Chinese Confirm Fates Of Seven American MIAs

PEKING (AP) — President Ford today said he was pleased to learn that the remains of seven Americans missing in action before and during the Vietnam war had been found by him to normalize U.S.-Chinese relations.

Kissinger told a news conference, but the remains of two of them have been recovered. He said that the next of kin of all seven would be notified within the next 48 hours.

The Americans, presumably pilots or air men, were missing over the last 10 years in or near China, he said.

The last full day of Ford's China visit was marked by a banquet toast in the Great Hall of the People during which the President not only promised to normalize relations but to agree to disagree on attitudes toward the Soviet Union.

Chinese complaints that the American policy of detente with the Soviet Union threatens China with Soviet attack, Ford recalled that the 1972 Shanghai communique signed by President Nixon and Premier Chou En-lai expressed "fundamental opposition to the efforts of others to impose hegemony in any part of the world."

Smiling Slayer Given 30 Years But No Bible

By JOHN EDWARDS
Jackie Wayne Gaines, 34, Wednesday afternoon was assessed a 30-year prison sentence for killing his wife, Betty, Feb. 5, 1972. Earlier, shortly after receiving the case, the jury had found him guilty.

talked about is the Bible and the work of the Lord," Carter answered. He said he knew nothing of Gaines' reputation prior to the shooting.

Jerald Culpepper, also called by Ford as a defense witness, was not in the hall outside the courtroom, and Ford announced he had no more witnesses. "We don't wish to make religion an issue in this trial," he said.

Foreman Roy Bruce explained that the form for acquittal was signed by mistake. Judge Ralph W. Caton polled the jurors individually. All said "guilty."

Although the element of a religious experience was injected into arguments as was the case with a murder defendant who got 10-years probation and a gift Bible in May, Gaines drew a prison term and no Bible.

"Terrible" is how Gaines former wife, Sharon Casbeer, characterized the defendant's reputation.

Moore argued against probation, saying this says in effect: "Go and do it again. This one was free."

Asked if he would appeal, Gaines said: "I'm thinking about that, and I'm not sure at this time."

"I ask you to tear up that one too," he said, rumpling a form setting the number of years less than life. "I think you think Jackie Wayne Gaines murdered his wife in cold blood."

Washington (AP) — U.S. intelligence officials are concerned that Russia may be trying to develop devices to blind American satellites guarding against a surprise missile attack.

There was an exchange on whether commitment to God had a bearing on either case, and Ford asked if Gaines had expressed remorse over the death of his wife to Carter, a Gideon.

"I don't think I'd be afraid personally to have this man in the community. He hasn't hurt anyone yet (since his arrest)."

Two other satellites picked up infrared signals Nov. 17 and 18, the report said. The early warning satellite was not blinded, but analysts say the development suggests that ground-based lasers might neutralize the ability of U.S. satellites to detect Soviet missile launchings.

Friday for Indonesia. In his banquet toast, Ford reaffirmed to China's leaders that the United States is committed "to complete the normalization of relations" with China, but that both would pursue their policies guided by national interest.

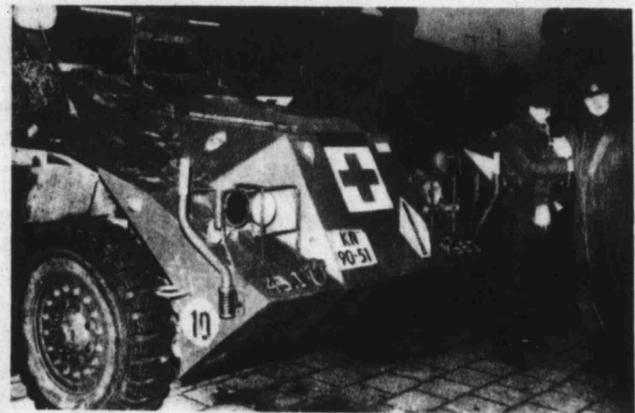

China's acting premier, avoiding any reference to the touchy subject of U.S.-Soviet detente that he had attacked Monday, said that although Washington and Peking "share many problems" contacts between Ford and the Chinese leaders have helped "to increase mutual understanding."

DUTCH MILITARY AT TRAIN HIJACK SCENE — Dutch soldiers with armored vehicles wait outside town hall in Beilen today. Indonesian rebels are holding a hijacked train at Beilen for the third day and shot another hostage, officials said.

Indonesians Seize Consulate, 50 Held

AMSTERDAM, The Netherlands (AP) — Indonesian rebels opened a second front in Holland today, seizing the Indonesian consulate and at least 50 hostages in Amsterdam, officials said.

Police said six men armed with a carbine, a pistol and knives took control of the consulate at midday. A spokesman said three members of the consulate staff were thought to have been wounded.

Witnesses said four men escaped from an upper floor by climbing down a rope. One of the men was wounded when the gunmen began shooting at them, but police fire drove the Indonesians back. All four men were hospitalized with injuries suffered in the escape.

The World At-A-Glance

PARIS (AP) — Police killed a North African bank robber and captured his Spanish accomplice early today as they tried to escape after holding about 30 hostages for 14 hours in a bank near the Eiffel Tower.

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. intelligence officials are concerned that Russia may be trying to develop devices to blind American satellites guarding against a surprise missile attack.

Two other satellites picked up infrared signals Nov. 17 and 18, the report said. The early warning satellite was not blinded, but analysts say the development suggests that ground-based lasers might neutralize the ability of U.S. satellites to detect Soviet missile launchings.

Seize Suspect, Recover Goods

A 27-year-old assistant manager of a Lovington department store, was caught "red handed" today behind Big Spring Hardware at 5:25 a.m., apparently loading stolen merchandise in the trunk of his car.

John Burson, city patrolman, was making a routine patrol when he went down the alley behind Big Spring Hardware. The back door of the store was open, the trunk was open in the car and when the officer turned into the alley, a man jumped into the car.

Burson arrested the man before he could drive away. On the front seat of the car was a loaded shotgun that had been sold to him by Big Spring Hardware about three months ago.

Stolen merchandise in the trunk of the car totaled over $5,000 in value and included 14 guns and rifles, a large amount of ammunition, three CB radios, two watches, eight hunting knives, a spray paint rig and numerous other items.

The suspect was transferred to the county jail after charged with burglary. Municipal Judge John R. Coffee set bond at 5,000, but it was not certain if specific charges had been filed.

Entry was gained through the roof of the building, according to Patrolman Burson. He said that apparently the man climbed up on top of the barber shop next door, used a ladder to get on the roof, removed an air conditioner, stuck a TV antenna down the hole and slid down into the store.

CHRISTMAS SHOPPING EARLY — Apparently a New Mexico citizen thought doing Christmas shopping early meant early in the morning. He had over $5,000 worth of merchandise from Big Spring Hardware loaded in the trunk of his car when Patrolman John Burson, inset, turned into an alley at 5:30 a.m. today and arrested him at the scene.

EXPECTED TO ARRIVE IN BIG SPRING FRIDAY

Exclusive Interview With Santa Claus

By WALT FINLEY
"I suppose you want the same thing the others want," he said, jabbing a fistful of sugar plums into a fruit jar, "and I'll tell you the same thing I told them, and that's all."

"No, I have never received gifts from any of the Rockefeller's, and yes, I get some rather unusual requests from what you would probably call 'prominent individuals.'"

Santa Claus sent a message to Big Spring and area children that he expects to be on the courthouse square at 3:30 p.m. Friday.

This is the official opening of the Christmas season in Big Spring and the chamber Ambassadors will assist Santa.

"But you have to realize that such communications fall under the category of privileged information. Our operation is rather special in that regard. The concept of 'public record' does not apply here. I am not a bureaucrat."

He was probably telling the truth. At least he didn't dress like a bureaucrat. If his red suit was any indication, he was a lot flashier. And then there was the long hair and the beard and his disconcerting habit of punctuating sentences with "ho, ho, ho."

"Ho, ho, ho," he shouted. "Ho, ho, ho, yourself," I told him, "I'm on deadline." He walked back to his desk and sat down heavily. We stared at each other for several moments. He spoke first.

"How would you like to have your newspaper, maybe a whole string of magazines and a television station and some of my helpers as leg men?"

"No more ho, ho, ho," I asked skeptically. "No more ho, ho, ho," he agreed.

Most of what he told me will remain off the record, which is highly unusual for a guy like me. Most of it was actually pretty boring, anecdotes about stockings and fireplaces and such, or real personal stuff that is nobody's business but his. If you think I got snowed, well, that's your problem.

I will say that his primary concern is one of equity. He hates to be tricked, and because he doesn't have the time or staff to keep track of everybody who expects something from him at this time of year, he does get fooled.

"There's not really much I can do about it," he said. "I certainly am not going to start spying on people — there's too much of that kind of thing going on without me getting into the act."

"This is not to suggest that he doesn't know a great deal about who's been very, very good and who hasn't. He just doesn't flaunt it."

He told me a certain TV anchorman who had written to him asking that his partner get fired so that he could deliver the news alone every night, and run more stories about car crashes, people who want to marry Russians, and bears.

"All that clown is going to get from me this year," the big guy chuckled, "is a beanie with a propeller on the top."

His biggest complaint didn't surprise me a bit, but then I didn't find what it was until we had talked some time and were on pretty good terms. By that time I was calling him "Nick," and he had slipped back into his habit of ending each sentence with "ho, ho, ho."

He had just shown me some confidential letters that he said were representatives of the kind of mail he gets all the time. They were shocking.

"You see what I mean," he said, "greed is rampant everywhere. You have no idea how it upsets me when I get a letter from some 9-year-old asking for all, ALL the peanut butter in the world."

"Naturally I didn't answer that particular letter, but then I get a note from the same kid about a month later offering me a fifty-fifty partnership if I'll just come up with the peanut butter. And then I get a letter from the kid's attorney threatening me with some kind of lawsuit."

To them, it's all one big 'Let's Make A Deal.'"

"They write and tell me that because they didn't poison any cats or spit in anybody's soup that they want a new car. But not just any old new car, it's got to be bigger or faster or have more electric automatic junk in it than whatever their best friend is driving."

He was growing despondent. I figured it was time to leave. I felt sorry for him, and in my business you can't afford to feel sorry for anybody.

"Several gifts for the United Way came in after the big one that put us over the top," McNeil said, "and we expect more. Our committee welcomes all who wish to play a part in the campaign, regardless of when they might choose to respond to the appeal."

McNeil said the UW committee set up a record budget for the new fiscal year and was impressed by the generosity of the community.

"The matter in which the gifts and pledges came in reflects the stable economy of the area," McNeil stated. "It is evident to most everyone that West Texas was not affected by the recession other parts of the nation recently went through."

Collections and pledges this morning totaled $133,326.69, or 101 per cent of the goal. Objective last year was $123,777 and in 1973-74 $117,140. In each instance, the community exceeded its goal.

W. S. (Dub) Pearson, last year's campaign chairman, served as president of this year's drive.

Of the aggregate raised to date, $3,865.25 came during the past week.

By divisions, following are the amounts raised:
Out of Town, $8,571;
Advance Gifts, $33,147.13;
Special Gifts, $7,660;
Employee, $31,226.94; CFC, $28,776;
City Employees, $6,551.22; Metropolitan, $2,090;
County and State Employees, $2,178.30; Area, $809.10; Women, $4,967; and Professional, $7,350.

UW directors will convene sometime next spring to select officers for next year's drive. McNeil, as per custom, ascends to the presidency.

'Tis The Season For Rip-Offs

The season for peace and good will toward men also is the time for jolly rip-offs.

The Better Business Bureau and others have sounded warnings to shoppers to beware of sharpies who offer red-hot Christmas bargains. The Christmas shopping season brings these characters out like termites from the woodwork. Suddenly you are offered a fine watch by a sidewalk dealer at a fantastically low price — only you learn later the $3 Swiss movement inside doesn't go with the fancy brand name on the face. The same goes for itinerant dealers offering television sets, radios, micro-ovens, etc.

The best and safest deal, after all, is to do your business with a reputable dealer to whom you can return if something happens to your purchase. In the unlikely event that you should get a great buy from an unknown dealer or a stranger, there is the likely prospect that you may be buying stolen merchandise.

There are a couple of other precautions that you might take in doing your shopping or getting your gifts ready. One is to make certain your car is locked at all times (preferably putting gift purchases in the trunk of the car where they cannot be seen). The other is to make certain your home is not only locked, but that you and your neighbors cover for each other in event strangers show up around the place. Only last week a residence here was burglarized of a couple of thousand dollars worth of household goods. A year ago, there were instances of trucks (ostensibly movers or delivery men) backing up to homes and practically emptying them in broad daylight.

There is one final contribution you can make — keep your eyes peeled for shoplifters. Of course, they could lift your packages while you put them down to browse or to try on something. They also can steal a store blind — and that's your business, too, because you and all the other shoppers have to pay for what they steal in higher prices (up to $20 billion a year). So it's not snitching if you see a shoplifter at work and get word to a clerk, it's being a good citizen. The clerk or management can take it from there and make their own deductions.

Over-Shooting The Runway

Whoie! Those bids for the baseball complex set something of a record for overshooting the runway. Original cost estimates were $157,200 (which the city admitted were possibly $90,000 low by reasons of the long delay in getting around to asking for bids). The lowest bid was for $484,347, or 3.25 times the original projection.

Inflation? Well, if it's all inflation, we're in deeper trouble than most of us realize. And if that's the sole reason for this breath-taking spread, then we've paid a dear, dear price for dallying.

Probably we were unrealistic at the outset . . . our eyes were bigger than our pocketbooks. At any rate, the time is at hand to see what we can get along without, whether changes can be made in specifications, and in short, whether this can be brought down within a reasonable figure. Otherwise, forget it.

It Was A Fire

Around The Rim

Marj Carpenter

Thanksgiving came and went. The frost was on the pumpkin and the West Texas sand in the air. It was a wonderful Thanksgiving at our house. I didn't set the kitchen on fire while cooking the turkey like I did one year and the turkey and all of the trimmings turned out great.

I tried to pass some of Clara Johnson's homemade cranberry sauce off as my own, but my 2 daughter commented, "Mama, this is your turkey and pumpkin pie, but who gave you the good cranberries?"

Pecos Eagles beat Estacado Saturday.

I REALLY enjoyed that game. I was fascinated with the pride that they have developed. That team played tough football — at least Saturday in Midland. And I can remember when Pecos football teams had lost for 25 straight years.

Their band has won 27 straight first divisions in marching, and they've always had a lot of pride. But I was pleased to note that they shared their pride with the team.

After the half, the band was halfway in and halfway out of the stands. But when the team came running back on the field, they turned where they were and played a very pompous fanfare followed by the fight song. You could literally see that team throw their heads back and run on to that field with pride. It was kind of nice to watch.

After the game we decided to drive on over to Andrews from the game at Midland to attend a wedding. Enroute, I kept watching the dust blowing and finally said, "I believe there's a prairie fire out there."

"No there isn't," the college son states, "That's just dust in the air." We drove a few more miles, "I think it's a grass fire," I stated, "It has a little different coloring."

"Oh, Mama, you just think because you're always going to fires and wrecks that you're going to come up on one every time you get out of town."

There was silence for another half mile. We drove through an area where the grass was burning on both sides of Telephone Road. Flames were also licking at the fence posts and it appeared to be spreading rapidly.

There was silence for another quarter of a mile. Finally, the college son broke down and said, "All right. You know a grass fire when you see one."

My Answer

Billy Graham

DEAR DR. GRAHAM: I heard you say recently that the only way to true peace and happiness is through Jesus Christ in our hearts. However, I know several people who have no particular interest in Christ, and yet they seem as peaceful and happy as most Christians I know. How can this be? — S.C.J.

DEAR S.C.J.: It is true some people, by the nature of their circumstances or personalities, seem to be happy and peaceful although they have no interest in Christ. I would suggest, however, that their peace is an illusion, brought about by their refusal to face life as it is.

There are really two kinds of peace. One is a peace that is false because it is based on a faulty foundation. The people living at Pearl Harbor in 1941 believed they had peace, but their belief was an illusion that was shattered by the surprise attack on their land. In the same way, many people refuse to face the deeper issues of life, such as why we are really here and where we are going when we die. Jeremiah condemned the false prophets who spoke "peace, peace" when disaster was just around the corner. Jeremiah 6:14.

The only true peace is the kind that comes when a person has faced life and himself as they are and has turned to God for the answer to his problems and sins. The Christian knows the reality of Jesus' promise to His disciples: "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid." John 14:27.

"Oh, m'gosh! That nasty, arthritic thing is growing out of MY sleeve!"

Energizing Leadership

John Cunniff

Remember that the greatest peace man can know is not just inward tranquility or simply peace with other people. The greatest peace is peace with God, which comes through Jesus Christ. "Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ." Romans 5:1, RSV.

NEW YORK (AP) — The models of the past, said David Lillenthal, are inappropriate to the "resuscitation" of America after what he terms a serious illness — a period of recession and indecision and inaction, public and private.

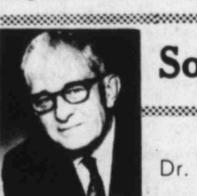

scattered, he said. "Our sources of energy of all kinds are dispersed. We have multiple sources of strength. The future of America is one of diversity rather than concentration."

This is the opinion of the man who headed the Tennessee Valley Authority, which had its origins in the economically troubled New Deal days of the 1930s, and which is today the nation's largest resources development project.

In short, Lillenthal urges Americans to look to themselves, to their private organizations, to local leaders, rather than to the bureaucracies of big government or big business which, he feels, may have forgotten their mission.

"It's a different country today," he said. In his opinion, the nation is stalled, somewhat spiritless, descriptions that were also applied to it in the 1930s, but there are immense differences too.

"The railroads, he said, lost touch with reality, with the needs of the people they were to serve, with their own communities and employees. They cut themselves off from creativity."

Some Terms Confusing

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: To settle a bet, would you please answer this question: are cola drinks addictive or habit-forming? — S.B.

Because of a confusion of terms, such bets are rather foolish, and I don't think I can settle it for you. But such bets often do raise interesting points.

are violent symptoms when the drug is withdrawn. That is far removed from the psychological aspects mentioned earlier. One stops drinking colas, and that is the end of it.

Moreover, the climate was soon markedly altered by two developments: softening toward New York in public opinion polls and concern within financial circles over default. That concern was reflected by the President's own economic advisers, newly apprehensive of default's economic consequences.

The changed climate affected Rhodes, who unlike Mr. Ford as minority leader feels no need to rubber-stamp a Republican President. Without checking the White House, Rhodes advocated legislation to help New York, provided that New Yorkers help themselves.

So you divide the whole range of drugs (alcohol included) into either the psychological or physical dependence categories. Within that range there are gray areas research has yet to identify.

This is the term most commonly used in this matter — dependence, either psychic or physical. I think these terms give us a better frame of reference in which to discuss your question.

There is caffeine in cola drinks, and one can develop a mild psychic dependence on them because of the stimulating effect of the caffeine. If one feels that, all in all, this is not such a bad thing, then one might keep on drinking such substances, and continue to be psychologically dependent on them to some degree. But such dependence would be very minimal, I should think.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: What is the blood sugar danger point in hypoglycemia? — Mrs. Z.Y.

This is not the same as the physical dependence one develops from a drug, from morphine or heroin for example. In the case of such drugs there is a direct physical effect, and there

For practical purposes the danger point is reached when the symptoms of an attack are present, and this is usually several hours after last eating. A rapid rate of decline in blood sugar, even at higher levels, can produce symptoms. A normal blood sugar reading would be from about 80 to 130 milligrams per cent. You will find a fuller description of hypoglycemia and the meaning of various readings in my booklet, "Help for Hypoglycemia," which you can get by sending 25 cents to me in care of the Big Spring Herald. Readers wanting a copy should enclose a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Nimble Performance

William F. Buckley, Jr.

The questioning of Ronald Reagan at the press conference had a clear-cut theme. Is Reagan an extremist? The question was put to him indirectly by several questioners, directly only once, when he was asked: Mr. Reagan, aren't you out of the mainstream of American life, and do you think the people want an extremist for President?

business and big labor and big bureaucracy." The American people, he correctly supposes, want unmistakable changes in what has been going on. Whether the Democratic opposition or the gentlemen of the media will succeed in branding such proposed departures as a call for "extremism" is a question of technique, not of substance. But they are going to have a very hard time dealing with Ronald Reagan. He is too well informed, and too nimble on his feet, to fall easily into the ambushes they are so lovingly preparing for him.

REAGAN'S ANSWER was highly disarming, though incomplete. He said: look, I was governor of the State of California for eight years. My record as governor has been thoroughly explored. Pray, tell me what extremity I committed during those years?

HE HANDLED the first lot of these with dispatch. About New York, he said he did not have concrete positions to advance, and stuck to this line through hard questioning. Because, he said, he does not possess all the facts. Just when it appeared that he would confess to ignorance on the matter concerning which no one running for office is entitled to plead ignorance, he said that after all New York City was charging $1,446 for municipal services rendered to every man and woman and child, where the national figure was $670. The simple statistic had the effect of a tactical nuclear weapon.

I say it was incomplete because it left unacknowledged the difference in the powers of the President and those of the governor. George Wallace is with fairly good reason thought of as an extremist, and when he attempted a dozen years ago physically to intervene in an attempt by a black student to matriculate at the University of Alabama, he committed an "extreme act." But he has been governor, with the circumspect exemption of a few years when he made his wife governor, ever since then, and has not committed an "extreme act."

Just as he was accused of being evasive in the matter of the Pentagon — what Reagan said was that he could not begin to estimate the size of the appropriate budget for the Pentagon without access to information available only to the President, the Pentagon, and Jack Anderson — he was suddenly asked what his position was on the two bills the President would soon face, namely the energy bill and the common situs bill, to which question he answered swiftly. "I think he should veto both of them" giving the reasons why.

Under mainstream politics, nobody gets around to doing anything about the busing system despised alike by its victims, and by such theorists of racial integration as Coretta King.

THE PRESS pleaded with him to criticize the President directly, and he counteracted simply, but effectively, with his well-known 11th Commandment against speaking ill of any Republican.

Under mainstream politics, taxation rises, services diminish, crime increases, we lose a war, get outwitted in detente, and devalue the dollar.

All in all it was an exhilarating performance, and the pride of American conservatives lifts in response to so graceful an advocate. Now, now they know why Mr. Ford, for so many months, has been so concerned about the prospects of facing Ronald Reagan.

During our first intercourse I didn't bleed. He knows and I know that there was no other man in my life. Recently, he has started bringing this subject up to me — often. I'm very hurt over his accusations. Can you help? — Mrs. J.F.

What is proposed for the next four years, Reagan said with no fear that he would be disputed, is four more years of the same: of the "buddy system" in Washington, of "big

If he is accusing you after 34 years of marriage, it would seem that he needs some professional counseling. There is obviously something else bothering him.

I really don't believe any explanation by you is in order, if it ever was. But if you want one and think it will end his unreasonable nagging, tell him that your failure to bleed is not at all uncommon. The hymen may have been ruptured by an accident or by any number of vigorous activities.

A Devotion For Today

"You shall not steal." (Exodus 20:15 RSV)
 PRAYER: Mighty God, Judge of all men, I repent of my stealing. Forgive me! Help me to keep not only the letter, but also the spirit of Your law. In the spirit of Christ. Amen.

The NY Tar Baby

Rowland Evans

WASHINGTON — The reality that New York City's crisis can only heap more political trouble on a beleaguered President Ford arrived at the White House Tuesday afternoon when New York Republican leaders angrily pleaded with the President not to bestow a political bonanza on Democratic Gov. Hugh Carey.

Republicans who once saw political advantage in it. It has produced the first widespread grumbling about Rep. John Rhodes of Arizona since he replaced Mr. Ford as House minority leader. Not since the Nixon impeachment crisis has there been so much backbiting in the House Republican cloakroom. Worst of all, Mr. Ford again is seen zig-zagging on a nationally spotlighted issue.

THE MESSAGE from Albany was given the President in typically blunt and cogent manner by Rep. Barber Conable, an upstate New Yorker who is chairman of the House Republican Policy Committee. By endorsing New York aid legislation in Congress, Conable said, Mr. Ford would play into Carey's hands by embracing his proposed tax increases.

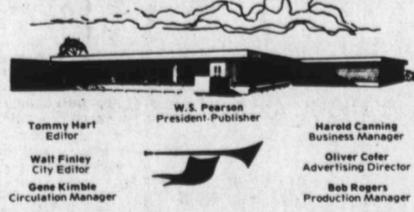

In contrast, New York's misery was viewed as the President's opportunity Oct. 29 when he delivered his National Press Club thunderbolt against pre-default bailout of the city. Even then, however, some advisers feared that he had painted himself into a corner by indicating he would never aid New York.

INDEED, New York City is a political tarbaby staining

Moreover, the climate was soon markedly altered by two developments: softening toward New York in public opinion polls and concern within financial circles over default. That concern was reflected by the President's own economic advisers, newly apprehensive of default's economic consequences.

The changed climate affected Rhodes, who unlike Mr. Ford as minority leader feels no need to rubber-stamp a Republican President. Without checking the White House, Rhodes advocated legislation to help New York, provided that New Yorkers help themselves.

'LORD KNOWS MORE THAN THE EPA' Texas Utilities Asks Permission To Build Henderson Reservoir

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Texas Utilities Service Corp. has asked the Water Rights Commission for permission to build a reservoir upstream from the Cherokee Reservoir, near Henderson.

The firm says it needs the water for two 750,000-kilowatt, lignite-fired, electric generating plants.

The commission has not indicated when it will rule on the permit application.

which is only one of several the company needs from governmental agencies before it may construct a dam on Cherokee Bayou.

Attorneys for Cherokee Water Co. of Longview and Southwest Electric Power Co. cross-examined TUS board chairman T. L. Austin at a hearing Wednesday.

Austin said those firms would lose no water as a result of the new reservoir.

"We're not going to hurt Longview," Austin said. "We're going to be in hock to the Arabs the rest of our lives if we don't go to coal and nuclear (power)."

The reservoir would have 37,441 acre feet of water, and the generating plants would "consume" 11,900 acre feet a year.

(An acre-foot contains 325,851 gallons.)

Austin said his company is in a dispute with the federal Environmental Protection Agency over the need for "scrubbers" to clean its stack discharge at a lignite plant near Mt. Pleasant.

He called EPA standards "asinine, stupid." Can I use that kind of language?"

"Yeah, I go along with you," said Dorsey Hardegan, a member of the commission.

Austin said his plants "have nothing to do with healthy air. I would be happy to live next to any of these installations. We won't harm

Applies For NM Approval For Plant

SANTA FE, N. M. (AP) — Southwestern Public Service Co. of Texas is seeking New Mexico Public Service Commission approval to build a electricity generating power plant in Amarillo, Tex.

Some of the electricity generated at the Amarillo plant would go to New Mexico cities including Roswell, Clovis, Portales and Carlsbad.

The Southwestern plant would be coal-fired, and the power it produced would supplement or replace electricity generated from a gas-fueled station, a spokesman said.

The PSC recently ruled a firm planning to build a power generating plant in another state had to obtain commission permission if the facility would serve New Mexico customers.

The ruling was handed down in a case involving participation by El Paso Electric Co. and Public Service Co. of New Mexico in construction of a nuclear generating station near Phoenix, Ariz.

partner raise to four hearts.

West led the king of clubs, and East was quick to appreciate that it was in his side's interests to have clubs continued, for by forcing dummy to ruff twice East would be assured of three trump tricks, and a club trick was already in the bank. In an effort to have West continue clubs, East signalled his encouragement by following suit with the nine. Unfortunately for the defenders, West read this as a suit preference signal, asking him to shift to the higher ranking side suit. He dutifully led a low spade.

Declarer won the king. Since West had already shown up with the ace-king of clubs, South mentally assigned the trump ace to East. He proceeded by leading a low heart to the queen, and though East cleverly ducked, declarer was not taken in. He returned a low trump off the table. Obviously, it would not benefit the defense for East to spend his ace on a low trump, so he followed low. Declarer was in control.

He won the king of hearts and ruffed a club with dummy's last trump. Next he cashed the ace of spades and ace of diamonds, then overtook the queen of diamonds with the king. Two more high diamonds followed from dummy. Though East ruffed the fourth round, declarer had gotten rid of his remaining two club losers.

Given the chance by West's failure to continue clubs, declarer is to be congratulated for handling his assets so adroitly to bring home his contract.

In the good old days, bridge was a relatively simple game. On defense, when partner played a high card to your opening lead, he wanted you to continue the suit; if he followed low, he wanted you to shift. Nowadays, there are McKenney signals, Lavinthal signals, upside-down discards, odd-even discards and any number of others. With so much modernization in the air, East-West managed to get their signals crossed on this hand.

South was not particularly thrilled at having to rebid two hearts on such a ragged suit, but North's two diamond response had taken away all his bidding room. However, the outlook improved when he heard his

LAUDED, GIGGED BY 'PALS' AT PARTY

'Retired' Editor Continues 'Labor Of Love' At Herald

It was 'business as usual' for Joe Pickle this morning after an estimated 60 people, including his three sons, gathered at the Big Spring Country Club Wednesday night for his 'retirement' party.

Pickle officially doffed his trappings as editor of the Big Spring Herald Dec. 1 but he showed up for work at the newspaper plant this morning. For the next several weeks, Joe will work special assignments and serve as an advisor in the department he has served so faithfully for the better part of 44 years.

Veteran newsmen from all over West Texas met here to pay him homage. Jack Douglas, managing editor of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram who wrote the widely read "Lookin' 'Em Over" sports column in The Herald over 30 years ago, delivered the principal talk. Other journalists present for the banquet included Bill Collins, long-time editor of the Midland Reporter-Telegram; Wacil McNair, Snyder Daily News; Ed Wischamper and Dick Tarpley, both of the Abilene Reporter-News; and Terry Neill, Stanton Reporter.

W. S. (Dub) Pearson, publisher of the Herald, emceed the event. He introduced Douglas and the other speakers and later was to read telegrams and messages from such dignitaries as Cong. George Mahon; Sen. Lloyd Bentsen; Lady Bird Johnson; Cong. J. J. (Jake) Pickle (Joe's brother); and others. Pearson indicated there eventually would be enough to paper a room.

Cong. Pickle had planned to attend but had no choice but to remain in Washington where decisions were being made on important tax legislation.

Douglas' talk turned into a gentle roast and no one seemed to enjoy the levity more than Pickle himself. Joe ultimately was called to the rostrum to receive a watch given him by his employer and his co-workers. Pickle expressed his gratitude for the paens of praise that kept emanating from the lecturn and, in effect, said that any service he might have performed for his paper and the community had been, in essence, a 'labor of love.'

His three sons who sat at his table and listened to the accolades and gentle ribbing that came his way are Tommy, employed by Xerox in Dallas; Gary, who operates his own TV filming company in Austin; and David, a sports writer for the Waco News Tribune.

Others seated at the Pickle table were Mr. and Mrs. Miller Harris (She is Jan. Joe's older sister); and Eleanor Rix Matheny, sister of the late Mrs. Joe (Lucille) Pickle, herself a long-time newspaper employee.

The special guest list included Mrs. Ruby Whipkey, widow of Bob Whipkey, the late publisher of The Herald; Vera Blackburn, widow of the late Herald columnist, Sam Blackburn; and three former long-time employees of the newspaper, Ray (Red) McMahon; Granville (Grampy) Glenn, along with Mrs. Glenn, and Jo Bright, former editor of the Herald's Women's news section.

VETERAN NEWSMEN GET TOGETHER — Five veteran newspapermen cut up some old times when they gathered at the Big Spring Country Club Wednesday evening to honor Joe Pickle (left), who has retired as editor of the Big Spring Herald after 44 years of service to the paper. With Pickle, from the left, are Jack Douglas, managing editor of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, who was sports editor of The Herald in the early 40s; Bill Collins, Midland Reporter-Telegram; Ed Wischamper, Abilene Reporter News; and Wacil McNair, Snyder Daily News. Douglas was principal speaker at the banquet.

PORT ISABEL, Tex. (AP) — A Mexican navy ship seized three shrimp boats in the Gulf of Mexico today, the Coast Guard said.

A Coast Guard spokesman said two of the boats were being towed by the Mexican vessel to Tampico, Mexico, and the third ship was told to follow them.

Donating Blood Usually Triggers Satisfaction

"Most people are just plain scared about giving blood," said Grady Sims, district manager for Blood Services of San Angelo, to volunteers for the Big Spring Blood Donor Services. "That's mostly why in many places only three persons in 100 give blood," Sims continued.

Big Spring Services had a disappointing donor day Wednesday at the Malone and Hogan Hospital Emergency Room, according to Mary Ruth Robertson, Malone and Hogan Volunteer.

"We had nine donors which is about half the number of donors we had the first two donor days," she said. "We did expect a slight drop-off during the holidays, though. We are sure that the community will come through in the future," she added.

"Actually there's no need to be chicken about giving blood," Sims explained. "It isn't that big a thing. The only slight discomfort a donor may possibly feel is the first touch of the needle; after that he usually isn't even aware that the needle is there. There's no sensation of feeling while you're giving blood. The whole process is safe, simple and should take no more than 30 minutes."

At the hospital blood donor station, lounge-type donor chairs are provided. After a donor has given blood, he is given light refreshments, and there is on his way "feeling better perhaps and more relaxed."

Certainly he feels a sense of great satisfaction," Sims emphasized, "knowing that he has personally helped to save a life."

Prior to the actual blood donation, the donor's medical history is taken by a volunteer to determine if he is in good health and eligible to give blood. This protects the donor from any possible ill effects as well as the future recipient. Both a temperature and blood pressure reading are given and a hemoglobin check is made.

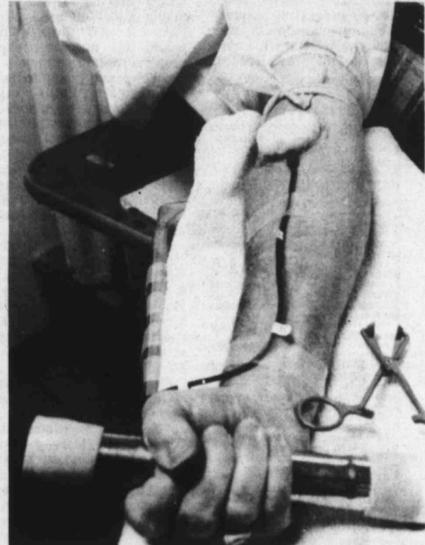

One unit, less than a pint of blood, is then taken in a plastic bag by an experienced lab technician. The tubing connected to the donor bag is segmented and the small samples of blood contained in the segments are used for testing.

The first test made on the blood sample determines its blood type (either A, B, O, or AB). The next test determines whether it is RH positive or negative. Another check tests for syphilis and anti-body screening.

Next the extremely sensitive RIA test for hepatitis, costing a minimum of $2 a sample, is performed. Once the testing, a four hour process, has been completed, the properly labeled blood is stored in blood service refrigerators until it is shipped to community hospitals for its "life-sustaining" mission. If a hospital should need more than the amount of blood it stocks or if it should need more of a certain type, Blood Service is on call 24 hours a day, every day of the week, to meet the emergency.

"This is the advantage of being connected with a system that has an inventory of 8,000 blood units and can interchange units within elements of that system according to need," said Sims. "Blood Services helps get the most mileage possible out of a unit of blood."

NO NEED TO BE CHICKEN — This blood donor for Big Spring Blood Donor Services is giving the 'gift of life' in the comfortable atmosphere of the service center at the emergency room of Malone and Hogan Hospital. Every Wednesday is donor day from noon to 6 p.m. For an appointment call 263-1211 ext. 124 or 125.

Changes Made By Police Chief

Police Chief Stanley Bogard announced several transfers within the police department during a news conference here today.

"Because of the increase in crime nationally and locally and the high number of auto thefts and other cases that must be investigated by the city detectives, I am moving Lt. Jim McCain over to assist Capt. Jack Jones with the detective division," Bogard said.

The chief said that McCain will also still head the juvenile division, but will assist with the detective division as well. The secretaries of the detective division, Mrs. Linda Morris, detective division, Mrs. Charlotte Burson, juvenile division, will also assist each other when the departments are busy.

Capt. Sherrill Farmer continues to head the patrol division of the department. One other transfer was reported by Chief Bogard.

"Due to the fact that we think faces should be occasionally changed in both the detective and patrol divisions, I have switched Det. Alvis Joffcoat to patrol sergeant and Sgt. J. D. Carter to detective," Bogard added.

Funding For Alcoholism Counselors Due Action

Funding for alcoholism counselors for the Big Spring State Hospital will be among the items subject to review of the Permian Basin Regional Planning Commission board when they meet Wednesday at 1 p.m. at Terminal.

The hospital is requesting $30,657 from the Texas Commission on Alcoholism and is supplying $14,391 of its own to fund an educational and training program for alcoholism counselors.

Other items on the agenda Wednesday include the Saragosa headstart program in Reeves County, community services in Reeves County, Airport improvements for the city of Midland; West Texas Opportunities, Inc. emergency energy conservation program, Terrell County's Bicentennial Park, and the city of Fort Stockton's park expansion.

The board will also consider approval of appointments made by the county nominating committees to the Health Systems Agency governing board and ratify the actions of the Emergency Medical Service advisory committee on awarding bids for ten ambulances.

They will discuss the semi-annual general membership meeting to be held in Pecos.

Teen Arrested After Looting

COAHOMA — A 15-year-old boy was arrested Wednesday after five machines were damaged at the Coahoma Laundry, Sheriff A. N. Standard said.

Less than $6 in change was taken from the machines, including two which were inoperative, Bill Whitton, chief deputy sheriff, said.

Gonzalez Claims NYC Aid Was 'Shell Game'

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — President Ford and House leaders pulled a shell game on the public concerning the bill giving financial aid to New York City, U.S. Rep. Henry D. Gonzalez, D-Tex., says.

"It's incredible. Ford has always been against helping New York, saying he wouldn't bail the city out," Gonzalez said Wednesday. "Then last week he announces his legislative proposal to help that financially sick city with a direct loan of more than $2 billion."

Gonzalez criticized House leaders for not giving representatives more time to study the measure, which narrowly passed 313-203.

"There were no hearings, no time for study. The President pulled the strings from Peking and the leadership jumped," he said.

The San Antonio representative said the bill made the treasury secretary a virtual dictator of New York.

"The bill says should New York default on repayment, the treasury secretary could withhold federal payments to the city," Gonzalez said.

"But what would be withheld? Funds for medical assistance? Transportation subsidies? Unemployment payments? These questions are not answered in the bill."

Gonzalez said a more carefully prepared bill formed in Congress would have helped the city more.

"The city's problems are much more severe than the solutions this bill promises. We're beyond the point of arguing whether New York needs help," he added.

President Ford's bill would create an urban disaster, Gonzalez said.

"New York isn't like Lockheed. If New York defaults, we can't sell Central Park or Yankee Stadium."

The Ford bill now must pass the Senate.

Hofheinz May Run In 1976

HOUSTON (AP) — Mayor Fred Hofheinz—still celebrating his re-election to a second two-year term—says he might seek a third term in 1977.

Hofheinz defeated Frank Briscoe, a former district attorney, by more than 32,000 votes in Tuesday's runoff election.

"They say you can't do much in two years," Hofheinz said at a Wednesday news conference. "We did a lot and I think we can do a lot in four years. Maybe we'll need six years to finish it off."

He said he interpreted his victory as a mandate for continuation of his progressive programs.

"I have received a very healthy and strong endorsement," Hofheinz said.

He said he plans to appoint a new police chief before the end of the year but declined to give names of the persons who are candidates for the job.

He said Acting Chief R. J. Clark is under consideration.

The health of Clark, who suffered a recent heart attack, "is a consideration," Hofheinz said but it will "not necessarily" be an impediment if Clark continues his recovery.

The city has not had a permanent chief since June 27 when Carrol M. Lynn resigned.

The City Council must approve the appointment.

This $20 Bill Sticky Issue

Somebody discovered a method of making a do-it-yourself $20 bill in Big Spring Wednesday.

Rachel Rangel at Hill Top Grocery reported that somebody passed a $20 bill that later turned out to be a $5 bill with the corners cut off and $20 markers pasted in the corners.

Police warn merchants to watch for the paste-up homemade bills.

Six Flags Tops Record

ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP) — Attendance at Six Flags over Texas for the 1975 season surpassed the mark set in 1973 with 2,277,006 persons visiting the park this year.

General Manager Dan Howells said the latest figure brought attendance at the park since it was opened to almost 26,788,000 persons.

Howells said there was a 16 per cent increase in the number of visitors from outside a 500-mile radius at the park this year.

Airline Objects To Airtrans Agreement

DALLAS (AP) — At least one major airline involved in a dispute over Airtrans, the automated people and baggage mover at the Dallas-Fort Worth Regional Airport, is expressing dissatisfaction over a proposed settlement, according to the Dallas Morning News.

The newspaper reported today that the proposed settlement would give the system's designer, LTV Aerospace Corp., one-third of the $22 million it claims it should receive from the two cities.

LTV has been embroiled in a legal battle with the two cities, the airport board and eight major airlines over maintenance of the system.

The cities and the airport board sued LTV, which then filed a countersuit seeking nearly $800 million from the cities, the board and the airlines.

The News quoted sources as saying LTV would receive about $7 million and the cities would then take over operation of Airtrans, freeing LTV from future maintenance responsibilities and damage claims. LTV then would train personnel to maintain and operate the system.

As part of the agreement, the cities and the eight airlines would drop a suit in which they asked more than $190 million in damages from LTV Aerospace and the firm would drop its countersuit.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Singer Dionne Warwick and husband Bill Elliott have been granted a divorce after 10 years of marriage.

Miss Warwick, 34, told Superior Court Judge Leopoldo Sanchez on Wednesday that her marriage had irreparably broken down.

Elliott, 41, a drummer and actor, filed the suit for dissolution of the marriage last June 3. Miss Warwick's manager, Paul Cantor, said Elliott is seeking $5,000 a month in support fees. He has already been paid $10,000 to cover various costs. In his suit he listed his income as $500 a month and hers as $100,000 a month.

A community property trial is expected to be held next year. Miss Warwick will have temporary custody of the couple's two sons, David, 6, and Damon, 2.

UXBRIDGE, England (AP) — American singer Eartha Kitt burst into tears after her Swedish tour manager was found guilty of taking $2,500 due her from a singing engagement in Thailand.

"I trusted him completely, but he let me down," the 47-year-old Miss Kitt said Wednesday after Peter Bryvitch, 27, of Stockholm was convicted of theft and fined $210.

CESKE BUDEJOVICE, Czechoslovakia (AP) — The prison sentence of American helicopter pilot Barry Meeker, tried in absentia, has been upheld by a regional court.

The court ruled on Wednesday that the 10-year sentence given Meeker and the 6-year sentence given his assistant, Thaddeus Kobrzynski, and the 3-year sentence handed an East German woman, Helga Neukirchner, must be served.

Meeker, 33, of Hartford, Conn., flew 11 East Germans from Czechoslovakia until border guards stopped him on Aug. 17. Meeker escaped but Kobrzynski and Mrs. Neukirchner were caught.

If Meeker should ever return to Czechoslovakia, he would have to serve the sentence upheld by the three-member regional court panel.

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Elvis Presley is back on stage after a bout with fatigue, but this time he's taking it just a bit more slowly.

At age 40, the rock 'n roll singer has orders from his doctor to take it easy. The hips that shook so wildly and shocked an older generation move in a more casual manner now.

Instead of the usual two shows a night, Presley will do just one, except on Saturday when he'll do two.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Television entertainer Johnny Carson has received an offer of $1 million to appear in a motion picture version of author Irving Shaw's new book, "Nightworks."

Shaw was a guest Tuesday on Carson's "Tonight Show" and talked about the book, which is about a down-and-out resident of a sleazy hotel who finds a dead man with $100,000 in his pockets.

During the talk, agent Irving Lazar walked on camera and offered Carson what he said was a $1-million check if he would take the starring role, saying it would only take 10 days to film.

A spokesman for NBC said Carson was thinking about the offer.

Scientists Show Photos Of Loch Ness 'Monster'

CONCORD, N.H. (AP) — A researcher has shown a photographic slide of a rust-colored object purported to be the legendary Loch Ness monster. The object appeared to have two front appendages, a long neck and a head.

The slide showing was the latest in a series of revelations both in the United States and Great Britain in recent weeks concerning a group of pictures taken underwater by an American photographic team last June at Loch Ness in Scotland.

The team was headed by Boston patent attorney Robert Rines, who is also dean at the Franklin Pierce Law Center in Concord. He showed the slide to a group of about 50 students and friends Wednesday night.

The slide depicted an object with distinct features, including the frontal appendages, a trunk Rines said was 12 feet broad and a neck Rines said was 8 to 10 feet long.

"We think it will electrify the world," Rines said.

He said there were other, clearer photographs, some of which were shot at the considerably closer range of 4 feet. He said the monster was "looking right at us with its mouth open."

Rines showed the slide in Concord two days after an announcement was made in London that a scientific symposium scheduled for Dec. 9 and 10 to see Rines' pictures was canceled because of what the sponsors called excessive publicity in Britain.

First word of Rines' discovery and photos came on Nov. 22 in a copyright story in the Boston Globe. Since then, a number of scientists who have seen one or more of the pictures, have commented publicly. Most have praised the clarity of the pictures.

Wednesday night's showing of one of the slides was the first to a lay audience. Rines said the slide was taken by an underwater camera at a depth of 45 feet with a strobe light.

Rines was angered by the publicity given the photographs, particularly in the British press, and had asked that the description of the slide shown Wednesday night not be made public.

A spokesman for Rines emphasized in a telephone interview that Rines and other members of the Academy of Applied Science — the Boston group which undertook the Loch Ness photographic expedition — were leaving it up to the scientific community to determine exactly what the objects photographed are.

British naturalist Sir Peter Scott, who has seen the complete set of Rines pictures, announced in London on Monday the cancellation of the symposium of eminent scientists who were to examine the photos.

The decision, "in no sense reflects in the smallest degree on the nature of the evidence or the integrity of those who obtained it," said Scott, chancellor of Birmingham University.

Scott told reporters shortly after word of the photos leaked last month that the Rines photographs helped convince him the Loch Ness monster is a living prehistoric reptile which may be 40 feet long.

This week, Prof. Herbert J. Howe, a Purdue University paleontologist, said he believed the monster may be a prehistoric reptile dating 70 million years. He said the Rines photographs may reveal the monster is a plesiosaur or ichthyosaur, types of reptiles believed extinct for more than 50 million years.

Car Sales Jump 38 Per Cent

DETROIT (AP) — Domestic car sales in November were expected to show a spectacular 38 per cent jump from the sorely depressed levels of a year ago, when the industry was mired in the depths of recession.

It would be the largest year-to-year sales gain for a month in at least three years, according to industry analysts who credit the sharp increase to an accelerated recovery that started this fall.

Sales a year ago were the worst for a November in 15 years.

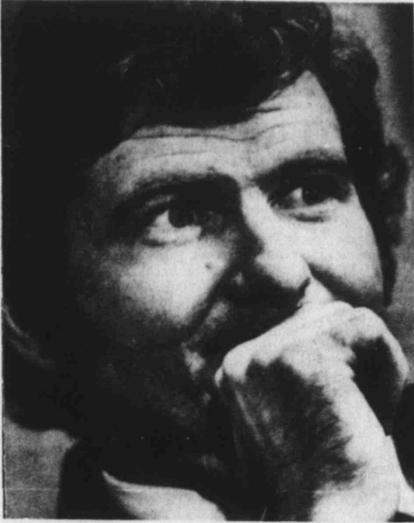

All four U.S. car makers and distributors for 21 foreign cars report their November sales figures today.

Analysts predict sales of imports also will be up — 18 per cent from a weak year-earlier performance. A stronger showing by the domestic firms would hold foreign makers to a traditional 14 per cent of the total U.S. new-car market. The imports have taken a record 19.3 per cent of the 1975 market through October.

Analysts estimated the domestic companies sold 672,000 cars in 24 selling days in November compared with 505,511 in 25 days a year ago. The daily selling rate of 28,000 last month would be up 38 per cent from 20,220 last year.

With the exception of a robust daily rate of 28,653 in October, the November selling tempo would be the strongest for the American companies in 18 months.

It also would give the domestic industry a seasonally adjusted annual sales rate of 8 million cars, the highest since September 1974. The annual rate climbed to 7.8 million in October after falling to 5.7 million in November 1974.

GOOD LISTENER — George J. Parnham, of Houston, Tex., attorney for William A. H. Williams, who was convicted for the 1974 abduction of newspaper editor Reg Murphy, listens to a question at a news conference in Atlanta Wednesday. A federal panel struck down the conviction last week and Parnham predicted his client's second trial would be moved from Atlanta.

First Mexican-American To Become Governor

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The first Mexican-American in the history of Texas statehood to become governor for a day, will be sworn in Dec. 13.

Sen. Tati Santiesteban, D-El Paso, will be honored because he is president pro tempore of the Senate, a post passed around among senators on the basis of seniority. Once a senator has served as governor for a day, the next most senior senator is elected president pro tem.

Traditionally, the governor and lieutenant governor are absent from the state when the president pro tem is sworn in as governor for a day.

After ceremonies in Austin, Santiesteban will fly to El Paso on the afternoon of Dec. 13, where the inauguration will be repeated.

Santiesteban was elected to the House in 1966 and to the Senate in 1972.

Nepotism Raps Axed

CRYSTAL CITY, Tex. (AP) — Zavala County Judge Jose Angel Gutierrez dropped four nepotism charges against school board members today after a jury acquitted them of similar charges.

Acquitted were school board president Raul T. Flores and trustees Mercedes Casarez, Ramon Garza and Jose Luis Balderas. Fired school Supt. Amancio Cantu had filed the charges.

It was the second trial and second acquittal on nepotism charges for Flores, Mrs. Casarez and Garza.

Gutierrez said he believed no Zavala County jury would convict any school board member of nepotism.

The nepotism charges have been published as being part of a power struggle in La Raza Unida, a political party of Mexican-Americans.

Coretta King Urges Probe In Political Forces In Africa

DALLAS (AP) — American blacks should pressure the government to find out what political forces are at work in Africa, Coretta Scott King said here Wednesday night.

"We as black people in this country have so little knowledge about what's going on in Africa," she said. "Certainly we know what's happening in the Middle East and how the Jewish community rallies in protest. But if anything happens in Africa, we do nothing."

Mrs. King, wife of the slain civil rights leader Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., spoke at a dinner in her honor, her first public appearance after a tour of Africa. In her speech, she implied that the Central Intelligence Agency was responsible for the overthrow of Kwame Nkrumah as president of Ghana and is involved in the political affairs of other African nations.

"We all know the fate of Kwame Nkrumah. Perhaps Nkrumah was a victim of some of the evil and injustices which have been perpetrated by reactionary forces internationally and within our country."

Asked after her speech whether she was referring to the CIA as "reactionary forces," Mrs. King said, "Yes, I think it's obvious the CIA is at work in Africa."

The dinner was sponsored by Local 218 of the Laundry, Dry Cleaning and Dye House Workers Union, which found its origin in the basement of the Ebenezer Baptist Church in Atlanta, pastored by the Rev. Martin Luther King Sr.

Mrs. King said one of the most pressing problems in the country today is getting jobs for the nation's unemployed and underemployed.

"It is as much a basic right to have a job or an income as it is to vote. But it is very difficult at this time for government officials or business leaders to see that," she said.

One thing Martin Luther King understood was the power of economic pressure, she said.

"In each of his campaigns, he used economic sanctions — like with the Montgomery bus boycott in 1955 — along with non-violence," she said. "Eight years have passed since he left us, and we haven't made much progress in the area of economic justice."

She said Americans should push for full employment.

"If it's necessary, I can march with you. If you need to picket, I can picket. Whatever's necessary, I've done a lot of it."

But she said full employment isn't possible under the Ford administration, and called for black voters to go to the polls in 1976 and elect a president who was "more sympathetic."

"No president can win significantly without the black vote. We hold the balance of power."

Ten Houston Police Indicted For 'Taps'

HOUSTON (AP) — Ten present and former Houston Police Department officers were free on $10,000 personal recognizance bonds today following their federal indictment on charges of illegal wiretapping.

Those named in the indictments returned by a federal grand jury Wednesday included two former chiefs of the department's criminal intelligence division.

Named in one or more of the seven-count indictment were M. L. "Joe" Singleton, a former chief of the Houston intelligence division and currently working with the municipal courts; James D. Belcher, a police lieutenant and a former intelligence chief, and intelligence officers James W. Allen, G. W. Barringer, Robert G. Blaylock, Lloyd O. Dollar, Thomas A. Hoffpauir, Leonard G. Kitzman Jr., Joe J. Rose and Homer A. Stevens.

They are accused in the indictments of wiretapping telephones at a series of Houston residences in 1972 and 1973. They also are indicted on charges of conspiracy to illegally intercept oral or wire communications.

Maximum punishment on conviction of violation of the federal wiretapping law is five years or $10,000 fine or both.

The indictments follow a grand jury investigation that started more than a year ago and involved two groups of grand jurors.

The 10 have been ordered to report for a preliminary hearing next Wednesday before U.S. Magistrate Donald J. Blask prior to a Dec. 12 arraignment in the court of U.S. District Judge Allen B. Hannay.

All of the men declined comment.

U.S. Atty. Edward B. McDonough Jr. said the government probe into alleged illegal wiretapping will continue.

"This was at least the first step," he said.

He said the investigation was a "difficult one to proceed on" and one that required numerous meetings of the grand jury.

McDonough said that under the Speedy Trial Act, the 10 men will have to come to trial within 120 days.

Acting Police Chief R. J. Clark said he did not know whether it was necessary to suspend the nine officers and that he had not seen the indictment nor talked with the city legal department.

Mayor Fred Hofheinz declined comment pending a talk with Clark.

Three-Year-Old Eats Her First Meal

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — Michelle McCarthy, a laughing three-year-old girl from Lordsburg, N. M., returns home this week after a successful operation that turned part of her colon into an esophagus which will help her lead a normal life.

The only problem, doctor said, as they bid farewell to Michelle, is that she will have to eat in a sitting or a standing position and she can never go into outer space.

Michelle, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCarthy, was born without an esophagus, an occurrence in one of every 50,000 births, but her condition was spotted right after birth and she was rushed to Providence Hospital here. Doctors inserted an eight-inch tube through the newborn's stomach going directly to the abdomen and made a hole in her throat to drain fluids and allow her taste buds to get used to food when she finally could eat.

Then for the next three years, Mrs. McCarthy fed her child by pouring milk and bits of food into the tube stomach.

On Oct. 3 Michelle returned to the hospital for a two-stage operation.

The doctors who performed the operation declined to release their names. One said that the first stage of the operation consisted of having a 12-inch section of her colon disconnected and placed into her stomach. Five weeks later in the second phase of the operation doctors connected the colon transplant with Michelle's throat.

Doctors said they waited three years for the operation because they wanted Michelle to grow a bit and to allow more room for surgery in the throat area.

Monday Michelle had her first real meal. Since then she has had three meals and two snacks a day and nurses said that chewing was the hardest part since she is not used to it and she tires easily.

One of the surgeons said the artificial esophagus would grow with Michelle, but would not "work the way a normal esophagus would" meaning that it would not "work the food down" and that is why she would have to rely on "gravity."

Doctors said the operation has been performed to help mostly children who burn their throats. What was special about Michelle's case, a doctor said, is that the condition was discovered immediately after birth and there were no other complications which normally kill babies born with the deficiency.

Youth To Rescue Of Needy

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The youth of America are coming to the rescue of the nation's need — with a campaign to collect pledges of 100 million hours of service in the name of God.

Working through a network of more than 150 Catholic youth groups across the country, the young people plan to visit shut-ins, stage food collection drives, tutor inner-city children and help fulfill both physical and spiritual hungers in the world.

Operation SIGN, Service in God's Name, is the banner for the ambitious program sponsored by the 41st International Eucharistic Congress, a world-wide spiritual assembly of Catholics and other Christians gathering here Aug. 1-8, 1976.

The project is not limited to Catholics, but is open to all who wish to offer their time and talent, explains 19-year-old Ronald V. McGuckin, youngest member of the board of governors of the Congress and head of his organization's Youth Committee, which conceived SIGN.

The goal is based on the 48 million Catholic men, women and children in the U.S. offering a possible average of two hours' service apiece. The Youth Committee is hoping that many young people will pledge 20 to 30 hours to make up for those unable to volunteer any time at all. And although this is a youth program, the sponsors are hoping that adults will pitch in, too, especially in areas such as car pools.

Soviet Navy Threat Voiced

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP) — Palestine Liberation Organization chief Yasir Arafat has warned Lebanese leaders that if the U.S. 6th Fleet were called in for assistance in Lebanon's civil war, the Soviet Navy would oppose it.

In an interview broadcast Sunday on Hungarian television, Arafat said "Progressive Arab peoples will not allow the United States to turn Lebanon into a second Vietnam."

Device To 'Bug' Chicago Trucks

NEW YORK (AP) — An air-ground electronic system is expected to be locating and tracking stolen trucks and freight within a year, reports Fleet Owner magazine.

In its final form, the "bug" will be about the size of two cigarette packs laid end to end. At present it resembles a license plate one inch thick, six inches wide and seven inches long and is effective over a 50-mile range.

The device, which can be used in conjunction with a helicopter and an unmarked police car, will work as long as it is not completely surrounded by metal. It can be placed, prior to shipment, in the cargo, with or without the knowledge of the driver. Key areas of use will include valuable items such as furs, T.V. sets and appliances.

When activated by police in a helicopter or car, the device issues an electronic beam that is traceable with special equipment. The "bug" responds, even if the hijackers have taken the stolen cargo to some hidden site.

Today your electric bill is much lower than it would be in most other parts of the country. And while electricity costs are rising everywhere, your cost isn't rising as fast.

That's because Texas Electric is doing everything possible to keep the price of electricity down. For one thing, we're using the supplies of low-cost natural gas we acquired many years ago for fuel. And as our cost for gas goes up, we're building power plants to use cheaper lignite and nuclear fuels.

At Texas Electric, we're working to supply the electricity you need — at the lowest possible cost.

Hawks Host Chaps In WC Barnburner

This year's Western Junior College conference basketball race could be the most evenly balanced in years. The ten teams in the circuit have won a total of 58 decisions while losing only 26.

Howard College, which hosts newcomer Midland College at 8 o'clock this evening, has the best record (10-1) and has scored the most points, 1,208. Midland brings an 0-1 league record here this evening but gave highly-regarded Amarillo College all it could handle before losing the other evening, 83-81.

Of the teams, only Frank Phillips and Clarendon College are below .500. Each has a 3-4 record and stands 0-1 in conference.

Frank Phillips has met some rough competition,

The tournament got under way this morning and continues through Saturday night.

Forsan Tourney Offers 22 Contests In 3 Days

FORSAN — Those who like their basketball in large doses will get it here during the next two days.

Eight games were on tap today in the Forsan Invitational Boys' and Girls' Tournament. The hardest, and those who are not so lucky, return Friday for eight more contests.

Championship finals Saturday will be at 6 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.

Action Saturday gets under way at 11 a.m. Before the firing has ceased Saturday night, six more contests will have been unreeled.

Bob Evans and Don Stevens, the Forsan coaches, will have their hands full. Not only do they have to worry about how their teams are going to respond to the challenges, they'll have to maintain a semblance of order in the three-day event, showing which teams dress where at appointed hours, see that officials punch in at the proper times and handle

Panthers Invade El Paso Scott Bull Has Chance To Improve His Image

By The Associated Press

Class B Big Sandy could become the highest scoring team in Texas schoolboy football history and Cuero in Class 3A is closing in on the state's longest winning streak in this weekend's Texas schoolboy football state playoffs.

Big Sandy, which meets Moody Friday night in the Class B semifinals, has scored 754 points in 12 games this season and could surpass the record of 784 points scored by Waco High School in 1927. Big Sandy is scoring at a 62.8 points per game clip.

For Scott Bull, Texas A&M's victory over Texas was like the death row inmate getting a reprieve from the governor.

It meant a second chance. Bull's first shot at quarterback for Arkansas in a "big game" was a disaster. It came against Texas Oct. 18. That day, Arkansas lost five of eight fumbles and Bull had three interceptions. The Razorbacks went down 24-18 and were counted out of the Southwest Conference race on several fronts.

and Texas have played in the Cotton Bowl since Arkansas lost to Louisiana State University in 1966.

The loser of Saturday's game goes to the Liberty Bowl Dec. 22 against Southern California.

Bull says the A&M game is "another chance for me to prove I can play well in a big game."

"Nobody said anything to me, but I think most people probably think I choked in the Texas game," Bull said. "Well, I don't think I did."

Bull said he watched every play in the Aggies' 20-10 victory over Texas.

team in the country, managed to make a first down on only four of its 13 possessions.

Bull started the season as Arkansas' No. 2 quarterback, but took over the starting role when Mike Kirkland was injured in the third game of the season. The loss to Texas has been the Razorbacks' only black mark since that time.

Broyles said the Arkansas coaching staff had been amazed at the progress Bull had made and because of new confidence, the 6-foot-5 senior had become more adept at improvising — making things happen.

"He's doing a heckuva job," said A&M Coach Emory Bellard. "He gained a lot of confidence in the past four, five or six games."

Bellard says Arkansas has "worlds of threats."

"He can make sustained marches and they're capable of making the big play," Bellard said.

Arkansas' big-play ability diminished when running back Jerry Eckwood injured a knee against Utah State Oct. 25. Eckwood, who gained more than 750 yards rushing in the first six games, will not play against the Aggies.

Mike Jay started at quarterback for A&M last week, but injured his back and will not play Saturday. David Shipman, the starter at the first of the season, will direct the Aggies' attack.

"We will miss the continuity as much as anything," Bellard said. "Jay has been playing and practicing with the team for four or five weeks now. Shipman was a little rusty, but he's back at full speed and, with a week of practice, should be ready. You've got Cuero will take its 43-game winning streak and back-to-back 3A state titles into a semifinals matchup against Jacksonville. Cuero's 32-23 victory over Gregory-Portland in last week's quarter-finals put the Gobblers into the No. 4 position on the longest-winning streak list.

Plugging in the 55 consecutive wins in the state's longest streak followed by Abilene with 49 and Neches Canyon with 47.

Big Sandy, which is unbeaten in 40 straight games, gets its offensive thrust from junior running back David Overstreet, who is the leading rusher in Texas for 1975.

Overstreet's 2,747 yards ranks him seventh on the all-time Texas schoolboy rushing charts. His 5,487 career yards is also seventh among state runners according to the Texas High School All-Time Sports Record Book compiled by Bill McMurray of the Houston Chronicle.

Pecos will play Ennis in the other Class 3A semifinals game and Celina, which fought Big Sandy to a scoreless tie in last year's Class B title game, meets Groom Friday night in Vernon in the other Class B semifinal.

In Class 4A, No. 1 ranked Longview takes on Dallas Carter Saturday night in Irving after squeaking past Conroe 14-13 last week.

In other Class 4A quarter-final games El Paso Coronado meets Odessa Permian Saturday in El Paso; Houston Kashmere and Port Neches-Groves play Friday night in Houston and McAllen plays in San Antonio Lee Saturday in San Antonio.

The key game in the Class 2A playoffs will be the showdown in Houston between No. 1 ranked Cameron and No. 2 ranked Hamshire-Fannett. The game will be played Saturday at 8 p.m.

Other 2A games include Childress vs. Slaton, Friday night in Plainview; Decatur vs. Gladewater, Friday night in Rockwall and PaGrange vs. Hebronville, Friday night in San Antonio.

Defending Class A champion Grapeland and Groveton meet Saturday night in Huntsville in a quarter-finals showdown and No. 1 ranked Seagraves meets New Deal.

struggle. A loss today would send them into action at 11:30 a.m. tomorrow.

Likely starters for Big Spring today are Richmond Zapp, Jim Ray, Robert Aldridge, and Bubba Stripling.

In other first round contests, Snyder opposes Clovis, N.M., at 11:30 a.m., Midland Lee tries Lubbock High at 5:30 p.m., and host Plainview has it out with Amarillo Palo Duro at 8:30 p.m.

Big Spring, now 3-2 on the year after a win over salty Lamesa Tuesday night, is assured of playing three games in the meet regardless of how it fares against Dunbar.

Coach James Griffin said his boys acquitted themselves well against Lamesa, which is in a rebuilding stage after having won the Class AAA championship last year.

Big Spring's other wins have come at the expense of Plainview. Surprisingly, the Steers achieved a relatively easy win in Plainview but had to go all out to nip the Bulldogs here.

Midland Lee invariably ranks right at the top in District 5-AAAA and must be conceded an edge in the tournament. Palo Duro has been awfully hard to handle in the past. It could be a wide-open event.

Championship finals will be at 8:30 p.m. Saturday. If the Longhorns win today, they'll take the floor again at 5:30 p.m. Friday against the survivor in the Lee-Lubbock

Abdul-Jabbar Is Intimidating Foes

By The Associated Press

Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, the Los Angeles Lakers' towering center, not only is a menacing figure with a basketball, but now he is virtually scaring opponents half to death.

Abdul-Jabbar scored 29 points, grabbed 21 rebounds and blocked 11 shots — a record for Cobo Arena in Detroit — sparking the Lakers to a 118-110 victory over the Pistons Wednesday night. The triumph lifted the Lakers' record to 15-8 and put them one-half game ahead of the Golden State in the Pacific Division, although they trail the Warriors, 12-6, by a few percentage points.

"Kareem played what might have been one of his better defensive and rebounding games," said Lakers' Coach Bill Sharman. "Besides the 11 blocks, he must have had another 10 'scars.'"

In other NBA games, the Chicago Bulls edged the Boston Celtics 109-106, the Philadelphia 76ers beat the New Orleans Jazz 102-94, the Milwaukee Bucks whipped the Portland Trail Blazers 114-92, and the Houston Rockets extended their winning streak to five with a 107-101 triumph over the Seattle SuperSonics.

Cazzie Russell led the Lakers with 31 points, Russell, Abdul-Jabbar and Donnie Freeman paced a 21-6 Lakers' spurt in the fourth period that enabled Los Angeles to pull away from an 87-87 tie. John Mengelt scored 26 points for Detroit.

Bulls 109, Celtics 106

Chicago, with the league's worst record, 5-13, posted only its second victory in the last 13 outings, upending Boston with the help of Bob Love's 35 points and Bob Love's 20. But Coach Dick Motta still wasn't satisfied.

"We're not playing aggressive yet," he said. "We'll get it together. We've been in every ball game. We've been a little frustrated. This will help a lot."

Dave Cowens topped the Celtics with 26 points, but missed two close-in field goal attempts and a critical free throw in the final two minutes.

76ers 102, Jazz 94

Philadelphia built a 20-point lead in the second period, fell behind by one point late in the third quarter, then regained momentum in pulling away from New Orleans. George McGinnis paced the 76ers with 27 points. Ron Behagen led the Jazz with 23 points

Veck's Initial Bid Is Spurned

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Chicago White Sox and Bill Veck remained in baseball limbo today after American League owners rejected his initial bid for the team and gave him one week to raise the ante.

Veck, the man who introduced bat day and midnets to baseball while owner of three teams over three decades, was told Wednesday night by the owners his offer included too much debt and not enough cash.

"I'm sort of in shock," said Veck after being told he must come up with $1.2 million more in debenture money for the sale to go through. "I didn't anticipate this. The requirements in this (new proposal) are quite a bit more stringent than other teams that have been admitted in recent years."

"I'm neither optimistic nor pessimistic," he added. "It's possible (to meet the asking price) and we'll try."

The attorney for the group Veck is representing, David Cohen of Philadelphia, was definitely pessimistic.

"It's not impossible, but it is improbable," Cohen said. "It's going to be seven days, 24 hours a day of back-breaking work."

Lee MacPhail, president of the American League, and the owners and general managers met for more than six hours before MacPhail emerged to announce the league counterproposal and deadline.

"The league clubs considered the proposal and financial information and financial structure proposed by Mr. Veck and found it did not meet league standards," MacPhail said.

He said eight teams voted against the bid, three voted to accept it and one team abstained. The vote on the league's counter proposal, he said, was 10-0 in favor, with two owners already gone from the meeting to catch planes. Nine votes are needed to pass such a resolution.

"It was a matter of structure and relationship of debt to equity," MacPhail said. "We've had difficulties in some instances with our clubs. In each instance it was because the team's undercapitalized."

"We've asked Mr. Veck for additional capital — unencumbered equity," he added. "If Mr. Veck can meet these arrangements by our league meeting Dec. 10, it will be acceptable to the league."

Veck's $8.55 million offer to current Chicago owner John Allyn, according to a prospectus seen by The Associated Press, consisted of $4,080,000 in debentures, $720,000 in stock sales and $3,750,000 in assumed loans from two Chicago banks.

Allyn, who has lost an estimated $8 million in six years as owner of the White Sox, was to retain about 20 per cent of the stock under the original proposal.

Veck said the venture involves about 50 persons, many of them old friends from his previous baseball days, including Bill DeWitt, chairman of the new group.

Veck owned the White Sox from 1959 through 1961, when he left baseball for reasons of health. He previously owned the St. Louis Browns — now the Baltimore Orioles — and the Cleveland Indians.

Three Texans Are Named To Little All-America

NEW YORK (AP) — Two players from Grambling State University were named to the 1975 Little All-America football team for their outstanding defensive play.

Defensive back James Hunter — were named today to The Associated Press College Division All-America football team for 1975.

Grambling was the only school to have two representatives on the Little All-America squad, which consists of 22 new faces from a year ago.

The backfield is composed of quarterback Lynn Hieber of Indiana University of Pennsylvania, the NCAA Division II total offense champion. The running backs are Vincent Allen of Indiana State of Terre Haute, Ind.; Bill Deutsch of North Dakota and Terry Egerdahl of Minnesota-Duluth.

Allen and Deutsch are the only juniors on the squad. The other 20 are seniors.

Joining White on the offensive line are tight end David Hill of Texas A&I, tackles Steve Musulin of Guilford, Ind.; Mike Timmermans of Northern Iowa, guards Ned Deane of Massachusetts and Mark Law of Hillsdale and center Kevin Martell of New Hampshire.

A huge defensive front line features 260-pound end Willie "Foots" Lee of Bethune-Cookman and 227-pound Lawrence Pillers of Alcorn State, a pair of 250-pound tackles in Larry Czarnecki of Ithaca and Bobby Kotzur of Southwest Texas and 235-pound middle guard Junior Hardin of Eastern Kentucky.

The linebackers are Greg Blankenship of Hayward State, Rick Green of Western Kentucky and Bill Linenkuhl of Puget Sound while the secondary consists of Grambling's Hunter, Ralph Gebhart of Rochester and Anthony Leonard of Virginia Union.

Hieber, a 6-foot-2, 200-pound senior, averaged 250.3 yards a game in total offense while leading his team to an 8-1-1 record. With no running attack to ease the pressure, Hieber completed 157 of 300 passes for 1,975 yards and rushed for 224 more yards.

Indiana State's Allen posted his third consecutive 1,000-yard campaign, rushing for 1,022 in nine games. He was sidelined for one contest and sat out the second half against major college opponent Tulsa as an injury after gaining 145 yards on 14 carries in the opening half.

North Dakota's Deutsch, a bruising 212-pounder, rushed 201 times for 1,169 yards in nine games, a 5.8 average per carry. He lost only five yards all season and also caught four passes for 67 yards.

Egerdahl was the most valuable player in the

Miller Is Cup Leader

BANGKOK (AP) — Johnny Miller, overcoming a dizzy spell in the heat, fired a blistering six-under-par 66 today, giving him a one-stroke individual lead and the U.S. team a four-stroke lead in the first round of the 23rd World Cup Golf Tournament.

The U.S. pair had 134, including a four-under-par 68 by Lou Graham on the 6,906-yard, par-72 Navatane course.

Second at 138 was Argentina, led by Juan Cabrera's 67, which tied him with the Philippines' Ben Arda for second place in the individual race. Cabrera's teammate, Jorge Soto, shot a 71.

A heat wave hitting Bangkok sent temperatures shooting toward the 90s.

"I'm not complaining but I felt dizzy for a second out there on the 15th," said Miller, whose only bogey of the round was on that hole, which he three-putted.

and Jim McElroy and Aaron James each scored 20.

Bucks 114, Trail Blazers 92

Bob Dandridge came off the bench and scored 11 of his 21 points during a 21-2 Milwaukee burst in the first half that propelled the Bucks to a 40-18 lead and past Portland. Brian Winters was high for the Bucks with 22 points, while Dan Anderson scored 17 for Portland. The Trail Blazers' Geoff Petrie, averaging over 21 points per game, played only nine minutes because of a knee injury and scored two points.

Rockets 107, SuperSonics 101

Calvin Murphy popped in 26 points and substitute Dave Wohl contributed eight points and seven assists in 25 minutes in keying Houston's triumph. Bruce Seals led Seattle with 16 points.

Royal Shows His Class

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Texas Coach Darrell Royal is too much of a gentleman to cry over losing his star quarterback in the A&M game, says Texas sports information director Jones Ramsey.

"I think Royal showed a lot of class not allying about not having (Marty) Akins," Ramsey told the Longhorn Club Wednesday. "But I don't have any class, and I'd like to see the teams play with both sides healthy."

Akins, named Wednesday as first-string quarterback on the All-American team selected by the Football Writers Association of America, played only 10 downs against A&M.

Akins had to be carried from the field after re-injuring a knee that he hurt while cutting upfield against TCU on Nov. 15.

A voice in the sparse theater crowd suggested the Aggies also had injury problems: "They played with two quarterbacks."

"That's right," Ramsey said.

David Shipman, the Aggie starting quarterback most of the year, replaced Mike Jay after Jay was hurt.

Akins' replacement was untested freshman Ted Conzanzo.

With the slower Conzanzo directing the attack, the Longhorns lost their outside ground game, which is set up by Akins' running and deft pitches.

Don Cairns Is Hospitalized

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The Kansas City Scouts of the National Hockey League announced that Don Cairns, their No. 2 selection in the amateur draft last year, underwent knee surgery Wednesday.

The surgery was made to repair torn cartilage in the 20-year-old left-winger's left knee.

"The surgery was apparently completely successful," said Sid Abel, Scouts' general manager. "Don will be in the hospital about a week."

Miller Is Cup Leader

BANGKOK (AP) — Johnny Miller, overcoming a dizzy spell in the heat, fired a blistering six-under-par 66 today, giving him a one-stroke individual lead and the U.S. team a four-stroke lead in the first round of the 23rd World Cup Golf Tournament.

The U.S. pair had 134, including a four-under-par 68 by Lou Graham on the 6,906-yard, par-72 Navatane course.

Second at 138 was Argentina, led by Juan Cabrera's 67, which tied him with the Philippines' Ben Arda for second place in the individual race. Cabrera's teammate, Jorge Soto, shot a 71.

A heat wave hitting Bangkok sent temperatures shooting toward the 90s.

"I'm not complaining but I felt dizzy for a second out there on the 15th," said Miller, whose only bogey of the round was on that hole, which he three-putted.

How to save up to $3,750 on your 1975 income tax.

As incredible as it sounds, it's true. And it's even sanctioned by the IRS!

If you're self-employed, or not participating in a retirement plan where you work, you can save a substantial sum on your 1975 income tax, and start building a nest egg for the future at the same time.

How? With a Keogh or IRA account. Since these programs are relatively new, many individuals who qualify for them may not fully understand what they are, or how they work.

So as a community service, we at First Federal have decided to hold an informal gathering to explain fully, in easy-to-understand language, what these plans are, and exactly what they have to offer. The meeting is scheduled for Tuesday evening, December 9, from 7:30 to 9:00 pm in the Community Room at First Federal Savings and Loan.

It's free. Refreshments will be served. And those attending will receive a comprehensive workbook that includes literature distributed by the IRS, a simplified explanation of both plans, and work sheets to compute how you, personally, can benefit.

So if you want to know how you can save up to $3,750 on your income tax, be sure to join us. These plans must be established by December 31 to benefit you on your 1975 tax return.

For more information, call or write Mrs. Margie Hill at First Federal Savings and Loan, 500 Main, Big Spring, Texas, 267-8252.

Your Daily HOROSCOPE from the CARROLL RIGTER INSTITUTE

FORECAST FOR FRIDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1975

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Maintain your cool and your poise, for everyone will want to organize efforts on a more constructive basis now, but will find problems interfering, especially where some new outlets are concerned.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) You are having problems where your career is concerned, so take no risks, especially with your reputation. Pay bills. Avoid troublemaker.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Some new venture needs further study before getting into it, or you could lose your shirt. Don't argue with a new contact.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Handle obligations without further procrastination, efficiently and conscientiously. Don't argue with mate; be understanding.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Show partners appreciation and you get along much better with them. Avoid one who isn't friendly. Try to find out why.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Delve right into all that work ahead of you and don't feel sorry for yourself, or you alienate others. Take health treatments.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Don't overspend on recreation, or you will later regret it. Do not argue with mate, or it could become serious.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) A gentle word to those at home instead of anger is best. Don't work so hard in the future so your nerves won't be on edge.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Exercise greater care in driving and avoid accidents. Don't be sarcastic; sweeten your disposition. Change your diet.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Don't commit yourself heavily whether in money, work or whatever. Make necessary changes where feasible and feel happier.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Forget about getting into that argument that could hurt you more than it would others. Improve health and appearance.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Don't fall into self-recrimination, but find out the cause of problems and get rid of them. Plan for better things.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Show particular loyalty to partners and ally any fears. Avoid the social today since it could bring unhappiness.

Pharmacists Sharpen Sharp-Shooting Skills

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Callistus Agochukwa knew the bow and arrow he used in Nigeria wouldn't repel an armed robber in his drugstore.

So Agochukwa decided to keep a pistol under the counter and to accept a unique offer to teach him how to use his weapon.

In conjunction with the Pharmacists Against Crime, the Jefferson Parish Sheriff's Department offers a nine-hour course to teach a druggist when to fire, when not to fire and how to hit what he fires at.

So far nearly 60 pharmacists have completed the course, a mere fraction of the druggists who are armed.

"We have about 750 pharmacists in the metropolitan New Orleans area," said Nolan Banneaux, head of the Pharmacists Against Crime. "Conservatively, I'd say 50 per cent of them are armed."

Fifteen pharmacists and three grocers joined Agochukwa for the most recent course at the Jefferson Parish Sheriff's Training Academy, where Lt. Bob Lindsay explained its purpose.

"Statistically speaking, we know that druggists and store owners are targets," said Lindsay. "You stand as great a chance of being shot as I do."

"What we're trying to do here is to improve your odds."

Lindsay said there has been only one armed robbery of a drugstore in the month since the first course was offered, adding that local television coverage of the course may have been a deterrent.

In the first three hours, deputies explained the legal ramifications of shooting another human being and the situations in which a store owner would be justified in shooting.

Carrying a concealed weapon is illegal in Louisiana, but there is no prohibition against keeping a pistol in one's home, his car or his place of business, said Sgt. Vic Schillect.

The next two days were spent on a pistol range where the druggists were trained first in target shooting, then in combat shooting. They receive the same training as deputies, said Lindsay, but receive only one-third the pistol range practice.

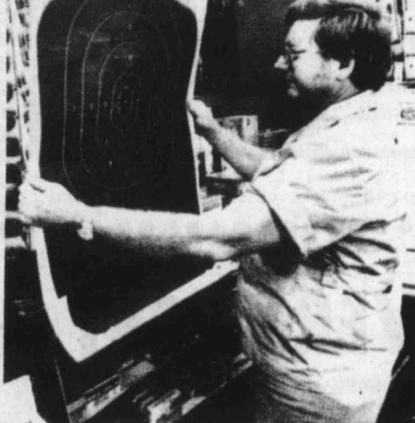

Deputies handed a .357 Magnum to Agochukwa and showed the stocky pharmacist how to load the revolver with stubby silver bullets, hold it unwaveringly in two hands and fire it at the silhouette of a man.

Agochukwa crouched nervously and blazed away at the target, first from 15 yards, then from seven yards. Bullets splayed around the edge of the figure.

"I was very good with a bow and arrow in Nigeria, but it will not do much good against a gun," said Agochukwa, 30, who came from Nigeria four years ago to become a pharmacist here.

"I shall return until I am qualified with this pistol."

Sixteen of the 19 druggists and grocers qualified with their weapons, scoring better than 105 of a possible 150 points.

HANGING PROOF — Pharmacist Jim Hunnicutt hangs up his target in his New Orleans drug store to prove that he is qualified with a handgun. Hunnicutt is among those who have completed a shooting course offered by the Jefferson Parish Sheriff's Department and the organization of Pharmacists Against Crime in an effort to thwart armed robberies in the New Orleans area.

Absenteeism Noted By VFW

The high incidence of absenteeism was noted at Tuesday night's meeting of VFW Post 2013. Many members are reported sick and some of those are hospitalized.

Those present went ahead and conducted the meeting because enough were present to fill in for missing officers. Among other items, the spring convention scheduled to be held in Amarillo was discussed.

The post will make a renewed effort to collect dues from delinquent members. New members are also being sought by the club and can make application for membership at any time.

Next regularly scheduled meeting of the post will be Jan. 6.

Visitors from Post 4372, Odessa, were present for the meeting.

Lint Warehouse At Lamesa Oil Mill Destroyed

LAMESA — A lint warehouse at the Lamesa Cotton Oil Mill was destroyed by fire Monday in a blaze that firemen battled and patrolled almost 24 hours.

An estimated 1,200 bales of mote cotton went up in flames, along with the building. No damage estimates were available Tuesday, according to Allen

Herzer, mill manager. Herzer termed the building a total loss. When the four units of the Lamesa Fire Department responded to the alarm at 10:49 a.m., flames already were shooting through the roof. High winds fanned the fire as firemen fought the flames for about six hours. One fireman estimated it took four hours to get the blaze under control. The fire-fighters managed to keep the flames from spreading to a nearby building loaded with flammable chemicals. Fire officials said cause of the blaze was unknown. There were no injuries.

Give A Holiday Gift From Your Kitchen

A gift from your own kitchen is something no one else can give. Even though the holiday season is the busiest of all, using a convenient baking mix will help you with your gifts.

Bake-It-All Mix combines flour, salt, baking powder and pre-creamed shortening in proportions that are right for all kinds of baking from cookies to quick breads. Once made, the mix can be kept in the cupboard ready to use.

An afternoon spent baking will yield a variety of tasty treats for wrapping and delivering to friends or for offering to drop-in guests.

Kids of all ages welcome a platter of peanut butter criss-cross cookies and frosted chocolate drops. For a heartier cookie-type treat, bake a pan of gumdrop bars or gingerbread. Either one can be cut into squares and packed into a pretty tin for gift giving.

A loaf of date-apple bread on a little cutting board makes a tasty, use-again gift. Attractive choices for giving or serving are a fruit-filled Danish-style coffee cake or a raisin-studded yeast batter coffee cake. All are made with the Bake-It-All Mix.

BAKE-IT-ALL

9 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1 tsp. salt
¼ cup (4 tsp.) double-acting baking powder

Combine sifted flour, salt and baking powder. Stir well. Sift into a large bowl or pan. Add shortening. Use a pastry blender to distribute shortening throughout. Dry ingredients until mixture resembles coarse cornmeal and small peas. The Bake-It-All Mix is now ready to use or store in a canister in your cupboard shelf. A cool area is desired.

Finely chopped nutmeats
Nonpareils

Beat together butter, shortening and sugars until creamy. Add eggs and vanilla; beat until light and fluffy. Sift together flour, soda and salt; add to creamed mixture and mix well. Stir in oats. Cover and chill dough.

Shape dough to form 1-inch balls. Place 2 inches apart on ungreased cookie sheets. Using a custard cup which has been greased and dipped in sugar, flatten each ball to about ¼-inch thickness. Sprinkle with chopped nutmeats and nonpareils. Bake in preheated moderate oven (350 degrees) 8 to 10 minutes. Immediately remove from cookie sheet with spatula and cool on wire racks. Makes about 6 ½ dozen.

GIFTS GOOD ENOUGH TO EAT — Delight friends on your Christmas shopping list with a gift from your kitchen. All these treats are made from one basic mix. From top right, clockwise are gingerbread, a cookie platter featuring frosted chocolate drop cookies, Danish-style coffee cake, cinnamon-raisin yeast batter coffee cake, gumdrop bars and date-apple bread.

Dear Abby

DEAR ABBY: I've read you for years but this is the first time I've ever written.

I am a 24-year-old girl who is average in every way except one: I stand 6 feet in my stocking feet!

I have many girl friends and some fellows who are friendly, but men never consider me a serious candidate for a romantic partner. Even guys who are taller than I am treat me like I'm another guy.

When I meet new people, I feel that they accept me — until I stand up and they see how tall I am.

Abby, I know I'm attractive and have a pleasing personality, but I'm getting nowhere.

I am becoming resentful and bitter, and don't know what to do about it.

TOO D. . . TALL

DEAR TALL: You can turn what you think is a liability into an asset. But first you must start with the top of your lovely height — your mind — because that's where the problem is.

Your self-image is negative, and it reflects in your attitude toward other people.

When you walk in a room, walk tall and smile. Don't grab the nearest chair. Stand and greet everyone you meet with dignity and grace. Whatever you do, don't slump!

When you sit, sit tall and gracefully with your long legs together.

And don't come on too strong with men. Believe me, they'll notice you.

Wear tailored clothes, and don't be afraid to wear bright colors.

Forget your height and others will. You will be judged on how you treat people, not on how high you're stacked.

Now get going and just watch the effect you'll have on others.

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed, envelope, please.

For Abby's booklet, "How to Have a Lovely Wedding," send $1 to Abigail Van Buren, 132 Lasky Dr., Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212. Please enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped (20c) envelope.

CALLING ALL HOMEMAKERS Brought to you by Ted Hatfield

"CHILD-PROOFING" is not yet built into today's carpets, which can be made mothproof, static-free, sunfast and mildew-proof. Easy cleaning and stain-resistance are a big plus, of course, where children are wreaking their normal havoc in the home.

The presence of active children and pets should be a factor in any carpet choice. Medium tones rather than very light or very deep colors might be advisable, helping to make the carpet-look soil-free between cleanings. Or specify a carpet fiber that is known for soil-resistance, such as a treated nylon pile.

An even better choice would be a multi-color carpet, popular today and available in an ever-wider range of mixes. The combination of two or more colors tends to "hide" spots and soil, the eye being deceived by the varied shadings in the carpet. Patterned carpets also tend to hide soil, and are available even in relatively low-priced prints.

An olefin, or indoor-outdoor type carpet makes a good budget choice for hard wear. A "budget" carpet, however, isn't always the wisest choice for wear. Remember, the more yarn that is packed into a square inch of carpet (its density), the more it will wear well . . . and better carpets offer this greater density of construction.

Let us advise you on the choice of the right carpet for your family's needs . . . for tomorrow as well as today. We have the selection to give you the best choice at the best price.

Come in for a free gift, compliments of our carpet department.

Christmas Parties Slated By Sorority

Plans for three Christmas parties were completed by members of the Coahoma Alpha Beta Omicron chapter of Beta Sigma Phi at the Tuesday evening meeting in the home of Mrs. Joe Ogle.

A Christmas party for members and their husbands will begin at 6:30 p.m. Saturday at the Spanish Inn. Guests will meet after the dinner in the home of Mrs. Jeananne Gafford. White elephant gifts will be exchanged.

Children of sorority members will be treated to a party at 3 p.m., Dec. 14 at The Playhouse. Santa Claus will visit with the children during the party.

Secret sisters will exchange gifts during the Christmas party planned for the next meeting at 7:30 p.m., Dec. 16 in the home of Mrs. Jeananne Gafford.

During the meeting, Mrs. Mary Brooks presented the club with the charter.

Mrs. Genie Carroll read a letter of thanks from the Veterans Administration Hospital for the chapter's refreshment project for residents of the hospital.

Mrs. Karen Frette and Mrs. Jane Doane reported that the Thanksgiving baskets were delivered to shut-in families in Big Spring.

Chapter members voted to send a contribution to Girlstown at Whiteface.

The Valentine Ball decoration committee will meet on Jan. 3 at the Dora Roberts Community Center.

Piano Teachers Forum Hears Concert Tape

Members of the Piano Teachers Forum met in the home of Mrs. Marguerite Hyden on Monday evening.

Mrs. Mary Skaliky reported on the Lili Kraus Master Class held recently. For the program, members listened to a recording of the last concert of Dinu Lipatti. The Rumanian pianist performed in September, 1960 at the Festival International in Europe a few months before his death.

The next student recital sponsored by the Piano Teachers Forum will be Jan. 25.

The next meeting will be at 8 p.m., Jan 12 in the home of Mrs. Terry Newman.

Whittens Present Religious Program

Members of the 1955 Hyperion Club met in the home of Mrs. Jimmy Morehead on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. James Owens and Mrs. James Watson served as cohostesses.

Mrs. James Cowan introduced the program "A New Life", a character sketch with drama, music and art by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Whitten and their accompanist, Mrs. William McRee. Mrs. Whitten is an art teacher at Howard College.

She portrayed Mary, the mother of Jesus. As his mother she related the events of her son's life, culminating in the establishment of the Christian faith, giving all mankind hope for "a new life." At intervals in the story of the life of Jesus, Whitten, music director at First Baptist Church, provided vocal solos accompanied by Mrs. McRee.

A painting of "The New Jerusalem" done by Mrs. Whitten established the setting for the characterization.

Mrs. C. W. Mahoney reported on the club's Potton House project.

The next meeting will be on Jan. 6 at the State Hospital.

Mrs. James Baum will present the program "Getting to Know You and Mental Health."

WWI Groups Will Meet

Veterans of World War I Barracks 1474 and its Ladies Auxiliary will meet at 10 a.m. Saturday at Kentwood Center.

Following a business meeting, a covered dish luncheon, games and singing are planned.

All veterans of WWI, their wives, widows and daughters are urged to attend.

'Flat Sentence' Plan Picking Up Support

Concepts about penalties for crime may be changing, Richard Palmer told the Downtown Lions Club at its Wednesday noon meeting at the Settles.

The broad latitude of the Texas penal code has resulted in such disparity and inconsistencies in sentencing that there is increased advocacy of a "flat sentence" plan.

President Ford made this suggestion for federal crimes after the recent FBI annual statistics showed an over-all increase of 18 per cent in crime.

"There are three viewpoints on the objective of the penal system," Palmer, a former assistant district attorney, said. "These are rehabilitation, deterrence and punishment. More and more, even among the liberal penalists, there is a growing feeling that very few prisoners are ever rehabilitated. Consequently, there is a shift in the direction of the philosophy of punishment. The proposed flat sentence is one evidence of this."

At least two states are making some experiments in this direction, and Texas may be able to get some reading idea of the practicality from these, he suggested. As an example of the lack of consistency in sentencing in Texas now, he recalled a murder-with-malice case which drew a recommendation of probation as against a $60 first offense of theft which got a young man a three-year prison term.

Downtown Lions, led by Verl Green, will operate the Salvation Army Kettles this Saturday at Fourth and Main. They also will be hosts for the Christmas party Dec. 16 on Unit 9 at Big Spring State Hospital.

DOG REVIVED — This small dog was trapped in a burning house in Regina, Canada, when firemen arrived. Firemen Alfred Noels found the animal overcome by smoke but a couple of drags on an oxygen mask, designed for humans, soon had it back to near normal.

Alabama May Prohibit Sales Of Some Stock

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — The Alabama Securities Commission has begun hearings for 42 oil and gas companies prohibited from selling securities in the state because they failed to register their stock.

Commission Director Tom Krebs said that no final action was taken, however, as four of the companies appeared Tuesday to ask that the temporary injunctions be lifted.

Krebs said the commission ordered two of the companies, Trinidad Petroleum Co. of Birmingham and the Hughes Group of Phoenix, Ariz., to submit further evidence in support of their defense.

He said the other two, Enntex and LaPrada Oil & Gas Co. of Dallas, Tex., were allowed a one-month extension to complete preparations of their cases.

Krebs said that the commission is cooperating with other southern and southwestern states and with the Securities and Exchange Commission in cracking down on the oil and gas companies that attempt to elude state registration laws.

Under state law, said Krebs, the companies, mostly independent or "wildcat" operations, are allowed to conduct their sales campaigns without state supervision if they sell less than $250,000 worth of securities.

Although they still must register with the state, many of the out-of-state firms have been reluctant to send representatives to Alabama to sign the necessary papers and post bond, he said.

Woman Held In Traffic Death

HURST, Tex. (AP) — A 52-year-old woman is being held here in connection with the traffic death of David Paul Pempell, 20.

A police spokesman said the accident occurred Monday night.

Pempell was struck by a car as he rode his motorcycle and was dragged 400 feet underneath the automobile that struck him. He was dead on arrival at Hurst-Eules-Bedford Hospital.

Court Rules Protest Invalid

AUSTIN (AP) — A West Texas motor bus company that had temporarily suspended its operations had no right to protest another company's application to serve the same area, the 3rd Court of Civil Appeals ruled today.

The ruling was a victory for Taos Transportation Co. over Permian Basin Coaches, Inc., which had operated service between Midland-Odessa, Odessa-Presidio and McCamey-San Angelo.

Permian filed suit to set aside a Railroad Commission order approving Taos' application to run a motor bus line in West Texas after the commission heard the application on its non-contested docket.

At the time of its July 1974 protest, Permian was on a voluntary suspension from business. It later reinstated all of its certificates to operate except one.

Communications Hall Of Famer

LUBBOCK — L. U. Kaiser of Houston, printing and direct mail advertising industries executive, has been voted into the Texas Tech University Mass Communications Hall of Fame Award.

Kaiser, chairman of the Board of Directors of the Premier Company, will be inducted into the Hall of Fame at noon, Thursday, Feb. 19. Advertising will be emphasized on that day during Mass Communications Week at Texas Tech. Kaiser parlayed a borrowed $1,000 into the largest business of its kind in the nation.

Heritage Center Lures Lady Bird

LUBBOCK — Mrs. Lady Bird Johnson, widow of the late President Lyndon B. Johnson, will participate in the dedication of the Ranching Heritage Center next July at Texas Tech University.

The formal opening of the center is an official Bicentennial event. The 12-acre outdoor exhibit of authentic ranch structures depicts the history of ranching in the American West. Its completion date is set for July 1, but already more than 50,000 have visited the Center on Sunday afternoon tours and special occasions.

Auction To Aid Boys' Ranch

On Saturday, Jan. 17, a regional farmer's auction will be held at Texas Boys' Ranch located 2½ miles east of Lubbock on Liberty Road. Both farm machinery, tools, and livestock will be on sale with the Ken Bozeman and Jack Aull Auction Service donating their auctioneer and clerical fees to the boy's ranch.

More information may be had by writing Texas Boys' Ranch, P.O. Box 6040, Lubbock 79413, or calling (806) 747-3187.

Rig Count Up

The rate of oil well drilling increase in Texas is about twice that of the nation as a whole. The Dec. 1 report of Hughes Tool Company to the International Association of Drilling Contractors showed 1,800 rigs turning in the United States, a gain of 169 or 10.37 per cent. The Texas portion of that was 708, up 123, or 21 per cent.

BY MEASURES TAKEN TO UPHOLD CONVICTIONS State Appeals Judge Embarrassed By Colleagues

AUSTIN (AP) — A judge of the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals said in a blistering dissent today that he sometimes was embarrassed by the lengths to which his colleagues go to uphold convictions.

Judge Truman Roberts, who used to be a trial court judge in a rural Central Texas area, made his remarks in the case of Terry Lynn Coleman.

The court upheld Coleman's five-year sentence for burglary to commit theft by a 3-2 vote.

The court majority affirmed the conviction because Coleman's brief was filed a day late. But in view of Roberts' dissent, the majority opinion by Judge Leon Douglas went into the details of the case and said it would be difficult for a jury to reach any other verdict but guilty.

FOR BEST RESULTS USE HERALD CLASSIFIED ADS

"This case is affirmed because the appellant's brief was filed one day late... The lengths to which this court will go for the sole purpose of affirming convictions sometimes astounds and embarrasses me. Resort is had to the minutest procedural technicalities. And even-handed justice under law is at best a fortuitous by-product," Roberts said.

He said the majority reached its decision "in blatant disregard of" a state law prohibiting the court from dismissing or refusing to consider an appeal because of failure to file a brief on time.

"A majority of this court, constituting itself as a three-man legislature, repeal this statute without even the courtesy of an acknowledgement. Texas' other legislature has also provided us with the following statute: 'No affirmation or reversal of a case shall be determined on mere technicalities or on technical errors in the preparation and filing of the record on appeal,'" Roberts said.

He added that the court considers the state's briefs, even when filed late.

"Is this even-handed justice under law?" Roberts asked.

Roberts said the case should have been reversed because the judge did not instruct the jury on circumstantial evidence.

He said Texas was the only state that uses the "doctrine of close juxtaposition" which says that if the facts proved are in a close relationship to the main issue, then no charge on circumstantial evidence is required.

Upset After Local 'Roll'

Lloyd Jenkins, Monahans, was a little bit upset with a passenger that he was driving around Big Spring Tuesday night.

Jenkins was found in the middle of a street and taken to a local hospital. He told police that a passenger in his car rolled him out in the street and drove off in his tan and dark green 1974 car.

TEXAN TROUBLES — With many of El Paso, Texas' half-million people driving to New Mexico national forests to visit and hunt, one disgruntled New Mexican (possibly afraid there wouldn't be any deer left for him), planted his home-made sign at the state line near Anthony, New Mexico alongside Interstate 10. Fortunately for most tourists during this holiday season, New Mexico's official welcome still stands.

Sirens Announce Crane

BOSQUE DEL APACHE, N.M. (AP) — A goose hunt was interrupted by a blast of sirens when a rare whooping crane flew into the Bosque del Apache National Wildlife Refuge.

The crane, a member of an endangered species, was accompanied by foster parent sandhill cranes. They flew into the refuge last weekend after cold weather forced them out of the Monte Vista, Colo., area.

An elaborate siren system has been set up to warn hunters if a crane enters the area, refuge officials said. The hunt is stopped until the bird moves on.

Officials said two whooping crane young have landed on the Bosque, and two more flew into the Middle Rio Grande Valley on their way south.

U.S. Fish and Wildlife Officials said eggs from the main crane flock were taken to Idaho and hatched last summer.

Six of the young whoopers left the Grays Lake Wildlife Refuge in Idaho, and four have made it to New Mexico.

Arson Said Fastest Growing Crime In Texas

AUSTIN (AP) — A spokesman for the insurance industry says that arson for profit is one of the fastest growing crimes in Texas. "Last year in Texas there were 2,202 incidents of arson compared to 1,658 arson incidents in 1973," said Jerry F. Johns, president of the Southwestern Insurance Information Service. "Arson is one of the most despicable crimes Texans must suffer. Innocent lives are often taken and the property damage runs into hundreds of millions of dollars every year. "The sluggish economy and the large number of business failures may be one factor contributing to the number of arson cases," Johns said in a statement. Johns said one factor that could help reduce the number of arson cases in Texas "would be a substantial increase in the number of professionally trained arson squads. Unless arson squads become a reality, all areas of Texas could be facing an arson problem as serious as the inner part of some larger cities."

JAWS AT WORK — With the influence of the motion picture "Jaws" in many fields, Joe Bell, a heavy equipment operator from Fort Worth decided to carry the theme into his work. He painted eyes and teeth on his bulldozer and put "Jaws Sr." to work on a demolition job in Dallas. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Recruiting In Lamesa

The general was scheduled to speak to Lamesa High School seniors and several clubs during his stay. He will be in Lubbock Saturday and Sunday to address a Texas Army Guard area recruiting school at the Ramada Inn South. Gen. Scott, of Austin, was appointed assistant adjutant general of Texas in 1971.

Optimists Map Yule Tree Sales

Optimists have begun their annual sale of Christmas trees. The Hi-Noon Club has had to shift its location and will be running its tree lot at the corner of East 4th and Austin. Instead of sponsoring the monthly motocross (motorcycle races), the Hi-Noon group will concentrate on the tree sales. The Morning Optimists have their lot at the usual place at 10th and Gregg Streets. All net proceeds, in either case, go to youth and humanitarian projects.

In Government, Change Is Not Always Reform

OMAR BURLESON, M. C. 17th District, Texas

WASHINGTON, D. C. — The word "reform" connotes a change for the better. From a moral standpoint, most of us have plenty of room to make changes in conduct, thoughts, and actions for our own betterment. In the political and governmental sense, however, change for change sake is not necessarily improvement. In the case of our tax laws, fairness, justice and equity are the laudable goals sought. How these ends may be achieved is a matter of opinion and there are opinions and honest judgments galore.

It has been said many times that there is no such thing as a "just" tax. Perhaps there is not. From the beginning of the graduated income tax in 1914, the concept has been challenged as unfair and unjust. During the history of the system, numerous exceptions in the form of allowances and deductions have been added to the Internal Revenue Code. What has become one person's "loophole" is another's incentive to perform in a way intended for the good of the economy as a whole or a contribution to our institutions.

"Loopholes," tax "shelters" or "havens" are condemned by many who have none and justified by those who qualify for them. Of the many, many exceptions, a few can be cited as better-known examples. The $750 allowance for a minor child may not be favored by those who have no children. There are those who would eliminate the deduction for charitable and educational donations with the idea that the government can do it better than the individual. The investment tax credit for incentive for businesses to expand plants and productive capacity providing more jobs, producing more goods and bringing in more taxes is a "loophole" in the opinion of those who feel that the government can furnish the employment and direct benefits.

Wealthy investors often hold sizable investments in municipal bonds. Municipal bonds are tax free because they are issued at a lower rate by the towns and cities of the nation. A 7 or 8 per cent bond, the interest on which is taxable to the investor, may have a rate of 4 or 5 per cent as a municipal issue. Citizens who voted these bonds have the benefit of paying them off at the lower rate. Some advocate that the tax laws be changed to tax these securities which, of course, will mean local taxpayers will pay a higher rate.

The oil depletion allowance has been a target of the reformers for years. This incentive to explore with high-risk capital will discourage the exploration so sorely needed. To make matters worse, it is now

Ambulances Discussed

County Judge Bill Tune and L. A. Hiltbrunner are now in the process of choosing between a van-type vehicle costing $15,748, and a modular-type vehicle, costing $17,848. These prices do not include the cost of radio equipment which will be installed in the vehicles after purchase.

The commission will authorize purchase of 13 new ambulances at its next meeting Dec. 10. Of these, the city of Big Spring and Howard County will each receive one vehicle. The new environmental protection system, according to Union Carbide's plant manager, Bill McManus, is like nature's own method for handling wastes. The process water is collected and pumped into an evaporation pond, where the liquid waste materials are oxidized to harmless carbon dioxide. The hot climate evaporates the water from the pond, and with the help of aerating pumps to speed the process, leaves only minute quantities of solids behind.

Using Nature's Own Method

BROWNSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — The warm, dry climate of this Gulf Coast area is being used to create a wastewater treatment plant that employs solar evaporation to achieve absolute zero-discharge. This totally eliminates pollution from the process waters used in making chemicals.
