Texas A&M University instructors were in Floydada Monday to set make plans for Field Day at the site of Training School on the 20 acre area that is the southeast city limits. Highway 70 will be in the many kinds of and will be taught at school. The fire fighting and a police helicopter will demonstrate life saving demonstrations, there will be electrical pole climbers, there will be heavy equipment on display. Slide and movie films will be shown inside a 60'x60' tent where several exhibits will be displayed. Officials of the Floydada chamber of commerce and Floydada Development Company met with the A&M personnel in order to begin making arrangements for local participation by the Floydada community. Not only is the general public invited, but firemen, policemen electrical workers and heavy equipment operators from a 200 mile radius of Floydada will be invited. DEDICATION Floydada's mayor and other dignitaries will begin the day's events at 10 a.m. with formal dedication ceremonies. The event is expected to terminate about 3:30 in the afternoon. A&M officials here Wednesday included: Ernest A. Wentreck, assistant director; Ed Kerlick, division head electric power and communication training; Ira E. Scott, division head, law enforcement and security training division; Hershel Sharp, training specialist fire protection training division; and Kathy Oaks, informational representative. Attending from Floydada were Doug Frazier, Johnny Harris Jr., O. M. Watson Jr., Wendell Tooley, Bill Hale, and Kinder Farris. Also at the meeting were local training school manager Lawrence Stovall and office secretary Mrs. Harvey Allen.

Warren Re-elected Board President

Warren was re-elected Floydada school board president and Betty Jones was re-elected board members. The board discussed at length possibilities of a bond vote to improve the school's physical buildings and additions and it was agreed to have a called meeting Friday morning with an architect to discuss plans to build a new field house, four new tennis courts, move the stadium to the track area, improve athletic facilities and other needs at Andrews Ward school.

Tax Assessor-Collector Tommy Cathey reported that 92.1% of the school taxes had been collected, a little better report than this time last year. Cathey said he was finding several items of taxable property that was not on the tax rolls and had added about a half million dollars worth. School business staffer Leneta Cleveland discussed current bills with the board and the board approved payment. Votes of the recent school board election were canvassed and reported to be correct.

Rock Chat

HOUSE GUEST to little girl: "What are you going to give your brother for his birthday?" Little girl: "I don't know." Guest: "Well, what did you give him last year?" Little Girl: "Measles."

WE HAVE RECEIVED several calls about that "building being built north of Piggly Wiggly and across the street from Higginbotham-Bartlett." Reliable information is that it will be a "mini-storage building."

If you want to store some furniture for awhile, or just anything, I suppose, mini-storage will be available. Evidently there is a need for this in Floydada, back when we had the old Hesperian building empty, we rented it to people to store furniture, grocery products, and clothing.

WILL HAVE MORE INFORMATION on this, but right now, let me warn you, if you want to have a say in who will be selected to run for President of the United States, it is most important that you attend your precinct and county conventions...May 1 and May 8.

There you select the delegates who go to State and on to National conventions where the selection of the man for each party is made...for president.

So, if you want Ford...or Reagan to get the election, you better attend the Republican precinct convention.

If you want Carter, Wallace, or some other Democrat to receive the nomination, you better vote in the Democrat precinct convention.

Lincoln Special

Co-sponsored By First National Bank

Floydada, April 10, 1976-The First National Bank of Floydada, through its membership in the American Bankers Association (ABA), will co-sponsor "Lincoln, Last Days," on NBC-TV Wednesday, April 14, at 9:00 p.m. on Channel 11.

Television viewers will gain new insights into Abraham Lincoln, a man spent by a four-year war and faced with the enormous task of reconstructing a still-divided nation. This special telecast is the sixth and final in a series of hour-long presentations, based on Carl Sandburg's Pulitzer Prize-winning biography of the 16th President.

The first four programs in the series have already won awards from the American Better Broadcasters Association, the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge and the Columbus, Ohio Film Festival.

Broadway Tony Award-winner Hal Holbrook plays the title role of the series. His wife, Mary Todd Lincoln, is portrayed by Tony Award-winning actress Sada Thompson.

"Lincoln, Last Days," covers Lee's surrender to Grant, the debates between the President and his Cabinet over reconstruction plans, and Lincoln's final carriage ride, hours before his fateful Ford Theater visit.

Each of the six programs in the series concentrates on a personal aspect of Lincoln, as described in Sandburg's six-volume biography.

Weekly Report Of Agri-Business News
Compiled From Sources Of The
DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE
John C. White, Commissioner

A Growing Start... How Much Wheat... As Well As 1966.

For isolated areas, crop conditions throughout the state generally described as good to excellent. For the state, rains have fallen in sufficient amounts to get off and growing. Farmers throughout Texas are getting ready to plant or are in the fields planting corn, and sorghum.

Planting moisture for cotton is available from the plains southward. Planting of that crop is on the Coastal Bend, Lower Rio Grande Valley and Central Texas. On the High Plains, farmers have made seedbed preparations and are applying preplant treatments. Thus far, only about 10 per cent of the 1976 crop has been planted.

Planting is moving ahead rapidly with around 50 per cent of that crop already seeded. Excellent stands are being made in most areas and are showing good growth in the weather problems.

Planting in the coastal areas of the state is moving ahead but is not as far advanced as a year ago.

REPORT DUE about April 9 will be watched by farmers as well as consumers. It will be a wheat crop report and will include expected yields for five states, including Texas.

Early dry weather early in the growing season has caused concern among producers and consumers about prospects for the wheat in Texas has generally responded to warmer weather and moderate rainfall. The crop is in the southern portions of the state and is in the northern sections of Texas.

AND PIG INVENTORIES in Texas are the lowest in 14 years and sheep and lambs on feed in the state are at their lowest in 14 years, according to reports from the Texas Livestock Reporting Service.

Head pig numbers on Texas farms as of March 1 are 1,000,000 head; hogs and pigs kept for breeding are at 130,000, which is eight per cent above a year ago.

Producers in the state intend to farrow 43,000 through May, which is up 26 percent from the total in 1975.

statewide, hog and pig numbers are up two per cent a year ago. Farrowing intentions in 14 states are to show an increase of 10 per cent over 1975.

and lambs on feed in Texas as of the first of the year is 122,000; this is down 28 per cent from a year ago and it is 35 per cent below Jan. 1 of this year. This is the lowest March 1 total since 1964.

TWIN-SEEDED SORGHUM GOING COMMERCIAL—The Texas Agricultural Experiment Station is releasing twin-seeded sorghum breeding material to commercial seed companies, and the outcome should be another boost in sorghum production. However, two to three years will be required by commercial companies to produce enough planting seed for sale to producers. The twin-seeded trait in the newly developed sorghum should increase yields by about 20 per cent although much higher increases have been obtained in controlled tests.

well said on his return from Washington, "but with the pressures of an election year and the broad concern in Congress over a possible loss of Federal revenue, it doesn't look like Washington will do anything about it before next year."

Meanwhile, notes the PCG President, there are trust arrangements and other legal means to reducing the otherwise bitter consequences of heavy estate taxes. "Death is always an unpopular subject," he concedes, "but it behooves all of us to plan for it in such a way as to preserve for our heirs as much of our estates as possible."

Criswell, along with PCG Executive Vice President Donald Johnson, also will report on the association's work on farm legislation, regulations and administration, natural gas priority and pricing, boll weevil protection, cotton production research, the establishment of textile manufacturing on the Plains and other activities.

Featured speaker for the half-day affair will be Richard Bell, Assistant Secretary of Agriculture for International Affairs and Commodity Programs.

Other "out-of-towners" on the program, PCG officials have announced, will be David Cox, Director of Economic Research and Development for Cotton Incorporated, and Kim Dawson, Fashion Director of the Dallas Apparel Mart.

"We think we have arranged a worthwhile program," Criswell says, "including a period in which questions may be asked of the invited speakers and PCG officials concerning any aspect of raw cotton marketing, retail sales of cotton apparel, USDA operations, or PCG activities."

"These are subjects that have a significant effect on the lives of every High Plains resident, so the public is invited and urged to attend," he emphasized.

wait! Get estate tax guidance now." part of what W.B. Criswell of Idalou, President of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., will tell High Plains cotton producers and business people at PCG's annual membership meeting April 7 when he reports on the organization's activities for the past year. The meeting will begin at 1:30 p.m. at the Southpark Inn.

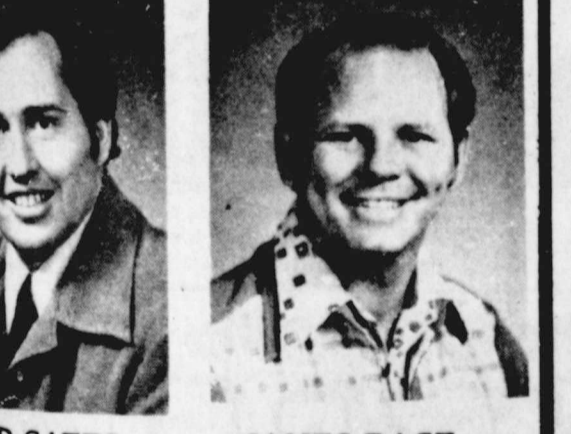

Criswell recently spoke in Washington on behalf of PCG in supporting passage of legislation to lighten the estate tax burden for farm and small business heirs, but he doesn't think that a new law will be passed in this session of Congress.

"So unless we all avail ourselves of sophisticated tax planning, some surviving families will be forced to sell all or part of their holdings to pay an unreasonable tax."

estate tax exemption should be increased from the $60,000 to at least $200,000, Criswell told the House Ways and Means Committee March 15, and the taxable value of land should be its value for farming, not a so-called "market" value which often reflects its potential or speculative value for other uses, he continued.

He also pointed out the unfairness of the IRS estate tax code as now written, and said that the undesirable effects of it should be shown along with the desirable effects of it to this country on producers and consumers alike, Crisis a person who has special, practical knowledge of statistics and the theory and practice of insurance. He is an individual who was probably a math major in college, who went on to graduate school... learning the probabilities of all risks. An actuary is a person who takes the gamble out of insurance, makes and analyzes the laws of averages and investments... calculates annuity premiums, reserves and dividends. Because of the importance of insurance statistics, actuaries continue to be important to the insurance industry and to the policyholders, themselves.

Americans may be free and equal but COTTONSEED IS NOT.

There is nothing free about cotton seed. Even ordinary cotton planting seed costs money. Good seed costs a little more.

And all cottonseed isn't equal. There are two varieties of cotton planting seed that stand out from the crowd. They are the product of years of research by two of the most respected firms in Southwest cotton. The seed for each variety is produced under the most exacting quality control. Depending on your land, one of them is a superior variety for your particular farm. They are:

LANKART® BRAND LX 571
It is an excellent, storm-proof, stripper variety capable of high yields of long, strong fiber with good micronaire ratings. It has good seedling vigor and matures somewhat earlier than the famous Lankart Selection 57. It is highly recommended for the dryland areas of Texas and Oklahoma.

LOCKETT BXL
Lockett BXL has excellent resistance to nematodes and fusarium wilt. It has high yield potential of quality fiber on all types of soils either dry or irrigated. It has staple length in the 1" and longer range with storm-proof type bolls. It is an excellent stripper variety well-adapted to this area and is especially recommended for the light soils where fusarium wilt-nematode complex causes heavy losses.

"CERTIFIED" SEED WORTH THE MONEY
The only way you can be sure you're planting the variety you select is to buy certified seed in the Lankart or Lockett trademarked bag. You can get them from your ginner.

Book Review Given Club By Mrs. Jimmy Willson

"Mr. God, This Is Anna" is expected by a Floydada critic to be the classic book of 1976. Written by Fynn, the book was reviewed by Mrs. J. M. Willson Jr., Tuesday night for members of the 1934 Study Club and their guests.

Fynn was 19 years of age when he found a four year old runaway and abused child named Anna. It happened in Londontown a number of years ago, and Fynn took the little girl home to his mother. The child became one of the family and her concept of God at the age of four fascinated Fynn so much that it prompted him to write the book, "Mr. God, This Is Anna." The little girl accidentally fell at the age of seven and later died, but Anna lives on in the hearts of her foster family.

Mrs. Willson gave the book review in first person which captivated her audience.

Hostesses for the Bicentennial Day guest night were Mmes. Garland Foster, Fred Stewart, Lonnie Hinsley and Doris Huckabay.

Guests and members were served from a table decorated in a patriotic theme. Three different colored candles with a flower ring centered the table with a patriotic streamer, gracing the mid-section. A sheet cake, decorated as a flag along with open face sandwiches and red punch were served.

Mrs. Leon Ferguson was program director and gave Great Moments in History.

Guests included Mmes. Thomas Warren, Earl Crawford, W. L. Davis, Dale Lawson, Milton Harrison, Mamie Clark, J. W. Day, Buster Simpson, Wendell Tooley, J. M. Willson Sr., Louis Lloyd, Marjorie Hollums, Ruth Trapp and Miss Nell Swinson.

Members present were Mmes. Bob Alldredge, Wm. F. Bertrand, Allen Bingham, R. G. Dunlap, Leon Ferguson, Garland Foster, Kyle Glover, J. S. Hale Jr., Lonnie Hinsley, Floyd Lawson, M. J. McNeill, W. O. Newberry, George Springer, Fred Stewart, L. B. Stewart Jr., O. M. Watson Jr., J. M. Willson, Jr., A. L. Wylie Jr., and Mrs. Doris Huckabay.

New Officers For 1929 Study Club

New officers for a two year term were installed at the April 1st meeting of the 1929 Study Club. Mrs. J. A. Colston was hostess for the meeting and Mrs. J. M. Willson Sr., was installing officer.

Mrs. Colston was also program leader and led the American Creed given in unison, then introduced J. C. Wester who gave a talk on American Legion.

Mrs. W. Ian Moore was installed as new club president; Mrs. Ben Whitaker, first vice president; Mrs. J. A. Colston, second vice-president; Mrs. Clay Henry, recording secretary; Mrs. Sam Green, corresponding secretary; Mrs. S. W. Ross, treasurer; Miss Ann Sweptson, reporter; Mrs. H. O. Cline, custodian; and Mrs. J. M. Willson Sr., parliamentarian.

During business the projects committee called pasing her Centennial year. Mrs. Buchanan, a resident of the Floydada Nursing Home celebrated her 100th birthday, Friday, April 9th, and was honored with a party at the home by her children and other relatives along with the staff and other residents.

Born in 1876 in Schott, Missouri, she was named by her farming parents, Myrtle Sires. She grew up in Missouri and became a Christian at an early age. On January 24th, 1900 she and James Hale Buchanan were married and to this union were born four children, all of whom are still living.

The children are Mrs. Harry (Nancy) Morekel of Floydada; Mrs. Hershel Frieds of Carthage, Missouri; John Buchanan of Lamar, Missouri; and Paul Buchanan of Bois D'arc, Missouri. Her husband died November 3, 1939 at Carthage, Missouri. She came to live with Harry and Nancy Morekel in Floydada.

In 1970 it became necessary for her to enter the Nursing Home. She was an inspiration to all other residents as well as the staff.

She is lovingly called "Mom" by all. Mrs. Buchanan loves to work with her hands and did beautiful crochet, embroidery and all kinds of hand work.

The home still has a few of her aprons that she cross-stitched.

In November of 1973 "Mom" fell and broke her hip. Afterward she has been unable to attend activities, but talks about the good times she spent working and sharing stories with the other residents.

When asked about her long life she says she would have to attribute her 100 years to good clean living, hard work and the love she feels for her fellowman.

She has been a Christian and a member of the Methodist Church for 88 years. One staff worker said much credit is due her family who has shown love to her all these years and has had a lot to do in adding years to her life.

Every afternoon Harry or Nancy go to the Nursing Home to visit her. They always bring something special for her to eat. Another gesture of love.

All the Staff at the Nursing Home, all residents, family and friends join in wishing Mom Buchanan a happy birthday. May she have many more.

Alpha Mu Delta Chapter Heads Campaign

Breathing is such a normal function we seldom give it a thought. But millions of lung-damaged children think about it when they're struggling to breathe! They have cystic fibrosis, (sis-tic fi-bro-sis) or other diseases that damage their lungs. They live through each day with the hope of a better tomorrow.

Why should any child have to fight for his breath! The Cystic Fibrosis Foundation doesn't have an answer, but it's working hard to find a cure for cystic fibrosis.

Members of the Alpha Mu Delta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi have been named as the chairman for the Floyd County, Cystic Fibrosis, "Breath of Life Campaign." They will be contacting businesses, clubs,

The Breath of Life Campaign is so appropriately named. The money raised will go to finance research, care and educational programs that will give these children a better chance for a breath of life.

Lung-damaging disorders kill more children in the United States than any other disease except cancer. Besides cystic fibrosis and bronchiectasis, these diseases include asthma, chronic bronchitis, "childhood emphysema," recurrent pneumonia, and other lung-damaging conditions.

We hope that someday we'll conquer children's lung-damaging diseases, which each year kill more children than any other disease except cancer. When that "someday" arrives, our friends in Floyd County will have helped make it possible.

Study Shows People Feel Funeral Director Does Good Job

Funeral directors' charges are "in line" rather than "high" or "low."

97% said the funeral director and his staff were helpful and considerate in all ways.

Most people would call the same funeral director again.

Only a very small minority had any unfavorable comments.

Respondents also agreed that funeral directors gave an adequate explanation of the services, facilities and merchandise they had available and 94% said the funeral director did not attempt to pressure them into undesired or unnecessary expenses, services, facilities or merchandise.

The survey results substantiate what funeral directors and funeral director associations, both state and national, have been saying since the Federal Trade Commission started its inquiry into funeral practices, that the vast majority of Americans are well satisfied both with their funeral directors and the services they offer.

Most respondents indicated that they selected their funeral director on the basis of the firm's reputation; secondly, because of personal acquaintance; and thirdly, because of convenience. Hardly anybody selected a funeral director because of his prices or advertising, according to the study.

Officials of the National Funeral Directors Association declared that this bears out their contention that the funeral is not just another commercial transaction as some federal government officials would have you believe, but that it is an experience of real value to the bereaved in which personal service and attention are extremely important.

The survey further reported that most people do not favor increased government regulation of funeral practices. And by the overwhelming margin of 12 to 1, respondents preferred state and local regulation of funeral practices rather than supervision. A nation-wide cross section sample of residential telephone numbers was provided by the Marketing Information Center of the Reuben H. Donnelley Corporation.

The National Funeral Directors Association stated that it commissioned the survey to find out what the American public really thinks about funeral directors and the services they offer. And the best way to accomplish that was to query those who had arranged funerals in recent years, NFDA asserted.

It is NFDA's belief that funeral practices should reflect the actual needs, wants and desires of the American public, and not what certain governmental officials arbitrarily determine the public should have.

FHS Golf Tennis, Track Teams Champions

The Floydada high school girl's golf, girls' tennis and boys' track teams came out with championship trophies last week at Amarillo and San Angelo.

Dale Tver's brilliant come-from-behind golfers highlighted the Amarillo two day, 36-hole tournament. The Whirlettes overcame a nine-stroke deficit to capture the Class AA-A-B division. Early Saturday morning the golf and tennis team agreed that they would do their best to win...and at the end of the day, both girls' teams had their championship trophies.

The Whirlettes trailed the Sandie 'B' team, 378-387 after Friday's opening round and were third among six teams which made the first-day cut. They made up seven of the nine strokes Saturday morning with a 193-200 advantage after nine holes. Floydada knocked off four additional strokes on the final nine to card a 374 round and a 761 four-girl total. Amarillo High, the defending small-school champion, finished at 763.

Tina Foxhall, a 14-year-old freshman from Memphis, topped the individual small-school list with a 90-90-180. The newly crowned District 2-A champion is the only girl golfer in Memphis and has been competing since she was 10. She overcame a four-stroke first-round deficit to trip Cindy Blake of Midland Lee and Elisa Garrett of Floydada by one stroke.

"We just decided this morning we were going to play win and we did," a jubilant Mrs. Tver said after the Floydada win. "We decided everyone had to cut off five strokes from their score. We just played better. The scores aren't fantastic, but we did better than the others."

Tammy Tver improved her previous score by five strokes (96-91) and Miss Garrett improved equally as much (93-88) to pace Floydada. Mitzi Hale added a 99-96-195 for the Whirlwinds, who were third a year ago.

Floydada wound up with 20 points and second team championship at Amarillo.

Denver City took the boys singles and doubles championship.

The finals proved trying for the Floydada netters. Miss Farris dropped the opening set to Sterling City's Marci Nichols 3-6. With the game count tied at 3-3, the Floydada senior regained her composure, won the set 6-3, and took the next one 6-1 to defend the title she won last year in straight-sets over Tula's Kenna Godwin.

Misses Marble and Johnson, Class AA state doubles champions, went three sets before they were able to CATTLE NUMBERS MOVING DOWN- A livestock marketing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service says that 1975 marked the passing of the peak year of the current cattle cycle and that this year and the next will be years of cutting down cattle numbers. Cattle numbers are already down due to increased slaughter and a halt in expansion of the breeding herd. The 1975 calf crop was also lower than in previous years due to a low calving rate.

The Floyd Philosopher Attempts To Come To The Aid Of the Postal Service, But Finds He's Too Late

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson Grass farm tries to defend a few things this week, in his own way.

Dear editor:
There's nothing worse than thinking up a brilliant idea only to find out somebody else has beat you to it.

Now nearly all of us have been guilty of criticizing and poking fun at the Postal Service, so I decided it was time somebody started coming to the outfit's rescue with some constructive suggestions.

As I understand it, the Postal Service is losing a tremendous amount of money, and to offset this is considering limiting its service, say to delivering mail maybe only three days a week.

However to do that, it's obvious the volume of mail would have to be reduced, and I have hit on what I thought was the perfect way to do it. It's simple; stop teaching kids how to read and write. I guarantee that'll decrease the volume of mail in one generation and put the Postal Service back on its feet. I mentioned this idea to a friend and he said, "Man, you're behind the times. The schools are way ahead of you. They're already turning out high school graduates who can't read and write. The schools are on their toes. They figured out the solution to the problems of the Postal Service long before you did."

Sometimes a man might as well sleep as think. I'll try another subject. People are always criticizing weather men. "We may get a rain tomorrow," they'll say, "the forecaster said it'd continue dry."

This is just another example of the cynicism that's so popular these days. If the weatherman, consulting high and low pressures and the upper wind patterns, predicts continued dry and it rains, he didn't make a mistake. The weather made a mistake.

Or take Secretary of State Kissinger. If he threatens maybe military action against Cuba if it doesn't keep its troops out of other countries, a lot of people jump on him and say where does he get the authority to do such a thing? It's just another case of not having all the facts. How do such people know whether or not Kissinger can fly a fighter bomber?
Yours faithfully,
J.A.

Texas Grain Stocks Up After Good '75 Harvest

AUSTIN--Texas grain production for 1975 showed substantial increases for most grains, hiking the Texas Crop Production Index for 14 major grains up to 119, a rebound from the 100 reading of 1974.

More favorable growing conditions prevailed in 1975 than in drought-plagued 1974, and gains were recorded for wheat, oats, barley, sorghum and corn.

As a result of increased production, Texas is beginning 1976 with total grain stocks higher than they were a year ago, according to Agriculture Commissioner John C. White.

Wheat production reached a record 131.1 million bushels when harvest was completed in late summer. Wheat stocks showed a 39 percent increase, totaling nearly 71 million bushels.

The sorghum crop of 374.4 million bushels was the second largest on record, exceeded only by the 1973 crop of 417 million. Stocks held in all positions are estimated at 185 million bushels, up 34 percent from the 138 million a year ago. Texas also recorded its second largest corn crop with yield per harvested acre topping previous years' figures. Farmers completed harvest in late fall with a crop of 113.3 million bushels and average yields of 103 bushels per acre.

Barley production reached almost 2.4 million bushels while the oat crop totaled 19.5 million--more than doubling the 1974 crop. Total stocks for barley and oats are projected at 507,000 and 7.6 million respectively.

A reduction in 1975 rice allotments cut into Texas planted acreage last year. White reported that 548,000 acres were harvested with yields averaging 4,560 pounds per acre. Total production reached almost 25 million hundredweights, a 262,000 drop from 1974, but rough rice stocks in all positions are estimated at more than 19.4 million hundredweights.

Lest We Forget

The following item has appeared many times in many places but bears repeating and repeating.

In May 1919 at Dusseldorf, Germany, the Allied Forces came upon the "Communist Rules for Revolution."

A. Corrupt the young, get them away from religion. Get them interested in sex. Make them superficial, destroy their ruggedness.

B. Get control of all means of publicity, thereby:

- Get people's minds off their government by focusing attention on athletics, sexy books, plays and other trivialities.
- Divide the people into hostile groups by constantly harping on controversial matters of no importance.
- Destroy the people's faith in their natural leaders by holding them up to contempt, ridicule and obloquy.

- Always preach true democracy, but seize power as fast and as ruthlessly as possible.
- By encouraging government extravagance, destroy its credit, produce fear of inflation with rising prices and general discontent.
- Foment unnecessary strikes in vital industries, encourage civil disorders and foster lenient and soft attitude on the part of government toward such disorders.
- By specious argument cause the breakdown of the old moral virtues, honesty, sobriety, continence, faith in the pledged word, ruggedness.

C. Cause the registration of all firearms on some pretext with a view to confiscating them and leaving the population helpless.

Check off how many you think we have already "complished with" or have been duped into. Rather frightening, isn't it?

NEWS & REVIEWS
First Baptist Church Library

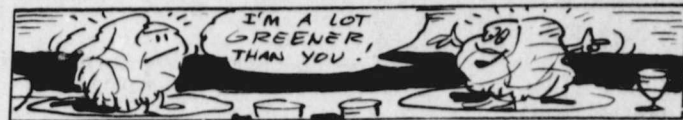

Someone said that in a few years Americans would have eyes as big as cantalopes and brains the size of a pea because watching television took priority in their lives. Perhaps that is exaggerating a bit. However, in thinking about the theme for Church Library Week, "Reading Rings the Bell" we wonder how dependent we are on the evening news for our understanding of the world about us. Remember that reading a free press keeps the liberty bell ringing. One of the first actions of a dictatorship is to manage the news and restrict the printing press. It is not possible to gain any kind of in-depth knowledge if we depend entirely on the spoken word. One book will be reviewed here today that will contribute to your understanding of the political climate in which the scandal of Watergate developed.

BORN AGAIN by Charles Colson, known as Nixon's hatchet man, details the agony of soul of a man looking into his deepest recesses and finding the emptiness of misplaced goals and loyalties. Fortunately for Charles Colson, an old friend stepped in at a crucial moment and spoke to him of a living faith, telling him simply what committing his life to Jesus Christ had meant to him. He also handed him the book MERE CHRISTIANITY by C. S. Lewis. The logical arguments in support of the Christian faith by the brilliant former atheist, Lewis, gave Colson a real perspective about the person of Christ, which had been lacking in his nominal Christian experience. In those early days following his commitment to Christ, Colson met regularly with a group of men in Washington for prayer and fellowship. As the Watergate investigation unfolded he found himself caught in a dilemma of the "new man in Christ" being required to defend the "old man", in which he could find little to defend. He also realized that the cynical press would scorn his "conversion" as a device to incur sympathy, and for this reason he attempted to keep his commitment a private experience shared with his family and prayer fellowship. Colson's decision to plead guilty to an act not listed in the indictment came from the conviction that he must admit guilt for an entire approach to life, in which the good of the State came before the protection of the rights of the individual. Out of this attitude came the orders to break into the office of Ellsberg's psychiatrist in an effort to uncover damaging information that would influence the outcome of Ellsberg's trial. If one gains little else from this book, the chilling glimpse of how easily dedicated, patriotic men can let the "end justifies the means" philosophy blind them to the destruction of the concept of individual freedom over the state upon which this Republic was built. This was the cancer eating away at the vitality of a Nation unique in the history of man. Only a dependence upon God and constant vigilance will prevent the recurrence of the type of activities revealed by the Watergate episode.
