"MY TURN"

By Carol Ellis

WHY IS IT THAT, in these days of equal rights for men and women, a King still beats a Queen in playing cards?

WHY IS IT THAT when you are traveling down the two-lane highway in front of an 18-wheeler, he's barreling down on your bumper at 79 mph and threatening to climb directly over your vehicle if he can't get around? But when YOU get behind an 18-wheeler on the two-lane, then he's tooting along at about 42 mph with bumper-to-bumper traffic coming toward you in the other lane.

WHY IS IT THAT the Texas Rangers batting team functions like well-oiled machinery ONLY during the games when Nolan Ryan is NOT pitching?

WHY IS IT THAT you never hear about a ship load of corn spilling tons of that product into the ocean (the fish would probably enjoy it)? You only hear about ships full of oil having these major spills and ruining the waters and marine life.

WHY IS IT THAT daughters are always flattered when you tell them they are just like their fathers, but if you tell a girl that she is just like her mother, she'll run screaming to the nearest therapist?

WHY IS IT THAT President Bush has just nominated Clarence Thomas, a black person, to fill the vacancy on the Supreme Court so as to keep all the minorities happy, and now the NAACP has announced that they are against this fellow's appointment? There's just no pleasing some people!

WHY IS IT THAT June bugs never show up until July in this part of the country?

WHY IS IT THAT, just at the most exciting, exhilarating, stupendous moment in the movie, your tiny toddler wants to go to the restroom? Your little one will naturally want to perform more bodily functions in direct proportion to how disgustingly filthy this public facility is at the time. Thank goodness for video taped movies where you can just press the pause button and take the kid to his own bathroom.

WHY IS IT THAT just about the time you've given up on the rain and have treated your lawn and garden to a good, long, expensive soaking with the hose, you guessed it, we get a nice, long, FREE soaking rain? (I'm sure this probably works the same way for farmers.)

WHY IS IT THAT when you finally get up the nerve to talk to your adolescent about the birds and the bees, you discover that he/she already knows everything you've always wondered about but were afraid to ask?

WHY IS IT THAT while many Americans are out of work and businesses are failing left and right, the House of Reps voted themselves a nice pay raise, followed by the Millionaires' Club (otherwise known as the Senate), who voted to increase their pay by 25 per cent right in the middle of a recession? Monkey see, monkey do! The Texas legislature then followed suit, so that our state and federal congressfolks now earn five times more salary than the average working man and his wife, both of whom must work in order to keep their bills paid.

WHY IS IT THAT the probability of someone watching what you are doing, is directly proportional to the stupidity of your action?

WHY IS IT THAT if a television program shows any sign of redeeming social values, the network powers-that-be choose to cancel said show and replace it with some mindless bit of fluff destined to turn the human brain into pea soup?

WHY IS IT THAT just about the time you get all the answers figured out, they change the questions?

UNCLE AUSTIN SAYS: It's really inflation when a man has to pay five dollars for a two-dollar haircut that he used to get for one dollar back when he had hair.

TROPHY WINNER...Mike Hanes poses proudly with his 1946 Chevrolet pickup that captured first place in its class at Clovis last weekend. Hanes won a nice trophy, displayed on the hood of the pickup, in the 1946-58 division. He will have his rig in the Dimmitt parade and show this weekend.

School Board Has Session August 12

The Board of Trustees of the Friona Independent School District met in regular session August 12.

Highlights of the meeting included:

*Accepted gasoline bids for the 1991-92 school year. The bid was awarded to Kendrick Oil Company. Bid selection was based on the low bid submitted.

*Canvassed the results of the Parmer County Education District election conducted August 10.

*Set cafeteria prices for the 1991-92 school year. The prices for students were not changed. They are: breakfast, K-12, 50 cents; lunch, K-5, $1.10; grades 6-8, $1.15; grades 9-12, $1.25.

Adult cafeteria prices were adjusted somewhat. They will be: breakfast, 70 cents; school personnel lunches: $1.75; other adult lunches, $2.50.

In other business, the board signed a letter of engagement with Brown, Graham and Company to conduct an audit for the year ending August 31, 1991.

They accepted the certified values for the Friona ISD from the Parmer County Appraisal District. The values are currently certified at $157,398,517.

Entries Underway For 1991 L'il Miss

Entries are currently being accepted for the 1991 Little Miss Friona Pageant, which will be held Tuesday, September 10, 1991 at the Friona High School Auditorium.

Contestants must be five years of age on or before September 1, 1991, and not older than six years.

An entry fee of $15 will be charged. The entry fee and form

The board then conducted a work session on the 1991-92 school budget.

Church Sets Coat Drive For Kids

The W.M.U. organization at Calvary Baptist Church, in cooperating with Friona Independent School District nurse Tommie Mercer, is sponsoring a drive to secure coats and underwear for small children.

"We particularly need the smaller size coats, ten and under. We can also use some small size jeans, and good underwear in the smaller sizes," said Bessie Holt, spokesperson.

The school nurse uses some of the clothing when children at school have accidents. She also distributes the coats where they are needed, Mrs. Holt said.

The clothing can be washed and mended, such as buttons added. Those having items to donate are asked to call Mrs. Holt at 247-3852, or the church at 247-3000, and the items can be picked up if need be.

School Schedule Is Given

The registration schedule for students new to the Friona Independent School District has been released by Superintendent Hal Ratcliff.

New students in primary and elementary schools may register from August 19-23 at their respective schools.

New students in junior high and high school may register from August 19-23 at their respective schools.

All students are encouraged to bring their Social Security cards when they register for the fall semester.

The first day of classes in Friona is August 26.

Thursday, August 22 has been set for the 1991-92 Primary School Orientation.

This meeting is for all students and their parents of kindergarten and first grade age.

It will begin at 7 p.m. in the Elementary School Cafeteria on Thursday, the 22nd. Valuable information will be given which will help to make the 1991-92 school year a successful one for everyone.

Contact school principal, Tony Igo, for further information.

Chamber Cancels Pageant

After much discussion, the Friona Chamber of Commerce & Agriculture voted this week not to hold the Miss Friona pageant this year due to the lack of entries.

"The board regrets this decision, especially for the young ladies who expressed an interest, but felt it was not feasible to hold a pageant this year," said Terri Outland, executive vice president of the Chamber.

At the same time, a new event has been added to this year's Maize Days celebration—a bed race. The race will be held in downtown Friona on parade day, and is open to any club, business, group or organization.

Organization Will Meet

The Chieftain and Squaw Booster organization will hold its first meeting for the new season on Monday, August 19 at 8 p.m. in the High School Cafeteria.

The group will be discussing possible fund raisers and projects for the coming 1991-92 season and will hold election of officers.

All who are interested in assisting the teams and parents of children who will be participating are urged to attend this meeting.

Voters Cast Ballots In School Issues

With a turnout of only about 12 per cent of the voters, local and county voters went to the polls last Saturday to cast their ballots in what was termed "one of the most confusing issues" that voters have faced in quite some time.

In the statewide issue, Proposition 1, to provide for exemptions to taxes by the County Education districts, county residents narrowly favored the issue, 215-210.

On Proposition 2, which would have provided bonds for college loans, county voters went against the issue, 245-170.

In the County Education District vote, county voters voted in favor of the two additional exemptions, and against the personal property tax.

On Proposition 1, (20% property tax exemption), county totals were 245 in favor and 179 against. Friona's totals were 132 for, 88 against, but Bovina went against the proposition, 52-23.

On Proposition 2, (Exemption for Elderly and Disabled), county totals were 239 for, 163 against. Friona's totals were 144 for, 81 against, but Bovina voted 50 against, 25 for.

On Proposition 3, (Taxation of Personal Property), the county voted 232 against and 167 in favor. Friona's totals were 138 against, 85 in favor; while Bovina voted 47 in favor to 29 against.

"It was one of the most confusing issues we have ever had," said County Clerk Bonnie Warren. She said the county's turnout was about usual for an amendment election, which isn't noted for high turnouts. "In some counties they only had a nine per cent turnout," she said.

New Manager Told For Local Hospital

Phil Langston, who has been the local administrator at Parmer County Community Hospital for Preferred Management Corp. for just over a year, is being transferred back to Oklahoma, it was announced this week.

Langston is being replaced by Bill Neely, a native of Lake Whitney, who has been with the Preferred Corp. for about a year. He comes to Friona from Lindsey, Oklahoma, where he worked with the hospital there.

Prior to his stint at Lindsey, Neely was employed by the Hall County Hospital in Memphis, Texas, on the eastern edge of the Panhandle, for a period of two years.

"I have enjoyed my work in Friona. It's a good community, which has shown overwhelming support for its hospital. We have excellent physicians in Friona, and a good board of directors, and the future of the hospital looks great," Langston said.

Langston has been associated with the local hospital ever since the board of directors became associated with the Preferred Management Corp.

He will be transferring with the company to Shawnee, Oklahoma, which is in Central Oklahoma.

Commenting on a rumor that was circulating this week that the "hospital had been sold," Langston said it was definitely untrue. The hospital's affiliation with the hospital district is imminent, so that had to just be a rumor," he concluded.

NEW MACHINE IN USE...The new nurse's call system was put into use this week at Parmer County Community Hospital. Proceeds from last year's Project Christmas Card went to buy the machine. Nurse Sue Smith demonstrates the machine, which is a vast improvement.

MANAGEMENT CHANGE...Bill Neely, seated, will be the new local manager for Preferred Management Corp., which oversees Parmer County Community Hospital. Phil Langston, right, is being transferred by the corporation to Shawnee, Oklahoma.

Hospital Report

Parmer County Community Hospital--Bessie Webb, Bovina.

T for TEXAS

by T. Lindsay Baker

One of the beauty spots of San Antonio today, the San Antonio River, has been a "tourist attraction" for decades. The present-day "River Walk" is bounded by carefully groomed parks, restaurants and boutiques, but historically the stream was equally inviting.

Jean Louis Berlandier, a naturalist who journeyed through the region between 1826 and 1834, noted that the San Antonio River "emerges from cavernous limestone" in springs to create a river "some forty feet in width and endowed with quite a strong current." After watering the town and missions at San Antonio, Berlandier reported that the stream joined others and flowed on to merge with the Guadalupe just before flowing into the Gulf of Mexico.

Another visitor to San Antonio, Mary Austin Holley, was impressed most with the spring-fed source of the San Antonio. "From a concentration of innumerable springs, which unite their rivulets within a few yards of their fountains," she wrote in 1836, "it bursts forth at once a river, and its crystal waters flow off with a rapid current over a bed of limestone."

Today protected from overflowing in downtown districts by flood control devices, historically the river rarely presented dangers to merchants and residents along its banks. Since the river sprang from the earth at springs, it had only a limited drainage area, and thus caused comparatively little flooding.

German geologist, Ferdinand Roemer, who visited San Antonio in 1846, also observed of the upper San Antonio that "since here near its springs, it never rises, but maintains an equal stand the year around, the gardens in the rear of the houses extend to the water's edge." The scene seems as beautiful, if not more so, than today's "River Walk."

Roemer was even more impressed by the aquatic expertise of San Antonio residents who regularly swam in the river just behind downtown commercial buildings. "It is quite a startling spectacle to see here just above the bridge in the heart of the city, a number of ...women and girls bathing entirely naked," he wrote. The German man of science candidly noted, "Unconcerned about our presence, they continued their exercises while laughing and chattering, showing themselves perfect masters of the art of swimming."

Standing on the bridge, Roemer enjoyed watching the aquacade that went on beneath him: "Several times a few of them were carried near us by the stream and then they would dive and reappear again quite a distance below the bridge. If this were done to hide themselves from our view," he observed, "it was the wrong thing to do, for the water was so clear that one could see the smallest pebble at the bottom." Roemer was probably smiling.

Friona Ford Dealer Sells Style, Safety Features

A customer may consider style, performance and value important factors when looking at a new car, but air-bags and other safety items have become equally important, according to Terry Wilcox of Friona Motors in Friona.

"It's a given fact that today's customers want styling and value for their money, but people also expect a certain level of safety to be built into any car they might own," Wilcox said.

"Ford Motor Company has sold more cars equipped with air-bags than any other manufacturer in the world," the Friona dealer added. "More than 1.5-million Ford vehicles equipped with air-bags are on the road today."

Wilcox points out that an air-bag system with properly worn safety belts helps provide important additional protection for drivers in moderate-to-severe frontal collisions.

"Even in vehicles not fitted with air-bags, it is very important for all occupants to wear lap-and-shoulder belts to help keep them in place during a crash," Wilcox says. "A belt system also can keep vehicle occupants in place during a quick steering maneuver to avoid an accident."

Ford's new 1992 Crown Victoria sedans have a standard driver's side air-bag and offer an optional passenger side air-bag as well.

"But safety isn't limited to top-of-the-line models," says Wilcox. "A driver's side air-bag is standard equipment on our sporty Mustang and is an option on the compact Tempo sedan as well."

According to Wilcox, Taurus, one of the best-selling models in the Ford line-up, also comes with a driver's side air-bag as standard equipment. Like other Ford passenger cars, Taurus models also have steel side-guard beams in the doors, a safety-designed roof structure, flame-resistant interior material and child-safety latches on the rear doors.

The 1991 Aerostar and Econoline vans and wagons scheduled for introduction this fall will come with a standard driver's side air-bag as well. The new Econoline will be the first full-size van or wagon in the industry to be equipped with one of these safety devices.

"An anti-lock braking system is another valuable safety feature to consider," Wilcox says. "Four-wheel anti-lock brakes use a system of electronic sensors to detect when a wheel is approaching lockup. At that point, the system automatically cycles the brakes up to ten times a second--far faster than a driver could do manually--to help maintain steering control and bring the vehicle to a straight-line stop on slippery surfaces."

Four-wheel anti-lock disc brakes are standard equipment or available as an option on the Ford

Taurus, Probe, Crown Victoria and Thunderbird. Rear-wheel anti-lock braking systems that employ mechanical sensors are standard equipment on all Ford Bronco, Explorer, Aerostar, Ranger, Econoline and F-Series light trucks.

Irrigation Well Checks Available

The Soil Conservation Service is currently checking irrigation wells with an ultrasonic flow meter.

This device is clamped onto a pipe either at the well, on aluminum flow line, or at a pivot.

It measures the velocity of water with a system of bouncing sound waves through the water. This flow meter has the capability of measuring several wells at one time. It is currently the most accurate system available.

The machine even indicates what per cent accuracy it shows on each well check reading. The Parmer County Soil and Water Conservation District purchased this unit last September for use anywhere in the county. Over 150 wells have been checked in the last 12 months.

The average output of all gas and electric motors tested, excluding submersible pumps is 390 gallons per minute. According to Thomas Reed, District Conservationist, this figure of 390 gallons per minute does not necessarily indicate what the average well in the county will produce.

This is based on the wells SCS has tested and requests for well checks most often come from those with a noticeable well problem. If anyone has need for well checks, please call the SCS office in Friona at 247-2220.

LEGAL NOTICE

The Parmer County Education District board of trustees will conduct a public hearing on the proposed 1991-92 budget on August 27, 1991, at 6:30 p.m. in the Friona ISD Administrative Offices, 909 E. 11th Street, Friona, Texas, 79035.

FORTUNATELY, DANIEL, HE OF THE LION'S DEN FAME, SUSPECTS THE TWO ELDERS AND, BY SOME GOOD DEDUCTION AND SOME VERY CLEVER QUESTIONING, TRICKS THE TWO ELDERS INTO EXPOSING THEIR OWN FALSE ACCUSATIONS OF SUSANNA. THUS, AN INNOCENT VICTIM IS SAVED FROM DEATH IN TRUE DETECTIVE STORY STYLE! HOW DANIEL DID ALL THIS IS IN THE APOCRYPHA AND IF YOUR OWN BIBLE DOESN'T HAVE IT, JUST RUN UP TO THE ATTIC AND DUST OFF GREAT-GRANDMA'S FAMILY BIBLE—ALL THE OLD-TIME BIBLES INCLUDED THE APOCRYPHA—AND IT'S MORE FUN TO READ THIS EXCITING TALE RIGHT OUT OF THE BOOK ITSELF—YOU'LL SURELY AGREE DANIEL HANDLED THE CASE JUST AS ABLY AS THE GREAT SHERLOCK HOLMES WOULD HAVE!

NEXT WEEK: THE OTHER OLDEST DETECTIVE STORY!

FHS Graduate Earns Pair Of SMU Honors

Daniel Echols, who will be a junior psychology major at Southern Methodist University this fall, is completing a summer internship doing psychology research at Stony Brook University in New York.

Echols was one of 48 students chosen from among 600 applicants from colleges and universities across the country. He was recruited as an applicant by both the head of the psychology department at SMU and the assistant.

Echols' field of research has been in "breathing disorders and how the brain controls breathing." The students have worked with people who suffer from sleep apnea and other breathing problems.

At the conclusion of the seminar, Echols will write an abstract dealing with his research effort, and also will present a speech to the group during closing ceremonies.

Echols has lived on campus at the State University New York-Stony Brook during the summer project, and has also received a salary for his work.

He sees the experience as an opportunity to better decide upon the direction of his studies when he returns to SMU. He also has had the opportunity to experience the culture of New York City.

A month into the psychology seminar, Echols received a call from a GTE representative stating that GTE had chosen him to receive an academic scholarship as a member of the 1991 GTE/SWC Football Academic Honor Team.

GTE flew Echols from New York to Dallas, where he attended the Southwest Conference Football

DANIEL ECHOLS

Kickoff Luncheon, August 2 at the Hyatt Regency Hotel.

Echols was one of 20 students chosen to the honor team. Team members must have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher and must be a letter-winner.

Echols has a 3.827 GPA. He is a member of the National Honor Society and Psychology Honor Society. He has been named to the Dean's List each semester.

As a member of the Mustang football team, Echols had 23 pass receptions for 282 yards and two touchdowns in 1990. He led his team with 12.3 yards per catch. He is a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and is active in community relations by visiting children at the Texas Scottish Rite Hospital in the offseason.

Echols is a graduate of Friona High School. His parents, Rev. Archie Echols and Donna of Leveland, joined him for the SWC Kickoff Luncheon.

RETIRING TEACHER RECEIVES AWARD....Benny Pryor, Friona, retiring agriculture science and technology teacher from Friona High School, received the Honorary Life Membership and an award for forty years service at the Vocational Agriculture Teachers Association of Texas annual meeting, July 31 in Amarillo. Presenting the awards to Pryor (left) is Bruce Smith, Dumas, president of the association.

Prairie Acres Party Line

By CAROL DELEON

I want to welcome several new residents to Prairie Acres this week. They are Ollie Rodgers back to us from Las Vegas, Nevada; Flossie Knight from Bovina; Otha Davis and her husband, Samuel Davis from Littlefield; Robert Gore from Friona; and as usual, we want to welcome anyone to come up and visit these newcomers.

We've had several activities going on lately. The Line Dancers from Hereford Senior Citizens came over and entertained us with their talents, which the residents and staff really enjoyed.

Several of the residents had a wonderful time the other day as they took a country drive south of town in the Hub community going to Leo and Lottie Bails' place. They toured the Bails' museum and were served refreshments by Terri Bails and the rest of the family. Again, everyone sure did enjoy this. We thank these nice people for inviting us out.

We've been busy shelling peas donated to the residents. We also had a mess of them for dinner today, and they were delicious.

Ben Israel celebrated his birthday Wednesday, August 14 with a surprise party. Ben celebrated being 45 years young. Other birthdays this month are: Susie Perez who is 83, and Sammie Boothe, who is 67.

We want to thank: Lorine White for the magazines and medical supplies (I hope I spelled the name right, if not I apologize now), and the family of C.L. Vestal for sharing the beautiful flowers with us.

The following donations have been made to the Love Fund:

In memory of Ruth Clements: Katy Osborn.

In memory of Lucille Myers: Lunell and Hollis Horton, Jr., John and Jo Blackwell.

In memory of C.L. Vestal: Floyd and Eva Lou Rector, June and Paul Spring, Lunell and Hollis Horton, Jr., Baker and Margaret Duggins, John and Jo Blackwell, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Anthony, Lauretta Brookfield and Gladys Moseley.

In memory of Geneva Williams: Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Anthony.

The following contributions were made in honor of 50th wedding anniversaries:

Mr. and Mrs. Walt Mabry: Lunell and Hollis Horton, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. S.L. Garrison: Lunell and Hollis Horton, Jr.

Town Talk

By June Floyd

Call 247-3681 With Your News Items

Most of us have heard the old adage, "You never miss the water until the well goes dry." But, how many of us really know what it means? For a good answer, we could ask Roy, Carolyn or Paul Trimmell, who live in the Rhea community.

For a long time, the Trimmells have been making do with a shortage of water from their domestic well, so have had to refrain from watering the lawn or using water for anything except the absolutely necessary things like drinking water for themselves, the dogs, horses and whatever other animals which happened to be around, taking quick showers and using as little water as possible for washing dishes and clothes.

A few weeks ago, these three were rejoicing over the completion of a good water well, and after the water was piped to the house and everything was hooked up, they began to take advantage of all kinds of water-using things like putting in a new lawn, showering as long as they wanted to, washing clothes much more often and other luxuries which having a plentiful supply of water made possible.

If each of us would stop and consider what we would do if our supply of water ran out, I'm sure we could think of many, many ways to keep from wasting so much.

Incidentally, Roy and Carolyn took off a few days from their busy schedule and drove to South Fork, Colorado, for a four day camp out with Dale and Janice Johnston and children, Lori and Brent, who live in Amarillo.

Dale, who grew up north of Bovina, is Carolyn's brother.

This group pitched their tents in the pines near a large meadow and saw deer, squirrels and hummingbirds. The Trimmells returned home Tuesday evening.

Friendship House was the scene of the annual Anthony family reunion. Hosts were Jean and Ora Mae Anthony, Ernest and Evalyn Anthony, Estis and Zonah Bass, Anna Anthony and Irene Anthony, all of Friona, and Don and Patsy Copley of Knoxville, Tennessee.

Festivities began with a supper Saturday evening. Sandwiches, chips, dips, ice cream and cake were served by the hosts.

Ralph Smith directed the Sunday morning sing song, devotional and special musical numbers for the group. The devotional was presented by Don Copley.

After a covered dish luncheon at noon, the afternoon was spent playing games, reminiscing and making pictures.

A large crowd was present. Out-of-town relatives and friends came from Oklahoma, Texas and New Mexico.

There's a real treat in store for those who attend the regularly scheduled monthly covered dish luncheon of senior citizens at Friendship House, Tuesday. J.B. Douglas of Muleshoe and his sister, Nelda Ellis, who lives here, will be presenting the program.

Those of us who have lived here a long time need no introduction to these two talented young people. We've watched them grow up and listened to them sing and play the piano many, many times.

The rest of you will just have to take my word for their ability until Tuesday. Then, you can come and see and hear for yourselves.

Their presentation will be right after lunch.

Recent out-of-town visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Parr have been Mr. and Mrs. Kim Parr and daughters, Annie, Jessica, Sarah and Laura, and Joy Trammell, Heather Bishop and Bruce Birhett, all of Landrum, South Carolina.

Also, Harper Nye of McAllen, Texas, who is the daughter of Donna Jo Parr Nye, and Iva Foster and children, Lynanne and Lee, who live at Burlleson, Texas.

There's a support group in Clovis, which is comparatively new. It is named Parent 2 Parent and is for parents of children with mental or physical handicaps.

It meets at the Twenty-First Street Church of Christ at 7 p.m. (M.S.T.) the second Tuesday of each month.

Gena Wright Hankins, who grew up here, is the contact person and she asked me to report that anyone who is interested is cordially invited to attend these meetings.

Read in a recent issue of the Amarillo paper that Mrs. Richard Bechtol had been elected second vice president of the Potter-Randall County Medical Auxiliary.

She's the former Susan Vestal, who grew up here. She's also a registered nurse. She and her husband, Dr. Richard Bechtol, have two children, Sarah and Harris.

Mr. and Mrs. R.E. Snead attended a Cox family reunion in Weatherford, Texas, last weekend. Enroute home they visited with two of their granddaughters, Shannel Woodard, who lives in Lubbock, and Holly Snead, who attends Abilene Christian University.

Then, last weekend, Holly's parents, Gary and Kay Snead, went down to Abilene to take some furnishings for an apartment Holly is moving into for the coming school term.

Jason and I have had a few out-of-town visitors recently. John and Geneva Osborn came from Tipton, Oklahoma, for a couple of days the middle of the week.

Dr. Dale Schueler combined a couple of business appointments with several days of fun in New Mexico last week. He and his wife, Donna, and their sons, Monty, Wade and Kevin, first drove to Albuquerque, where Dr. Schueler addressed the State Convention of Vocational Agriculture Teachers on Saturday.

The Schuelers then went to the Lewellen family cabin near South Fork, Colorado, for a few days of fun.

Other family members there were T.A. and Ann Kelley; Charles and Randy Hamilton and children, Chad, Kris and Cory; Delton and Betty Lewellen and Raymond, Pam, Davy, Jenny and Jeff Hamilton, all of Friona; and Tammi and Harvey Lafuente of Lubbock.

Linda Benton, Eddie Allen Exchange Wedding Vows

Linda Benton and Eddie Allen exchanged wedding vows on August 3 at 7:00 p.m. in the University Church of Christ Chapel in Canyon, Texas.

The bride is the daughter of J. E. and Louise Benton of Madill, Oklahoma and the groom is the son of Frankie and Oneida Allen of Friona.

Hal Blackburn, Church of Christ minister and cousin of the groom, performed the double ring ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her chapel length gown of white satin was off-the-shoulder Victorian style with white iridescent lace on the bodice. Her shoulder length veil was attached to a pearl and lace halo. She wore white satin shoes and her hand-made garter was of blue satin and white lace.

The bride carried a silk bouquet made of magenta magnolias, Japanese lilac, rising star, coral bells, baby's breath with white sweetheart roses and white tiger lilies.

Anita Hyman of Oklahoma City, friend of the bride, served as maid of honor. She wore a floral dress of pink, orchid, fuchsia and green. She carried a bouquet of lilies, Japanese lilacs and baby's breath in bright, vivid colors.

Rodney Allen of Hereford, Texas, brother of the groom, served as best man.

At the reception which was held at the church, the bride's table featured a three-layer Italian cream wedding cake. Bright flowers in a crystal vase and gold flatware completed the table appointments. The groom's table offered a chocolate cheese cake with gold coffee service and gold flatware and a chocolate Labrador Retriever completed the decor.

Sisters of the bride, Cindy Rogers of Madill, Oklahoma, and Tammie Benton of Amarillo, served at the bride's table. Teresa Allen of Hereford, sister-in-law of the groom, and Maxine Blackburn of

Mrs. Eddie Allen

Las Cruces, New Mexico, cousin of the groom, acted as servers for the groom's table. Monty Allen of Canyon, friend of the bride, registered the guests.

After a wedding cruise to Freeport and Nassau in the Bahamas, the couple will be at home in Canyon where he is employed by the United Parcel Service and is attending WTSU as a physical education major.

The new Mrs. Allen received her bachelor of science degree in psychology from Oklahoma Christian College and she is employed as a child protective service case worker for the Texas Department of Human Services.

REHEARSAL DINNER

The rehearsal dinner was hosted by parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Frankie Allen, following the rehearsal on Friday, August 2 at the Railroad Crossing restaurant in Canyon. The catered meal featured chicken fried steak, fries, home-baked bread, baked potatoes, salad, chocolate and Italian cream cake and ice cream. The tables were decorated with burgundy and mauve candles and flower arrangements.

Local Cub Scouts End Summer Activities

Cub Scouts of Pack 56 attended a swim party and weiner roast on Friday, August 9. The boys gathered at the Scout Hut at 5:30 p.m. for fun, games and a hot dog supper. At 7 p.m., the party moved to the Friona Swimming Pool for more fun and a good splash in the pool.

This gathering ended the summer activities and now the leaders and Cubs are preparing for a "bigger-better" year of Scouting, starting in September.

Cub Scouts attending the party were Chad Bentley, Garrett Gowing, Nicholas and Nathan Shrode, Clint Cox, Cass Perkins, Daniel Perkins, Jesus Nava, Dale Williams, Matthew Mata, Landon Martin, Nicklas Guzman, Tyson Neill, Jesse Allen, Sergio Pena, J.D. Aronce, Clint Burney, Jason Olsen and Jesse Mendoza.

Leaders and parents attending the party were Becky and Leslie Perkins and Adam; Terry Lynn Cox; Mary and Jesse Nava and children; Beverly and Bob Gowing and children, Stacy and David; Beverly and David Bentley and Bobby; and Santos Rando, III.

"A reminder to all the boys who are Cub Scouts now, be sure and talk to a friend or a buddy that you think would enjoy being a Tiger, Wolf, Bear or Webelo Scout. Sign up time for new boys will be in a few weeks," said a spokesperson for the Cub Scouts.

YOUR EYES

SOME ELDERLY NEED EXTRA HELP

Not all senior citizens have vision problems. Many -- even "older seniors" in their 70s and 80s -- manage to read the newspaper, enjoy TV and movies, and drive safely. Of course, regular eye examinations are advised to make sure their eyes remain healthy and that new glasses are prescribed to correct visual changes.

Some oldsters, however, need extra help. And what's important is that the extra help is available, including:

- brighter lights for better vision
- lamps that shed light close to the page of reading material
- large-type books and newsweeklies, many available at the library, and
- helpful magnification devices.

Your optometrist can prescribe new types of magnifiers to help those whose vision cannot be corrected by ordinary glasses, enhancing their vision so that they can enjoy more activities.

Financial Advice Is Often Filled with Misinformation

If you are an individual investor, you've probably been on the receiving end, at one time or another, of advice that is more fiction than fact. Unfortunately, many people believe the stock market myths, a sample of which follow:

Buying stock is a gamble. The fact is, common stocks have proved to be excellent investments, posting long-term annual returns averaging 10 per cent or more.

Only people with money to lose should be in the market. The stock market is actually an important tool for anyone who wants to stay ahead of inflation. Any amount can be invested through special programs designed for those who can afford to invest only a small amount each month.

Only professionals can compete in the stock market. Not only can individuals compete with professionals, but they also can actually beat the pros at their own game.

To win in the stock market, you must buy low and sell high. This strategy can do investors more harm than good because it generally doesn't work in the real world, at least not consistently. The key to stock market success is selecting companies with value and growth potential, and investing in them over longer periods of time.

Watch what your stocks are doing on a daily basis. Closely related to "buy low, sell high," this strategy ignores the value of long-term investing. The truth is, it's more important to watch the fundamentals of the stocks you own—monitor the issuing companies for financial stability, growth, earnings, dividends and the like. Stock prices may fluctuate daily, weekly and even monthly, but as long as value is there, the prices will nearly always rise in the long term.

You never go broke taking a profit. Here is more in-and-out trading philosophy. Most investors who profit from the stock market do so over a longer period. In addition to the potential tax liability of short-term trading, you often have to settle for a limited, short-term profit while facing the challenge of finding another profitable place to invest. Holding for the long term can often earn two to three times or more what you paid for the stock.

The stock market is neither a Utopia for fast profits nor a graveyard for individual investors. It is an open market where ownership in our economy is bought and sold. There is nothing mysterious about the stock market. Success demands hard work, knowledgeable decisions and patience. And that's no stock market myth.
