FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

Dinner-Variety Show Performs This Weekend

THE RECENT MAYORAL election in Chicago once again has focused attention on a problem that continues to haunt the nation: the black vs white issue.

Although the two participants, Bernard Epton and Harold Washington publicly attempted to deny that the campaign had race as its central issue, the fact remained that in truth, this was the main issue for most voters.

For a number of years, Chicago has been called "the most segregated large city in the nation," and race differences have created more than a few problems.

The election was termed by some observers as a "no win" situation. "If Washington tries to show that controlling city hall means something, the white ethnics will throw him out. If he doesn't, his own black constituency will be even angrier," was one comment.

A lot of racist statements were made during the election, not necessarily by the candidates, but another political observer said "the people who are so worried about having a black mayor will wake up the next day and see that the sky didn't fall."

But Washington, as mayor of one of the country's major cities, has his hands full. Having won a close, bitter race, he immediately has the task of proving to the 48 per cent of the voters who voted for Epton that he can be "their mayor," and attempt to draw the city back together.

The election of Washington has spurred interest by the blacks in having a presidential candidate in 1984.

It may not happen in 1984, but sooner or later it will. And we shudder to think of the type of bitter nationwide campaign that might evolve.

It would be nice if we, as a nation, could face matters on their merits, and not on the basis of color. But unfortunately, this is not always the case, by and large.

Every so often, wife Carol tells me "We're still fighting the Civil War in this country." And in some respects, I suppose we are.

AWHILE BACK, Leon Grissom was telling us about a trip he and his wife had made to South Texas, and in the process had come through San Antonio and visited the Alamo, the "Cradle of Texas History."

"Every Texan should be required to visit the Alamo at least once a year. They also ought to visit the state capital in Austin at least once every five years. If they don't do either, their 'sentence' should be to have to visit Houston," said Grissom, tongue in cheek.

Pastor Sets Series On The Family

Beginning Sunday, April 24 at 11 a.m., Rev. Andrew J. Hollinger, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church, will preach a series of ten sermons on "Marriage and the Family."

The purpose of this series of messages will be to strengthen the existing family. "Our community and our clubs will only be as strong as our families," Rev. Hollinger says.

Everyone is invited to hear the series of messages, beginning Sunday with a message on "Building Marriages for Life."

Other messages in the series will include: "How to Fight Fairly in Marriage," "Learn to Communicate," "The Sexual Revolution," "Parents Kids Need," and "The Christian Husband: Endangered Species."

Residents of the community are encouraged to strengthen their family and marriages through this special series, which will run from April 24 to June 26.

Modern Study Club is presenting its dinner-variety show this weekend (April 22-23) at the Friona Community Center beginning at 7:30 each evening.

A few changes in the program as announced in last week's edition were announced by Eva Miller, director.

The program will be the same each evening, except that the mystery guest will be different.

The program is as follows: Allo Reeve will play dinner music. Mindy Johnson will sing "Tomorrow." Leigh Ann Neelley and Kellianne Coffey will sing "High Hopes."

Gaye Tannahill and Bob Alexander will sing "Play a Simple Melody." Mickey Griffin will sing "Follow Me."

Chieftains Qualify Six For Regional Meet

The Friona Chieftains qualified six members of their team for the regional track and field meet at the District 2-AAA meet in Tulia Tuesday.

Two individuals and one relay team qualified for the regional meet, which will be held in Odessa May 6-7.

Mike Chaney won first place in the discus event, setting a new district record with a throw of 159-4.

Mike Neill, who came off the injured list less than a month ago, won the 110-meter high hurdles with a time of 15.2.

Friona's 1600-meter relay team also qualified for regional, surprising several district members with a time of 3:28.8.

Members of the youth-oriented 1600-meter quartet are John Aguirre, Rich Malouf, Ricky Marquez, and Alfredo Mata. Joe Garza is the alternate team member for the regional meet.

City Receives Sales Tax Check

State Comptroller Bob Bullock today sent checks totaling $33.7 million in local sales tax payments to 974 cities who levy the one-per cent city sales tax.

Friona's check amounted to $4,275.91, which was up considerable from the same period a year earlier, when the city's check was $3,315.48.

For the year, however, Friona's sales tax receipts amount to $25,333.73, down 20 per cent from the $31,975.24 as of the same date in 1982.

Parmer County's three municipalities received $6,495.75 for the period, up from $5,063.75 a year earlier. For the year, the county total

LYNN STEVENS

L. Stevens Is Given Top Award

The Friona High School DECA (Distributive Education) banquet was held on Monday, April 4 at the high school cafeteria.

The banquet was catered by Sutphen's Barbecue of Amarillo.

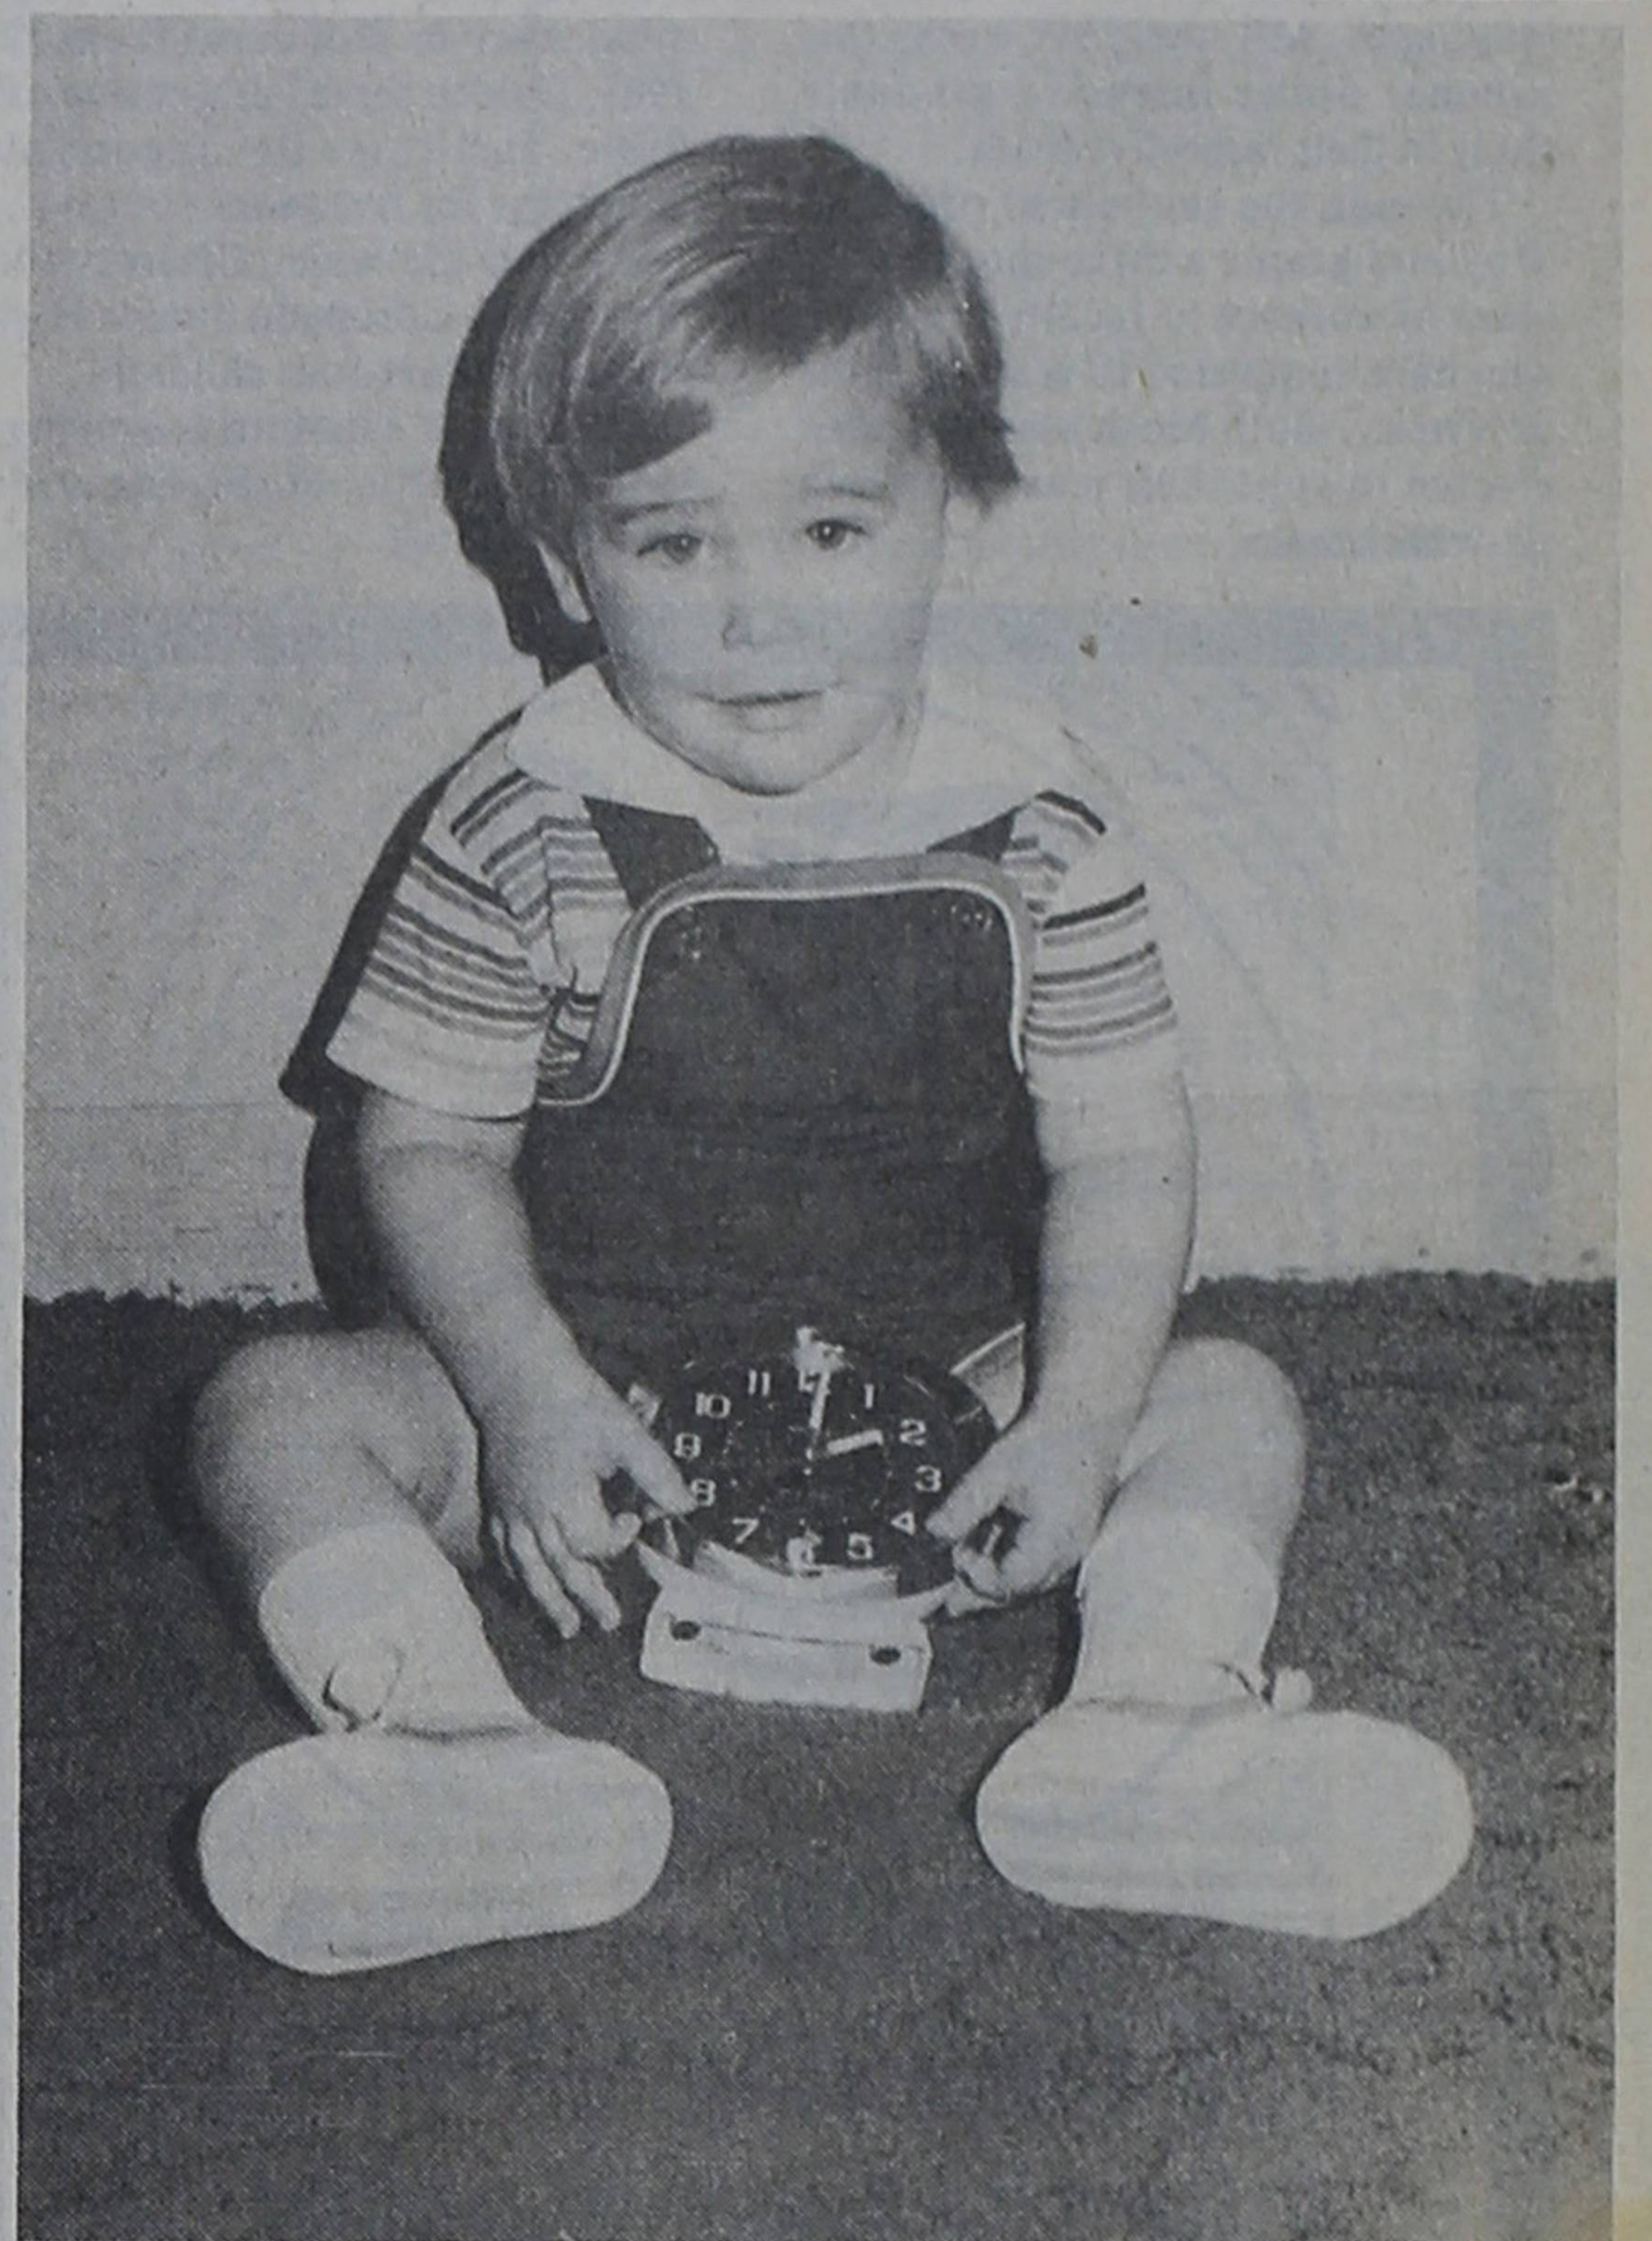

The program was brief. Cindy Drake, president, gave the welcome. The invocation was given by Lynn Stevens. Sheri Dodson introduced the DECA officers.

W.L. Cleveland, DECA sponsor, gave a short presentation.

The banquet ended with the naming of Lynn Stevens as DECA "Student of the Year."

On Thursday, April 22, Sheri Dodson, Lynn Stevens and Cindy Drake left for Houston for the state DECA contests and convention. Lynn Stevens, the regional winner, will compete in the "General Merchandising" category in the DECA state meet.

Both Cindy and Sheri are alternates to the state meet, and each will act as voting delegates. The girls were accompanied to Houston by Mr. and Mrs. W.L. Cleveland.

THAT TIME AGAIN... Gaines Butman, 22-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Butman, seems a little bit dejected that it is once again time to change over to Daylight Savings Time. Gaines will be joining all area residents beginning Sunday, when they have to get up earlier, have lunch an hour earlier, and even go to bed an hour earlier--and that may be the hard part. Our young "clock watcher" is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Smiley.

Conservation Week Scheduled May 8-15

The Parmer County Soil and Water Conservation District will join the nationwide celebration of Soil Stewardship Week to take place on May 8-15, according to an announcement by Troy Christian. The theme of this year's celebration is "Living Waters." The National Association of Conservation Districts (NACD) has sponsored Soil Stewardship Week since 1955, in cooperation with the nation's nearly 3,000 soil and water conservation districts.

"If our water management practices in the past have been adequate, we may ignore the rising population, the increased industrialization, and expanded irrigation, all of which require more water from our reservoirs," cites NACD in the 16-page Soil Stewardship Week booklet. "One of our more compelling social and economic needs is for a full appreciation of the true value of our abundant supply of water. It is time to think seriously about conservation, pollution, priority usage and our dependence upon it."

Informative material on the Soil Stewardship Week theme is distributed each year through local conservation districts to clergymen, lay leaders, churches, civic and educational organizations and to individuals participating in the observance.

"If we are to make certain that supplies will be adequate for present and future needs, we are obligated to abide by the universal laws and to help, rather than hinder, the process by which the constant supply of water is recycled and repurified," according to NACD.

Information and materials for the 1983 observance of Soil Stewardship Week are available in this area from Parmer County Soil and Water Conservation District at 1306 West Ninth, Friona or call 247-2220.

DST Sets Encore

Daylight Savings Time returns on Sunday, April 24, beginning its six-month run.

Residents of the area are reminded to advance their clocks an hour before retiring Saturday night, as the change goes into effect at 2 a.m. Sunday.

FRIENDLIEST... Sheri Dodson and Shayne Woodard have been voted "Friendliest" by their classmates at Friona High School, and will be featured in the special section honoring the high school favorites in the 1983 Chieftain Yearbook.

Wayland Professors Complete Programs

Two Wayland Baptist University professors will complete sabbatical programs this summer which they began a year ago.

Dr. James R. Mosher, professor of mathematics, and Cecil H. Golden, assistant professor of modern languages, will spend six weeks this summer doing intensive graduate study in their respective fields.

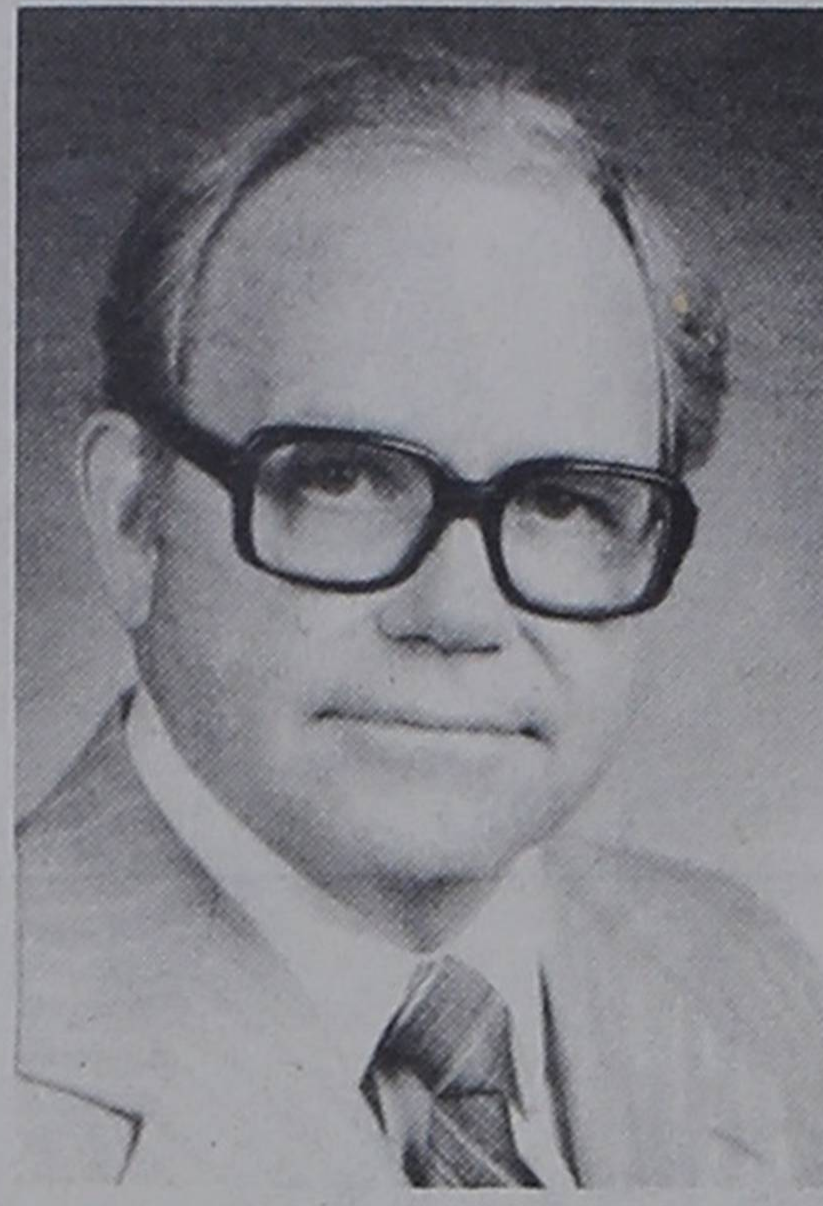

Through the sabbatical program Wayland grants a three-month paid leave of absence to faculty members who have completed 10 years with the university. Both Mosher and Golden elected to split their leave into two six-week breaks.

Golden spent half of last summer studying French at Laval University in Quebec City, Canada, and will finish his sabbatical this summer in the study of Spanish at Texas Tech University.

A former Southern Baptist missionary to Honduras from 1957-1965, Golden served as director of the Bible Institute in Tegucigalpa, Honduras for five years.

He and his wife, Claire, who is librarian at Coronado Junior High in Plainview, have four children.

Golden is currently serving as interim pastor of Friona's First Baptist Church.

55 YEARS AGO--APRIL 27, 1928

During the early part of the week a total of 1277 cattle were shipped from the local shipping pens of Santa Fe. These cattle were shipped to various points, some for market and some to pastures and belonging to different parties.

45 YEARS AGO--APRIL 22, 1938

Rev. H.B. Naylor, of this place, who is pastor of the Baptist Church at Lazbuddie, was the recipient of an elegant new suit of clothes as a gift from his congregation. Needless to say that Brother Naylor is proud, and justly so, of this handsome and useful gift.

35 YEARS AGO--APRIL 30, 1948

The Star is authorized to announce the name of Charles Lovelace of Farwell, as a candidate for the office of Sheriff-Assessor-Tax Collector of Parmer County, Texas, subject to the results of the Democratic Primary Election, to be held on Saturday, July 24, 1948.

30 YEARS AGO--APRIL 23, 1953

District 10-B Interscholastic League events were completed in Friona Tuesday with Friona winning 316 points to lead the slate of six schools entering. Vega took second honors with 220 points, followed by Farwell at 202. Bovina accounted for 134; Adrian 103 and Lazbuddie 72.

25 YEARS AGO--APRIL 24, 1958

Friona's bus barns took on a carnival look Friday as interested onlookers and boys from all over the county gathered for the Parmer County Junior Livestock Show. Jim Roy Wells of Friona was about the "proudest" youngster there Friday when Judge Nig Callihan picked his Hereford calf as the Grand Champion. Reserve Champion went to the Clements Bros., also of Friona.

Citizens of Friona have been advised that the members of the Friona Volunteer Fire Department have been designated by the city council to take the necessary steps to install a tornado warning system for the city.

20 YEARS AGO--APRIL 25, 1963

The Friona Parent-Teachers Association, in its regular meeting last Thursday, voted to disband the organization as it has been set up. As of yet, no plans have been formulated for any kind of P-TA for next school term.

15 YEARS AGO--APRIL 25, 1968

Friona High School qualified two students for the state literary meet, and placed third in the regional meet by scoring 54 points in regional Interscholastic League competition last Saturday at Lubbock. Crista Evans, who placed first in girls poetry reading, and Norman Mohr, first in informative speaking, are the two who qualified for the state meet May 2-3-4 in Austin.

Nobody knows for sure exactly how many people came to the dedication and open house for Friona's Missouri Beef Packers last weekend--but one thing for sure--it was a mass of humanity. Undoubtedly the largest crowd ever to come to Friona in one day went through the modern plant on Sunday. Estimates ranged from 10,000 all the way to 20,000. There was no official head count.

10 YEARS AGO--APRIL 26, 1973

High wind which blasted the area last Thursday toppled a portion of the former Continental Grain Company elevator. A landmark in Parmer County, the elevator had been scheduled for demolition as it has been leaning precariously since June 11, 1971 when a small twister bounced through Friona leaving scattered damage. The elevator is located at the south edge of Friona on Highway 214.

5 YEARS AGO--APRIL 30, 1978

Friona's civic leaders, along with the board of directors at MBPXL, were given a special tour of the expanded facilities at the meat packing plant just west of Friona on Wednesday. The new fabricating department is scheduled to open by June 15.

Friona High School debators Bryan Johnston and Mark Edelman argued their way to the Region I championship last Saturday at Texas Tech, and their final competition will be May 5-6 at the state UIL meet in Austin.

On The Farm In Parmer Co.

By SETH RALSTON
"Check Soil Temperatures
Before Planting"

In many cases the early bird does get the worm. But when it comes to spring planting, farmers may want to use a little restraint and take a look at soil temperatures before cranking up their planters.

One of the keys to getting spring crops off to a good start is to heed soil temperatures, cautions Seth Ralston, county agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Soil temperatures have been shown to have an important effect on how well seed germinate. Planting in cool soils often leads to poor seed germination and poor crop stands. Plants that do come up often lack vigor for early growth. And this opens the door to early season disease and insect attacks.

Ralston advises farmers to begin planting only after the danger of a late frost is past and the soil has warmed to a temperature favorable to the intended crop.

Farmers also need to keep attuned to weather forecasts prior to planting. A sudden change in weather conditions following planting can be detrimental to the crop, particularly a cool, wet spell that can lower soil temperatures drastically.

Just when is it safe to plant what crop?

Average minimum temperatures (at the four-inch depth) for planting are as follows: corn, 50 degrees; sorghum, 55 degrees; cotton, 65 degrees; and soybeans, 70 degrees.

Hardy vegetables such as onions, cabbage and potatoes can be planted once soil temperatures range between 45 and 50 degrees while warm-season vegetables such as tomatoes, melons, beans and peppers need soil that has warmed into the 60's.

With early season planting, particularly when soil temperatures are still marginal, farmers need to pay particular attention to using high quality seed, fungicides and other seed protectants, and adjusting seeding rates, notes Ralston.

How do farmers keep abreast of changing soil temperatures?

Ralston points out that daily readings are taken at various locations throughout Texas in cooperation with the Extension Service, the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, and individual cooperators.

As temperatures are collected, they are included in daily agricultural advisories issued by the Agricultural Weather Service Center for each of the regions. The advisories are fed into the NOAA (National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration) weather wire by teletype to be received by the AWSC radio network as well as commercial radio and television stations.

Specific temperature readings for about 50 locations also are distributed daily through regular weather service channels.

Keeping tabs on the weather and soil conditions can help farmers get off to a good start with spring planting, believes Ralston. With the high cost of farm inputs, it's information that should be put to good use.

Around The House In Parmer County

By LAURA JACOBS
"Consumers Important To Economy"

President Reagan has declared the week of April 24 as National Consumers Week. In his declaration, President Reagan states that we must "fully recognize the crucial role consumers play in our economy."

Most of us know what government, agriculture, industry, and labor contribute to the economy. But we don't often recognize how we as individual consumers contribute to the economic health of the nation.

So the theme of this year's National Consumers Week is "Consumers Supply Demand." As consumers, we are important to the economy because we create a demand for products--from homes to housewares; a demand for services--from medical care to auto repair; and a demand for information--from cost comparisons to safety information.

Consider how many stores, businesses and services in our country would close if it was not for the demand of the consumers who live here.

But it is not enough to simply recognize that consumers are important. We need to work at being more effective consumers to make our economy function at its best.

In the kick-off ceremony for National Consumers Week, Louis V. Gerstner, Chairman-Elect of the Joint Council on Economic Education, said there is a "strong need to improve the economic literacy of the American consumer as the country's economic environment becomes more complex and difficult."

Any consumer who has tried to figure out the advantages of different types of bank accounts, read the energy usage labels on major appliances, or understand a warranty, can appreciate Mr. Gerstner's comments. Although consumers now have greater choices in making purchase decisions, the increased amount of consumer information that goes with those choices can be confusing.

According to Virginia Knauer, Director of the U.S. Office of Consumer Affairs, the answer to this problem is consumer education which will "help us to function as competent, creative consumers."

For nearly 70 years, the Texas Agricultural Extension Service has provided consumer information and education. But you don't need to wait for a National Consumers Week to take advantage of this service.

For more information on consumer programs and materials, contact your county Extension Office, on the second floor of the Courthouse in Farwell, phone 481-3619.

How we keep insurance companies on their toes.

As an independent insurance agency, we have the freedom to examine the portfolios of CNA, as well as other major insurance companies.

When we know the specific kind of insurance you need, we can select or reject the policies of any of the companies we represent. This competition encourages those companies to offer the kinds of protection our clients need, and at a price that's fair.

Agents who represent only one insurance company are confined to the limited group of policies their company happens to offer at the moment.

As an independent agency, we'll shop a variety of companies until we find exactly the protection you need for your business, auto, home, or life. Call us and see how we keep the companies we represent on their toes for you.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Bill,

On the afternoon of April 11, 1983, the West Texas winds fanned a grass fire on the Reinauer Bros. Ranch that destroyed approximately 4,000 acres. Had the fire not been extinguished by the efforts of the Friona, Farwell and Bovina Volunteer Fire Departments as well as other surrounding fire departments, countless neighbors and friends, I am sure the acreage figures would have easily doubled or tripled.

Often we take these people for granted, until they are needed. In thanking only a few of them, their response has been, "That's what we are here for."

For myself as well as the Reinauer family, I would like to say "Thanks for a job well done." We appreciate everyone of you very much.

Sincerely, Art Reinauer

IS YOUR INSURANCE AGENT LOCKED INTO ONE COMPANY?

There are 2 ways to buy insurance. You can buy your insurance from a one-company agent. But they're locked into only those policies that their company sells. So their hands are tied.

Or you can buy your insurance from an Independent Insurance Agent... the more-than-one-company agent. You see, a Big "I" Independent Agent like us doesn't work for one company. We represent several. So we're free to give you an independent opinion and advise you on the best coverage at the best price. And that goes for homeowners, automobile, business, life and health insurance.

Boys, Girls State Delegates Chosen

The Friona American Legion Post 806 has selected Shane Woodard as delegate and Paul Melton as alternate to attend the 1983 Boys State Convention. The Auxiliary has selected Sandra Jo Schueler, delegate and Darla Butler, alternate, to attend Girls State.

The boys will go to the University of Texas at Austin for a week's study and training in all aspects of the state government starting with forming the 51st mythical state from the city level on through all offices of the state government.

"This is truly a session of learning by doing. After the state campaigning and elections these delegates go to the state capitol where the elected officials are installed into their respective offices by prominent officials," said a spokesman for the sponsoring organization.

Two of the delegates will be chosen to attend Boys' Nation in Washington, D.C. where they will form the National Government and learn more of its process.

Girls State is held on the campus of Texas Lutheran College, Seguin, Texas. This program is the same as for the Boys State except the girls have a ten day session.

The local delegates will be in a group comprised of students from all over the 18th Congressional District of the Panhandle, including students from Farwell High School, and will have the opportunity of flying to Austin and to Seguin for these sessions.

"The local American Legion Post and Auxiliary have been sponsoring these programs since 1955 and we feel that our efforts are not in vain. Better citizens and leaders for the future is the aim of this program," said Geneva Williams, spokesperson.

Town Talk

By June Floyd

Call 247-3681 With Your News Item

It must be "Tulip Time in Friona." So many beautiful tulip blooms can be seen just about any place you choose to drive right now. Within a couple of blocks on Maple one can see a large number of different colors.

The most beautiful purple specimens I've seen are in the front yard of the Charles Hamilton home in the 1100 block. Then just one block south Mrs. J.M. Watson and Martha Bates have at least half a dozen different colors in their yards. Another brightly colored display may be seen just across the street south of the southeast corner of the block occupied by Porter and Sons. That one is at the corner of Jackson and Ninth.

There aren't many vegetable gardens growing yet. Possible the reason for this is that our weather just hasn't been very conducive to early gardening.

Surely a change in our weather pattern is just around the corner. Another change all of us need to remember--and it is one that is certain--is that at 2:00 a.m. Sunday we will pick up Daylight Savings time again. If we fail to run our clocks up, we'll be one hour late for whatever appointments we want to keep.

W.F. and Viola Buske have been enjoying having one of their two grandsons, Toby Smith, living the second door away from them ever since they moved into their new home at 805 Arrah. (Toby and his mother, Jere, live at 801).

Now, they have the other grandson, Dave Buske, living two doors the other direction. Dave and Teresa and their son, Jared, recently moved from a farm northwest of town to 809. What better arrangement could anyone ask for than to have two grandsons and one great-grandson, along with a daughter and a granddaughter-in-law for neighbors?

J.T. and Lilah Gaye Gee arrived home Sunday evening after a real fun trip all the way to Mississippi and back. Enroute they visited assorted kith and kin and toured a number of places of interest.

Highlight of the trip going down, which included visiting several of Gee's relatives in Eastland County, were visits to the Diamond M Museum at Snyder; the Texas Safari Ranch near Clifton; Kridler Gardens near Mount Pleasant; and the Tyler Azelea and Spring Flower Show.

They also made the Natchez Annual Pilgrimage up the Natchez Trail to Jackson, Mississippi, and visited some of Lilah Gaye's relatives at several different places in that state.

Another place of interest the couple toured was Mud Island, which is at Memphis, Tennessee.

The Gees reported good weather and a wonderful spring vacation with many many different wild flowers in evidence most of the way.

Recent out-of-town visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Love and Nikkie have been Mr. and Mrs. Charles Love and sons, Paul and John, who live in Pampa.

Mrs. Jim Roy Clements, the former Mary Jane Grubbs, was a Friona visitor one day this week. She was enroute from the Clements former home at Dalhart to their present home at Ruidoso, where they recently moved.

Jim Roy, Martha's and Roy's oldest son, is operating K-Bob's Steak House in one of New Mexico's most loved vacation spots. Mary Jane is the daughter of Adolphus and Mary Grubbs and works as a standby helper, but says she doesn't work regularly.

The couple's youngest son, David, is a regular employee of the steak house right now, but is contemplating starting to college this fall.

Wade, the other son, attends Texas A&M at College Station, and Joan, the only girl in the family, and her husband, Ted Lindeman, are both students at Texas Tech in Lubbock.

Jim Roy and Mary Jane and the children moved from here to the XIT City a number of years ago.

Members of Parmer County Community Hospital Auxiliary will be at the former Hurst Drygoods Store--next door north of Plains Hardware--all day Tuesday, April 26, to receive rummage for a spring sale, which has been planned for the next two weekends.

They will appreciate any saleable items anyone has to contribute.

The sales will be all day Friday and Saturday, April 29 and 30 and May 6 and 7.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Fairchild and daughter, Vickie, of Adrian were Friona visitors Sunday. They're former residents. Larry's parents are Hap and Julia Fairchild and Paula's are Otis and Althea Neel. They've been living at Adrian several years.

The two older Fairchild children are both college students. Tammy attends Texas Tech and Jeff attends Lubbock Christian.

Walter and Betty Cunningham of Andrews, Texas, were also visiting here last weekend. They lived here many years before moving away. Betty is an employee of Amco and Walt teaches graphic arts in Andrews High School.

She's the daughter of Lavenia Duke and he's a brother of James Cunningham.

The couple's two daughters, Cathy and Christy, and their husbands also live in Andrews. Each couple has one daughter, so Walt and Betty are enjoying their granddaughters in their spare time. They're also building a new home, which they hope to move into soon.

Three of the six daughters of the late Mr. and Mrs. J.B. McFarland, Ilene Osborn, Martha Clements and Gerry Taylor, attended a school reunion at Killeen, Texas, last weekend. The McFarlands lived there before moving to Friona more than half a century ago.

About 500 persons attended the reunion. Martha said, "I knew very few of them, but enjoyed it very much any way."

The trio also visited Jesse Osborn, who lives at Kingland, Texas, and Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie McFarland at Burnet.

They also visited former Friona residents, Rev. and Mrs. Tommy Allen at Buchanan Dam. Rev. Allen is a former pastor of First Baptist Church here and is retired.

Another former pastor of this congregation, Dr. Carroll Green, and his family are now living there, but were away last weekend.

I like this definition of efficiency: "The ability to get someone else to do your work well without the person doing it or the boss knowing you didn't do it."

Martha Russell Gives Woman's Club Program

The Friona Woman's Club met Wednesday, April 13 in the Club House.

Roll call was answered with an Easter quotation.

Juanita Reed presented an Easter poem and the program, "Happiness Is Spring," was presented by Martha Russell.

The hostesses, Clessy Stroud and Addie Moyer, served refreshments to the seven members present.

Adamses Host Antique Club

The Friona Antique Club met Monday, April 19 in the home of Raymond and Nola Adams.

The dinner of ham, beans, slaw, deviled eggs, broccoli and rice casserole, pie, Cokes, coffee and tea was served to the club members.

Members present were Rudolph and Clara Renner, Elvie and Virginia Jennings, Jerry and Patty Zachary and Patty Grace, Ruth Jones, Orma Flippin, Selma Habbinga and Raymond and Nola Adams.

The next meeting will be the third Monday in May in the home of Orma Flippin.
