

GRAHAM CRACKERS

—WHG

Our three days in mountainous Northern New Mexico was fun. We trod trails with our two small sons that we haven't set foot on since we ourselves were very young.

These three days together served as the year's vacation for the Grahams, but as all parents of small children are sure to agree, a vacation with the kids is using the word "vacation" loosely. There sure wasn't any relaxing on that trip.

If they weren't falling into a swift mountain stream on one hand, they were running straight down hill as we watched in discomfort knowing that surely the next step they would trip and bash their heads on big rocks.

The only peace of mind we had was after they had been put to bed (forcibly) and by that time we were so fagged that sleep was the only thing that had much appeal to us, too.

A lot of things have changed in the mountains since we used to go there with our father. The biggest change, we suppose, is the increase in people. Modern cars and better roads have taken the New Mexico mountains out of the "retreat" class. You bump into as many people from your neck of the woods as you would if you were attending the Tri-State Fair or some other purely regional hippodrome.

Santa Fe still makes an effort to be quaint and charming, but the hustle of modern America is creeping into its streets and shops. We suppose that only the Spanish architecture and the narrow, crooked streets keep it from looking like any other Southwestern town.

The same goes for Taos, although because of its being an artist center and not having something like the state capitol to give it life, we would imagine that this old, old hangout of Kit Carson and the Pueblo Indians will keep on being Taos for a long time to come.

If Northern New Mexico is not populous, it gives the impression of being so. On one hand there was the state fair in Albuquerque, and on the other, the harvest festival at Taos. People were everywhere, and the highways could have been mistaken for the ones we have traveled between Fort Worth and Dallas.

New Mexicans may complain about so much of their land being owned by the federal government, and hence not on the state tax rolls, but it looks to us that they owe their prosperity to two things: the Texas tourist and the U. S. military establishments.

Installations such as Los Alamos, the White Sands proving grounds, and many big air bases make New Mexico one of the few states which gets more back from the federal government than is paid out in federal taxes.

One night which we spent at Tall Pine Camp near the foot of Red River Pass was particularly enjoyable because of the memories that it stirred.

Our family stayed in the same cabin that the writer and his parents and boyhood friends had spent so many fun-filled hours. Only the cabin has changed a lot.

Now instead of a wood-burning stove, there is a butane range, and a butane panel heater, too. In place of the slop jar is a bathroom complete with shower, and of course the cabin is plumbed with hot and cold water. Even an ice box and electric lights are included today.

We can't say that we approve of these modern conveniences. Ronny or Hal will never get a chance to have the tingling experience of bouncing out of bed on a snappy morning, skipping down to the spring, bucket in hand, and bringing back a supply of pure mountain water for cooking, drinking, and washing.

They'll never know the feel of a cold cabin floor on bare feet as they shake down the ashes from the previous evening's cooking and throw in splinters and a few small aspen sticks to start a morning fire.

The warm atmosphere of a room lit only by a couple of coal oil lamps, with a friendly teakettle bubbling away on a chill mountain night, for them will be substituted by the white, impersonal light of an incandescent bulb and the occasional popping on and off of a thermostatically controlled butane heater.

Somehow we don't see how the stream trout could taste as good when cooked on anything but an old wood burning stove. We doubt if a snack could be as tasty coming from the electric ice box instead of a window storage box on the shady side of the cabin.

If we are nostalgic or sentimental, you can call us that. It's just the way we feel.

MOVING ALONG—City officials expect to be moving into this modern new building by the middle of next month if everything progresses satisfactorily. The new city hall adjoins the fire station and is being built at a cost of over $40,000.

Hospital Move This Saturday

D-Day is at hand for the Parmer County Community Hospital. It will be Saturday when equipment, patients, and "the works" will be transported a block north to the shiny new building in the final stages of construction.

"Everyone on the hospital staff is just about delirious about it," says Jimmy Baxter this week. He is hospital manager, and has been one of the primary workers in making the new building a reality.

The Friona Lions Club, expected to field about 30 strong backs, will grunt and groan as they take on the assignment to move the equipment. A schedule has been set up for this task, and it is hoped that the moving can begin at 9 a. m. and be finished by 2 p. m.

Whiteface Rumbles Past Chiefs, 19-6

In Friona's third non-conference game of the year, Whiteface rumbled past the local eleven 19-6 on the home field Friday night. It was the Chiefs' second loss.

The game was filled with fumbles by both teams, and Friona fielded a "lame duck" aggregation, with holes everywhere in the line-up from early season injuries, and a tough scramble with Stinnett last Friday.

Just the same, the game Chiefs kept the visitors out of the end zone for the first two quarters and the half went scoreless.

Whiteface came alive in the next inning, however, and punched home two quick TD's and converted once.

The guests scored their third touchdown before the Chiefs managed to get their offensive machine into paydirt, and these two developments happened in the fourth quarter. Jerry Chiles crossed the line for the Chiefs' lonesome six points.

Baxter To Build New Ford House

Oscar Baxter this week announced sale of the building now occupied by Friona Motor Company, local Ford implement agency. At the same time, he divulged plans for immediate construction of a new masonry building for the company on Highway 60 in the Baxter Addition of Friona.

The building now being used by he and his partner in business, Jim Baxter, has been sold to Smiley Fulks for $9200, and plans are for the company to vacate that location within 60 days.

"That will mean that we'll have to hurry to get our new building up and moved into," he said, but

Ladies of the Hospital Auxiliary will serve breakfast and dinner to the Club.

First to be moved will be the patients. Marcum-Claborn ambulances are being furnished. How many patients will be involved in the transfer is unknown, but Baxter says he wouldn't be surprised if there are a number because of the busy season which the hospital is now in. The first of the week, there were 14 bed patients.

The clinic of the hospital will be closed all day during the move, but will be reopened Monday in the new building.

Funeral Held for Tom W. Galloway

Funeral services for Tom W. (Butch) Galloway, 77, a retired San Angelo rancher who died Saturday in a Lubbock convalescent home, were held at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday at the J. E. Stevens Funeral Home in Coleman. Rev. A. Schulze, pastor of the Coleman Methodist Church, officiated and burial was in the Glen Cove Cemetery.

Galloway, who had been living with a son, Tom Galloway, in Lubbock for more than a year, operated a ranch near San Angelo for many years. He was a cousin of the late B. T. (Uncle Ben) Galloway of Friona and operated a ranch in Parmer County about 15 years. The two men came to Friona together in 1917 from Coleman County.

Survivors include one daughter, Winifred Galloway Huffman of Odessa; four sons, Carl of Eureka, Utah; R. V. and Tom of Lubbock, and Aubrey of Salt Lake City, Utah. Mrs. W. L. Hannold of Friona is a cousin.

Delegate Says Convention Was "Dirty Deal"

By W. H. Graham Jr. The September convention of the Texas Democratic Party is gone but not forgotten.

Amid rumblings of discontent within the ranks of the party across the state, there is more than just occasional mention of some of the goings-on at the Demo clambake in Fort Worth in September, and apparently the general public has not been fully exposed to the happenings there.

After reading a few—and hearing several—comments on discontent that the liberal delegations of Texas were bearing, this reporter thought it might not hurt to talk with one of the Parmer County delegates who was there.

Sure enough, some interesting conversation developed.

Loyde Brewer of Friona and Wiley Bullock of Lazbuddie were the county delegates. Alternates were Joe Douglas and Oscar Baxter, both of Friona.

Our interview dealt only with Brewer, but he is confident that his views are shared by the others who were along.

Jamboree Saturday

Several visiting entertainers will be on hand for the weekly jamboree in the Friona school auditorium Saturday night, announces the Friona Legion Post, which is sponsoring the appearances.

To raise money for a swimming pool project for the community's youth, the series of performances has been moved inside for the winter. They previously had been held in the city park in the evenings.

Attendance at last Saturday night's activity was light, comments Russell Massey, Legion commander. Only 28 attended the session, and he is hopeful that citizens of the area will respond more liberally to the event in future weeks.

A charge of 50 cents per person is made for admission.

Coming here from Hereford will be Sonny Helmke and his Night Owls. Another group will be the Troubadors from Dimmitt, a group of girl singers.

In addition will be the mainstays including Smokey Mayfield, George Green, and Delmer Shirley.

Grand, Petit Jury Venires Announced for Next Week

The petit and grand jury lists for the first October session of district court, which gets underway at the Parmer County Courthouse in Farwell Monday morning, have been announced.

Sixty citizens of the county have been summoned for the petit jury and 16 for the grand jury. The grand jury convenes at 9:30 a. m. and the petit jurors are to assemble at 10.

Eleven criminal cases are to be investigated by the grand jury and the persons indicted will be tried at a later date by Judge E. A. Bills, according to Chas. Lovelace, county sheriff.

Numerous civil cases are on docket for the petit jury and the court will be in session during the week until all docketed cases have been tried, says Hugh Moseley, county and district clerk.

The petit jury list is comprised of 13 women and 47 men and 16 men make up the grand jury.

The lists are as follows:
Grand Jurors
Dalton Caffey, Tom Atkins, Kenyth Cass, H. T. Edwards, W. L. Edelman, George F. Trimble,

Nunn New Manager Of McCaslin Lumber

Bill Nunn, in the employ of Carl McCaslin Lumber, Inc., of Hereford the past nine years, has been named manager of that company's Friona yard, it was announced this week.

Harry McCauley, who has been manager of the local yard since McCaslin purchased it last year, will still be associated with the firm here.

Nunn, who has a wife and three children, including two boys 4 and 7 and one girl of 11, will move to Friona in the near future. He already has assumed active management.

Nunn was in charge of the plumbing department at the Hereford yard.

Civil Appeals Court Reverses Strickland Damages Dispute

A civil suit between the City of Friona and Paul Strickland, local service station operator, was back in the news again last week. The court of civil appeals at Amarillo reversed a county court decision, giving the Friona businessman the latest round in a legal entanglement.

The effect of the appeals court reversal would normally be to return the matter to the county level where it would be re-tried. However, City Attorney Bill Sheehan Monday night advised the city commission that the city will make a motion for re-hearing.

In effect, this will ask the court to re-consider the case and see if it wishes to change its mind.

From there, the dispute could be carried to the state supreme court, or settled without further litigation, depending on how near the parties involved can come to an agreement.

The dispute originated in mid-1955 when Friona was asked by the state highway department to obtain right-of-way through the city in order that a 4-lane project could be launched.

Strickland did not release his property for easement, and was offered $250 by the city for damages. This offer refused, the disagreement was sized up by three commissioners appointed by County Judge A. D. Smith. They gave the property owner $500 damages.

Strickland appealed this action, and a county court case was held in December, during which the amount was set at $400. This also was appealed and the case went to the Amarillo court, where the previous decisions were overturned.

Ray Cowser of Hereford represents Strickland. Sheehan and Ben Monning of Amarillo are representing the city's side.

Quarterback Club Will Boost Chiefs

Formation of a Friona Quarterback Club to boost the local football team was announced by the Friona Lions Club this week. The idea originated with them and they are promoting the move, but participation from any resident interested in backing the Friona Chiefs is urged.

Membership in the organization is $5 per person, and this money will be used to further activities of the club. First on the agenda is the purchase of a telescopic lens and a supply of film to enable complete filming of games of the Chiefs this season.

Services Conducted For Mrs. E. J. Carter

Funeral services for Mrs. E. J. Carter, long-time resident of Belton, were conducted in Belton Saturday afternoon at 4:30. Mrs. Carter, who was 95 last April, died Friday evening. She was born in Ala. and lived at Belton 85 years.

Her survivors include six daughters and one son. One of the daughters, Mrs. J. M. Watson, has lived at Friona many years. Another daughter, Miss Macie Carter, who died eight years ago, formerly taught in the Friona school. The son, Dumas Carter, was also a former resident.

Those from Friona who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Watson, Mrs. Nelson Welch, Mrs. Eugene Boggess and Mrs. Harold Lillard. Mesdames Welch, Boggess and Lillard are granddaughters of the deceased.

Youths Burglarize Hardware

Three ambitious young boys, described as "wild" by police officers, burglarized Vestal-Brewer Hardware and several other stores over a wide area during the past weekend.

They hit Friona about 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon, entering the hardware store from the rear by breaking out a glass. Five pistols and ammunition were taken by the young burglars whose ages were 12, 14, and 15.

The lad of 15 was caught when he got "cold feet" several hours later and returned to the scene arranged to have one of the boys left inside a store after hours so that he was locked up. He then would help himself to what the gang wanted and unlock the night latch and leave.

The group's other activities included burglaries in Bovina and Clovis. The boys of 12 and 14 were arrested in Clovis, and all three are being returned to Oklahoma where they are expected to be enrolled in a state industrial school.

Two of the three boys come from homes where the mother and father were separated.

ed over their leader, Yarborough. To make things worse, the liberals claim to have outnumbered the conservatives in delegate strength. How, then, did this happen?

"It was parliamentary manipulation that beat us," declares Brewer. "We think we got a dirty deal. It was a rotten affair in which the outcome had been decided before we ever went to the convention."

Parmer County didn't have any trouble being seated in the convention. A two-vote representation for the liberals was hardly worth fighting over. However, when it came time to see who would be seated from big vote counties, namely Harris, Bexar, El Paso, and Wichita, things were different, and heated contests arose.

The conservatives delegations from such counties were first temporarily placed by the party's credentials committee, a group which Brewer says had been appointed by a previous Shivers (conservative) convention.

Then, as the contest arose on whether such seating could be termed legitimate, a roll call vote was taken in which the conservative members of the contested delegations, which were then on the floor, were permitted to vote on their own dispute.

One development which cut liberals to the quick was the apparent desertion of their ranks by Lyndon Johnson and Sam Rayburn. These two high-ranking members of the national legislature, who had previously figured prominently in guiding county conventions into the lib-

THE STAR'S EDITORIAL COMMENT

Deficit Thinking

The postal deficit is needless. Those who say that it is necessary to render the services of the postal system at a loss to the government are guilty of deficit thinking.

A story elsewhere in this week's paper gives some hint of the size of the present losses of the system, and how such losses are of course made up from general tax revenues. This practice violates a basic principle of America's strength in that it takes from the many for the benefit of the few.

The Star believes that all classes of postage should be sent through the mails at rates that are in keeping with the costs of delivery. Government franking should be ended, too, and sensible accounting systems set up to keep track of just how much it is costing to keep every separate operation functioning. The present system's bookkeeping is woefully inadequate.

a balanced budget for the post office, The Star might surprise you to suggest that second class mailing rates for newspapers, magazines, and other low-cost users be substantially increased.

At last calculation, we figure that it costs only about one-fourth cent to mail a copy of the Star. We doubt seriously the government's ability to perform this service so cheaply in spite of the fact that too often the service is so poor that the split-cent spent on postage has been wasted.

We believe that if the post office would align its rates with actual costs and get to operating in the black, it could then bend its back to the task of improving service. And there is room for improvement.

Six Encephalitis Cases In Friona During Season

A check with Dr. Paul Spring at the Parmer County Community Hospital this week reveals that there have been six illnesses in Friona this summer definitely diagnosed as encephalitis, or sleeping sickness.

Mrs. John Frerick, dismissed from the hospital only last week, was the most recent victim of a severe case.

With the mosquito season virtually over, the incident of the disease has diminished, and the advent of the first frost should bring an end to the danger, says Dr. Spring.

"The mosquito has definitely been established as carrier of the disease," he says, "and there is no possibility of infection from contact."

The danger of sleeping sickness has been over-emphasized, he believes. It is seldom that any harmful after-effects are observed.

School Board Lists Comparison of Tax Structure for 1956

Following revision of tax structure earlier this summer in formulas used to determine the value of land, the Friona School District has assessed its roles and mailed tax statements for 1956.

This week for the purposes of clarification, the Friona school board outlined a comparison of the tax collection activities of the District with those of last year.

Land and commercial property outside the city limits has been increased in value on the rolls from $5,034,705 to $7,020,517. Property within the city is listed at $1,488,825, compared with $1,243,707 a year ago. Personal valuations: $2,481,653 in 1955, $2,793,140 in 1956.

This results in a total valuation of $11,302,482 this year, as compared with $8,760,065 a year ago. When multiplied by the tax rate of $1.50 per $100 valuation (which is unchanged), the figures yield $169,535.54 in taxes this year instead of $131,400.73 last year. The total increase in taxes is $38,134.81.

This year the school district hired L. E. Lovelace of Stamford to re-evaluate the property in the district. Farm property received the most upward adjustment.

It, however, was aligned to be more nearly on a par with city property valuations, which are aimed at about 25 percent of actual value.

The June 28 issue of The Star contains details on the tax study.

Friona Elevators In CROP Program

Continental Grain Company and Friona Wheat Growers elevators both are participating in an area CROP (Christian Rural Overseas Program) effort, announce Rev. Ellis Todd and Rev. Hugh Blaylock.

Rev. Todd, a CROP worker from Plainview, visited in Friona recently in behalf of the project.

Farmers who desire to place a portion of their crop in the program may do so at these elevators, and obtain receipts indicating this action, the pastors advise.

It then will be possible for them to claim the gifts as tax deductions.

Hospital Building To Be Auctioned

Members of the board of directors of the Parmer County Community Hospital this week decided to auction off the old building that will be vacated this week.

There had been some discussion on what the probable disposal of the property might be, and the suggestion had been raised that it might be donated to the community as a youth recreation center. However, because the $200,000 new hospital building still lacks a lot of being paid for, the hospital dads have decided to salvage as much money from the sale of the old building as is possible.

Big State Auction Company of Amarillo will handle the sale, which is scheduled to be held October 23.

With sale of the building and removal of it from that location, the hospital will still have property adjacent Highway 60, which according to current market indications, should prove to be valuable also.

FFA Officer Election Held

Friona FFA Chapter held a meeting in the study hall Friday. The possibility of having a regular monthly meeting was discussed. Officers for the year were also elected. They are John Hamilton, president; Wesley Barnett, vice-president; Gerald Floyd, secretary; Don Reeve, treasurer; Don McMahan, parliamentarian; Phillip Weatherly, O'Neil Greeson, and Jerry Chiles, watchdogs.

An initiation committee was appointed. Those on the committee are Jimmy Patton, Burr Blake, Jon Mac Roden, Ira Parr, and Wayne Rhodes. After a call for business, new or old, the move to adjourn was made and accepted by the Chapter.

Pony Express Race Not New To Friona

Apparently, someone who lives in Borger wants the folks of Friona to know that the pony express race staged here a couple of weeks ago isn't necessarily an original idea.

This is the second year for such an event at Borger, and mail will be carried in from Fritch, Sanford, and Stinnett.

County Teachers Hear Cunningham

Parmer County teachers turned out about 100 percent for their first meeting of the year Wednesday night, with Farwell Schools, as hosts.

Preceding the business session, a banquet of roast beef, sweet potatoes, green beans, hot rolls, salad, tea or coffee and dessert were served to about 135 attendees. Decorative motif for the banquet tables featured a fall theme, with colorful bouquets centering each table, and leaves trailing down the center of the tables.

Judge A. D. Smith gave the invocation for the meal, and L. B. Penick was toastmaster.

Fred Cunningham, superintendent of Hereford schools, was featured speaker of the evening, and told Parmer County members of the association the importance of teacher retirement amendment No. 4, which will be voted on by the people of Texas in November. He urged the teachers to actively campaign for the passage of the amendment, and emphasized that if the majority of Texans vote "for" the amendment, the provisions will become effective immediately.

He explained that the retirement system was planned in 1937 "but we have outgrown its provisions."

Among points stressed by Cunningham on why the amendment is needed were "to recruit additional teachers and to hold the teachers now in service, to bring up-to-date a program enacted in 1937 during the depressions" and others.

Literature to be used in the program to push the bill had already been ordered and was distributed among those present. Anyone wishing to know more about the amendment may ask any teacher in the county for information, officials say.

James H. Haynes of Lazbuddie, was elected president of the group, to replace George Childress, who resigned his position at Farwell Schools last year. Named as vice-president to succeed Haynes was Raymond Cook of Friona. Second vice-president is Wayne Stephens of Bovina and Mrs. Otie Ellison of Bovina is treasurer. Mrs. Irene Jones of Farwell is secretary.

Committees to "get out the vote for amendment 4" were named and work is to continue until election day.

Bovina will be host school for the next meeting.

Mary Sheehan Is New WMU President

Mrs. Mary Sheehan was installed as new president of the W.M.U. at the Tuesday afternoon meeting in the educational building. The meeting was opened by a devotional given by Mrs. W. S. Crow titled "Found Faithful."

Mrs. Ernest Hock had charge now in service, to bring up-to-date the, "How We Wear Our Shoes." As each officer was given her charge, she was presented with a pair of paper shoes. Other officers are Mrs. Johnny Mars, young people's director; Mrs. Spencer Hough, recording secretary; Mrs. Douglas Connelly, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Steve Mesenger, first vice-president; Mrs. Clayton Taylor, second vice-president;

Also, Mrs. Jim Maynard, Mrs. Ernest Hock, and Mrs. Doris Carter, circle chairmen; Mrs. Joe Talley, mission study chairman; Mrs. C. M. Fields, community missions chairman; Mrs. Jerry Maynard, social chairman; Mrs. Glynn Don Hughes, prayer chairman; Mrs. W. S. Crow, business women's circle advisor; and Mrs. David Smith, reporter.

Honored On 6th Birthday

Bennie Lynn Hannold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hannold, was honored with a party on her sixth birthday in the Hannold home Tuesday afternoon.

After the gifts were opened and displayed on a table, the candles on the birthday cake were lighted. The group sang "Happy Birthday" and Bennie blew out the candles.

Refreshments of cake and ice cream were served to the following guests: Mrs. J. D. McMillan, Mrs. Gilbert Boatman, Mrs. Vergel Brown, Mrs. Ralph Roden and Pamela Sue, Mary Ann Bogges, Mrs. Charles Rickerd;

Also Mrs. Allen Stewart and Margie; Mrs. Jim Guinn, Carolin and Cynthia; Mrs. Glenn Floyd, Frieda, and Susan; Janet Rushing, and Raymond Euler.

Rainbow Assembly To Be Instituted

A Rainbow Assembly in Friona will be instituted Saturday, October 6, at 7 p.m. in the Friona School cafeteria. The installation of officers and advisory board will follow at 8 p.m.

All Masons and Eastern Stars are invited to attend the institution ceremony. The installation ceremony is public and anyone who is interested in the Rainbow Assembly may attend.

Former Residents Are Weekend Guests

Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Stokes and son, Walter, were weekend guests in the home of Mrs. Bertie Stowers. Dr. and Mrs. Stokes, who were former staff members of the Parmer County Community Hospital, have been living in New York where the doctor has been stationed with the army. Walter is a student at Texas Tech.

Dr. and Mrs. Stokes will leave soon for a three year tour of duty in Germany. Other guests in the Stowers home were Mrs. Tolbert Stowers of Texhoma and Mrs. A. D. Edens and son, Danny, of Hereford.

Awards Given At Pack Meeting

Three awards were given at the Cub Scout pack meeting at the American Legion hall Thursday evening. The boys of Den 5 opened the meeting with the flag ceremony. This was followed by some group singing.

"America" was sung, then Larry Hollis led the group in singing "Row, Row Your Boat," and Tom Bill Shelton led "Davy Crockett." Thelma Ruth Shelton was leader of a game session. A get acquainted game was played, then a game of sentence story writing.

Claude Edelman presented bobcat pins to Ronnie Reed, Duane Reed, and Stevan Thornton. A wolf badge was presented to Ronnie Reed by Coy Patton, who also gave him a gold arrow under the badge. Patton then presented Larry Hollis a silver arrow under his wolf badge.

There were about 25 adults and 30 children present for the meeting. Plans have been completed for the training meeting which will be held in the Dean Awtrey home October 8.

The meeting was closed by Den 5 retiring the flag.

Friona American Legion To Host Zone Meeting

The next zone meeting of the American Legion will be held in Friona at the American Legion hall Tuesday, October 9. Hilton Lambert of Snyder, who is campaigning for state commander for the next election, is expected to attend the meeting.

Dow Stevens, eighteenth district commander who lives at Borger, has been invited to attend. Refreshments will be served following the program according to Joe Brummett, zone commander of zone one, eighteenth district.

Troop VIII elected new officers at their meeting last week. This troop meets at the Congregational Church each Monday afternoon. The new officers are Sharon Reeve, president; Janet Buckley, vice-president; Cynthia Guinn, secretary; Wanda Ready, treasurer; and Brenda Deaton, reporter. Wilene Baxter served refreshments to the Scouts present and Helen Potts, who is the leader.

Friona HD Club Meets at Club House

Johnie Stokes was hostess to the Friona Home Demonstration Club at the Club House Friday afternoon. The meeting was called to order by Nellie Ray, president. The club creed and prayer were repeated in unison. Faye McMahan called the roll and gave a financial report.

Refreshments of cake, ice cream, tea and nuts were served by the hostess to two guests, Mrs. Clyde Sherrieb and Mrs. Cord Hammock, and the following members: Olive Massie, Ruby Robards, Drucilla Paul, Gladys Wright, Dorothy Hough, Zonah Bass, Inez Sherley, Faye McMahan, Nellie Ray, Edith Taylor and Lauretta Brookfield.

G. E. Shackelfords Have New Baby Girl

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Shackelford of Perryton became parents of a baby girl on September 23. She weighed 7½ lbs. and was named Molly Beth. The Shackelfords, who are former Friona residents, have two older sons, Terry, 9, and Danny, 5.

Mrs. Bert Shackelford, who is the maternal grandmother, spent last week in the G. E. Shackelford home. The grandfather went to Perryton Saturday and he and Mrs. Shackelford returned home late Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Potter of Lancaster, Calif., visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Russell last week on their return from Tulsa, Okla. Mr. and Mrs. William V. Elmore and Tim were business visitors in Farwell Thursday afternoon.

If your house burns down—

If your home should burn, it is still going to cost you a lot more than you probably think it will to rebuild it or buy a new house.

Don't keep thinking about what your house cost you in the first place, maybe years ago. Building costs and home values have risen greatly in recent years. Think: how much would it cost me to duplicate it tomorrow?

If you are like the average home owner, you are still probably way under-insured and should talk to us mighty soon (maybe this minute) about increasing the amount of your fire insurance coverage.

DON'T SHOOT, We Surrender!

To the People in the Friona Area:

It is inconvenient at any time to be without power. This is especially true during the time you'd like to be watching a baseball game Sunday afternoon.

The people of the Friona area were out of electric service Sunday, September 9, due to vandalism. Someone shot four insulators off our line with 22 caliber rifles three quarters of a mile south of E. M. Rushing's farm. This caused a surge on our equipment, which blew a high side fuse at the substation.

The substation transformer was burned, which required reinstallation of another one and will cost the cooperative at least $1,000.00 to repair the damage. We are very sorry that you people were out of service and ask that you cooperate with us in stopping this sort of vandalism.

Our linemen got a call Sunday morning and restored the service at this substation at 7:30 a. m. The equipment operated satisfactorily until about 12 o'clock noon. Mrs. Hadley Reeve called about 12:10 p. m. stating they were out of service. Upon arriving at the scene it was found that the substation had burned out, or at least one transformer in the substation had burned. Upon investigation, the linemen found that four insulators had been shot at the location just south of E. M. Rushing's home. This incident is the third time we've found insulators shot at this same location.

We ask the cooperation of all members in reporting the license number of anyone seen shooting from a car in the direction of your property.

Club Studies Jury Service

Jury service was the topic of study of the Hi-Point Home Demonstration Club at its Friday afternoon meeting in the home of Mrs. Glen Mingus. The program was opened by Mrs. Lee Renner reading "Housewife's Diary."

Bill Sheehan, county attorney, gave a lecture and showed a film on "Jury Duty." After seeing the film, most of the club members saw jury duty as a privilege more than as a duty.

Mrs. Glenn Mingus, who was the hostess, served refreshments of pops and chocolate covered doughnuts to the following members: Mesdames James Boyle, Bob Kimbrough, Lee Renner, Elmer Oldham, Joe Brummett, Lloyd Mingus, Harry Hamilton, Billy Dean Baxter, Eugene Bandy, and the guest, Bill Sheehan.

Schlenkers Thank C-C For Special Award

Chamber of Commerce officials have asked The Star to publish a letter from the family of Floyd Schlenker, who was remembered posthumously with a special award from the Chamber at the 50th Anniversary Celebration two weeks ago.

It is being made public because it concerns all members of the Chamber:

Dear Friends,
It is difficult for us to express how deep our gratitude is for the beautiful plaque you gave us in memory of Floyd's work. It will be treasured for many generations.

He did have an intense interest in any progress of his county, but felt keenly his lack of formal education. He loved working with you men for he thought you had the same interest in your county.

Harvest Time...

Time to reap the joys of ELECTRIC COOKING!

You can live better electrically when you cook electrically.

It's the traditional time of the year to reap the joys of harvest and it's time, too, to reap the joys of electric cooking. If you're not yet one of the millions of modern women who already cook electrically, then it's time you learned how easy electric cooking is. Take cleanliness, for example. Electric cooking is clean... no messy pan bottoms to clean because nothing burns onto the tops of electric elements or the bottoms of pans. Ovens are insulated on ALL SIX SIDES and they're automatic... just set and forget... whole meals cook for you automatically. It's harvest time... time for you to reap the joys of electric cooking.

HOW DO YOU LIKE YOUR COOKING... electrically, you can have it either way, conventional, free-standing models or the delightful new custom built-ins. Your Reddy Kilowatt Dealer can help you choose.

Spinning, Weaving Cotton Is Dynamic Industry in America

Spinning and weaving of cotton textiles—one of the oldest industries in the world—today is one of the most dynamic in America.

Across the country nearly 23 million cotton system spinning spindles are in place. Of the active spindles consuming all cotton, 86 per cent are located in cotton producing states. Cotton accounts for approximately 94 per cent of all spindles in this country.

In an estimated 1,500 plants in the 14 states comprising the broad Southland, a total of more than 650,000 men and women depend directly upon textiles for their livelihood. Thousands of others depend on them indirectly.

The textile industry had its beginnings in New England in Colonial days, although cotton mills were established in the South as early as 1789, and were in operation in the Carolinas and Georgia in the early 1800's.

Whereas in 1880 the South had only 5.3 per cent of the nation's spindles, compared to 81 per cent for New England, by 1920 the percentage had risen to 22.4 in the South, and had declined to 67.6 in the New England area. The cotton producing states went into the lead in 1927 and have forged ahead steadily ever since.

The bulk of Dixie's textile manufacturing now is concentrated in the Carolinas, Georgia and Alabama, but plants continue to spread over other areas of the region. Textiles are the second largest industry in Tennessee and are growing in importance in Virginia and Mississippi.

Since the mid-1920's, South Carolina has led the entire nation in total spindle hours run. Its more than 300 textile plants house more than six million spindles—about a fourth of the nation's total in place—and 147,000 employees. South Carolina mills consume an average of 2,246,500 bales of cotton annually; the industry represents an investment of more than $400 million, and its payrolls aggregate $360 million annually. They turn out products valued at more than $1.6 billion yearly.

Actually, from the standpoint of mills, number of employees and other activity, North Carolina is the largest textile state in the country. It 525 mills employ approximately 232,200 persons, and comprise the state's largest single industry. Nearly 27 percent of the country's active cotton consuming spindles are in North Carolina mills.

Textiles, too, are the largest single industry in Georgia, where an annual average of 110,000 workers in about 208 plants receive $208 million a year. These mills consume more than two million bales of cotton annually.

Although total textile employment in Alabama is less than in the other three major states, it approximately 115 mills employ 55,000 persons—more than any other industry—and their annual aggregate payroll exceeds $160 million.

Virginia has 29 mills with 40,000 employees; Tennessee, 178, with 39,200 workers; Arkansas, 14 to 2,400; Florida, 12 and 250; Kentucky, 11 and 3,350; Louisiana, 8 and 2,100; Mississippi, 29 and 5,500; Oklahoma, 1 and 700; Texas, 53 and 9,800; and California, 2 and 250.

Rewiring Your Farm A Sure Way To Fire Safety

Four out of every five electrified farms in the United States are loaded with electrical fire hazards.

Project this figure: there are nearly 5,000,000 electrified farms in the nation; hence 4,000,000 of them come under this dire classification.

It's hard to believe but true, claims Glenn Rowell of the Fire Underwriters Inspection Bureau of Minnesota and chairman of one of the 14 panels that make up the National Fire Protection Association's National Electrical Code (nation's most widely adopted safety code).

The 4,000,000 electrified farms are loaded with potential life, and fire hazards brought about by a combination of overloading and use of wiring materials never intended for use in damp or corrosive locations, he says.

When electricity first replaced the kerosene lamp, in farmsteads, it was looked upon merely as a lighting substitute. The glaring mistake was made in failing to recognize the farm as an industrial establishment, where electrical wiring materials would be subject to moisture, corrosive atmosphere and wide temperature changes. Electrification grew by leaps and bounds; more appliances, labor saving, profit-making devices were added.

But a farm wired by 100 kilowatt hours per month cannot operate profitably or safely when 350 kilowatt hours are needed each month.

The actual seriousness of the problem is pointed up by these recent statistics: out of over 40,000 farmstead electrical inspections in Minnesota, Wisconsin and the Dakotas, less than 800 were found free of life or fire hazards! The answer? Reinspection and a complete rewiring program, says Mr. Rowell. And, he predicts, the farm load will reach 1200 kilowatt hours per month within the next ten years!

Balanced Budget Asked By Benesch For Mail Service

Editor's note: This story was crowded out of last week's "fight" paper. It concerned the dedication of the Friona post office building, in which a postal official made what The Star thinks is an important talk. We are running this story a week late, believing that the significance of his remarks are still worth printing."

Pointing out that postal deficits in the United States have risen to $4.6 billion since the end of World War II, J. Melvin Benesch, assistant district manager from Amarillo, Friday asked for a reduction or elimination of this trend.

Speaking at the dedication of Friona's new post office building, Benesch said, "It costs the individual citizen three cents to mail a letter today, but it costs the Department about three and three tenths cents to deliver that letter."

He added that costs are going up, too, and that the deficit is likely to increase.

"There are plenty of people who say that the postal deficits are to be expected; that the founding fathers intended the Service to be operated at a loss. But these things are just not true," Benesch said. To illustrate, he pointed out, "In the early years of our country, when rates were higher and when the dollar was several times greater in buying power, the Department often balanced its budget. In one or two years, surpluses accrued."

The official proceeded to point out that the major part of the deficit is not the fault of the "average citizen," but losses pile up because of individuals and business concerns who mail hundreds or thousands of letters each day. "Then it follows," he said, "that the vast majority, who make comparatively small use of the nation's postal facilities, pay taxes to subsidize the minority, who make extensive use of those facilities."

Benesch did not propose any particular formula for remedying postal deficits.

The dedication ceremony was attended by numerous out of town guests and officials. The Friona band and Legion color guard took part in the ceremony.

Postmaster Leo McLellan reported he was well pleased with the dedication.

FIRST JAIL BIRDS—Friona's city jail, now being installed in the new city hall, had its first two "inmates" last week. They were Orville Stevick and Cason Jones. Incidentally, when the pictures were taken there wasn't any roof on the jail and the men could hardly be regarded as prisoners.

CRACKERS—

sure are pretty this time of year.

A lot of time, inconvenience, and expense has resulted from shooting insulators off REA power lines near Friona. After bragging so much on Friona recently, we have a hard time facing up to vandalism like this.

The Deaf Smith Electric Co-op says this:

"Someone shot four insulators off our line with .22 caliber rifles south of E. M. Rushing's farm September 9. This caused a surge on our equipment, which blew a high side fuse at the substation.

"This incident is the third time we've found insulators shot at the same location."

They said it cost $1000 to repair the damage. We're ashamed that something like this could happen in the fine community of Friona, especially repeatedly.

Even after the governor's election is over and done with, Jake Lamb says politics has never been better in and around Friona. Jake enjoys his politics more than any one we have ever talked with.

He probably takes the issues as seriously as anyone else, but he never lets someone who doesn't see things the way he does get under his collar.

Jake was reaming us out the other day for supporting Price Daniel. "I'll cuss ya' and fight ya' every way I know how," he warned us, but added amiably, "but I still believe you've got a right to think and say what you want to."

Jake may think The Star is a one-sided newspaper, but the little story we are working up on politics should prove interesting reading for him.

She probably would prefer that we wouldn't mention her name: A Friona preacher's wife dashed up last Saturday morning as the pony express race was about to finish and exclaimed—

"Oh, isn't it exciting? I can see how horse racing can get into people's blood!"

Television has a language of its own.

Huffman and Kelley On Lions Program

Colie Huffman and Dillie Kelley were featured on the Thursday evening program of the Friona Lions. Huffman, head football coach at Friona, outlined the school's pigskin program and indicated interest in forming a "quarterback club" to boost local football efforts.

This action was promptly taken by the Lions and appointments were given to Hollis Horton and Pudge Kendrick to promote the project.

Kelley, Friona superintendent, spoke on school matters and gave special attention to Amendment Four of the constitution which will be voted on next month. The Amendment would expand the Texas teacher retirement program.

Parmer Delegate Says Convention Was "Dirty Deal"

eral camp, have been charged with a collusion with the Daniel conservative forces.

"I think Lyndon Johnson is mainly interested in Lyndon," says Brewer. "And Sam Rayburn's skin is an inch thick. He doesn't care what a few delegations think of him so long as he can turn up on the winning side and use it to his political advantage."

Brewer also hit at coverage of the convention by the state's press. "We don't believe the daily papers gave an accurate presentation of the convention," he said.

At one point several major dailies reported Daniel as announcing he would support the Democratic nominees in November's election. This charge the liberals, was just a means of swaying some liberal votes to his side. After the crucial roll-call vote which decided who was going to call the plays, the word went out that Daniel had not committed himself to such an endorsement.

(It should be mentioned here that Daniel has since again announced he will support the Democratic nominees.)

"It was evident to us that the will of the people of Texas was ignored at the Fort Worth convention," says Brewer.

The Parmer County delegation went to the meeting, uninstructed, but having come from a liberal-controlled county meeting, it was a foregone conclusion which way they would cast their votes.

Second Motor Grader At Work for City

A second motor grader, purchased recently, is now at work for the city. It is an Adams "312" with an International power unit, and is considerably larger than the light grader which the city has been using.

The machine was purchased from Texas Machinery Company in Amarillo at a cost of $1500. It will be used to grade unpaved streets and on other dirt-moving jobs.

The 1950 model machine has an enclosed cab.

No One Injured In Wreck at Hub

No one was injured in a two-car collision Tuesday morning at the Hub intersection of Highway 86 and the Friona-Muleshoe farm-to-market road. Deputy Charley Roberts who investigated the accident reports that Maria Esquivel, driver of a '56 Ford, and N. L. Wesson, driver of a late model Buick, collided.

Road signs at the intersection were knocked down.

North Farm Road Okayed By State

Friona's northern farm-to-market road joining our area with the Deaf Smith system has been inspected and approved, according to a release this week from the Texas Highway Department.

It is the newest addition to this precinct's farm-to-market system, and was completed on September 13.

FRIONA
With June

There is at least one thing most of us received in the mail this week which is new and different. Our school tax statements were wearing a new dress. The amounts may have been more or less, or possibly the same, but the envelopes were definitely new.

Since October is here, many persons are predicting the date of the first frost. Read in Graham crackers several weeks ago that our other half had predicted the first frost would be October 14. Now, Lawrence Bracken informs us that the date is wrong. His predictions are based on the size of some kind of flower buds and he estimates the date will be between the 18th and 20th.

We made a decision long ago to leave the weather predicting to someone else. The only thing we are firmly convinced of as far as weather is concerned is, "Anything can happen in West Texas, and generally does." Just the same, we like it.

The Casey Dunns will be moving into their new home in the east part of town soon and the Carl Maurers will be occupying theirs, which is being built out on the loop, in the near future. Several others including Mr. and Mrs. Ed Boggess are building or planning to build soon.

In spite of predictions of a drastic depression in the future, Friona residents keep carrying on about the same as ever. Maybe we are just going to have a "suppression" rather than a real depression.

Several out of state cars were parked near the drug store and bank this morning. We hardly think of October as a tourist month, but such must be the case. At least there are a few late vacationers or visitors.

This week is "Join the P.T.A." week. Every parent or interested person is invited to join. Then after you have joined, plan to devote some time and thought to the organization. The aim of the P.T.A. is to promote a better understanding between parents, teachers and students and to make advancements for the benefit of all. Many of the improvements which have been made in our public schools have been promoted by the P.T.A. There is no other organization whose purpose is entirely tied up with betterment of our public school system. If you haven't joined, send in your dues this week.

We spent some time last week comparing the values offered by Friona merchants for $1 day to those offered by the merchants in surrounding towns. Almost without exception when brand names and quantities were checked with prices, the bargains in our own town were equal to or better than those of the neighboring towns.

It has happened again. We have a new dog. Just about a week ago we found a new home for Noodle. He was a nice dog but developed an intense liking for raw eggs. Freida and Susan were depressed for a few days and kept asking, "Can we get another dog?" The Bill Hannolds must have heard the question. At any rate, they came up with another dog for us. His origin seems rather uncertain, but he is a nice dog and we like him.

His name is Chubby and we are just keeping our fingers crossed hoping he doesn't decide to eat eggs, chase cars, chew up everything on the place or develop some other undesirable habit. The only peculiarity we have observed so far is his idea about screen doors. Opening them is no problem for him, if he wants to come in the house, but he has to have help to open one from the inside.

Past Matrons Club Meets

The Past Matrons Club met recently with Mesdames Lem Miller and Charles Russell as hostesses in the Russell home. Mrs. J. T. Guinn presented an inspirational devotion based on "Faith Men Live By," which was written by Charles Potter. Her discourse was closed by giving "L'Envoy," by Kipling.

Mrs. Ed Boggess was elected president and it was decided to have a rummage sale in October. The hostesses served refreshments to the members of the club and one guest, Mrs. Grace Brodt of Auburn, N. Y.

Each guest was presented with a crocheted doily of the emblematic star in the appropriate color for each point. They were made by Mrs. Miller.

William Howard Taft was the first U. S. president to receive a salary of $75,000 a year.

CAN YOU DO IT?—J. H. Wise, local carpenter, who will be 84 in November, told a reporter, "I can do something that not many men can do who are half my age," as he posed for this picture.

He Plans To Take Full Time Position When Old Enough

By JUNE FLOYD

An average working day for one of Friona's older citizens is nine hours. When J. H. Wise, who will be 84 in November, was interviewed on the job one day last week, he remarked, "They think I'm too much of a kid to work all day. When I get old enough, I plan to take a full time job."

Wise, who is currently employed by Glen Stevick, is working on the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Boggess in the west part of town. He performs jobs just as any other carpenter does, but prefers laying hardwood floors to any job he has ever done. He started doing carpenter work in Lubbock about eighteen years ago. At that time he was at the age that most men begin to think of retiring.

SECTION II

The position which Wise uses for laying flooring must be unique. He works standing and never sits down or crawls on his knees. When he was asked to pose for a picture, he said, "Right now I'm kinda stiff from not working much recently. When I get limbered up, I can stand on two bricks and put both palms on the floor."

Wise, who was born November 21, 1872, near Troy, Alabama, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Wise, and had two brothers, Alonzo and B. B. The family moved to Belton, Texas, in 1876 and to Wise County two years later. He was married to Ella Webb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Webb at Velma, Indian Territory, in 1894.

Until 1920, Wise farmed and raised cattle. During the panic which followed World War I, he lost all his land and cattle, and it became necessary for him to go to work for wages to support his family. He worked as a cook in hotels in Lovington, N. M., Midland, and Lubbock for about 12 years. He did all types of cooking and still whips up an occasional meal when he isn't too busy.

In June of 1953 Mr. and Mrs. Wise moved to Friona and built a new home in the west part of town. Both of them are interested in growing things and have flowers, shrubs, strawberries, and vegetables in their yard and garden.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Wise are active members of the Baptist Church. On their 60th wedding anniversary a reporter asked them the question, "To what do you attribute your long happy married life?" Mrs. Wise replied, "We took Christ into our lives when we were young and we have tried to live right. We both came from Christian homes."

The couple also gives due credit to hard work and good health.

Children of the couple are Edward, San Francisco, California; Loyd, Lovington, New Mexico; Mrs. Everett Dickson, Caprock, New Mexico; and Mrs. Dan Ehridge, Friona. There are seven grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

The Washington Monument is 555 feet high.

Welcome Supper Wednesday Evening

A welcome supper was held for the Girls Auxiliary of the First Baptist Church Wednesday evening at 5:30. About 60 girls and their leaders were present for the program and supper which consisted of Frito pie, beans, tossed salad, homemade ice cream, cookies and tea.

Mrs. Bill Sheehan, president of the W.M.U., gave the welcome with a response by Luann Hardesty. Judy Taylor offered thanks for the meal. Promotion certificates were handed to the Sunbeam girls going into the Girls Auxiliary by Mrs. Curtis Murphee.

Mrs. Ralph Taylor and Mrs. Ray Castleberry received these girls giving them their membership cards. Mrs. Doyce Barnett promoted her girls to Mrs. Steve Messenger and she in turn promoted hers to the Intermediate Girls Auxiliary.

The Junior Choir sang two numbers and Mrs. C. M. Fields gave the Queen's Pin to Linda Castleberry and Luann Hardesty. Rev. C. M. Fields presented the devotional and the entire group sang the dismissal song.

Connie Whaley Observes Birthday

Mrs. Alice Whaley honored her daughter, Connie on her birthday at Mrs. O. J. Beene's kindergarten Thursday morning at 11. The birthday cake, which was about 12 inches in diameter was white with red and green decorations. There were clusters of red roses, red rosebuds and green foliage on the cake and the candles formed a border. "Happy Birthday Connie" was written across the cake.

Special guests were Connie's grandmother, Mrs. R. G. Wiley, Mary Beth Kelley, Lou Whaley and Jennisu Fallwell. Others attending were Billy Bert Chitwood, Jody Fallwell, Neal Kelley, Joel Osborn, Ramey Beene, Sammy Tapica, Brenda Blackburn, Lark Jarrell, Paula Fortenberry, Becky Wilson, and the honoree.

A man whose normal weight is 150 pounds would weigh about 50 pounds if all the water in his system were dried up.

Foundation Work "Awfully Slow": Will Slack Off

Progress on a county-wide effort to raise money for establishment of a Plains station for the Texas Research Foundation is "awfully slow" this week, according to Gilbert Kaltwasser, Parmer County director.

Pledges to date total only about $3,000, he says, and many workers have not made reports on contacts they were scheduled to make.

Kaltwasser gave two reasons for the drab campaign, and said that he had been advised by Jesse Osborn of Muleshoe to "slack off" on the drive until some points have been made clear. Osborn is general chairman of the drive for this area.

One report that has undermined the work is that Hale County, which had garnered $265,000 to attract the station, has pulled out of the Plains-wide effort in the hope that with such a large amount of money it will be able to underwrite a station of its own.

Directors of the Foundation at Renner have never announced where the station would be put if the financing campaign is successful, but it has been hinted that it would be in northern Lamb County.

In addition, a half section of sod land in southwestern Castro County has been offered as a station location, and it is considered a possibility that this might swing the project to that spot.

A breakfast to boost the work in the Farwell area, including Oklahoma Lane and Lariat, has been cancelled. It was to have been in Farwell Monday morning.

Farmer's Union Sets Meet

Members of the Parmer County Farmers Union will meet Thursday night at the Friona High School. They will elect officers for the coming year, in addition to naming delegates to the state convention.

State Farmers Union President Alex Dickie will be present and will address the group. He is from Denton, and may possibly bring other Union officials with him to the meeting.

W. L. "Preach" Edelman, county FU president, says that the group now has 262 members in Parmer County, and that he anticipates widespread interest in the meeting.

With that membership, Parmer County will be entitled to nine delegates to the state convention, he says.

THE HAPPY HOMEMAKER

A remark which we heard a fellow make several years ago comes to our mind very often. He said, "There is no end to the things women can think of to mix together and call salad." At different times we have thought that he might have said, "There is no end to the things women can think of."

This idea was brought forcibly to our mind recently as we were reading a list of things that different women have thought of to use a home freezer for. Three that were especially interesting to us are being printed below. Hope you like them.

My favorite trick is to draw air out of plastic freezer bags after the food has been placed in them by using soda straws. Insert a straw in the top of the bag as it is bunched together between the fingers. Draw out as much air as possible by suction. As the bag pulls in, pull the straw out gently and pinch the bag tightly so no air re-enters while it is being fastened.

Add a decorative touch to the punch bowl by freezing a flower, preferably a red rose, in a block of ice. An empty cottage cheese carton makes a fine container. Fasten the rose to the bottom of the carton to keep it from floating. Fill with water and freeze.

There are three things to remember: first, you can't fill up a freezer in one day. Second, no matter how big a freezer you own or will own, you'll wish it were larger. Third, a freezer can't be a miracle worker without you. You are the brains behind your freezer.

There are so many lovely printed corduroy fabrics on the market this fall. If you decide to use any of them or any other fabric that has a nap or up and down, be sure you have all pieces of your pattern running the right direction. This can very easily be done by marking arrows with chalk on the selvage, or by sticking pins with the heads all turned one direction.

When buying any material that needs to be cut all in one direction, it will be necessary to buy more material than for materials on which you can lay your pattern pieces either way.

If you have trouble with zippers hanging (and who doesn't at one time or another?), a thin coat of liquid wax applied occasionally will help keep them running more smoothly.

Another thing which will help keep zippers in working order is to make sure they are fastened before the garment is laundered. This will often prevent torn garments.

Did you know that feather pillows may be washed in your automatic washer? We didn't until we read an article in a farm magazine a few months ago.

A salad which is very pretty and tasteful is made by combining 1/2 cup shredded raw carrots, 1 cup shredded cabbage, 1/2 cup shredded radishes and 1 nine ounce can pineapple chunks with salt and mayonnaise.

Harvest Rolls Along Fastest in History

The mechanical marvel of the combine and the age-old drudgery of boll pulling painted contrasting pictures of the Parmer County area harvest scene this week.

Harvesting of area feed grains and early cotton rolled along at a merry clip — possibly history's earliest operation on such a large scale. Ginnings at the county's 13 installations are already numbered in the hundreds of bales, and hundreds of acres of maize have been hauled to the elevators.

County Agent Joe Jones, after a survey of the county on Tuesday, noticed these things:

Combines are in operation throughout the area, unhampered by adverse weather conditions. Yields of grain sorghums have been good. James Mabry of the Hub is reported to have made 6,000 pounds with Martin's.

Other more common varieties are yielding well, too, says the agent, but he says he would prefer to wait a few weeks before he makes any predictions on hybrid yields. Some early reports are trickling in on this new development in seed breeding.

Looking at the cotton picture, the agent says there is lots of defoliation being practiced by growers who are after an early mechanical harvest.

Defoliants are being used to prematurely kill the cotton plant and force it to shed its leaves. The fields will then be ready for mechanical stripping of the bolls from the stalks.

"It's too early to tell whether this will be a money-making proposition or not," says Jones. "It could rain and cause the savings that could be expected from

No Word Yet On Hay Program

Reports the first of the week that the USDA has released an additional $5 million in funds to re-finance a drought emergency hay program in Texas have not resulted in confirmations on the county level, says John Zahn of the county FHA office.

Zahn, however, says that he expects to have orders on the new program "by the latter part of the week" and that it would be necessary for the changes to come through channels from Washington.

Only last week the roughage aid was suspended after USDA officials had commented that applications "exceeded the expected demand." Originally, $1 million had been put into the plan.

The feed grain portion of the emergency program is not affected by these recent developments. Parmer County has been re-established as a drought disaster county only about four weeks.

the strippers to be cut or eliminated."

Still, the majority of cotton farmers are staying with the practice of hiring hand labor to enter the fields and pull the early opening cotton. This early cotton is nearly always better in grade and brings a higher price.

Most of the cotton being pulled is grading light spot and white, with the latter classification prevailing. Staple is improved this year compared with 1955 also, notes Jones.

Some farmers have been able to get a bale an acre from the first hand pulling, which is considered very good.

"We have about 41,000 acres of cotton in the county," says the agent, "and I believe that we will make 50,000 bales from it this year."

There is considerable activity for minor cash crops, too. Picking

Eligibility Facts Listed for Feed

Farmers and stockmen who wonder if they are eligible for the government's emergency feed program can examine the following requirements which have been released from the Parmer County FHA office:

"Subject to the following conditions, any established farmer or stockman whose principal occupation is farming or ranching and whose financial condition is such that he requires assistance under this program in order to maintain his foundation herd of livestock and continue his livestock operation, is eligible for assistance under the Emergency Feed Program.

"The fact that the purchase of hay or other feed at regular prices may not be profitable to the applicant is not sufficient to qualify him for assistance.

"The principal occupation of an applicant may be considered to be either the occupation from which he received at least one half of his net income for the calendar year next preceding the date of this application, or the occupation to which he devoted at least one half of his time during such year."

of corn is proceeding at a fast rate, especially since the advent of the corn borer in many fields.

A windy spell might result in large losses to corn growers at this point, predict farm observers, and the farmers aren't waiting any longer than is absolutely necessary to get the ears out of the fields.

Carrots, beets, turnips, lettuce, and radishes that are being grown on a few farms, mostly in the northeastern part of the county, are progressing nicely, Agent Jones reports.

NEWS FROM THE FARM BUREAU

By RAYMOND EULER

"Scotch lite" stickers are available free at the office. They provide added visibility protection for cotton trailers, trucks, cars and bicycles when they are operated at night. They may be life savers if used on the sides of tractors and trailers, too, where other reflectors normally are not used.

We believe that cotton farmers interested in seeing the state cotton acreage reserve limited to 2 percent instead of 10 percent as it is now, should be sure their Farm Bureau membership is in good standing before November 1. There are sections of Texas that have been receiving cotton acreage from the larger reserve the last couple of years that will probably vote against the cut in the state convention.

County Farm Bureaus in those areas are exceeding their membership goals, we hear, too. We are reasonably sure that the decision reached in the Texas Farm Bureau convention will determine the amount of reserve. Our case against the Smith-Doxey classing discrepancies can be greatly strengthened by your membership, too. The classing, of course, affects your income, whether you sell or put your cotton in the loan.

We should think the advocates of the necessity of federal aid to education would give some thought to who built and put public schools into operation in the first place. We certainly hope the average citizen will remember that money for such things can be raised on the local level for about half what it costs to route it through Washington.

Farm Bureau, locally and on state and national levels, is vigorously opposing such federal "aid" moves to insure local control of educational institutions.

We would like to suggest that you hear the radio program, Farm Bureau Round-up. It is an unusually good and interesting report on agricultural situations prepared by agricultural editors of several Texas radio stations. KPAN, Hereford, carries it at 12:45 on Saturdays. KLYN, Amarillo, at 6 a. m., and KFDA at 6:10 a. m., all on Saturday. If you listen to Lubbock, the following stations carry it on Saturdays: KCBD, 6:45; KSEL, 7:15; and KFYO at 8:15, all in the morning.

Consider this: As a roaring lion, and a raging bear; so is a wicked ruler over the poor people. Proverbs 28:15.

Ike Better Democrat Than Adlai, Says Supporter

A bunch of us were standing around talking the other day, and the talk got around to politics like it usually does. Some of the boys said they'd voted for Ike in '52 and were going to do it again; some of them said they'd always voted the Democratic ticket straight and always expected to—you know how it goes around a little Texas town.

One fellow said something that made the rest of us stop and think. He said he was a Democrat, sure—always had been, and his father and grandfather before him. And he always felt like he had to vote for the best Democrat in the race, which he was going to do this year.

"And that means," he said, "that I'll have to cast my vote for Ike Eisenhower. He's a better Democrat, by my definition of a Democrat, than that other fellow ever will be."

And besides that, he said, Ike kept his promises to Texas and Texas ought to return the favor by keeping Ike.

You know, he might have had something there. "Gratitude" is one of the greatest words in the English language, and we all like to think of ourselves as being grateful when people do something for us. Like I heard a man say one time: "Texans are people who never forget anything that is done TO them—OR FOR them." That's the way we think of ourselves, and it's about right.

This Eisenhower man pointed out that Ike promised to give the Tidelands back to Texas, and he kept that promise; he promised to do his best to close out Mr. Truman's war in Korea, and he kept that promise, and he promised to give us a government in Washington that we could be proud of, because it was clean and honest and efficient—and, in this man's opinion, he had kept that promise.

"I know you're reading and hearing a lot of stuff to the contrary," he told us, "coming from Brother Stevenson and Brother Kefauver and the rest of the politicians on the other side. That's politics for you. Everybody expects them to jump on Ike every way they can, and I guess they'll keep on doing it right up to Nov. 6. But the American people are smarter than some politicians give them credit for being, and before they vote they're going to sit down and ask themselves this question:

"Remembering 1952, when our boys were dying in Korea and the newspapers were full of talk about mink coats and Communists and corruption in Washington—now, he honest about it: If you could, would you go back to '52 and start over with Adlai Stevenson instead of Dwight D. Eisenhower?"

This man said he wouldn't, and come to think of it, I wouldn't either. As a matter of fact, I think Ike has made us one of the best presidents we ever had. If we had to go to war, I'd certainly rather have him at the head of our government than any other living American. But even more importantly—I'm convinced he is the best man to keep up OUT of war.

That's why I still like Ike—better than ever!

The pair of cowboys had been on the trail for two days with a herd of cattle. During that time neither men nor animals had had any water. At last they caught sight of a small stream and the cattle dashed in. One of the cowboys had gone up a little way above them to drink when he noticed that his companion was scooping up a haful of water where the cattle had stirred it up. "Come up here where it ain't so muddy," the first one called out. "It don't matter," his comrade replied, "I'm gonna drink it all, anyhow."

We have two new employees at the Parmer County Implement company. Mr. Sherman Atwood, the bookkeeper, is from Amarillo. He is married and he and his wife plan to move to Friona soon. Sherman is staying at the Floyd Reeves until his wife can join him. Mr. Mason Love is the new parts man. He is from Melrose, New Mexico, and has moved his family to Friona. They live north of the Pentecostal Church. Mason is enjoying Friona because of the irrigation farmers here. He says it's so dry at Melrose the farmers may forget how to farm.

Loan Program Facts To Be Explained In Monday Meeting

Details of the recently revised loan programs for farmers desiring to borrow money from the government for operation and investment capital will be aired at a meeting Monday at the courthouse in Farwell.

The program, which was expanded September 4, has been liberalized in certain respects, including the amount of money that can be borrowed, and the time in which repayment can be made, says John Zahn of the county FHA office.

To attend the program, which is to begin at 2:30, will be the county FHA committee, agricultural agency officials, bankers, equipment dealers, bulk oil dealers, the county judge, a representative from the Federal Land Bank, and others who have dealing with borrowers.

Zahn expects from 60 to 70 persons to be in attendance.

Ceilings on loans have been increased from $10,000 to $20,000, but security restrictions and interest remain the same, he said. In addition, certain reclassifications in types of loans have been made.

LICE CONTROL IMPORTANT

Since most Texas livestock, due to the prolonged drouth, are being fed, the job of controlling lice and ticks can be effectively and economically carried out. Herds generally are confined to smaller areas and thus are readily accessible for spraying or dipping. Parasite free livestock will better utilize the feed they receive and will go into the winter season in a stronger condition.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

Technicians of the Soil Conservation Service have been busy the past several weeks assisting farmers lay out row directions for wheat planting. There seems to be more interest in wheat planting this year after the better than average crop we had last year.

If you have a water problem on your wheat, contact the SCS technicians in Friona and let them assist you with it.

On wheat following grain sorghum be sure to use commercial fertilizer to decompose your old plant residues and provide plant food for the wheat. This will make a great difference in your yields, as well as improve your soil.

The windy season will soon be upon us and now is the time for us to make preparations to keep our soil at home.

While on the W. H. Drager farm the other day we were discussing the aspects of conservation relating to wind and water and Drager made a statement I have thought about and will pass it on to you.

"The topsoil, which consists of some 6 inches in this country, is worth 150 or more dollars per acre and the subsoil is worth 30 or less dollars per acre to us."

When we let our land blow or wash we are taking that many dollars out of our pockets.

The depth of topsoil in this area seems to fool a lot of people. It seems most folks think it is about 3 feet deep. It is actually 6 inches topsoil and 18 inches to 36 inches of subsoil. The productivity decreases as you go down the soil profile.

Let's prepare now to keep our valuable topsoil at home and use it for our own production and for those who live here in the future.

If you are planning to plant vetch or winter peas on sorghum or corn land it should be done by October 15. Actually, better results will be had with vetch than peas. Seeding rates: pure stand vetch 15 to 20 pounds per acre.

Family Food Spending Today

Food spending in the United States has climbed to a high peak, according to extension foods and nutrition specialists.

Average expenditure for food and alcoholic beverages (including the money value of food produced and consumed on farms) is estimated at almost $450 per capita for the year 1955—or about $1.25 per person a day. This is about 3 1/3 times what it was in the pre-war period. Much of this is due to price increases, but even after allowing for price increases, food expenditures are now about 1 1/2 times what they were in 1935-39.

Meals and snacks away from home account for some of this increase in food expenditures. Meals and beverages consumed away from home now make up about one-fifth of the $450 total.

Families are buying more "convenience foods," but a large share of the family food budget still goes for foods that require considerable preparation. Meat, poultry and fish (excluding canned and ready-to-eat items) take 26 percent of the food budget; milk, cream and cheese—14 percent; eggs—4 percent; fresh vegetables, including potatoes and fresh fruits—14 percent.

October Plentiful Foods Listed

The harvest moon of October will shine on a cornucopia bulging with plentiful foods. This despite the prolonged drouth which has cut deeply into agricultural production in many states of the nation.

The USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service, Southwestern Regional Office, Dallas, reports that protein-rich foods dominate the October list.

These include beef turkeys, stewing chickens, broilers and fryers, as well as eggs, peanut butter, cheese, milk and other dairy products.

Potatoes and cabbage are the only vegetables carried on the October listing of plentiful foods.

A Norwegian mile is seven times as long as the American mile.

Farmers Watch Crops As Frost Date Nears

Parmer County area farmers, wary of a repeat performance on last year's freeze of October 6, are keeping an eye on their crops, the calendar, and the weather this week.

Last year's nipping frost killed sappy cotton plants on thousands of acres of cotton and seriously reduced both quality and yield, but this fall has been ideal for the development and maturity of the fleecy product. Also, soggy weather in early September hurt area cotton. This year, it's been anything but soggy.

Friday Last Day For Wheat Signups

Friday, October 5 is the deadline for farmers to place acreage in the 1957 acreage reserve program, announces Prentice Mills, Parmer County ASC manager, this week.

The program will be similar in operation to this year's, except that farmers will be permitted to graze the crop until December 31. Acreage payments have been set at $5.95 dryland and $11.90 irrigated, per acre, before planting. To date, 43 applications have been made by wheat farmers.

Former Residents Tell of Old Times

(Editor's note: This article is compiled from the comments received by Mrs. Ralph Wilson two weeks ago. She was secretary for the 50th Anniversary Celebration.)

(Many old timers jotted in a few words on the returned invitation cards, but a few took the trouble to write letters. Because of the interest that these letters have, here is a condensation of some of the observations of former residents.)

(The editor feels that nearly all Friona people will be interested in this link with the past.)

I went to Friona as a bride in June, 1909, where I lived in a two-room house. I was going to say "shack," but it was better than a shack. Our only child, Alice, was born there in June, 1910.

My father-in-law, George V. Kell, bought a half section of land about 1907 or 1908. I am not sure of the date. The house was first built on that land which was near a place they called Findlay. Because they were not able to get a well there, the house was moved to the outskirts of Friona. Later, the Findlay land was sold.

My husband, Robert (Bob) Kell, went to Friona about the spring of 1908. I am not quite sure of that date, either. He has been gone now over three years, having died in March, 1953. Were he living, I know that he would take great pleasure in going to the Anniversary, and if he could not go, in hearing about it.

We met many fine people there and I have happy memories of the time we spent there. Twice since leaving in 1912, we visited the Goodwine family and I am happy to hear every year at Christmas time from Lola. The last time we were there, both my husband and myself were so pleased to see how the town has grown and improved. I am wondering whether there will be anyone attend who came in 1906.

Kindest regards to everyone who remembers me.

Mrs. Robert (Jeanette) Kell

Rockmart, Georgia

Dear Mrs. Wilson: Mrs. Peyton and I started our ministry with the Congregational Church at Friona and, although we did work rather hard, we often consider our ministry there as one of the most happy pastorates of our years. So there is a tender spot in our hearts for Friona and the good people there.

If it is convenient, please express our regrets to the people of Friona—and especially to those of the Congregational Church—that we cannot be there to help celebrate.

I recall with pleasure some of my experiences there, working with the chamber of commerce, in helping to get some sort of industry started. I helped to canvass the surrounding territory in interest of growing cotton in order to get a gin located there.

We got enough signers to get one gin and since I left there I believe you have at least one more gin located there. Perhaps it helped and I had that small part in it.

And, perhaps, the rebuilding of the Congregational Church was a considerable asset to the community. I can feel a certain pride in my part in getting that done. About the hardest two years work of my life was in building that church. I am sure that it has served the community well during these years.

Mrs. Peyton and I retired about three years ago and we are very happy in our cottage here at Rockmart. We have lots of good neighbors and we are active in the local Presbyterian Church here. I preached here Sunday and I have supplied the pulpits of various churches about here. Both Mrs. Peyton and I are active in the church; she helps in the choir and in the Women's Work. I teach a Men's Sunday School class. We have a great many friends among the church people and that helps us to further enjoy our retirement all the more.

John M. Peyton

L. F. Lillard

Recently, I saw more water flow from two irrigation wells on Lawrence Lillard's farm in a few hours than fell from the skies from 1909 to 1914, inclusive.

I saw 50-bushel wheat and 100-bushel grain where in 1909-1914, farmers were glad to gather enough feed stuff to take their livestock through the winter and even in "fair" years 10-bushel wheat and 15-bushel kafir was a big crop.

I looked at the 3-million-bushel capacity elevators. I believe Henry Warren shipped the first car of grain in 100-pound sacks in 1915 or 1916. I looked at your city of homes costing up to $100,000, the paved streets, drug store equal to any city place, markets, drive-ins, and 5,000 bales of cotton over the landscape.

In 1909 there was one residence east of Main Street, and the second one was in 1910. Jane Tiefel and Julius Kohl were the only voters in eastern Friona, and there were no more until the middle 1920's.

Who made all the progress in the Friona trade territory? Remove your hats and pay tribute to: W. E. Goodwine, F. E. Clennin, Robert Monger, A. J. James, McCary, Hipshur, F. W. Reed, Steve Jesko, John Treider, Peter Kaiser, Otto Treider, Hyrum Harris; R. V. McWilliams, John Little, S. W. Roush, T. D. Ballard, J. F. Lillard, L. F. Lillard, Charles Dar-

Who broke out the sod? Mostly farmers with katy-did sod plows, but thousands of acres were turned by steam outfits owned by Ritz Bros., Robert Kell, Chris Zier, and R. O. Kessinger.

Friona postmasters in 50 years include Mrs. Booker Diamond, Grace Rittle, McCandish, D. W. Sutton, John A. Guyer, D. W. Hanson, Sloan Osborn, and S. L. McLellan.

After seeing the homes of several of those early settlers who were left behind in Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Missouri, I marvel that they did not give up and come back rather than face the dry, windy, frustrating years on the Plains.

Yet, they were sons of the pioneers who settled the above states just a generation before. Salute! Just a few were forced to give up.

August Accident Damage High

According to information released by the Texas Highway Patrol, the estimated property damage in rural accidents investigated by Texas Highway Patrolmen in the Amarillo District during August, 1956, was more than $100,000.

Eighteen persons were killed and 77 injured in accidents. Most of the accidents occurred on state and federal highways. These highways were the scenes of 89 accidents, 19 were on farm to market roads, 11 were on county roads, and 13 were in small towns.

The principal violations which caused accidents were speeding, driving while drinking, failure to grant right of way, following too closely, and driving on the wrong side of the road when not passing.

Club Members Learn About Texas

The subject of study for the Wednesday afternoon meeting of the Friona Woman's Club at the club house was "Texas, State of Diversity." The quotation was, "A nation's strength is in its natural resources and the make-up of its people."

Roll call was answered by giving the name of a mountain or canyon in Texas. "Physiography of Texas" was presented by Mrs. V. R. Jordan. Mrs. R. N. Gore discussed "Texas' Colorful Weather." Mrs. S. S. Prichard discussed "Characters and Growth of Texas' Population."

Refreshments of salad, wafers, and tea were served by the hostesses, Mesdames A. W. Anthony Sr. and Mrs. H. C. Kendrick.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Mayfield spent the weekend in Albuquerque. They were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Wilder. Mrs. Mayfield and Mrs. Wilder are sisters.

Local Residents Attend Fair

Some of the Friona residents who attended the Panhandle-South Plains Fair at Lubbock last week were Mesdames G. B. Buske, H. T. Magness, Hank Outland, Glenn E. Reeve Sr., Joe B. Douglas, E. H. Bradshaw, and Claude Miller;

Also, C. L. Mercer, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Ellis, and Mesdames J. R. Nazworth, E. R. Day, and A. L. Black, and Mr. and Mrs. Coy Patton, Jimmy, and Virginia.

Drakes Return

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Drake, Larry and Bobby, and Mrs. A. O. Drake returned home late Sunday afternoon. They spent Saturday night as guests of Mrs. Treva Reece at Canyon and Sunday with Mrs. Frances Howard and Josh at Abernathy.

FIRE

... Is a word that strikes fear into the hearts of every farm family. And well it should, for fire on the farm is more deadly than any other rural hazard.

Butane, we remind you, is one of the safest of all fuels, yet it should be used with COMMON SENSE, since it is a volatile compound. Have your butane equipment safety-checked. We will be glad to do it for you.

There's no charge, of course. Just call us.

It's Bonanza time at Buick Dealers!

It's a Great Time to Strike a Bargain

(You get a triple Bonanza in today's Buick)

Bonanza Trade-in Allowance
—because your present car is at its peak value right now. And because—with Buick so solidly set as America's No. 3 Best Seller—our bigger sales volume permits us to make you an even better trade-in allowance.

Bonanza Buy
Buick prices start right next to those of the smaller cars. But those Buick dollars buy you a whole of a lot more automobile—more room, more power thrill, more styling freshness, more ride stability, more solidity of structure—the Best Buick Yet.

Bonanza Resale
A Buick always resells high. But the '56 Buick will bring you even more money when you trade it because it carries today's new Variable Pitch Dynaflo.* It's the most advanced trans-mission yet developed—and the only one that breaks with the past to bring you the switch-pitch performance and gas savings of the modern plane's variable pitch propellers.

WITH Buick booming up in the No. 3 sales spot, we're set to rate your car at its peak trade-in worth right now.

With only two smaller cars outselling Buick—you can be sure we know how to make you happy on price.

And see how much more your dollars buy here...

—The fun of Variable Pitch Dynaflo* with its thrilling switch-pitch action. The might of Buick's big V8 engine.

—And the luxury of Buick's ride—a ride that knows no equal.

Why don't you come in today?

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

P. S. We have some especially good buys right now on the high-powered CENTURY and the extra-spacious SUPER. Better see 'em real soon!

Off the Continent, Osborns Switch to Crumpets and Tea

(2nd Lt. and Mrs. Joe Osborn, who had been in Germany since leaving the States in May, have recently been transferred to England. They are continuing writing an occasional article for The Star, telling of their experiences in Europe.

(This is the first article written by Joe. He is co-owner of The Star.—The Editor.)

Sauerkraut and wurst land is not far from tea and crumpet country.

We had no sooner gotten settled in our English airliner seats at the airport in Frankfurt, Germany, when the hostess came through announcing tea. Carolyn instructed me not to, under any condition, ask for milk in my tea in England. She said she had heard that it "just wasn't done."

When the tea arrived it was half milk. We found later that almost everyone in the British Isles drinks tea and uses milk with it. Cream is never served.

I had always imagined that the afternoon tea was similar to our coffee break. Not so. It is practically a full meal. Just plain tea consists of cakes and cookies of all sorts, bread and butter, and tea. "High tea" includes sandwiches.

The tea custom actually is a clever invention of the British to add another meal to the day. They have tea from 4 to 6 p. m., followed by a late leisurely supper.

We had hardly finished our tea when we found ourselves in London on the top side of a two-decker city bus wondering when we were going to run into someone driving on the wrong side of the road! It took us several days to get used to the idea of traffic moving to the left. Britain and Ireland are the only countries in Europe which use the "wrong" side of the road.

It was a pleasure to travel in an English speaking country, even when gas is "petrol," crackers are "biscuits," apartments are "flats," desserts are "sweets" and insurance companies are "assurance companies."

I must admit that, though, there is a good argument for barring billboards as Germany does. We read the English ads like they were mail from home.

After settling in our hotel we began exploring nearby Hyde Park, one of several large downtown parks which make London such a colorful town. One corner of this park is known as Orator's Corner. Here we found open-air debate, speaking and arguing at its height.

This particular night there were at least 20 groups of people, representing many nationalities of the Empire. The speakers were standing on boxes or small platforms and when they weren't orating they were being questioned or heckled by the listeners. We stayed at each group long enough to get the gist of the discussion.

Subjects covered a wide field from the Suez problem to the abolition of money. Communists are said to use this remarkable freedom of speech; however, we didn't identify any.

London is a treasure house of interesting spots. Since most Americans have studied English literature and history, no city in Europe contains so many places that are familiar. To try to see everything in London in three days is as frustrating as it is impossible. However, we tried.

The Tower of London is a well preserved fort with buildings and towers filled with relics of the British Empire. Its grounds recall many a royal execution. The crowns, jewels on exhibit here, consisting of a fabulous collection of crowns, maces, and swords owned by the royal family since the 15th century. The largest diamond was 109 carats, about the size of a bantam egg.

In St. Paul's Cathedral many of England's notables are buried. The Duke of Wellington is interred here and the funeral vehicle that brought his body is near his tomb. It is an 18-ton wagon cast from cannon captured from Napoleon at the Duke's Waterloo victory. The Church of England holds national Thanksgiving services in St. Paul's. However, Westminster Abbey is used for coronations.

The royalty of England from the 12th century has been buried in Westminster Abbey. The wooden coronation chair on which the rulers of England have been crowned since 1297 is kept here. It is beginning to look slightly beat up.

Finishing a day of sightseeing we went to a French restaurant. The proprietors had taken great pains to create a French seaport atmosphere, with fishing nets dangling and waiters wearing appropriate costume. I thought the trousers they had on looked familiar. My suspicions were soon confirmed. The get-up may have reminded the other guests of France, but it reminded me of West Texas. They were wearing Lee "levis," the first I had seen since leaving the States.

Speaking of wearing apparel, many London businessmen wear black bowler hats and carry black umbrellas. The fanciest outfits we saw were the silk top hats and striped pants that the stockbrokers wore.

London taxi cabs are distinctive. They are specially made and have not changed in design in several decades. They are invariably black, sit high off the ground and completely hide the passengers. A sliding glass compartment separates the driver from his fare. The drivers are friendly and willing to give directions or offer explanations.

In fact, we found the oft-mentioned English reserve to be more politeness than stuffiness. The English are justifiably proud of their country and its traditions. Every public occasion is ended with the strains of "God Save the Queen." The audience comes as rigidly and quietly to attention as a battalion on a command inspection.

HD Club Has Meet Wednesday

Black Home Demonstration Club met Wednesday at the Community House with Opal Cobb as hostess. Mrs. Margie McGowan and Mrs. Lois Latham presented the program on "jury service." A nomination committee composed of Mrs. Altha Presley, Mrs. Ruby Stone and Mrs. Opal Cobb, was appointed by the president.

Refreshments of cheese cake, pop and coffee were served by the hostesses, to the following members: Mesdames Margie McGowan, Ruby Stone, Anna Mae Hays, Mildred Barnett, Lois Latham, Altha Presley, Maxine Price, and Lois Whitaker.

The next meeting will be at the Community House with Mrs. Ruby Stone as hostess, on October 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Prewett and Ann visited Sunday in Hereford with Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Tannahill.

Mrs. Woodrow Whitaker and Mrs. Lloyd Prewett attended an HD Council meeting at Farwell, Monday.

Black received $25 prize money from Friona for winning first on their float in the 50th Anniversary parade last week. They also received $29 prize money on their wheat exhibits at the Amarillo fair.

At Celebration

The 50th anniversary celebration of Friona was very nice. We had a number of folks from Black to attend it. The HD Club had a display of old and new things. We were happy to win first place on our float. We think we did well to win fourth and make such good time in the Pony Express since we were the only ones who ran a pony!

From San Antonio

Mrs. Lloyd Lookingbill, Mrs. Dick Rockey of Black and Mrs. Floyd Rector of Friona and Mrs. D. C. Looney of Bovina returned home Saturday night from San Antonio where they attended the National and State Home Demonstration Council meetings last week.

Visiting in the F. E. Barnett home last weekend were Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Frost and Larry of Vernon. Sunday, Mrs. Barnett had a big dinner for the Frosts, her two sons, the Fern Barnetts and the Dr. Barnetts.

In Amarillo

Mr. and Mrs. John Benger spent Sunday in Amarillo visiting her father, J. A. Bridges. Bridges had been visiting her the past week and had started home Wednesday. He had a wreck the other side of Amarillo, but was not injured although the car was damaged some. The car was fixed by Monday and he was on his way.

TO MEET THURSDAY

There will be a Rural Neighborhood Progress meeting on Thursday October 11, at the Community House. Everyone is invited.

LAST WEEK

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Thompson and Darrell, and Clyde Renner were in Amarillo Monday to attend the fair and the milking short-horn breeder's banquet.

Visiting in the Giles Cobb home last week were her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Buster Graves and Joe of Sherman.

J. A. Bridges of Beaver, Okla., is visiting with his daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. John Benger.

Visiting in the Dick Rockey home last week were Mrs. Neil Rockey and Mrs. Melzine Elliott of Muleshoe.

Mrs. Howard Elliott of Amarillo visited Tuesday with Mrs. Giles Cobb.

Sunday, Mrs. B. C. Day gave a birthday dinner for her husband. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. John S. Thompson and Darrell, Clyde Renner and Mrs. Leona Wolfe. Mr. Day was 75 years old. We wish you many more.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hays attended the fair in Amarillo last week.

Mary Tatum spent the weekend visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Tatum. Mary is a student at Tech.

Harvest is still continuing here with combines and trucks everywhere. And there will be for some time.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Dean were Mr. and Mrs. Bertram Jack of Friona.

Mrs. Lloyd Prewett visited Wednesday in Lubbock with her sister, Mrs. R. L. Bray and family.

THE STATE OF TEXAS

To any Sheriff or any Constable within the State of Texas—GREETING:

You are hereby commanded to cause to be published once each week for four consecutive weeks, the first publication to be at least twenty-eight days before the return day thereof, in a newspaper printed in Parmer County, Texas, the accompanying citation, of which the herein below following is a true copy.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION THE STATE OF TEXAS

TO: Gus Cadis, who is the same person as Gus Cades, Gus Caddis, or Gus Caddes, the unknown wife or wives of the said Gus Cadis, Thos. Brittan, the unknown wife or wives of the said Thos. Brittan, George G. Wright, the unknown wife or wives of the said George G. Wright, and should any of the above-named defendants be deceased, then their unknown heirs, assigns, or legal representatives, Defendants, Greeting:

YOU ARE HEREBY COMMANDED to appear before the Honorable District Court of Parmer County at the Courthouse thereof, in Farwell, Texas, by filing a written answer at or before 10 o'clock A. M. of the first Monday next after the expiration of forty-two days from the date of the issuance of this citation, same being the 29th day of October A. D. 1956, to Plaintiff's Petition filed in said court, on the 11th day of September A. D. 1956, in this cause, numbered 1872 on the docket of said court and styled FRIONA WHEAT GROWERS, INC., Plaintiff, vs. GUS CADIS, ET AL, Defendants.

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows, to-wit: Plaintiff brings this suit in trespass to try title, alleging that it is the owner in fee simple of 6.273 acres of land out of Section 5, Township 4 South, Range 4 East, Capitol Syndicate Subdivision of Parmer County, Texas, described by metes and bounds, as follows:

BEGINNING at an iron pipe in the West line of South Main Street in the Town of Friona, Texas, and the Southerly right-of-way line for the Panhandle & Santa Fe Railroad;

THENCE South along the said West line of said Main Street 434.0 feet to an iron pipe;

THENCE N. 29° 11' W. 205.1 feet to an iron pipe;

THENCE S. 64° 23' W. 1428.0 feet to an iron pipe;

THENCE N. 33° 35' W. 122 feet to an iron pipe in said Railway right-of-way;

THENCE N. 56° 25' E. along said right-of-way, 330 feet to the beginning of a curve to the right, whose radius is 5679.65 feet;

THENCE along said curve to the right 68.0 feet to an iron pipe in a curve running Easterly and whose radius is 612.305 feet;

THENCE along said curve to the left 115.4 feet to an iron pipe;

THENCE N 62° 45' E at 444.44 feet pass the P. T. of a 1° curve in said Railway, at 1136.8 feet to the place of beginning;

That on the first day of July, A. D., 1956, the Defendants entered unlawfully upon such land and ejected Plaintiff therefrom and wrongfully withhold possession from such Plaintiff, and Plaintiff further sets up and pleads the 10-year statute of limitations, as same applies to land titles in the State of Texas, as is more fully shown by Plaintiff's Petition on file in this suit.

If this citation is not served within ninety days after the date of its issuance, it shall be returned unserved.

The officer executing this writ shall promptly serve the same according to requirements of law, and the mandates hereof, and make due return as the law directs.

Issued and given under my hand and the seal of said court at Farwell, Texas, this 11 day of September A. D. 1956.
