—WHG

Our 50th Anniversary Celebration is but a memory, but we want to revive the idea just one more issue to pay tribute to the splendid attitude of nearly everyone in the community who helped make it the success that it was.

Everyone has a right to be extremely proud of the show that we put on, and so far, we haven't run into anyone who regrets the sweat that they put into the Celebration.

It's easy to brag on one's own accomplishments, but a lot of out-of-town visitors were visibly impressed with what a community of 2,000 can do once it sets its mind to it, and so maybe we won't overrate ourselves if we repeat that the Celebration was tops.

As is usually the case, there were a lot of remarks made that went, "Oh, if we only had..." which is another way of demonstrating how much the pushers of the Celebration wanted to do a good job.

Time, more than anything else, was the limiting factor. Six months wouldn't have been too much time for some of the things that were included in the Celebration. It really took a lot of midnight oil burning to get some of the events into action for the Thursday deadline, we know.

The Star staff would like to thank everyone for the wonderful way in which the Celebration edition was received. The compliments and calls for additional copies are most appreciated.

As always, we have to pass all the honors on to the good old advertisers, who footed the bill for a big paper and one that was expensive to produce. If they had let us down, there wouldn't have been much of a Celebration edition.

Also, we apologize to Bert Shackelford and a few other Friona residents who live north-east of the city park. They got more than their share of Stars last Friday afternoon when 1,000 extra copies were passed out to visitors during the barbecue.

We are sorry that the boys we hired to pass out the extra papers were a little over ambitious at times, and with a stiff breeze blowing, some of the papers got torn and were subsequently dropped on the park lawn to let blow where they may.

It didn't take very many papers of that size to make a terrible mess in a short time, with the weather the way that it was.

The editor is cured of his perennial complaint about shaving. Really, he didn't know it was such pure joy to have a clean-shaven face.

Our straggly beard was the first target of our post-Celebration cleanup. We don't know when we have enjoyed getting rid of anything so much.

Andy Hurst, who had lots of "celebration" experience before he ever moved to Friona, thinks that we ought to do something of the kind on an annual basis.

He says that once a year is often enough—in fact, about the right interval of time—to give the community a chance to pull together for a common cause.

"It's the working together that is important," he says, and we are inclined to agree. Although the Friona Chamber of Commerce sponsored and pushed the Celebration all the way, they don't necessarily get credit for its success.

It wasn't just the business people of Friona who got interested in the Celebration—it was everyone, including the clubs, area farmers, and just "everyday citizens" with no particular affiliation.

Friona's Celebration was in competition with the Tri-State Fair on one side and the Curry County Fair on the other. Still, we had excellent attendance and participation. This proves that the community can and will stick together if given an incentive to do so, and if piloted by the proper leadership.

We understood some one to say that when they tried to line up a parade in Clovis, that only one business volunteered to enter a float. This in itself ought to make Friona feel pretty proud.

The Friona Lions Club has undertaken numerous projects in behalf of the new Parmer County Community Hospital. And they've done quite well at it, too.

Now, however, they have gone beyond the call of duty. They are helping create new business for that institution. So said some smart guy at the pancake breakfast Saturday morning.

The eye of the camera will tell you most of the news in The Star this week. The editor is cutting it a little short in order to be able to get together with his wife and kids for a couple of days in the

THE BEST FLOATS—Rockway-Hurst, top, and Friona FFA, lower, were tops in the commercial and school classes, respectively, in the parade Thursday. Theme of the commercial entry is the "horn of plenty," with emphasis on changes in a period of 50 years. The lengthy FFA float depicted farming scenes of today as compared with those shortly after the turn of the century.

Capacity Crowd Watches Chiefs Fall To Tough Stinnett

Tough Stinnett Rattlers, the second best team in the state in their class last year, overpowered the Friona Chiefs 27-0 Friday night before a capacity crowd of 1,350 persons.

The grueling ground game of the Rattlers and the dexterous ball handling of All State Quarterback Larry Dawson kept the Chiefs "in the hole" most of the evening, and limited them to but three first downs.

Friona fans had their chances to cheer, however. The Chiefs proved rugged on defense, and spilled Stinnett hacks for more than one loss. Mostly, the game consisted of steady but slow grinding on the ground for the Rattlers, as they notched up first down after first down. Few plays netted the visitors more than 12 yards.

To start the game, Stinnett received and churned steadily uphill to a touchdown midway in the first quarter. They failed to convert. Before the quarter was out, Joe McLellan grabbed a Rattler fumble and ran 45 yards for a touchdown for the Chiefs but it was called back, the ball having been whistled dead.

That killed the only chance for a "break" Friona got all evening long. Both teams fumbled often, but nothing so spectacular happened again.

Opening the second half, Dawson picked up another touchdown for the leaders with a keeper play, and the point-after was run over. He added a third before that quarter ended, and also kicked the extra point to make the score 20-0.

Stinnett scored for the last time shortly before the end of the game, and converted.

POST OFFICE DEDICATION—J. Melvin Benesch, assistant district manager from Amarillo, addressed a crowd at the dedication ceremonies of the Friona post office Friday.

This week, Coach Colie Huffman summed up the game. "We pulled some pretty dumb plays," he said, "but actually, I was pretty well satisfied with the boys."

He added that he was "tickled" several times in the game to see Friona's defense throw Stinnett for losses. Reeve, Chiles, and Fairchild were three players mentioned as displaying strong defensive play.

The Chiefs play Whiteface Friday night.

Jamboree Moves Inside This Week

The weekly jamboree sessions will move inside Saturday night. They will be held in the school auditorium each Saturday night, starting at 8 o'clock, announces Russell Massey.

Admission of 50 cents per person will be charged, and the money will go to a swimming pool and park fund. Smokey Mayfield, George Green, and Delmer Shirley are on tap this week, says Massey, and some extra talent is expected to be brought in also.

Gospel Meeting Continues This Week

The gospel meeting which began at the Sixth Street Church of Christ Sunday morning will continue through Sunday evening, September 30. Services are being held at 8:45 a. m. and 7:45 p. m. each day.

Guest speaker is William F. Walker of Clovis. The public is cordially invited to attend any or all of the services by M. B. McKinney, local minister.

FRIONA ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION IS SUCCESS

Friona celebrated her 50th birthday last weekend, and had plenty of help doing it.

From every standpoint, the Anniversary event was a success, reports Wright Williams, president of the Friona Chamber of Commerce, which sponsored the promotion.

The only thing which didn't go exactly to suit the celebration boosters was the weather, and in West Texas, as they agree, it's hard to ever find any justice in complaining about that.

All three days of the celebration were windy ones—a sharp contrast to the beautiful fall weather in which the High Plains have basked all September long.

The wind began to rise early Thursday morning, and by time for the parade at 1:30, it was blowing enough to cause some of the float decorations to be pulled loose.

Because Friona's Main Street runs north and south, however, and the business buildings protected the parade from the west wind, no real hardship was encountered.

Visitors and residents alike agreed that the parade was one of the outstanding attractions of the celebration. Between 3,500 and 4,000 persons lined the streets to view the colorful demonstration, which came off without a hitch.

Another big crowd puller was the annual Chamber of Commerce barbecue. About another 2,500 persons milled around the city park to get in on the free feed.

Causing as much comment as anything else was the unique pony express race staged Saturday morning. The Lakeview riders won the 8-mile gallup in 21 minutes, 47 seconds. A big crowd packed into the park and along Main Street to witness the finish.

In second place was Hub, with a time of 22:01. As fate would have it, cars were being switched across the track on the south end of Main Street, and both first and second place riders were delayed several times.

Men with stop watches timed the length of the delay and subtracted it from the total when they were clocked into the park. Although this occurrence interrupted, it gave Johnie Hand and A. L. Black a chance to dash up Main Street side by side to the finish.

Mary's Cafe Hit By Fire

The Friona Fire Department was called to Mary's Cafe about 1:30 a. m. Sunday. By the time fire fighting equipment had arrived, the blaze had progressed to the point that flames were visible from several blocks away.

Within 15 minutes after the arrival of the department at the scene of the fire, the fireboys were able to control the flames. They remained on the scene about two hours to prevent any flare-ups.

Hayden Cayson, co-owner of the cafe, estimates the damage to furnishings and fixtures at about $6,000 which was partially covered by insurance.

The building was gutted by flames and destruction within was complete, although the outside appearance gave no hint of damage to the interior. City officials estimated damage to the building at $2,500.

It is owned by J. V. Fulks, and the loss will be covered by insurance.

The contents owned by Mary Sudderth and Cayson, were insured for $4,000.

Cause of the blaze was undetermined. It was known to have started in the kitchen, but whether its origin was in faulty wiring, accumulated gas, or some other cause is a mystery. Chief Charley Bainum says a window to the kitchen was blown out, indicating that the fire might have started with a bang.

Herman Helton, night watchman, turned in the alarm.

Plans to have two cafes have been dropped. When the new building is completed, Mary's Cafe will reopen there. That will be about three weeks, says, Cayson.

line—to the delight of the spectators.

Even in this short a distance, Hand pulled away from his competition. The pavement made it necessary for riders to take it easy on the final lap, because of the danger of having their horses fall down.

Other times included Friona (a team sponsored by the C of C), 23:45; Black, 27:10 and Rhea, 30:30.

Registration taken at the Legion Hall totaled 370. Although not all of those signing in were from out of town, celebration boosters were pleased at the large number of visitors who did travel many miles just to participate in the occasion.

Will Harris of Summerfield, who has lived here since 1906, was the first one to register. Mr. and Mrs. Emile Clennin of Cincinnati, Ohio, came the farthest.

Wimberley Funeral Sunday Afternoon

Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon at 2:30 in the First Baptist Church for J. A. Wimberley, long-time resident of Friona. Rev. C. M. Fields officiated and was assisted by Rev. Robert Laceywell of Hereford.

Pallbearers were Elroy Wilson, Clayton Taylor, Harold Lillard, Claude Blackburn, E. G. Phipps, Clyde Sherrieb, G. E. Reed and E. L. Lewis Jr. Burial was in Friona Cemetery under direction of Marcum-Claborn Funeral Home.

Wimberley, who was a retired farmer, died at the Parmer County Community Hospital Saturday at 6:40 p. m. following an illness of several months. He had been hospitalized much of the time since last February when he fell during the snow storm and broke his hip.

He had been a member of the First Baptist Church for many years and had served as a deacon for 40 years. Survivors include four daughters, Laverna Brock of Friona, Opal Adair of Big Spring, Lucille Andrews of Carlsbad, and Mabel Reese of Amarillo.

Also one brother, Arthur Wimberley, of Muleshoe; and two sisters, Mrs. Bessie Riley of Floresville and Mrs. Orlena Raney of Blackwell; and 10 grandchildren. All of the grandchildren except Keith Brock, who is in boot training at Fort Smith, Arkansas, were present for the funeral.

Among the out of town relatives who attended, were three cousins, Clyde Wimberley of Newton, Kansas, who was accompanied by his wife; Miss Ethel Wimberley and Mrs. Cora McDonald, both of Tulsa.

30 Floats, 10 Prizes In Parade

Thirty beautifully decorated floats rolled slowly down Friona's Main Street Thursday afternoon to kick off the 50th Anniversary Celebration, in what residents say was the best parade they have ever seen for a community of Friona's size.

Taking blue ribbons were Rockway-Hurst, commercial; Black community, organizational; FFA, school; and the third grade band, children's division. The Hereford band was awarded first place in that division.

Second and third place winners in the commercial department were Friona State Bank and Ware's; Friona Woman's Club and the American Legion took second and third for organizations; the seniors and juniors were one-and-two in that order for school entries; and Lark Jarrell and Kirk Taylor placed second and third in the children's division.

Participation trophies were handed out to Bovina, Farwell, Texico, and Friona bands, and honorable mention as an attention getter was M. H. Sylvester with his steam tractor.

J. C. Claborn, chairman of the parade committee, this week expressed his appreciation for the wholehearted response to the event.

PTA MEETS TONIGHT

All parents are urged to attend the P.T.A.-sponsored reception for teachers which will be held at the school cafeteria at 7:30 tonight (Thursday). A nursery for small children will be under the supervision of Mrs. Russell O'Brian and the senior Scouts.

HERE HE COMES!—Johnie Hand dashes his horse up to the finish line of the pony express race Saturday morning. Hand, who rode all eight miles of the race, made the time in 21 minutes, 47 seconds. Excitement ran high in this event.

Community Thanked

Persons helping put over the 50th Anniversary Celebration last weekend are being thanked by Wright Williams, president of the Friona

Chamber of Commerce. He says: "The 50th Anniversary Celebration is over and I want to say thanks to everyone for helping make it a success. About 2,500 people attended the barbecue.

Fruit and Vegetable Market Opens

A new business, which is the only one of its kind in Friona, opened its doors in Friona last week. It is to be known as Morton's Market, and is located 1½ blocks east of the stop light on the south side of highway 60.

It is owned and operated by LeGrand Morton, formerly of Hereford. Morton has been in the fruit and vegetable market business for several years and is thoroughly familiar with the best markets in the area. He plans to carry a complete line of merchandise and will offer delivery service.

Mr. and Mrs. Morton and their son, Gary Lynn, live in Bill Stewart's house on Prospect Avenue. Mrs. Morton is a teacher in the junior high school here.

"My special thanks go to the chairman of each committee and their members who worked so hard and did such a splendid job;

"To the fire department members who volunteered to serve the barbecue and did so well; to the American Legion for the use of their building, and to all those furnishing entertainment.

"The fresh tomatoes were furnished by Sterling Graham, and thanks to him.

"It was the work of everyone that made this Celebration a success, and it certainly is nice to have a town surrounded by such good communities as we have here at Friona. In simple words—they are the very best to be found anywhere.

"Thanks again to each and everyone of you."

BEST ORGANIZATIONAL—A black-and-white picture doesn't do justice to this colorful float entered by the Black community, which was awarded first place in the organizational department of the parade Thursday afternoon. A rural scene is hand-painted in the background, and farm produce flows from a paper "horn of plenty."

Curfew Ordinance Eyed By City

A curfew ordinance, discussed from time to time in previous city council meetings, was mullied over again Monday night as city dads assembled. It is designed to curb "unnecessary" activity on city streets between midnight and 5 a. m.

An opinion on the legality of the ordinance will be asked from Bill Sheehan, city attorney, and the Texas League of Municipalities.

Sheehan also has been asked to determine if county commissioners are willing to deed the city park block to Friona. It has been the subject of controversy for a long time. City commissioners apparently have decided to drop the threatened suit against the county to obtain payment for paving.

Paul Bush Charged With Embezzlement

Paul Bush, former employee of Parmer County Implement Company, is facing a charge of embezzlement of company funds while employed at the Friona firm. Bush was picked up by Clovis officers on August 30 and taken to Farwell to face the charge.

In B. N. Graham's justice of peace court at Farwell, the case has been bound over to the grand jury, which meets October 8. Bush was released on a $2,500 bond, according to Chas. Lovelace, Parmer County sheriff.

Bush left the employ of the Friona business two weeks prior to his arrest at Clovis, Lovelace says.

First Twins In More Than 60 Years

For the first time in more than 60 years there are twin babies in the Houlette family. Mr. and Mrs. E. V. House of Dallas became parents of twin boys on September 13. Mrs. House was Nona Houlette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Houlette of Clovis.

The babies were named Lindell Darrell and Windell Karl. They are great-grandsons of Mrs. Viola "Grandma" Messenger, formerly of Friona.

E. P. Houlette of Clovis and E. E. Houlette of Friona are twin brothers and were the only twins in the Houlette family until the birth of Lindell and Windell.

Entries from the Black community won five places in the wheat show at the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo last week. Every resident of the community is proud of the awards.

Funeral Services Conducted Monday

Funeral services for Mrs. Julia Ann Holladay of Floydada were conducted Monday at 4 p. m. at the Methodist Church in Floydada. Mrs. Holladay died Sunday afternoon after a long illness.

Mrs. Holladay, who was born in Chambers County, Alabama, February 14, 1870, had been a resident of Texas 56 years. She was married to J. D. Holladay in Eden, Texas, in 1902 and moved to Floyd County in 1924. Holladay died in 1932 and Mrs. Holladay had made her home with a daughter, Mrs. Bill Taylor, since that time.

Survivors include three sons, Tom Holladay of Lubbock, and Billy and Burlson Holladay of Floydada; also four daughters, Mrs. Clyde Hinkle and Mrs. Bill Taylor of Floydada, Mrs. M. D. Lynn of Lockney and Mrs. Casey Adams of Friona; 20 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Attending the funeral from Friona were Mrs. Ethel Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Casey Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Hinkle and Delwin and Jerry Hinkle.

Farwell B tripped Friona B 14-7 last weekend after a scoreless first half. Friona managed to sneak in the first score near the end of the third, but Farwell returned to score and convert twice in the last quarter.

Jim Roy Clements, Friona quarterback, scored the lone Friona touchdown. Gary Brooks ran over the extra point.

"They did all right," said Coach Roy Simmons this week after the game. He said the team played better ball than they did two weeks ago against Springlake.

Defense was strong, with Gary McGlothlin, tackle, and John Tubbs, linebacker, as standouts. Muleshoe is the opponent this week.

Farm Bureau Votes Flexible Price Props

By Dolph Moten

Parmer County Farm Bureau voted on 15 resolutions at its 1956 convention Monday night at Bovina School Auditorium. In addition to the resolutions voted, the organization elected directors for another year, awarded leadership pins to outstanding county 4-H, FFA, and FHA youngsters, named delegates to the state FB convention, and heard a brief concert by Bovina Mustang Band under the direction of W. Wayne Stevens.

Gilbert Kaltwasser, who has been president of the county group for the past two years, was re-elected. Directors elected were M. T. Glasscock, Farwell area; Roy Grace, Black area; B. T. Ford, Lazbuddie area; Donald Christian, Bovina area; and Ralph Miller, North Friona area.

Possibly the most important resolution the Bureau voted "for" at the convention had to do with "flexible acreage controls and flexible price supports." The resolution: "Be it resolved that PCFB favors flexible Federal Price Supports, based on supply and demand factors of basic crops, if increased acreages can be allowed due to increased domestic marketing and export marketing."

Other resolutions that carried were:

1. Be it resolved that if a water development program is instituted in Texas, PCFB favors a Water User's Tax to finance the program.

2. Be it resolved that PCFB favors election by the people of a board of directors for any proposed water development program, and that districts for such election be geographically established to assure proper representation for all concerned with such proposed water development program.

3. Be it resolved that PCFB opposes any efforts that may be made to repeal Texas' Right to Work Law. We believe this law insures the freedom of Texas workers to choose whether or not, or with which union they wish to affiliate themselves.

4. In view of numerous reports of other states denying license of Texas feed grains for use in those states, be it resolved that PCFB favors adoption by local grain dealers and Commodity Credit Corporation of a marketing regulation that will reflect the superior value of feed grains free of noxious seeds.

5. The Soil Bank Agricultural Program was intended to bring supply and demand for farm commodities into balance by reducing production and compensating the farmer in part with cash or like commodities. Therefore, be it resolved that PCFB urges the Department of Agriculture to institute drouth or other disaster insurance program as an agency separated from the Soil Bank, in order that the cost of such insurance program not be included in the cost of administering the Soil Bank Plan.

6. Be it resolved that PCFB favors a MINIMUM parity support price on non-basic commodities of 75 per cent, with no acreage restrictions.

7. Be it resolved that PCFB urges repeal of the Texas law requiring licensing of farm utility trailers for domestic use.

8. Be it resolved that PCFB urges retaining present Legislative Districts to prevent any attempts that may be made to shift elective strength from rural areas to cities.

9. Be it resolved the PCFB favors construction and maintenance of separate but equal schools for white and colored children in Texas, and that segregation be left to the peoples of each school district.

10. Be it resolved that PCFB favors enactment of a Retail Sales Tax Law in Texas with revenue from such tax to be used for schools only. This tax to replace our present school tax system.

11. Be it resolved the PCFB opposes compulsory consolidation of schools of less than 300 high school enrollment to make one of at least 1000 enrollment.

12. Be it resolved that PCFB shall, when and where feasible, lend its support to efforts of the Bi-State Water District in its efforts to prevent excessive withdrawal of underground water from agricultural areas for non-agricultural use.

13. Be it resolved that PCFB extends its support and appreciation to J. Walter Hammond, president, and other leaders in Texas Farm Bureau, and congressional committeemen, in their recent successful investigation of possible collusion among oil companies in raising the price of farm delivered fuels one half cent per gallon soon after farmers were exempt from Federal tax in such fuels.

The one resolution that failed to carry read, "Be it resolved that PCFB offers its support to a feasible plan for income tax depletion allowance on irrigation well installation." * * * * *

Delegates named to attend the state convention in November are Glasscock, Christian, Carl Schlenker, Kaltwasser, Harry Hamilton, Roy Miller, and Clarence Johnson. PCFB will have six votes at the state meet.

THE HAPPY HOMEMAKER

Those of us who saw the kitchen of fifty years ago in the American Legion hall last weekend should appreciate the modern appliances we have more than ever. It was very interesting to look at, and we would not have missed seeing it, but are very glad it isn't typical of kitchens today.

As you looked at it, did you think of the work a homemaker of 50 years ago had to do. The water bucket had to be kept full, used water had to be carried out and the fuel for cooking wasn't easy to gather. Of course, other members of the family helped out but there was still a lot of chores for the woman of the house to do that we do not have to do today.

One of the things which we would like to have was the homemade lye soap. There are several homemakers in our community who still make that type soap. We have wondered what could be used to take the place of bar soaps for removing stamping from embroidered articles. The last time we did any embroidery work, it was impossible for us to buy any kind of laundry soap in a bar and the detergent which we used did not remove all the unwanted stamping.

A cake recipe which we have used for several years and like very much is for Sour Cream Chocolate Cake. It is as simple to make as any of the mixes which are so popular today and has a very distinctive flavor. The ingredients are 1 1/4 cups sugar, 1 1/2 cups sour cream, 1 3/4 cups sifted flour, 4 heaping tablespoons cocoa, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 2 well beaten eggs and 2 teaspoons soda dissolved in 1/2 cup boiling water. Sift together sugar, cocoa and flour. Add remainder of ingredients and mix well. Bake in layers or loaf.

Another of our favorite recipes for fall is for eggless pumpkin pie. It is a very good way to use pumpkin, which is plentiful at this season of the year, in a different way.

Mix 2 cups cooked pumpkin, 1 1/2 cups sugar, 1 cup sweet cream, 3 tablespoons flour, 1 tablespoon lemon extract and 1 teaspoon cinnamon. Bake in two single pie shells and top with whipped cream, if desired.

Nutritionists are of the opinion that if apples are peeled for salads some of the vitamins are lost. The peeling also adds color to any salad in which apples are used.

Another thing about the kitchen of 50 years ago which we noticed was the ingenuity of the homemaker. It was necessary for homemakers of that day to use the things which she had. The wooden handles of the curling irons had been burned off by the heat of the lamp, so they were replaced by spoons.

In spite of all the work which there was to be done, the homemaker was still interested in her appearance and no home was completely furnished without the curling irons. Some men were very adept at using them, too.

If you are making fall ensembles for your daughters that have reversible bibs, suspenders, boleros or any other part that requires buttoning, try placing a thin button under the one you plan to use. This leaves room for the two thicknesses of material to fit neatly under the button.

A lot of people never get interested in a thing until they find out that it's none of their business. —CHANGING TIMES

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

This past week Friona celebrated its 50th birthday. I expect most of us were impressed with the differences that have occurred in the past 50 years, especially in farming.

Fifty years ago this country was in grass and cattle. Today it is in irrigation and farming. The prosperity of our communities has improved along with these changes.

The question we need to face now is, will the next fifty years find us in better shape than 1956—or worse? We as farmers in this area will answer this question with the type of farming we are now practicing and practice in the future.

It seems some of us are living just for today. We do not think of the future in terms of, "What will I will I conserve water so that they too can irrigate, improve the land to take care of the ever increasing population of mouths to feed, and in general make life worth living for them?"

Or, on the other hand, am I running tail water or running water too far and being guilty of types of water waste, mining the soil today for myself and making no effort to keep the land productive many years to come, and in general only thinking of MYSELF?

How can we as stewards of the land answer this question? The conservation of our natural resources cannot be over-emphasized. There will at least twice as many people in the United States 50 years from now as there are now.

When people mine a country of its natural resources as arid as ours, they leave a desert when the resources are all gone.

We live in a country of freedom, and none of us would change this. The initiative of conservation must come from within each of us and not by law or force.

Lets get behind conservation and leave our children a way of life.

NEWS FROM THE FARM BUREAU

By RAYMOND EULER

Texas Farm Bureau again stepped in and successfully led a fight against discriminatory production price increases for farmers. Soon after the refund of federal tax became law, some major oil companies raised the price of farm-used fuels 1/2 cent per gallon.

J. Walter Hammond and other Farm Bureau leaders appealed for an investigation of possible collusion among these companies to make the increase as a result of the tax refund act. They felt that if this increase was accepted without protest, the increase might finally take all of the three cent refund farmers were finally able to get.

W. R. Poage, representative of Waco, acted as chairman of the investigating committee holding the hearings. Other companies preparing to make the increase, announced that they would probably refrain from raising their price.

We are well aware of the small financial gain made in this move, but farmers are also well aware that the cost price squeeze that confronts them in their operations has come bit by bit, and that such increases in cost of production could finally make farming completely unprofitable.

Representatives Poage, Albert, and Bass are also on the committee hearing Farm Bureau complaints on the inconsistency of the Smith-Doxey cotton classing offices in Dallas. Hoyt Gaston, of Waxachie, state board engineer for Texas Farm Bureau, is presenting North Texas County Farm Bureau evidence in the cotton classing investigation. Success in this investigation could mean increased income for Parmer County cotton farmers of $200,000 on cotton placed in the loan.

If you haven't already, remember to file for your federal tax refund on farm fuels before October 1.

Quality Will Vary But Top Varieties Still Prove Best

By W. H. GRAHAM JR.

Fluctuation in milling quality reports on samples of wheat sent from Parmer County to be checked indicate that most all varieties have their ups and downs, depending on the weather and other factors, but that recommended varieties still are the only ones that can produce grain that is today acceptable to flour mills.

Bruce Parr, Black farmer and member of the Parmer County Farm Bureau weed committee, took the trouble to send in 13 samples of wheat produced on county farms this year, to check the milling quality of the local product.

The tests were made in the baking laboratories of Producers Grain Corporation in Amarillo, and H. L. Ward of the laboratory department corresponded with Parr about statistics obtained from the tests.

Results were at the same time surprising and disappointing. Of the 13 samples sent in, only one received a "good" rating from the laboratory, scoring 75 out of a possible 100 points by milling quality standards.

Four other samples were rated "fair" by the technicians, and one was rated "very poor." The rest were "poor."

Varieties included in the samples were comanche, early blackhull, westar, standard blackhull, concho, wichita, and kiowa. The varieties "blacklisted" by USDA include blackhull, red chief, blue jacket, kanking, new chief, yogo, and red jacket.

They are discounted 20 cents per bushel on the support price because they are considered undesirable from a milling quality standpoint. Varieties recommended include westar, tenmarq, turkey red, concho, wichita, triumph, and comanche.

The thing that makes the analysis difficult to understand is that several samples supposedly having higher baking quality brought extremely low results in the Amarillo lab.

First, farmers should understand that this is often the case in laboratory or research work. Averages taken over a long period of time are the only answer to true findings, and that is the reason that new developments from the laboratories sometimes seem too long in the process of development. It takes time.

The PGS technician has made some interesting comments: "In view of the rather erratic and contradictory results on these samples, it is a very difficult job to try to explain what has happened to the milling quality on some of the other varieties. "Some varieties will turn out good quality in one specific year from one certain location, and the same seed planted another year or in another location will be of poor quality."

"Climate, soil types, and growing conditions seem to control quality in wheat. In most cases, we have found that irrigated wheat is of lower protein and quality than the same variety planted on dry land."

But, the analyst pointed out, only quality seed can produce quality wheat: "In no case have we found a good baking sample of the poor varieties. They have been poor and very poor in every case, regardless of growing conditions or where they were planted. It is a fact that the mills will not buy those wheats, even at a discount, for milling purposes."

Ward sent Parr two samples that came from the tests. They were slices of bread baked from the actual samples, and were encased in sealed, plastic containers.

Even to the untrained eye, the difference in volume, grain, color and texture of the two samples was apparent. One sample, comanche wheat from the Jack Bruns farm, rose about three-quarters an inch higher than the other, which was early blackhull.

The blackhull sample had a very coarse texture and was filled with cavities near the top of the crust. It did not have the full, rich appearance of the comanche wheat.

Good Seed Wheat May Be in Demand

Farmers are suggested to consider the advantages of producing good milling quality seed wheat, not only as a cash crop to be consumed at the flour mills, but also as a supply of quality planting seed for the wheat producing areas of the Southwest.

Trade journals and agricultural commentators report that the stock of good seed wheat is low this year after a below-average production from much of the country's wheatlands.

Some day—it is warned—the drought will end, and with renewed planting activity in the non-irrigated portions of the Southwest, a critical need for quality planting seed may develop.

High Plains irrigated farmers who produce wheat in dry years and wet are reminded to be aware of this need.

16 Make Application For Emergency Feed

Sixteen applications for emergency grain and hay were reviewed by the Parmer County FFA committee in Farwell Thursday, in the first step of the reactivated drought disaster feed program.

The committee, composed of A. W. Anthony, Friona; Wilbur Charles, Bovina; and Gilbert Kaltwasser, Farwell; rejected one application, and retained "two or three" for purposes of review, according to John Zahan of the FFA office.

Participation in the emergency program is "considerably lighter" than FFA officials had expected, Zahan says.

On Saturday, the government abruptly cut off its hay program, pending a "reappraisal" of that part of the project. Details of this action appear in another story in the farm and home section.

This move, however did not interfere with the more than 10 Parmer County farmer-stockmen who had been approved for participation.

Friona folks were proud of the football team and the band.

No More Roughage Pending Review Of Texas Program

The volume of approved applications for assistance under the Texas emergency roughage program has exceeded the estimates of demand when this program was negotiated, so it is necessary to reappraise the actual cash requirements.

The agreement between Secretary Ezra Taft Benson and Governor Allan Shivers provided for an allocation of one million dollars of federal funds for the roughage program. Funds available to the U. S. Department of Agriculture to finance roughage program must be allocated among all disaster designated states where such a program is needed.

Walter T. McKay, Texas State Director of Farmers Home Administration, has been instructed by K. L. Scott, Director of Credit Services, U. S. Department of Agriculture, to immediately instruct all FFA County Offices in the designated areas to withhold further approvals of roughage purchase certificates.

The county offices in the designated areas are to withhold further approvals of roughage purchase certificates, but they are authorized to continue to accept and hold on file applications for assistance under this roughage program, but are instructed to take no action on these applications and to make daily reports on the tonnage requirements covered by such applications to McKay's office.

McKay has been asked to solicit the assistance of the Texas USDA Drought Committee and the office of the governor in making a careful reappraisal of the demand for assistance under this emergency roughage program including financial requirements.

Scott stated that in keeping with the policies and the desires of Secretary Benson, the Department will continue to work closely with Governor Shivers and leaders in the state and give all assistance possible within the authority and funds available to the department in providing assistance to drought stricken farmers and ranchers in Texas.

Early Harvesting Continues in Fields Of Cotton, Grain

What may prove to be the earliest harvest in history continued to gain momentum this week as cotton and grain sorghum from thousands of irrigated acres in and around Parmer County rose from a tiny trickle to a steady stream into the area's waiting gins and elevators.

The only cotton harvesting underway is hand-pulled. The advent of mechanical boll pulling is still several weeks (farmers hope) away, and the exact date will be decided by the first severe freeze.

If a late freeze comes, there may be increased defoliation this year, due to the advancement of the maturity of the cotton. However, predictions on this are hard to make right now.

Extremely warm and dry weather for late September has "cooked" maturing heads of grain in field after field, and made early combining a reality because of the unusually dry heads.

Yields from grain sorghum which have been reported are too scattered to determine the trend this fall, but experienced observers say that they think the irrigated milo crop will average between 3,000 and 3,500 pounds.

This would put some yields well over 5,000 pounds to keep up that kind of an average, they point out. No reports are out yet on the yields of the hybrids, which are being grown on a large scale this year for the first time.

Moseley and Terrell Organize in Farwell For Foundation

Hugh Moseley and Jim Terrell have been appointed by Gilbert Kaltwasser, county chairman, to assist in organizing a campaign in the Farwell area for the Texas Research Foundation.

The Foundation, with headquarters at Renner, is seeking establishment of a High Plains field station and is depending upon subscriptions from farmers, ranchers and businessmen for its support.

It is not a state or federally financed agency, but one which is supported entirely by private interests.

Moseley and Terrell say that the area they will cover will include Oklahoma Lane and Lariat communities, and that no cash or pledge goal has been established for the area as yet.

The workers say they will need all the assistance they can get from persons who are interested in supporting the move.

Protect those dollars invested in the family wardrobe—extension clothing specialists remind us that proper care will keep garments looking better longer.

Proper care, according to the specialists, means that certain things must be done daily; others need to be done occasionally, and still others at a change of seasons, such as we now have coming up... knowing the right care to give new fabrics, as well as the old stand-bys such as cotton, silk and wool, is necessary to do a good job.

FACTS ABOUT CLOTHING CARE—a new bulletin out, written by extension clothing specialists tells how to do the daily job as well as the seasonal job of caring for your family's clothing.

I have ordered this bulletin; so within the next week, if you will come by my office, I will give you a copy.

The 50th Anniversary Celebration is now history. Everyone with whom we have talked concerning it is of the opinion that it was a tremendous success. A lot of work was put into it and the co-operative spirit of everyone who had a part in it was wonderful.

The parade was very good and more people than we have ever seen in town at one time were on hand to view it. Most of the floats depicted "then" and "now" and were very good. The agricultural exhibits were proof to any visitors who had doubts about the richness of our soil.

The Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture did a good job and are to be commended for the part they played in making it a success. As everyone goes about the job of putting things back in order and takes up the regular routine, much pride can be felt in a job well done.

The brochures which were prepared by the Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture several months ago have been received and are being passed out by local business firms. The pictures are very interesting and some of the figures will surprise you. Be sure to get one.

An old saying "Toot your own horn or the same shall not be tooted," was brought to our minds one day last week. Ball point pens were installed in the local post office. The installation went by unnoticed until someone heard a radio broadcast that the same thing had been done in Pampa. Then everyone came up with a statement about like this: "Well, what's that to brag about? We have had ours several days."

If there is anything new in And Around Friona, we want to know about it. Then we will get the word around.

Just as we predicted after window shopping in Dallas, Waco, and Austin last month, black is going to be very good for fall. Complete ensembles are being shown in black. From our point of view, nothing is prettier.

There is still an urgent need for volunteer workers for the Girl Scouts in Friona. If any of you have time you would like to invest in the future citizens of Friona, call Deke Kendrick and volunteer your services.

Would you be surprised to know that there are over 2200 irrigation wells in the Friona trade territory? We were. The advancements that are being made in our area are so

And, though you have a bona fide contractor who has provided for payment of employees' compensation, you should also have liability insurance to protect you against accidents to members of the public.

D., 1956 and said proposed amendment proposes that all of Lots 1 and 2, and 9 and 10 Block 1, Baxter Addition to the City of Friona, Parmer County, Texas, be changed from an

backed by facts

Our local business firms are in good shape to back up strong claims of giving you MORE VALUE FOR YOUR MONEY.

Because . . . it's a simple fact of economic life that home merchants have about a 30% head start on their out-of-town competitors in the run for our money.

This is true because near 30% of every dollar spent at retail goes to support and to build up the prosperity of the community in which it is spent . . . and you benefit from the work done by that part of your money ONLY when you live and do business in that community.

Where goods, service and price offered by home stores and by the out-of-town stores are otherwise equal . . . the HOME DEAL is still close to one-third better . . . and may be many times better for you . . . as bigger trade volume at home prospers the area where YOU live . . . and make your living.

Friona firms are the only business establishments in the world who are genuinely interested in the future of this community where you make YOUR living.

News From
LAZBUDDIE

Lazbuddie Wins Over New Home, 8-0

Lazbuddie Longhorns won their second game of the season at New Home Friday night. After a first half deadlock, the Longhorns backed the New Home team into the end zone for a safety to take a 2 to 0 lead mid-way in the third quarter.

The Longhorns really came to life after scoring the safety. New Home kicked from the twenty yard line and Roy Vanlandingham took it on the 35 and raced to the 50 before the Leopards could bring him down. On the first play from scrimmage, Vanlandingham rolled off 15 yards for a first down on the 35. On the next play, it was Glen Watkins with a nine yard gain to the 26 with Vanlandingham making another 10 yard run on the next play for the first down on the 16 yard line as the third quarter ended.

As the fourth quarter began, Roy Van took the ball over the goal line for six points to send the Longhorns out in front 8 to 0.

The Longhorns picked up 174 yards running. Coach Washington's three mainstays were alternating in the ball carrying department, Johnnie Gammon made 35 yards Watkins with 59, and Vanlandingham with 58. Other backs seeing service were Beavers with 4 yards, Briggs with 6, and Weaver with 12.

Not to be overlooked is the fine play of the boys on the front line as they opened up the hole for the backs to gain their yardage. Leading the fine defensive play were Captain Andy Fuqua along with Gilmore, Daniel, and Capt. D. Teague.

The Longhorns have several sophomores and freshmen in the starting line up, and if they continue to improve, they should give several other teams a lot of trouble in their first year of eleven man football.

Coach Washington and Coach Williams commented that the boys looked good, but would need some brushing up before the first conference game next Friday night on the home field with Whitharral.

Come out and back the Longhorns Friday night against Whitharral in their first conference game.

The PTA will serve barbecue sandwiches, hot dogs and coffee.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gordon, Alice and Richard were in Estancia, N.M., Sunday.
