fields.

According to the Texas Employment Commission, 98 oil and gas industry employees worked in the county in 1974 and shared a payroll totalling $1 million.

A processing plant also added to the county's petroleum-related economy: The "Oil and Gas Journal" lists one natural gasoline processing plant, with a daily capacity of $10.6 million cubic feet.

obstacles to be overcome. Indian languages were numerous and difficult to learn. Priests on the frontier had to learn the native language, had to teach the Indians the Spanish language, or had to communicate through sign language. Since Indian Languages were not written and sign language was difficult at best, the only alternative seemed to be to teach Spanish to the Indians. Even then, however, there were serious questions of how much religious instruction was really accomplished. — Donald W. Whisenhunt, history professor, Eastern New Mexico University.

MARINAS

"holed up" with other relatives and friends until they thought it was safe to return to Beirut.

Though they very much enjoyed the "hill country", they were glad to get back to their friends and relatives in Beirut. When the fighting reached a fever pitch, and the apartment building in which they were staying was hit by a rocket, they decided to make their way back to the airport and try to return to the United States.

Mrs. Marina said "We sneaked to the airport by the beach road and managed to catch the last airplane that night out of Beirut." Mary added that "One of our cousins, Assad Hamati, was killed while filling sand bags in the fighting."

While both take a more or less philosophical view of the turmoil that has engulfed their native country, they both are very apprehensive concerning its future. They are apprehensive about the outside influences that are dedicated to the neutralization of their country, if not its actual destruction.

The fighting, on a local basis, Mrs. Marina explains, is strictly between civilians, with the main issue being between the Christians and the Moslems.

According to Mrs. Marina's description the Lebanon constitution specifies that there will be a Christian President and a Moslem Prime Minister, with the cabinet consisting of men and women of both religions. Though Lebanon is the only Christian country in the Middle East, the population has a large Moslem majority, Mrs. Marina said.

Asked if she observed any Communist influence while there, Mrs. Marina is very emphatic that it exists, though usually camouflaged by routing its influence through the Palestinians, and other militant disruptive organizations.

Since Lebanon is the trade and finance center—the Little Switzerland—of the Middle East, it would be a feather in the cap of Soviet Russia if the Moslems gained control of the country, since Russia is backing them in the war against Israel.

Mary, who is a sophomore student of Fashion Design and Marketing at South Plains College this year and intends to continue at Texas Tech next year, would like to have visited fashion and marketing centers in Beirut, she said, but added that with heavy fighting going on they were very restricted in their movements. "It was just not safe to be out on the streets day or night," she stated.

Most of the weapons being used in the fighting are of foreign make and furnished by foreign countries that want to see chaos in Lebanon, Mrs. Marina stated.

Inflation is extremely high over there, with hotel rooms costing up to $100 a night and items of clothing, food, etc., costing over twice as much as like items in Morton. "I would have liked to take more pictures, but with a roll of color film costing $8 and processing $12.50, I decided I could get along with a lot less," she said.

"Though we don't regret having made the trip at this time, we sure are glad and thankful to be back safe and sound in Morton," both ladies averred and added that "we certainly are thankful for the prayers of all of our friends and our family which we are sure assisted greatly in returning us home safe and well."

The event, Jones says, provides leadership training and teaches 4-H members, leaders and county extension agents how to conduct 4-H electrical projects and method demonstrations, and how to prepare 4-H records.

Recreation and citizenship training also is an important part of the camp, Jones adds.

number of Cochran County students involved and because of the higher rates, local families are being faced with overall costs estimated at approximately $495,000.

The facts and figures on college enrollments and costs are based upon data compiled by the College Entrance Examination Board, the Commerce Clearing House and others.

They show that it now takes a total of $4,391, on average, to send a youngster to a four-year private college. This compares with $4,039 in 1974.

At four-year public colleges the average cost has reached $2,679, from the previous level of $2,400. Two-year institutions have gone up proportionately.

Included in the total costs are tuition, fees, transportation, room and board and miscellaneous expenses, including books. The tab is considerably less for those who commute to college.

At private institutions the biggest item is tuition and fees, which have risen to an average of $2,240. Room and board is next in line, $1,302. At four-year public colleges, room and board is slightly less, $1,272, but tuition and fees are much lower, $578.

Financial aid to hard-pressed students is being increased this year by many colleges and by the Federal government. Some $857 million in such assistance is being offered by the U.S. Office of Education, with $40.6 million of it allocated to those in the State of Texas.

According to the latest figures, approximately 140 from the Cochran County area will be going to college this year.

The cost entailed, $495,000, is based upon the expectation that half of them will be headed for public colleges and half for private ones.

Settlers Had To Develop Modern Thirst for Milk

While dairying was transplanted vigorously to the New World by both the Dutch and the Germans, other early settlers showed little evidence of the modern thirst for milk.

Fluid milk from cows was used merely to supplement mush or to cook into chowders. Not much butter was made at first - clabber and cheese had a more dominant place on the first settlers' tables.

Colonial cattle were not of any particular breed, and they were valued more for their meat, hides and as a source of motive power than for their milk. It wasn't until about 1830 that dairying began to emerge as a commercial enterprise.

For many years, it was common for town dwellers to keep one or more cows which roamed the streets and fields. On the farm, dairying was mainly to provide butter and cheese for the table as well as for sale in nearby towns. These items were also good for barter in country stores.

The farmer's wife was in charge of the cows as well as the production and sale of cheese and butter. A lack of refrigeration limited the sale of fluid milk. But even if cooling facilities had been available, the early farmers would have been hard put to sell very much milk. The Colonial people were just not milk drinkers. They preferred more stimulating beverages.

Cotton acreage report needed from all cotton farmers which have cotton allotments.

August 1 is the final date to report cotton acreage to be eligible for disaster or deficiency payments in 1975.

The acreage of wheat or feed grain must be reported if you have a crop loss on either crop or if you are substituting cotton for either wheat for feed grains and a report of disaster is filed for cotton. Their certification of acres must be correct so measure the crops first then file your report.

There are only 7 more days left to certify. We have about 400 cotton farms that have not certified. This means that we will have to have about 55 farmers in every day between now and August 1 to get everyone certified.

There will not be an extension of this date. And to be eligible for any payments, (if there are any), you must certified by August 1, 1975.

The ASCS office is to properly inform producers of program provisions and to provide assistance in completing the necessary reports. To be informed, the producer has the responsibility to timely file reports necessary to avail himself of program benefits.

IS THE CHURCH PART OF YOUR LIFE?

THERE'S MORE TO LIFE THAN A PRETTY BALLOON!

A bouncy red or yellow balloon is the symbol the world over of good fun and happy feelings. There's rarely a festival, a fiesta or a fair held anywhere without the familiar balloon vendor strolling through the crowd, selling happiness for a few pennies. Parents buy them for their kids and young men present them with a flourish to their girl friends. Just why a balloon is so much fun isn't clear, but one thing is certain—the pleasure never quits. The air leaks out balloons unexpectedly pop, causing fingers send them soaring away faster. But there is a far greater pleasure to be found that will last for an eternity. It is the happy pursuit of a Christian life and you can find out all about it this Sunday—in church.

Grain producers will elect four board members

Four board members will be named when the Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Board holds its third biennial election Sept. 15.

The terms of Larry Witten of Olton, K.B. Parish of Springlake, Ralph Mabry of Petersburg and C.P. Smith of Hale Center expire. All four are eligible for re-election.

Eligible to vote in the election and to serve on the board are persons living in the 29-county TGSPB area who produce grain sorghum and pay the board assessment.

Any person wishing to be nominated for membership on the board should make application to the board at least 30 days before the election. The application must be signed by the nominee and 10 other eligible voters.

Ballots will be mailed to voters and must be returned to the TGSPB office by Sept. 15. Eligible voters who do not receive ballots by Sept. 1 may obtain one from county agents.

Counties in the TGSPB area are Armstrong, Bailey, Briscoe, Carson, Castro, Cochran, Crobby, Dallam, Dawson, Deaf Smith, Floyd, Gaines, Hale, Hansford, Harley, Hockley, Hutchinson, Lamb, Lubbock, Lynn, Moore, Oldham, Parmer, Potter, Randall, Sherman, Swisher, Terry and Yoakum.

Grain sorghum price claimed "uncertain"

Although the sorghum harvest is making good progress over South Texas and harvesting is expected to start in Central areas soon, the price outlook for the crop is still uncertain.

"We expect sorghum prices to remain under the pressure of large feedgrain crop prospects for much of the summer," says Roland Smith, grain marketing specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. "However, rumors of pending large foreign purchases may be sufficient to override the negative price effects of the large crop. Unless substantial purchases do occur, we would expect Central Texas prices to average near $3.60 per hundred weight in late July and August. Sorghum prices in the Panhandle could range from $3.95 to $4.20 for the same period."

"Although the carryover from last year is expected to be small by this fall, the price that farmers receive for their new crop of sorghum will hinge greatly on domestic and foreign demands," notes the Texas A&M University System specialist.

A large harvest is in prospect in the United States and in Texas where sorghum acreage is up considerably as many farmers switched from cotton. On July 1 the 1975 U.S. sorghum crop was projected to be between 860 and 900 million bushels while the corn crop was estimated at 6.05 billion bushels.

"Some increase in livestock feeding is boosting the domestic demand for sorghum, but this increase has been limited to now. But, a big question mark for sorghum is the export situation," contends Smith.

"If Russia's feedgrain crop has suffered as much from dry weather as some people think, then exports to that country will certainly bolster the sorghum market. Also, poor weather has set back feedgrain crops in Argentina, a major exporting country."

So, feedgrain exports may begin to increase as the big U.S. crop starts coming in. Also, how much of the feedgrain crop farmers store will affect the

Deputy Ronald Henry completes crime course

Cochran county chief Deputy Ronald Henry was one of thirty-four law enforcement officers from 21 different agencies across the state who recently completed a basic two-week Texas Crime Prevention Institute course at San Marcos.

Participants were awarded certificates of completion Friday (June 27) in ceremonies there.

The statewide institute, headquartered at Southwest Texas State University, has provided instruction in crime prevention theory and techniques to 424 certified law enforcement officers since its initial funding a year ago.

In addition to the basics, the institute offers advanced, administrative and specialized schools.

Another two-week basic course is scheduled to begin July 21. Three-day specialized environmental schools are set to begin July 22 and July 29. The specialized courses will be on how to design buildings to prevent crimes.

Officers completing the last basic school include Deputy Santos Martinez and Trinidad C. Rendon of the Frio County Sheriff's Office; Sgt. Fred Dietz and Ptl. Mark A. Hamilton of the San Angelo Police Department; Sgt. Johnny Thomas and Sgt. Conrad N. Mars of the Mt. Pleasant Police Department; Ptl. Leland D. Vance and Ptl. Gerald Walker of the Garland Police Department; and Ptl. David Ray Ball and Ptl. Mike Baxter of the Wichita Falls Police Department.

Also, Ptl. Johnnie E. Teron and Ptl. Richard Ortiz of the San Antonio Police Department; Sgt. J.B. Stevenson and Ptl. Joseph F. Kiefer Jr. of the Temple Police Department; Officer C.B. Choate Jr., Ptl. Philip R. Miles and Ptl. Robert M. Sneed of the Odessa Police Department; Tony Bell of the Southwest Texas State University Police; Billy Burch of the Levelland Police Department; Fred Byrd of the Seguin Police Department; Lee H.D. Spain of the Kendall County Sheriff's Office; Danny L. Dayton of the Waco Police Department; and Steward D. Dickson of the Taylor County Sheriff's Office.

And Ronald S. Henry of the Cochran County Sheriff's Office; William Jones of the Arlington Police Department; William King of the Floresville Police Department; Melvin Lemons of the Bandera County Sheriff's Office; J.H. Long of the Edna Police Department; Bettie Pundt of the Wilson County Sheriff's Office; L.L. Rainey of the Floyd County Sheriff's Office; and Earl Ray Teel of the Bowie County Sheriff's Office.

Last call for the falls, Pedernales Park restricted

The Twin Falls area of Pedernales Falls State Park near Johnson City will be closed to the public effective August 1.

According to Texas Parks and Wildlife Department Parks Division director Paul Schlimper, the aesthetic and biological resources of the Twin Falls area have steadily deteriorated due to vandalism, soil compaction and erosion since the park opened to the public.

"Twin Falls is one of the most beautiful portions of Pedernales Falls State Park," said Schlimper. "This beauty has proven to be one of the factors leading to its downfall since so many people have been attracted to the falls and simply 'loved it to death'."

Schlimper said that the area will be off limits to the public for an indefinite period. Restoration of plants below the falls has already begun with planting of native eastern gamagrass. Other restoration measures will be implemented as soon as public access is controlled.

Even the department's protective action may not be enough to save two key elements of Twin Falls: a pair of bald cypress trees which are slowly dying apparently due to soil compaction and other factors.

The slopes leading to the falls have become eroded, bottomland soil has been compacted under the impact of visitors' feet and the crowns of the trees are infested with ball moss.

The public will not be cut off completely from Twin Falls; a scenic overlook of the area has been constructed as part of the park's "Hill Country Nature Trail."

Visitors will be able to admire Twin Falls from a distance but not allowed to enter the fragile area within the creek bottom.

Schlimper said that Pedernales Falls State Park superintendent Jerry Bynum is authorized to enforce the closing order.

"Complete information and maps of the prohibited area of the park will be available to the public at Pedernales Falls Park headquarters," he said.

"We solicit the public's cooperation in restoring an important part of one of Texas' most beautiful state parks."

Richard Coleman honor student at Texas A&M

Richard A. Coleman of Morton has earned "Distinguished Student" ranking at Texas A&M University, announced Registrar Robert A. Lacey.

The undergraduate honor is awarded students who have excelled academically. Recipients must earn at least a 3.25 grade point ratio (out of a possible 4.0) during the most recent grading period.

"Distinguished Student" ranking is limited to 10 percent of TAMU's undergraduate enrollment.

Coleman is the son of Leonard O. Coleman of 605 East Grant. He is majoring in chemical engineering.

Hunting on private land rules outlined

Most of Texas is private property and it is required that all hunters get permission before they hunt on private property. These two factors can cause the unprepared sportsman a lot of lost field time.

Reports from a few sportsmen indicate that they spend as much time looking for a place to hunt as they spend in the field after the game bird or animal.

It is not too early to contact the landowner about permission to hunt this fall. Disappointment on opening morning will be avoided if the hunter and landowner work out arrangements about the lease or hunting rights before opening morning of deer or quail season.

If you are going to lease property to hunt, make sure these points are covered in the agreement; what is leased, name of parties, description of tract including size and boundaries, the terms of the lease including the amount and time of payment, the duration of the lease, who is to hunt and the species of game birds, animals, fish and varmints which may be taken.

Several landowners list their property in the classified ads section of the local newspaper and check with the county agent as he might have a list of prospective landowners and hunting areas.

Securing a place to hunt is only one of the details to be taken care of before the season starts. September 1 is the date new 1975-76 hunting licenses will be required for the fall hunting seasons and the new 1975 Texas Hunting Guide will be available the last week of July. This guide can be picked up at any license vendor.

If you are planning to take your son or daughter on a hunting trip, check into the department sponsored hunter safety classes being held all across Texas. Contact your local game warden or call any Texas Parks & Wildlife department office and put your name on the list and find out when the next class will be held.

Hunting has many responsibilities and securing a place to hunt, obeying the game rules and regulations, and following the rules of safe firearms handling is a good beginning.

Bicentennial flag ceremony slated at Guadalupe Park

A Bicentennial Flag Ceremony, sponsored jointly by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, the National Park Service and the Chisholm Trail Council of the Boy Scouts of America, will be held at Guadalupe Mountains National Park on July 28.

According to Park Superintendent Don Dayton and Tom Barnett, Chairman of the Cultural Affairs Committee of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, the ceremony will involve 10 Scouts from Troop 3 of the Chisholm Trail Council carrying American and Texas flags which have been flown over the national and state capitol buildings and a Bicentennial flag to the summit of Guadalupe Peak, highest point in Texas.

The Scouts who will conduct the ceremony are from Abilene, Texas and members of the oldest consecutively chartered troop in the Chisholm Trail Council, Guadalupe Peak, which rises 8,751 feet above sea level and much of the remaining acreage which makes up the park was owned by the J. C. Hunter family of Abilene, prior to the park's establishment.

The flags to be used in the ceremony represent U.S. Senators John Tower and Lloyd Bentsen of Texas and U.S. Congressman Richard C. White of the 16th Congressional District which includes the park.

Leading the Scouts on the climb to the peak summit will be Scoutmaster Mike Kesler and Assistant Scoutmasters John Large and David Weaver.

The climb will begin from a point near the historic ruins of the Butterfield Stage Line's Pinery Station near the top of Guadalupe Pass and ascend more than 3,500 feet in vertical elevation. It is estimated that four hours will be required to reach the peak's summit.

DIARY OF AN UNBORN CHILD

- OCTOBER 5— Today my life began. My parents do not know it yet, I am as small as a seed of an apple, but it is I already. And I am to be a girl. I shall have blond hair and blue eyes. Just about everything is settled though, even the fact that I shall love flowers.
- OCTOBER 19— Some say that I am not a real person yet, that only my mother exists. But I am a real person, just as a small crumb of bread is yet truly bread. My mother is. And I am.
- OCTOBER 23— My mouth is just beginning to open now. Just think, in a year or so I shall be laughing and later talking. I know what my first word will be: MAMA.
- OCTOBER 25— My heart began to beat today all by itself. From now on it shall gently beat for the rest of my life without ever stopping to rest! And after many years it will tire. It will stop, and then I shall die.
- NOVEMBER 2— I am growing a bit every day. My arms and legs are beginning to take shape. But I have to wait a long time yet before those little legs will raise me to my mother's arms, before these little arms will be able to gather flowers and embrace my father.
- NOVEMBER 12— Tiny fingers are beginning to form on my hands. Funny how small they are! I'll be able to stroke my mother's hair with them.
- NOVEMBER 20— It wasn't until today that the doctor told mom that I am living here under her heart. Oh, how happy she must be! Are you happy, mom?
- NOVEMBER 25— My mom and dad are probably thinking about a name for me. But they don't even know that I am a little girl. I want to be called Kathy. I am getting so big already.
- DECEMBER 10— My hair is growing. It is smooth and bright and shiny. I wonder what kind of hair mom has.
- DECEMBER 13— I am just about able to see. It is dark around me. When mom brings me into the world it will be full of sunshine and flowers. But what I want more than anything is to see my mom. How do you look, mom?
- DECEMBER 24— I wonder if mom hears the whispering of my heart? Some children come into the world a little sick. But my heart is strong and healthy. It beats so evenly: tup-tup, tup-tup. You'll have a healthy little daughter, mom!
- DECEMBER 28— Today my mother killed me.

Extension Service lawn publication recommended

A new Texas Agricultural Extension Service publication, simply called "Home Lawns", should be a real winner for homeowners, Roy Jones, county Extension Agent, states.

The publication features a complete digest of information on home lawns, ranging from types of lawn grasses to care and maintenance.

A complete discussion is offered on both warm-season and cool-season turf-grasses for Texas. The warm-season types include bermudagrass, buffalograss, zoysiagrass and centipedegrass. Among cool-season grasses described are ryegrass, tall fescue and Kentucky bluegrass.

A section of the new publication is devoted to information on establishing a new turf, points out Jones. Three major steps are discussed as being essential in this endeavor: preparing the soil properly, establishing the grass, and caring for the young grass.

A major portion of the publication is keyed to management of established lawns. Specific information is presented on fertilization, watering and mowing.

A review of lawn problems is featured in the final pages of the publication. Information is presented on thatch accumulation, shade problems, weeds, insects and diseases.

With hot summer weather approaching, homeowners generally experience a variety of lawn problems, notes Jones. The new "Home Lawns" publication can be a valuable guide in identifying these problems and in taking corrective measures. A copy may be obtained at the county Extension Agent's office.

Jaclyn Claye

has her say

DEAR JACLYN CLAYE: Four years ago, grandma died. Grandpa has always been a healthy and vital man and so we all expected that he would probably marry again. We were all completely willing to accept such an eventuality. We hoped that he would choose a nice lady from our church and that life would go on much as it had in the past. But that is not the way it has turned out. Jaclyn, he has chosen a twice-married woman who is twenty years his younger. And they tear around town. His was once the most respected and warmest household in the area when grandma was alive. Grandpa has a huge white house and all our family events of my childhood were held there. But now he has no time for such things. This "lady" has taken him over completely and he carries on with all the foolishness of a college kid. And I hate to say it but it also includes...weekends away. I would like to discuss his changed behavior with his family doctor and at what age does senility become a problem. Signed, MAYPORT.

DEAR MAYPORT: I regret that you regret. The truth is that grandpa and grandma and their huge white house provided you with a million memories and you are simply trying very hard to keep things as they were. But times change, and apparently so has grandma. If his health is good and he has carried out his earlier responsibilities, perhaps its time for him now, to pursue a little foolishness. And that is exactly what he is doing. And I don't think it is senility. But if he marries again and chooses badly, he will have taken the same chances that anyone at any age must take. There are no absolutes in human relationships.

DEAR JACLYN CLAYE: You've heard the old joke about husbands hating their mother-in-laws? Well, my husband does and it's no joke. He is a gentle and kind individual in every other way but when the subject of my mother comes up, he becomes as vicious as all get-out. And the feelings seem to be mutual. My mother is a gentle and kind individual too but when the subject of my husband comes up, she really gets vicious. What scares me is that I am a dead ringer for my mother. Honestly, we look alike, we think alike, and we are carbon copies of each other. My horror is that because Jim despises my mother so much, when I get older perhaps he might feel the same way about me, too. It's a nightmare that I have. You know another crazy thing? I've started to study my mother's mannerisms... and then NOT DO THEM! Also, there is very little purpose in writing to you about this since I am certain that you can't do anything about about it, but I wanted to write about it, anyway. Signed, THURSDAY'S CHILD.

DEAR THURSDAY'S CHILD: I think that you are worrying far too early in the game. Besides, each of us has our own individual personalities. Some family members might share some of the same characteristics but I assure you that there are no "carbon copies." If you've gotten along well with Jim thus far, you probably will for the rest of your years. But, I think you've got to learn to relax.

DEAR JACLYN CLAYE: Please tell that new divorcee who wrote you that I know from experience that moving into a "singles" apartment complex is not going to change her luck. I did the very same thing and all the eligible guys in this building are just interested in each other, if you know what I mean. Signed, MOVIN' ON.

DEAR MOVIN' ON: And I got a half dozen letters from as many other girls who reported that they did the very same thing... and it worked. Know what I mean?

Comments on Conservation

By Solomon P. Hamilton
The week beginning July 25, 1975, has been proclaimed National Farm Safety Week by President Ford. The Soil Conservation Service joins the President in his effort to remind farmers and ranchers that safety hazards do exist and the need to prevent accidents.

Safety is defined as being free from danger or hazard. To keep this freedom, farmers and ranchers need to maintain a safety check on all vehicles used. The Soil Conservation Service has maintained a high standard of safety for the past 40 years. All SCS operated vehicles are safety checked each month or each 1000 miles, which ever comes first.

Farm and ranch homes, barns and other buildings need to be checked for safety. Equipment buildings and shops also have potential safety hazards. Safety needs to be practiced to prevent serious accidents. Storage of chemicals and fuels need to be done safely.

When operating farm vehicles with exposed moving parts be sure not to wear loose garments. Loose scarves, or sleeves should be tied or removed. There are many moving parts of farm machinery, most all of them can be potential hazards.

Conservation is defined as the wise use of, and the maintenance of, our natural resources. The Soil Conservation Service believes that people are our greatest national resource. Their safety is very important. This goes double for farmers and ranchers. They have accepted the responsibility of feeding this nation and the people of the world.

The objective of the SCS is to assist all people in all areas with information on conservation. We commend farmers and ranchers on the wonderful job they have done in maintaining a high level of safety. We hope that our food supply is not hampered by the lack of good farm safety.

CLEP registration deadline July 28

The next College Level Examination Program (CLEP) test will be given Aug. 16 at South Plains College.

Registration for the exam is now underway and will be continued through July 28 in the guidance and counseling offices at SPC.

CLEP is a national program of credit-by-examination, sponsored by the College Entrance Examination Board, which offers persons the opportunity to obtain recognition for college-level achievement. The program is based on the concept that individuals should receive college credit for what they know no matter how they learned it.

There are two types of CLEP tests given: general examinations which measure learning in five basic areas of liberal arts... English composition, mathematics, natural sciences, humanities, social sciences-history; and subject examinations, which measure achievement in specific undergraduate college courses. There are 41 subjects from which to choose.

Fees are $15 for one general exam, $30 for two or more; and $15 for each subject examination.

For further information, contact the office of Don Melton, director of guidance and counseling at SPC, 894-4921.

Mrs. Crone presents program for gardeners

Mrs. Murray Crone presented a program on "Church Arrangement" for the Le Fleur Garden Club in the home of Mrs. L.Z. Scoggins. A brunch was served and the hostess' garden and yard were toured.

Mrs. Crone discussed church flower arrangements and different materials to be used. She concluded the program by creating several flower arrangements and showed how they can relate to scripture and different church services.

Mrs. Don Samford presided over the business session. Programs for the coming year were discussed and the flower show for the County Fair in August. It was announced that the club has three National Flower Show Judges among its members.

Present for the meeting were: Mmes J.L. Thomas, Bob Newton, Owen Egger, Olin Darland, Samford, Crone and out of town member, Mrs. Roy Hill of Lubbock.

The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Samford August 14. A program on the ways to preserve flowers will be given.

Mr. Barrera - Miss Fluitt pledge double ring vows

Miss Sherita Kay Fluitt and David Barrera exchanged double ring vows July 12 at 10 a.m. in the First United Methodist Church. The Rev. Roger Posey, Music and Youth Director of the First Baptist Church, officiated.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. W.O. Fluitt and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Chavez both of Morton.

Vows were exchanged before an archway of blue organdy roses, wedding bells and greenery flanked by baskets of blue daisies and orchid gladiolas.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a nylon satin gown trimmed in lace and pearls and a matching veil of illusion. Her bouquet of feathered carnations, baby's breath and daisies cascaded from atop a white satin covered Bible. The Bible marker and streamers marked the passage of scripture I Cor. 13:7-13.

Following tradition, she wore an opal necklace, a gift from the groom, for "something new." "Something old" was an engagement ring belonging to her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Katie Mae Martin of Post and a blue garter presented to her by Mrs. Opal Grimes. Pennies minted in the years of the couple's births completed the tradition.

Miss Cheryl McClung, pianist, accompanied Mrs. Roger Posey, soloist, who sang "Let It Be Me." "The Wedding Song" and "More". Miss McClung also read a poem.

Miss Vickie Hall was maid of honor, and Miss Becky Meeks of Lubbock, was bridesmaid. They wore identical floor length gowns of orchid and blue. Each carried a nosegay and wore a wide brimmed hat.

Ralph Mason served the groom as best man and Darrell Smith was groomsman.

Elsa Flores, cousin of the groom, was flower girl. She wore a pink dress in the design of the other attendants. Jay Fluitt, brother of the bride, carried the wedding rings on a heart-shaped pillow of white satin and lace.

Lanny Fluitt, brother of the bride and Larry Barrera, brother of the groom, seated the guests.

Mrs. Darrell Smith presided at the guest register.

A reception followed in Fellowship Hall. Members of the houseparty were: Mmes. Jerry Cribbs, J.D. Vick, Harvey Demel, James Dewbre and Leonard Groves. Assisting were Prescilla Minor, Kathy Mason, Yvonna Vanstory, Julie Brown, Ida Christan, Yolanda Chavez, Raylene Wells and Beverly Bridges.

Following a trip to Cloudcroft, New Mexico, the couple will make their home in Morton where the groom is employed with Burkett Trade Lot. The bride is employed at the ASCS office.

Mr. and Mrs. David Barrera

Mrs. Larry Langrill (Henrietta Davis)

Couple exchanges vows in Bledsoe ceremony

Miss Henrietta Davis became the bride of Larry Langrill June 6 7 p.m. in the First Baptist Church in Bledsoe. The Rev. Jerry Rhynes, pastor, officiated. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white dacron polyester organza. The flowing skirt was accented with lace and venise lace peters. Twin ruffles edged in lace accented the low, off the shoulder neckline and the bustline of the gown. The brush train was attached to the gown and she wore a matching fingertip veil. Her bouquet was of white carnations and baby's breath and greenery. Following tradition, she wore a pink cameo pin belonging to her great-grandmother, Mrs. Adeline Cunningham, for "something old", the white Bible she carried as "something new" and her father was blue.

Glorietta Davis of Bledsoe attended her sister as maid of honor. She carried a bouquet of orange carnations and baby's breath. Patricia Milligan of Bledsoe, N.M., June Burns, Shirley Shelton and Sherri Adams of Bledsoe were bridesmaids. They carried long stemmed carnations. The attendants wore dresses of white cotton and polyester enhanced with yellow and orange flowers.

Mike Langrill, brother of the groom, was best man and Terry Davis, Francie Davis, Tracey Griffiths and Bill Funk all of Bledsoe were groomsmen.

Gayla Trull and Tamie Young of Bledsoe served as candle lighters. Dale Hale and Perry Trull seated the guests.

Mrs. Exa Kaye Gober, pianist, accompanied Mrs. Rita Young, soloist, as she sang "The Twelfth of Never" and "Walk Hand in Hand".

Kerri Adams registered the guests.

A reception following the ceremony was held in Fellowship Hall of the church.

After a wedding trip to Colorado, the couple will reside in Bledsoe where the groom is employed with Allied Oil Company.

Students planning to enroll in the program are required to take the exam, which will be given at 1 p.m. both days in the guidance and counseling office at SPC. Applicants should be able to finish the test by about 4:30 p.m. There is a $1 test fee.

In addition to the entrance exam, other requirements include two years of high school or equivalent (pass GED test), complete physical examination within six months prior to admission, interview with vocational nursing personnel, references and a definite interest in nursing. Applicants must be between the ages of 18 and 50.

Mrs. Helen Brown is coordinator and Mrs. Barbara Bennett is assistant coordinator of the SPC vocational nursing program. Their offices are located in the Technical Arts Building at SPC.

To make an appointment for the aptitude exam, contact the office of Don Melton, director of guidance and counseling at SPC, 894-4921, ext. 278. The exam is given on the first and third Mondays of each month throughout the year.
