Floyd newspapers early next week

Due to Thanksgiving holiday, Floyd County newspapers will be printed one day early next week in order that copies may reach readers before the holiday.

Deadline for advertisements and news items will be 3 p.m. Monday. Local mail subscribers should receive their copies one day earlier than normal.

10 contestants vie for Miss Floydada crown

A.E. Baker Auditorium at Floydada High School will be the scene Saturday, Nov. 21, at 7:30 p.m. for the 1987-88 Miss Floydada Pageant. Ten girls have entered the contest.

The pageant is sponsored by Floydada Chamber of Commerce and coordinated by James and Cyndi Williams.

Advance tickets are available from the Chamber office or at Williams Florist for $1 each. Tickets at the door will be $1.50 each. A door prize is to be given away during the pageant.

One of the judges will be the recently-crowned Maid of Cotton, Trisha Touchstone. She is a senior student at Texas Tech University and an accomplished vocalist.

Rhonda Dill, who is also a Tech student and a vocalist, will also be a judge. She is a contestant in the Miss Lubbock pageant which will be held in the near future.

Both Miss Dill and Miss Touchstone model for the Robert Spence School of Modeling in Lubbock. The Robert Spence School has furnished judges for this pageant for the past several years.

Also judging the pageant will be Margaret Amonett. She has been named Mrs. Northwest Texas at a Lubbock pageant. She models for various stores in Lubbock and has done commercials on television for Lubbock and Amarillo businesses. She owns the "Amber Lily," a small boutique in Lubbock's Salem Village, and also works in Dallas at the Fashion Apparel Mart.

The ten young ladies vying for Miss Floydada are as follows:

Floyd County's state-winning 4-H livestock judging team — Chad Edwards, Shannon Barbee, Darin Martinez and Matt Williams — placed sixth overall Tuesday at the National 4-H Livestock Judging Contest in Louisville, Kentucky. Thirty-four teams competed. The local team placed third in reasons. County Extension Agent-AG Richie Crow accompanied the team.

Floydada and county named in suit

A suit was filed Tuesday, Nov. 17, in 110th Judicial District by Helen Faye Hammonds against City of Floydada, county of Floyd and elected officials serving on those governing bodies.

Mrs. Hammonds charges that the "garbage pit" on her property has been managed in a negligent manner and that the situation has caused the plaintiff to "suffer severe (physical) pain and mental anguish and that plaintiff will and all reasonable probability continue to suffer such physical pain and mental suffering for the balance of her natural life."

City of Floydada voted in October to invoke the doctrine of eminent domain when a condemnation suit was filed in district court. The suit asks that the 48,999 acres of land which city officials have long sought to purchase from Mrs. Hammonds be condemned and turned over to the city for use in expanding the sanitary landfill operation.

The city's suit has been filed and that group is waiting for the district judge to appoint a three-member commission to appraise the property.

The land in question is situated southeast of town.

"The same real property has served as a farm and ranch for the plaintiff and plaintiff's family since 1968," Mrs. Hammonds' suit states.

It continues:

"Commencing on or about January 1, 1966, the City of Floydada, its agents and employees have continuously operated a garbage pit on 60 acres described on and pursuant to a written easement shown on Exhibit 'B' attached hereto and incorporated herein as though repeated verbatim, in close proximity to plaintiff's farm and ranch.

"The County of Floyd has aided and abetted the City of Floydada in the operation of the pit for the benefit of the county and its citizens' use. In the

Cowboy tickets won by Deneen Marricle

Deneen Marricle will have an opportunity to see the Dallas Cowboys-Miami Dolphins football game — in person — this Sunday evening at Texas Stadium near Dallas. Mrs. Marricle receives two tickets to the game by virtue of being named winner of The Hesperian's football contest for the season.

She tallied 172 points, two more than runner-up Sherry Hale. The two frontrunners entered the final week two points apart and each missed five games the last week.

Fourteen contestants scored 151 or more points during the season, earning one point for each winner forecast in contest games.

These sterling prognosticators include:

- Deneen Marricle — 172
- Sherry Hale — 170
- Franklin Harris — 169
- Andy Hale — 165
- Jean Hale — 164
- Dolan Hanna and Paige Cannon — 161
- Laura Hale — 157
- Wes Campbell and Travis Gentry — 156
- Sammy Hale — 155
- Amy McCormick — 154
- Sheree Cannon — 152
- Jeffrey Marler — 151.

Whirlwind girls cross country ninth in state

Medrano brothers also run Saturday

Whirlwind girls cross country team is the ninth best AAA squad in Texas. The Green and White placed ninth in their division Saturday during the state meet at Southwestern University in Georgetown, about 20 miles from Austin.

Daniel and David Medrano, representing the Whirlwind boys squad, placed 21st and 38th, respectively, in the boys run.

"I was proud of them," Coach Regina Smith says of the nine Floydada runners. She says the FHS athletes ran "about a minute" slower than their usual times and felt bad about their times. However, the coach says "They ran as hard as they've every run."

For the first time in her career, Angie Bertrand outran Tullia's brilliant Tara Iribek. Miss Bertrand toured the course in 13:46 to cross the line in 37th place.

Other Whirlwind girls' places and times: Blanca Medrano, 48th, 14:00; Trish Pernell, 51st, 14:03; Deanna Watson, 68th, 14:25; Lori Christian, 71st, 14:30; Gloria Vargas, 90th, 15:07; and Kerrie Pitts, 98th, 15:35.

This is an exceptionally young team with only Misses Bertrand and Vargas being seniors.

Twelve teams plus other individual qualifiers participated in the girls AAA run.

Daniel Medrano stopped the clock in 17:30 while his brother David was timed in 17:44. The Medrano twins — standouts in football, cross country and track — are seniors.

Floydada's cross country runners are coached by Gail Gregg and Regina Smith. Coach Smith accompanied the FHS girls — who placed second in district and third in regional — and the Medrano brothers to the state trials.

Competitive girls race predicted

"I think we'll be competitive in the district race," new Whirlwind girls coach Gail Gregg says. He was quick to add, however, that "We're going to have to stay with it and improve every week."

Coach Gregg, who has been in coaching 10 years and who served as assistant coach of the highly successful Sudan program the past four years, lists aggressiveness as a strong point for the Whirlwind squad. Lack of height, control and patience are seen as weaknesses.

He says a "thin line" exists between aggressiveness and control. Although seven seniors dot the varsity squad, the Green and White is not overly experienced.

Expected to be answering the opening whistle are two returning starters, a squadman from the 1986-87 squad and two players who basically saw junior varsity duty last year.

The lone regulars back in the fold are seniors Amanda McDaniel, 5'5", and Angie Bertrand, 5'6". Both own two letters.

Rounding out the starting lineup probably will be Pam Woody, a 5'7" senior with one letter; Jamie Morrison, a 5'5" senior; and Trish Hanna, a 5'5" junior. The latter two performed primarily with the JV last year.

Other letter winners Coach Gregg can call on are Tana Turner, a 5'4" senior, and Lori Christian, a 5'6" junior.

old sophomore is being sponsored by the Caprock Plains Federal Land Bank Association. Misty's interests include tennis, band and horseback riding.

—Kim Perry is a 16 year old sophomore at FHS. Her parents are Jerry and Tommy Perry and her sponsor is Floyd County Implement. Kim is a varsity cheerleader and is interested in basketball and track.

—Jodi Morrison is a 16 year old junior this year. Don and Glenda Morrison are her parents. R Photography is her sponsor. Jodi, a varsity cheerleader, is also interested in tennis, modeling and dancing.

—Martha Garcia is the daughter of Juan and Dora Garcia. Her sponsor is Floydada Coop Gin, Inc. She is a 16 year old junior at FHS. Martha lists sewing and basketball as her main interests.

—Shannon Brown is the daughter of Jill Hayes who is also her proud sponsor. She is a 15 year old 10th grader this year at FHS. Shannon lists many interests including horseback riding, listening to music and biology.

Entertainment for this annual event is being provided by the Floydada School of Baton under the direction of Kelli Whitten.

The following students will be doing the twirling in several separate groups: Laci Christian, Ila Harris, Mindy Kelly, Shonda Turnbow, Ashleigh Williams, Amanda Green, Micah Marble, Amanda Williams, Lisa Martinez, Karen Wyrick, Katie Sanders, Ashley Martinez, Jennifer Garcia, Lacy Martinez, Brandi Patterson, Krissy Patterson, Shayna Kelly, Reagan Pernell, Mandi Yeary, Tiffany Hinkle, Mindy Evans, Tammi Cocanougher, Missy Pernell, Kimberly Redden, Viola Hernandez, Amanda Watson, Deanna Watson, Jane Willson, Kelli Whitten, Lindsey Whitten.

The current Miss Floydada is Sharon Smith, the daughter of Dale and Carolyn Smith. She will be ending her reign as Miss Floydada when she crowns her successor Saturday night.

Fontaine Fowler Cope receives Graduate Gemologist diploma

Mrs. Nolen (Fontaine) Cope of Lamesa has been awarded the Graduate Gemologist diploma from the Gemological Institute of America in Santa Monica, Calif., after completing a three-course program in diamonds, colored stones and gem identification and two one-week resident classes in diamonds and gem identification.

Mrs. Cope is the owner and operator of Fontaine's, a gem business located at 206 North Austin in Lamesa. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Fowler of Floydada.

Established in 1931, the non-profit Gemological Institute of America is an educational and research organization serving the jewelry industry, with campuses and laboratories in New York and California.

To complete the GIA gemology program successfully, Mrs. Cope was asked to master a range of information and skills from geology to gem grading and testing procedures for both diamonds and textured stones. She also was required to correctly identify 20 randomly selected gemstones and synthetic gems under a stringent time limit.

A Graduate Gemology diploma represents the highest level of professional training in the jewelry industry.

Additional varsity performers are seniors Sylvia McComas, 5'7", and Angie Hinsley, 5'6", and Shelby Ogden, 5'1" junior. Miss Hinsley did not participate in the sport last year.

Coach Gregg says he likes for his team's tempo to be "as fast as you can go under control. We like to move the ball, yet control it."

He says the Winds have looked sharp in practice sessions while working on different phases of the game. However, when the team has attempted to put its entire game together in a scrimmage, it is "still making mistakes." (This article was written last Friday prior to the season opener Tuesday night.)

In a scrimmage against Roosevelt, Coach Gregg says his crew "looked decent" but against a good Lorenzo squad "we didn't look worth a flip."

He hopes the Green and White will become more consistent as the season progresses.

DISTRICT RACE
Looking at the District 2-AAA race, the new Whirlwind mentor predicts that "Dimmitt probably should be the favorite. They qualified for the playoffs last winter, "return several people and have a move-in." The transfer student is a 5'11" girl from the state AAAA runner-up Corpus Christi Calallen.

The remaining five district squads — Friona, Tulia, Littlefield, Muleshoe and Floydada — suffered significant graduation losses. At this point, the district chase looks scrambled.

Six sophomores currently are listed on the junior varsity squad: Shayla Barbee, 5'6"; Libby Anderson, 6'; Amy McCormick, 5'6"; Heather Henderson, 5'8"; Stacy Hadderton, 5'8"; and Kim Perry, 5'6".

The freshman squad has seven performers.

Tires and wheels stolen from parked vehicle here

An estimated $480 in accessories were stolen from a 1973 Chevrolet vehicle parked at 411 West Kentucky either late Thursday night or early Friday morning.

Daniel Castillo reportedly owns the vehicle, but it was parked at the Juan Gonzales residence. Gonzales reported to the police department the theft of four chrome wheels, valued at $240; four 14 inch tires, valued at $120; and two JVC speakers, valued at $120.

Police say that two lug wrenches used to remove the wheels were stored on a shelf in Gonzales' garage. Bricks used to set the car on allegedly came from a nearby house.

Charges of failure to report an accident, no driver's license, no inurance and running a stop sign were filed following a 5:05 a.m. Friday one-vehicle collision.

The driver reportedly left the scene. The vehicle was found by the driver's wife about 9 a.m. The '78 Mercury Cougar sustained "extensive damage."

A 1967 Plymouth Valiant was halted at a stop sign at the Second and Georgia intersection when it backed into a '78 Lincoln Town Car owned by an Amarillo man about 5:30 p.m. Saturday. The Plymouth left the scene, and its driver was cited for failing to report an accident and backing without safety.

Damage was "minor."

The week-end was "quiet," according to officers.

CANNON FINAL WINNER
Paige Cannon missed only one game to earn the $10 first place check in the final contest of the 1987 season.

Dolan Hanna and Andy Hale share two and third place winnings. Each missed only two games and predicted a tie-breaker score of 38. Texas A&M and Arkansas scored 14 points in the tie-breaker game.

Mike Anderson incorrectly predicted only two winners, which would have won most weeks, but did not place. His tie-breaker guess of 42 kept him out of the winner's circle.

Franklin Harris receives honorable mention with an entry bearing only three misses.

The Hesperian expresses appreciation to sponsors who made possible the contest. They include: Brown Implement, Willson and Son Builder's Mart, City Auto, Don Hardy Car Wash, Dixie Dog, First National Bank, Floyd County Farm Bureau, Shurbet Backhoe, Floydada Co-op Gins, Cornelius Conoco, Lighthouse Electric;

Also Producers Co-op Elevators, Pay 'n Save, Floyd County Hesperian, Thompson Pharmacy, Quality Body Shop, Pizza Gold, Floyd County Seed, Moore-Rose Funeral Home, KKAP, Floydada Implement, Floyd County Implement, Script Printing and Office Supply, Nielson's Restaurant and Catering and Hale Insurance and Real Estate.

Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

By Jo Bryant

Finally after ten Saturdays, I finally got through school at Lubbock and received my certificate. We all had mixed emotions about finishing school, there were 12 in the class and we had gotten to know each other, anyway I will be here on Mondays from now on. I learned a lot, and will hopefully put the knowledge to good use in serving.

Tuesday, we had juice and coffee as usual. Bro. Neeley didn't get to make it for the devotion. At 2:00 we had Bible study and shared the poem, "A Day Worth While." Then some of the residents made a turkey for their door or rooms.

Wednesday at 9:30, the residents had coffee and played some games. Bro. Earl Blair couldn't make it because of the death of his mother. Our prayers and sympathy go out to him and the family. Al Benson read Ps. 91 and gave us encouragement and hope. Since it was Nov. 11 and Veteran's Day, we acknowledged our loved ones who had passed on, and pledge allegiance to the flag. At 2:00 the residents played Bingo. Angie Reynolds came and called out the numbers, thanks Angie. Ruth Smitherman had the first Bingo. Those playing were: Oda Birchfield, Brooks Callaway, Opal Morrison, Thelma Hoffman, Ruth Smitherman, Carrie Cline, Maude Galloway, Burmah Probasco, Della Halecak, Myra, Charles Breeding and Ruth Benson.

Thursday, Bro. Curry, shared John

20:27, about blind faith. Ruth Duncan and Marie Tardy from the Sunshine Sunday school of the First Baptist Church brought the residents, cookies, crackers and bananas, thanks, the residents always enjoy the treats. At 2:30 the residents saw a movie on Thanksgiving and birds and had popcorn too.

Friday, the ladies from the First Baptist Church came and gave the devotion. Evelyn Latta played the piano and Letha Mulder lead the singing. Mrs. Lillian Ross gave the Romans 13 word. She said even if it was Friday the 13th, we would trust God and His word.

At 1:30 the residents went on a bus ride to Matador. The Dairy Queen treated them to ice cream. Thanks Dairy Queen. Those going were: Maude Galloway, Della Halecak, Florence Curry, Burmah Probasco, Charles Breeding, Opal Morrison and Brooks Callaway.

We wish for a speedy recovery to Una Clark, Thelma Hoffman and Iva Wells, we miss all of you. A thought: "If every day was a day of sunshine, and no tears, we would soon become desert people."

This week's visitors were: Loyse and Dusty Bradshaw, Letha and Travis Lightfoot, Opal Kratzer, Laura Turner, Ola Smith, Mel and Marjorie Holcomb, Bessie Wilson, John and Christine Lyles, Winnie Neil, Beulah Denison, Artie Webb, Sally Martinez, Margaret Daniel, Minnie Faye Thomas Easter, Anadarka, Okla.

First school photo on Thanksgiving 1905

A photo of the "first school house in Floydada" appears on the front page of a July 15, 1965, issue of The Hesperian brought to this office by Walton Wilson. The picture was made on Thanksgiving Day 1905. Among the students was Homer Steen, longtime owner-publisher-editor of the Floydada newspaper.

"An air of gaiety perhaps as a reaction to the horror of World War I, pervades the Hesper, 1922 yearbook of Floydada High School," according to an article tracing the school's early days. J.C. Wester was principal and taught mathematics.

One DWI charge

The sheriff's department reported one DWI (driving while intoxicated) apprehension over the week-end.

Investigation continues into recent burglaries within the county.

Introducing the new MAGNUM 7110

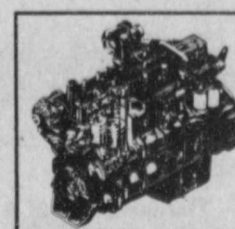

And the first all-new tractors from Case IH

Case IH put more into the new MAGNUM tractor line than any farm tractors developed in over twenty years. Here's why you'll get more out of it:

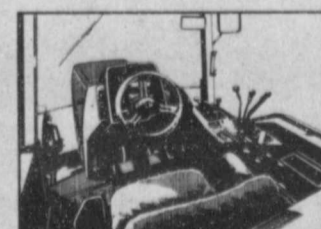

MAGNUM means more. Outstanding field performance from a new 505 cubic inch turbocharged engine with reserve power. MAGNUM power.

The MAGNUM tractor's powershift puts 18-speeds of shift-on-the-go workpower at your fingertips—standard. And only MAGNUM tractors offer a full powershift creeper transmission with six additional speeds from 5 to 2.1 mph... for more control and performance. MAGNUM performance.

The MAGNUM tractor's new larger cab has 48 square feet of window area... virtually unobstructed visibility... more room... more seating comfort. MAGNUM comfort. It all adds up. The Case IH MAGNUM 7110 tractor sets new standards for the 130 hp (97 kW) class... and for you. See us for details.

MAGNUM Power. More logging ability and economy.

MAGNUM Comfort. A more productive environment.

MAGNUM Performance. 18-speed field and road performance.

MAGNUM means more.

Crop comments: A small amount of late windrowed hay remains to be baled. Strippers have sampled a few fields of our cotton, then backed away to allow a few more days for drying. Other areas of the county, missed by the July hailstorms, are well into their cotton harvest, and have excellent yields. Some of our people have started full time work at nearby gigs. Pinto bean specialists told how beans, too short for combining, could be saved by knifing the vines loose from the soil and raking them into a windrow. Those same men now say the knife-rake procedure will not work on beans after they have experienced a killing frost. Dry weather has stopped new growth in our wheat fields. Cattle on wheat will be needing hay before long unless moisture comes soon. Garland and Mary Ann Tucker, who now reside in Lubbock, visited in the homes of various relatives Thursday, Nov. 12.

Guest speakers for the evening service at the Assembly of God Church were Van and Karen Allen from Amarillo. Mrs. Allen is remembered here as Karen Slaten. Her father was pastor of the local church in the early 1960s, and attended both Wayland University and Texas Tech while he served here. From Cedar Hill Bro. Slaten moved directly to the pastorate of the First Assembly of God in Amarillo and he is still shepherd to that congregation.

Due to schedule conflicts the men's First Monday Breakfast, sponsored by the Assembly of God Church, originally set for Nov. 2, was held November 16. Those present were Tom and Durrell Fortenberry, Bros. Bud Morton and G.A. VanHoose, Craig Gilly and Phil and Carl Lemons. Next breakfast is planned for the first Monday in December.

Holley Hardin and son Joshua visited in Amarillo the first week in November. Both Holly and Rodger's parents live there. Rodger is employed by the Excel Hay Company here in Cedar Hill. Holly has experience in housework and would be happy to help anyone during the holiday season.

Raymond Yannis broke one of his legs in three places Friday, November 13 while building fence and was rushed to Central Plains Hospital in Plainview. Raymond works for Edna Gilly and lives in the old Robin Fortenberry house. He was tightening a single strand electric fence by hand when the wire broke allowing him to fall. The accident occurred just across the highway in front of Edna's house.

RAMON MARTINEZ
Memorial services for Ramon V. Martinez, 60, were at 2 p.m. Sunday in First Baptist Church. Officiating was the Rev. Ramon Asebedo, a Baptist pastor from Plains. The Rev. Lupe Rando, pastor of Primera Mision Bautista, assisted with the service. Burial was made in Floyd County Memorial Park. Moore-Rose Funeral Home directed arrangements. His six brothers served as pallbearers. Mr. Martinez, who resided on Route

Four in Floydada, was claimed by death at 1:26 a.m. Friday in Comanche County Memorial Hospital in Lawton, Okla., following a lengthy illness.

A farmer, he moved to Floyd County in 1951 from Derby, Tex. He was a member of Primera Mision Bautista. Mr. Martinez married Virginia Santos on Jan. 18, 1947 in Derby, Tex. He was born Sept. 24, 1927 in Derby.

Survivors include his wife; his father, Bernardo Martinez of Pearsall; his mother, Guadalupe Martinez of Floydada; five sons, Juan Martinez of Minnesota, Jesse Martinez of Lubbock, Mauro (Matty) Martinez and Joe Martinez, both of Floydada, and Sammy Bradley of Dougherty; two daughters, Sylvia Arellano of Chattanooga, Okla., and Edna Juarez of Amarillo; six brothers, Ismael Martinez of Dougherty, Domingo Martinez of Carnegie, Okla., Fidel Martinez, Jose Martinez, Alfred Martinez and Benny Martinez, all of Floydada; two sisters, Manuela Mendoza of Grandfield, Okla., and Irma Garcia of Floydada; and 14 grandchildren.

Amarillo following a lengthy illness. He was 73.

Funeral rites for Mr. Barker were at 1 p.m. Monday in Memorial Park Funeral Home Chapel of Memories. Officiating were Dr. Stan Coffey, pastor of San Jacinto Baptist Church, and the Rev. Richard Higley.

Burial was made in Memorial Park Cemetery in Amarillo.

A veteran of World War II, Mr. Barker moved to Amarillo from San Diego, Tex., in 1949 and had been a construction supervisor for 37 years prior to his retirement. He was born Nov. 13, 1914, in Lindsay, Oklahoma, and married Ila Ophelia McDonald in 1936 at Matador.

Survivors include his wife, two sons, two daughters, two sisters, seven grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

CATHERINE BLAIR

Memorial services for Catherine Blair, 74, of Odessa were at 10 a.m. Thursday in Hubbard-Kelly Funeral Home Chapel in Odessa. Graveside services were at 3 p.m. in Robert Lee Cemetery.

Mrs. Blair was the mother of the Rev. Earl Blair, pastor of First United Methodist Church in Floydada.

Officiating for memorial services were the Rev. Blair and the Rev. Bruce Parks.

Mrs. Blair was claimed by death at 2 a.m. Wednesday, Nov. 11, in Medical Center Hospital in Odessa after an illness.

A native of Oxford, Miss., she moved to Odessa in 1976 from Robert Lee. She married Raymond Blair on July 28, 1929, in Blackwell. She was a homemaker and a Methodist.

Survivors include her husband; two sons, Earl of Floydada and William of Odessa; a daughter, Winona Martin of Odessa; a brother, Edgar Harold Overstreet of Oxford; seven sisters, Alice Taylor, Margie Mcgregor, Lillie Foust and Laura Reid, all of Oxford, Martha Taylor of Water Valley, Miss., Lila Blount of Ripley, Miss., and Betty Gresham of Greenville, Miss.; seven grandchildren; and five great-grandchildren.

BOB TILSON

A 37-year-old San Antonio man with local ties was found dead Friday at his residence.

Memorial services for Bob Tilson were at 2 p.m. Sunday in Edgar Funeral Home in Marble Falls. Burial was in Lakeland Hills Memorial Park.

Employed by Foley's Department Store in San Antonio, Tilson was a Lubbock native.

He is survived by his mother and stepfather, Bill and Sue Swearengen of Marble Falls; his father and stepmother, Bill and Faye Tilson of Littlefield; his grandmothers, Mrs. Lula Teague of Floydada and Mrs. Nina Byars of San Angelo; and two brothers, Joe Mack Tilson of San Saba and Riley Scott Tilson of Lubbock.

surgery and recent series of tests and chemotherapy, John reports there is steady improvement in her condition. Each day sees her taking on a greater share of household chores.

On Monday, November 16, Lindsey Lackey was admitted to a Lubbock hospital where he was scheduled to undergo a series of tests Tuesday morning. On Tuesday, November 17, Thada Lackey's husband, J.C. Fowler of Silvertown, was scheduled for tests in a Lubbock doctor's office. Recently J.C. has been receiving treatment in Amarillo.

Edna Gilly underwent a series of tests in Amarillo Monday. Her tests indicated some changes were needed in her medication. One specific was a change in the type and amount of thyroid she had been taking for a long time. The changes recommended were forwarded to her local physician.

For some time I have been considering a topic to enter in this column which might be titled "Over Eighty," or another title a reader might suggest. The item would run three, maybe four times each year and would be an update regarding older persons who no longer live in the community. For example it would be similar as follows:

Over Eighty
Edna Lackey now resides in Room 9B, Brownwood Care Center, Box 1328, Brownwood, Tx. 76801. In a conversation last Sunday she told how she uses either her walker or her wheelchair to move about the home and participate in activities. She goes to eat out occasionally with Dora Faye or other friends and relatives.

Sylvia Yeary has recently moved from the Lockney Care Center back to her home on Fourth Street. Jack and Wilma moved there some time ago, and Wilma has recently quit her job in Lubbock. That means Sylvia is back at home and never alone.

Rosa Massengale Lackey is at home at 812 W. Marivena, Floydada, TX 79235. Her son, Greer, decided to make an extended visit and care for his mother for a time. Rosa is doing much better, gaining strength and dexterity in the arm that was broken, does some needlework, moves freely about the house in her wheelchair, helps in the kitchen. Over the telephone Rosa talked with her sister this last Sunday. See below:

Nannie Massengale Fortenberry who resides at Prairie Acres Nursing Home, 201E15 N. Fourth, Friona, At Prairie Acres, where Nannie has lived for a number of years, she is located somewhat in the center of the area where her sons live. One of her sons keeps a van at Prairie Acres. The van has special ramps and electric lifts which helped Nannie on excursions to other places.

Clara Mize, 89, shares her home at 221 N. 1st, Floydada, with son George and daughter-in-law Betty. Clara makes it to the downtown shops and hardly ever misses Sunday services at the church. On the day of this interview, Clara was entertaining a Mrs. Stevens and her niece from Lubbock. Mrs. Stevens, just past 90, a Wayland College chum from the 1920s.

STYLE SHOW FASHIONS—Stacey Smith of Floydada shows off a casual wear outfit from Sears during Monday night's Holiday Happening. The event, attended by approximately 140 area ladies, was sponsored by the women's division of the Floydada Chamber of Commerce. Floydada merchants presented everything from casual to evening holiday wear. Preceding the fashion portion of the show, guests were served from an array of salads provided by each person attending. —Staff Photo

March of Dimes recruiting begins

The March of Dimes Birth Defects Foundation has begun recruitment for the 1988 Mothers March to be held on the weekend of January 23 and 24. Members of the Alpha Mu Delta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi will be making phone calls to recruit block marchers.

The Mothers' March campaign is an educational fundraiser. Block marchers distribute information sheets on nutrition and prenatal care while collecting contributions to the March of Dimes. These funds are used to support programs in research, public and professional education and public affairs aimed at the prevention of birth defects.

Floydada residents are encouraged to volunteer when the sorority representatives call, and "March a Block" to prevent birth defects. Help us to reach our goal — to insure that every baby born has a healthy start in life. Interested citizens may call the March of Dimes office (806) 797-6771 or Dara Ware 983-3083.

MARCH OF DIMES DRIVE BEGINS — The members of Alpha Mu Delta will be starting the March of Dimes Drive immediately. Citizens of Floyd County should be looking forward to one of the women calling on the phone or coming to your door for contributions. Some of the women who will be calling on you are: (left-right) Kelli Reddy, Holly Hendrix, Tonnia Kitchens, and Dara Ware. [See related story]. — Staff photo

Davis-McNabb marry in double ring ceremony

Glynes Dawn Davis became the bride of Michael Thomas McNabb during a 2 p.m. double ring ceremony November 14 in Paris, Texas. Hillcrest Missionary Baptist Church was the site for the exchange of vows read by the Rev. J.T. McNabb, father of the bridegroom.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Don Davis and the Rev. and Mrs. J.T. McNabb, all of Blossom, Texas.

The bride is the granddaughter of Mrs. Grace Giles and the late Joe Giles and Mrs. Ruby Davis and the late Hubert Davis, both of Floydada.

The couple stood before a 15-branch brass candelabra decorated with English ivy and holding votive candles and teal and peach satin bows. This was flanked by green plants on brass stands. A brass three branch unity candelabra was used. The brass kneeling bench, adorned with English ivy, completed the setting. Pews were marked with teal and peach satin bows.

Escorted by her father, the bride was given in marriage by her parents. For her wedding she chose a formal gown of white chiffon over taffeta, boasting a Victorian collar of schiffli lace on an inset yoke of English net. The full bishop sleeves featured motifs of schiffli lace and fitted cuffs edged in matching lace. The fitted bodice held Alençon and schiffli beaded lace. Tiny self-fabric buttons closed the back of the bodice to the natural waistline. The softly gathered skirt was adorned in the center front by a large beaded applique of schiffli lace and fell to a chapel length train encircled with matching lace. Her matching hat featured a face veil and fingertip streamers of illusion.

She carried a white Bible given to her by her paternal grandmother, along with a silk fan cascade of peach and white roses, arranged with white stephanotis, babies breath, peach cushion mums, lace leaves, white lace, peach and teal satin ribbons with love knots accented with pearl beads.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Mark Bates of Blossom wore a floor length teal gown with ruffled shoulders and skirt accented at the waistline with a satin ribbon.

Flower girl was the groom's niece, Ashley Rhodes of Blossom. She wore a tea length white dress covered with ruffle lace accented with a teal cummerbund and bows.

Acting as best man was Darrel Vaughn of Blossom.

Seating guests were Guy Davis of Bogata, Ladd Davis of College Station, and Gary Don Davis of Blossom, brothers of the bride.

Shannon Ayers of Paris presided at the register.

Musical selections for the ceremony were presented by Mrs. Mike Black of Blossom, pianist, who played traditional and contemporary wedding music. She also accompanied vocalist, Gary Don Davis of Blossom, brother of the bride, and Mrs. Guy Davis of Bogata, sister-in-law of the bride, who sang "Up Where We Belong." Miss Kerri Miller of Blossom vocalized, "Surely The Presence of The Lord Is In This Place" and the Rev. Mike Black of Blossom, presented "The Lord's Prayer."

A reception, hosted by the bride's parents, followed the ceremony in the fellowship hall of the church.

Members of the houseparty were Mrs. David Brown of Carthage, Mrs.

Leroy Cranford of Gary, Mrs. Keith Bollman, Paris, and Mrs. George Rhodes, Blossom, all sisters of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Jim Bryan, Blossom.

Kristan Bollman and Ashley Rhodes, nieces of the groom, distributed rice bags.

Following a wedding trip to Texarkana, the couple will reside in Paris.

The bride, a 1987 graduate of Prairieland High School, is employed by Wal-Mart.

The groom is a 1986 graduate of Prairieland High School. He is employed by Campbell Soup.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents in the fellowship hall of the church on November 7.

PRE-NUPTIAL COURTESIES

A miscellaneous shower was given for the couple on October 17 in the home of Mrs. Charles Whitley. Hostesses were Mrs. Whitley, Mrs. Jim Hilliard, Mrs. Guy Davis and Mrs. J.C. Whatley.

A miscellaneous shower Nov. 7 was held at East Post Oak Community Center. Hostesses were Mrs. Jim Bryan, Mrs. Donald Vaughn and Mrs. Verlon Vaughn.

A personal shower the afternoon of Nov. 8 was hosted by Mrs. Mark Bates and Miss Kerri Miller in the Miller home.

A rice bag and spice shower was also given the evening of Nov. 8. Mrs. Mike Black was hostess.

SOS directors meet for report

The Board of Directors of Floydada Spirit of Sharing held its annual meeting Monday evening, November 9, at the bank meeting room. Eighteen members were in attendance, representing eight of the participating churches.

Anne Willson presided, with Jo Bryant giving the opening prayer. Secretary Peggy Medley read the minutes of the 1986 meeting. Jack McIntosh gave the treasurer's report in Ed Wester's absence.

Helen Martin gave an informative report on the services rendered by S.O.S. in its four years of operation and the number of volunteers involved in providing those services. A total of 1503 families, comprised of 6432 persons, have received help of some kind at the center or in after-hours assistance by on-call volunteers. Mrs. Martin emphasized that the volunteers are the heart of the organization and that it is impossible to thank adequately those men and women who have given their time and energy to S.O.S.

There are currently 62 active volunteers, and more are badly needed at the present.

If anyone in the community is interested in truly rewarding volunteer work and can spare even one afternoon a month, S.O.S. would welcome help in any of the four areas—food pantry, clothing room, receptionist or interviewer.

Fred Cardinal, representing the Salvation Army, discussed with the group the ways in which the two agencies can work together in serving the needs of the community.

Evelyn Latta reported for the nominating committee, and the following officers were elected for 1988: president, Peggy Medley; vice president, Margie Sue; secretary, Ardis Daniel; treasurer, Ed Wester.

Following adjournment the group enjoyed refreshments and a time of fellowship. Those present were: Anne Willson, Evelyn Latta, Don Barrow, Fred Cardinal, Pauline Pierce, Si and Peggy Medley, Esterline Windom, Ethel Carmack, Lucille Lobban, Rev. Bob Chapman, Helen Martin, John Campbell, Jo Bryant, Margie Sue, Elvin Warren and Jack and Ruth McIntosh.

Personalities explored by 1956 Study Club

The 1956 Study Club met in the home of Sheree Cannon for its November meeting. Co-hostesses for the evening were JenniSu Smith and Rosemary Finley. Club members welcomed new member Atha Sue and guest, Lisa Becker.

Kathy Becker presented the program entitled, "Your Personality Tree" by Florence Littaner. Members filled out questionnaires to define personality characteristics. Kathy then discussed the four basic personality types.

During the business meeting, several plans and projects were discussed to be funded by proceeds from the Tater Bake. A letter of resignation was accepted from Penny Giesecke.

Members present were: Kathy Becker, Rozanne Bishop, Sheree Cannon, Judy Dunlap, Rosemary Finley, Sherry Hale, Donna Henderson, Janet Lloyd, Judy Schacht, Trena Simpson, JenniSu Smith, Sharon Vickers, Suzanne Wyrick and Leora Younger.

Nov. 12: A light freeze was predicted for Monday night and while the morning sun revealed little apparent damage on Tuesday, it is definitely coat weather after dark now. The sun warms things up during the day and the sap in the trees goes down with the night. Even the mesquites have decided it's time for winter and have shed their leaves.

Dean Smith and Floydada High School FFA officers were at Texas Tech University Saturday morning for parliamentary procedure judging of their chapter.

The Howard Bishops worked cattle at Roaring Springs last week. Some of the old and young cowhands who helped included Dee Adams, Q.D. Williams, Norman Muncy, Joe Jones and Greg and Mike Bishop. The men enjoyed looking over the Sesquicentennial Wagon Train pictures in the Roaring Springs Cafe. We read in the Matador paper the cafe will be elevated to restaurant status by a new sign soon.

Mr. and Mrs. James Williams and children, Ashleigh and Austin, hosted a family dinner Saturday evening honoring Mr. and Mrs. Q.D. Williams. Mr. and Mrs. Monte Williams, Amanda and Tara were also present. After a delicious meal, the children entertained the crowd. Austin played several violin solos. Ashleigh played her piano pieces. Tara, Amanda and Ashleigh displayed twirling and cheerleading routines learned in class and from watching the "big girls" at football games. Their class will perform during the Miss Floydada pageant.

Jason Pyle's seventh grade football team won all but one game this season. They are now going into basketball practice. Brandon Harrison and Rance Golightly also helped their team to victory this season.

Cody and Ford Miller of Lubbock visited in our community this week-end. Also Mrs. Norma Lee was here Sunday afternoon to see her sister, Mrs. Q.D. Williams, after visiting in Lubbock with her daughter, Lou Lee.

The Junior High department at the 1st Baptist Church sponsored a hay ride Halloween night at the country home of Ann and Joe Jones. Lakeview teens who attended included Jason Pyle, Rance Golightly and Brandon Harrison. They carved pumpkins and played outdoor games. Everyone enjoyed eating Frito pies before returning to town.

Dean Smith went quail hunting in Wellington over the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Thompson and Mark.

Mrs. Roland Adams took Jason Harrison, Zack and Erin trick or treating around over the community Halloween night.

Triple L Club names new committee member list

The Triple L (Live Long and Like It) Club of First Baptist Church met in Fellowship Hall on November 10, for the regular monthly luncheon with Letha Mulder, Edith Marrs, Alma Rape, Mildred Fuqua and Myria Dade serving as hostesses. The tables were beautifully decorated with Fall foliage and arrangements by Thelma Crawford, Pat Rucker and Wanda Turner.

Frieda Simpson led in prayer of thanks for the food.

Following the meal, President Peggy Medley welcomed members and guests and conducted the business session. The minutes of the October meeting were read and approved.

The president then read the list of committees for the next four months. They are: projects and activities, Alan and Fay Benson, Peggy Medley, Mary Wilson and Mary Corley; sickness-distress, Ethel Warren, Mary Wilson and Vina Crawford; visitation, Harvey and Marie Tardy, Effie Foster, Viola Brown and Frieda Simpson; telephone, Nettie Adams, Beulah Denison and Valree Turner; cards, Thelma Jones; decorations, Thelma Crawford, Pat Rucker and Wanda Turner; hostesses, Letha Mulder, Edith Marrs, Alma Rape, Mildred Fuqua and Myria Dade. After the business session, the program was brought by Bill Smith, minister of music and youth. He spoke about Thanksgiving and then many of the group shared things for which they are thankful.

The next meeting will be the Christmas party on December 1, at 11:30, and the annual trip to Lubbock will be on December 8.

Alpha Sigma Upsilon has girls day out

Alpha Sigma Upsilon met November 14, at 9:00 a.m. at Barbara Edwards' home for an outing to Lubbock. The girls started with a trip to the Holiday Happening at the Civic Center, followed by lunch at Red Lobster.

After lunch they went to the Mall for the rest of the afternoon. The day ended with dinner at Western Sizzlin before returning home.

Those attending the November social were: Barbara Edwards, Janice Potect, Rhonda Guthrie, Sheila Carter, Alice Ogden, Judy Schacht, Kathy Himes, Emma Pate, Mitzi Nixon, Jodi McGuire, Sherry Turnbow and Mary Ann Kelly.

Senior Citizens News

The Senior Citizens offer a great "big thanks" to the Rebekah Lodge for the chair rack they donated to the center.

Mrs. Ethel Warren returned home Friday from Amarillo after a visit with her son, Bill Warren and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Burns and Valree Turner spent days in Oklahoma City visiting with relatives.

Ruth Trapp is spending this week in San Angelo with her daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Tardy visited Friday afternoon with the Faye Harts.

Bro. and Mrs. Hollis Payne of Vigo Park visited her mother, Mattie Wester one day last week.

Elvin and Melvis Lowrance of California spent a few days last week here with their mother, Mrs. Nettie Lowrance. Also the Gene Lowrances from here visited her.

The senior citizens offer their sympathy to Lula Teague on the loss of her grandson.

Evelene Boyd spent the week-end in Greenville, Texas, and attended the wedding of her granddaughter.

Dean and Jonell Williams of Las Cruces, New Mexico, spent the week-end here with her mother, Mrs. Mary Wilson. Others visiting also were her son Dwayne Wilson and family.

Mrs. Maggie Lovell has as her guest her daughter Gladys. Mrs. Lovell had a skin graft on her leg that was injured when a dog bit her. Mrs. Mary Spears and Mrs. Earl Baker and others have also visited her.

50TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY — Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Elam who live Southeast of Plainview will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary with a reception at the Aiken Baptist Church of Aiken Sunday, Nov. 22, from 2-4 p.m. The event will be hosted by their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bob [Betty Sue] Bryan of Lebanon, Mo., Mr. and Mrs. David [Carolyn] Holder of Austin, Tex., and Mr. and Mrs. Dan [Rhogene] Easley of Sunray, Tex. Their grandchildren, Belinda Agan, Berry Brush, Gary Don Easley and Alicia Easley will assist in the reception. Elam and Norene Hamilton were married in Tulla on Dec. 3, 1937.

GRASS HARVEST — Floyd County's grass seed harvest was recently concluded. Several county and area farmers produced side oats grama, buffalo, Klein grass, green sprangletop, blue grama and switch grass for Sun-Vue Grass Seed Co., headquartered in Lockney. With the CRP in force, much additional grass acreage is expected next year.

Consumers, producers food-fiber team

Farmers and urban residents depend on each other for products and services that are essential to modern business and lifestyles.

They work together as partners in processing, marketing and consuming food and fiber products.

Movement of food and fiber from the farm or ranch in Texas to the supermarket and family table provides jobs and income for almost a fourth of the working force, says Dr. Carl G. Anderson, economist marketing with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"One out of every 40 Texans is a farmer or rancher, and around 25 percent of the state's retail trade business is directly associated with agricultural production and selling of food and fiber products," Anderson says.

The economist notes that many businesses, financial institutions and individuals are involved in providing supplies, credit and services to farmers and ranchers and in processing and marketing agricultural commodities.

"Nationally, one of every five jobs in private enterprises is tied to agriculture," Anderson adds.

With $8.5 billion in cash receipts from agricultural commodities in 1986, Texas ranks third nationally behind California and Iowa, he says.

"Texas, however, is traditionally number one in the sales of cattle and calves, cotton, grain sorghum, sheep and wool, goats and mohair, cabbage and spinach," Anderson says.

Texas' farm real estate assets for 1987 are estimated at $64 billion, compared with $72 billion a year earlier, he notes. With 160,000 farms in Texas, assets average $401,000 per farm, although many commercial size, full-time operators have far more than a million dollars invested in their farm or ranch businesses, Anderson adds.

"Producing an abundance of high quality food and fiber is inherent to American agriculture. Americans spend far less of their take-home pay on food than people in other countries of the world. Today, that averages about 15 cents of every dollar of disposable income, with 5 cents of that spent on food eaten outside the home," says Anderson.

"Together, farm and city people make the best food and fiber team in the world. This gives America the capacity to feed its own people and to export for economic gain as well as for humanitarian purposes," he adds.

In the U.S., about one of every 40 persons resides on a farm or ranch. The proportion of U.S. residents living on farms has fallen from 30.1 percent in 1920 to 2.5 percent today. That compares with about 70 percent of people living on farms in India, 36 percent in Mexico and 14 percent in the Soviet Union, Anderson says.

Aeration critical

Aeration is a key practice for maintaining the quality of clean, dry stored grain and must be properly understood.

Richard Withers with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The air delivery system to handle this task should be well-engineered and properly installed and managed, Withers emphasizes.

When atmospheric air moves through stored grain, both heat and moisture are exchanged until air and grain have comparable temperatures and moisture contents, explains the engineer. Once this equilibrium condition exists, the moisture content of stored grain is known as the equilibrium moisture content (EMC). The relative humidity of the atmospheric air in equilibrium with the grain is called the equilibrium relative humidity (ERH).

When the air's relative humidity is below that of the ERH, moisture will be evaporated from the grain during the aeration process, and the grain temperature will decrease due to the evaporative cooling effect, says Withers. The amount of cooling resulting from evaporation may be as much as 50 percent or more of the total heat removed.

MILLS' COTTON CONSUMPTION STILL STRONG

Seasonally adjusted U.S. mill consumption of cotton in September showed continued strength at an annual rate of 8.3 million bales. This is a 4 percent increase over the revised August consumption figure of 7.9 million bales, and compares with 7.1 million consumed in September, 1986.

AGRICULTURE: IT'S YOUR HEARTBEAT, TEXAS!

Stocker cattle buying tips offered

Stocker cattle operators are now buying calves to put on winter pasture, and the type of animals they buy will go a long way in determining whether or not they will reap a profit.

"The stocker operator must buy cattle that will grow fast, be efficient in feed conversion, and sell for top dollar," points out Dr. Larry Boleman, beef cattle specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Since the calves from his operation will be going to feedlots next spring, the stocker operator must also consider the value of these animals to the feeder, adds Boleman. The cattle feeder is interested in rate of gain in the feedlot, feed efficiency, carcass cutability or USDA yield grade, and carcass quality or USDA quality grade.

"Stockers that have the potential for performing efficiently in the feedlot and producing a Choice carcass in the 1 to 2 yield grade class will demand a top price," says Boleman. "Buyers will often pay $3 to $5 more per hundred-weight for calves with that kind of potential compared to those that might only produce a Good grade carcass with a yield grade of 4 or 5."

This means that stocker and feeder cattle buyers must use their knowledge and experience to determine which calves will ultimately excel in feed efficiency, average daily gain and carcass characteristics. Visual evaluation of frame size, muscling and breed characteristics help determine the economic outcome of the calf, says the beef cattle specialist.

"Frame size refers to the animal's skeletal size—its height and body length—in relation to its age," explains Boleman. "These evaluations in feeder calves are directly related to differences in mature sizes of cattle and therefore have an important bearing on the animal's performance in the feedlot." Frame size designations are referred to as large, medium or small and are used in the USDA feeder cattle grading system.

According to the specialist, muscling in feeder cattle refers to the development of the muscle system in relation to skeletal size. Feeders of the same age and frame size vary in thickness due to differences in bone structure, muscling and degree of fatness.

"Animals with a greater muscle thickness will normally produce a higher yield carcass than an animal of the same frame size that is narrow throughout," says Boleman. Muscle thickness is classified as to three levels—No. 1, No. 2 and No. 3 and is included in the USDA grades of feeder cattle. No. 1 is the most muscular and No. 3 is the least muscular.

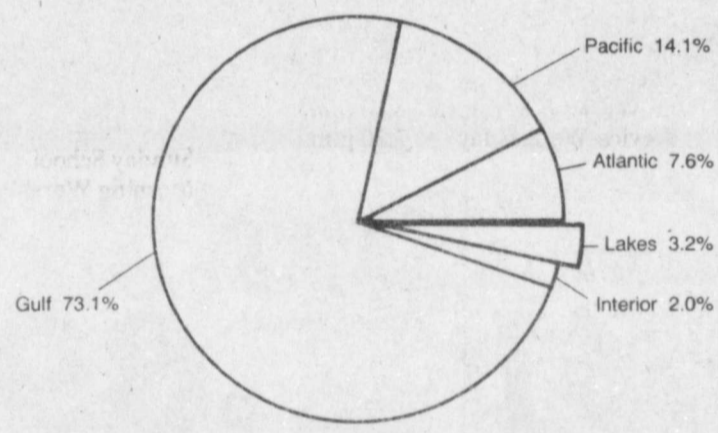

As far as breed characteristics are concerned, Boleman points out that buyers usually pay the highest prices for crossbred feeder calves that contain varying percentages of traditional, exotic and Brahman breeding depending on feeding locations and local market preferences.

"Again, feeder cattle buyers select animals on the basis of how they think they will perform in the feedlot," he adds. "Ideally, they want an animal that will produce a Choice carcass with a No. 2 yield grade. That's the target that all cattlemen need to shoot at."

The cessation of insecticidal bombardment in the High Plains 1987 boll weevil war came November 11, appropriately coinciding with the signing of the armistice ending World War I on the same date in 1918.

Aerial applications of low volume malathion to weevil-infested fields along the eastern rim of the High Plains began September 21 this year. They stopped seven weeks later after weevils in over 615,000 aggregate acres had been given lethal doses of insecticide totaling 57,639 gallons.

Officials of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., which has conducted the weevil control program since 1963, early in September had estimated sprayings would cover 600,000 acres. That estimate was lowered to about 450,000 in October after the spread of weevil populations failed to develop on an expected time schedule.

But the reduced estimate had counted on a "normal" freeze date around the end of October. When a freeze destroys the weevil's food supply, officials explain, spraying to prevent the pest from attaining the diapause stage in which he overwinters is no longer necessary.

In fact, the freeze was delayed until November 10. Meanwhile, as PCG Field Service Director Ed Dean puts it, "The summerlike weather that was so conducive to cotton production was equally good for the production of weevils."

The build-up and spread of weevils expected earlier occurred during this extra 10 days of warm weather, Dean continues, forcing a fifth treatment that covered almost 166,000 acres and brought the total back to the original estimate.

The control program is jointly funded by High Plains producers and the U.S. and Texas Departments of Agriculture.

The weighted average price paid to farmers for U.S. cotton through September this year is $8.1 cents per pound. The weighted average price for the calendar year is important to producers because the 1987 deficiency payment rate will equal the difference between the average and the established 79.4-cent target price.

The monthly average price rose from 46.4 cents per pound in February to a high of 68.3 cents in July, sparking concern that the final payment rate might fall below the 8.15 cents per pound advance payment received by most producers. But the average price by September had fallen to 64.9 cents, making that an unlikely possibility.

Economists at the National Cotton Council and others in the industry think as much as 80 percent of 1987 marketings may occur in the last four months of the year. NCC also speculates that the year's average price may be in the vicinity of 60 to 64 cents, which would mean a total payment in the range of 15 to 20 cents and a final payment of 8 to 12 cents above the 8.15-cent advance.

Store pesticides properly, safely

By C. Mark Brown
Extension Agent - Entomology (PM)

Is that bottle of malathion still on the workbench where you left it when you sprayed the apple trees? Homeowners and producers alike should check barns and workshops to be sure that pesticides have been properly stored. Proper storage will prevent potential hazards around the home and will increase the shelf-life of the pesticides.

The best way to store small amounts of pesticide is in a locked cabinet located in a ventilated area. The pesticide should always be stored in the original container displaying a legible label.

If at all possible, protect the pesticide from extreme temperatures. At 32° F. or below, chemicals may crystallize out of solution and lose their effectiveness.

Any chemical with a flash point of 140° F. or less is a possible fire hazard and should be protected from direct heat sources. Producers should not attempt to store sodium chlorate because of the extreme fire hazard involved.

Producers storing more than a few gallons of pesticides should check with local fire protection authorities and public health officials concerning legal ordinances. Remember that according to the new Community Right-to-Know Act, you will be required to report stored chemicals if the amount exceeds the threshold planning quantities designated by the EPA. When storing any significant volume of pesticides, you should adhere to the following rules:

- *Keep chemicals in a locked storage area, well-ventilated and clearly posted at all points of entry.
- *Date all containers.

- *Keep a log of pesticides and amounts in storage.
- *Check containers periodically for leaks, tears, etc.
- *Do not locate storage area near feed or seed.
- *Always store "empty containers" in the storage area pending disposal.

Properly dispose of all empty pesticide containers. Generally, a homeowner can dispose of an empty container by wrapping it and placing it in a dumpster to be disposed of in a sanitary land fill. Most farmers are exempt from any special hazardous waste disposal laws because of the minimal amount of wastes they work with. However, producers are required to dispose of the container properly, according to the pesticide label directions. For further information you can contact your local Extension Service office.

INITIAL WEST TEXAS REVIVAL — Evangelist Stan Frye (left) concluded his five day revival at the Alken Baptist Church on Sunday, November 15. Rev. Ray Starnes, pastor of Alken Baptist, is shown with Frye on the last day of the revival before Frye left for his home in North Carolina. A world traveler and evangelist who has traveled over 60,000 miles in the U.S. this year, Frye enjoyed his first trip to West Texas, commenting, "The hospitality of West Texas is wonderful." An evangelist's life

Recently, the evangelist Stan Frye, who has preached over 200 crusades, revivals and other special meetings in the U.S. alone, led a revival at Aiken Baptist Church.

When asked what leads a man to become a full time evangelist, Bro. Frye answered, "I pastored a local Baptist church for 13 years. My call to become an evangelist was just as distinct as my call to be a pastor. In the beginning I felt a tremendous burden of the need of the American family. I felt impressed to mix traditional revival meetings with an emphasis on family. My evangelism has now spread over all the U.S. and into Africa."

Being an evangelist and traveling all over the world may seem glamorous to some, but the life is hard and only for the most dedicated. In 1987 alone Frye has traveled over 60,000 miles, preached to over 30,000 people and distributed over 100,000 pamphlets, booklets, tracts and Bibles.

LONELY LIFE

"It's very lonely," says Frye. "There is a lot of wear and tear on you. You have to learn to pace your life and schedule everyday. You really have to walk close with God, and it demands quality time at home when you do get there."

The positive side of evangelism can be seen in the things Frye has accomplished. "I have witnessed, in 1987 alone, to over 6,000 people who have prayed to receive Jesus Christ here in the states and Africa."

Frye, who is married and has two children, was born in Taylorsville, N.C. He married Jo Anne Lail in 1965 and obtained his Masters in Divinity from Luther Rice Seminary in Jacksonville, Florida, in 1977.

His call to evangelism led him to form Family Evangelism, Inc., a non-profit organization headquartered in Taylorsville. The organization has a board of 20 directors, who live and work in six different states.

FAMILY EMPHASIS

"Our family life work was started to try and reach families through revivals. By addressing family problems in the revivals we were reaching scores of people who would not seek help in family counseling, but would show up at revivals. There have been literally scores of families brought back together through Family Evangelism revivals," said Frye.

"Many family counseling centers counsel just with a secular basis and don't teach the spiritual aspect. It is impossible for a family to be anything without Jesus Christ. Family Evangelism applies practical application of Biblical truths in family matters. Without the spiritual and moral aspect in the family it will end in failure."

Family Evangelism has now escalated into an extended ministry. In the last four years it has branched out into foreign mission projects, personal evangelism and crusades. Relief work is also done in Africa by buying Bibles, medicine, and seed to be planted.

LARGEST ENDEAVOR

"We are presently working on the largest endeavor of my 22 years of ministry," said Frye. "Jan. 28-30, I will hold a city wide crusade in Kampala, Uganda. It is a city of one-half million people which has been through 16 years of war. Over one million people have died in bloodshed."

"I will take a team there to hold a crusade. There is a great Christian revival going on now in Africa. Even though the Muslims are growing, there is a spiritual awakening toward Jesus. We have the potential of reaching 50,000 people with the gospel in the city-wide crusade."

Many dangers face Christians in Africa, and the men and women that bring the gospel to Africa. To gain entry into the region, Family Evangelism works closely with the Christian Light Foundation out of Jacksonville, Florida. The Foundation has offices on the mission fields of Nairobi Kenya and Kampala Uganda.

"Because of their reputation in the country, the doors have been opened to us," says Frye. "Without their assistance it would be very difficult. We want to do what we can now because I feel there is a possibility that the doors may shut again in Uganda."

SUPPORT LISTED

Asked whether Family Evangelism has been hurt due to the fact that there has been so much controversy surrounding the finances of evangelistic organizations, Frye answered, "Not at all. Our ministry is supported through local churches who are involved with what we are doing and by those who have utilized Family Evangelism. Our support comes through revival love offerings, personal contributions by individuals (most who know me) and by churches who support us on a monthly basis."

"Our financial operation is open and above board. Every contributor to the ministry can have access to our financial records if so desired."

This evangelist not only averages preaching in about 40 churches a year in the United States alone, but he also has a radio ministry, puts out a monthly eight page newsletter, handles a large tape ministry and also has a large tract ministry.

Obviously the traveling and busy schedule have got to be hard on a family, but his wife of 22 years and children Joel, 17, and Rebecca McKinney, have been his biggest support.

"There is no way I can continue to carry on this ministry without a great, understanding family," said Frye. "I'm only home for a few days intermittently, but my wife has always been my biggest 'help-mate'. While I pastored, she was also the ideal pastor's wife. My children have also been supportive. My wife and son, Joel, will travel to Africa with me on my next trip."

"There is also no way we could do what we're doing without the active support of our board of directors."

FIRST WEST TEXAS VISIT

Even with all the traveling to new lands and meeting new people this was Frye's first trip to West Texas. "I have been doing a lot of work in South Texas for a number of years, and I came here from Canadian. I have sure learned to love the hospitality of the people in West Texas."

"A project that we are working on now is called 'Project 20.' In December I am going to the Appalachian mountains in West Virginia and have a big birthday party for Jesus. We will take a tractor and trailer load of clothing, food, and Christmas gifts. It will provide Christmas for 20 families. We will also have a big birthday cake for Jesus."

If there is anyone interested in booking Frye for meetings or revivals they can contact him at: Family Evangelism Inc., P.O. Box 1166, Taylorsville, N.C. 28681. Phone: 704-495-8511. Meetings are booked entirely on a first-come, first-serve basis. The church size or financial possibility has nothing to do with the acceptance of invitations.

"We encourage all Christians to pray for us. We're not in competition with anyone. We just want to win people to Jesus and do something about the condition of our country," Frye says.

Go Winds!

Wind boys claim opener, 89-38

With five players gunning in double figures, the Whirlwind boys inaugurated their 1987-88 basketball campaign Tuesday with a convincing 89-38 victory over visiting Post.

Although they obviously weren't in mid-season form, Coach Mike Cocanougher's crew was sharp for its initial outing.

The Green and White went in front 27-10 after eight minutes, owned a 40-17 advantage at intermission and had pulled ahead 71-28 entering the final quarter.

Roel Cisneros bucketed 17 points to pace the scoring parade, Chad Pernel canned 14, Heath Robertson put in 13, Dana Cooper rang up 12 and Ty Stovall netted 10. Randy Enriquez and Johnny Taylor each contributed 8 points to the cause, Chad Quisenberry added 4 and Grant Stovall hit a free throw.

Cooper pulled down 14 rebounds and Cisneros had 9 boards. Cisneros was also credited with 7 steals, and Ty Stovall had 5 assists.

GIRLS CLOSE GAP

Trailing 36-22 entering the final eight minutes, the Whirlwind girls of Coach Gail Gregg cut the final margin to 47-38 against the Post Lady Antelopes. The visitors held 12-8 and 25-15 edges after the first two quarters.

Trish Hanna netted 11 points to pace Whirlwind scoring. Angie Bertrand tallied 9, Pam Woody made 8, Amanda McDaniel scored 6 and Jamie Morrison and Lori Christian each contributed 2.

Woody was the rebounding leader with 10, one more than Hanna. Bertrand had 7 boards.

JV COASTS TO WIN

With all six sophomores ringing the scoring bell, the Whirlwind girls JV opened with a 58-37 verdict over Post. They owned quarter advantages of 24-13, 38-22 and 42-29.

Coach Regina Smith said the JV hit 68 percent from the free throw line.

Shelby Ogden singled the nets for 20 points, and Amy McCormick was also in double digits with 14. Kim Perry netted 9, Stacy Hadderton sank 6 points, Libby Anderson added 3 and Heather Henderson put in 2.

HOME GAMES TUESDAY

Whirlwinds will return to the home court next Tuesday for a tripleheader against visiting Hart. JV girls open action at 5 p.m., followed by varsity girls and boys matches.

Floydada's cagers are scheduled to travel to Idalou on Friday. JV boys make their debut at 5 p.m.

THIS WEEK'S SCHEDULE

Friday: Varsity boys and girls, junior varsity boys at Idalou; JV game at 5 p.m.

Monday: Ninth, eighth and seventh grade teams vs. Dimmitt; boys here, girls there

Tuesday: Hart here; VB, VG, JVG; JV girls game at 5 p.m.

FLOYDADA BAND IN WAYLAND PARADE

Bands from Floydada and Tahoka have been selected to join Wayland's only instrumental group for the Wayland Baptist University homecoming parade at 2 p.m. Saturday in downtown Plainview.

Fourth graders study state's land regions, design posters

Fourth grade social studies students of Sharon Redden studied the four land regions in Texas. They were then divided into groups of six or seven to design posters.

Each child placed one or more items he/she had learned about from studies on each of the four land regions appearing on the posters.

"It was a very tough division because all of the posters were super," stated other teachers who judged the posters.

Members of the winning team were Miguel Gomez, Kacie Lackey, Jason Harrison, Daniel Cortinas, Erika Muniz and Maribel Cervera.

Other poster teams which placed were:

Second — Andy Outlaw, Lacy Go-lightly, Eric Luna, Amanda Garcia, Maricella Lucio, Rebecca Herrera and Frank Castaneda.

Third — Kimber Williams, Esmeralda Jimenez, Lupe Sanchez, K.C. Robertson, Robert Shaut and Alex Vallejo

Fourth — Jodie Villarreal, Aaron Johnston, Justin Bailey, Geraldine Fonseca, Angelica Reyes and Karissa Jahay

Fifth — Wyatt Padgett, Arnulfo Cervera, Adam Muniz, Tiffany Bush, Monica Henderson and Beth Watts

Sixth — Joe Mack Jarrett, Rance Barnett, Frank Jasso, Elisavet Navarrette, Stephanie Riojas and Nancy Garcia.

CARD OF THANKS

We would like to sincerely thank the people of Floydada for the many cards, visits, flowers and prayers on the recent loss of our father. We would like to also thank the ladies of the City Park Church of Christ, the First Baptist Church Mission and the First Baptist Church for all the wonderful meals. We would also like to thank the First Baptist Church for the use of their auditorium.

With sincere thanks,
Virginia Martinez

We greatly appreciate the many acts of kindness, thoughtfulness and love shown in memory and honor of our mother, grandmother and great-grandmother, Ovie Poole. The beautiful flowers and plants added to the sweet memorial service. The contributions to the First Baptist Church Library and Television Ministry, R.C. Andrews library, Museum fund, Children's Home of Lubbock, Cemetery fund, Boys' Ranch and Scottish Rite Learning Center, will aid in filling many needs.

Your visits, cards, food and words of encouragement will long be remembered. The faithful weekly visits of Mrs. Mayo and Mrs. Wester, during mother's long-term illness, was a special blessing to mother as well as to her family.

It is our desire that we may show the care and concern for others that has been shown to us.
