Tribe Drops Fifth Straight,

Have Breather Before Finale

The Morton Indians dropped their fifth straight ball game to Dimmitt Bobcats Friday night and will now lick their wounds through an open date while preparing for the season finale against the Friona Chieftains. The layoff may be just what the doctor ordered, too, as it will give them the opportunity to heal the wounds which has taken away a large part of their scoring punch of late. A healthy Tribe, at full strength, many feel would have made short work of the 'Cats Friday night.

SMOKE AND FLAME boiled from the Jim Middleton family mobile home as it burned on a farm southeast of Morton Monday at noon. The family was out of town and there were no casualties in the blaze, but property damage is expected to run into thousands of dollars. Approximately 20 firemen answered the call that was received during the noon hour. Exact cause of the fire had not been determined at press time.

County Follows

State-Wide Trend

Cochran county voters received concrete evidence Tuesday that their thinking is very much in line with others throughout the state as they soundly defeated all eight Constitutional revision proposals by a wide margin.

The county's vote of approximately 5-1 against all the proposals was very close to the ratio reported throughout the state. A light voter turnout had been predicted, and the forecast proved accurate as only 662 out of

Veterans Day

Program

Veterans Day, November 11, will be celebrated in two separate but related ceremonies. An American flag will be placed at 7:30 a.m. on the grave of each veteran buried in Morton Memorial Cemetery and a Veterans Day program will be broadcast over Radio Station KRAN beginning at 11 a.m.

All veterans who wish to take part in the flag placing ceremony are asked to contact The Morton Tribune, KRAN, John Coffman or Robert George as soon as possible. All persons knowing the gravesites of a veteran or veterans are urged to contact one of the above and make known the location, so that no veteran will be left out.

The 11 o'clock program will include patriotic poems, hymns, and essays written in recognition of our veterans.

The public is invited to attend the graveside ceremony and to listen to the radio program.

HALLOWEEN WITCH SHE IS NOT-Senior Class candidate Linda Adams looks anything but like a halloween witch as she is crowned 1975-76 Halloween Carnival Queen in ceremonies in the county auditorium Thursday night. Following her coronation, Queen Linda formally opened the doors to the 1975 carnival which is sponsored each year by the Emilia Smith Junior Study Club. Linda was escorted by Larry Shaw, left, who was all smiles as High School Principal Marlin Dodds placed the crown symbolic of her reign.

Grower Prices Steady

Grower prices were steady to firm during the week ending October 31, according to Paul R. Dickson, in charge of the Lubbock Cotton Classing Office.

Trading was slow. Growers offered small lots of new crop cotton in very light volume.

They sold small mixed lots of mostly grades 41 and 51; staples 32 to 33; mike 3.5 through 4.9 for about 45.00 cents per pound.

Continental Congress Organized US Marines 200 Years Ago This Week

Two hundred years ago this week the Continental Congress created a military organization that would eventually become one of the best-known and one of the oldest of all American fighting units. On November 10, 1775, Congress authorized two battalions of marines as a component of the navy. Congress established this unit to assist the sailors in combat since sailors had first responsibility to the ship. At the time no one thought that the unit would develop a pride and character of its own. The corps remained simply a component of the navy until 1789 when it was separately organized, although it was still attached to the navy.

Other significant naval actions also occurred in November two hundred years ago. On November 25 Congress officially declared British ships open to capture in retaliation for British actions in attacking American coastal towns.

Very quickly thereafter on November 29, an American cruiser, the "Lee," captured the British brig, the "Nancy," which was loaded with arms and ammunition and was bound for Quebec. The capture of the military stores was a welcome addition to the depleted American supplies. Moreover, the "Nancy" was retained by the American navy and renamed the "Congress." It was instrumental later in forcing the evacuation of Boston.

Also in November Congress went further in organizing its naval forces. On November 28 Congress adopted the "Rules for the Regulation of the Navy of the United Colonies."

Even though independence had not yet been agreed to, Congress clearly saw the need for better military defense and the time when separation might actually occur.

In the meantime residents in Spanish Texas were living at a more subsistence level. The Spanish settler, sometimes aided by Indian craftsmen, made or processed most of the necessities of life. When one realizes that cattle and sheep were basic to this existence the danger of Indian raids that endangered their herds and flocks can be more readily appreciated.

The meat, hides, and wool were utilized to the fullest by the Spaniard. Wool was a necessity for the cloth to make clothes while cowhides provided the leather needed for boots, harnesses, and other essential items. Obviously, the meat of cattle and sheep provided a basic part of the diet. In addition, the fat of the animals was used for shortening and candles.

Without doubt, the animals were so basic to survival that their protection was truly a matter of life and death.

Garden Club Holds Macrame Workshop

Fourteen members and one visitor attended the Whiteface Garden Club Workshop on Macrame, November 3, in the Educational Building of the Whiteface United Methodist Church. Mmes. Tim Schooler, D.F. Burris and G.C. Keith instructed the class.

Several members of the club brought hangers they had made and showed others the processes by which the plant hangers were made. Hangers varied from very short ones for kitchen windows to the elaborate large ones for patio use.

Mrs. R.D. Hensley, club President, reported to the District Meeting of State Garden Clubs at Abilene in October. She stated that in a discussion on raising wildflowers in this area, she was told that a fertilizer with a high proportion of phosphates was recommended to encourage better flowering.

Several members expressed intention of attending the Garden Club meeting at Plains, November 6.

Members present were Mmes. R.W. Abney, J.W. Allen, Burris, Ronnie Davis, Tom Hayes, R.D. Hensley, Robert Evans, E.E. Jennings, Larry Seales, Schooler, J.J. Stocks, L.E. McDonald, Keith, and Van Schooler, hostess. Mrs. Jimmy Waters was a guest.

Next meeting will be November 17 in the home of Mrs. Eugene Bentley.

In 1776 the first cocktail was supposedly made—by Betsy Flanagan, an Elmsford, N.Y. barmaid.

Letter To The Editor

I DON'T NECESSARILY WANT YOUR SYMPATHY, ONLY EMPATHY

"Sticks and stones may break my bones but words can never harm me."

Almost every day I had to quote this old adage to my students because of bickering over name-calling.

To me, today, this cliché has no validity. Words can harm you!

All my life, I've been told the only way to stop a rumor is to repeat it.

I know already in the minds of many people (since the news bulletin on the radio stating my dismissal from duty because of behavior unbecoming to a Junior High School Principal) what kind of behavior must be running through an imaginative brain. Is he a peeping-tom; is he a homosexual; is he a thief, a drunk, a rascal?

I am writing this to set the record as clear as I can at this time.

Seven or eight years ago two gentlemen walked into my office and presented their credentials. They introduced themselves and then told me they were from The Federal Bureau of Investigation and were there to interrogate me. I asked them by what right did they have to subject me to this interrogation. They informed me they had that right because of the United States Attorney General and the U.S. Justice Department. This sounded strong enough to me so I told them to carry on. They informed me of my rights and told me that if I wanted Counsel that I had the right to bring in one. I told them I had nothing to hide and for them to read me the charges.

They said, and I quote, "You are charged with grabbing a black girl by the hair of the head and jerking her across your desk and beating the hell out of her," unquote. These facts are on record in the F.B.I. office. For over an hour I was subjected to the most grueling session of my life.

Today, my accusers are the Superintendent of Schools and the local Board of Trustees. Their accusations are directly opposite of those from the F.B.I. I am no longer a black girl hater, I am now a black girl lover.

Five years ago I befriended a girl that had some problems. Today, this friendliness toward this girl has snowballed through vicious and malicious tongues within the school and community to mean many things.

I am guilty of love and compassion for the young people that have been such a joy in my life of work. I am guilty of being indiscreet sometimes in a small community where small talk moves fast.

Because of one of my staff members taking sides with me in this fight, she, too, has been linked with my name, just as I have had several names in the past linked to mine.

Since my dismissal, I have challenged the Superintendent and the Board, and now I will make the same challenge to the community. I challenge you, in all my 30 years of teaching, to find me one student, one teacher, one woman of the community, that I have ever made undue advances toward. I challenge you to find me one I've even given a friendly pat on the shoulder.

If we have all of a sudden reverted back to the days of Puritanism where a man is frowned upon by taking a swig out of the sherry bottle, or where a married man is not allowed to be seen in the presence of another woman, or that he can't go to Ruidoso to tower on a horse, then I sense one thing conspicuously absent: "Where is the dunking stool?"

Know Your Nursing Home:

Roberts Memorial Nursing Home of Morton is keeping abreast with the times by up-dating the life safety features of its physical plant. A complete sprinkler system has been installed and is in the process of being connected to the City of Morton water system. A smoke detector and fire alarm system will alert members of the staff of impending danger. An automatic fire extinguisher placed over the kitchen stove will release foam as the extinguishing agent in case something on the stove catches on fire. One hour fire resistive solid core doors have been placed in all areas especially susceptible to fire. Solid core doors with special latching mechanisms are in place at the entrance of our residents' bedrooms. Beautiful fiberglass drapes are being hung at all windows. In addition to these and other life safety requirements, staff members are trained in techniques of fire prevention and fire control as well as partial and complete building evacuation. The total final cost of all of these devices and materials, including an emergency lighting system, will run near $25,000.00.

Most trading was for mixed lots of mostly grade 42 and better; staples 30 through 34; mikes 2.7 through 4.9, Dickson said. These lots brought 41.00 to 42.00 cents per pound.

Grades 31, 41, and 51 were predominate qualities in this week's classings and accounted for 22 percent, 45 percent and 19 percent respectively. Staples 30, 31, 32 and 33 were predominate lengths accounting for 18 percent, 24 percent, 19 percent and 12 percent respectively.

Mike readings 3.5 through 4.9 amounted to 28 percent of the total. Mike group 3.3 through 3.4 accounted for 18 percent and 3.0 through 3.2 range 30 percent. Mike 2.7 through 2.9 was 13 percent.

Pressly tests indicated breaking strengths at Lubbock averaged 84,000 pounds per square inch.

Ginning increased throughout the South Plains and about 6400 samples were classed by the Lubbock Classing Office during the week ending October 31. This season's total stands at 7,900 samples compared to 264 on the same date a year ago; according to the USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service.

U.S. Department of Agriculture announced preliminary 1976 upland crop loan of 37.12 cents per pound for grade 31, staple 32, mike 3.5 through 4.9.

Upland cotton national base allotment for 1976 is 11,000,000 (million) acres with production goal of 12,376,000 bales.

COUNTY

the county's 2,136 registered voters cast their ballots. This constitutes a 30.9 percent of the counties registered voters exercising their option.

At the state level, some lawmakers expressed fears that this solid defeat kills any hopes for a revision of the 99-year-old constitution in the near future and may set it back for many years.

Speaker Bill Clayton said the rejection indicates voters are unwilling to let legislators rewrite the charter, and the next move is up to citizens.

"I'm not going to be interested in trying to move forward with anything else until we hear something from the people," a dejected Clayton said. He predicted, however, the revision issue will continue to come up until a new constitution is adopted to replace the present lengthy charter that has been amended 220 times.

"I suppose this delay hope for any comprehensive constitutional revision for many years," said Lt. Gov. William P. Hobby.

Here is how the "voice of the people" was heard in Cochran county:

Proposition 1 which deals with the separation of powers was voted down 96 to 564.

Proposition 2 which deals with the court systems was defeated 105 to 554.

Proposition 3 which addresses itself to voting and voting restrictions was defeated 112 to 544.

Proposition 4 was the education clause and was defeated 102 to 555.

Proposition 5 was the finance article. Cochran countians voted it down by 89 to 568.

Proposition 6 dealt with county governments. It was defeated 108 to 551.

Proposition 7 was a catch-all proposal dealing with homesteads, raffles, local option elections, etc. It was defeated 113 to 544.

Proposition 8 dealt with constitutional amendments and was defeated 111 to 548.

James K. Walker acted as attorney for the school board and drew up the contract termination papers.

Specific charges against Middleton have not been made public, with Walker only stating that "his contract was being terminated for Cause." Walker further stated that Middleton has the right to a hearing, if he desires one, which if open to the public, will divulge the specific charges against him.

Middleton was out of town during the early part of the week and was unavailable for comment.

Bicentennial Symbol

A star in any decorating scheme is a quilted pillow depicting the official symbol of our country's 200th birthday, particularly when it's one you've created yourself. The symbol is derived from the stars, stripes and colors of the American flag in the form of a 5-pointed star.

in white, surrounded by continuous red, white and blue stripes, forming a seven-pointed star to symbolize the two centuries of America's existence.

Kits for making a pillow or a full-length quilt are available from B & B Needlecrafts, 2277 Union Ave., Memphis, Tenn. 38104, with complete instructions and all the necessary materials in pure cotton—the most popular material of the Colonial era.

IS THE CHURCH PART OF YOUR LIFE?

Many of us grew up with pictures of caravans crossing the sands of the Sahara. Those in the West know that the desert has many faces. One of our common mistakes in life is to assume that trees make a forest, flowers a garden, clothes a man—that appearances promise reality. One of the invaluable influences of Christianity upon society has been its distinction between the facade and the truth. Christ taught that men must be known by their faith. Lack of spiritual concern is the surest way to make the world a desert of trees—a society of people without a sense of responsibility. Wastelands cry out for reclamation. The Church Christ founded is reclaiming our society for Him. You need its Message.

HALLOWEEN QUEEN AND HER COURT--Linda Adams, center with flowers, took her Senior class to victory and was named Halloween Carnival Queen in ceremonies held immediately prior to the opening of the carnival Thursday night. Escorting Miss Adams was senior classmate Larry Shaw.

a safety early in the first quarter, the game looked like it could go either way until well into the fourth period. Two quick strikes from 37 and 53 yards out with 6:23 and 3:21 left in the game, put it out of Mortons reach and the final score ended 15-0 Bobcats. The final statistics show Morton becoming ever stronger in their passing attack as they completed 6 of 14 for 159 yards to 4 of 11 for 128 yards by the 'Cats. Rushing was another story, however, as the Dimmitt striders ticked off for 247 yards to an even 100 for Morton. The Bobcats picked off two Morton passes and the Tribe grabbed one of theirs. Each team made 12 first downs. The Tribe punted three times for a 35.6 average and the Bobcats three for 38.3. Total offense reads Morton 259 yards and Dimmitt 375.

one of the six completions was received by Larry Moore, giving him the same total and the same average. Head Coach Roy Winters cited Larry Shaw as outstanding on defense this week with Ron Beasley the outstanding specialist and Larry Moore as the top offensive man.

good News For Livestock Feeders... Citrus Harvest Gains Momentum... Chick Placements Show Decline.

It's been a long time in coming, and there probably will be some rough spots continuing, but all in all, it appears things are going to get better for the livestock feeder.

Take a look at the cattle on feed situation. Even though it is down seven per cent from a year ago here in Texas, it is 11 per cent above a month ago.

Texas cattle and calves on feed as of Oct. 1 totaled 1,488,000 head. Cattle feeders now are talking about a lot better market coming during the latter part of 1976. It may be down some until then, but after that, cattle feeders are expecting to see better times to come.

Nationwide, cattle on feed in the seven major states are one per cent above a year ago and 12 per cent above a month ago.

Cattle and calves on feed in the 23 major cattle feeding states show a two per cent increase over a year ago.

SCREW WORMS ARE CONTINUING TO PLAGUE many parts of Texas. Authorities at the fly lab in Mission continue to urge all producers to check livestock regularly, treat wounds on livestock with approved screwworm control remedies, delay surgery on livestock as long as possible, and submit suspected samples to the fly lab at Mission.

You can get the vials with which to mail the samples at your county agent's office.

Meanwhile, cooperation of all livestock producers is needed in order for the program to be as effective as possible.

Hunting Leases Can Boost Income For Local Ranchers

Game hunting is mushrooming, and hunting leases provide a good opportunity for ranchers to increase their income, according to an area wildlife specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Dr. Milo Shult, at the Texas A&M University Agricultural Research and Extension Center at Uvalde, says a rancher who wants to use his land for hunting purposes must practice sound management and provide protection, cover and food for game species. In addition, many desirable non-game species profit from such management programs.

"In Texas, over 95 per cent of the land is privately owned," Shult says. "This means that sound management of game species is the responsibility of the landowner."

Maintaining land suitable for wildlife involves some costs. Because certain game species compete with livestock for food, a pasture cost must be given to deer, for example. Every six deer on pasture represent one animal unit that consumes forage, points out the Texas A&M University System specialist.

Other costs may come up through slight changes in land management practices. Shult gives the example of a rancher who leaves brush strips and weedy food plots in his pasture which benefit quail. However, this situation does not provide the best forage for livestock. Further costs are incurred through the provision of other goods and services for hunters such as cabins and blinds.

"Hunting leases, of course, can offset these costs," notes Shult. "A written lease is the best way to avoid misunderstanding between two parties. Specific responsibilities and conditions should be assigned to all parties."

Such things as whether these are blinds, fishing spots, camping, game processing facilities or guide service are important to consider when writing or negotiating a lease.

The specialist says there are long-term and short-term leases and some are made according to the season of a particular game species.

"Short-term leases provide more income than those on a long-term basis but require a more intensive management program. Long-term leases may mean less money but frequently do not require as much personal involvement," Shult points out.

"Like most endeavors, the more you put into the establishment of hunting leases, the more income you can expect. Management plays a key role, with the more intensely managed game areas providing the most income for ranchers," adds the specialist. "Hunters receive fair return for their dollars invested when they have exclusive hunting privileges on ranches and farms with sound game management programs."

MORTON VOLUNTEER FIREMAN Everett Bilbrey is suited out with the proper protective clothing, oxygen mask and tank, etc., as he prepares to enter the blazing trailer home of Jim Middleton which burned on a farm southeast of Morton Monday. There were no casualties in the blaze which took place while the family was out of town. Approximately 20 firemen responded to the fire call which was received during the noon hour. No estimate of the damage was available at press time, but it is thought to run into several thousands of dollars. Assisting Bilbrey are fire chief Rex Crawford and Larry Starnes, volunteer fireman.

GLADDEN, County Extension Agent, offers a preview of the coming "Furniture Facelift Workshop" to be presented on November 11 at the County Activity Building in Morton. Her portion of the program will deal with applying natural finishes to wood such as accent stain, oil stain, and oil finish to name a few. Preceding this will be the following topics — Cleaning and Conditioning Furniture, Minor Furniture Repairs, and Preparing Wood for Finishes. If you wish to register, call the County Extension Office, 266-5215, and leave your name.

TU Bulls Begin Feed Test At Pantex Plant

Eighty-eight bulls, representing Herefords, Angus, Santa Gertrudis, Charolais and cross-breeds have begun a 140-day feed test at the Texas Tech University Center at Amarillo (text).

There are 26 Herefords, 23 Angus, three Charolais, one Santa Gertrudis and 35 cross-bred bulls which began the test on Sept. 9, according to Nolan Poteet, director of the annual performance test.

The bulls are tested for their ability to gain weight on feed. They will be sold at the annual 14-day and performance tested sale at Pantex to be held at center east of Amarillo on March 11, 1976. Records are kept and provided to prospective buyers on all animals which tell their daily gain, weight at the beginning and end of the test, and other information pertinent to their ability to convert feed into meat. "All bulls are in good shape and have had no problems other than minor stress," Poteet said. "Weather has been good and they are on feed good. I feel that the quality of the bulls is much better than any year that I have been associated with the test."

The bulls are consigned to the center by "cooperators" for the test and are auctioned at the sale.

Herefords have been consigned by Bob Andrews of Olney, the Barber Ranch of Channing, Bankwright and Son of Hereford, Bathem Ranch of Dalhart and Clarence Mason of Muleshoe; Angus by Worth Jones of Hart, Harold O'Neal of Panhandle, Patrice Shaddid of Panhandle, Henry Leven of Panhandle, Hinkson-Lust of Lazbuddie and Duane Jenkins of Higgins; Santa Gertrudis by Bryon Thoms of White Deer; Charolais by Vernon Wilhelm of Happy; and crossbreeds by Henry Fields of Claude, Circle J Cattle Company of Claude, Joe Robinson and Jim Robinson of Clarendon, Champion Creek Cattle Company of Colorado City, Harlan Barber of Hereford, Barbour and Howell of Tulia, Adams Simmentals of Bard, N.M., and Charles Burk of Panhandle.

Tips on Health

20/20 Isn't Perfect

IF YOU have 20/20 vision, your eyesight is not necessarily perfect, according to the American Optometric Association. This chart test means you have good visual acuity, but you may have a defect the test doesn't measure, such as poor depth perception. You would be wise to have a thorough vision examination to check all aspects of your vision.

How to Lose a Headache

RELAXING is probably the best way to get rid of a tension headache but that's often easier said than done. Before reaching for the aspirin, however, make sure you're not "aspirin-sensitive" as so many people are. Doctors now widely suggest Tylenol as an alternative to aspirin; it provides the same effective pain relief without unwanted side effects since it contains no aspirin.

Eye Care Can Prevent Disease

EYE diseases such as cataracts, glaucoma and retinal diseases often can be detected before symptoms of trouble show up if you have regular annual eye checks. These diseases most often occur in people over 40 but everyone is susceptible to minor vision problems. Visit your optometrist annually to ensure your vision health.

FLORIDA CELERY SALADS

The pascal celery now coming in from Florida is an excellent seasoning vegetable for a great variety of salads. Since celery stores very well in the refrigerator in a film bag, it is always ready to add crispness, flavor and color to combinations of meats, fish, egg, other vegetables and fruits.

The Waldorf Salad, with its mingling of celery, apple and chopped nutmeats, is famous, but equally delicious is a Sunshine State version, made with 1 stalk celery (the whole bunch), thinly sliced; 1 cup fresh orange segments; 1/4 cup minced fresh parsley; and 1/4 cup flaked coconut. Dress with 1/2 cup mayonnaise and 2 teaspoons lemon juice. Add salt and white pepper to taste. An excellent salad with hot or cold chicken, turkey or roast pork. Makes 6 portions.

Try a Crunchy Celery-Cranberry Ring made with 2 packages of lemon-flavor gelatin and 3 cups boiling water. Chill the gelatin until it begins to mound. Then stir in 2 cans (1 lb. each) whole berry cranberry sauce; 3 cups thinly sliced celery; 1/2 cup chopped walnuts and 1/4 teaspoon salt. Pour into an 8-cup ring mold and chill until firm. Unmold on lettuce leaves and serve with sour cream. Makes 10 to 12 portions.

Lubbock Highway District To Release 55 Employees

Inflation, declining revenues and a slow down in major construction has made it necessary for a reduction in personnel and the consolidation of some offices in the Lubbock District has been announced by Mr. George C. Wall, Jr., District Engineer, Lubbock, of the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation.

Mr. Wall said 55 employees of the Lubbock District payroll of 571 persons have been asked to find other employment prior to the end of this year.

The Resident Engineers office in Floydada was combined with the Plainview office on November 1, 1975, and the work was consolidated with the Plainview Residency under Mr. Merlin Bennett. The Lamesa residency was closed previously and all work in that area will be handled by Mr. Herschel C. Brown, Resident Engineer in Brownfield, Texas.

A 90 day study was conducted statewide by all of the department's 25 districts and the Houston Urban office to assess work loads. The object of the study was to determine the number of people of pertinent skills needed to implement and carry out responsibilities in all phases of Departmental responsibility under available funding.

"All of the people who are being laid off have been notified and they are being given reasonable time to find other employment. We will assist each person in every way possible to secure other employment, or unemployment benefits for which they may be eligible," Wall said.

The department has been practicing a no hire policy hoping attrition would reduce personnel to the required level. At the beginning of the fiscal year, September 1, 1975, division and district budgets were formed on the basis of bare minimums for personnel, services and facilities.

The August and October letting of contracts for road repair and reconstruction were not held due to lack of funds.

The Lubbock District encompasses 17 counties of the South and High Plains area, including a highway network of some 4,760 miles or 11,036 lane miles.

Furniture Workshop Scheduled Tuesday

A "Furniture Facelift Workshop" will be held Tuesday, November 11, at the County Activity Building Banquet Room. The workshop will be held from 9:30 a.m. until 2 p.m.

Sponsored by the Extension Service, pre-registration for the workshop may be made by calling 266-5215. Mrs. Gail Gladden, County Extension Agent, urges those who plan to attend to register. At least 12 persons must register or the workshop will be cancelled. She also asks that those who plan to attend to bring a casserole or salad and lunch will be served at noon.

Demonstrations scheduled are: "Cleaning and Conditioning Furniture" by Mrs. Linda Pittman of Hockley County; "Minor Furniture Repairs" by Mrs. Dorothy Powell of Lamb County; "Preparing Wood for Finishes" Mrs. Jane Baly, Terry County and "Applying Finishes" by Mrs. Gladden.

The educational program is for people of all ages regardless of socio-economic levels, race, color, sex, religion, or national origin.

HOSPITAL NOTES

Patients admitted to Cochran Memorial Hospital from October 28 through November 3 were: Lorenzo Lopez, T.G. Gaddis, Reba Baker, Annie Garcia, Macedonia Sezovia, Jessie Resendez, W.C. Gray, Jessie Garcia, C.A. Kitchens, Rosa Cumpian, Nina Wall, Antonio Enriquez, George Nesbitt and E.A. Bass.

Wardens release Trapped Aoudad

The duties of a Texas game warden vary from day to day but the releasing of an aoudad with a trap on his foot was a new experience for wardens Ronnie Ainsworth, Plainview and Julius Stevens, Tulia.

The chase started when a Floyd county rancher spotted a big aoudad ram that had stepped into a number four coyote trap and was dragging the trap wherever he went. The rancher contacted the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department and Ainsworth and Stevens were on their way.

The wardens debated about using horses and roping the ram but after driving the big sheep into a canyon where the trap and drag hung on a rock as the ram jumped over a cliff, there was no time.

Using steel bars and a lot of muscle, the two wardens pried the trap loose from the aoudad's front foot and the aoudad fell to safety below with no visible injuries.

Ainsworth stated that this particular sheep would be especially careful where he put his feet in the future.

Couple To Celebrate 25th Anniversary

Hosting the occasion are their children, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cunningham of Lovington, N.M. and Mr. and Mrs. Gary Freeman of Muleshoe.

Julian and the former Naomi Fine Henderson were married November 10, 1950. They have made their home in the Maple community since that time.

The couple have four grandsons, James and Kent Cunningham and Gary Don and Chad Freeman.

Friends and relatives are invited to attend the afternoon reception.

Jaclyn Claye has her say

DEAR JACLYN CLAYE: It has taken me at least five years to get up the courage to even think my problem aloud, or to write a letter like this. But the past eight years of my life have been almost impossible to bear; prior to this recent period, my life was most pleasant. My parents were of comfortable circumstances, and after some very happy college years, I graduated along with the most promising boy in the class. Later we married, spent some time on the coast, and we did not settle into the serious task of raising a family until Tom and I were in our early thirties. We had one son born to us and we welcomed this new responsibility with all the enthusiasm that new parents always seem to have.

At age ten, our son was struck by a car. His physician felt that the boy was extremely lucky and would surely, within a few months, again be able to walk. Ten years have since gone by and the boy is still in a wheel chair. Further, I have begun to believe that he doesn't want to walk. Worse, he has become a tyrant. He runs the house. He determines how we will spend the evening; where we will go for the weekend; how we will spend our vacation. His father, who is rarely here at the house, has indulged the boy to the point where he has become impossible. I would like to hear your opinion here, but please don't suggest professional psychiatric help because that is one humiliation I could not tolerate. Signed, Worwick.

DEAR WORWICK: Not only do I suggest professional psychiatric help in this instance, but I would surely insist on it. Each day that goes by will more deeply complicate the problem. I don't wish to frighten you, but if professional help is not soon accepted, I fear for the sanity of the rest of the family, too.

DEAR JACLYN CLAYE: With all the complaints about how kids no longer respect their teachers, it's about time that some of the reasons were given. For example; my home class teacher refers to his students as "males" and "females" and it makes you feel like animals instead of people. And then, he calls you by your last name if he refers to you at all. Jaclyn, kids feel uneasy enough without being further scored-down by a person who is supposed to help. And if you reply to this letter, please refer to me by my first name, which is: GWYNN.

DEAR GWYNN: I always felt that the practice of calling high school kids by their last names only, was rude. It is a practice that we begun in the private schools in England. And the "males" and "females" categorizing should be brought to the attention of your counselor. Perhaps your teacher is not aware of this sensitivity.

DEAR JACLYN CLAYE: I was just recently engaged and I think my fiancée, instead of giving me a diamond, has laid a Zircon (artificial diamond) on me. I don't have the nerve to ask him if the diamond is for real, and I would feel like a heel if I took it to a jeweller to find out. Any suggestions? Signed, FREDDIE'S GIRL.

DEAR FREDDIE'S GIRL: I suggest you take it to a jeweller and if your diamond turns out to be a phony, so is Freddie.

MR. AND MRS. NOEL CROW announce the engagement of their daughter, Anita Arlene, to Ricky Mack Monroe, son of Mr. and Mrs. S.M. Monroe of Anton, formerly of Morton. Miss Crow is a student at Jessie Lee's Hair Design Institute in Lubbock. Monroe is a December candidate for graduation at Texas Tech University. The couple plans a November 22 wedding in the First Baptist Church Chapel in Morton.

All Signs Point To Top Quail Hunting This Year

A good quail crop with plenty of cover and food sums up the reports from field personnel of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department as the annual quail season nears in northwest Texas.

Quail season in regulatory counties of the Panhandle and South Plains opens Nov. 15, 1975 and continues through Feb. 15, 1976 with a daily bag limit of 12 birds and a possession limit of 36 birds after the third day. The daily bag limit will consist of bobwhite or scaled quail or a combination of both species.

Sportsmen are reminded that nonregulatory counties might have different opening dates and bag limits making it the responsibility of the hunter to know which county he is hunting.

"The wardens in the Panhandle and on the South Plains are reporting a good crop of young birds and plenty of cover," said Ted Wheelis, Lubbock regional law enforcement supervisor.

The use of bird dogs will enhance the chances of a full game bag as hunters attempt to find the hidden coveys or downed game birds said Wheelis.

District chiefs Weldon Fromm, Amarillo, David Palmer, Abilene, and Bill Pratt, Lubbock, report a 100 percent increase in the quail population over last years near disaster which was due to a dry spring and a bad hatch.

Hunters should check for Texas hunting license requirements when hunting out of their county of residence if they are between the ages of 17 and 65 or are a nonresident.

Legal shooting hours for all game animals and game birds except the migratory game birds, are one-half hour before sunrise to one-half hour after sunset daily.

Sportsmen will have to make a reasonable effort to retrieve all wounded animals and game birds and these species will become a part of the legal bag limit. All animals and birds taken into possession must be kept in an edible condition.

Firearms legal for taking quail in regulatory counties is limited to rifles, shotguns and other legal firearms and longbows and arrows. Shotguns need not be plugged to a three shell capacity when hunting quail in a regulatory county.

Hunters will be allowed to hunt from vehicles while the vehicle is on private property but the sportsmen is reminded that it is one of the most dangerous situations in the field. The restriction of shooting from public roads is still in effect and will be enforced by wardens of the P&WD.

Sportsmen have been careful in past seasons when nongame birds such as hawks, owls, eagles and songbirds are seen in the same general area of quail. Those hunters violating this regulation will be prosecuted as it is best to identify your target before firing.

More information can be obtained by reading the new 1975 Texas hunting guide available from license vendors, P&WD offices, wardens or call (806) 744-6583 in Lubbock.

Children Can Die Needlessly When Immunization Neglected

Each year many U.S. children die or become disabled from diseases they needn't have contracted, Carla Shearer, a health education specialist, says.

"Immunizations are readily accessible to prevent these tragedies. Diphtheria, Pertussis (whooping cough), tetanus, polio, measles and rubella are diseases which can cause disabilities and even death, but they can be prevented through immunizations," Miss Shearer, with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, said.

"When vaccines were first available, the incidence of childhood diseases dropped sharply. But as the effects of the diseases faded from people's minds, parents made less effort to be sure their children were fully protected — so immunization levels declined."

The Texas Immunization Law requires that all children be immunized before entering school — but it's important to protect preschoolers also. This is the parents' responsibility since these youngsters aren't in school yet, Miss Shearer said.

She noted that reports show immunity levels among 1- to 4-year-olds are low enough to sustain substantial spread of disease, including outbreaks.

The Texas Department of Health Resources suggests that a child start his immunization series at 2 months of age by receiving DTP (diphtheria-tetanus-pertussis) and polio immunizations.

Suggested immunization schedule:

Basic Series
2 months, DTP and Polio; 4 months, DTP and Polio; 6 months, DTP and Polio; 12 months, Measles and Rubella; 15-18 months DTP and Polio.

Booster Doses
4-6 years, DTP and Polio; 14-16 years, Td (Tetanus-diphtheria); Thereafter, TD every 10 years.

The specialist urged parents to check their children's immunization records. If unsure about the need for immunization, call the private physician or the county health department office.

Agriculture Now Political Issue, Say Seminar Speaker

"Agricultural policy is no longer an island to itself. Everybody is getting into the act and trying to dictate what agricultural procedures should do because agriculture has become a tremendous political issue."

With that, Dr. Ronald Knutson got to the heart of the matter in discussing the politics of agriculture at an Agribusiness Seminar in Houston October 29.

"One of the biggest issues in agriculture today is who is in control of agricultural policy," said Knutson, an economist in marketing and policy with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. "Control by the agricultural establishment is slipping into the hands of top government officials, consumer groups and labor organizations."

Knutson, former administrator of the Farmer Cooperative Service, USDA, cited three main reasons for the increasing interest in agriculture and food policy by these "outside" groups. "First, food has become a key negotiating tool in a foreign policy designed to maintain world peace. In addition, food has become vital to maintaining the value of the dollar in international transactions. Third, U.S. consumers are becoming more concerned that an increasing proportion of their income must go to food."

"The consumers' cries have caught the ear of organized labor, which in turn has provided the consumer movement significant financial support. Consumer and labor activism will have a strong effect on future agricultural policies, to say the least," said Knutson.

As far as policy issues with respect to farm programs, the economist outlined four. The first dealt with government involvement in domestic farm programs. "Our farm programs must have the flexibility to deal with the potential to overproduce. Furthermore, farm programs of the future will likely have to cover all commodities. Commodity programs appear to be on their way out. With increased consumer activism, farmers will need to be realistic in terms of what they can get from an urban-oriented Congress in all commodity areas. A unified approach among producer groups interested in farm policy will be required if any success is to be realized on Capitol Hill."

Knutson indicated the use of food as a tool of international diplomacy as a second major policy issue in agriculture. "People like the Secretary of State are determining our international agricultural policy. This represents no panacea for the farmer."

The economist likewise sees little for the U.S. farmer in the recently negotiated long-term agreement with Russia. "The stabilizing effect can easily be overestimated. The agreement's upper limit on exports acts as an automatic trigger for restricted exports."

On the issue of food aid, the economist noted that about half of the Department of Agriculture budget went to food programs during the 1974-75 fiscal year. Secretary of Agriculture Earl Butz argues that these funds should be directed to programs that expand agricultural production, increase efficiency and improve quality. Yet many in Congress argue that food programs provide tools with which they can bargain for support of mainstream agricultural programs. For support from labor, farmers must concede the labor's demands for food stamps for strikers and minimum wage legislation. Yet farmers were unable to override President Ford's veto of the 1975 farm bill while consumers got an expanded food stamp program.

"Of course, consumers have no objection to farm programs as long as they don't increase farm prices," emphasized Knutson. "If inflation continues, however, farm programs may actually be a noose around the producer's neck."

A final policy issue aired by the economist was the question of "who will control U.S. agriculture." The battle lines have already been drawn in some states regarding corporate farming, noted Knutson, and there is increasing concern by family farmers, consumers, the

Senator Williams Appointed Chairman For Veterans Day

Governor Dolph Briscoe has appointed State Senator Lindon Williams of Houston to serve as the 1975 Veterans Day Chairman for Texas.

This year, Veterans Day will be observed throughout Texas on Tuesday, November 11, as a result of legislation enacted by the 64th Texas Legislature which restored the holiday to its original date. For several years Veterans Day was held the last Monday in October because of federal legislation.

Senator Williams was a co-author of the Texas legislation which re-established November 11 as Veterans Day.

As state chairman, Senator Williams will be responsible for coordinating and assisting in the organization of State and local activities to be held in conjunction with the observance.

Senator Williams is a life member of the VFW, a member of the Disabled American Veterans and is active in the American Legion. He is legislative chairman for all three organizations.

If your blankets are badly worn, you can cut out the bad spots and combine what's left to make one big blanket, which can now be used for the warm interlining of a quilt cover.

Justice Department and Nader-type groups about the future structure of agriculture. For example, a bill currently in Congress would prohibit contracting and feeding of cattle by packers. Other proposals would effectively prohibit mergers among cooperatives.

The economist stressed that in the end, how these issues are resolved will depend on agriculture's role in agricultural policy formation. "The answer to the question of who controls U.S. agricultural policy is up for grabs."

TIPS FOR OUTDOORSMEN

by Vern Sanford

If you treasure your valuables, then etch or embazon your social security number thereon. To outdoorsmen, of course, we refer to such items as handguns, rifles, binoculars, fishing reels, outboard and trolling motors and other recreation equipment.

You can write your data in permanent ink on your fishing rods if there's no metallic space available.

For your clothing, try indelible ink on the label. Of course the label can be removed, but you could cross up the thief (and the "fence") by also slipping a little piece of cloth bearing your individual number inside the lining or at some hidden, inconspicuous place.

Today's thieves seem to prefer items that are easily carried such as pocket and hunting knives, wrist watches, small radios, cassette-type tape recorders, portable typewriters, mini-TV's -- all labelable. These in addition to liquor, other drinks and food. They also like items one can't very well mark, such as coin collections and most jewelry.

Whatever you mark, be sure and make a list of same, noting exactly where you etched the number. Make at least one copy of the list and date each page. Keep the original in your safety deposit box at the bank and turn the carbon over to either the local police department (city or county), or your insurance agent. Make a note of the recipient's name on your original, along with the date the report was filed.

Some people use their drivers license number for this purpose. But police officers strongly recommend the social security number be used.

Definitely, do not use both the DL number and the SS number. Neither should you use your telephone number, mother's telephone number, or some address that's easier to etch because it's shorter. Stick with your SS number--and use all the digits. For example, if your SS number is 414-01-5804, don't merely inscribe 414 or just 5804. Make it complete, including the hyphens 414-01-5804.

Be consistent, otherwise before long you won't know what's on what. Then, if your list becomes lost or destroyed by fire, you'll be out of luck when it comes to identifying anything.

Another reason for identifying your merchandise is the fact that the first thing legitimate pawn shop dealers look for on merchandise submitted to them are serial numbers and ownership markings. If the thief can't present a social security card that matches the number on the article, then the pawn broker will not buy the merchandise or make a loan on it. In fact some will report the incident to the police.

For these reasons some thieves will not steal any merchandise that bears ownership markings. In fact, police say that's one of the first things some thieves look for, and if a number is there they won't take it.

Protect your merchandise by labeling it as yours--a number that longs to you alone.
