

GRAHAM CRACKERS

—WHG

Whether the screwy mixup between Texas and the rest of the nation about when to observe Thanksgiving had anything to do with it, we don't know, but somehow, the Christmas season is getting started slower this year.

We expect this Christmas to be just as big as any in history, but we want to know if you, like we, have noticed that the singing of carols and the displaying of Christmas merchandise got started a trifle slow this season.

Frankly, this is something of which we approve. We just don't like to even start thinking about Christmas until Thanksgiving has come and gone. The singing of Christmas carols in mid-November always leaves us a little cool. We are afraid that we will tire of their tinkle if the season is stretched into six weeks in length.

This year, we don't recall hearing a single carol until after Thanksgiving was over. We just mention this as we wonder if you have noticed the same thing.

And since this is the first week in December, there couldn't be any more appropriate time to suggest that you get started now to doing your Christmas shopping—here in Friona.

Friona more than measures up to towns of its size in the variety and values that merchants have to offer Christmas shoppers. This is our biggest buying season, and local businessmen are stocked to meet the occasion. There are just doggone few things you can afford (or would want) to buy as Christmas presents which you won't find in the local stores.

Editors of newspapers occasionally get requests from readers that they have their heads examined. This advice, while more or less commonplace, is still never welcomed. It would be pleasant—though not practical—if the writer could always say what he believes and have everyone agree with him.

So, we just want you to understand that we know we are running the risk of being dubbed an idiot or a daydreamer when we say that Friona has just as much claim to the tourist trade as anybody else.

Nope, there aren't any gushing rivers, yawning caverns, stately trees, magnificent mountains, or exotic jungles hereabouts. Just about the opposite—there isn't much but space.

But there is something a lot more impressive than sheer natural grandeur: The effervescent friendship of the people of the High Plains.

Anyone who has ever traveled knows that there is no area such as ours that has this "pulse" of friendship which every visitor to these parts immediately recognizes and appreciates.

A mile away from the studied and polite, but rather austere graciousness of the Southerner, the "too-busy-to-talk-to-you-now" pace of the Easterner, the High Plains smile of the great Southwest is more than just a mile wide—it has depth. It's genuine and unaffected.

Out here on the Plains we are nice to people because we like people. We're not nice to them merely because by so doing we may gain social, business or political advantage.

Isn't there someone somewhere with enough brains to convert this exclusive trait of local people into an attraction for visitors? You may feel that the "commercialization" of our friendship would be the down fall of it, but we doubt it.

Here we are in Friona, sitting straddle of a U. S. highway, and only about 50 miles away from the main intercontinental link of the nation, and we haven't been able to think up a single thing to pull more visitors in for a few minutes a day.

America is fast becoming a nation on wheels, and more and more, its citizens are taking to the highways in quest of the unseen, the unusual. What could be more unusual, we ask, than a city dedicated to friendliness? A city where any visitor gets the red carpet treatment any time he rolls in for a stay?

Wouldn't this surpass the Grand Canyon, Pike's Peak, Mammoth Cave, Niagara Falls, if we could become nationally famous as the "town without a frown?"

Something you may not have thought of: There's as much money in a tourist as a bale of cotton—and they're a darn site easier to pick.

If you're a TV bug, Friona is your town. At the crossroads of every channel on the Plains, there are very many stations that local fans can't pick up.

Some are much better than others, of course, but the real addict, who probably is going to buy a big, expensive set anyhow can just, expect his production (Continued on Last Page)

BOOST CHRISTMAS CARD PROJECT—These two ladies, Mrs. Ralph Miller and Mrs. Mabel Hartwell, were busy Monday posting reminders of the Christmas card project which theirs and other area clubs are sponsoring this year. The first sign went up on the door of Friona State Bank. Attaching the poster is Charles Allen, cashier.

Christmas Card Pot Has $300

A "community Christmas card project," originally taken on by the Modern Study Club of Friona, and recently underwritten by several other clubs of the community and area, is operating successfully, according to Mrs. Ralph Miller, chairman of the work for the Modern Study Club.

The idea behind the move, a rather unique one, is to persuade local citizens to set aside the money they normally would spend on Christmas cards and postage, and to place it in a special fund at Friona State Bank.

This money will later be drawn out and used to purchase equipment or furnishings at the Parmer County Community Hospital.

The ladies, aware that many people might object to not sending their greetings to their friends, have instead proposed that everyone who agrees to participate in the project list their name on a co-operative "community Christmas card" ad in the Christmas edition of the local newspaper.

The Star has offered to run this ad at no charge to the sponsors of the project.

Monday of this week ladies from the sponsoring organizations, including the project's authors plus the Friona Woman's Club and the Black HD Club, assembled to pass out publicity material to boost the move. One other co-sponsor is the Friona Lions Club.

"We have about $300 already, of our potential," estimated Mrs. Miller. Donations include those from about 30 to 40 families.

The idea of such an unusual project was apparently first thought of by a woman's club in Hereford. Friona ladies have modeled their plan after the one tried in Hereford last year.

Something local residents find hard to believe happened last week. A man killed a deer—right here in Parmer County, one of the most open, one of the most intensively farmed counties in the nation.

That man was Jack Shirley, who, assisted by Woodrow Fleming, tracked the deer down, jumped it, and shot it dead with a 30-calibre big game rifle.

The four-point buck was first spotted Monday evening of last week, as Shirley, who lives south of Friona, tracked the deer down, jumped it, and shot it dead with a 30-calibre big game rifle.

Pistol Volley Fatal to Man

A family quarrel resulted in a man's death at a farm house near Lazbuddie Sunday night. Dead from a gunshot wound above his left eye is Gregoria Dominguez, about 35 years of age. Wounded in the shoulder was Nichols Molina, brother-in-law of Dominguez.

The shooting occurred around 10 p. m. Sunday at the Truman Gleason farm in a tenant house where Molina resides, say investigating officers.

About 10 persons were in the room at the time of the ruckus, including several children. Several members of the group were reported to have been drinking when the quarrel started.

Dominguez, with a 22 calibre rifle, and Molina, with a 22 pistol, were on opposite sides of the room and several shots were fired from the pistol and one from the rifle, according to Jim Roberts, Parmer County deputy, who investigated the accident. Sheriff Chas. Lovelace was in Gallup, N. M., on business.

Another brother-in-law, who was also at the house, took the two to a Muleshoe hospital, where Dominguez died four hours later. Molina is still confined to the hospital, but is reported to be recovering.

No charges have yet been filed.

NICE SURROUNDINGS—And almost nice enough to make paying those city water and sewer bills a pleasure. This is a view of the main office in Friona's new city hall. Elda Hart is shown ready to do business with any customer who may step through the main door, which is to the right.

City Makes Move To New Quarters

History turned a page last week end, when the City of Friona occupied its new quarters in the just-completed city hall adjoining the fire station on Main Street.

Although it was a momentous event, it was accompanied without fanfare, and the celebrating will be reserved for several weeks later when the city plans to throw wide the doors for an open house.

The shift from the Legion Hall, which has been the city's home for years, was accomplished in about four hours with little difficulty, and aside from a few inconveniences, business went on as usual.

Still not installed in the new building are several pieces of equipment and numerous small items. Included among these is a new telephone system designed to meet the needs of the related city offices, plus component parts of the all-weather air conditioning system, and a large meeting desk.

Shelving for offices as well as storage areas is on order, and a few odds and ends in construction—such as flooring—need touching up. Outside, walks need to be run and a lawn installed and the flower box planted.

Even with these and other jobs yet remaining, the building is essentially complete and the city is making immediate use of it.

Construction on the modern brick structure, which cost city taxpayers $36,000, was begun in July. Contractor was Cooley Construction Company of Fort Worth.

Principal rooms of the building are divided as follows: Main office, where most business activities of the city (such as collecting bills and keeping records) goes on. This office is shared with Pioneer Natural Gas Company, which rents from the city.

Clerk's office, where Roy Wilson, clerk, manages the city's affairs. This office is in the southwestern corner of the building.

Vault, where records are kept safe from the danger of fire or theft.

Business Shuffle On Main

The city officials weren't the only ones concerned with moving their quarters last week.

Ethridge-Spring Agency and Friona Shoe Shop both moved into quarters they have been waiting to occupy for some time. Johnny Nazworth of the Shoe Shop moved his equipment from the Woodley building into the vacancy left by Ethridge-Spring.

The first of this week he reported that he thought everything was about ready to go back into operation, although he had had some difficulties getting his equipment re-wired and ready to go.

Ethridge-Spring moved one door south to the office space formerly occupied by the Friona post office. These completely remodeled quarters in the T. J. Crawford building now give the local firm more than double the floor space they had in their old office.

The 25x60 office has a new glass front on it, asphalt tile floors, fluorescent lighting, a tile ceiling, and two glassed-in offices toward the rear.

The offices are heated and cooled by a central combination unit. Dan Ethridge announces that they plan to have an open house in the near future.

★ THEY GET A BANG OUT OF GOING

No wonder this area is always represented at the Texas State Teachers Association meetings. Those who go always seem to get such a bang out of it.

The latest to get his kicks while attending such a meeting is Kenneth Fields, who was in Houston last week as a representative from Parmer County to the TSTA.

Fields, local grade school principal, collided with another car while in Texas' biggest city, and returned home with a knocked-down left front fender.

Although details of the mishap are somewhat obscure for the reason that Fields was traveling alone at the time, it was understood no one in either car was injured.

Four years ago, Lyndon Sanders, then a Friona teacher, was at the meeting when TSTA convened in El Paso. He also had a smashup.

Lee H. Sudderth Suffers Stroke

Lee H. Sudderth was taken to Parmer County Community Hospital in Friona Monday morning after he had suffered a stroke. He was placed under an oxygen tent and his condition is improved. A Tuesday report from relatives was that the oxygen tent had been removed and he is improving steadily.

Weekend guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Nazworth were Mr. and Mrs. Verne Nazworth and Charlotte of Amarillo and Mr. and Mrs. Billy Wayne Nazworth of Hereford.

Legion Sponsors Game Nights

Because the long winter evenings offer an opportunity for men and women of the community to get together more frequently than any other time of the year, the Friona American Legion has decided to sponsor a weekly "community game night" at the Legion Hall.

This decision was reached during the monthly meeting this week, announced Russell Massey, post commander. The hall doors will be opened each Monday evening at 7 o'clock, and the community will be invited in to play dominoes, cards, or any other game they are interested in.

The Legion also is sponsoring a pre-holiday dance Saturday night of this week, also to be held in the hall. The dance, open to the public, will have an admission price of $1 per person.

Delmar Shirley, George Green, and the Green Valley Boys will provide the music.

The removal of the city offices to the new city hall, the Legion has decided to offer that portion of their building for rent, says Massey.

THE STAR'S EDITORIAL COMMENT

Weren't You Surprised?

If you, as a typical reader of The Star, weren't surprised to notice in the story on page one of this issue that the Friona Chamber of Commerce has footed the bill for over $4000 worth of community projects this year, then we'll be the ones who are surprised.

Most people have little or no conception of how much money can get tied up in so short a time when it comes to community improvement projects. This is especially true of chambers of commerce, which ordinarily rely altogether on dues and contributions for their sustenance and seldom are involved in fund-raising activities.

Such things as the summer youth program and the 50th Anniversary Celebration would not have been possible without the full backing of the local chamber, and surely, no one will argue the merits of either of these two enterprises.

Then, there are the more or less "customary" expenditures which are itemized in the story which result in some very worthwhile and needed things for the community.

In short, the Friona Chamber of Commerce is an indispensable community enterprise. And while it has done an admirable job of advertising the community, it has not advertised itself well enough, seemingly, or it would not be needing $500 just now to finish out the year.

We have an idea that if the generous people of Friona and the trade territory have just an inkling of what the Chamber has done for the community this year, there won't be any embarrassing inventories of the financial status of the chamber come January 1.

Boosting the town and nurturing activities that are wholesome and are needed mean effort and money. The effort—and a large part of the money—has already been provided by civic-minded people of the community. If you have overlooked supporting the chamber this year, and realize what good work has been done by the organization, it would be in order for you to acknowledge your appreciation this week. Money talks. Let it say "thanks" for you.

Santa Claus Due In Friona Dec. 19

Small fry of Friona will be glad to hear that Santa Claus, sponsored by the local American Legion post, will be in Friona Wednesday, December 19, to visit with them.

St. Nick is due to roll into town at 1 o'clock that day, and will first visit with children who will be in the business district to meet him.

After about an hour and a half, he will move over to the school to call on boys and girls in the elementary grades. All the while, he will be passing out treats in bags which will include candy, nuts, and fruit.

The Legion and Auxiliary are helping Santa Claus this year by offering to sack the treats he will need for the Friona appearance. Sacking the 1000 favors will be a big job, and is scheduled for Monday night, December 17.

At the same time, Legion and Aux members will have their annual Christmas feed and get-together, with the table being loaded with wild turkey, compliments of Commander Russell Massey.

Methodist Church To Have Special Waco Home Offering

The Friona Methodist Church will have a special offering December 23 for the Methodist Children's Home in Waco, Rev. Hugh Blaylock, pastor of the local church, announced this week.

This is "Methodist Home Month" for churches of Texas and New Mexico, he says, and the goal of the drive for funds is $500,000 to operate the home on next year. "The local church will make their offering in the form of a cash 'White Christmas' at the annual Christmas tree and program in the church," says Rev. Blaylock. This will be Sunday evening, December 23, and each member of each family will present individual offerings at the altar during the special program.

Hollis Horton is chairman of the committee on hospitals and homes of the church. Serving with him are Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. Billy Sides.

Mr. and Mrs. Bonnie Wilson and children were weekend visitors in Fort Worth.

Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Chitwood, Dixie Lynn and Billy Bert spent the weekend at Dodge City, Kansas.

Eighth Graders Set Date For Play

The eighth grade class of the Friona school will present a fast-moving, three-act farce comedy in the auditorium at 8 p. m., December 14. Proceeds from the play will be used to defray the cost of the graduation of the class at the close of school.

The cast is composed of five boys and five girls. Don Duby is directing and Karen Treider is his assistant. Members of the class are enthusiastic about the play and invite everyone to be present for 2½ hours of laughs.

Those having parts in the play are Joyce Whitten who plays Nora Malone, Joe Reeve in the part of Officer Tim McGill, Pat Foster who portrays Mrs. Fanny Farnham, Jerry Rankin plays Larry Elliott, Frank Spring will be seen as Ted Hartley, and Pat Ready plays Vivian Smythe-Kersey.

Others in the cast are Bob Sanders as Uncle Aleck Twiggs, Donna Blackburn as Charlie Hopps, Cynthia Caffey who plays the part of Mrs. Caroline Smythe-Kersey, and Jobey Claborn in the role of Mortimer Smythe-Kersey.

Admission prices will be 75 cents for adults and 35 cents for students.

FRIONANS ENTER SERVICE

Billy Wayne Nazworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Nazworth, and Rex Blackburn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Blackburn, left from Amarillo Monday for service in the army. Their destination is unknown at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Hays of Memphis were Thanksgiving Day dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Crump and children. Mr. and Mrs. Hays are the parents of Mrs. Crump.

New Routine Proves Helpful

The new routine for clinic patients, which was introduced at the Parmer County Community Hospital late in October, has proved helpful to patients and hospital personnel. Under the present set-up, patients are given tentative appointments for that day.

These appointments are kept as nearly as possible except when emergencies arise. Then the patients are allowed to see the doctors in the order which the appointments were made. In the event an appointment is cancelled, the patients are moved up in the same order.

There has been some confusion due to a misunderstanding of the way the appointments are being handled, says Jim Baxter, manager. Those who are in the waiting room must wait their turn even though some patients come in who have made earlier appointments by telephone.

The cooperation of the general public is greatly appreciated by the hospital personnel, he says.

It's A Girl

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Cummings became parents of a baby girl at the Parmer County Community Hospital at 3 a. m. Thursday. She weighed 7 lbs. 13 ozs. and was named Kay Lesa. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Cummings of Friona and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Cassidy of Farwell.

Featuring music with a yuletide flavor, the Friona high school band will present a Christmas concert Tuesday evening, December 18, in the school auditorium, announces D. Fry, band director.

A total of 71 boys and girls will be in the special concert, which is scheduled to start at 8 o'clock. The program, to include about nine musical selections, will last about one hour.

Fry says the program will be chosen from the following: "Christmas March" by Hindemuth, "Songs of Faith" by Troad, "Green Sleeves" by Leonard, "Christmas Moods" by Leonard, "Little Champ March" by Mering, "Bolero Non" by Aikens, "Now Praise the Lord" by Saint James, and "Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer" from an arrangement by Hindemuth.

Firemen Will Tour Hospital Building

Members of the Friona Volunteer Fire Department will take an instructional tour of the new building of the Parmer County Community Hospital Thursday night.

Immediately following a short business session at the fire station, the group will adjourn and go to the hospital, says Charley Bainum. The meeting starts at 7:30.

"We will check the building over and learn our way around," says the chief. "Once every year we try to go through the school and the hospital to familiarize ourselves with the way the building lies."

Colored Telephones Available In Friona

Availability for the first time of color telephones in this area was announced today by Fred Mathis, district commercial manager for General Telephone Company of the Southwest, this week.

"Previously, the supply of telephones in color has been limited because of increased demand that exceeded production of the instruments. However, telephones in eight colors are now in supply," he says.

Mathis explained that a special one-time charge is made for color telephones and that no recurring charges are made each month.

Ruth Class Has Christmas Party

The Ruth Sunday School class of the First Baptist Church met at the Ralph Taylor home on West Loop for a Christmas party Monday evening. Co-hostesses with Mrs. Taylor were Mrs. J. G. Baker and Mrs. Vernon Roberts.

The meeting was opened with a prayer led by Mrs. Everet Bales. The entire group then sang "Silent Night." Mrs. Joe Douglas based her devotional entitled "The Birth of Our Saviour," on the second chapter of Luke.

Mrs. Ray Castleberry called the business meeting to order. The class voted to subscribe to two magazines for the local hospital. In lieu of a gift exchange, each member contributed to a fund for the upkeep of the Baptist Youth Camp near Floydada. The class also voted to send gifts to two girls at the Buckner Baptist Children's home at Dallas.

Refreshments of hot punch, cake, and Christmas candy were served by the hostesses to the following members: Mesdames John Wright, Joe Brown, Everet Bales, Joe Douglas, Buck Wheeler, Levirn White, Ralph Miller, Paul Fortenberry, J. T. Carroll, and Ray Castleberry.

GETS CONTROLLED HEAT

"I've cooked electrically for years, so naturally when I bought a new double oven range, it was electric. When I am working with expensive fruit cake ingredients, my baking temperature must be exact. I have found that an electric oven gives me exactly the controlled heat I want."

RANGE DOES PERFECT JOB

"The double oven model is excellent, not only in my fruit cake baking, but comes in handy for family dinners and entertaining friends. Handy, too, for quick snacks are the surface units... they're so fast. I find my new range does a perfect job whether it's a quick snack or the fully loaded ovens."

LIKES ELECTRICITY

Mrs. Henry describes her home as an electric one and she says, "We are all proud of our electric appliances which make living more enjoyable."

Postmaster Offers Mailing Suggestions

The largest holiday mail volume in history is expected to be recorded this year. Friona Postmaster Leo McLellan and his staff wish to render the best service possible this season and believe that most patrons would like to help, he says.

McLellan has several suggestions to make which should be helpful to you and at the same time help your cards, letters, and packages reach their destination safely and on time.

The first suggestion is mail your cards and packages early.

Some others which are important are:

1. Buy your stamps in advance and place them on your cards and letters before putting them in your mail box or going to the post office. Unsealed cards without writing, other than your name, may be mailed for two cents but they cannot be forwarded or returned if undelivered. Those bearing the letter rate, three cents, can be forwarded or returned if undeliverable, provided they bear your return address. All sealed cards and those containing writing must bear the letter rate of postage.

2. You can be of help to the postal employee if you will separate your cards for local and out of town delivery. When your cards are ready to be mailed, with stamps affixed, tie them in bundles with all addresses faced the same way and with the stamps in the upper right hand corner. Insert a slip of paper in each bundle on which you have written, "all for local delivery" or "all for out of town delivery."

3. If your packages are not properly wrapped and addressed they may not reach their destination, may be damaged in transit, or may be delayed in delivery. Select a sturdy container and wrap the package in good heavy paper and tie with cord or strong string. Write or print the name and address on one side only and place your return address in the upper left hand corner. It is a good idea to place a card inside the package on which your name and address has been written. Valuable packages should be insured.

4. If you live on a rural route and snow becomes a problem, please keep the approach to the mail box clear of snow or other obstructions.

If there are any other questions you would like to ask, ask your carrier or stop at the post office.

Golden Circle Class Has Christmas Party

The Golden Circle Sunday School class of the First Baptist Church had its annual Christmas party at the club house Monday evening. Husbands of the members were guests. The teacher, Mrs. T. I. Burleson, was presented a gift and the dress, which the class purchased for the orphan girl they sponsor, was displayed.

Hosts for the turkey dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Glynn Don Hughes. After dinner games were played.

Those attending, in addition to the hosts, were Messrs. and Mesdames Calvin Talley, Sam Bailey Jr., Duane Carter, Cecil Osborne, Johnny Mars, Douglas Connely, N. T. Goodnough, T. I. Burleson, Jack Shirley, Bill Sheehan, Billy Dean Baxter, and Buddy Stowers.

EXPECT REVISED PLANS

Revised plans for the new additions to the Friona Methodist Church are expected "any day now" from Butler-Kimmell, architects, in Lubbock, says Rev. Hugh Blaylock, pastor. First drafts of the addition were returned for revisions when the cost was found to be too great.

of Friona, was driving along the road between Friona and Muleshoe. In company with the male was a doe, and both deer were just south of the Hub on the west side of the road. They were north of Running Water draw.

Gene Coffman of Farwell happened along and he and Shirley chased the animals by car, but lost sight of them after a few minutes.

Shirley discovered it was the last day to hunt deer in Texas, so he obtained a license and with Fleming, tracked the deer to a field and flushed them the next morning.

No one has ever reported seeing deer that far into Parmer County before. Some have been seen to the north where the "breaks" begin, and antelope have been spotted often in the sandhills of the south. But this was the first time such game had ever been so far inland.

Spectators have speculated a lot on where the deer came from. Most seem to think they came from the rough country to the north.

Friona Invitational Basketball Tourney Starts Thursday

Today (Thursday) is the first day for the annual invitational basketball tournament at Friona Schools. The first game was scheduled to have started at 2 this afternoon between the Claude and Friona B girls.

Other games this afternoon include Bovina versus Channing, also a girls game, starting at 3:15; and Littlefield opposite Claude, a boys contest, to begin at 4:30.

Tonight, the Whitharral and Bula boys meet at 6:45, the Whitharral and Friona girls scrap at 8, and the Friona Chiefs collide with Channing starting at 9:15.

Other teams invited to the tournament include Lazbuddie and Bovina boys, and Lazbuddie and Bula girls.

Because this is so early in the season, very little information on the relative strength of the visiting teams is available, and about the only team expected to go into play with a good chance of reaching the finals are the Lazbuddie girls.

Both boys and girls grade school teams pushed to easy victories over opposition from Bovina Monday afternoon, in games played on the local court.

The girls smeared the visitors 39-7 for their second win in as many starts. They beat Farwell at Farwell last week. The boys won over Bovina 38-14 in another lopsided contest.

In the first quarter, the Friona girls jumped to an 8-1 lead, and by the half, pushed it to 22-1, Bovina being unable to score. The third quarter score was 39-7.

Pat Foster of Friona notched 25 points during the afternoon for high scoring honors. Pat Ready and Cynthia Caffey both had 4. Judy Roach of Bovina hit 5, and Penny Lloyd and Charlotte Hromas both had 1 for Bovina.

The boys shut out their opposition 12-0 the first quarter, and took an easy 21-2 lead by halftime. Third quarter score was 30-11.

Frank Spring dropped in 21 points to lead the scoring parade. He was followed by B. Daniel, also of Friona, with 4.

Five Friona Girls To Music Try-Outs

Five girls from Friona High School will be competing for nominations to the all-state choir and band at the Canyon try-outs Friday, says J. D. Fry, band director.

Phyllis Treider will shoot for both positions, while Pat Cranfill, Lila Buske, Janiece Miller, and Barbara Hock will compete for spots on the band.

State contests are February 13-16. Miss Treider was named to the all-state choir last year.

FFA Banquet Monday Night

The annual Littlefield District FFA banquet will be held Monday evening at Littlefield. Pennants will be given to each of the teams who placed in the contests held at Friona last month.

The chapter sweethearts and plowgirls from the entire district will be guests. Nancy Outland is the Friona Sweetheart and Barbara Crow is chapter plowgirl. John Hamilton, president, will be in charge of the arrangements for the Friona delegation.

3 Teams Play at Bovina

Bovina and Friona High School basketball teams split three games Tuesday night in Williford Gym in Bovina, with Bovina coming out on the short. Friona was victorious in the "A" boys game, 39-35. The girls game also showed Friona on top, 47-40. Bovina won the "B" boys game, 38-32.

Neil Smith, though he played on the losing team, was the "A" boys scoring leader as he ducked in 19 points.

Inexperience showed on both sides of the contest as the Chiefs overcome an early first quarter lead and managed to stay ahead the remainder of the way. They led 8-6 at the first turn. At the half it was 17-12. At the close of three periods, Friona led 27-25.

Other Mustangs scoring were Young with 10 and Brito with six. Weatherly and Barnett led the Chiefs in scoring. Weatherly racked up 11 and Barnett accounted for 10. They were followed by Johnson, eight; Sanders, seven; Dickson, two; and Fairchild, one.

Friona's girls trailed during the first half, caught up in the third period and added the killing blow in the final stanza in their game which preceded the boys affair. The score by quarters was Bovina 16-Friona 12; Bovina 26-Friona 24; and Bovina 31-Friona 35; Friona's Dean was high scorer. She poured in 30 points. Hand made 12, Boggess four, and Magness one. Richards led the Fillies with 17. Ezell made 10, Cumpton and Moody four each, and Leake and Berry two each.

Caldwell and Springs led the Mustang Bees in their win. They had 13 and 11 points respectively. Roden and Rhodes were high scorers for Friona. Rhoden tossed in 14 and Rhodes made eight.

Announcement was made at the Monday evening meeting of the board of directors of the Parmer County Community Hospital that a bronze plaque, which was a gift from the architects who designed the building, has been received. The plaque bears the name of the hospital and the names of the directors.

Butler & Kimmell of Lubbock purchased the plaque and it will be placed in the vestibule of the building. The words "In Memory of Floyd T. Schlenker" are also inscribed on the plaque.

Routine business was discussed at the meeting. Those present were G. B. Buske, Sloan H. Osborn, Carl Schlenker, and A. W. Anthony Jr.

FFA Boys and Advisor To State Contest

The FFA chapter will have six members at the state contest in Huntsville this weekend. The junior farm skill team, which is composed of Don Clements, Gerald Daniel, Jimmie Bainum, and Ronnie Wood will leave Friona this afternoon (Thursday).

This team will compete in the state contest. Accompanying them are J. T. Gee, chapter advisor, and Gerald Floyd, secretary. Gee will be a judge in the senior farm skill contest. The group plans to return to Friona Monday.

This will be the Friona FFA chapter's fifth time to have an entry in the state contest. In the past seven years, five senior teams have placed 1st twice, 2nd once, and 3rd once. This is the first time a junior team has ever entered state competition.

The junior teams are always picked from the Greenhands in the chapter.

It has not been too many years since the area of the country in which we live was designated in history text books as "The Great American Desert." To those of us who see the crops that are produced now, it seems almost impossible that this section of the country could have been so described.

Yet, if we stop to think what this same section would produce without irrigation, we see a different picture. Have you ever thought about the probability that the same title might be applicable again?

Could anyone drive down toward Lubbock and look at the large concrete pipe which is being put in from a location near Muleshoe to Lubbock without being concerned?

Just how many gallons of water will run through that water line in 24 hours we do not know, but we do know that it would be a lot of water.

Will there be more pipelines in other directions? That is another thing which we don't know. It is a fact that civilization is impossible without water. Most authorities agree that our water supply is not inexhaustible. Without water, what would the land be worth?

Several Friona men are taking advantage of the Thanksgiving holiday as a good hunting day. A few have gone south to the Big Bend country to hunt deer and a lot more are hunting ducks in the local area.

The Glen Stevicks are building another new house just north of the one where they live now. The F. W. Holcombs will move into the one the Stevicks now occupy as soon as Stevicks move into the new one.

Ella Faye Holcomb says it will be an unusual happening if they ever have a telephone in the directory under their name. Think this makes about four years they have moved right away after the new telephone directories were printed.

Our nearest neighbor, Bessie Roien, was somewhat concerned about having to be hospitalized at Hereford last week when she hasn't yet been a patient in our new hospital. It just happened that she was stricken ill while in Hereford and unable to return to Friona.

The new city office is so nice. We know all the employees will enjoy their new quarters. There is one section of the new building (the one in the north center) that we doubt anyone will be proud to occupy.

Six Friona residents will be at Huntsville this weekend for the state FFA leadership contests. This is the first time Friona has ever had a junior farm skill team in the state contest and we are hoping this team comes home with a first place banner.

Think the idea of having an eighth grade play is new here, but we like it. There is nothing we enjoy more than watching plays in which the actors are people we know. The play which the eighth graders plan to present soon is a three act comedy entitled, "Here Comes Charley."

Our city has a new CPA. As far as we know, this is the first time there has ever been one here. His name is Robert Ginsburg and he moved to Friona from Amarillo. The Ginsburgs live in Fred Carson's rent house.

Do wish some of you girls would begin early by suggesting that you want some Pearl on hose for Christmas. We have been reading about them for just about a year now, but haven't seen any yet. Maybe if the local merchants get some they will at least let us take a look at them.

Carsons Return

Mr. and Mrs. David Carson returned Wednesday after spending a week visiting and sightseeing at Brownsville, Corpus Christi, Houston, and Dallas.

Mrs. Albert Rolan returned home Tuesday after spending several days as a medical patient in the Deaf Smith County Hospital at Hereford. Mrs. Rolan became ill while attending the wrestling matches at the Deaf Smith Coliseum Saturday evening.

MR. AND MRS. ROSS KENT MILLER—Wedding vows were exchanged between Miss Nelda Sharon May and Ross Kent Miller at the First Baptist Church in Friona Saturday evening.

NELDA MAY BECOMES BRIDE OF ROSS K. MILLER IN CHURCH CEREMONY

Wedding vows were read for Nelda Sharon May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hardy L. May, and Ross Kent Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy V. Miller Sr., at the First Baptist Church in Friona, Saturday, November 24 at 7:30 p. m. M. B. McKinney, minister of the Sixth Street Church of Christ, read the double ring ceremony.

Soloists were Mary Lou Miller of O'Donnell, sister of the bridegroom, and Don Lewis. Harold Phillips of Clovis was organist. Sally Osborn was maid of honor and Linda Miller, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Johnnie Parker of Hereford, and Mrs. Rex Blackburn were her other attendants.

The bride's attendants were all identically attired in moonlight satin sheath dresses with matching gathered net overskirts. Their blue lace hats featured circular net veils. They carried crescent arrangements of white chrysanthemums tied with blue satin ribbon and net.

Lark Jarrell, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl. Her dress was identical to those worn by the bride's other attendants. Johnny Miller, brother of the bridegroom, and Arlen May, brother of the bride, lighted the candles.

Roy V. Miller Jr., brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and groomsmen were Harold Joe Wells, Clyde Timms, and Max Wells.

The neckline and sleeves were edged with pearls. The tiered skirt was of scalloped lace. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a tiara of pearls, and her bouquet was of white rosebuds and stephanotis.

A reception was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Newman Jarrell Sr. immediately following the ceremony. Assisting Mrs. Jarrell were Mesdames Sterling Graham, Roy V. Miller Jr., and Newman Jarrell Jr. Guests were registered by Misses Donna and Janice Miller, sisters of the bridegroom. The bride's table was laid with white lace over blue satin and appointed with crystal candle holders. The cake was white with four tiers and was decorated with blue flowers and topped with a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Roy V.

Miller Jr. presided at the punch bowl. Mr. and Mrs. Miller, who are both graduates of Friona High School, will be at home north of town where Miller is farming.

Days Visit In Central Texas

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Day and daughter, Geraldene, returned Sunday after spending several days visiting relatives and friends in Central Texas. At Dallas they were guests in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. James Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Oliver, and Mrs. J. S. Oliver. James and Frank Oliver are Mrs. Day's brothers and Mrs. J. S. Oliver is her mother.

They also visited Mr. and Mrs. David Hester and daughter at Fort Worth and Mr. and Mrs. Haywood Vaughn and daughter at Arlington. In Whitney they visited Day's father, J. R. Day, and his uncle, Bob Rainbolt.

And he's helpless to do anything about it - until, when he grows up, he has to take off and try to find opportunity somewhere else ... in the far places where his neighbors have scattered the community substance which Providence entrusted to their care.

We often hear folks around here complaining that our young people nearly always have to hunt their fortunes in other places because we don't have opportunities for them.

Home-spent dollars create those opportunities ... help to keep our sons and daughters content and prosperous in our own midst.

Let's Give Our Junior Citizens a Better Break

Small communities ... like this one of ours ... are the finest places in the world for youngsters to grow up. They are the strongholds of the real American way of life and our country's greatest source of leadership.

Away from the regimented bee-hive life of the cities, a child has a better chance to develop the broad and independent viewpoint that makes useful leaders.

But ... if we keep our small communities intact, with good schools and churches and comfortable living standards, we're going to have to slow down on the Great Give-Away ... small town people giving away their community assets to Big-City business.

Tests Are Complete For Hybrid Sorghum

Extensive testing of the new hybrid grain sorghums with common varieties under identical conditions has been accomplished in Parmer County this year, and the results of the tests have just been compiled by County Agent Joe Jones, who directed them.

In each case, all of the varieties grown were produced under identical conditions in order that a true comparison could be made. "Our aim was one of comparison only and we did not seek maximum yields," Jones says. "The main thing was to see how hybrids and other varieties yield under identical conditions."

Even though maximum yields were not the goal of the tests, many good reports were turned in. One plot of Texas 660 in Lazbuddie yielded over 7300 pounds for Edd Steinbock.

All representative soil types of the county were included in the scattered tests, from sandy to the tight clays. Planting dates, fertilization, and water applied varied widely, which helped give a good cross-section for the project.

Seed for the tests was obtained from the experiment station at Lubbock explicitly for these purposes. The DeKalb seed used in the experiments was furnished partly by Jones and partly by area seed dealers.

ers. "You can draw your own conclusions from the results," comments the agent. "All the crops were either interplanted or planted side-by-side with testing varieties."

Here are the results: T. E. LOVETT—north of Friona. Planted June 9. All bloomed August 8 except Martin's, which bloomed July 25. All harvested October 8. Texas 610 yielded 3110; 620, 3520; 660, 3520; and Martin's, 2780.

No fertilizer was used. The land was pre-watered, and the crop was watered twice after it came up.

EDD STEINBOCK—east of Lazbuddie. Planted June 9. Texas hybrid 590, bloomed August 10, harvested October 12, yielded 6185. Texas 610 bloomed August 6, harvested October 12, yielded 5042. Texas 620, bloomed August 14, harvested November 5, yielded 5728. Texas 660, bloomed August 26, harvested November 5, yielded 7357. Redlan Kafir, planted May 8, bloomed August 5, harvested October 12, yielded 6105.

Steinbock also had 33 acres of 620 which yielded 5889. All sorghums watered five times and fertilized by side dressing with 80 pounds anhydrous ammonia after crop was up.

GILBERT KALTWASSER—northwest Lariat. Planted May 11. Texas 590, bloomed July 15, harvested September 20, yielded 3450, moisture 13.02. Texas 660, bloomed July 10, harvested September 20, yielded 4175, moisture 12.07. Texas 620, bloomed July 23, harvested September 20, yielded 4600, moisture 18.08. Texas 660, bloomed July 28, harvested October 25, yielded 3840. DeKalb F-62, bloomed July 25, harvested September 20, yielded 3950, moisture 17.04. DeKalb E-56, bloomed July 20, harvested September 20, yielded 3950, moisture 14.04. Martin's, bloomed July 15, harvested September 20, yielded 4505, moisture 21. Caprock, bloomed July 28, harvested October 25, yielded 3540.

Check plots were planted eight rows hybrid, eight rows of the checking variety, alternating all the way across the plot. The land had 200 pounds of 20 per cent phosphate and 60 pounds of anhydrous ammonia applied prior to planting. All sorghums watered four times.

LEON LANGFORD—seven miles north Farwell. Planted May 13. Harvested September 24. Texas hybrid 590, bloomed July 13, yielded 2875. Texas 610, bloomed July 13, yielded 3075. Texas 620, bloomed July 17, yielded 3060. Texas 660, bloomed July 28, yielded 3575. DeKalb D-50, bloomed July 10, yielded 3100. Caprock, bloomed July 30, yielded 4000.

Hybrids planted side by side and Caprock used as check crop, planted to each side of the hybrids. Not interplanted. Used 80 pounds of anhydrous ammonia. Watered 590, 610, and D-50 three times — remainder four times.

RENE SNEAD — Hub. Planted May 9. Texas 590, bloomed July 15, harvested September 21, yielded 5166, moisture 11.15. Texas 611, bloomed July 20, harvested September 21, yielded 4545, moisture 11.12. Texas 620, bloomed July 19, harvested October 1, yielded 5376, moisture 11.38. Texas 660, bloomed July 23, harvested October 6, yielded 6427, moisture 11.49.

Martin's, bloomed July 13, harvested September 13, yielded 4680, moisture 12.44. Caprock, bloomed August 1, harvested October 6, yielded 5610, moisture 11. Hybrids planted eight rows and check variety eight rows all across 15-acre block. Two varieties used as check varieties. Caprock planted beside 660, Martin's interplanted between all other varieties. All land had 66 pounds 82 per cent anhydrous ammonia. All pre-watered. Martin's had three irrigations, all other four irrigations.

CECIL WINEGEART—Oklahoma Lane. Planted June 15. Texas 610, bloomed July 20, harvested September 3, yielded 4052, moisture 12. Texas 620, bloomed July 30, harvested October 11, yielded 3412, moisture 13. Texas 660, bloomed August 15, harvested October 11, yielded 3625, moisture 17. Martin's, bloomed July 30, harvested September 20, yielded 3200, moisture 13. Land was pre-watered once. Sorghums watered three times after up. No fertilizer used.

Cotton Allotment Increased in County

Parmer County cotton farmers have received a 1452-acre increase in 1957 cotton allotments, according to Prentice Mills, office manager of the county ASC. The increase boosts the number of acres to 43,298 compared with last year's 41,846.

The allotments were mailed out to 1054 cotton farmers in the county last Friday.

determining the individual acreage allotments the county ASC committee used the "history" method, which is based on the amount of cotton grown by each farmer during the past three years, Mills says.

It was pointed out that no farmer who grew cotton last year received a smaller allotment than in 1956, and some of them received an increase.

Of the old cotton growers, no one received fewer than 15 acres, and those who have grown cotton in the past at all, did not receive fewer than 10 acres, the ASC manager says.

To be placed in the county reserve, being held back for new grower applicants, is 450 acres. This is considerably less than last year when 1013 acres were placed in reserve. It was estimated that 50 or 60 farmers in Parmer County will be eligible for new acreage this year.

Voting Tuesday

Cotton growers have an important decision to make on Tuesday, December 11, Joe Magness, chairman of the Parmer County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation committee, reminds farmers.

On that day, growers will vote on a referendum to decide whether marketing quotas will be in effect for their 1957 upland cotton crop. All farmers who engaged in the production of upland cotton in 1956 will be eligible to vote in the referendum.

"If at least two-thirds of the growers voting approve the quotas, marketing quotas will be in effect on all farms growing upland cotton in 1957, penalties will apply on excess cotton, and price supports to those growers who comply with their cotton acreage allotments will be available at the full level of effective supports," Magness explains.

Under current legislation, this support will be between 75 and 90 percent of parity, the minimum level within this range depending upon the supply situation at the time the determination is made.

If more than one-third of the growers disapprove quotas, there will be no marketing quotas or penalties, but price supports to eligible growers (who comply with their allotments) will be available at 50 percent of parity.

"In either case, acreage allotments will continue in effect for 1957 cotton crop as a means of determining eligibility for price supports," Magness says.

The chairman pointed out that the secretary of agriculture is directed to proclaim marketing quotas for the next upland cotton crop when the cotton supply exceeds normal. Quotas are not put into operation, however, unless they are approved by at least two-thirds of the growers voting in a referendum on the question.

SCD News

The Parmer County Soil Conservation District supervisors held their regular meeting for the month of November in Farwell last week. The meeting was called to order at 2 p. m.

Supervisors present were A. L. Black, chairman; Joe Blair, secretary and treasurer; Matt Jesko, member; and Carl Schlenker, member. Others present were Steve Messenger, clerk; Joe Jones, county agent; and J. D. Sanders of the Soil Conservation Service.

The schedule of business included presentation of the annual audit report which was reviewed and approved by the board.

A discussion was held on equipment rental rates and it was voted to set gross seeder price at a price of 30c per acre or minimum of $5 a day.

Eight basic soil and water conservation plans were approved by the supervisors. They were on the C. E. Warner, Mrs. F. T. Schlenker, Sam Aldridge, John Armstrong, Grady King, E. O. Johnston, George Haskins, and J. P. Miller farms.

Supervisors election for Zone 3 is to be held when cotton harvest slows down. The meeting adjourned at 3:30.

Many farmers in the district are in the process of preparing land for next year's crop. This consists mostly of shredding crop residues and mulching them into the soil surface.

Now is a good time to apply a nitrogen type fertilizer to speed up the decomposition of these plant residues. By so doing they will be in the form of organic matter or humus by planting time next spring.

When moldboarding, care should be taken not to completely cover residues and destroy the protection they afford.

THE PARMER FARMER

Probably destined to become one of the most popular "wall pieces" on the Plains is a just-published map of the High Plains area from the Water District.

It occupies the center spread of "The Cross Section," a monthly publication of the District. In three colors, this map shows more vividly than any yet published just where the underground water on the Plains is in storage.

Varying thicknesses of the water-bearing formation (the Ogallala) are indicated by contrasting hues, and although the map is actually no more than a refresh of what has been published by the District, this presentation in color imparts a new perspective to the entire irrigation picture on the Plains.

The most obvious, and most gratifying, part about the map is that it shows conclusively, and in tones that anyone with half an eye can spot across the room, that Parmer County has more water in storage than any other spot on the entire irrigated Plains area.

Conscious by their lack of color are two Plains counties—Hale and Swisher—that have chosen to remain outside our water district, and consequently, their resources are not shown.

It is possible, however, to theorize on the contents of these counties by mental projection of the surrounding counties' formations into an approximation of their contents.

Hale could not possibly have the big deposits of sand over 400 feet in thickness that the map credits to Parmer County, except by geologic freak, which is very unlikely. The area around Hale and Swisher counties seems to indicate that the average thickness is more likely to be between 200 and 300 feet.

These maps will make exciting displays on the walls of real estate men and others interested in the market value of our natural resources. These maps show more clearly than anything ever published that the western High Plains of which Parmer County is the heart, contain the lion's share of underground water deposits.

With an economy geared to agriculture and agriculture linked steadfastly to irrigation, what could be more important?

The map also shows why Lubbock and other South Plains areas are gasping for water. Most of their underground sands are less than 200 feet thick. It's an amazing story, and one you ought to get ahold of.

We have an order in now for 100 reprints of this fine map.

Ginning estimates for Texas this year have been upped to over 2,000,000 bales. That is twice as much as any other state. Mississippi is second with 1,508,000, and Arkansas expects 1,258,000.

If farmers aren't scared of high-priced labor, they had better get that way. No doubt you can remember when a loaf of bread sold for 11 cents. What do you pay today? About twice that much?

Wheat, the essential ingredient for bread, is practically the same price it was when bread was selling for 11 cents a loaf. The main reason that the price has almost doubled is increased costs in baking and getting it transported and sold, and these costs boil down to one thing: labor.

If the price of wheat dropped to zero, a loaf of bread would still cost more than 15 cents!

PCG Backs Changes In Cotton Classing

Woodrow Fleming, Friona, and A. L. Hartzog, Bovina, county directors of the Plains Cotton Growers, announced this week that the PCG was backing the eight changes recently recommended for improving of cotton classing for South Plains farmers.

The directors explained the eight recommendations were made unanimously at a meeting held in Lubbock November 29 attended by representatives of the PCG, the South Plains Farmer-Ginner committee, South Plains Ginner Association, Farm Bureau, Farmers Union, and businesses.

The eight specific recommendations the group listed as favoring the improvement of the cotton classing were:

1. Establishment of uniform humidity equipment in all classing offices in this area, whether it be the Lubbock office or other newly established offices, and that cotton be allowed to condition 12 to 24 hours before classing is done.
2. Multiple classing offices be considered for this area. W. O. Fortenberry, president of PCG, appointed a committee to study this program and report later.
3. Samples of bales taken at both gins and compresses were discussed and the group voted for more uniform samples regardless of where taken and also recommended that the ultimate goal be the taking of automatic samples from gins.
4. Recommended the return to use of the class or "pink" sheet by the classing office and that each classer be given a code number and it be placed on the sheet.

5. Establishment of a classing review board composed of one qualified classer each to represent the farmer, the cotton trade and the government, and the grade given by this board be a final grade.

6. The date entered on the green card be the date the sample was received at the cotton classing office instead of the date the cotton was actually classed.

7. The Commodity Credit Corporation recognize and set a value for light spotted cotton in the government loan.

8. This group as a body opposes any proposed change of the average grade and staple from 7/8 inch to 1 inch in the government cotton program.

The group also discussed a meeting next spring or summer in Lubbock to which USDA classing officials from Washington should be invited to discuss rules and regulations which will govern classing of cotton for the next season.

The cotton representatives also went on record as endorsing the Smith-Doxey program and pointed out the recommendations made were done so only with an eye towards improving the program and not as a criticism.

THE HAPPY HOMEMAKER

Since the holiday season is just around the corner and it is later than most of us think, perhaps it would be a good idea for us to get out our favorite recipes and turn our kitchens into gift making shops for an evening or two or three.

Candies, cookies, puddings, and cakes make very nice gifts for just about anyone on your list. Any of them would be especially appreciated for the brothers, sons, nephews, or friends who are in Uncle Sam's services and will not get holiday leaves. Of course, it is too late for overseas mailing, but there is still time to mail packages inside the U. S.

Candy making isn't one of the things we do well, but we do have several recipes that are absolutely fool proof. One is for peanut brittle.

Mix 2 cups sugar, 3/4 cup corn syrup, 1/4 cup water and a few grains of salt in a heavy sauce pan and cook until sugar melts. Then add 2 cups raw peanuts and cook without stirring until mixture reaches hard crack stage. Remove from heat and stir in 4 teaspoons soda quickly mixing well so candy will puff up. Pour onto buttered platter and break into pieces when cold.

Refrigerator fudge is another kind which always turns out just right. Combine 3/4 cups undiluted evaporated milk and 2 1/4 cups sugar in heavy saucepan. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly until mixture boils. Turn heat low, cook 10 minutes, stirring constantly to prevent scorching. Remove from heat, immediately add 12 oz. chocolate chips, 1/3 cup Karo syrup, 2 tablespoons butter, and 1 teaspoon vanilla. Stir until chocolate chips melt and fudge is smooth and creamy. Stir in nuts and mix well. Pour into buttered 8x8x2 pan and chill in refrigerator 1 to 2 hours. Cut into desired shapes. This recipe makes about 2 1/2 pounds.

If you have a very special chair, bench or stool that you hesitate to dispose of that needs a new bottom, here is an idea you might use. Discarded nylon hose may be laced and woven together to make a substantial bottom. After being padded and upholstered, the bottom is not visible.

Graef outlined the program which includes the national president of Farmers Union, James G. Patton of Denver; John C. White, state commissioner of agriculture; G. G. Gibson, director Extension Service, Texas A&M College; and Jerry Holleman, executive secretary, Texas Federation of Labor, as well as a number of congressmen, state senators and representatives who plan to address or greet the convention delegates and visitors.

Graef stressed that the convention is open to all farmers and ranchers and to the general public.

"Farmers Union was the only national farm organization in this country that did not back flexible sliding scale price supports in the last session of congress," he says. "Farmers Union has stood unalterably behind 100% price supports on all farm commodities produced on family type farms in America."

NEWS FROM THE FARM BUREAU

By RAYMOND EULER

If you have wanted an opportunity to help someone who needed food and clothing desperately, here it is: You can give through at least three different agencies that we know of, namely, The American Red Cross, CARE, and CROP. Gifts to the Red Cross and CARE can be addressed simply to the Postmaster. Gifts to CROP should be addressed to 504 West 24th Street, Austin 5, Texas. CARE and CROP are agencies that use your contributions to ship surplus milk and other food products to needy areas of foreign countries.

All three agencies are presently directing emergency aid to Hungary, Austria and other countries so recently overrun by war over which they had no control. CROP welcomes used, but useable clothing of all kinds, to be shipped to needy areas. If you should have gifts of this nature, we would be glad to assist you in preparing and shipping them.

Cotton exports from the United States are expected to be about 6.5 million bales, compared to 2.2 million exported last year. This result partly because of accelerated export effort through use of Public Law 480, a Farm Bureau accomplishment.

Some advisors advise holding cotton for probable higher markets accelerated by international unrest and the Eastern war situation. This advice would hold for other agricultural products, too.

So far as we have been able to determine, the party from Parmer County planning on attending the American Farm Bureau Convention in Miami next week consists of the following: Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Anthony and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Anthony Sr., who left Monday by automobile, and Raymond Euler who is scheduled to leave Amarillo Saturday night by air. Among other things the men of the party plan a trip to Cuba while in the Miami vicinity.

Consider this: The rod and reproof give wisdom: but a child left to himself bringeth his mother to shame. Proverbs 29:15.

Rental Equipment Available

Farmers can rent equipment from the Parmer County Soil Conservation district that will be useful in many soil conservation practices, it was revealed this week.

Fifteen pieces of equipment are scattered through the county, and put needed items within easy reach of most farmers interested in renting them.

The list includes a Hancock grass seeder and a Hancock legume seeder at the Ronald Berggren farm west of Bovina. The grass seeder rents for 30 cents per acre or a $5 minimum; the legume seeder rents for 25 cents per acre.

At Bovina Farm Chemical, there is a 7-foot land plane available for $7.50 per day, and from Roy Crawford at Bovina may be obtained a weed poison sprayer for $4 daily.

A 9-foot land plane and a weed poison spreader rent for $10 and $4 per day, respectively, and may be found on the C. L. Callaway farm 12 miles west of Friona.

The Friona FFA is keeping a 9-foot land plane that also rents for $10 a day, and A. L. Black has an identical piece of equipment at the same rent, plus a Hancock legume seeder for 25 cents per acre, an Engler scraper for $4 a day, and a weed poison spreader also for $4 per day. Black lives four miles east of Hub.

Joe Blair at Farwell has a 9-foot land plane for $10 a day, and a Hancock legume seeder for 25 cents per acre. The Lazbuddie FFA has a Hancock grass seeder for 50 cents per acre or a $5 minimum, plus a 9-foot land plane for $10 per day.

Graef Is President Of Lazbuddie FU

Clayton Graef has been elected president of the Lazbuddie local of Farmers Union. James Welch serves with him as vice-president and Wyle M. Bullock is secretary-treasurer.

At a recent meeting of the group, Luther Ham was named legislative director, Harold Wilson, recreation director; Pete Mimms, co-op director; Demp Foster, junior leader; Buster Jones, education director, Wesley Barnes, head of organization; and T. O. Lesly heads publicity.

The 30 members present examined the state resolutions and formed some of their own, although most of the state planks were accepted with minor changes. Among the resolutions is one calling for 100 percent of parity, and one opposing any state sales tax.

Fertilizer Research Planned at Station

"The purpose of the proposed fertilizer research program at the High Plains Station of Texas Research Foundation is to obtain information required for economic usage of fertilizers on High Plains irrigated soils. "Economic usage" means maximum returns per dollar spent for fertilizer," says Dr. T. C. Longnecker, chief soil scientist of the station.

Due to tremendous increase in irrigation during the past 10 years and subsequent high production of crops, soils of the High Plains are decreasing in fertility to the extent that fertilizer is becoming important for maximum economic production.

The experiments proposed at the research farm will be designed to answer questions such as: How much and what kind to apply, when to apply, how deep should the fertilizer be put and what is the best method of application? In addition to the test plots at Halfway, test areas in other locations over the High Plains will be established. These test areas will give the answers to the fertilizer question in those localities.

"It is in the interest of every farmer during this period when he is feeling such an economic squeeze that he produce maximum net returns from each acre. The fertilizer research program at the High Plains station will produce the information needed to get this maximum net return through wise use of fertilizer," says Dr. Longnecker.

Apply NITROGEN This Fall

Use Phillips 66 AGRICULTURAL AMMONIA — contains 82% nitrogen!

Get nitrogen-plus by applying Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia to corn stalks and other crop residues this fall. That way, you'll store the 82% nitrogen in the soil, which will in turn break down crop residues—for extra plant food to help increase your profit per acre next year.

Save time and trouble, too, by applying Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia this fall—instead of next Spring when your work load is heaviest.

See us right away about fall-applying Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia—for increased profit per acre and lower unit production costs next year.
